The couple plans to marry Dec. 21 in the First Baptist Church in Slaton.

Rackler is a 1967 graduate of Wilson High School and is a senior accounting major at Texas Tech University. He is employed by University Hospital.

This has been a quiet week at the nursing home. Everyone seems to be happy and content. We sure did enjoy the sunshine for a while this week before it rained again.

Our residents enjoyed bingo on Wednesday, and they especially enjoyed the group who came with Glen Akin for singing and devotionals on Thursday night.

Daily devotionals are enjoyed each noon by various ministers of Slaton, and we would like to say a special thank you to them, for their time and faithfulness. We know they have a very busy schedule.

Mrs. Leah Ann Reasoner is still in West Texas Hospital, and we sure hope she's feeling better by now. Mrs. Exie Felty is still in Mercy Hospital, she seems to be doing fine and we hope they both get to come back home.

We are happy to have Mrs. Mae M. recovering from her arm and rib. We are very happy to have her as a resident here. Her name is Brown. They to have their by to see the.

from the Alps to form the great central artery of Europe. Leaving the Black Forest and the Vosges Mountains behind, the Rhine, swelled by its tributaries, cuts into the Rhenish Mountains and through impressively varied river and mountain scenery.

On the right, the Main River separates the Odenwald range from the Taunus Mountains and the wine paradise of the Rheingau. Between the Lahn Valley and the Sieg River arise the Westerwald and Siebengebirge, forested ranges rich in quite beauty.

In neighboring Bergische Land, the valley of the Wupper contains the remains of ancient Roman forts and crumbling castles of robber knights.

Beyond the Ruhrland and on the left of the Rhine, the Nahe River forms the boundary between the forests and vineyards of the Palatinate and Rhenish Hesse on the one side and the unique and charming Hunsrück hills on the other.

To the northeast the Mosel, with its wealth of vineyards, flows to the Lower Rhine. The wanderer roaming the Eifel Mountains discovers crater lakes, nature preserves and mineral springs.

From banks 3000 feet apart at Mainz, the great Rhine is squeezed through a gorge 377 feet wide at the Lorelei.

Several leading cities of the Rhine region are tour stops, but they will be described next week.

The tour, costing only $628, leaves Lubbock March 22, 1975 and is nine days long. It will coincide with area school spring breaks.

For more information about the tour or the possibility of giving the tour as a Christmas or graduation gift, contact Sandy Martin at the Slatonite, 828-6201.

It's never too early to start Christmas shopping, and what could be better as a gift than an exciting nine day tour of Europe?

Michael Evans New Dentistry Associate

Dr. Don Hatchett announced Monday the association of Dr. H. Michael Evans into the practice of general dentistry.

A graduate of Baylor Dental College in Dallas, Dr. Evans obtained his undergraduate degree at Texas Wesleyan College in Ft. Worth.

Dr. Evans came to Slaton for several reasons. "I like the small town atmosphere here. Everyone has been so helpful. Also, an associate-ship is easier to begin with. It is a complicated business setting up your own practice, especially when you're right out of school."

Dr. Hatchett and Dr. Evans are now the only two dentists in Slaton. Dr. Bob Van Meter is no longer able to practice due to illness, and Dr. Phillip McNab, who was coming to Slaton several days a week, is now devoting his full time to his practice in Lubbock.

Dr. Evans will have Thursday and Saturday afternoons off, and will be available from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. throughout the rest of the week.

Evans and his wife Judy have been in Slaton only two weeks. Mrs. Evans is a teacher. She has an undergraduate degree from Texas Wesleyan and a master's degree from Texas Christian University.

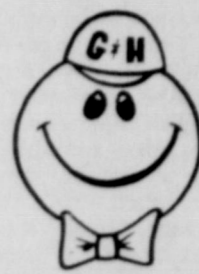

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank everyone for the kind words, deeds, cards, flowers, prayers and prayer letters. Also the visitors, thank Dr. Payne and the nurses at hospital for everything that they did to help Lois while he was in the hospital. It really was appreciated.

will be the crowning of a 1974 homecoming queen. Candidates and their escorts are LaDonna Jones and Ronnie Valadez; Dianna Dunlap and Ricky Denzer; Rhonda Moseley and Keith Bumpass; and Kimmy Cooper and Tony Leake.

Shoplifting, Checks Workshop Subjects

A two-hour workshop on the control of shoplifting and bad check losses will be Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Chamber of Commerce Building, announced Tom Roy, Slaton Chamber manager.

As a service to businessmen of the area, the workshop is presented by the Slaton Chamber of Commerce, local law enforcement officers and the Small Business Administration.

A panel consisting of representatives of the Criminal District Attorney's office, Fred Clark, chief of Slaton police and City Attorney Harvey Morton will be present to answer questions and explain what the individual businessman can do to protect himself against these losses.

Color films on shoplifting and hot checks will also be presented.

Roy said, "Every year our businessmen lose money because of shoplifters and hot check artists. No one knows how much these losses add up to in a year's time, but any retail businessman can tell you that they can be a very heavy drag on a small business enterprise."

"But the small businessman cannot afford to hire special policemen and he cannot afford the expensive and more elaborate electronic devices larger firms use."

The students at Slaton Junior High School would like to welcome the following 8th grade students to our school: Lupe Olivarez, David Cline and Brenda Jimenez.

This week we interviewed some of the teachers to find out what was going on in their classes and we also asked them if they had a student that they would like to recognize.

Mrs. Wright's class is starting to study judicial law and she would like to recognize Randy Cisneros.

Mrs. Hinkley is going to start her class on per cents, fractions and decimals. She would like to recognize Daryl Pivonka.

Mr. Carter said the eighth graders were going to start studying weather and weather forecasting.

Last week the seventh and eighth grade football boys played Roosevelt. The eighth grade won 48-8 and the seventh grade lost 38-0. This week we played Tahoka here.

This week the fire prevention poster winners and the winners of the fire themes were announced.

Poster winners were Don Patterson, first; Marcus Carreon, second; and Paul Gentry, third. Honorable mention went to Keith Fox, Linda Lester, Tony Estrada, Paula Forson, Eva Maldonado, Teddie Mabry, Mary Ann Martinez, Steven Burdick, Cindy Valadez, Tim Hartley, Mike Kenney, Robert Gutierrez, Mike Taylor and Denise Lott.

Fire theme winners were Todd Taylor, first; John Locke, second; Peggy Alspaugh, third; and Rheda Moseley, fourth. Honorable mention went to Lisa Hall, Tim Hartley, Elizabeth Rodriguez, and Lupe Ramirez. Good fire themes were written by Daryl Pivonka, Herman Hernandez, Don Patterson and Brent Peterson.

The eighth grade art class saw a film about Leonardo Da Vinci as part of their trip around the world. The seventh grade art class is working in pottery.

Slaton's eighth graders are spearheading local collection of Campbell Soup and Campbell Beans can wrappers to help the Wilson Elementary School acquire audio-visual equipment.

Wilson Elementary School Principal Ted Dockery said the school was trying to get tape recorders. He also said all labels must be turned in to him before Dec. 31. The collection center at Slaton Junior High is room 102. Please help.

7th Graders Win 26-0

Slaton 7th graders blanked Tahoka 26-0 Tuesday and the 8th grade lost for the first time, 36-18.

Coach Morris Dixon had high praise for the 7th graders, who "played well on both offense and defense." Kevin Bales made the first TD, recovering a fumble in the end zone in the first quarter. It was 6-0 at halftime.

Lance Bownds scored two touchdowns, one in each of the last two quarters, and Glenn Culver scored one TD and two extra points. The 7th now is 2-2-1 for the year and 1-1-1 in district.

The 8th grade, now 4-1 and 2-1 in district, lost despite three touchdowns by Roddy Smith, who made one of them on a 70-yard kickoff return. Top defensive players included Herman Hernandez and Don Patterson and Smith, who did well both ways.

EFFICIENCY ECONOMY

NATURAL ENERGY Gas Heating

Fresh, warm air gently circulating from floor to ceiling... so nice to take for granted. Comfort is clean gas heat.

And that dependable comfort is such a bargain here in West Texas. Though gas energy costs a little more than it used to, gas furnaces still cost less than one-third as much to operate as similar electric furnaces.

And at the same time you're saving money with gas heating, you can also have warm feeling knowing that you're helping conserve energy. Gas heating uses half as much energy as an electric system doing the same job.

Comfort, efficiency, and economy... you get it all with natural energy gas heat.

The Pirates had a welcomed visitor on the sidelines at the game Friday night. Donnie Seale, who had undergone surgery for a lacerated liver, was at the game. He is doing very well and is expected to play basketball this season. It is hoped he will be able to play football next season.

This week the Pirates will be playing on their home field, playing host to the Roosevelt Eagles. The Pirates will be looking for a victory after losing the last three games.

TALENT BLOOMS FOR F.H.A.

The Cooper F.H.A. chapter joined the Idalou F.H.A. chapter to produce a talent show. This included singing, dancing, and twirling.

The Cooper program consisted of Shari and Cindy Hagens singing "O God Didn't Give Me Much," a medley of songs ending with "I Love." Brenda Mote did a gymnastic routine. Janet Green delighted the audience with the poem "Turning Point" and ended with the popular song of "Everything is Beautiful" with accompaniment by Kandy Jones.

The Cooper Twirlers twirled to an all-time favorite, the "Wabash Cannonball." The cheerleaders dazzled the audience with a pom-pom routine to "The Good, The Bad and The Ugly." Terri Robertson and Debbie Rogers presented a skit, and Cinda Etheridge and Virginia Cash presented a song and dance. To end up the Cooper program Renee Mantooth and Martha Sanders sang "Satin Sheets".

Idalou then served the Cooper chapter refreshments.

PIRATE BAND

The Cooper Pirate Band is busy preparing for UIL contest. The band is doing a new version of a block buster, a diamond drill to the popular song, "Diamonds are Forever." To exit the band is doing the original CP drill, while playing the Pirate fight song.

The Pirate band had a special guest speaker who announced during the half time activities, Ron Dyer, head of the percussion section at Texas Tech. Dyer helped many of the students during Tech band camp in the field of percussion.

STAGEBAND PERFORMS

The Stageband of Cooper High appeared in concert on the television for the Coronado Symphonic Band. Numbers performed were: "Dot Dash," "Mac Arthur Park," and "Norwegian Wood." Earlier in the evening the band performed for the exes banquet.

PHOTOS DISPLAYED

Photos of an airplane, a pilot, a baby, a wedding, a family, and a beautiful girl in the library were displayed in the library. This unusual display taken by Doug Stelter, was at Cooper on Oct. 9, to show the students of CHS what type of photography may be expected in the 1975 Pirate annual.

Stelter, who has a studio at 2207 34th, will most likely become a familiar figure around Cooper. On Oct. 23, he will be here taking individual pictures of the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Organizational pictures will be taken the next day. Beginning on Oct. 23 through Nov. 9, seniors will be visiting his studio at appointed times to have their senior pictures taken. These will be made in several different types of dress.

LIONS HONOR TEACHERS

All teachers of the Cooper Schools were honored Monday, Oct. 7, by the Cooper Lions Club at the annual Teacher Appreciation Banquet. The banquet was held in the high school cafeteria with Harold Carpenter, superintendent of the school system, as master of ceremonies. The evening's entertainment was provided by the CHS Stageband.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT DESERVES RATING

Excellent, satisfactory, fair or poor. How would you rate the student participation in extracurricular activities at Cooper? Student involvement is an important function because it gives the school a prominent stand in its society.

Math-Science Club, Band, French, and Spanish Club, FHA, FFA, CVAE, and DECA are among some of the various organizations open to students at Cooper.

A student may be more inclined to sports. This area would include such activities as football, basketball, track and field, golf, and baseball. As in any sport, it takes moral support from the school to spark the team or individual to a winning determination. The student booster club is a valuable asset to the school, which empowers promotion or school spirit.

Although a person's interest and abilities may not direct to any of the above areas, other avenues of involvement are available. Cheerleaders could always use help with posters, decorating halls and gym for the upcoming games. Donations of student time is on a purely voluntary basis. Or, buying a spirit tag can show a pride in the school.

Student Council is a vital organization. Although not everyone can be a member, students outside of the council can work together with the Council. By informing members of the council students ideas and interests, the scope of the activities would be broadened. After all, this organization is for the student body.

With the many extracurricular activities offered, a person is not able to be involved in every area. It is impossible to "bite off more than one can chew." But, participation is a necessity to the program of education. Student involvement will not only help the school, but also as an individual.

WOMEN, PLEASE NOTE

Area women interested in the subject of crime prevention are invited to attend a meeting in Cooper High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Monday, when Sgt. Burt Sinclair of the Lubbock office of the Department of Public Safety will speak. The program will be sponsored by Cooper Young Homemakers and the Future Homemakers of America chapter at CHS.

DE REPORT

For a fund raising project this year the DECA club will be selling "Tom-Wat". This is assorted items of Christmas gifts. Last year the DECA Club sold more than any other club in the school for the program.

The items include candles, greeting cards, gift tags, gift wrap, stationery, tools and many other useful things.

The DE students will be selling Tom-Wat through Oct. 28. Anyone interested may call Kay Graves at

Veteran's Day Observances Feature Breakfast, Parade

In order to give federal employees a three day weekend, Monday, Oct. 28, has been designated as Veteran's Day. The Monday holiday bill enacted a few years ago changed several major holidays to fall on a Monday and allow long weekends for government employees.

Nov. 11, the traditional Veteran's Day, is now being called Armistice Day and many are still paying allegiance to veterans on that day.

Slaton is observing both days, saving the more elaborate celebration for Nov. 11.

The American Legion, Luther Powers Post 438, will serve breakfast to all area veterans at the Post home beginning at 6:30 a.m. on both Monday and Nov. 11. The breakfasts will continue until 9 a.m.

A flag raising ceremony will also be conducted by the Legion at sunrise on both days.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6721 will place flags around town each day and all residents and businessmen are urged to display the flag.

The Legion, VFW and the Slaton Chamber of Commerce will be the hosts for the annual Veteran's Day Parade on Nov. 11.

The parade will begin at 10 a.m. at the city park, and will march down Garza St. to the city square. The parade will encircle the square and a short program will follow.

Winners of the floats and bands contest will be announced at that time, and the keynote speaker will make his address.

Kent Hance, democratic candidate for state senator, is the scheduled speaker.

Bud Englund has been named parade marshal. Participating in the parade will be the Slaton High School band and other area bands, the Levelland Tex-Anns and the Odessa Senoritas de la Rosa, the Kiva Shriners and a color guard from Reese Air Force Base.

If permission can be obtained from the city, a helicopter from the Lubbock Army Recruiting office will land on the square.

Both chamber manager Tom Roy and Legion Commander Ellis Schmid expressed disappointment in the Monday observance of Veteran's Day.

Schmid said, "By next year, Veteran's Day will be back where it belongs. Forty-two states have already ratified an amendment to change it back. Texas will vote for it next year when the legislature meets."

CHRIS HARRIS
New Minister,
Of Music, Youth

Westview Baptist Church has selected Chris Harris as minister of music and youth.

Harris is a 20-year-old junior music major at Tech. He is a native of Alabama, but he calls Victoria, Tex., home.

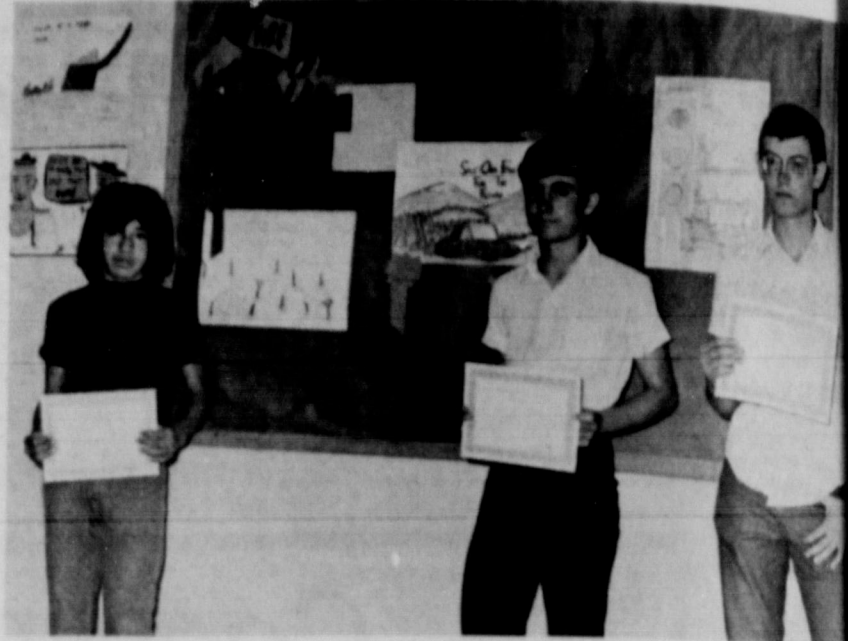

He has five years experience in the music field, and the church extends a welcome to everyone to participate in the ministry with him.

Minister Pin Presented

The Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) observe annually what they designate as Week of the Ministry. The purpose is to encourage a mutual respect of the Church's ministry.

Last Sunday the local congregation, meeting at 22nd and Division, surprised its present interim minister, the Rev. Harry T. Bridwell, by presenting him with an Honored Minister pin. The presentation was made by Bill Adams, an officer of the congregation.

The pins are usually presented by congregations to honor ministers who have retired. The Rev. Bridwell, a resident of Lubbock, ministers in various parts of the country. He entered the ministry in 1925.

PEACE

"One thing I do" (Phil. 3:13). We often hear of the "peace of God that passeth understanding." That there is such a peace is evidenced by the Scriptures (Phil. 4:7). It is lacking, however, in the lives of so many.

Though men everywhere long for such peace and serenity of spirit, they often fail to find it, because they look for it in the wrong way and in the wrong place. It is not to be found in the complex and complicated machinations of the world. The truth is: It comes from following the very simplest of principles — love for God, appreciation and service to one's fellow man, direction of oneself in the practices of the simple Christian experience — based upon complete abandonment to the New Testament teaching.

How about your life? Do you possess this unspeakable peace?

A sincere welcome is yours at every service of the church of Christ:

TV Expert Criticizes Children's Programs

What can parents do to counteract the spurious effects television is having on preschool children?

Those spurious effects were outlined by Bernard Lechowick, television director of "Carrascalendas," bilingual children's project, in a recent meeting of the Austin Parent - Child Association.

According to Lechowick, television is teaching children such things as:

- violence is the best solution to a problem,
- worth is judged by quantity and objects,
- learning is competitive, and
- sex determines which roles one plays in society.

Lechowick advised parents:

1) Watch television with your child and criticize what you see.

"The magic of television is broken by one well thought out word of criticism from a parent, because parents are still the most important factor in a child's life," Lechowick said.

2) Keep handy the telephone numbers of your local television stations and phone them when you see something offensive. Also phone them when you see a program you like very much.

"Television stations have relatively little feedback from their viewers," Lechowick said. "A station is likely to interpret one telephone call or letter as indicative of the way many viewers feel."

Furthermore, "you — not the TV stations — own the air waves. The stations are supposed to use the air waves to serve you, and only incidentally to make a profit."

The best time to try to influence local programming is when the station's license goes up for renewal, which occurs every three years. All Texas stations will apply for renewal again in July 1977.

Even more effective than one viewer's telephone call is the response of an organized group of individuals, he continued.

One national organization that was formed especially to improve the quality of children's television programming is Action for Children's Television (ACT), headquartered in Newtonville, Mass.

ACT is represented in Texas by two Resource Chairpersons — Carol Thompson, Dallas, and Kathy Guerra, San Antonio. Pat Black, Austin, serves as an ACT contact person.

ACT urged consumers in the summer to write the Federal Trade Commission in support of the FTC's proposed ban of advertising premiums on children's programs.

In proposing the ban, FTC Chairman Lewis Engman said that premium ads "focus the child's attention on a factor that is irrelevant to the merits of the product"; a prize has nothing to do with food value of a cereal, for example.

Premium advertising, Engman continued, represents an "unfair sales tactic" because it "exploits children's known anxieties and capitalizes on their propensity to confuse reality and fantasy." A long-standing ACT goal is to remove the advertising of heavily sugared foods from children's programs.

ACT Executive Board member Nancy Codispoti has said, "The continual reinforcement of a child's taste for sweets presents several dangers to health, the most significant being dental cavities, the exclusion of more nutritious foods from the diet and obesity...."

One of ACT's most recent products is "The Family

Guide to Children's Television: What to Watch, What to Miss, What to Change and How to Do It."

The book was written by Evelyn Kaye under the guidance of ACT and with the Cooperation of the American Academy of Pediatrics. Another book to help parents become informed about the television industry was recommended by Lechowick: "How to Talk Back to Your TV Set," by Nicholas Johnson, a former commissioner of the Federal Communications Commission.

Other recommended books include "Television: The Business Behind the Box"; "Cable Television: A Guide for Citizen Action"; and selected essays in "Mass Culture Revisited."

"THE THIRD KNOCK"
After the third knock on the door, Elaine and Richard decided to answer it. But to their dismay, no one was there!
"Hark!" said Richard,

"There is no one at the door!"
"No!" said Elaine, disbelievingly. "You're just jiving me, man!"
"Really and truly, Elaine. I wouldn't jive you," said Richard.
"O.K., man. Now what?" said Elaine. "Are we just gonna stick around and wait for more knocks?"
"No, I'll run down to the station and get some Gulf no-knocks," said Richard as he hurried out the door.

Later that day, we find Elaine and Richard looking for a new place to stay.
"It's all your fault that we're having to look for a new place to stay," said Elaine. "If you hadn't poured Gulf no-knocks all over the apartment, we wouldn't be in this mess right now. And on top of that, you burned every apartment in the building down!"
"Well," said Richard. "At least I got rid of the knocks."
"Yeah," said Elaine. "You got rid of the Jones', and the Klines', and the Pattersons', too!"
"Oh, come on. Let's forget about all that," said Richard. "We need a place to sleep."
"Fine with me," said Elaine. "Let's go!"
"Richard, Richard come home. It's time for dinner," called Richard's mother.
"O.K. Mommy, Gee, I have to go now," said Richard. "Are you gonna come to my sixth birthday party tomorrow?"
"Are you having ice cream and cake?" asked Elaine.
"Sure," said Richard.
"O.K. I'll see you tomorrow," said Elaine.
"Bye."
"Bye."

The Southland Eagles scored more points than in any other game this season, but Whitharral scored a bunch more in winning 64-35 last Friday. It was 38-13 at halftime, and the Eagles outscored the Panthers 22-12 in the final quarter, but Southland still wound up loser for the sixth time this season.

Ron Bartley Now Playing Quarterback At Cameron

By DAN COLLIER
Sports Information Director
Cameron University
Ron Bartley loves to play football. The 5-11, 190-pound sophomore quarterback for Cameron University in Lawton, Okla. isn't very big as far as quarterbacks go, but he has enough speed and desire to make up for what height he lacks.
Bartley, 20, is from Slaton, and was recruited out of Slaton High by Wichita State University. He switched to Cameron in the spring when John Linville became head coach of the Aggies.
He was a defensive back the first three games of the season and was moved to quarterback two weeks ago when a depth situation created a problem at that position.
At first the move shocked Bartley. "I really didn't know what to think at first," he said. "I thought maybe they just didn't want me to play defense, but now I understand the problem we have as far as depth is concerned at quarterback."
Playing quarterback is really nothing new for Bartley, a pre-law major. He quarterbacked Slaton for one year, and also spent time at running back and linebacker.

"I like playing quarterback," he said. "Of course it takes a while to learn plays and to polish the execution of plays, but it is a position where a guy must be a thinker."
Bartley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bartley, formerly of Slaton, has played about every position imaginable in his short time at Cameron. The Aggie coaching staff recognizes his versatility and their problem right now is finding the position where he can help the most.
That position might very well be quarterback. In only two weeks that he has called the signals he has already regained his touch in timing and passing.
"I really want to be a college quarterback," Bartley said. "I need to work a bunch, but I think I am learning a little more every day."
"Right now I just want to play football and get my degree. Then I would like to enter law school," he said.
He is married to the former Frana Gass of Slaton.

Ag Credit Good In Texas

Texas country banks may be out-of-step with the rest of the country — they appear to be in good shape to serve farmers and ranchers, says an economist in agribusiness.

Dr. Wayne Havenga recently surveyed the state's agricultural lending institutions to determine the agricultural credit climate. There were 98 respondents among banks, production credit associations, Federal Land Banks, Farmers Home Administration and other credit agencies.

Sixty-one per cent of Texas banks reported they were actively seeking new farm and ranch accounts as compared to only 19 per cent that reported cutting back on loans because of a fund shortage. Also, last year they had to refer fewer customers to non-bank credit agencies or to correspondent banks. Loan-deposit ratios were reported normal in 55 per cent of the banks; 33 per cent reported a drop in loan-deposit ratios.

"Thirty-one per cent of Texas agricultural lenders reported more farmers and ranchers were borrowing this year than last," points out Havenga. "This compares to 10 per cent that reported a decrease in customer numbers and 59 per cent that had no change."

Seventy-three per cent reported average loan increases as compared to only eight per cent that saw loan size go down. Greatest increases reported were for machinery and operating loans while demand for feeder cattle loans decreased.

Interest rate charged by the responding lenders as of June 1 averaged 9.49 per cent for cattle loans, 9.03 per cent for farm and ranch operating loans and 8.51 per cent for real estate loans.

The average margin requirement reported for cattle loans was 37 per cent. Only 15 per cent reported margin requirements of less than 20 per cent, but 45 and 40 per cent reported margin requirements in the 20-30 per cent and 30-40 per cent range, respectively.

"Collateral requirements were reported to be higher than last year by 20 per cent of the respondents, while 78 per cent reported requirements were the same," notes the Texas A&M University System specialist. "Only two per cent reported collateral requirements were down."

Lenders reported loan repayments were up compared to last year except for cattle loans. The predominant cash crop areas reported the highest rate of loan repayment. Of the total responses, 39 per cent reported repayments up, 37 per cent were about the same and 24 per cent were lower than last year.

Seventy-seven per cent of the respondents expected farm income for the next six months to be lower than the past year while only 12 per cent thought farm and ranch earnings would be higher.

The greatest agreement was that farmers and ranchers are spending more money on purchased inputs. Ninety-one per cent reported higher farm expenses.

Thirty-three per cent of the lenders answering the survey reported current demand for refinancing debt was up from last year, but 48 per cent indicated they expected higher demand for refinancing in the next six months.

Short-term loan demand is expected to increase by 70 per cent, according to the responding institutions. Forty-seven per cent expect interest rates to remain about the same while 29 per cent expect a decrease.

Nearly half of the lenders reported that both current and expected demand for real estate loans would remain at current levels. Sixty-three per cent indicated that long term interest rates would remain about the same, with 19 per cent expecting rates to go down.

CONSUMERS' CORNER

How can the quality of frozen food be protected?

To get the most satisfaction from the wide selection of frozen food sold today, family food shoppers are advised to protect the quality of frozen foods by keeping them cold enough and using them soon enough.

Storage at zero degrees or lower is recommended. At temperatures above zero, chemical changes in the food cause rapid loss of color, flavor, texture, and nutritive value.

If the temperature of the home freezer or freezing compartment is above zero, keep frozen foods no longer than a few days before using.

To prevent thawing, it pays to buy frozen foods last on a shopping tour. Carry them home in an insulated bag or use one paper bag inside of another.

Once they reach home, new purchases should be placed toward the back or bottom of the freezer compartment, so that older packs will be used first.

Judges Operating Under New Code

AUSTIN — Texas Supreme Court Chief Justice Joe Greenhill has announced that Texas judges are operating under a new code of ethics which requires them to file a copy of their federal income tax returns with the State Judicial Qualifications Commission.

"The Supreme Court has gone well beyond the requirements of the ethics bill passed by the legislature," Greenhill said of the Code of Judicial Conduct which was published for the first time in the Texas Bar Journal's September issue.

"It requires the filing of judges' income tax returns with the Judicial Qualifications Commission in addition to the disclosure to the Secretary of State," Greenhill said.

The Supreme Court adopted the new ethics code, the first revision since 1963, to take effect Sept. 1. The Court met Sept. 24 to adopt several minor amendments aimed at exempting county judges from the code's requirements. Greenhill said the county judges should not have been included in the code because they perform so many non-judicial functions as county administrators.

Greenhill said the code also provides:

1. A prohibition against judges engaging in most commercial and business enterprises.

2. A prohibition against political participation except on his own behalf as a candidate for election or reelection.

3. A ban against holding any office in a publicly-owned business.

4. A prohibition against a judge soliciting funds for a charity.

"This will remove us from political activity except in our own races," Greenhill said.

The financial disclosure requirement would allow the judicial qualifications commission to keep the income tax information sealed until a majority of the commission votes to review the information upon receipt of a complaint about the judge involved.

Accident Rate Down Here

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 40 accidents on rural highways in Lubbock County during the month of September, 1974, according to Sergeant O. C. Guthrie, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and 18 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first nine months of 1974 shows a total of 330 accidents resulting in 17 persons killed and 208 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for September, 1974, shows a total of 471 accidents resulting in 17 persons killed and 213 persons injured as compared to September, 1973 with 601 accidents resulting in 24 persons killed and 364 persons injured. This was 130 less accidents, seven less killed, and 151 less injured in 1974 at the same period of time.

The 17 traffic deaths for the month of September, 1974, occurred in the following counties: two each in Lipscomb, Moore, Parmer, Haskell and Parker; and one each in Castro, Deaf Smith, Hartley, Oldham, Randall, Hale and Lamb.
