Second Democratic Primary Sat.

Voters will go to the polls Saturday to select candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, and State Senate in the second Democratic Primary election. Voting will be in City Hall where the polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 7 p. m.

The ballot carries seven state candidates for office. Candidates for the office they are campaigning for include the following: For Governor, Price Daniel of Liberty County, and Ralph Yarborough of Travis County; For Lieutenant Governor, Ben Ramsey of San Augustine County; For Attorney General of Texas, Will Wilson of Dallas County, and Tom Moore of McLennan County; and For State Senator from the 28th Senatorial District, Carroll Cobb, and Preston Smith.

Interest in the second primary seems to be running almost as high as in the first primary which was held July 28 when Slaton voters turned out for the highest vote in the city history with a record-breaking 1029 votes.

County Attorney Louie F. Moore reported Wednesday that the absentee ballots in the county amounted to 683 votes by the deadline for such voting August 21.

J. H. Brewer is presiding judge of box 26. Voting in this box will be in the northwest corner of the City Hall.

Charles Whalen will preside over the voting in box 27 which is in the Chamber of Commerce office in City Hall.

Joe Walker Jr. is presiding judge of box 28, which is located in the southwest corner of City Hall.

Cool Front Brings Rain, Cold Air

Slaton's air-conditioners took a rest Sunday and Monday as residents were reminded by a cool front which moved into the area that it can rain in West Texas and it does get chilly occasionally.

The United States weather bureau at Lubbock reported a sharp drop in temperature as a cold mass of air moved in from Canada. Temperatures dropped 14 degrees during the Sunday recordings—to 74 degrees.

It was the lowest maximum reading of any day since May 1 when a high of 73 degrees was recorded. Though rainfall was only enough to whet the appetites of crops and tease sweltering residents the cold front which came with it brought welcome relief from the heat.

Rain which fell in the area early Sunday morning was measured at about .10 of an inch.

Church of God Pastor Receives Evangelistic Post

The Rev. W. F. Toles, pastor of the Church of God in Trinity, Texas, has been named to fill the pulpit in the Slaton Church of God. He will replace the position vacated by the Rev. Louis Bowerman who will spend the next two years in evangelistic work.

Rev. Bowerman has been pastor of the local church for the past five years and four months. He and his family will temporarily reside at the home of Mrs. Bowerman's parents in Southland.

Bowman's appointment was made at the 46th General Assembly of the Churches of God which was held in Memphis, Tennessee August 14-19. "At this meeting all appointments are made final for a period of two years beginning September 1, 1956," the pastor stated.

"My family and I desire to take this opportunity to express our heartfelt love and appreciation to the members of the Church of God and to our many friends in Slaton for the kindness and cooperation shown to us.

Eleven Register For Distributive Education Course

Eleven boys and two girls have registered for the third consecutive distributive education course at Slaton High School beginning with the opening of the public school September 4.

In this group eight seniors took the business training course last year and some of them are still employed by the firms in which they trained. Five students are taking the course for the first time.

Succeeds Brewer

Mrs. Sherrill Boyd, who succeeds Phil Brewer as co-ordinator of distributive education this year, has been lining up prospective training stations and interviewing the students this week. Next week the students who need jobs may start applying for them if they have been interviewed by the co-ordinator and if enough prospective training stations are available.

The distributive education program, which in Texas is controlled by the state board of vocational education, was begun nationally in 1937 and is now well established in the high schools and colleges of the nation's leading cities. It is designed to prepare students who do not go to college for entering distributive businesses after finishing high school and to help prospective college students earn their higher education expenses.

Community Service

The program functions as a community service and is dependent on the co-operation of local businessmen who give the students part-time employment and give the co-ordinator information for instructing trainees in the classroom. Through the efforts of last year's co-ordinator Slaton businessmen seem to be well informed as to the program and this Mrs. Boyd says is a great help as the merchants not only understand the program but seem eager to participate.

Firms Request

Some business firms have requested girls for part-time jobs, but the only two girls enrolled so far already have jobs with the firms where they trained last year.

There are some boys available Mrs. Boyd stated and any businessmen wishing to interview one is asked to contact her at telephone 466 or 703.

Chamber Votes To Ask City To Extend City Limits

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce voted unanimously at their monthly meeting Tuesday night to go on record as asking the City Commission to extend the city limits. Meeting at the Red Arrow Cafe the directors made the decision following a general discussion in which it was brought out that many improvements are needed in the outlying districts of the city.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce has already gone on record as favoring the extension of the city limits, according to F. E. Perry, C. of C. president.

City Services

Many people living near the city limits are getting city services without paying city taxes for the privilege of using the services, it was stated.

It was also brought out that property without improvements that would be included in this extension of the city limits should be rendered for taxes only according to the amount of city services received.

In other business a copy of a letter to Senator Price Daniel from the Veterans Administration was read. The letter concerned a discussion of a move which is underway to get Slaton in a direct loan area of G. I. and V. A. loans.

Donate to Center

The directors voted to donate $200 toward improvements on the Negro Community Youth Center which is being built in the colored section of the city.

The group voted to ask John Ben Shepperd to speak at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Following a vote of the directors it was decided to send Mrs. R. D. Bisbee to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce short course at Big Spring September 7 and 8.

First Bale

Following a general discussion it was decided that the C of C will work out a program for the first bale of cotton to be ginned in Slaton in future years. Under the set-up as it was proposed at Tuesday's meeting the chamber will begin encouraging farmers to start thinking about ginning the first bale during the planting season.

When the first bale is actually ginned the farmer will receive gifts and cash prizes from local merchants.

Guests at the meeting include Howard Hoffman, R. H. Todd, and C. A. Porter.

Election to Fill Unexpired Term Of Commissioner

An election to fill the unexpired term of Commissioner Bob Brasfield will be called at the regular meeting of the City Commission Monday, August 27. The election will be held on the first Tuesday in October which is October 2. Brasfield was commissioner of Ward 4.

Brasfield's resignation becomes effective September 1st. All candidates wishing to file for the position vacated by Brasfield must file their application with City Secretary J. J. Maxey prior to September 2. Candidates must file 30 days prior to the election day in order to have their name placed on the ballot according to state law, Maxey explained.

The term of office of the commissioner to be elected from Ward 4 will expire on the first Tuesday in April, 1958 or until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

To qualify the candidate must have the same qualifications as any voter, must be a resident of the city for 6 months, and must live at the present time within the boundaries of Ward 4.

IF YOU'LL JUST TAKE ME - I'LL PROMISE YOU ANYTHING YOU LIKE - AND MORE, TOO!

THE "Last Year" Proposal

PRELIMINARY PERSPECTIVE

We have a fair amount of sympathy for those parents who couldn't stand hours and hours of Elvis Presley, played on the phonograph by their 14-year-old daughter. And we think we can understand why the teen-ager ran away when she wasn't allowed to continue her rock-and-roll spree.

There's a fine old scholar who lives down the block from us, immersed in weighty tomes on the archaeology of Mesopotamia and similar intriguing subjects, who has the perfect answer to the Elvis Presleys of this world.

When he heard his granddaughters discussing the boy in the long sideburns, he took his pipe from his mouth, looked reminiscently at the ceiling and remarked: "Presley, Presley . . . I don't seem to know that name. The last time I heard you talkin it was about Rudy—let me see, was it Valley or Mountain? Something like that. Or perhaps it was your mother, or your grandmother . . ."

Then, he went back to the old stones in Mesopotamia. If you wait long enough things become permanent—or they go away.

MORE TROUBLE COMING

Egypt's seizure of the Suez Canal may be the forerunner of like drastic action elsewhere. An Arab youth congress, sponsored by Egyptian Premier Nasser, calls for the nationalization of all oil companies and other foreign wealth in Arab nations. That would include the possessions of American corporations, and thus would be of great interest to us.

The Arab youth are undoubtedly hot headed and ignorant, but they represent many of the ideas held by their elders. They might easily carry a government further than it wished to go, if for no other reason than the danger of assassination if the officials held back from the popular wish.

So far, Egypt has shown no signs of wanting to embark on this dangerous course. Still, Orientals are traditionally bargainers, and they think it a good idea to hold out the youth congress' proposals as a threat which may be acted on if western governments are not conciliatory. The present trouble in the Middle East may get worse before it gets better.

VACCINE SUCCESS

In the days just after announcement of a successful poliomyelitis vaccine, people reacted with almost hysterical optimism. Then an almost inevitable reaction set in when a mixup occurred and some vaccinated children became victims of polio.

Results this year, however, indicate that the Salk vaccine averages out to about 72 per cent effectiveness. In Chicago, of 475,000 youngsters inoculated with the vaccine only 15 contracted polio. Of the 15, only one had had the three-shot treatment. By way of comparison, in a group of 625,000 Chicago youngsters not inoculated, 147 cases were reported.

Chicago has initiated an emergency inoculation program to prevent the spread of polio. This is a justified expression of confidence in the Salk vaccine.

The vaccine is not 100 per cent effective. But it certainly is enough so to warrant parents taking advantage of it for their children. As time passes the Salk vaccine may be made more nearly perfect. The original optimism, with all its lack of caution, was not unmerited.

A cover girl actress says she intends to run for governor of Louisiana. As a switch she may decide to eliminate baby kissing and concentrate on the fathers.

One of the most fascinating phrases of this political year came from the church bulletin which billed a leading candidate's talk as "semi-religious" rather than political. Maybe he figures an out-and-out religious talk might lose him some votes, come November.

We wonder how much furor on the "brink of war" business would have been raised by either political party if we weren't on the brink of an election campaign.

Television twenty-four hours a day is the latest offering of some stations. Next will be an announcement of new tones to ease eye strain.

THE GREAT GATE

STRENGTH FOR THE WEEK

By James B. Sharp
Are You An Educated Man?
 What are the marks of an educated man? I should like to share my ideas with you. First, an educated man keeps his mind open to all issues until he knows all the evidence. He never jumps to conclusions and never makes premature judgment on the basis of partial evidence.

We can test ourselves here by asking the following questions: (a) Do I really want to know the truth or do I simply want to prove that my preconceived notions are right? (b) Am I willing to lay aside my convictions and those of my circle of friends, in the presence of new facts, long enough to find out if those facts should change my viewpoint? (c) Have I ever, without prejudice surrendered my mind completely to the examination of the reasons for my most cherished opinions?

 It's a great day in the life of a man when he surrenders his life to the truth. Columbus surrendered his life to the truth and discovered America. It was a great day for Edison when he discovered the truth and invented the telescope. The Wright Brothers were thought to be fools; but when they discovered the truth, they flew the first airplane.
 Second, an educated man listens to the man who knows. Most educated men do a lot of listening and a minimum amount of talking. Educated men are humble in the presence of the unknown. A young college sophomore sat next to a renowned astronomer at a dinner one evening. In order to carry on a conversation, the college sophomore said to the astronomer, "What are your interests?" The astronomer said, "I study astronomy." The college sophomore replied, "Oh, I finished astronomy last year." Imagine finishing the study of astronomy.

Mrs. Curtis Dowell, Paulette and Mrs. Thomas L. Hodge and Sherie visited with Mrs. Dowell's sister, Mrs. Thurman Bartlett, and Mr. Bartlett in Friona and her niece, Mrs. Raymond McGhee, Mr. McGhee and Jeanne in Lazbuddy recently.

A college graduate returned home after four years of the hard knocks of the world and said to his father, "When I went away to college, I thought you were the dumbest man on earth. When I graduated, I felt the same; but since I have been in the world for four years, it has amazed me how much you have learned in such a short time."

Third, an educated man knows the values of good habits and how to form them. He disciplines his body, mind, and spirit in such a way that they more or less automatically do his bidding. His habits of decision, habits of health, of play, of study are so firmly set that they assist him in his work rather than detract him from his work.

Fourth, the educated man looks ahead. He plans well the course of the future. It's not hard times that wreck businesses but failure to call in expert advice to prevent it. Dr. William Mayo said, "It's not surgery that kills people but delayed surgery."

Fifth, an educated man is aware of the unseen. He is aware that the greatest values are not material but are spiritual. He seeks to relate himself to all environment—including God.

WOULD YOU QUALIFY TO ADOPT A CHILD

For every seven couples who want to adopt a baby, adoption agencies have only one child available, say the editors of Changing Times, The Kiplinger Magazine. This situation has caused the agencies to set up stiff requirements in placing children in "ideal" homes. Almost unanimously, agencies want couples under 40 who can prove that they can never have children. Those with chronic physical defects are considered high risks. Most states provide by law that children of one race cannot be placed with parents of another and some courts have held that babies must be placed with families of their own religion. Financial stability is more important than wealth, but adopting parents must be able to provide a child a room of his own.

Some procedures for matching a child and prospective parents include: holding up placement of a brown-eyed child until brown-eyed parents are found; looking at a youngster with an eye to what his mother and father might have achieved educationally had their circumstances been different. Old rules dictated that college-bred couples could not have a child of ill-educated parents. Today, scientific knowledge about heredity and early testing by pediatricians and psychiatrists is being relied upon more and more.

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN—Campaign headquarters of Price Daniel, Ralph Yarborough and Will Wilson have been beehives of activity.

Daniel and Yarborough have gone all out to win the Democratic nomination for Governor of Texas. Wilson has campaigned even harder than he did in the primary, in order to increase his lead in the Attorney General's race.

But withering Texas heat has sapped campaign enthusiasm among the voters. Interest that developed in the July primary has dwindled considerably.

Last month brought the largest primary vote in Texas history—1,576,870 in the Governor's race. However, if the second primary vote beats that of two years ago it will surprise everyone.

Nevertheless the conservatives and the liberals are working for a big voter turnout on Saturday.

Delegates Return Home
Weary Texas delegates to the Democratic National Convention have returned home to face still bigger tasks.

Their goals: (1) to win undisputed party control at the Sept. 11 state convention and (2) to swing Texas back to the Democratic column in November.

In both efforts they will have the guidance of two of the party's most influential leaders—U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn.

Hopes are based on the mild civil rights plank adopted at the Chicago convention. Both Johnson and Rayburn are credited with significant roles in gaining this "moderate" victory.

Many of the Texas delegates say they will have a hard time selling the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket in this state. There is considerable muttering about the prospects of victory in November. And former President Harry Truman's cracks at Stevenson didn't help a bit.

Drought Aid Program Launched
Federal and state machinery are grinding out a three-phase drought aid program for Texas farmers and ranchers.

Action came as mounting disaster conditions caused federal officials to release "one of the bleakest crop and cattle situation reports in 22 years."

Present plans would provide (1) certificates good for $1.50 per hundredweight toward feed grain purchases, (2) certificates for $7.50 per ton to buy roughage and (3) Farmers Home Administration loans to refinance debts on family-size farms.

Initial details were worked out at an Austin conference of U. S. Dept. of Agriculture officials, Gov. Allan Shivers, Agriculture Comm. John White and the Texas Emergency Drought Committee.

USDA is providing $1 million to finance the roughage program. Gov. Shivers has allocated $100,000 from his emergency funds for administrative operations.

Texas reaction to the federal offers ranged from "fairly satisfactory" from Governor Shivers to "too little and too late" from some South Texas farmers.

USDA's weekly report on Texas agricultural conditions termed the drought "one of the most severe on record." It reported pasturage conditions "lowest since 1934" and feed crops "very short" over most of the state.

Reservoirs Drop
Water in Texas' major reservoirs was down 20 per cent during July from 1955. Average storage was 51 per cent of capacity.

As evidence of "critical conditions" the State Board of Water Engineers' monthly report cited these further statistics: (1) July rainfall was less than half of normal. (2) Observation wells continued a decline to all-time lows in five areas of South Central and West Texas. (3) Dwindling streamflows and decreasing storage resulted in water rationing in many cities in all areas.

asked to double the present 470-man state highway patrol.

Such an increase was urged by Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, in a talk before the Texas Safety Association Women's Conference.

Cost of safety precautions is cheap compared to accident costs, said Garrison. Property loss alone has exceeded $1.5 billion in the past 20 years.

A legislative program being pushed by the Association includes: (1) more patrolmen, (2) county-wide traffic courts, (3) state-financed driver education, (4) prohibiting sale of fireworks, (5) chemical tests for drunken drivers and (6) laws to punish juvenile traffic offenders.

Bigger Highway Program Started
Expanded highway building under the new federal program is off to a fast start in Texas.

In the first tabulation since U. S. aid bill passage, the State Highway Commission received low bids totaling a whopping $18,494,446. Of this, some $5,847,678 was represented by six bids for improvement of federal interstate routes.

"Texas" oil allowable for September was set by the Railroad Commission at 73,505 barrels a day less than August. Permissive production will be 3,297,954 barrels a day on a 15-day producing pattern.

Taxes on whiskey brought into Texas from Mexico totaled almost $1 million last year. Last week's audit of the Texas Liquor Control Board showed 1955 collections at $905,801, compared to only $379,534 in 1954.

A portable classroom bleacher has been developed by University of Texas engineers. It is designed to give from 15 to 25 students a close-up view of teacher demonstrations.

Don Hatchett Speaks on Little League

Dr. Don Hatchett gave an interesting talk on "Little League Baseball" at the regular meeting of the Rotary club Thursday noon. He was introduced by A. C. Burk who was in charge of the program.

"Little league baseball is big league play toned down for small boys," said the speaker. The objects accomplished are recreation, team play, understanding of fellow man, sportsmanship, how to be competitors in life, promoting family relationship and development of character, he explained.

The successful operation of the little league in Slaton was outlined. 30 citizens worked with six major teams and 6 minor teams. About $2,000 was spent this year here for this recreation. Each team played 15 games plus their all-star games and inter-city competition.

"Little league ball is worth much more than its cost, in my opinion," said Dr. Hatchett.

Howard Hoffman reported on the activities of the Rotary guest, Iradj Master, of Iran. Sherrill Boyd introduced the Presbyterian minister, Clarence N. Wylie. He was presented the Rotary pin and Rotary manual by Bruce Pember as a new member.

O. Z. Ball introduced the guests as follows: Bill Ball, Slaton; Mark Hale, Lubbock; Dan Daniels, Lubbock; Geo. Gilkerson, Lubbock; Jack Robertson, Ralls; Mike Wicks, Ralls; and Weldon Mize, Ralls.

M. G. Davis presided in the absence of President Clark Self.

Texans to Vote On Mental Illness Amendment in Nov.
August 18—Constitutional amendment No. 7 which goes to Texas voters in the November general election drew strong support today from Durwood Manford of Smiley, Chairman of the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools.

"By approving this amendment," Mr. Manford said, "Texans can correct the injustice of our present mandatory jury trial for mentally ill persons seeking treatment in our state hospitals."

"The proposed amendment in no way interferes with the constitutional right to a trial by jury, but simply permits a person asking admission to a state hospital to waive this court procedure."

Present Texas laws require a jury trial for any person receiving treatment in a state mental hospital for a period of more than 90 days.

Provision for the constitutional change was enacted by the 54th Texas Legislature in 1955 through passage of House Joint Resolution 11. The amendment would require "competent medical or psychiatric testimony" in determining the commitment of persons to mental hospitals.

Mr. Manford, a former member of the legislature and Speaker of the House, said the present commitment law is the only civil procedure in the state in which the persons involved cannot waive a jury trial.

"This has inflicted needless embarrassment and suffering on families of patients as well as individuals needing treatment," Mr. Manford said.

Passage of the amendment should relieve some of the anguish mental illness imposes, but will by no means deny a jury trial to any person requesting it, the hospital board chairman said.

HIGH EXPLOSIVES PLANT SAFE PLACE TO WORK
Looking for a nice safe place to work? Try a high explosives plant!

The National Safety Council's statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts," just off the press, shows that the 1953-55 average accident frequency rate for high explosives plants is less than a third of the average rate for all industries. Plants manufacturing powder and fuses are also far below the average for all industries.

Apparently the very nature of the work makes everybody concerned more careful, the Council said.

IN THE NAME OF THE LAW
CONTRIBUTED IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST BY
TEXAS POLICE ASSOCIATION

Delinquents: Parents or Children?
By Colonel Homer Garrison Jr., Director Texas Department of Public Safety

The problem of juvenile delinquency is one that has troubled us since the beginning of civilization. It will be here tomorrow, and the day after. It is, beyond the realm of reason to believe that someone will one day develop a panacea that will stamp out juvenile delinquency.

On the other hand, it has always been my contention that there is no such thing as a delinquent juvenile, but instead there are only delinquent parents.

The thing we call juvenile delinquency is a product resulting from a multitude of causes or contributing factors, such as broken homes, bad companions, lack of religious training and education, and a scarcity of recreational facilities. Probably the number one contributing factor is the lack of home supervision.

Even though trite, the term adult delinquency has considerable truth. Parents have the basic responsibility of teaching their children to be good citizens. Parents know the child best—his interests, desires and weaknesses. And it is the parent's responsibility to see that the child learns to obey the laws and to respect the rights of others.

It is unfortunate, but nevertheless, it is true that too many parents have abdicated this responsibility. This is one of the greatest tragedies of modern society. Too often the home has become merely a place to sleep, eat and change clothes. The home is no longer a center of living and learning.

Instead of sympathetic bonds of companionship between parents and their children, there is merely little more than a nodding acquaintance in the morning and evening. This, as reflected in police records all over the country, is the pathway to juvenile delinquency.

As a result of our modern rapid pace of life, we have failed to maintain family restraint and family discipline and, in doing so, we have not taught the youngsters to develop self-discipline. Beyond this, our sordid juvenile situation has resulted from insufficient spiritual and moral training. Until our youngsters learn to know, respect and obey the teaching of Almighty God, we can never expect them to obey civil laws or the rules of society.

Building good citizenship in our youth of our State must have additional boosts; it is not the sole responsibility of parents. The school, the church, the civic groups and the law enforcement agency all have their roles to play.

These agencies can and are doing much good, but it must be remembered that nothing can fill the void left by the refusal of parents to be interested in their children.

There are no new answers to the question of how to educate parents to accept their responsibility of combating juvenile delinquency. However, legislation, making parents responsible for the vandalism of their children, would bring about a decided change in the attitude of many parents.

The State of Michigan has such a law commonly called "The Parental Responsibility Act." In effect the law holds the parents responsible for certain damages wrongfully created by their children. As a result, vandalism reportedly has dropped as much as 50 per cent in many sections of that state.

In passing the law, Michigan has recognized that neither the police, school, nor the social agency can take on the job of raising children. This job and privilege belongs to the parents.

Here in Texas we are not as well equipped—legislatively speaking—to handle juvenile offenders. Under our Texas laws, there are only a few instances in which adequate punishment is provided for juvenile offenders. The main offenses are perjury, drunk driving, reckless driving, speeding and possession of intoxicating beverages. The right kind of law, making parents responsible for the acts of their youngsters, would be a step in the proper direction.

Public opinion has done much in helping curb juvenile delinquency. The fact that some news media have begun to publicize the names of delinquents and their parents in the more serious crimes has had a very healthy effect.

Law enforcement officers know from experience that the best defense against juvenile delinquency is prevention. But above all, and certainly the most important, there must be a moral re-awakening throughout America. We must once again hold the belief that God's Law reigns supreme. For once the moral law is disregarded, the individual feels free to do as he wishes.

With God's Law supreme, obeying our Civil Laws would be a simple matter of routine.

Working Children May Be Exempt From Taxation

Parents of youngsters who are working during the summer vacation were reminded today by Mr. Nichols, Administrative Officer of the Lubbock Office of Internal Revenue Service, that under certain circumstances their children may still be claimed as full exemptions for Federal income tax purposes.

And the children themselves may be entitled to refunds in whole or part of income taxes withheld from their wages during their employment. The special exemption rule, Mr. Nichols explained, applies to children who will be under 19 years of age at the end of the year and to children who are full-time students, regardless of their age.

Exemption may be claimed by the parents if they contribute more than half the child's support, regardless of the amount earned by the child. This new law was passed by Congress in 1954. Mr. Nichols explained. Prior to 1954, no person earning $600 or more could be claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer. Inquiries received, however, indicate that many who are entitled to this benefit are not aware of it. And some parents continue to have their dependent children stop work before earning $600.

Children 19 and over must be engaged in full-time study at a recognized institution for at least five months of the year or must be pursuing a full-time accredited on-farm training program.

Mr. Nichols said that any questions regarding individual cases should be referred to the Lubbock office, PO5-5706

WRITE A LETTER TO YOUR HEIRS

Every person should, of course, make a will, so that his wishes for those he cares for may be carried out after his death. Our courts will then see to it that his wishes are put into effect.

But as a rule your will is too important to clutter with detailed facts and advice to your survivors. It is not the place to tell where you keep your important papers, although your survivors should know. They might need these papers in probate proceedings or to carry on your business. Some of these papers may bear on your survivors' actions.

So put these vital facts in a letter to your survivors:

Where is your will? In a safety deposit box? At your office? Or tucked away some place for safe keeping? You might have hidden it so that nobody can find it. It might be destroyed by accident. Your will is no good unless it can be found.

Who is your executor—the person or institution you want to carry out your will? To whom do you look for sound business advice?

Where do you bank? With whom do you deal at the bank? Some persons have a savings account in one bank and checking accounts in others. Where are your safety deposit boxes? Do you keep important papers in other places? List these places.

Where do you keep all your insurance policies—life, health, car, accident, others? They may cover your family as well as yourself. Your family may wish to continue them.

Where are your personal account books? Letters about your business affairs? Your cancelled checks and receipts? These facts will protect your estate from false claims.

Do you own real estate? Where are the deeds and abstracts or title insurance policies? Do your records show a capital gains basis for your real estate and what you invested in any piece of real property? Tell your heirs what you think they should do about your real estate and other property.

Do your records show which property is separate and which is joint? The division of your property may rest on these records. Besides, good records may save tax dollars.

Besides current bills, do you have any debts? If so, list them and your creditors. Where are the copies of your income tax returns? Your car title?

Note these subjects: Old age and survivors' insurance, pensions, profit-sharing plans, group insurance, club memberships, royalties, estates and trusts, and joint ventures. Put down your social security number.

These are just a few things to cover in the letter you leave. You will think of others. Give your heirs every bit of pertinent information about your properties and business activities.

Hot Weather Prevents Increase In Insect Activity

Hot and dry weather prevailed during the past week. Such weather conditions prevented any marked increase in the activity of most insects, but some heavily fruited cotton showed heavy shed of small bolls because of the stressed conditions of the plants.

Fleahoppers were reported in medium to heavy populations in some fields. In most instances the insects should not pose a problem since plants are well fruited.

There seems to be little change in bollworm infestations over the previous week. Medium to heavy infestations were found in some fields in Dawson, Gaines, Hale and Lubbock Counties. A majority of the cotton has not developed sufficient infestations to require control. Since most recently reported infestations have been of small worms, cotton should be checked regularly for eggs and hatching.

Lygus bugs were found in medium to heavy infestations in Hale, Hockley, Lamb and Lubbock Counties. The insects were observed in light infestations in many other fields. Cotton should be checked for increasing infestations and control effected before squares and small bolls suffer heavy damage.

Cabbage loopers appeared in medium to heavy infestations in some fields throughout the area. While diseases continued to kill large loopers, many fields had rather heavy hatching and increased ragging of leaves. Although these insects are hard to control, infestations can be reduced to a point where serious ragging will not occur if treatments are applied while worms are small.

Leafworms were reported in light to medium infestations in most localities. In most cases infestations were not sufficient to require control.

Aphids occurred in damaging infestations in scattered fields of cotton in Hale County. These insects were also observed in spotted heavy infestations in Floyd and Lubbock Counties.

Information contained in the Cotton Insect Situation release has been compiled from reports received from county agents, county agriculture teachers, personnel of Texas A & M College System, branches of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, commercial cotton inspectors, chemical companies and others, according to Welton H. Jones, dist. agent.

How Many Calories in Your Housework

If you picture yourself as an overweight housewife, don't blame yourself too much. Today, one-story ramblers eliminate stair climbing, automatic dryers keep you from hanging out the wash, a vacuum replaces the broom.

You're lucky if you can use up even 2,000 calories a day when sweeping or dusting consumes 125, sewing or writing, 25 to 35; dressing or undressing, 48; ironing 74; dishwashing, 74; polishing, 189. Your mother used to be able to work off some 3,000 or more calories a day just keeping house.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adamek and children spent the week end in Cameron visiting with Mrs. Adamek's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ondreas, and other relatives.

HOW RESOURCEFUL ARE YOU?

Puppies are generally more resourceful than people! They never take fences seriously. They find a way to get over or under the obstacle.

People take fences seriously. They usually have more respect for their limitations than for their abilities. That's why so many of us live in a narrow, discouraging world without promise or hope.

And even as we speak thrilling words like freedom and opportunity and ideals, some of us wonder secretly just what these are and how they may be attained.

There are spiritual resources in life which can enable any man to achieve ideals. They are the simple, commonplace commodities of religion—things like prayer and faith—but they are the keys to all attainment.

God gave us these resources to use. And He gave us churches to teach us how to use them. Forget your fences—discover your resources in Church next Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Riethmayer-White Vows Exchanged Saturday Evening

Miss Margaret Ruth Riethmayer became the bride of Robert Stanley White Saturday, Aug. 18, when vows were exchanged at twilight in the Sparenberg Methodist Church at Sparenberg. The Rev. Lloyd Mayhew, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Lamesa, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Otto Riethmayer of Sparenberg and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. White of Slaton.

A bridal arch of white grillwork interlaced with greenery and white carnations was placed at the altar. Baskets of white gladioli and flat fern and candelabra of white tapers flanked the archway.

Musical Program

Traditional wedding music was played by Miss Connie Nix, organist, who accompanied Tracy Crawford of Lamesa as he sang "Walk Hand in Hand," "Whither Thou Goest," "The Lord's Prayer," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a full-length gown of white imported Venetian lace and silk illusion. A fitted bodice was enhanced by a yoke of sheer illusion applied with flowers cut from the lace.

The bodice ended in deep V-pockets at the waistline and long fitted sleeves extended in points over the hands. A tiny stiffened lace collar topped the yoke. A bouffant skirt was designed with lace cascading to form apron panels dropping into a full swirling skirt of sheer illusion worn over draw Hoelscher of Rowena acted as ushers.

A reception was held at 3 p. m. in St. Joseph's Hall with the serving table laid with a white lace cloth over maroon. The three-tiered wedding cake was sprinkled with maroon flowers and arrangements of white mums and gladioli were used throughout the hall.

The bride chose a navy suit of pure silk with navy and white accessories for the wedding trip to Colorado Springs and Denver, Colo. The couple will be at home in Bozeman, Mont., where the groom will work on his master's degree at Montana State College. He is a graduate of St. Joseph's High School at Rowena and Texas A&M.

The bride is a graduate of Cooper High School and Draughon's Business College. She was employed at Williams Buick Co. prior to her marriage.

Her double veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of starched lace and seed pearls. She carried white flowers.

Bride's Attendants

The bride's sister, Mrs. Kendall Bond, of Lubbock served as matron of honor. Two other sisters, Miss Helen Riethmayer and Miss Esther Riethmayer, were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of brown pima cotton and organ designed with fitted bodices with Peter Pan collars and full gathered skirts. Their headbands were of brown and white net and they carried colonial bouquets of white asters.

Serving his brother as best man was Larry White of Slaton. Groomsmen were Dan Smith of Stamford and Jerry Reynolds of Slaton. Candles were lighted by Ezra Corley and Darrell Wylie who also served as ushers.

Reception Held

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor with the bride's table laid with a brown linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of white asters. A tiered cake and punch bowl completed the setting.

Veletta Polk Wed To Hobert Limmer

An archway of greenery flanked by candelabra entwined with English ivy and holding white tapers completed the setting at the Church of Christ Thursday, Aug. 18, for the wedding of Miss Veletta Vondell Polk and Hobert Artie Limmer. The candlelight ceremony was read at 8 o'clock by Melton Bruster, minister of the Church of Christ at Alamogordo, N. Mex., a cousin of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Polk. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Limmer.

Selected music was presented by the Lubbock Broadway Church of Christ choir.

Father Gives Bride

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original model fashioned of hand-clipped Chantilly-type lace and gossamer nylon tulle over taffeta which was designed and made by her mother. The fitted bodice which extended to a point at the waist front, featured a scooped neckline edged in appliques of scalloped lace. The long slender sleeves ended in points of lace over the hands and tiny lace-covered buttons extended to the wrists. The voluminous skirt, with an apron effect at front, edged in wide double ruffles of tulle, extended into a bustle over the hips. Alternating ruffles of scalloped lace and doubled tulle extended into a frothy chapel train. Hoops and crinolines were worn to emphasize the fullness of the skirt.

Her double veil of imported silk illusion depended from a tiara encrusted with seed pearls, iridescent sequins and crystal beads which was borrowed from Mrs. Webber B. Williams to carry out tradition of something borrowed. She carried white baby orchids placed on a lace covered Bible.

Tradition

To carry out tradition the bride wore a blue garter given to her by her brothers; a 45 year old gold bracelet belonging to her grandmother Bruster; a sixpence in her shoe given to her by Marinell de Vries and the borrowed tiara.

Miss Ova Sue Wilson, maid of honor, wore a floor-length gown of yellow net over taffeta, also designed and made by the bride's mother. Roses accented the neckline of the fitted bodice and self girdles were set in the skirt. Bridesmaids were Miss Hazel Lancaster and Miss Theresa Lewis, both of Southland, and Miss Barbara McCoy. They wore gowns identical to that of the bride attendant. The feminine attendants carried colonial bouquets of yellow rose buds.

Skipper Tomlinson served as best man. Bobby Teffertiller, Bert Lively and Charlie Woodfin ushered. Candles were lighted by Richey Polk and Randy Polk, brothers of the bride.

Reception in Home

A reception was held following the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents with the bride's table laid in a yellow damask cloth and centered with yellow carnations and white candles in crystal holders. The three-tiered white wedding cake decorated with pale yellow roses was presided over by Mrs. Thomas Hodges of Altus, Okla. Mrs. Webber B. Williams served punch and Miss Judy Thomas registered the guests.

Others in the house party were Mesdames Harold Wilson, Annie Bruster, Verna Patterson, Bert Polk, Clyde McGinley and Miss Laquetta Polk.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. Mex., the bride chose a sheath dress of brown striped acetate and cotton completed with a jacket and brown accessories.

The couple will make their home in Slaton where the groom is employed by the Santa Fe Railway Co. Both Mr. and Mrs. Limmer are graduates of Slaton High School.

Visiting over the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bartlett was Mrs. Bartlett's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones of Artesia, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Jones, Mrs. Bartlett's brother of Farwell, N. M. and Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett's daughter and family of Muleshoe, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bartley.

Wedding Vows Pledged By Miss Claryce Bednarz And Donald Dierschke

St. Joseph's Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Claryce Bednarz and Donald Joe Dierschke Saturday, Aug. 18, at 8 o'clock in the morning. The Rev. O. B. Kahlich, cousin of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with white chrysanthemums, gladioli and greenery with tapers lighting the setting.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Bednarz of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dierschke of Rowena.

Miss Joerita Kitten, organist, offered wedding music and accompanied Mrs. D. J. Hlavaty, aunt of the bride, as she sang "On This Day." Mrs. Hlavaty was assisted by the Sodality Choir and the organist in other selections.

Father Is Escort

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle of satin. The lace bodice was set off by white satin molded into a cummerbund released in a butterfly bow at the waist back. Lace appliques sprinkled with seed pearls and iridescent sequins outlined the tulle yoke which was topped with a Queen Anne collar. The full length skirt of tulle over satin, appliqued with dainty lace flowers, fell into a chapel length train.

Her veil of French illusion fell to fingertip length from a beaded crown of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a mother-of-pearl rosary and a lace-covered prayer book topped with a white orchid.

For tradition, the rosary was borrowed from Mrs. Gus Vivial. She wore wedding rings belonging to her two grandmothers, Mrs. R. J. Bednarz and Mrs. A. E. Hlavaty of San Antonio for something old. For something new she wore pearls and earrings, a gift from the groom, and a blue garter.

Bride's Attendants

Matron of honor was Mrs. Finley Lisso of Rowena, the bridegroom's sister. Bridesmaids were Misses La Nelle Heinrich, cousin of the bride, Kay Ella Buxkemper, Colleen Kitten, and Shirley Dierschke of Sealy, cousin of the groom. Oleta Ann Bednarz, sister of the bride, acted as junior maid of honor.

The feminine attendants wore identical dresses of maroon lace over crystaletta fashioned with elongated bodices ending in a cummerbund and full length skirts. Hats and mitts of maroon lace complemented the frocks. They carried maroon chrysanthemums outlined with white net and tied with white streamers.

Brother-in-Law Serves

Serving the groom as best man was his brother-in-law, Finley Lisso of Rowena. Groomsmen were David Bednarz, brother of the bride of Slaton, Curtis Multer of San Angelo, Royce Bednarz of Detroit, Mich., cousin of the bride, and R. Jay Bednarz, another cousin of the bride. Junior groomsmen were Darrell Lissos of Rowena, nephew of the groom.

BUSINESS IS GOOD! BUT ARE YOU GETTING YOUR SHARE?

Competent businessmen scale their advertising investment in proportion to their gross sales . . . then they use their advertising on a program basis so as to follow a systematic plan.

The following percentages of gross sales usually are followed, according to surveys made by recognized authorities:

Clip and Save
Department Stores	2.5
Men's Stores	3.3
Women's Wear Stores	3.1
Furniture Stores	6.3
Drug Stores	2.9
General Merchandise	1.5
Specialty Shops	3.8
Jewelry Stores	3.1
Dry Cleaners	3.3
Hardware Stores	1.0
Other Business	2.0

(Remember! This is figured on your gross sales)

95%

95 per cent of all failures in business are from the ranks of non-advertisers . . . Only 5 per cent of those that fail are advertisers —according to Dun & Bradstreet.

WHAT ABOUT YOU MR. BUSINESS MAN?

Check your gross sales and your advertising percentage can be easily figured . . . Your business cannot differ much from the average in your line and if you wish to improve it . . . or even hold it where it is today . . . then you can not ignore your duty to yourself . . . And maybe we can help you.

Mrs. Nelson Wayne Rost

Ruby Faye Tienert Bride Of Mr. Rost

Nuptial vows were exchanged Sunday, Aug. 19, in St. Paul Lutheran Church of Wilson by Miss Ruby Faye Tienert of that city and Nelson Wayne Rost of Hamilton.

The Rev. G. W. Heinemeier officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with autumn leaves and emerald foliage. Baskets of bronze chrysanthemums and lighted gold tapers completed the setting.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Tienert of Wilson are the parents of the bride. The groom's mother is Mrs. Alice Rost of Hamilton.

Organist, Miss Janelle Ohlenbusch of Lubbock, played selected wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Roy Lynn Kahlich as she sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "O Perfect Love."

Bridal Attire

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of a traditional model of white French lace and tulle, fashioned with a sheer yoke framed with appliques of lace and seed pearls. The fitted bodice was complemented by long sleeves of lace ending in petal points edged in seed pearls, over the hands. The three-tiered skirt of fully shirred tulle was encircled with wide bands of scalloped lace edged with seed pearls and extended into a chapel length train.

Her three-tiered veil of French illusion fell to fingertip length from a regal crown of handmade illusion petals embroidered with pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a crescent bouquet of stephanotis, feathered chrysanthemums and centered with tinsel gold baby orchids. Satin streamers and leaves embroidered with seed pearls were also used in bouquet.

Mrs. Roland Chambles of El Campo was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Janet Dube, Miss Helen Kersten of Amarillo, Miss Wynell Rost, sister of the groom of Hamilton, and Mrs. Jim Porter of Roscoe.

The matron of honor wore a sheath of champagne brocaded satin styled with an overskirt of matching net and tulle. The fitted sleeveless bodice designed with a rounded neck was completed by a matching band of velvet which tied at center back and fell into long streamers. The bridesmaids wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant in cognac color. All the feminine attendants wore headpieces of velvet leaves and tulle to match their gowns. They carried crescent bouquets of China bronze chrysanthemums accented by velvet leaves.

Flowers girls were Cathy Pfluger of Hamilton and Doris Behrend of Wilson. Candelighters were Donna Tienert of Uvalde and Keith Wied of Wilson, niece and nephew of the bride. The flower girls and feminine candelighters wore sleeveless dresses of champagne brocaded satin and net overskirts, designed with rounded necklines and full gathered skirts.

Robert Rost of El Campo served his brother as best man. Ushers were Hubert Tienert of Wilson, bride's brother, Alton Wilson of Hamilton, Wayne Siewert of Abilene, Bobby Wied of Wilson, Glennwood Limmer of Sprenberg and W. L. Henderson of San Angelo.

Ringbearers were Mark Rost of El Campo, nephew of the groom, and Davie Wied of Wilson, nephew of the bride. They carried the rings on large bronze mums.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the high school cafeteria. The bride's table was laid with lace over gold satin and featured the bridesmaids' bouquets. Those in the house party were Mesdames M. G. Wied, Robert Rost of El Campo, Vernon Tienert of Uvalde, Hubert Tienert, Joe Harvick, Misses Darlene Wuensche, Kathleen Heinemeier, Allyne Umland and Lucile Umland.

A light brown suit of Italian cotton with brown and beige accessories was chosen for the short wedding trip by the bride. The couple will be at home at College Station where the groom will attend Texas A&M. He is a graduate of Hamilton High School. The bride is a graduate of Wilson High School and until her marriage was employed by Wilson Mercantile Co.
