Dana Wendel Crowned Lions Club Queen

Dana Wendel was crowned Slaton Lions Club Queen for 1975, winning the title Saturday night over a field of 25 entrants.

Dana is the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Wendel, and she is a sophomore at Slaton High School.

Capturing the first runner up title was Joan Kitten. Second runner up was Cindy Davis. Third and fourth runners up were Loretta Wolf and Paula Abbott.

Miss Wendel was crowned by LaDonna Jones, the outgoing queen. She said she was shocked when her name was announced as the winner. "I was really excited. I didn't expect it."

The winners were selected by three out of town judges after each girl appeared in evening dress. Each of the top five girls were asked a question, and based on their answers, their poise and personality, the new queen and her court were chosen.

Dana's question concerned women's liberation and its justification. Dana said she felt there were justifications for women's lib, but that they had gone too far in some areas.

Miss Wendel is active in band and Future Homemakers of America at Slaton High. She has been a cheerleader and was secretary-treasurer of the freshman class last year. She is now class secretary. Her other activities include basketball and Who's Who in biology.

The dark haired beauty lists her hobbies as biking, horse back riding, swimming and playing the piano.

Dean Robertson was master of ceremonies for the annual queen contest and pageant. Inez Ferrell, district 2T2 pianist, provided special music. Decorations were by Norma Lasater and Mary Beth Hoffman.

Dana will now represent Slaton Lions in the district pageant scheduled for April 25 and 26.

Minor Thefts Investigated

Several minor thefts were investigated by the Slaton Police Department this week.

Mrs. L.B. Roberts, 1305 S. 10th St., reported the theft of a lawn mower and a yard tiller from her garage Thursday. The incident is still under investigation.

Jerry White is offering a $100 reward for the return of his front license plate which he reported stolen last Thursday. The plate, which says WHIKE, was taken from his pickup while it was parked at the Santa Fe Depot.

Friday, Jesse Lopez and Bennie Vidaurre of 405 S. 4th St., reported a missing BB rifle. The gun, valued at $8.86, was reportedly stolen from their backyard.

Monday, police were called to investigate a theft from the Tan and Black Cafe at 1020 S. Flint. Change from a cigarette machine and a pool table was missing. Damage to both machines was estimated at $10 each. The incident is still being investigated. There were no signs of forceable entry.

Although nothing was taken, the Housing Authority at 420 E. Powers was broken into sometime Friday night. Roy Lacy called officers to the scene where they found a cut screen and broken glass on a rear window. Once inside, the officers found two large rocks just inside the window. Damage was estimated at $35.

Two accidents occurred during the week. A 1968 Chevrolet driven by June Hubert and a 1964 Dodge driven by Raymond Dabila Jr. were in collision in the 1200 block of 13th St. Damage to both cars was estimated at $400.

An accident at U.S. 84 and Woodrow road resulted in $1,400 damage to a 1965 Mustang driven by Mark Donald Ehman, Tuscon, and a 1970 truck driven by Jerry Wilson Barron of Euleus. Minor injuries were sustained by passengers in the car.

Commission Discusses House Cleanup Plan

The demolition of abandoned, dilapidated houses in Slaton was the subject of a one item agenda meeting Tuesday of the City Commission.

Although no official action was taken, the Commission spent almost an hour discussing the process with several visitors who attended the meeting.

Mrs. Louise Smith, president of the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, told the Commission the women would help with the project, if they were wanted. Mayor John Landreth assured her their help would be appreciated, and Mrs. Smith pledged the aid of the Women's Division.

Although the project began as an effort to clean up Ward IV, the commissioners said they felt it should be extended city wide. Before any house can be torn down, its owner must be notified and permission must be given. Therefore, the dilapidated houses elsewhere in Slaton need to be searched out, inspected by a building health and fire inspector, and the owners must be notified.

The commissioners suggested that the Women's Division would be able to help with the survey of the rest of Slaton.

Since the beginning of the destruction of several houses in the city, citizens interested in the usable lumber have requested permission to tear down some of the buildings. In order to avoid confusion and to avoid having more than one person tearing down a house, it was decided to set up a central headquarters with one person to oversee the destruction of houses.

Mary Louise Ruiz, who is a member of the Housing Standards Commission, will coordinate the demolition, assigning contracts for the destruction of each house. Mrs. Ruiz can be reached at Harvey Morton's Slaton office, and anyone interested in tearing down a house should call her.

The commission also decided to assign the contracts on a rotating basis, so that houses without usable lumber would also be torn down.

The city agreed to clean the lots once the houses were down.

Friday Is Day Of Egg Hunt

The 13th annual KCAS sponsored Easter Egg hunt will be this Friday beginning at 9:30 a.m. in the city park.

The hunt will be divided for children ages three to six, and seven to 10.

Schools Complete Self - Study

BY MARTIN
Under its authorization, the Board of Education completed its self-evaluation study of the Slaton school system. Dr. S. Wallace, superintendent of the study and of education at the district level, discussed some of the findings with a group of 25 teachers at a board meeting Monday at the Steak-a separate evaluation of the system.

Dr. Wallace praised the teaching efforts of Slaton instructors. "You are doing a fine job in spite of some of the inadequacies you have to work with," he said. "You're getting one of the best performances from a teaching faculty I've seen."

He also said this is the first time in his experience he didn't find griping among the faculty.

Dr. Wallace also pointed out weaknesses in the system. He said both the self-evaluation study and the reports of the visiting committee noted several universal weak points in the schools.

"There is an absence and a need for curriculum vertical and horizontal guides," he said. He told the gathering they need to know what a student has studied and what he will study. All the teachers need to know what a student has a background in.

Dr. Wallace also cited a problem with non-functional facilities. As a prime example he discussed the high school library. "Your high school library will seat 30 to 35 students in a study situation. It's supposed to seat one sixth of the student body. The current facility is about a third as large as it should be."

He also mentioned overcrowding of classrooms and the lack of different sizes of classrooms.

Another area the professor criticized is Slaton's curriculum. He told the educators that the schools had an imbalanced curriculum. He said the current curriculum would satisfy the common needs of most of the students, but the needs of more gifted students aren't fulfilled.

Dr. Wallace closed his discussion of the weaknesses with an explanation that more clerical and secretarial help is needed. He said the schools were making a mistake in assigning teacher aides non-instructional work. "They're needed in the classroom," he said. "Aides shouldn't have to spend all their time on paperwork."

Dr. Wallace made several recommendations to the group and further recommendations will be made when the visiting committee completes its reports.

The self-study has been printed and is available in a 114 page book which examines the strengths and weaknesses of each department of each school.

The study was instigated after the accreditation committee of the Texas Education Association suggested such a program last year.

Notice

The Slatonite will be closed Saturday so that employees may have a brief Easter holiday.

The office will be open Monday morning at 8:30 as usual.

WOODWORK

FOLKS already are talking about going up to 60 or even 75 cents a gallon this summer, and of course, there's a yak about adding a big tax on gasoline, or rationing gasoline to keep from wasting the stuff.

Many folks felt that last year's big gasoline price increase was an artificially-created thing to get gasoline prices up at the retail level. It certainly succeeded in doing that, but it well could experience the same sort of thing if the weather gets warmer this year and folks want to go more places. Again I think this would be at least partially an artificial thing, but whether the price is real or controlled by the big oil companies makes no difference to the guy who has to put gasoline to put in his tank.

One recently introduced a bill to force the automakers to design cars which get at least 25 or 30 miles per gallon (or more) within the next few years. It's doubtful that such a bill would pass against the opposition of the oil companies, but most folks are sure that the auto manufacturers they wished, make engines which operate on much less fuel than they do

It would be nice to be able to figure out how we could burn our trash in the fuel cell and run the car on the fumes. With a portion of Mexican food in the diet, this might work. Anyway, it would be nice to have some solutions to the problems of waste disposal and fuel economy at one time.

Worship This Easter — Attend The Church Of Your Choice, Sunday

A SOUP TO COME HOME TO

The word homemade evokes fond memories in most of us—memories of Mom, apple pie and the other good things which came from her kitchen. In winter, she knew there was nothing better than a warming soup to come home to. Now we don't often take the time for made-from-scratch soups. Here's a soup recipe that's so easy there's no reason not to make it. The creamy soup gets its delicious flavor from a blending of mixed vegetables—peas, carrots, corn, lima and green beans. Serve with PREMIUM Saltine Crackers which have been a favorite since they won a prize at a county fair back in 1876.

CREAMY MIXED VEGETABLE SOUP

- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 medium onion, sliced
- 1 (10-ounce) package frozen mixed vegetables, thawed
- 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1 3/4 cups water
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 3 chicken bouillon cubes
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
- Few dashes ground nutmeg
- Snipped parsley
- PREMIUM Saltine Crackers

In saucepan melt butter or margarine; add onion and sauté until golden. Stir in vegetables and sauté a few minutes. Stir in flour; then next five ingredients. Bring to boil; then simmer, covered, about 15 minutes, or until vegetables are tender. Blend in electric blender until smooth. Sprinkle with parsley and serve with PREMIUM Saltine Crackers. Makes 6 (about 2/3 cup) servings.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN—Many homeowners view the beginning of warm weather as the ideal time to get house and yard in shape for a long summer of enjoyment.

But lawyers in the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division caution that this is also a favorite season for unscrupulous door-to-door salesmen and repairmen to solicit home improvement jobs.

These operators pop up as regularly as Texas bluebonnets each spring, selling aluminum siding, patio additions, pest control, new roofs, remodeling, and other jobs.

And while some door-to-door solicitors for such jobs are legitimate, our Consumer Protection attorneys emphasize that you should be especially careful to determine this in advance. That's because itinerant businessmen can disappear just as fast as they appeared on your doorstep. It's important to make sure you're dealing with someone who won't pull such a disappearing act after he has your money but before he completes your job.

Legitimate construction and pest control businesses and siding salesmen are as eager to see that consumers get a fair shake as consumers themselves, since they realize that unscrupulous practitioners of their trade can give the entire industry a bad name.

Some complaints about fraudulent home remodeling or repair solicitors indicate that work was not completed within the stated time limit or sometimes not at all, that construction or repairs were not performed in a workmanlike and satisfactory manner, that inferior materials were used, or that the final price far exceeded the price agreed to orally.

Problems with unscrupulous door-to-door pest control inspectors include complaints about "inspectors" who carry containers of termites and rotted wood with them when they make their "free inspection" of a house. Such an inspection virtually always results in a recommendation that a complete pest control job be started immediately. In some cases, repair of "structural damage" is also recommended.

Complaints about aluminum siding salesmen sometimes come from persons who were told they would get a "special discount price" if their house could be used as a "demonstration model." The salesman indicates that a sign will be put up for a certain number of days, with the homeowner getting a $10 discount for each day of advertising. Often the sign is never put up, and the "special discount price" usually was the regular price of the siding.

Our Consumer Protection Division recommends taking these precautions to avoid having possible problems later: Tell the door-to-door salesman you want to think over his offer, then get three other estimates for the job he proposes. Get a written estimate from the person you pick and make sure the starting and completion dates are included, along with total cost, description of work, type of materials, any guarantees, and method of payment.

Try banking by mail. You'll save time and effort. You'll save gasoline too — especially if you've been using the drive-in teller window.

Add Color, Variety With Flowering Vines

One way to add color and variety to your home landscape is with annual flowering vines, says one expert in landscape horticulture.

"All that is needed to grow flowering vines is a wooden lattice, woven wire fencing or string to support the plants," says Everett Janne with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "These vines can be used to shade a porch or add color and interest to a particular area."

Among annual flowering vines that are attractive in home landscapes are morning glories, cathedral bells, moonflowers, nasturtiums, canary birds, gourds, cypress vines and black-eyed Susans.

The morning glory is colorful with white, blue or red flowers. It grows to a height of up to 15 feet.

Start the vines in four-inch pots and transplant them two or three weeks after the usual last frost date. Be sure they are planted in a well-drained, sunny location, emphasizes Janne.

"Don't plant morning glories in rich soil or use fertilizer, as this will produce vigorous vines but few flowers," she said.

Cathedral bells grow up to a height of 20 feet and produce bell-shaped, blue or violet flowers. "These vines are free of insect and disease problems and can be planted in either a sunny or shady spot," says Janne.

The moonflower vine is also tall-growing and produces large white fragrant flowers which open during the evening. It also has large heart-shaped leaves that provide a dense shade.

Nasturtiums are bushy vines that grow four-to-five feet tall and produce fragrant red or yellow flowers. They prefer a well-drained soil of low or average fertility.

The canary bird vine grows to a height of about eight feet and is closely related to the nasturtium.

Gourds produce few flowers but have colorful fruit. "The fruit ripens in late summer and can be used for fall and winter arrangements in your home," notes Janne.

Fashion FORECASTS

WHAT TO EXPECT SUIT YOURSELF

The "real" suit returns to fashion this year in a most important way. This trimly-tailored outfit by Patty O'Neil is a dress-and-jacket ensemble with the look of three-piece. The floral, bow-tied blouse is seamed and belted to a flippy, four-gore skirt and covered by a matching jacket with definite Forties' overtones. Made in a frosted heather fabric blend of "Dacron" polyester and Du Pont nylon, it's a smashing spring-into-summer design.

ELECTRONIC CALCULATORS CAN SAVE YOU IN MANY WAYS AT TAX TIME

What's the most common reason for incorrectly filed income tax returns? According to Internal Revenue Service statistics, it's computation error, usually no more than a mistake in addition or subtraction. That's why more and more people are turning to help to personal electronic calculators to save them time, mental anguish and, often as not, money.

This growing use of calculators in preparing income tax returns is a significant factor reducing such mistakes. When a person is called upon to add or subtract long columns of figures, mistakes can and do occur. Now, with low-cost calculators to help do the math involved, the taxpayer is armed with a weapon to fight these mistakes. Electronic calculators are one of the few items whose price has actually come down in the past year. A basic 4-function unit that cost $100 or more last year, now may be purchased for about one quarter of that price. For example, Rockwell International, a major name in electronics and a dominant force in the calculator field, markets such a unit retailing for $24.88.

Low-cost calculators are so new on the scene that the IRS has no figures upon which to make a projection as to how many mistakes will be eliminated by people using calculators; however, the numbers may be significant. Persons using calculators will be more sure of their figures, and will have a solid base upon which to prepare the return.

The nature of the tax form is such that almost every calculation, no matter how simple, has a direct bearing on every other figure entered. Thus, an initial mistake can compound itself throughout a return. By utilizing a calculator, the taxpayer knows with certainty that the figures upon which the returns are based have been added or subtracted correctly.

Knowing that the math is correct makes the rest of the procedure of filing a return much less threatening. The IRS continually revises its tax forms, attempting to make them more easily understood and less complicated. This year, entire schedules have been eliminated for those who itemize, or consolidate into other forms.

According to the IRS, the following mistakes are the ones most people make when filing a return:

1. COMPUTATION — Double check all numbers whether short form or deductions.
2. FAILURE TO FOLLOW DIRECTIONS — Entire form before and follow directions from previous year on the form.
3. FAILURE TO ATTACH SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER — The main method of identifying a return and if the number will cause a return to be rejected.
4. FAILURE TO SIGN YOUR NAME — Most often on the return when either neglects to sign or signs with initials.
5. FAILURE TO ATTACH SCHEDULES — Attach your W-2 itemize deduction necessary schedule.

Remember that you will file your income tax a straightforward mysterious procedure almost all instances an electronic calculator save time, worry possibly, money.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Agriculture Committee deserves a full round of dispatch with which it reported emergency March 6, according to Don Marble of South Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock. Moved by the committee, if passed and signed raise the support prices for cotton, wheat, feed plus reinstate a loan program for soybeans, which are badly needed if financial ruin is to be averted for farmers," Marble said.

Chairman Tom Foley, Democrat of Washington, is to go to the Rules Committee in the week of March 10. The bill has a good chance of reaching the House floor as early as March 10, but there are others who are much less enthusiastic about the possibility of a Presidential veto. Reported by the committee calls for raising the loan to 40¢ per pound, basis Middling one inch, announced as a "preliminary" loan in October of last year, up from 38¢ under present law.

Changes would be made in the cotton program. The Commodity Credit Corporation loan program would have the option to extend the 10-month loan to 18 months. Currently, the law calls for a 10-month loan from the first day of the year they are written.

Change, which came as a last minute amendment to the loan program, has not been fully explained. It would call for the Secretary of Agriculture to, insofar as practicable establish the same conditions on storage costs and interest for each of cotton, wheat and feed grains.

Under present act, feed grain and wheat producers have been required to prepay storage charges on the loan, while cotton producers have only if and when cotton was redeemed from government sources indicate that the language of the bill, as desired, would permit him to reimburse also to pay storage charges in advance.

Storage rate on cotton is currently 70¢ per month before a requirement that 10-months' storage be paid in advance would have the effect of lowering the loan level to about 38.5¢.

Previously announced there would be no loan for soybeans in 1975, but if the Ag Committee bill that loan program would be reinstated, reportedly 81¢ per bushel.

Committee agreed on target prices of $3.10 per bushel and $2.25 per bushel for corn (about $3.81 for grain sorghum), and set loan rates of $2.50 for corn (about $3.17 for grain sorghum).

Recently announced that CCC loans would carry an interest rate of 6.125 per cent, down from 9.375 per cent. The bill would require that CCC interest rates on loans be reviewed quarterly and be set at a rate no higher than current cost of money to the government.

Citrus Juice — For Nutrition And Economy

Stretching your food money is important — but not if it's at the expense of your family's good health.

So conclude several noted nutritionists, such as Jean Mayer of Harvard University, who are concerned at the way inflation has affected the food purchasing habits of American housewives.

People are not eating less, according to these experts. Instead, they are reducing the amount of money they spend on food by purchasing more low-cost carbohydrates and fats.

Such a shift makes sense economically, not nutritional. In today's economy the best approach is making sure you are getting the best possible value for your dollar, the experts say.

One of the items that remains high on the experts' lists of recommended foods is citrus juice.

Frozen concentrated and ready-to-drink juices, such as those produced by TreeSweet, are among the best foods a woman can give her family. They combine the two things that are important to every homemaker — economy and nutrition.

While the price of citrus juices has gone up slightly during the past two years, the increase has been much less than other food products. Juices remain one of the best buys in the supermarket — especially when you consider how good they are for you.

Everyone knows that citrus juices are rich in Vitamin C — long considered one of the most important nutrients in the diet. The body can't store up Vitamin C, and that's why it's an important part of the daily diet.

CITRUS JUICE'S nutritional and economic value make it popular among homemakers — especially in an era of rising food costs. Kids just think it taste good.

An eight-ounce glass of orange juice — fresh, canned or frozen — supplies an adult with the total average daily requirement of Vitamin C. Yet, the same glass is also rich in other nutrients — among them thiamine, carotene, niacin and riboflavin.

As if that weren't enough, citrus juice has a special benefit in an age of high sugar prices. While TreeSweet doesn't add any sugar to its Juices, citrus juice is rich in natural sugars which the body burns for energy.

Since orange juice is both economical and nutritious, it's little wonder that it's more popular than ever: orange juice consumption has more than doubled in less than a decade! Smart women who are concerned about their finances as well as their families are increasingly discovering juice for its nutritional — and economic — value.

Time To Spare

The age of retirement is a time of reason, a time of adjustment. It can be a difficult time, but it doesn't have to be, for anyone.

Few individuals approach retirement in exactly the same frame of mind. For some, retirement has always been an incentive to work, a reason to save, the fulfillment of a dream. To others, retirement is a date on the calendar, a black moment when the powers-that-be pass out a gold watch, a handshake and a set of walking papers. Retirement, like most happenings in the individual life, is a very personal thing.

Because retirement is a personal thing, there are no patented guidelines for success and happiness when it becomes a reality. So, how does one prepare?

A good beginning is to accept the eventuality of retirement and, in fact, plan a course of action from that day forward. Retirement should be considered not as a time when someone says "step down" or "move out," but as the beginning of a period of life when one is free to pick and choose activities and interests. Retirement years are dividend years, earned-time years, as you choose. But, they are your years, to use as you like, to live as you like. As such, they are extremely valuable, and can be profitable in many ways.

For the individual who reaches mandatory retirement age and knows that he is far from "through," retirement is a special challenge. He will meet that challenge easily once he recognizes that there is somewhere a market for the experience, knowledge and talents he has cultivated through the years. Finding that market is not always easy, but the individual who has known success will continue to find a way... and to enjoy the effort.

"Texas" To Begin Another Season

The sounds of "Texas", Paul Green's Musical Drama of Panhandle History, will roll through the crags of the Palo Duro Canyon for the tenth season this summer - 1975, from June 18 through August 23.

Echoing from the great cliffs behind the stage, the bugles, the hymns, the banjos and guitars, the songs of celebration and sorrow, the cry of the wolf and the roar of a train, the words of warning and waiting, the shots of 45's and rifles, and thundering crashes of storms swirl around the listeners, creating the story of the 1880's.

The theatre where "Texas" plays lies in the magnificent Palo Duro Canyon near Amarillo and Canyon, Texas — the crossroads of six interstate highways and four airlines.

This drama, one of Paul

Green's great declarations of faith in America, has been celebrating the strengths and struggles of this country ever since the summer of 1966. At the end of the 9th season, 677,472 people have seen "Texas".

A company of 140 including a cast of 80 actors, singers and dancers tells the story and the sound of their words and songs carries to the farthest corner of the theatre.

In the last century, the settlers on the plains faced many battles with the elements. The sounds of these surges of nature are added to the show by sensitive and powerful sound equipment which reproduces the winds and the rains and the crackling of the prairie fires.

Fine lighting instruments, gay costumes and the movement of lights on the cliff supplement the sound and an evening at "Texas" leaves an impact to be remembered.

Everyone in the audience will feel and hear this sound — almost seems to be inside of it.

To have this experience, come to "Texas."

high point trophy for the meet, which included all the churches in the Lubbock Baptist Association.

THE SUPPER

"For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep." (1 Cor. 11:30). Because the Corinthian Christians had improperly observed the Lord's Supper, and this as a matter of practice, they had greatly weakened (and in some cases, destroyed) their spiritual lives. They had failed to keep the supper as a simple memorial of the death of Christ (v. 26), assigning to it a significance which was never intended. As a result, they were no longer truly worshipping God through this medium, even though they were regular in their perverted observance.

Let us remember that the supper is to be observed each Sunday (Acts 20:7) in remembrance of Christ, with the bread a memorial of the body and the fruit of the vine a memorial of the blood of the Lord shed for the remission of sins (1 Cor. 11:24, 25). Failure to partake of the communion in this manner involves eating and drinking damnation (v. 29). Let us not be weak and sickly, but let us obtain spiritual strength by faithfulness.

A sincere welcome is yours at every service of the church of Christ:

Read Isaiah 11:1-9; Matthew 21:14-16

A little child shall lead them. (Isaiah 11:6)
 I have always heard the statement, "Out of the mouths of babes," and lately the truth behind this statement was made even more real to me.

A small child was overheard talking to her father during Communion service: "Daddy, when all those people get finished, can we go back for some more of that tenny-tiny bread and grape juice? I didn't get enough."

The thought, "I didn't get enough," began to take on meaning to me. Just how many adults have participated in the Communion service and yet gone away without feeling the wonderful experience of knowing they have supped with the Savior? Or how many times have we come for fellowship with other believers and yet missed out, not getting enough!

Christ's words tell us, "Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled."

How about you and me? Are we getting enough of the love, joy, and peace of Christ? If our answer is no, let us pray for God to give us a hunger and thirst for His Word, believing with the simplicity of a child that God honors it.
 PRAYER: Father, we ask for a new hunger for a deeper fellowship with Your Son. Help us to walk in His light and continually feel His love, joy, and peace. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Christ can be as near as our next thought.

DAVID WINDIBIZIRI

Nigerian Minister To Speak In Area

David Windibiziri, a native of Nigeria, will speak at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Posey Saturday at 7:30 p.m. He will also preach the Easter service at 9 a.m. at St. John Lutheran Church in Wilson and at 10:45 a.m. at Grace Lutheran Church in Slaton.

Windibiziri is the only surviving son of a pagan farm and hunting family. Through the concern of his evangelist uncle and the intercession of his mother to overcome his father's idea that since they do not work on Sunday Christians are lazy, David became part of a Lutheran catechism class in 1947 and was baptized in 1949.

Although he received specialized training and served as an agricultural assistant for several years, an early desire to become a pastor persisted; and in February, 1967, he was finally able to enter the Theological College of Northern Nigeria. His college years, the first he had known as part of a Christian community, were rich in the ecumenical spirit and growth in grace.

Upon ordination in 1972, he became the pastor of the Messiah Church, a congregation of about 200 souls in Jos town, where he is called upon to meet the many problems that young Christian families face in an environment where they are surrounded by Muslims.

Included among Messiah Church's many activities are the Women's Fellowship, Sunday School, Boys' Brigade, Girls' Brigade, Choir, Youth activities, prayer meetings and Bible studies.

Pastor Windibiziri's wife, who is also from a non-Christian family, was baptized on January 1, 1955, a few months prior to their wedding. They are the parents of five children who range in age from seventeen years down to five. One other child died in 1965.

In addition to his pastoral responsibilities, Pastor Windibiziri serves on the Executive Council of the Lutheran Church of Christ in the Sudan. His wife is a member of the Committee of the Christian Council of Nigeria, Jos Branch.

SONG SERVICE

"The Burning Flame Singers" will be singing at the Evangelical Methodist Church Sunday, at 6 p.m. The public is invited to this Easter song service.

WESTVIEW FAMILY NIGHT

According to the Rev. Birdie Jones, Westview Baptist Church had its regular Family Night in the

Portuguese Sweet Bread For Easter Celebration

Easter, a time for re-awakening, is one of the important Feast Days of the Old World. Most countries have a traditional bread, something important in appearance and taste to celebrate breaking the fast of Lent.

The Azores, a Portuguese Colony off the Coast of North Africa, incorporate an Easter egg into the dough as a symbol of the beginning of life. The egg, hard cooked in the shell, is placed in individual portions of the dough, then secured with a cross fashioned of more dough. It looks special and appropriate for the season.

The bread dough is sturdy and satisfying, made rich with sugar, margarine and eggs. The same dough is also used for the fragrant breakfast rolls that tourists remember nostalgically returning from travels to Portugal. For everyday eating the dough is shaped in a gently rounding roll about six inches in diameter. It is brushed with beaten egg, then sprinkled with coarse sugar before baking. The dough is easy to handle and can be shaped into an impressive braid or coil.

Method for making the traditional bread is the updated Rapidmix method developed by the Test Kitchens of Fleischmann's Yeast. It eliminates the step of dissolving yeast in warm water. Instead the undissolved yeast is added with part of the dry ingredients. Milk, water and margarine are heated over low heat until very warm (120° F. - 130° F.). The margarine does not need to melt. After two minutes of beating, three eggs go into the batter, followed by an additional two minutes of beating with an electric mixer before the

BASKETBALL TROPHIES
The Southland fifth and sixth grade boys won the first place trophy, and the fifth and sixth grade girls won the second place trophy at the Wilson Sixth Grade Basketball Tourney which ended March 21.

The boys defeated Wilson 32-14 the first day of the tournament. Perry Hill tallied 12 points; Johnny Vasquez made eight; and Eddie Johnston added six. On March 20, the boys outscored another Wilson team by 50-6. The championship game with New Home March 21 ended with a 32-27 score. Gerry Hill was Southland's top scorer with nine points.

The girls defeated Wilson 23-14 in their first game of the tournament. Cindy Courtney made 10 points, and Pam Hill added five. On March 20, the girls won a close one with St. Joseph, 22-20. Pam was high scorer with eight points, and Mary Hill and Sombra Rush each had four points.

GIRLS DEFEAT SLATON
The 9 and 10-year-old girls defeated Slaton 12-10 March 14 at Southland. Teresa Hambrick ran up eight points, and Carla Nelson scored four.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION

Trustee election places have been drawn for the April 5 school board election. The places are 1. Pat Adamek, 2. William Becker Jr., 3. Sammy Ellis, 4. Glenn Klesel, 5. Robert Lee Mock, and 6. H.C. Dunn.

Slaton Boys Jr. Basketball

Smith Ford won over Bryant Farm Supply last Tuesday 19-12. Noel Mask led Smith with 15 points. Jeff Ferguson was high for Bryant with eight.

The win brought Smith Ford's record to 5-0 and Bryant's to 2-4. Bryant beat Hackberry Co-Op Gin 14-8 Thursday night, which left Hackberry's standing as 1-4. Brent Holt was high with eight points for Bryant. Shaw Murphy and Scott Moore shared scoring honors for Hackberry with four each.

In the older boys' play, Eblen Pharmacy beat Slaton Co-Op Gin 16-14. Brent Aycock netted eight points for the winners while Troy Moses led the Co-Op with six points.

Eblen lost to Self Furniture later in the week 32-22. Tom Burrows and Kyle Williams each had 10 points for Self. Randall Mosser led Eblen with 11 points.

Citizens State Bank won two games last week. They defeated Supreme Feed 29-19. Charles Phoenix netted 14 points for CSB and Toby Pickens scored nine for Supreme. In the second game, CSB edged Slaton Co-Op 25-21. Phoenix was again high pointer with 13. Lonnie King had eight points for Co-Op.

Standings for the teams are: CSB 7-0; Supreme Feed 3-3; Self Furniture 3-3; Slaton Co-Op 2-4; and Eblen's Pharmacy 1-6.

All coaches need to be at the high school gym April 1 to vote on the all stars, who will be announced after the last ball game April 3.

April 3 games which had been set for 7 and 8 p.m. will be played at 6 and 7 p.m. All boys in both age groups need to be at the gym for the naming of the all stars.

The 11 and 12 year old All Star Tourney has been set for April 10-12 at White Face.

Beef Supply Looks Good

Beef will be plentiful for awhile — and that may hold other meat prices down, one authority said this week.

"Pork and broiler supplies are less, but it's likely that prices will not change substantially, as the plentiful beef supply will tend to keep other meat prices from rising very much during the coming weeks," Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt said.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

She also reported "exceptionally good" supplies — and lower prices — for rice, dry beans and peanuts.

At produce counters, strawberries and asparagus signal the spring crops, but they are available currently at first-of-the-season-prices, which are usually higher, the specialist added.

"Grapefruit and oranges are plentiful with excellent quality, while apples, bananas, pineapples and pears are other economical choices."

"Potatoes and dry yellow onions are real bargains, but other vegetables are only moderately priced. They include turnips, rutabagas, cabbage, carrots, celery and some squash," Mrs. Clyatt said.

Consumer Watchwords? Fish offers more edible meat per pound than many other meat cuts — and it provides the same complete protein as red meats.

Spring Pacesetters

Sheer doubleknits will be new pacesetters for spring fashions, one clothing specialist reported this week.

"Some are as lightweight as jersey and voile — others as ultrasheer as chiffon," Margret Ann Vanderpoorten with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said.

She explained that these ultrasheer doubleknits have been produced in Europe from a variety of different fibers — natural, synthetic and blends.

"Variations can be made to look like dotted Swiss, mousseline, crepe and other specialty fabrics."

"These fabrics are currently being used for blouses, lingerie and other intimate apparel. And by late spring the sheer doubleknits should be available in fabric stores also."

Miss Vanderpoorten pointed out that the advantage of these fabrics to home sewers is that they will be as easy to sew with as the standard doubleknits now on the market.

ECOLOGY?

WE'RE PART OF IT.

Sure we want an unpolluted environment. But we also want electricity at a price we can afford. So when you talk about zero emissions from smoke stacks and unrealistic anti-pollution measures please remember one thing. Water and air are a part of ecology but people are a part of it too.

Mayonnaise And Salad Dressing Have you ever wondered what the difference is between mayonnaise and salad dressing? Mayonnaise is a stable emulsion of oil droplets in water and it doesn't separate because it is stabilized with egg yolk. Salad dressing contains less oil and a cooked starch paste substitutes for part of the egg.

Accent on Health

If you sneeze and snuffle during the ragweed season, if you have cramps, diarrhea, or rash after eating a particular food or drug, if you wheeze or itch when around a cat, a horse, chicken feathers, or some other substance — then you may be suffering from an allergy.

An allergy is an unusual reaction to a substance, an abnormal behavior of the body to it. Half of the people in the world sneeze or snuffle, wheeze or itch, suffer intestinal disturbances or other uncomfortable symptoms because of their allergies. Half of the adult population in Texas and one-third of our children are afflicted, say state health officials.

In some it occurs only at certain seasons of the year, in others at fairly long intervals, while in many it is a daily problem.

When the allergy-producing substance enters your system and comes in contact with the antibodies in the cell, that union produces dramatic effects. The best known of the results of these miniature explosions is the release of the chemical histamine from the cell. Normally, presence of histamine stimulates production of adequate amounts of antihistamine which would of course cause no symptoms to develop. Sometimes enough antihistamine is not produced to counter the levels of histamine. Histamine is perfectly harmless when inside the cell, but once released outside the cell it produces undesirable changes. It dilates and congests blood vessels so that fluids from your blood stream leak out into the tissue, causing swelling. If this change takes place in the skin the result is hives. If this reaction occurs in the nose, the membrane swells and you have a condition known as hay fever or "sinus." Another action of histamine is to contract or put into spasm involuntary muscle fibers — muscles not controlled by your own will, such as stomach, intestine, urinary bladder, or the uterus. If this muscle effect takes place in the muscle fibers around the bronchial tubes, asthma is the result; if in the intestine, cramps and diarrhea may be the effect.

At least one in three Texans who have untreated hay fever will develop asthma, say state health officials. In many cases, seasonal asthma may fail to subside with the end of the season and become chronic. Among the forms of respiratory "pollinosis" is hay fever. Tree pollen from about March to May, grass pollen from May to August, weed pollen from September to October. Molds come in during the summer months. The severity varies in different parts of the country and largely depends on the weather conditions. The temperature, sunshine and humidity during pollen season. Molds come in during the summer months.
