Smith, Morton, Mrs. Kern Honored At Annual Chamber Banquet

MAN AND WOMAN OF THE YEAR — Bill Smith and MayBelle Kern were announced winners of the coveted Man of the Year and Woman of the Year awards at Monday's annual Chamber of Commerce banquet. (SLATONITE PHOTO)

Mrs. Bob (MayBelle) Kern was named Woman of the Year, Bill H. Smith was announced as Man of the Year and Harvey Morton was named Boss of the Year as highlights of the annual banquet of Slaton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Monday night.

The crowd at Slaton Junior High School cafeteria also heard Slaton Lions Club honored as Club of the Year, saw Coy Evans take over as president of the chamber from outgoing president J. W. Holt and heard Dee Bowman on the need for the nation to "get back to the basics" of individualism, neighborliness, emphasis on the home, honesty and the Bible.

Musical entertainment was by a group of high school girls including Donnea Sikes, Brenda Johnson, Lisa Dillard, Susan Mercer and Cindy Davis, and piano selections were played by Mrs. Greg Deering.

Mrs. Eva Sikes turned over the leadership of the women's chamber to the incoming president, Mrs. Carolyn Davis.

Master of Ceremonies J. C. McClesky introduced guests from Lubbock, Floydada and Littlefield, and later introduced the speaker, Bowman, noting that the brochure said Bowman had made recordings for RCA, which McClesky said possibly meant "Rodeo Clowns Association." Bowman denied that he ever had made any records at all, "except one which is on file in the Hall County courthouse."

Mrs. Curtis Aycock made the presentation of the Woman of the Year award to Mrs. Kern, observing that Mrs. Kern "works hard in all school organizations, is very thoughtful with fellow co-workers," is an active member of Athenian Study Club, on the board of directors for the Women's Chamber, helped to start the Steve Bourn Memorial Scholarship, is a member of the Lubbock County Library Board, the Service Center advisory board, has been active in Girl Scout work, is married and the mother of three children and sings in the choir of First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Kern is director of SELCO, serving children with learning disabilities in four area school districts.

Smith, a resident of Slaton since the early 50s, father of two and grandfather to five, was presented his plaque by T. J. Wallace. The new Man of the Year also is a Methodist, is a member of the Mercy Hospital Board of Governors, is president of the Board of Directors of Slaton Industrial and Development Foundation, Inc., is a member and past president of Slaton Lions Club, member of the Chamber of Commerce, County Welfare Board, and is chairman of the board of Smith Ford, Inc.

Mrs. Pete Williams read the letter which earned for Morton his honor as Boss of the Year. The letter, from Morton's secretary, Mrs.

Mary Beth Smith, said, in part:

"I cannot begin to say enough about my boss. Not only his consideration towards me, his employee, but the consideration and interest he shows for everyone he deals with only to make him the very fine man he is. In the years I have been employed by him, I have never seen him unkind or heard a harsh word from him to anyone."

McClesky presented the top club award to Holt, vice-president of the Lions Club. Lions listed donations to numerous causes, including support of a girl at Girlstown, to Boy Scouts, to Girls State, for handicapped youngsters to go to a track meet, for glasses for needy youths, to Little League, to the Summer Youth Program, for cystic fibrosis, to the Lions Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville, to CARE, sponsorship of Operation Yuletide and a local circus, help with Fourth of July celebration, and helping to take up tickets at Slaton home football games.

Bowman, minister of Auburn St. Church of Christ and a former radio announcer here, insulted various members of the audience and poked fun at everyone, including himself, sparing no ethnic or religious groups, before presenting a thoughtful address on the need of this nation to return to some of the practices, traditions and qualities which helped make it a great nation from its beginning.

Stressing individualism, Bowman asserted that "one of the biggest problems in this country today is that we don't do our own thinking. . . we let someone else do it for us."

He also emphasized the importance of home and family life, declaring that "the home is being undermined," and struck out at the women's liberation forces. He questioned why any woman, as great a creation of God as she is, would want to be anything different. The speaker also said people need to be better friends and neighbors, do more visiting and less television watching.

Striking out at the term "situation ethics," Bowman decried the trend away from simple, basic honesty in everyday affairs, including business dealings. "There's never a good time to tell a lie," he declared.

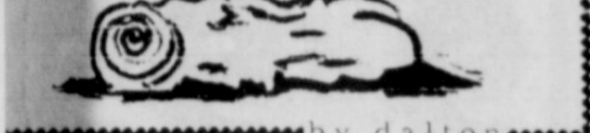

The speaker also rapped the tendency of so many persons to be indifferent, and urged action where action is needed.

"Finally," he said, "we need to get back to the Bible. . . it's a sad commentary that you can't mention God" in a large gathering outside of church without embarrassing someone. "The remedy for all things, including the worst malady of all -- sin -- is found in the Bible. . . This country was founded on the slogan 'In God We Trust.' We need to get back to prayer and to the Bible."

FTER ALL these years of television and television, radio finally has scored some. CBS has launched a new series of the radio broadcasting, an every-night drama program which just could catch with a lot of folks.

any of us recall rather fondly the "good days" of radio drama, with its creaking, breaking glass and ringing doorbells, the commentary of the announcer in between acts to give you a few clues about what is really going on. And the ones who used to listen to Gangsters, I Love A Mystery, Mr. District Attorney, the Inner Sanctum (and even Jack Strong and Little Orphan Annie) will be excited in hearing radio stories again, all out.

men who run the radio networks also gambling that many young persons who have heard any kind of drama on radio be interested in this novel experiment. of the men behind the new series asked that when he was a youngster, the parents would tell them to go to bed and out the lights, and then the youngsters I turn the radio on at low volume and to it. Sounds like he's trying to get some in trouble.

listened to the first of the 50-minute casts last Sunday night. For the first 10 tes or so, it sure did seem strange. But I ly got used to the no-picture approach to a, and found it to be rather interesting. one was a story about an elderly woman e boarder told her just before he died t a 10-year-old murder that he had killed for pay, leaving an innocent man in 7.

drama shows come on every night at 9, ess (at least that was the time for ay's show). We predict that lots of folks e listening, at least once or twice, just to hat it's all about.

ay even get to save Post Toasties box again, to get a junior G-man badge.

EE BOWMAN, speaker at the Slaton Chamber of Commerce banquet the other said that we need to get back to basics, to some of the things we used to have in ountry that we haven't had lately. Well, about that radio stuff mentioned above, or about the 55-mile-an-hour speed limit going to be enforced in a few weeks? course, that wasn't what Dee meant; he referring to such things as honesty, neighborliness, prayer and Bible-reading, and eartily agree with all of his comments pt the one about The Slatonite having our subscribers. It certainly is unfair of to say a thing like that when it is so e. Our circulation list is open to anyone's ction, and anyone who cares to count will find there are 46 subscribers, all except for a dozen or so relatives). at 55-mile-an-hour speed limit is likely to effect by the end of this month, or ever they can get the signs posted. So all u who like to drive 70 had better get out and do it now, while it's still legal. five will seem awfully slow for awhile. got a couple of farmer friends who go than that on the turn row.

School Lunch Prices Lowered

Slaton School board Tuesday night extended the contract of Supt. J. C. McClesky for an additional year to 1977, lowered the ever-changing school lunch prices in an apparent "January sale" to generate more business, and tried out the new Texas Open Meetings Law by going into two executive sessions during the evening.

One of the executive sessions was to consider the contract of the superintendent, and the other was to discuss a student disciplinary problem in junior high. McClesky's contract, which had been scheduled to expire in 1976, was kept at the three-years-ahead mark by the one-year extension, the board voting unanimously to extend the contract on a salary $4,600 above state schedule. Each year the board customarily extends the contract of the superintendent one year. School board members, after hearing that the school has received some commodities that were not expected, decided to lower lunchroom rates, noting that participation in the school lunch program had declined recently. However, no report for last month's lunchroom operation was available by Tuesday, so the new prices, effective Monday, could be only temporary. One of the aims of the board expressed Tuesday was to make the Stephen F. Austin student rate the same as West Ward, with both now pegged at 50 cents per meal. Junior High and High School will be 60 cents starting Monday, and teachers will pay 75 cents.

Average daily attendance for the last six weeks was 1765.65, Supt. McClesky told the board. Edwin Knight, school business manager, reported tax collections for the school year to date has reached $205,600, with more than $100,000 of that amount paid in December.

In reviewing the school's finances, McClesky presented to the board a comparison of tax rates of all Lubbock County school districts (See School Lunches, Page 7)

Taft Church Is Scene Of Nuptial Vows

Miss Anne Ayers and John Carl Moore exchanged wedding vows at 7 p.m. Dec. 29, in a double ring ceremony in the First United Methodist Church of Taft. Rev. Elza L. Love, minister of Bellaire United Methodist Church in Houston, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Ayers of Taft, formerly of Slaton. Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Moore of Lafayette, La.

The ceremony was performed before an altar banked with arched brass candelabras entwined with greenery holding tall red tapers. An heirloom brass compote holding an arrangement of red Cara Mia roses centered the altar. Two spiral candelabras completed the decorations.

Mrs. M. K. Brown provided the organ music. Mrs. C. J. Toland of Taft, sang "As Long As He Needs Me" and "The Wedding Prayer." Darrell Dessens of Houston sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Renaissance gown of ivory peau D'soie with Alencon lace-appliqued English net embellished with pearls over the bodice. Pearls outlined the Dutchess neck. The lace trimmed net sleeves were long and tapered with a flounce that fell from the elbow over the lower sleeve. Jeweled motifs were at vantage points on the skirt, with gathers at the back which fashioned a chapel length circular train. Pearl-etched English net accented by Alencon lace motifs fashioned a cathedral cap which held the bride's long illusion veil.

She carried a bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids, red garnet roses, stephenotis, gypsophelia and English ivy on an heirloom family Bible.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ray Madison Ayers of San Antonio. Maid of honor was Miss Joyce Rotzler of Taft. The bridesmaids were Miss Gail Ivey of Taft, Miss Patti Harrison of San Antonio, and Mrs. David Grice of New Braunfels.

The attendants wore identical formal-length gowns of red velveteen, fashioned with empire waists. Red and pink embroidered flowers on gold metallic background fashioned a band which was worn at the empire waistline. The scooped neck was accented by tiny self covered buttons with fabric loops which were repeated on the long fitted sleeves. They carried nosegays of pink glamelias, gypsophelia and English ivy. Bows of red velvet with wisps of gypsophelia were worn in their hair.

Miss Amy Ayers of San Antonio, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was fashioned of pink velveteen with an ivory embroidered silk organza apron. She carried a nosegay of pink and red sweetheart roses. Wisps of gypsophelia caught with a pink bow were worn in her hair.

Gerry Gamble of Temple was best man, and groomsmen were Ed Vivian of Laredo, Steve Akers of Vanderbilt, Jimmy Dunn of Falfurias and Bill Hamilton of Taft. Ushers were Dr. Ray Madison Ayers of San Antonio, brother of the bride, Dick Dawson and Robert McIntyre of Falfurias.

Following a wedding trip the couple will make their home in San Marcos where they will be attending Southwest Texas State University.

Eddleman-Brush Vows Repeated

The reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The table was laid in a pink linen cloth overlaid with an ivory antique lace cloth, accented with a candelabra, fushia tapers and the party's bouquets.

Members of the house party were Mmes. Dennis Brush, Kenneth Baker, T. V. Ellis, Mary Green, John Hudnall, A. D. Howard, J. T. Kendrick and Miss Carolyn Wilkins.

Mrs. Eddleman wore a black and white pinstripe blazer, fushia blouse and black slacks for traveling. A pink rose corsage completed the outfit.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Slaton High School and a 1971 graduate of the Dallas Fashion Merchandising College. She is a sophomore accounting major at Texas Tech. Her husband is a graduate of Granbury High School and is a pre-veterinarian major at Tarleton State University.

In-Part Furniture
Putting the pieces together now has application for the furniture industry as well as jigsaw puzzles. Many unassembled furniture kits are available in department stores or by mail from various furniture manufacturers. Instruction and diagrams are usually clear and assembly of the pieces fairly simple.

One widely used and simple method of assembling furniture, other than using the kits, is to buy separate parts and put them together at home.

Flush doors with added legs can become tables, desks, benches (with two-inch foam pads), or sofas (with four-inch foam pads).

Flush doors in various woods are available in lumber yards or building supply companies. A variety of ready-made legs are sold in department stores, hardware stores and lumber yards. If you need a desk with storage underneath, place the flush door on top of two table-height file cabinets which serve as "legs."

Another simple furniture-in-parts technique is the wall-shelf system and room dividers incorporating shelves and chests that can be bought finished or unfinished.

Comparatively thin slices of beef steak, often made tender by pounding, scoring or cubing, can be panfried for a speedy and satisfying meal. Especially popular choices for panfrying are cubed steak and thin slices (1/2 inch thick or less) cut from the sirloin tip or round. The steaks are browned on both sides in a small amount of fat. Some cuts will cook in the fat from the meat; others will require additional fat to cover the surface of the frying pan to prevent sticking. Do not cover the meat. Cook at a moderate temperature, turning occasionally, to desired degree of doneness. Season with salt and pepper after browning, if desired. Remove from pan and serve at once.

When watching calories, be sure to include all the nutrients your body needs. Eliminating, or even skipping on, any of the four food groups is asking for trouble.

Keep On Working In Area

Area cotton gins are now past the two bale mark, according to R. Dickson, in of the Lubbock Classing Office of DA. bales from 2,052,000 had been classed at Lubbock, Brownfield, and Levelland through Friday, Jan. 4. The four offices had unclassified samples and at that time. The data indicate that there was enough cotton in and in ricks to make 500,000 more bales at the four tested and classed from 93,000 bales during the week ending the 4th. Quality of cotton continued excellent and this crop continues to be one of the highest quality crops ever produced on the South Plains. Grades 32 and 41 continues the predominant grades at Lubbock, making up 68 percent of all classed. Grade 41 made up 55 percent, Grade 31, 13 percent, Grade 32, 13 percent and Grade 42, 11 percent. Staples were predominantly 30 to 32. Sixty-seven percent had staple lengths of 31 and shorter. Micronaire readings continued excellent. Seventy-eight percent of all cotton tested at Lubbock had micronaire readings in the premium range of 3.5 to 4.9. The Agricultural Marketing Service reported slow trading on the Lubbock market the past week. Prices were $15 to $20 per bale lower. Demand continued strongest for cotton with staple lengths of 31 and longer but was strong for cotton with staple lengths of 29 and 30. Prices ranged from 3300 points over the Government Loan for short staple cotton up 5000 points over the loan for long staple cotton. Typical lots were bringing an average of 40 cents per pound over the loan and were selling in the price range of 55 to 65 cents per pound. Cottonseed prices were steady and farmers received $95 to $110 per ton.

Scouts Have Place To Drop Old Papers

Boy Scouts of Troop 125 have been encouraged with the response of citizens to a campaign to gather up old newspapers. Scoutmaster Alex Webb and Assistant Dinks Eckert reported this week.

"The scouts want to thank those who have started saving their newspapers, and would like to ask that those who haven't to please do so," Eckert said.

Troop 125 is collecting newspapers to do their part in Project SOAP (Save Our American Resources) and to raise money for a camping fund. They make 50 cents for every 100 pounds of newspapers. To date they have more than 1,000 pounds, and now have a wire basket located next to the alley between Lubbock and Garza streets just off 10th, the parking lot across from the Methodist Church. But anyone who has a problem in dropping the papers there may call Webb or Eckert for pickup.

Webb urged the citizens to please tie their newspapers in bundles.

Gasoline Stolen From School Here

Someone's answer to the gasoline shortage was to steal it, officials of Slaton Independent School District notified police Monday after discovering theft of more than 200 gallons of fuel from the school pump at 300 S. 9th.

Officials said someone prized open a garage door and flipped a switch which turns on the outside pump, draining it of gasoline estimated at 200 to 300 gallons.

Cars belonging to two school teachers had windshields smashed by vandals last Wednesday night. Reporting windshields broken were Mrs. Gay Benson, 1520 W. Lynn, and Mrs. Audean Nowell, 830 S. 23rd.

Also last Wednesday, a 1972 pickup driven by Max Steven Jones of Fluvanna and a 1973 car driven by William Marsh Jr. of Mission collided at U.S. 84 and Woodrow Rd. There were no injuries.

On Thursday, Mrs. Willie Mimms, 1550 E. Dayton, reported a business located at 690 New Mexico was burglarized, with some change taken from the coin box on a pool table.

A car owned by Mrs. O. W. Gadd of Rt. 6, Lubbock, was struck by an unknown vehicle which left the scene at United parking lot in Slaton, with damage estimated at $150.

A three-car accident occurred on 10th St. about 9 a.m. Wednesday, involving a 1954 car driven by Carl Len Seymour of Lubbock, a 1966 car driven by Ruth Legrand Collins of 935 E. Scurry and a parked 1964 auto owned by R. W. Wennberg of Mesquite.

concerned," said Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

He pointed to good moisture before and during the planting season and good rains throughout the growing season as factors in the quantity and quality of '73's crop. Quality is expected to be above average around the state.

Nearly a billion bushels of grain sorghum had been projected for the United States in 1973. Texas is the country's leading producer. The state's previous production high had been set in 1967 with 343,485,000 bushels.

In the Lower Rio Grande Valley a 37-million bushel harvest was double of that last year. As a result, many growers replanted, anticipating a good market. Currently the crop is bringing $4.50 a

City Okays Bid On Lease Of Farm In Airport Area

Slaton City Commissioners gave tentative approval to a bid on the "airport farm," voted to raise the salary of the water superintendent and noted that city departments have been conserving gasoline in recent months in Tuesday's regular meeting of the group in city hall.

A bid of $5,000 from Joe Bob Bednarz, who operated the farm last year, was accepted contingent on operating of the farm, which is part of city property north of town. The farm comes up for bids each year following publication of a notice that bids will be accepted.

Bednarz' bid was the only one received. Last year, he rented the farm for $4,800. The commission voted to raise the salary of Water Superintendent Jim Powell to $675 per month. Among the discussion items was a matter of the possible purchase of a Cushman scooter to be used by a meter-reading girl who already has been employed. The group took no action on the proposal by Powell to buy the machine, which he said would be economical to the city. It was estimated that a new vehicle of that nature would cost about $2,200.

Mayor J. N. Landreth noted that the Police Dept. consumption of gasoline in December was about 300 gallons less than in the month of October. Also discussed and tabled for later possible action was a proposal by Police Chief Fred Clark to buy a new radar device.

hundredweight or 100 pounds. Second planting harvest is expected to continue into January.

Harvest begins in the Valley in July and progresses into Central Texas, the Blacklands, the Low and Rolling Plains and finally into the High Plains. Harvest in December was 99 per cent complete as compared with 89 per cent at the same time a year ago.

The Northern High Plains remained the chief producer of grain sorghum in the state with 148 million bushels. Sixty-seven million bushels were harvested in the Low Plains and 44 million in the Blacklands.

Most of the grain sorghum grown in South Texas is exported. Sorghum grown in the North finds its way into Panhandle feedlots.

Spring Vows Are Planned

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith of Lubbock announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Lou to Curtis Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy L. Reed of Slaton.

Miss Smith is attending Coronado High School of Lubbock. Reed attended Slaton High School.

The couple plans a spring wedding.

The Era to 2,000 A.D.

The total energy consumption in 1970, 54,000 trillion BTU's, is equivalent to 6 gallons of petroleum a day for each person. The energy released by 6 gallons of oil represents an 80-fold multiplication of the energy expenditure of the average man.

This expenditure of energy has made possible the life we live to average, and until the energy day. The products and the conveniences, the comforts and the luxuries all carry an energy price averaged 305 gallons per person; tag. Consider air conditioning. In 1970, it was 460. Our use of electricity more than doubled since 1960 and is expected to double again by 1980. The only drop in hard coal, the production of which is half what it was ten years ago. But it is up to each of us some-thing. We used 93 billion gallons of gasoline in 1970, and 1.5 tril- lion kilowatt hours of electricity is here.

Our Energy Crisis

We have had a sharp awakening during the past few months in this nation when we realized we, the wealthiest nation in the history of the world, are experiencing an energy crisis. Up until this time many of us never worried about where all the energy and power was coming from that runs this nation of ours. Many thought we were independent of the rest of the world, and some felt we could even be independent of God.

Our energy crisis might be just one way God is showing us that we must get back on the right track. He is making us aware of how really dependent we are on Him as our Provider. Too many people in the past have felt that our technology could solve anything - that no matter what happened, we could solve it. Anything, that is, except something so basic to our existence that we don't usually give it a second thought - energy.

But now is a good time to think about it. Our greatness as a nation has come from the many blessings God has given us. God, however, has let us know it's time to get back to Him - the source of life and energy.

Many years ago as a sophomore at Cornell University I attended a student picnic one evening above Fall Creek Gorge. I made a misstep, and fell twenty-five feet into deep water in the midst of surrounding rocks. In total darkness except for a few embers lowered from the campfire, and not knowing how to swim, my chances of survival were slight.

I prayed mightily, and without any previous knowledge of mine, God told me the one thing needful - to hold my breath while under water and breathe in quick gasps as I came repeatedly to the surface. This plus a brave rescue by a fellow student saved my life.

Most of my life has been relatively uneventful, marked by no dramatic spiritual experience. But I have constantly felt God's sustaining power. In critical decisions He has guided me. When on some occasions I have felt a lack of physical or spiritual energy to keep going, He has supplied it. He has given me a useful work to do, many friends to enrich my life, and so many blessings that truly "my cup runneth over." Thanks be to God!

PRAYER: We thank Thee, God, for Thy ever-sustaining care, whether in the major crises or the petty demands of life. To Thee we would render the tribute of grateful hearts. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: God's care is constant, dependable.

LIGHT FOR THE BLIND

And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents; but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day; the night cometh, when no man can work.

As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground and made clay of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay.

And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore and washed, and came seeing.

Why Be Baptized?

1. To follow Christ's example. Jesus said (Mark 16:16) "Whoever becometh us to fulfill all righteousness."
2. Because Jesus commissioned it. "Go ye and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" (Matt. 28:19)
3. Because the apostles commanded it. "commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord." (Acts 10:48)
4. To be saved. Jesus promised (Mark 16:16) that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. (Pet. 3:21)
5. For the forgiveness of sins. "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus for the remission of sins."
6. To wash away sins. "Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins."
7. To become God's children in Christ. "Ye children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For ye have been baptized into Christ's name." (Gal. 3:26-27)
8. To be born again. Jesus said (John 3:3) "A man be born again...Except a man be born of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God."
9. To come into Christ and become a new creature. "So many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death." (Rom. 6:3) (See also 5:17)
10. To come into Christ's church. "By one baptism we are all baptized into one body." (1 Cor. 12:13) "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." (Acts 2:47)

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

On December 24th my brother, Denny Kincer was injured in a mishap in downtown Slaton. I would like to comment on the ambulance service received there. Because of the demanding regulations made by the State of Texas on ambulance attendants and equipment used in ambulances, the private ambulance service is quickly declining in smaller towns without substantial subsidizing from the city and county. This is the case in Slaton, a town with a population of over 6,000. The City Police have taken over the ambulance service with off-duty officers being on call to make emergency calls. This is good if the officers are trained in the proper handling of victims and the ambulance is equipped to handle all types of injuries and sudden illnesses, and can reach the scene of an accident in a reasonable length of time. This was not the case in Slaton. The emergency was called in at approximately 10:30 a.m. It took 30 minutes to get an ambulance to the scene which was only two blocks from the station. The manner in which he was picked up leads me to believe they had little or no training in First Aid. I was thankful there were no other injuries than to his legs. If there had been he surely would have been killed by the ambulance service and attendants. In the emergency run to Reese Air Force Base Hospital the ambulance ran 50 miles per hour at its top speed.

The most common first aid procedure associated with serious accidents and illnesses is transportation. It often is one of the most time consuming procedures. Perhaps more harm is done through improper transportation than any other measure associated with emergency assistance.

The citizens of Floydada and surrounding area are most fortunate to have good ambulance service and hopefully it will remain for many years to come.

People never realize the importance of good ambulance service and first aid training until an emergency crisis arises.

Respectfully,

Dale Kincer

License Plates Already Can Be Ordered By Mail

Owners of 4 million motor vehicles in Texas will have their 1974 license plates ordered by mail starting early in January. The Motor Vehicle Division of the Texas Highway Department. The same method made possible by modern computer technology will be in effect this year as it has been in the last few years. Vehicle owners can save time that used to be spent waiting in long lines at county tax offices throughout the state by ordering their 1974 license plates by mail.

All that must be done is to send the entire three-part application by mail to the county tax assessor collector in the owner's home county, enclosing the registration fee plus $1 for each vehicle to cover handling and mailing.

There are three things to remember:

1. Leave the three-part form intact. Don't separate the three parts.
2. Mail it to the county tax office in your home county. (Mailing it to the Highway Department will only delay getting 1974 license plates).

3. Be sure to include the registration fee, plus $1 for each vehicle for postage and handling.

You may apply for license plates by mail anytime. However, county tax offices won't mail plates until after Feb. 1. Owners should allow at least 30 days from the time they apply for the license plates to be returned.

In-person registrations will begin at county tax offices and, in Slaton, at the substation east of the

HEALTH
SAVE YOUR TEETH FOR OVER 35

The greatest single cause of loss of teeth after age 35 is periodontal disease-affecting the gums and other supporting structures of the teeth.

A study of 13,000 Americans age 45 and over found that more than half had periodontal disease.

According to many dental authorities, tooth loss often can be prevented with a program of home care, supplemented by regular visits to the dentist for examination and treatment, as needed.

Home care is considered responsible for 50 to 90 percent of the success of treatment for periodontal disease. The basis for home care-prevention and treatment-continues to be effective toothbrushing with a good toothbrush.

More recently dental studies have shown that the kind of toothbrush used is important. A soft-bristled brush such as Py-Co-Pay's Softex is considered best. The brush has a small head and is designed to reach in all parts of the mouth, without irritating the gums. It has a rubber tip at the end of the handle for massaging gums if recommended by the dentist.

Many dentists prefer a straight handle over the bent kind. They also suggest that each person have two brushes to permit each to dry thoroughly between brushings. They caution that worn-out medium or hard bristles that have gone soft are not the kind of soft-bristled brushes they recommend.

Moreover, the dental authorities state that brushing alone will not prevent periodontitis, so long as plaque is not removed. Professional treatment by a dentist to remove calculus the stubborn deposit that forms on teeth is also required at intervals set by him for the individual patient.

BARBECUED HAWAIIAN PATTIES ... Rehydrate 2 tablespoons instant minced onion in 2 tablespoons of water for 10 minutes. In a large bowl combine the onion with 2 pounds ground lean beef, 2 tablespoons of crushed pineapple, 2 tablespoons of Worcestershire sauce, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt and 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder; blend well. Shape into 8 patties; set aside. In blender lightly chop the remaining crushed pineapple (from an 8 1/2-ounce can). Turn into a small saucepan. Add 1/4 cup pineapple juice, 3 teaspoons firmly packed brown sugar, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, 1 tablespoon tomato paste, 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder; blend well. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Cook patties under a preheated broiler or over hot charcoal until almost done as desired. Brush tops of the patties with the pineapple sauce and cook until done as desired. Yields 8 portions.

COTTON TALKS

Total cotton received at USDA's Lubbock, Brownfield, Levelland and Lamesa classing offices stood at 2,076,621 bales as of the close of the day Jan. 2.

which on first glance makes it appear that the High Plains may have difficulty reaching the 2,725,000 bale production estimate. "But there are two factors which throw that first look out of focus," says Donald A. Johnson, executive vice president of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. First, the estimate is made in 480 pound net or 500 pound gross weight bales while the total cotton classed at a given time is reported in "running" bales by area classing offices. Second, the estimate, compiled jointly by Plains Cotton Growers and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange, applies to cotton produced from the 25 counties represented by PCG, five of which send their cotton to classing offices outside the area, at Memphis and Abilene.

Two PCG counties, Briscoe and Motley, send cotton to the Memphis classing office, and their combined total production is expected to reach 50,000 bales. Martin, Midland and Howard counties, also in PCG's "family," send cotton to Abilene for classing, and those three should turn out about 198,000 bales. Thus the total bales included in the estimate but excluded from area classing office totals, if the estimate is correct, will come to 248,000 bales of 500 pound gross weight.

Offsetting perhaps as much as 10,000 bales of this total is cotton coming to area classing offices from Eastern New Mexico and extreme Northern Texas counties not represented by PCG, leaving a net of 238,000 bales. A check with a major area compress reveals that the average gross weight of bales received there so far this season has been a big 529 pounds, 5.8 percent above the 500 pound gross used in the estimate calculations.

Reports indicate that at least 95 percent of the area crop is off the stalk, either classed, in the gin-to-compress-to-classing office "pipeline," waiting in trailers on gin yards, or stored in field ricks. If, in fact, 5 percent of the crop is still on the stalk, that would be 136,250 bales, leaving less than 155,000 bales to materialize from the pipeline, gin yards and ricks.

"Area observers have guessed the amount of cotton in ricks alone as high as 400,000 bales," Johnson notes, "which would indicate we aren't going to have any trouble at all in reaching the estimate, and we may well go beyond it."

Official bale totals on a net weight basis, by county, are compiled annually by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, but do not become available until June or July following each year's harvest.
