Nursing Home News

by Bobbie Hogue

Last Friday was the monthly Bingo games for the Nursing Home residents. A lobby full of people turned out to play. Alene Line won several points over the previous champ, Jennie Garland. The next Bingo party will be the big game, and the person who binged the most during the past three months will receive a grand prize. The monthly bingo date has been set every first Wednesday in the month.

Newcomers to our home this week are Jim Bartlett, Robert Williams, Earnest Gonzales, and Florence Childress.

Williams comes to us from Muleshoe. Jim is going to be with us for a while until his father recovers from having surgery. We welcome all of these folks to our home.

Filling in a vacancy Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fidel Salazar sang some songs for the folks. They are from Petersburg. Gladys Brock, Charlene Webb and Rosevelt Gentry did a great job of singing for us Sunday week. The first Sunday in every month is given to these folks to come and sing for us. There is no preaching at these services, but you will certainly enjoy the singing.

Our monthly birthday party will be held today (Thursday) at 2:30 p.m. in the lobby. Those to be honored are Katie Nieman, 93, Andrew Howard, 87, Rose Patterson, 83, Josephina Banda, 66, Florence Stevenson, 87, Emilie Stewart, 77, and Mecca Davis, 82.

Mrs. Roberta Clark, Vivian Rucker, Mrs. Louis Mosser, Gladys Richardson and myself will be hosting the party. The Crews sent out a big turkey to be baked in honor of Mrs. Pool's birthday last month. Rev. Jordan from Southland brought in a lot of good magazines to read. If someone would like to take on a good project, several of our residents need towel bibs. These are made from hand towels and are worn at meal-time to protect their clothes. Curtis Wilkins is still busy painting our rooms. We look forward to having the work finished in the near future.

Clark Participating in Delivering Prisoners

Major Mary Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Clark of Slaton, and 1945 graduate of Slaton High School, is a registered nurse stationed at Travis Air Force Base in California. She has been in service for 16 years, and recently wrote to her parents here of one of the most outstanding days in her career. Below, we quote from her letter, feeling that she can tell it better than we can.

"Yesterday (March 4) was really one of the most exciting days of my life. Actually stepped on the Communist grounds there at Hanoi for a few seconds. It was one of the most rewarding days for many of us in the military, the 106 men we picked up, as well as all of us who had a part in bringing them from Hanoi to Clark AFB (Philippines). It shall be a day I'll never forget. We had 28 men on the plane I was on. I have 27 Connolly dollar bills autographed by them. I missed one. It is absolutely unexplainable how they react to us that have a part in their lives. I shall have those on the plane taking 20 of the prisoners to the States as far as I can. I really gave them a warm welcome here!"

FOOT NOTES

BY MARGRET BARTLEY

It's been a while since I saw a sandstorm like the one we had here Tuesday, and I won't be unhappy if it is another long while before I see another one. The winds were so high during the afternoon, gusting to 60-70 miles an hour. Awnings were blown off service stations, glass was broken out of numerous buildings, and several mobile homes were blown over. Two were reported to have been blown off trailers transporting them from Slaton to Lubbock. Several lightweight metal storage houses in the city were also flattened by the high winds.

One woman was blown off her feet as she was walking off a curb, suffering a skinned knee and lifelong injuries to her ego. The sand was so thick that the spectacle was not witnessed by many folks.

I took a little trip over the weekend to the green greens of East Texas, and after a look at the water, green grass, trees and flowers, it was certainly disappointing to come home to a sandstorm!

Most folks I know have kids, and most of the kids around here are playing in the Little Dribblers Basketball program in Slaton. So, there sure have been a lot of basketball fans this last week. It may seem silly to get excited over the 9-12 year-olds playing, but, as I found out Tuesday night (when my daughter played her first game) it doesn't make any difference how old they are if that's YOUR KID out there! Those little ones really get after it, and maybe they don't know all the rules and tricks to the game, but they sure try hard. I was amazed that one little girl in the 11-12 year olds made 48 points in one ballgame. Then one of the 9 year olds made 36 in a game Tuesday night. She threw the ball straight up, without touching the backboard, and it dropped right in the basket. A star is born! . . . Even if you don't have children playing, it would be a treat to go out and watch them some night. Games are scheduled on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday nights, and includes both boys and girls.

If you still need pine trees, the Chamber of Commerce still have lots to offer. The sale has gone so good, they now offer at least two trees for the price of one (which is $1) and may throw in an extra. So if you can use them, the best buy in the area on Ponderosa Pine trees is at your Chamber of Commerce office.

The Slaton Classroom teachers are having an adult volleyball tournament this week in the high school gym. Play begins tonight, Friday and Saturday night at 6 p.m. Go out and watch, even if you don't play.

Pierce Is Duer Award Nominee

FRANK SUTTON, well-known T. V., movie, and stage star, arrived in Lubbock, Monday, to begin rehearsals for the Hayloft Dinner Theater production of "Norman, Is That You?" Preview nights will be Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, March 20, 21, and 22. Frank became famous from Coast to Coast for his five year stint as Sergeant Carter, the funniest Sergeant in the Marine Corps on "Gomer Pyle, USMC."

Larry Pierce, Arkansas Tech cross country and track team member, is the District 17 nominee for the A. G. Duer scholarship award presented annually in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The nomination was announced by Auburn Smith of Southern State College, Magnolia, Arkansas, district chairman.

Pierce, a junior vocal major in music education, has compiled a 3.94 grade-point average out of a possible 4.00. He sings bass in the Tech choirs and is a member of the Music Educators National Association. He is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Nolan Pierce of Slaton. Rev. Pierce is the pastor of the First Christian Church here.

The award named in honor of a longtime executive secretary of the NAIA is presented to the outstanding junior athlete among the association's 560 - member institutions. Scholarship is the prime criterion. Character and citizenship also have an important bearing in the judging, according to Smith.

Tech track coach Dr. John Montgomery describes Larry as a "solid individual who carries heavy responsibilities both in athletics and academics."

Pierce is in competition with representatives of thirty other districts in the United States and Canada. The award, which includes $300 in cash to be used for tuition or other approved college expenses, will be presented Friday, March 16, at the Hilliard Hall of Fame Luncheon, a highlight of the annual NAIA convention in Kansas City.

Pierce is the second Tech student to represent District 17. Roy Eoff, a former Tech football player, won the Duer Award in 1970.

Doctor's Fee

Harold's wife died shortly after undergoing an operation. When a bill arrived from the surgeon, Harold decided not to pay. In due course, the matter wound up in court.

"Obviously, the operation was a failure," Harold pointed out to the judge. "Why should I have to pay for services that were useless?"

However, the court ordered him to pay up. The court said a doctor's services are to be measured by the quality of his work, not merely by the results—and this doctor had performed the operation in a proper manner.

"The marvelous skill of the greatest surgeons in the world," added the judge, "is sometimes futile."

This case states the general rule of law about medical fees. Furthermore, unless a specific sum has been agreed upon in advance, the doctor generally has considerable leeway within reason—in deciding how high the fee will be.

May he take into account the patient's ability to pay? That is, may he charge a higher fee to a rich patient than to a poor one? Most courts say yes, sometimes on the theory that high-paying work will allow him to take on more low-paying work.

Nevertheless, the basic standard of due care remains constant, whether the fee is large or small or even nonexistent. In one early case, a doctor was accused of neglecting a charity patient. In his defense, he insisted that he had less responsibility to be careful when he was working for nothing.

But the court disagreed, and held him liable on grounds of malpractice.

The judge commented: "Whether the patient be a pauper or a millionaire, whether he be treated gratuitously or for reward, the physician owes him precisely the same measure of duty and the same degree of skill and care."

AROUND THE FIRE HOUSE

Slaton Firemen voted last week to endorse the Tot-Finder Program in Slaton. This program of Fire Rescue is being endorsed by the Slaton Fire Department to further promote fire safety.

No charge is made for the service. The program works like this: Based on a highly-visible decal that marks a child's room or that of an invalid, the Tot-Finder signals fire rescue personnel to clear this area first. The decals, placed on windows and doors, are visible during daylight and reflect from a light source during nighttime hours. They are attractive, but most importantly, they work.

Look for posters in co-operating merchants: windows or call for the decals at the Slaton Fire Station.

Texas Plains Trail Promoted

AUSTIN -- Slaton, a major point on the Texas Plains Trail, this month will begin reaping the benefits of a major new national promotion of the special Panhandle - Plains route.

The Texas Tourist Development Agency disclosed that $13,900 of its spring advertising budget will be invested in a full color page ad on the Plains Trail in four key magazines. It will appear in March issues of Camping Journal and Southern Living, and in April issues of Texas Parade and Trailer Life.

The TTDA is buying a combined circulation of 1.3 million in the publications. The ad's single dominant photo is that of the Ranch Headquarters outdoor museum on the Texas Tech University campus at Lubbock. It was shot specifically for the ad by the TTDA.

The copy mentions such other principal area attractions as Palo Duro Canyon, unique restaurants, "boot hill" cemeteries, and a wildlife refuge for waterfowl.

Features in a corner of the ad is a coupon inviting the reader to request copies of the Texas Highway Department's special pamphlet on the Plains Trail, and its 208-page travel guide, "Texas -- Land of Contrast."

"The ad, and subsequent highway department literature, will give the reader compelling reason to discover this exciting part of Texas," said Frank Hildebrand, TTDA executive director.

"We expect communities and attractions all along the Plains Trail to benefit appreciably from this added promotion of their area as 'trail riders' come their way."

CONSUMERS' CORNER

Something For Nothing
Creative women concerned with stretching the family budget find great satisfaction in being able to make "something for nothing." So they make good use of fabric left-overs.

One way to use fabric scraps is to make a matching handbag or tote bag. Patterns of various kinds are available, and you can buy handles at craft shops or notion counters. It is possible to buy kits to make tote bags. They include stiffening material and all other supplies, plus instructions. You can use the fabric of your choice and have a professional looking bag for very little money and effort.

Polyester knits make good swim suits. Depending on the style of the suit you prefer, you may have enough leftovers for the whole thing. If you have small children or grandchildren, fabric leftovers probably are no problem. Left-overs usually are large enough for shorts, sleeveless blouses or tops, and sun suits for children.

Bullish on central air conditioning? Consider investing just a little more in a long-term, blue chip Gas air conditioning system.

Only a Gas air conditioning system pays you regular dividends for many happy years. That's because the heart of a Gas cooling system is a simple gas burner, rather than an electric, mechanical compressor. A clean-burning gas flame doesn't wear out -- so there's less to go wrong, fewer maintenance calls, a longer life with no loss of original cooling capacity. And because natural gas is the prime energy source, you'll also save money on operating cost.

Unfiltered Truth: Cigarettes Can Kill You

(The third and final article presented during the Month to inform readers of this newspaper of the latest advances in combating heart and blood vessel diseases.)

Surgeon General Genning is explicit: "Cigarette smoking is a threat to your health." "Many persons can't kick the habit," says a cardiologist, president of the Heart Association.

While smokers of both sexes ease tensions of the moment, they may be setting the stage for a killing heart disease. And by exhaling smoke into the air, they're contributing to the poorer health of those around them.

Dr. Jesse L. Steinfeld, U.S. Surgeon General, declares that smoking affects the health of non-smokers by raising the level of carbon monoxide in poorly ventilated areas to the danger point and beyond. He suggests that heart and lung disease patients are adversely affected when carbon monoxide levels are increased by cigarette smoke.

The Heart Association's Dr. Yu suggests, "Apparently, it's not just important that individuals quit smoking for their own sake. Anyone who considers the health of others will want to quit for their sake, too."

He points out that the Heart Association provides literature citing the harmful effects of cigarette smoking and also supports community education designed to help people kick the habit. He urges smokers to contact their local Heart Association for free information on how to stop smoking.

"Cigarette smoking is a serious health problem," Dr. Yu says. "Something can be done about it, and the Heart Association is doing it. We are conducting our annual Heart Fund campaign in February to support more effective programs to combat heart and blood vessel diseases. Your gift to the Heart Fund and your concerted effort to change your smoking behavior will help. Only you can make it happen."

Slaton Police Dept. has started issuing citations for violations of the dog ordinance, Police Chief Fred Clark said Wednesday. He said more citations would be issued to those whose dogs are running free.

On Monday, Paul Steele, 880 S. Collins, said someone broke into his business at that address and took a transistor radio valued at $25, and a quantity of candy valued at $60.

Early Saturday morning, a 1969 auto driven by David Stanford of Plainview went out of control on U. S. 84 in the city limits, striking and knocking down several median poles. Stanford said he ran off the roadway after a passing truck splashed water on his windshield, obscuring his vision. Total damage to car and poles was put at $295. Carol Ybarra, 905 S. 4th St., reported theft of a bicycle valued at $30.

Three young men were arrested last week for sniffing acrylic paint, and were found to have in their possession a quantity of what was believed to be marijuana. Charges were pending.

Cancer of the Skin

An estimated 120,000 new cases of skin cancer will be reported in the United States this year. Deaths from skin cancer will be about 5,200—the lowest mortality rate for any type of cancer.

Why the low rate? For one reason, skin cancer can be seen so readily even in its early stages. Today 95 percent of skin cancer patients are free of their disease following medically approved treatment, and scientists believe this rate will increase to 98 or even 100 percent when patients seek medical attention early enough.

There are two main kinds of skin cancer: squamous cell cancer and basal cell cancer. Basal cell cancer occurs more frequently and grows more slowly. It rarely leaves the skin, but if left untreated it can extend to the underlying bone. Squamous cell cancer occurs much less frequently, but is a greater hazard because of its more frequent tendency to spread to other tissues and organs. From outward appearance it is often not possible to distinguish between the two types of skin cancer; in some cases they even resemble benign growths.

The exposed parts of the body—face, neck, forearms and backs of the hands are the most common sites for skin cancer. In general, skin cancer is characterized by a pale, waxy, pearly nodule which may eventually become inflamed, ulcerate, and crust in the center. Occasionally, very early skin cancers may appear as flat, red, and sharply outlined patches.

Two main forms of skin cancer treatment are X-ray and surgery. Other treatment includes tissue destruction by electro-cautery, by freezing with liquid nitrogen, or by application of caustic chemicals. Recently, the drug 5-fluorouracil applied to the skin as a cream or lotion has also been found useful in the treatment of superficial skin cancers. In some cases one course of treatment is sufficient; in others, repeated courses are necessary. For some patients a combination of therapies may be employed.

Today, the sun is the leading cause of skin cancer. Other less common causes are coal tar, pitch, arsenic compounds sometimes found in well water, paraffin oil, radium and X-rays.

none of which now constitutes a major skin cancer hazard because their potential danger is understood and their use carefully regulated.

Anyone may develop skin cancer, but its most frequent victims are people with fair, ruddy or sandy complexions who are exposed to a great amount of sun. Such people may well avoid excessive exposure to the sun's rays. Deliberate "tanning" not only increases the chances of skin cancer development, but also contributes to the aging appearance of the skin.

Most medical scientists agree that other factors (such as genetic factors) must be present in addition to the external forces which make certain persons develop skin cancer. A variety of studies are being carried out at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Maryland, by the National Cancer Institute to discover these factors. Moreover, investigators there and elsewhere are constantly seeking better methods for preventing, diagnosing and treating basal cell and squamous cell cancer.

By LENDA WOOD PRAISE THE LORD

It must be love, it just has to be love -- the way God puts up with us and loves us even when we have acted ugly! And still loves us even when we don't have time for Him! He loves us just as much when we're praising Him as when we're not praising Him. The only difference lies within us -- when things are going just right and we're praising Him for it, we just feel better. When things begin to go wrong, we begin to feel "down", and we're not praising Him.

The first thing we know (I'm talking to myself more than anyone else), we've gotten our eyes off Jesus and on self. If we'll just be truthful, let's ask ourselves this question: If we've been feeling low: "Who or what have I thought about all day?" Has it been my problems or has it been Jesus?

The Bible says that it's impossible to serve God and man (self) at the same time. If we have spent a whole day thinking and fretting about our needs, then we've been serving ourselves. (And not accomplishing anything good either!)

If we love Him, He promises that we don't have to worry about our needs -- His supply far outnumbers our problems! "If you belong to the Lord, reverence Him; for everyone who does this has everything he needs." (Psa. 34:8.) "I will praise the Lord no matter what happens." (Psa. 34:1.)

When we feel a "down and out" coming on, if we'll just turn to Jesus he will help us out. He hears our cry and speaks to our hearts through His Word and through others who love Him. (It might be that He even has an angel assigned to each of us because Psa. 34:7 says, "The Angel of the Lord guards and rescues all who reverence Him.")

As I went to pay a bill Monday, a lady told me, "Have a nice day!" Later during the day, another lady called on the phone, and when asked how she was doing, she said, "I'm trying to praise the Lord anyway," indicating she had been a little down and out too, also indicating she knew where her strength comes from too.

It always helps to have friends who believe in trusting Jesus for everything, because when you're "down" you can turn to them and ask for their counsel and prayers.

While on the phone, another

Dear Old Golden Rule Days

Every day of the school year, area elementary school students are stepping out of their classrooms for a day and into the past at Greenfield Village in Dearborn, Michigan, to learn what reading, writing and arithmetic taught to the tune of a hickory stick was all about.

In the Village's Miller School, a typical 19th-century, one-room school house, they sit at hand-made wooden desks, do their lessons on old fashioned slates and read from McGuffey Readers and other century-old text books. The once-faded hickory switches are kept in a holder beside the teacher's desk.

One of nearly 100 authentic, historic buildings in Greenfield

Village, the school duplicates a rural school of the 1870s. The kerosene lamps that line the walls have been electrified and the wood-burning stove stands cold in the middle of the room since the installation of a modern furnace in the basement, but they re-create the atmosphere of a bygone era. Also authentically out of the Past are the 38-star flag of the period behind the teacher's podium and the bucket filled at the pump in the school yard for the class to dip their drinking water from. As a final touch, a dunce's cap sits on a high stool in the corner.

The children actively participate in this experience of living a day in the past. With the help of background materials sent by the Village in advance, they play games popular 100 years ago, they bring lunches similar to the ones their ancestors carried and some of them even dress in costumes of the period. When their day at Greenfield Village and the Miller School is over, the students not only have learned what schools were like in great-grandfather's day, but they also have a greater awareness of history and their own heritage.

Bake a Fluffy Cheesecake

Cheesecakes are many and varied. They may be baked with or without a crust; served plain or with a shining fruit glaze. In texture, too, they vary. Some are quite firm and somewhat dry. Others, like the one which appears below, have a soufflé-like fluffiness.

Fluffy Cheesecake

- 1 1/2 cups dry or pot style cottage cheese
- 1/4 cup corn starch
- 4 eggs, separated
- 1 1/2 cups dairy sour cream
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Lightly grease 9 x 3 1/2-inch spring form pan. Put cottage cheese through sieve into large mixing bowl. Stir in corn starch. Add egg yolks, 1 at a time, beat until well blended. Add sour cream, 1/2 cup of sugar, salt, lemon rind, lemon juice and vanilla and beat until well blended. Beat egg whites until foamy. Add remaining 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating until stiff peaks form when beater is raised. Fold egg whites into cheese mixture. Pour into prepared pan. Bake in a 350° F. oven about 50 minutes or until top is golden brown. Turn off heat and let cool in oven with door open. Makes 1 (9-inch) cheese cake.

WARNING

TO NON-SUBSCRIBERS

A man who was too cheap to subscribe to his hometown newspaper sent his little boy to borrow his neighbor's copy. In his haste the boy ran over an $8.00 hive of bees and in 10 minutes he looked like a warty squash. His father ran to his assistance, and, failing to notice the barbed wire fence, ran into that, cutting a hole in his anatomy as well as ruining a pair of $10.00 trousers. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence, and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing a racket, the wife ran out, upset a four-gallon churn of cream into a basket of chicks, drowning the entire batch. In her haste, she dropped a $135.00 set of false teeth, which the family dog buried thinking it was a new type of bone. The baby, having been left alone, crawled through the spilled cream and into the parlor ruining a brand new $250.00 carpet. During the excitement, the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man; a stray dog broke up 11 setting hens; the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts on the clothes line; and the cat had a batch of kittens.

All this just to save a few cents. And, in this case, the poor guy never did get to read that week's edition.

Junior High Jottings

By JO ANN ROYE and SHEILA WOODSON

The students of junior high are looking forward to March 23 because our spring vacation begins at 2:30 p.m. on that date. Report cards came out Wednesday. Many of the students felt like not taking home their cards! Mr. Hearn had some very interesting bulletin boards for Public Schools Week open house. There was one about a mad scientist that we thought was exceptionally good and it was done by Debbie Sikes, Jean Carnes, and Robin Kerr.

Our topic this week is: My most embarrassing moment was:

Donna Pack -- When my pants ripped while playing dodgeball.

Coach Copeland -- When I was five years old and got second place in a baby contest.

Debbie Sikes -- When I was at Scott Beard's house and I spilled kool-ade.

Joyce Maxwell -- Our first basketball game.

Regina Tomlinson and Williams -- When we were five we painted Regina Williams' house with mud and got spanked for it!

Math teacher Mrs. Sara Holoman is in Mercy Hospital with a heart ailment. She cannot have any visitors just now, but the faculty and pupils in JHS are sending her cards and messages.

St. Joseph's School Cafeteria Menu

Monday -- Spaghetti and meat sauce, blackeyed peas, carrot sticks, bread, butter, milk and cake.

Tuesday -- Turkey and noodles, green beans, cranberry sauce, bread, butter, milk and cookies.

Wednesday -- Sloppy Joes, lettuce, tomatoes, pickles, ranch style beans, chips, milk and fruit.

Thursday -- Pigs in the Blanket, mixed vegetables, tomatoes, milk and Special K cookies.

Friday -- Macaroni and cheese, spinach, congealed salad, bread, butter, milk and cookies.

COMFORTABLE? ... Snuggled comfortably in zip-up boot, this tiny Chihuahua weighing little more than one pound, seems to have found a way to keep that early spring chill away. His Hamburg, Germany breeder has put a $1,500 value on the pedigree dog.

Dear Consumer

Meeting Your Meat Budget

By Virginia Knauer
Special Assistant to the President and Director
Office of Consumer Affairs

According to President Nixon's recent report on the economy, the impact of brisk demand on food supplies will probably cause food prices to rise until mid-year. That's when the President's new food supply measures will begin to take full effect.

It's during these next few months, then, that "shopping harder" at the supermarket will be important.

A good place to start stretching your food dollars is at the meat counter, where approximately one-third of all the money you spend on food goes.

To take advantage of the best buys at the meat counter, you need to be aware of the many cuts of meat available and how to use them in meals.

Another important point to remember is that the economy of a cut depends on the amount of cooked lean meat it provides as well as its price per pound. Often the lowest price per pound is not the best buy. A more expensive cut with little or no waste may be more economical per serving than a low-priced cut with a lot of bone and fat.

Determining the cost per serving is another important consideration at the meat counter. According to the Agriculture Department, three ounces of meat is equal to one serving. Using this figure, you can compare meat costs by dividing the price per pound of various cuts by the number of servings it will provide once the waste (fat and bone) is removed.

In addition to these shopping guides, there are other steps you can take to save money on meats:

- Experiment with meat grades. Using beef as an example, you can choose from three retail cuts—prime, choice or good. Although not as tender as prime or choice, the good grade with proper cooking can result in a tasty and nutritious meal. Along this same line, learn the different cuts of meat and how to identify them.

- Cut some of the meat yourself. Even if you're not a butcher's wife, there are several kinds of meat that lend themselves to easy cutting. A good example is round. It contains three natural sections: Top round makes a good roast, bottom round a pot roast and eye round a tender steak.

- Read up on new ways to prepare meat and new ideas in planning meals. Agriculture Department publishes several booklets that could help you, including: Family Food Budgeting (15¢), Money-Saving Main Dishes (30¢), Your Money's Worth in Family Meals (20¢) (also lamb and poultry (20¢ each) and the How to Buy series (20¢ each) on beef and roasts, beef steaks, (each booklet contains meat charts on the different cuts). To order any of these publications, write Consumer Products Information, Pueblo, Colo. 81009. Make check or money order payable to Superintendent of Documents.

Consumer Glossary

Many of our consumer problems arise because of legal terms used in leases, contracts of credit arrangements and the like. Consumers get themselves into trouble—usually financial trouble—because they don't know the meaning of these words.

To avoid costly mistakes, be sure you understand whatever you are asked to sign. Remember, it's your money.

Here are some important terms that appear frequently in documents dealing with legal rights and obligations of consumers:

- Amortization — Gradual payment of debt.
- Assignee — Someone to whom a right or property is transferred.
- Attachment — Legal seizure of property for payment of debt.
- Bill of Sale — Document showing transfer of ownership of personal property.
- Chattel — Movable personal property.
- Chattel Lien — Creditor's interest in borrower's personal property that borrower sets up as collateral.
- Collateral — Things of value pledged as security on a loan to be sold by the lender if the loan is not repaid.
- Cooling-Off — In some areas, consumers can legally cancel purchase agreements within a specified number of days. This right is often limited to purchases made from door-to-door salesmen.
- Deed — Written document that transfers ownership of real property.
- Default — Failure to carry out legal obligation.
- Foreclosure Proceedings — Court action to allow the sale of mortgaged property to pay mortgage.
- Garnishment — Creditor action to get defaulted debtor's property—usually his salary.
- Liabilities — Debts or obligations.
- Lien — Claim on property as security for a debt.
- Negotiable Instrument — Written payment obligation that can be transferred by endorsement or delivery, such as a check.
- Personal Property — Any possession other than land or buildings.
- Principal — The amount of money invested or borrowed as distinguished from interest or service charges.

Questions and Answers

Q. I've been farming for the past 3 years, and I had a net profit each year of about $2,000, but I've never paid any social security contributions. Can I go back 3 years and get social security credit for these earnings?

A. Yes, you can get social security credit if you file tax returns reporting these earnings. Get in touch with any office of the Internal Revenue Service to file the returns and pay the social security contributions. The Internal Revenue Service will forward the information to the Social Security Administration.

Q. I'm retired and get monthly social security checks. My son, who's almost 18 and has been an epileptic since he was born, also gets monthly payments. A friend told me he thought I should find out about childhood disability benefits for my son. Since my son already gets a check, what would be the point in applying for another benefit?

A. There are two reasons you might want to consider. Your son's checks will stop at 18 unless he is a full-time student. However, if he qualifies for childhood disability benefits, he can get checks as long as he's disabled. And if your son is found disabled and gets childhood disability benefits, he will also be eligible for Medicare benefits after he has been receiving the disability benefits for 2 years.

Q. My uncle applied for monthly social security retirement payments last summer, and his checks started about 6 weeks after he applied. However, my father, who applied last November, had to wait nearly 3 months before his first check came. Why is there such a difference in how long it takes for the first check to arrive?

A. One possible explanation is that your father didn't have the necessary papers ready when he applied for benefits. Applications for retirement payments are processed faster if the applicant has complete information--such as proof of his age and a record of his most recent earnings--when he first applies. A birth or baptismal certificate recorded before age 5, a school record, an old insurance policy, or the birth certificate of a child that shows the applicant's age are acceptable age proofs. A record--such as a W-2, check stubs, or a tax return--is also acceptable proof of earnings. These proofs help start payments sooner.

Q. I'll soon be 65 and eligible for Medicare hospital insurance. Can you tell me what costs Medicare hospital insurance helps pay for?

A. Expenses covered under Medicare hospital insurance include private room charges, nursing services, laboratory tests, other radiology medical supplies, and medical services. Hospital insurance also help pay low-up care after the hospital. If you want more information about call, write, or social security.

ACCO R 1019 -- early maturing, high yielding -- Here's an outstanding performer under a wide range of conditions. It's our earliest red-over-yellow hybrid... yet consistently produces yields equal to later hybrids. In irrigated tests at Lubbock, Texas, the past 3 years, R 1019 has compiled the best yield average in the early-to-mid maturity group of hybrids. R 1019 also placed first among all grain sorghum hybrids evaluated at the High Plains Research Foundation in 1972 under limited irrigation conditions. R 1019 has good resistance to anthracnose and other sorghum diseases --- produces moderately large grain with high feeding value and excellent milling qualities.

One-Act Play Practice Continues

The one-act play is well underway as the contest date is only weeks away. Last week the cast had to practice at West Ward because the high school auditorium was taken by other students. But on March 7 they started practicing back at high school.

While at West Ward the cast found some musical instruments and played them for Mrs. Fondy, the director. Philip Payne does some real cute dances when he acts out his part of the scarecrow.

Mrs. Fondy was always getting on to the people who were supposed to bring props. But, it just so happened that Mrs. Fondy couldn't get her prop, a tree stump, up to school. So, the play cast kept reminding her to bring it until finally last week she brought it.

On March 8 excitement struck the auditorium. Bruce Jones and Kenny Schuette got into a stick sword fight behind stage. But it didn't take long before Mrs. Fondy was behind stage trying to break them up. Although the cast does have their fun, they have been practicing hard on making this play a success.

CITIZEN OF THE MONTH -- Mr. SHS, Kenny Schuette, was selected as February citizen-of-the-month. Kenny's achievements while in high school include: football four years, track two years, band four years and pep squad beau this year.

VIEW OF "THE SCARLET LETTER"

Sable Number

BY JUANELL WOOD

"You be locked up!"
"Well they're on drugs just by looking at that dirty hair, earrings, and all that other junk they wear,"
"But with him. His hair is longer than yours. You see?"
"I'm not on a trip right now. Look how he is acting, it's time."
"You always barefooted. The only thing they ever wear is holy blue jeans that look like they were made for the Salvation Army."
"The reason they have long hair is because their parents like it and anything their parents don't like, they hate."

Outside the courtroom waited, eyes intently on the door. Children wandered about, their mothers talking to them, caught up as they were in the forthright conversation.

In a small town, Centerville, California, where everybody else's business. Today was a special day of conversation could be heard:
"You see the girl who looks like he does is the preacher's daughter at that, too."
"A preacher's daughter at that, too."
"It's a cinch. Jennifer identified him as the one that raped her."
"That kind always does something like that. They're all alike!"
"They're all alike!"
"The only thing good enough for him,"
"He deserves it and it'll set a good example for the other freaks like him."
"In the courtroom, all eyes were on the man on the stand. He looked back at them, seemingly impassive. The judge sat to one side, taking in Bryan's ragged jeans, his one-way T-shirt, long hair, beard, mustache, and a glint in his left ear. The side door opened and the judge looked back at them, seemingly impassive. The judge said, "What has the jury decided?" the judge said, "The jury votes the defendant guilty."

The man for the jury rose and cleared his throat. "The jury votes the defendant guilty," he said. "The jury votes the defendant guilty."

All eyes were still on Smith as the judge passed the verdict. "The jury votes the defendant guilty," he said. "The jury votes the defendant guilty."

"This happen? Jenny knows who did it. Why is she here? Just because everybody else thinks I look like I did it and Jenny backs it up. Why did she do this? These were Bryan's thoughts as he was led out of the courtroom."

Present to San Quintin the next week, black number 10, chest, and after a while the excitement he had in Centerville subsided. But the town, with its "upright" people, remembered Bryan Smith; he was despised by everyone. The preachers of Centerville looked at him as an example of sin; the people dissected him, finding only what they wanted to find--a dirty, filthy animal with no morals whatsoever.

When he sat down in the living room and took off his shoes he always did after a hard day's work. He picked up and settled down deeper into his chair. He read the newspaper. The minister died today after confessing to a crime he committed seven years ago. The crime was the assault and rape of a young girl, Jennifer Byrd, at Centerville, California. "The only thing that has kept me alive all these years is my guilt. It tormented me, would never let me die. Jenny told me because she loved me, but I left her seven years ago. I can't live with it any longer, knowing that a man was in my place. Now that I'm rid of my guilt I can live in peace."

These words, Paul Stephenson died.

History is fictional. It is not intentional that any characters correspond to any true characters. It was taken from "The Scarlet Letter," written by Nathaniel Hawthorne, who I wrote this.

1040 U.S. Individual Income Tax Return Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) May a commercial tax preparer sell information he obtains from a person's tax return?

A) No. It is a misdemeanor for any person engaged in the business of preparing tax returns, or providing services in connection with such a business or for any person who receives compensation for filling out a return to disclose Federal tax return information or use it for any purpose other than to assist in preparing the return. Violations may be punished with a $1,000 fine or a year in prison or both.

Q) I operate my own business. Do you have a booklet that will help me fill out my business tax returns?

A) Yes. IRS Publication 334, the 1973 "Tax Guide for Small Business," provides detailed information on tax matters that may arise in setting up, operating, or disposing of a business, whether it is a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation. The booklet is available for 75 cents at IRS offices, U.S. Government Printing Office bookstores and some post offices throughout the country.

Q) Last year I paid $15 to have my tax return prepared. Can I deduct this amount on my 1972 income tax return?

A) Yes. If you itemize your deductions, you may deduct expenses for tax counsel and assistance.

Q) I earned more than $10,000 last year. Will the IRS still figure out my tax for me?

A) Yes. If your adjusted gross income is $20,000 or less and consists only of wages or salaries and tips, dividends, interest, pensions, and annuities, the IRS will be glad to compute your tax at your request. However, you must take the standard deduction instead of itemizing your deductions, fill in certain lines, and file your return by April 15, to have the IRS do the figuring for you. Be sure to read the instructions that come with the Forms 1040 and 1040A as to the lines that have to be completed.

Q) My tax return asks a question about foreign bank accounts. I don't have one. Do I still have to answer the question?

A) Yes. Just check the box marked "no" if during the year you had no interest or authority over a bank or other financial account in another country. Persons who did have foreign bank accounts during the year must complete and attach to their return IRS Form 4683. Use the order blank on the back of your tax forms package to obtain a copy.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

The Old Values?
Many times over the years people have been heard to be saying, "What happened to the good old values of yesteryear?" This is a subject that most people could talk about for hours. Some believe that if only we had the same values of a century ago, all problems would be solved. This point of view misses the point.

What we should strive for in our lives are the universal, timeless values God has passed on to us. Sure, many of the values of yesteryear sound very Utopian, but we must remember that they had their own problems back then — wars, murders, stealing, poverty, disease and apathy. They, too, must have wished for the old days and the old values of a century before them.

What should we do? We should all try to seek the purpose God has given us in our lives, and we must always strive to adopt His values — the values that span all generations — love, peace, and happiness.

Key '73 Behind Scripture Study

Phase II of Key 73, a joint effort of Christian emphasis by various denominations across the nation, is being observed in Slaton with representatives of the different churches meeting in the Chamber of Commerce building at 3:30 p.m. on Sundays to discuss selected scriptures.

Locally, Phase II, "Calling Our Continent to the Word of God," is being directed by Delmas Luedke, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, and by Dick Owens, pastor of Posey Lutheran Church. Selected scriptures are studied by the group on Sundays, and then taken back to the individual churches for study that week. Following is a list of topics:

- March 11 -- The Heart of Our Faith (1 Cor. 15)
- March 18 -- God's First and Second Creation (Gen. 1, 3; Rom. 5:12-21)
- March 25 -- Baptism and Communion (John 3; Rom. 6; 1 Cor. 11)
- April 1 -- Conflict Within Yourself (Rom. 7; John 1, 2)
- April 8 -- The Church as Mission (Matt. 28; Acts 1)
- April 15 -- The New Order of Things (1 Cor. 4, 5)

THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 1973
Read Deuteronomy 2:1-7; Mark 9:1-9

"You have been going about this mountain country long enough." (Deuteronomy 2:2, RSV)

Preparation, careful preparation, is essential in any important undertaking. It can be tragic to be unprepared. At the same time, it is possible to delay, using a prolonged period of getting ready as an excuse for inaction. We can spend a lifetime marching around the same mountain, getting nowhere. This is a major, yet subtle danger in Christian discipleship.

For forty years the Hebrews had been preparing to enter Canaan. Now it was time to march. The Hebrews might easily have settled down in the wilderness, content. They could have salvaged their consciences by insisting that further maturing was necessary. Gradually the Promised Land would have been forgotten.

But God is forever calling His people to move, and He does not want us to settle down in comfortable stagnation. Discipleship means decisive, carefully planned action.

PRAYER: Thou God of great causes, call us to venture into new, thrilling experiences in the Christian life. Keep us from living on a treadmill, getting nowhere. Help us to not lose sight of promised lands. We pray in the name of Christ, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

The time for Christian action is now!

"And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt the them diligently unto thy children" — Deuteronomy 6:5-7.

So often we wonder about this world we live in. We wonder about the fate of our children, hoping they will be able to stay away from many of the problems that now plague our nation. But there is a very good way to give them a good start — set a good example and always remember the Lord, our God.

Research On Weed Control Is Conducted

Research data obtained in herbicide incorporation studies in the past several years at the High Plains Research Foundation may provide some answers for area farmers concerning their particular weed control programs. Two of the most important considerations farmers must make when deciding which herbicide to use is its effectiveness for weed control and the possible restriction or limitations upon his crop rotation program.

In 1969 tests were initiated to determine if incorporation methods of some currently registered preplant herbicides could affect these two factors. Results of these studies have indicated that in fields where weeds and grasses are a severe problem, herbicide incorporation with a rolling cultivator will provide adequate weed control and increased cotton yields. According to Jim Schrib, associate agronomist, on a three year average, cotton grown where Treflan had been incorporated with the rolling cultivator produced 56 pounds of lint per acre more than the tandem disk incorporation.

Banded applications of Treflan also incorporated by rolling cultivator also produced higher yields than the herbicide applied broadcast and disk incorporated, Schrib said.

Annual broadleaf weed control under both methods were about equal, Schrib added. "However, the tandem disk incorporation gave better grass control."

"Since grass pressures tend to increase in double-rowed grain sorghum and cotton rotation programs, it might be necessary for herbicides to be disked in," Schrib said.

Research studies also indicate less residue carryover the following year where the herbicides were incorporated with rolling cultivator.

The 1972 Annual Report will be released shortly and will contain complete data on this test.

District Food Show March 24

LUBBOCK — Sixteen local judges will have the privilege of tasting some top-notch Texas cooking when 4-H girls from 20 counties in the South Plains area display their skill at a district-wide 4-H Food Show here March 24.

Competition will be divided into junior and senior levels, each with four food classes. These include bread and sweets, fruit and vegetables, meat and beverage, and main dishes. Each class will have two judges.

"Food preparation and food nutrition knowledge are two primary goals of the girls who enter this contest," says Mrs. Don Cobb, Lubbock County Extension Agent who is chairman of this year's event.

"Through such contests as this," she explains, "4-Hers are able to develop their ability." Senior division winners will go on to compete in the State 4-H Food Show at College Station in June. Winners of that contest are then eligible for scholarships and trips to the National 4-H Congress at Chicago the following winter, or the National 4-H Conference in Washington, D.C. the next spring.

For the district contest, which is to be on the Texas Tech campus, room and board fees will be covered for both junior and senior divisions, with tuition and board fees to the senior contest.

"Food for all Seasons" is the theme of the show which will feature exhibits of foods in the ballroom of the University Center beginning at 9:00 a.m. Judging will take place at 10:00, and awards will be presented thereafter at 10:00.

Girls competing in the district contest are winners of county competition.

"Our 4-Hers try to build leadership capabilities by entering many contests," says Mrs. Cobb. "Many of the seniors are former junior leaders who have built their reputations. They have learned the disciplines of failure in losing and the thrill of accomplishment in winning. Competition brings out some of those characteristics which make a leader, and we hope that this

Farmcast

A Weekly Report of Agricultural News

Compiled From Sources of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Only Six... Egg Production Declines... Livestock Slaughter Increases... Sheep on Feed Down Again.

Of the more than 200 different commodities produced in Texas, only six are above effective parity, according to reports of the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. "This is something we need to keep in mind where we hear all these glowing stories about increasing farm prices," Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White notes. "It's good that farm prices are increasing, but let's keep them in their proper perspective. The fact remains that farm parity is still lagging about 25 per cent behind the rest of the economy," he said.

The six commodities above effective parity or equality of income with the rest of the economy are oats, hogs, beef cattle, calves, sheep and lambs.

Hog prices at an average of $39.40 per 100 pounds in Texas are $1 per 100 pounds above parity. Beef cattle at $42.50 are $2.20 per 100 pounds above parity. Calves at $56 per 100 pounds are $7.20 above parity. Sheep at $76 are $4.70 above parity, and lambs at $36.30 are $5 above parity.

For crops, only oats are above parity. Oat prices averaged $1.08 with parity at $1.05 per bushel.

During the past month, most grain prices showed declines. Wheat averaged $1.99 per bushel, down 41 cents from a month ago; corn averaged $1.70 per bushel, down eight cents; barley was down four cents per bushel; grain sorghum was up four cents.

EGG production in Texas during January declined 17 per cent compared to a year ago while nationwide the decline was six per cent.

Egg prices to producers as of Feb. 15 averaged 46 cents per dozen, which is down six cents from a month ago.

Texas layers totaled 11,300,000, down 11 per cent from a year ago. Texas eggs laid daily per 100 hens averaged 55.3 compared with 61.3 nationwide. Egg-type chicks hatched in Texas during January is down 15 per cent from last year.

COMMERCIAL production of red meat throughout the nation during January was up six per cent from year ago. The number of cattle slaughtered was up seven per cent.

Pork production showed an increase of four per cent from a year ago, while a decrease of two per cent in lamb and mutton production was reported.

In Texas, the total of red meat production amounted to 193,900,000 pounds. Cattle slaughtered numbered 296,000, calves 11,300, hogs 168,000 and sheep and lambs 107,000. Average live weight of cattle was 952 pounds, calves averaged 566 pounds, hogs 250 pounds, and sheep and lambs 99 pounds.

NUMBERS of sheep and lambs on feed in Texas is 18 per cent below a month ago and three per cent below the number a year ago.

Current intentions to market include: March 31,000; April 30,000 and May 13,000.

WEATHER conditions over much of Texas continue to slow field activity in many areas. Cotton planting continues behind schedule in the Rio Grande Valley. Corn and grain sorghum planting time is at hand in south and south central Texas.

GET YOUR horse vaccinated as soon as possible to avoid an outbreak of VEE disease this year, authorities recommend. No case was reported in 1972 in Texas, and now is the time to get your animal vaccinated to prevent any outbreak during 1973.

SPRINGER MARCH TRAINED. J.R. says money is the way for vocational - The 1972 Vocational Conference, theme of which was "Education for Living and Working in Living." Speaker Daniel, myself, and Sen. Chas. Briles were featured speakers. The main thing we agreed on was need for money and a definite sense of direction. Every body seemed to think that if education, business, and industry could get their collective interests together, that we'd be on our way. Let's wait and see what happens on this one.

GOV. DOUGLAS BRISCOE said at lunch the other day that one of his highest priorities for this session is that "no-rain" water problem. He said we ought to strike up suitable relations with Arkansas and just go on and operate as if we'll run out of water seven years from now instead of thinking along the lines of that off-gated date of 1995.

Cotton Growers Seek Better Deals For Their Cottonseed

NEW ORLEANS -- Cotton producers are becoming increasingly alarmed about the gap between the prices they receive for cottonseed and the prices cottonseed meal and hulls bring at resale, Dr. H. L. (Hal) Lewis of Raleigh, N. C., told Mississippi Valley oilseed processors here.

Lewis is director of agricultural research for Cotton Incorporated, the research, sales and marketing company sponsored by America's cotton growers through their dollar-per-hale program.

He advised delegates to the 22nd oilseed processing clinic that unless things change, cotton producers may be forced to seek new and more profitable markets for their cottonseed.

Lewis cited figures showing that prices paid to producers for cottonseed have remained constant since last September at $42-$50 per ton.

During the same time the prices for cottonseed meal containing 41 per cent protein have risen from $90-$95 per ton to $120-$176, and prices paid for hulls have doubled, from $11-$13 a ton to $22-$27.

"This sort of relationship between the business of the cotton producer and the business of the buyer of his cottonseed disturbs us at Cotton Incorporated," Lewis told the oilseed processors.

He said Cotton Incorporated hopes a better business relationship can be established. "Certainly if a satisfactory profit cannot be shared by all parties," he said, "then there is no reasonable basis for doing business."

The scientist said a vast, untapped market exists for cottonseed food products, and he challenged the oilseed processors to develop and exploit it.

Over 300 food products are manufactured items containing protein, Lewis said. They are distributed in what food marketers label as 16 major food groups.

"Of those 16 major groups, 13 already use some form of vegetable protein," said Dr. Lewis. "And let me remind you that cottonseed protein is vegetable protein."
