Veteran's Day Includes Breakfast, Parade

Decorated Veteran's Day parade complete with bands, pretty girls and symbolic floats will take to the streets of Slaton Monday in an effort to keep the tradition of Veteran's Day alive.

Tri-sponsored by the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Slaton Chamber of Commerce, the seventh annual parade will begin at 10 a.m. According to Chamber manager Tom Roy, approximately 30 entries will march from the city park, down Garza, and around the square.

Kent Hance, newly-elected state senator, will speak following the parade's arrival on the square.

Good Response

Slaton and area organizations have entered wholeheartedly into the Veteran's Day parade. Every branch of the United States Armed Services will be represented, and a special attraction will be the landing of a helicopter (manned by an Army recruiter) on the square.

Other military organizations scheduled in the parade include the Tech Army ROTC Saber and Rifle drill team, a color guard from Reese Air Force Base, the Estacado JROTC Army color guard and drill team, and a 102 howitzer which will be displayed by the Army.

Slaton High School Tiger band will be the host band, with the Wilson and Friendship bands also appearing.

Float Entries

Float entries come from the Athenian Study Club, the VFW Auxiliary, the American Legion, Slaton JROTC, and the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce.

Special guests will include the South Plains College Tex-Anns and the Senioritas de la Rosas from Odessa College.

Dignitaries on hand for the celebration will be Hance, Kay Milliken, South Plains Maid of Cotton, and various city officials.

Local parade marchers will be the SHS cheerleaders, Maxine's Dancing Class students, Boy Scout troop 123, the Rough Riders, second and third grade Brownies, a local girl scout troop, and several members of the Lubbock antique car club.

Veteran's Day activities will begin early Monday with a breakfast at the American Legion hall for all veterans. The Legion and the VFW are preparing the breakfast which will be served from 6:30 to 9 a.m. and is free to all veterans.

Favor Change

Ells Schmid, Legion commander, and Roy both expressed disappointment at the Monday holiday bill which Congress passed in 1971 to move Veteran's Day to the fourth Monday in October.

Schmid said that approximately 45 states have passed action to have the holiday returned to Nov. 11 and he hopes that by next year Veteran's Day will be back where it belongs.

In 1919 President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed Nov. 11 as Armistice Day to remind Americans of the tragedies of war. In 1938 the day was made a federal holiday, and in 1954 Congress changed the name to Veteran's Day in order to honor all United States veterans.

In an effort to give federal employees more long weekends, the Monday holiday bill was passed in 1971, moving several traditional holidays such as Washington's birthday and Columbus Day to Mondays.

Tigers Crunch Cooper Pirates 31-0

By DALTON WOOD

The Slaton Tigers blocked and tackled like demons and Bill McClesky ran about as well as anybody you ever saw Friday night as Slaton won its third game of the season, beating Cooper 31-0.

It was Slaton's first win in three tries over the Pirates, who have skidded badly in recent games after playing strong early in the season. Cooper now also is 3-6 for the year, and 0-5 in district. Slaton stands 2-3 in district.

McClesky scored three touchdowns, giving him seven in the last two games. Charlie Haynes scored once and Ricky Denzer kicked the ball through the uprights every time he got a chance Friday, hitting four extra points and a 28-yard field goal. And on defense, people like Ronnie Valadez and John T. Basinger at linebacker, Tip Culver, Geron Stricklin and Ricky Denzer in the line and Greg Basinger at defensive end and Mike Tumlinson at defensive safety were all double tough. On the ground, Cooper had a fair first half, but was held to a net of three yards rushing in the last half.

The Pirates had their moments, with Quarterback

Kelly Choban, Wingback Larry Childers and Tailback Kevin Pringle doing a good job offensively; and with Choban, Tackle Ricky Montemayor and Guard Tony Houchin doing well on defense.

To the credit of both teams, it was game free of slugging and flagrant personal fouls. Cooper was penalized only once — for five yards — and Slaton did draw quite a few penalties, including one 15-yarder against Coach Eddie Cook, who charged out to protest a call, but the Tigers conducted themselves well.

McClesky's running was something to see, as the 180-pound junior tailback broke tackles repeatedly, followed some good blocking and used it to the best advantage, and wound up with 199 yards on 17 carries, an average of 11.7 per carry. He now has 66 points for the year. And his substitute, Haynes, averaged over 5 yards per carry in 12 attempts, and scored his first touchdown.

For Cooper, Childers gained 51 yards on 13 efforts, about four yards per carry. Choban hit four of 10 passes for 48 yards, but was plagued by the hard-charging Tiger linemen, who dropped him five times.

Cooper Drives
Cooper took the opening kickoff, and with Childers turning in runs of 11, 12 and 10 yards, moved all the way to the Slaton 11. But on fourth and 2 at that point,

John T. Basinger knifed through to down Childers for a yard loss and Slaton took over. Slaton moved out to the 32, from where McClesky broke through the right side of the line into the clear and outran everyone 68 yards for a touchdown. Denzer kicked and it was 7-0 with 5:10 left in the first.

Choban then hit End Raymond Jones on a 12-yard pass, but Jones fumbled as he was hit hard, and John T. Basinger recovered for Slaton on the Tigers 49. Slaton drove to the Cooper 20 as the first period ended, and on the first play of the second period, McClesky on a fine run around the right side went over again, cleared by a devastating block by Gaylon Buxkemper at the 5, and cutting sharply inside the block to go on over. After southpaws Denzer and holder Keith Bumpass did their thing again, it was 14-0, which was the score at halftime.

Later in the period, Tumlinson punted 45 yards and dead on the Cooper 2, but Choban came back with a tremendous 61-yard punt. Late in the half, Cooper cranked up a drive which moved 57 yards before dying out on the Tiger 9. A big play in that drive was an 18-yard screen pass play from Choban to Childers. Another was a pass interference call that gave Cooper the ball on the 9. But then two passes went incomplete. Choban was held to about a half yard gain by Greg Basinger, and then Loran Roberts and Charles (Hobo) Haynes hit Choban for a loss on fourth down as he was trying to pass.

Fine Run
One of McClesky's best runs of the night came in the third period. It was for 17 yards, and didn't score, but he broke at least four tackles before going down on the 18. The drive stalled there, so Denzer kicked a field goal to make it 17-0 at the end of three.

Roberts intercepted a pass in the fourth, it appeared it would be ruled dead before the pass and this is where Cook drew his penalty. But Slaton was given the ball, moved back to a first and 25 at the Cooper 30. It didn't matter, since three plays later, McClesky ran 15 for a touchdown.

With 6:19 left, Slaton took over at the Cooper 40, and Tumlinson saw two receivers in a row drop passes. But Bumpass then made a fine catch of a pass for 29 yards at the 11. Two plays later Haynes scooted over from the 3 and Denzer kicked again to end the scoring.

Band Again Rated Tops

Slaton Voters Give Arrants, Hance, Briscoe Edge In Races

Voters in the Slaton and Roosevelt-Acuff areas cast ballots in favor of the winners Tuesday, giving margins of victory locally to Max Arrants, commissioner of Precinct 2, to Kent Hance for state senate, and to Gov.

Dolph Briscoe. Jim Granberry of Lubbock carried none of the Slaton precincts. Briscoe carried box 36, Slaton Clubhouse, 172-114, box 37 by 196-136 and box 38 by 130-46. Total vote in the three Slaton boxes was 890.

Hance carried all Slaton and Roosevelt-Acuff boxes comfortably, as did Arrants. According to the Avalanche-Journal, the commissioner polled 2947 votes county-wide to a total of either 249 or 294 for his opponent, Fernando Gonzales, depending upon which part of the A-J one read. However, the votes listed for the two in the breakdown by precincts totals up to 3498 for Arrants and 360 for Gonzales. Anyway, Gonzales garnered his most votes locally in box 38, Austin School, where he had 81 to 148 for Arrants.

THE TIME you read this, we'll be the end of National Cat Week, a time special tribute to the lovable, furry little beast, or the vicious, spitting little beasts, upon one's point of view.

On our staff a young woman who has a cat is adorable. She would like to tell you about the cute things her cat does, only I haven't. Her cat's name is Alistair, which is the same as Alley, only I haven't told you.

They are incredibly dumb. They don't even know how to walk, and sometimes when you pick them up, they rub around on my leg and purr. Then when I drop-kick them out of my arms, they come right back and rub against my legs.

Some come right back and rub against my legs, or carrying something heavy, this is quite disconcerting.

Next week is National Diabetes Week, which runs the last week of every year. I'm against diabetes, too.

I know that a lot of you will disagree because you like cats. And that's because even cats ought to have a little respect for their own kind.

So all you folks who love cats should celebrate this week, unless you have done so. Maybe we should have a big local campaign, with the mayor making a proclamation, a parade featuring cats, members of the Lions Club, and perhaps a group of selected cats from door-to-door making catty

We are very happy to welcome two new members to our family at the nursing home. They are Buren Curb and Mrs. Mollie Tomlinson, who both come to us from Slaton. We welcome their families and friends to come by to see them.

On Tuesday night we had a very lovely Halloween Party for the residents, and were honored with a group of second grade students from West Ward School who sang and passed out treats to all visitors and residents. Mrs. Perkins played the piano, and Miss Jackie McElfresh, their teacher, directed the group singing. The residents certainly did enjoy this entertainment. Mrs. Lois Chambers played special selections on the piano, song that were very dear to them in their younger days as well as now, and we all enjoyed this very much.

A king and queen were selected by a name drawing. Mrs. Nobie Cummins was the Halloween Queen, and Bill Deweese was selected as Halloween King. They have both been at the home for about 10 years. There will be six ladies celebrating birthdays in November. Mrs. Fayla Moeller whose birthday is on Nov. 15; Mrs. Maude Morris and Mrs. Leah Ann Reasoner, will celebrate their birthdays on the 17th; Mrs. Debbie Haliburton has a birthday the 18th; Mrs. Annie Ehlers' birthday is the 21st and Eunice Hazelwood will celebrate her birthday on the 26th.

The residents always enjoy the singing on Thursday night by the group that comes with Glen Akin, thank you so very much.

On Saturday the residents were honored with a special group of singers from two of the Lutheran Churches of Slaton, they surely did enjoy these young people too.

On Sunday afternoons there is always a special program. Local churches participate in this program, and on the first Sunday of every month, Charlene Webb and Gladys Brock bring the program of music and singing. This is very much appreciated. Thank you so very much.

Library News

With the slogan, "Books For All Reasons," the 55th anniversary of National Book Week is being celebrated in libraries throughout the country, Nov. 11-17.

The idea for Children's Book Week originated with the late Franklin K. Matthews, Chief Librarian for Boy Scouts of America. He soon found the support of Frederic G. Melcher, a publisher, and with the help of outstanding librarians and book sellers the first Children's Book Week was observed in 1919.

Since then, adults have joined in the celebration to such an extent that the word "Children's" has been dropped from the title. Now National Book Week is observed by adults as well as children, everywhere in our 50 states and overseas wherever the U.S. has personnel.

In observance of National Book Week, the Slaton Branch Library will have a special program of filmstrips for all children, Saturday, Nov. 16, at 2 p.m. until 3 p.m. Special bookmarkers will be given free. Pre-School Storyhour will be given in the Lubbock Mahon Activity Room, Nov. 13, at 10 a.m.

A Thanksgiving Storyhour was given Saturday, Nov. 2, at the Slaton Branch Library. Mrs. Greg Nowlin, read the story, "The Biggest Turkey." Gloria Torres, read the story, "Granny and the Indians," and Mrs. Ted Melugin, librarian, read a skit, acting out stick puppets entitled, "The Pilgrim's Thanksgiving." Filmstrips shown were: "A Story About Ping," and "Stone Soup." Twenty children enjoyed checking out books on their departure. Leslie Blakely brought her birthday guests to the program. The next Storyhour will be a Christmas Storyhour, on Dec. 7. The Friends Club sponsors the storytime programs.

Can We Wave The Flag Too Much?

Is it possible to wave the flag too much? Provided, of course, that you wave it with integrity? Is it possible to study Shakespeare or Lincoln too much? Is it possible to read the Bible too much? The great, the good, the true are unexcelled for inspiration, example and strength.

We believe we are not waving our flag enough, not nearly enough. It seems to us we are developing a tendency to be timid or even apologetic about waving the stars and stripes.

Look up and down the streets on the 4th of July and count the flags. It is our nation's anniversary, a date in world history, the most important day of America. Why isn't the flag flying on every rooftop? This complacent attitude is strong evidence of patriotic decay.

Monday is Veterans Day, an appropriate time for everyone to display the flag and for everyone to pause to consider those men who have served our nation in wartime during this century. We must never forget those who gave their lives for us—for our nation, our families, our community.

On such days as Veterans Day, we believe in displaying the flag. Extremists and those who would destroy the fundamental traditions of our nation often derisively label veterans groups and other patriots as "flag-wavers." We proudly accept this label, since it means those who still are old-fashioned enough to believe in patriotism!

The flag is a symbol of our national unity. It stands for the best that is in us — for loyalty, character and faith in democracy. Isn't our flag a synonym for the USA? Does it not represent man's greatest dream? Is it not the goal that generations fought for?

We believe it is time for us—the hurried 20th Century Americans—to stop for a minute and THINK. Let us put aside our quest for material success and return to spiritual and ethical values. Let us rebuild in ourselves and our children the old fashioned way of patriotism—devoted to principles and ideals that this country was founded on.

Isn't the flag Patrick Henry, Washington, Nathan Hale, Gettysburg, Valley Forge and all the rest of the great men and women who gave us our heritage?

When you look at the flag can you not see the Alamo, Corregidor, Pearl Harbor, the Merrimac? Lest we forget, isn't the flag Flanders Field, Bataan, Iwo Jima, and Davy Crockett?

Great events of our past and present are wrapped up in our flag.

It is the symbol of this great nation, a giant in education, industry and commerce.

Our nation is a beacon of light for the oppressed.

This is what the flag means to us. Can we wave it too much? We don't think so!

BE COUNTED AGAIN — NOW!

SPOOK HOUSE

The Senior Chapter sponsored a spook house for the Buckner's Children's Home. The club sponsors such activities as parties, dinners and outings for the children. These kids are children of parents in trouble with the law or have a need and cannot take care of their children.

Approximately 40 children from the home were there and 30 FHA members. Such creepy creatures as dracula, the mad man, a dead man and a witch attended too.

Arthur Wuensche and Teresa Thomasson won the costume prizes for the high school students. The children who won were Billy Jo, Freda, and Patrick. They were awarded games and toys.

Various stores as Piggly Wiggly, Mini Marts and Quik Stops donated much of the supplies for refreshments. Among the refreshments were carnal apples, popcorn balls, punch, and cupcakes. All of these donations were very much appreciated by all who participated.

HEALTH CLASS

The health class taught by Harry Brewer had a visitor last week. Sgt. Mason from the Lubbock Police Dept. came out and spoke on drug abuse. He pointed out the criminal rates and the sentence of possession of drugs.

He showed that the drug rate was down over the last two years. He also burned some marijuana to give each student the opportunity to see how it smells.

CONFUSION CONSPIRACY

Would you like to try a rather unusual experience, a real adventure? All you have to do is go to a Cooper Pirate football game. It is my job as a scouting spy to go to various football games and scout the players. However, I was completely astounded when, upon entering the Tahoka stadium, I saw the Cooper pep squad standing on each other. And as if that wasn't enough, they tried to play Roller Derby. Anything for spirit.

The team finally ran out on the field and started jumping all over each other, when I heard one poor little guy holler: "Wait! you guys get off of me." That was Dale Schaffner who always seems to get caught in the middle.

"Hey! Isn't that the coach climbing up that telephone pole to the press box?" This I heard as I sat among the mass spectator crowd. But, just as I was recovering from shock, I heard Jon Fehlesion shout, "Look, Ricky" as Jon flew over for an extra ten yards. Good play, I thought, but I could not understand the strategy.

The Pirate defense seemed to have the same strategy in mind as I heard Kelly Choban holler, "Get out of the way, Jon," as they collided together in an effort to grab a Bulldog ball carrier. Then they decided to take a little nap while the ball carrier scampered on.

Still recovering, I became aware of the roaring, somewhat irritated crowd which was doing its share of hollering too. For instance, "You referees, don't you know, stupid how to call a game?" and "Couldn't you see that ball coming, you idiot?"

Not to be disturbed, I changed positions when a cheerleader caught my eye. As I glanced in their direction, I heard one stammer, "Debbie you've got my shoes." "No Delsey, these are mine, Dora got your shoes." "Well then, whose are those?"

By now I figured they must have been expecting me, and had planned to stage this big show for me.

The band performed too as I heard drum major Mike Hall yelling, "Hey you guys, I didn't mean for you to go that way." Too late Mike. They had already split up through the middle and gone their separate ways.

By now I knew there was a conspiracy against me, and decided I had better leave. The guys would never believe me. I've got a headache anyway.

Now see what you missed by not coming to a Cooper Pirate Football game? So let us all support Cooper for their last game against Frenship.....

NHS

The National Honor Society is an organization of high school students throughout the nation. The members of this organization exhibit to a high degree the attributes of character, service, leadership, and scholarship. Election by faculty vote is a prerequisite to membership in the National Honor Society.

The tapping and induction ceremonies of the NHS were held Oct. 28. The tapping ceremony took place during school hours with coke and donuts served afterwards. The newly-elected members and re-elected members met at Furr's El Toreador Room at 7 p.m.

The new members elected were Delsey Cooper, Kelly Choban, Debra Haynes, Frances Hernandez, Kandy Jones, Scott Page, Debbie Pevehouse, Debra Reynolds, Brenda Ward, Sheryl Tyson and Tina McBride. The re-elected members are: Randy Holloway, president; Arthur Wuensche, vice president; Sherry Hammond, secretary; Kevin Pringle, treasurer; Kevin Killian, reporter; and Jon Fehlesion, Charles Rogers, Vicke Madrid, Susan McWilliams, Kathy Jones and Gail Walker.

Following dinner at the El Toreador Room, the induction ceremony was held as parents, friends, and faculty looked on. The induction was given by Gail Walker, followed by a special presentation of the qualifications of NHS members: Randy Holloway on character, Arthur Wuensche on scholarship, Vicki Madrid on leadership, and Kevin Killian on service. The pledge was then presented by Sherry Hammond. Each newly elected member repeated the creed and was accepted into the National Honor Society. Following the program the members went to see a movie.

Twirlers, Cheerleaders Part Of Cooper Football

Without the fans, there would be little reason for the football teams of any high school to exist. The Cooper Pirates have been fortunate to have the loyal fans they have had this season. Even with a season colored with defeat, the Cooper fans have braved rain and mosquitoes to support their team. There is a special warm feeling on the sidelines upon hearing the screams and cheers from the stands.

One of the treats for the fans, besides watching the game, is the half-time entertainment the school provides. This entertainment is usually in the form of marching bands and delightful twirlers. Cooper High School is fortunate to have a fine band that performs well and executes intricate marching patterns with a polished precision. The band is under the direction of Leon Long, who has done a fine job in shaping the band into a single unit that does everything with an apparent ease that comes from practice.

An important part of any band are the twirlers. They provide rhythm and motion to the music. The Pirate Band has five talented and attractive twirlers. They are Kandy Jones, DeRai Collins, Debbie Hayes, Renee' Flournoy and Debra Haynes. These five young ladies smile and twirl no matter what the weather is or how bad the team is doing.

Along the sidelines, there are six other girls who try to keep the winning spirit alive, even if the team is behind 30 points. Each week, the Cooper cheerleaders, Delsey Cooper, Tina McBride, Dora Betancourt, Terri Robertson, Debbie Fortenberry and Helen Hernandez, scream and shout to support the team.

This Friday, the Pirates will play their last game of the season at home. The Pirates will meet the Frenship Tigers. The Pirates need to win this week to break a four-game losing streak and end the season on a happy note.

Dust Devils Too Tough

The little Floydada Whirlwinds blew Slaton's 7th and 8th grade teams out of the saddle Tuesday, winning both games, but the Slaton 7th came close, losing just 8-6.

The Slaton 8th grade had some good quarterbacking from Ricky Davis, who scored Slaton's only TD in the second period as Floydada won that game 24-6. Roddy Smith and Herman Hernandez also played well for Slaton, which now is 5-2 for the year.

The seventh grade, now 3-3-1, was plagued by fumbles and interceptions against an undefeated team. Kevin Bales scored Slaton's TD and Glenn Culver was stopped short of the goal line on a 2-point running try. Terry Cook was named outstanding offensive player and Jesse Titus and Joe Cook were tops on defense.

The teams will go to Frenship for their final games next week.

WILSON SCHOOL MENU

Monday — Ranch style beans, cream potatoes, cornbread, slaw, milk and apple cobbler.

Tuesday — Spanish rice, green beans, tossed salad, hot rolls, milk and brownies.

Wednesday — Chili beans, tomato and macaroni, spinach, cornbread, milk, orange juice and coconut pudding.

Friday — Hamburger, french fries, lettuce, tomatoes, catsup, pickles, buns, milk and butter cookies.

They were Tom Roche, Mrs. Jim Milner, Bob Melton, Tommy Mason, Charlotte McDonald and Leon Moore. Joe Sparkman, in last place among the Fearless Forecasters, did gain one game on everybody last week as he missed three, while everyone else missed four each.

The Forecasters therefore remained in the same order, with Pete Williams incredibly holding on to first, three games ahead of Dalton Wood, who is just one game ahead of Bill Ball and J. W. Holt. Sparkman trails Holt and Ball by three games.

All of the group missed the Lockney-Tulia game; Sparkman was the only one who chose Florida to beat Auburn.

Indian Communities Participate In Bicentennial

The Navajo Nation of Arizona is making a major effort to improve communications and the exchange of information among the almost 800,000 American Indians in the United States.

In Denver, there are plans to build a complex for Indian people and families from reservations who seek to make a life in that city's urban community.

The Smithsonian Institution is preparing a 20 volume set summarizing the prehistoric history and changing cultures of all Indian groups north of Mexico, which will become the standard reference on North American Indian history and anthropology.

From ambitious, multi-million dollar projects of the Navajo Nation to the display of Indian arts and crafts by the Candelaria Indian Council in Oxnard, Calif., the descendants of the original American settlers are taking full part in the nation's Bicentennial.

The American Revolution Bicentennial Administration (ARBA) has to date officially designated seven Indian communities as Bicentennial Communities, entitling them to use the national Bicentennial symbol in their projects and programs.

In addition to the Navajo Nation of Arizona, the Bicentennial Communities are: The St. Francis Sioux Indian Mission in South Dakota, the Seminole Nation of Oklahoma, the Li-Si-We-Nwi Community and the Potawatomi Indians of Oklahoma, the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska, and the Chitimacha Reservation in Louisiana.

The Navajo Nation of Arizona has one of the most significant Bicentennial programs of any of the over 1,500 communities in the country which have been officially recognized.

In addition to the effort to improve communications among Indians, a Navajo Irrigation Project will provide water for cultivating 110,000 acres of otherwise arid land. Other projects include a $2.5 million Navajo Heritage Center, a trade center where arts and crafts of all tribes can be shown and sold, a Navajo Land Outdoor Theater, and an amphitheater in Canyon de Chelly National Monument on the reservation.

The St. Francis Sioux Mission in South Dakota will commemorate the history of the mission by honoring Christian Sioux leaders, as well as the founding Jesuits and Franciscan Sisters. Projects include a published history, a pageant, a pow wow and an Indian feast.

The Seminole Nation of Oklahoma is planning a museum and library to house priceless objects of the cultural heritage of their ancestors, written materials and recordings of the language, legends and folk tales of Seminole history.

The 110th annual Winnebago Pow Wow will highlight the deeds of Little Priest, a 19th century patriot. Other Bicentennial efforts by the 2,800 members of the Winnebago Tribe include a conversation and ecology program to preserve and improve timberland areas of the reservation and expansion of a library into a full-fledged learning center.

Other examples illustrate the widespread efforts by and for native Americans as part of the nation's Bicentennial.

Thief River Falls, Minnesota, will unveil a statue of a major Indian landowner in conjunction with a Pow Wow staged by the Red Lake Band of Chippewa Indians.

Tuolumne County, Calif., will reconstruct an assembly house of the California Miwok Indians.

A 44-foot steel sculpture of a Plains Indian will mark the historic camp ground of the Wichita Tribe in Wichita, Kan. The surrounding area will be made into a park with bike trails.

The Phoenix Symphony will perform for Indian audiences throughout the state during 1975, featuring music with Indian themes.

In North Dakota, a Plains Indian studies curriculum is being developed for use in all primary and secondary schools.

In New York City, there will be an exhibit reviewing the American Indian from 1876 to 1976.

Across the land, Americans will discover more than 2,000 years of cultural heritage and traditions as they commemorate 200 years of independence during the Bicentennial.

Europeans will also have an opportunity to learn of the cultural heritage of the American Indian. The ARBA recently designated as an official Bicentennial project, "Two Thousand Years of American Indian Art," a major exhibit comprised of 600 to 700 art objects to be presented in cooperation with the Arts Council of Great Britain in September and October 1976 at the Hayward Gallery in London.

The Consumer Alert

AUSTIN — Habla español? Thousands of Texans do. And for many of these citizens, Spanish is the language preferred for use in business dealings. So it's especially unfortunate, but true, that some merchants use their own facility in Spanish, or the fact that some consumers are less comfortable speaking, reading, or writing in English to operate unscrupulously.

Recently, the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division, in cooperation with a West Texas district attorney, obtained a court judgment against a real estate firm that was attracting customers with advertisements in Spanish-language newspapers. When contacted by an interested party, however, the firm refused or was unable to sell at the advertised price and terms. Fall to Perform — In addition, representatives of the firm failed to deposit earnest money at title companies or banks as they represented to customers they would, and failed to return the money or apply it to real estate purchases. The firm's representatives also advertised their services as "notarios publicos" and accepted deposits from Mexican aliens to begin processing U. S. immigration papers. Our attorneys took the position that this was a deceptive trade practice, since in Mexico, as in many Spanish-speaking countries, a "notario publico" is an attorney or a person specially trained in legal matters. Although the persons were notaries public, we discovered they were not attorneys or otherwise qualified to practice immigration law in the U. S. and, therefore, they couldn't obtain the necessary papers for their customers.

Ordered To Stop — In another case, a firm operating primarily in the Valley and directing much of their sales efforts toward Spanish-speaking migrant workers, has been permanently enjoined from misrepresenting their services. The firm was selling door-to-door what it described as "aseguranza," or insurance, which salesmen assured prospective customers would cover costs involved if they had an automobile wreck in any state in the country.

In reality, what consumers were sold amounted to membership in an automobile club, for which they were charged high fees. Since they sold their services in home solicitations, the company by law should have informed purchasers of their right to cancel any contract for more than $25 within three days by notifying the firm or its salesman in writing.

And, since their sales pitches were usually made in Spanish, any contract or receipt of sale should have included this information in Spanish. The law says contracts or receipts must be in the same language used in the transaction.

Similar Problems — My Consumer Protection Division reports that other states have experienced the problem of magazine sales crews descending on barrios and using hard sell appeals in Spanish to obtain subscriptions.

And instances have occurred in other states where publishers or so-called "minority" or "ethnic" magazines or newspapers have used long-distance appeals to businessmen in other states for advertising.

The Attorney General's Consumer Protection staff has taken several steps to assure that our Spanish-speaking citizens will be able to get consumer protection assistance and information in whichever language they prefer.

First and most important, our five regional offices in San Antonio, El Paso, Lubbock, Houston and Dallas make our consumer protection services available on a more localized level. And in these offices, as in our main office in Austin, we have bilingual staff members or attorneys who can help with consumer problems.

In addition, we provide bilingual consumer complaint forms in all of our offices, and we have recently translated our "Practical Primer for Texas Consumers," a brochure describing common consumer frauds, into Spanish.

So, for assistance with a consumer complaint, in English or Spanish, consult the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division.

This was a pretty exciting week at school. Over the weekend the school was broken into. Fortunately nothing was taken.

The burglars weren't very smart because they broke into an open safe and found nothing. They also bent the air vents in the teachers' lounge in order to unlock the unlocked door.

The burglars wrote a letter to the teachers and misspelled most of the words. The junior high secretary requested that the next time the burglars strike, they be a little neater.

The students got another scare this week. Thursday Mrs. Lawrence and her art students paraded the halls in the Halloween masks they had made.

The winners of the mask contest were:

Eagles Eying District Championship

By MIKE PATSCHKE

The Roosevelt Eagles, with a 7-1 record and with 178 points to just 7 for the opposition in the last five games, will go after the district championship this week and next as they play the only other district teams which can win of share the title. The Eagles Friday night journey to Post and the following week will go to Denver City.

Roosevelt and DC both are unbeaten in district and Post has lost only to the Mustangs, 7-6 last week. Roosevelt, meanwhile, was coasting to a 38-0 win over Tahoka.

Rodney Jackson scored on runs of 5, 80, 4 and 1 yard to lead the Eagles past the Bulldogs last Friday, as Coach Houston Powell's team took a 20-0 lead in the first period.

Kick Backfires

Tahoka tried an onside kick to start the game, but Roosevelt got the ball. With 9:08 left in the quarter, Jackson capped a 41-yard drive, going across from the five. Raymond Frizzell's kick was no good. Later in the period, Jackson intercepted a pass and raced 80 to score, and Frizzell added a point. Then, with just 56 seconds left in the first, Jackson scored from the four and Frizzell kicked again. Roosevelt's Lon Pierce recovered a fumble on the Tahoka 41 and Jackson later scored from the 1. With 4:17 left in the half, David Holland got into the act, scoring from the 1. With no extras after either score, it was 32-0 at halftime.

Tahoka tackle Mark Tekell recovered a fumble to halt one drive, but Eagle Guard Dickie Dunson recovered a Tahoka fumble on the Bulldog 24 later in the third. Quarterback Jeff Anderson passed to Pierce 38 yards for a touchdown just before then end of the quarter to close out the scoring.

Dunson, Eddie Haney and Jace Parchman combined for 24 tackles and assists.

Tommy Sansom's 43 yards in just 6 carries was tops for Roosevelt, which had nine different backs carrying the ball. Anderson completed 8 of 13 passes.

David Glenn has 32 yards on the ground for Tahoka, whose top defenders were Joseph Bailey, Curtis Stice, Milton Harris and Danny Moore.

Southland

By MRS. ROBERT MOCK

Our sympathy is with the Isaac Hooper family due to the death of his sister, Mrs. Myrtle Bell. Mrs. Bell died in California where she had lived many years.

Her funeral was conducted Oct. 27 in Kilgore. She is survived by five sisters and four brothers.

There will be a farm sale in our community on Thursday at the Lee Mason home one mile north and one mile west of Gordon Gin.

The Southland Booster Club is planning a rock'em sock'em football game featuring outsiders on Nov. 16.

My daughter, Dana, and myself visited our son, James, on the McMurry Campus in Abilene last weekend. It is always enjoyable to see the Teepee Village at homecoming.

The students have constructed an authentic Indian village depicting the life style of different tribes.

They have cow hides drying, cow bellies are used as water containers, woven sleeping mats are available, and they will even make blood bread for you if you wish.

We would like to wish a belated happy birthday to Michelle McGehee, who was honored with a party Oct. 22.

All of the W. S. Bevers family were home Sunday. A total of 15 were present for dinner.
