September 28 is Dial Day in Slaton

September 28 will be dial day for Slaton. Slaton's new dial telephone system will be placed in operation at noon on that date. J. C. Oakley, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company manager, announced today. Final preparations for the cut-over to dial are now being made. Oakley said. Installers are placing the equipment into position in the new dial building addition and are engaged in hand soldering the thousands of connections necessary for the equipment to function. "This is a slow, tedious task which will require time to complete," Oakley explained. "Then it will be necessary to run intensive tests and to make final adjustments to insure that the equipment is functioning properly."

Meanwhile, many additional tasks remain to be completed. New dial telephone numbers are being assigned to every telephone in Slaton, and customers will be notified of their new numbers by post card. "Each telephone will receive a two-letter and five numeral dial telephone number," the telephone company spokesman said. "All Slaton numbers will have a central office prefix, 'VALLEY,' followed by five numerals." The present telephone numbers will not be usable after noon on September 28. "We don't like to change telephone numbers," Oakley said, "but changing to two-letter and five-numeral telephone numbers is an important part of the new dial telephone system."

New telephone directories listing all the new dial numbers here also will be distributed prior to the cutover. These and more tasks must be completed before Slaton's dial system can be placed in operation. Oakley said the actual cutover operation will take but a few seconds. At 12:01 p. m. on Friday, September 28, the cables leading to the old manual switchboards will be cut and the installation workers will remove a series of blocks from the new dial equipment at a given signal. "When this signal is given, it will climax all our efforts to provide Slaton subscribers with modern dial telephone service," he added. "For this signal will put the Dial System into operation."

Deadline Nears For Aug. Primary Absentee Voting

Absentee voting for the August 25 Democratic primary will continue until the deadline August 21. Following the August 25 primary the winners of the first and second primaries will be placed on the ballot of the general election. The voting in absence privilege is designed for persons who for some reason or other can not go to the polls on election day. To receive the ballot a citizen must send a written request to the County Clerk's office in Lubbock. The request must be accompanied by a poll tax receipt or exemption certificate.

The ballots when they are received by the voter are signed, notarized and returned in a sealed envelope to the county clerk's office to be placed in the proper ballot box from that voter's precinct. Each person who wishes to vote in absence must request the ballot. In other words, a husband can not write for two ballots, one for himself and one for his wife. Each voter must write requesting the ballot for himself.

Miss Joan Green Seriously Injured In Auto Accident

Miss Joan Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Green, was seriously injured in an automobile accident last Thursday evening in Midland when the car in which she was riding was in collision with one driven by a drunk. She was taken to Memorial Hospital where she underwent surgery Thursday night. She suffered considerable cuts and bruises and will remain in the hospital until after further surgery.

Touchdown Club Officer Election Set August 23

The Touchdown Club will meet at the Clubhouse Thursday, August 23 at 8 p. m. for the election of officers and the discussion of the fall project. Eck Curtis, athletic director of the Lubbock School system will be featured speaker at the meeting. Curtis is a former backfield coach for the University of Texas. Touchdown members will start a new membership drive today, August 17 and plan to contact every parent and businessman in the city. If for some reason someone in the city is missed Friday that person can obtain membership in the booster organization by contacting any member of the Touchdown club or by attending the meeting August 23. On August 27 spring training will start, according to head coach Leonard Ehrler. Workouts will be held daily at 8 a. m. and again at 5 p. m. Ehrler said he would like to encourage townspeople to come out and watch the workouts.

First Cotton Bale Ginned Tuesday At Campbell Gin

The first bale of cotton to be ginned in Slaton in 1956 is on display in front of Citizens State Bank. The cotton for the second consecutive year was grown by N. E. "Dick" Denton on land 10 or 12 miles southeast of Slaton. The Chamber of Commerce will give Denton $75 in cash as an award for the first bale rather than make a solicitation of merchants as has been done in the past. The bale, according to K. W. Campbell, is probably one of the earliest in the county to be ginned and is one of the earliest ever ginned in Slaton. Campbell ginned the cotton Tuesday free of charge and paid Denton 40 cents a pound for the finished bale. The bale weighs 535 pounds and was ginned from 1750 pounds of cotton. Seed taken from the cotton weighed 800 pounds for which the gin paid Denton $55. The cotton was half and half

High School A Band To Meet August 20

All A band students are requested to meet at Slaton High School at 9 a. m. Monday, August 20 to begin this year's band work, according to Bill Townsend, Slaton High Band Director.

Townsend said that he also wants to see those students who were in B band last year at the same time.

An announcement concerning the C band will appear in a later issue of The Slatonite.

Slaton Schools To Open Doors September 4

Slaton schools will open their doors for the business of educating the young people on the morning of Tuesday, September 4. The first day will be given over to the business of registration and issuing of text books.

Slaton schools will be staffed by 66 teachers this year and all but two of the positions have already been filled, according to P. L. Vardy, superintendent of schools. The two vacancies are tentatively filled subject to final confirmation.

The new Evans school is expected to be finished in September, though classes will probably not be scheduled in the new building before the end of that month.

The teachers and the courses they will teach include the following: Senior High School J. M. Gilbert, principal; Truett Babb, vocational agriculture; Mrs. Martha Brown, social studies; Mrs. Alma Caldwell, English; Mrs. Mary Gil-

Jaycee Tennis Tournament Set In Community

The third annual National Jaycee Junior and Boy's Tennis Tournament will get underway in the city August 23 and end August 25. Plans are being made to send next year's winner of the tournament to the state and national meets, if sufficient interest is shown in the local tournament, according to Phil Brewer.

The tournament will be divided into two divisions: Division I for boys 18 and under and Division II for boys 15 and under.

The Jaycees will present trophies to winners in both doubles and singles. Entrants can sign up for both singles and doubles play. Applications for the tournament are being taken by Phil Brewer at Brewer Insurance Agency, 139 S. 9th St. A $1 entry fee will be charged for each event.

State Health Department Pleased With City Water Improvements

Slaton received congratulations this week from the state department of health for the interest shown by the citizens and the city in making improvements to the water system to bring them closer to state standards. The congratulations came in the form of letters to the city health officer Dr. T. L. Talbert and to Mayor L. B. Wootton.

Also listed in the letter were several recommendations for additional improvements which would ultimately result in the attainment of state approval for Slaton's water system.

According to the city health officer, Slaton residents are using raw water or water which is untreated. When raw water is used there is always the possibility of the water supply becoming contaminated.

Letter Follows
The letter from the state department of health is as follows: Dear Mayor Wootton: This division is in receipt of a report from Mr. W. D. Power, Sanitarian, covering the sanitary survey of the public water system at Slaton, which he made on July 20th in company with Mr. F. C.

Davis, your water superintendent. We were certainly pleased to note from our representative's report that within the past few years, many improvements have been carried out which have contributed to the protection of the water from contamination, and that interest among various local citizen groups exists to have your city become recognized by this Department as having State approved water facilities.

In view of the numerous improvements which have been made, we wish to commend your city upon the manner in which the improvement program has been carried out, and we sincerely hope that favorable consideration will be given to the following recommendations in planning additional improvements which would ultimately result in the attainment of State approval recognition:

Chlorination System
1. Consideration should be given to the installation of mechanical chlorination equipment at each of the four booster stations with the point of application in existing surface storage reservoirs to provide continuous disinfection of all raw well water supplied to the city distribution system.

2. The cross-connection at the municipal swimming pool should be eliminated to provide the possibility of back siphonage of pool water into the distribution system.

City Wells
3. City supply wells Nos. 19 and 21 should either be housed or provided with manproof fences and kept locked for protection against trespassing.

4. Monthly reports of water works operation should be prepared and copies submitted regularly to the Division of Sanitary Engineering, State Department of Health, Austin, Texas.

Thanks Conveyed
In conclusion, we wish to convey the thanks of our representative to the various city officials for the courtesies extended him during his recent visit.

We sincerely hope that in the very near future the City of Slaton will be listed among those cities of the State which have attained State approval recognition.

Very truly yours,
Henry L. Dabney,
chief

Slatonite Given WTPA Community Service Award

The Slaton Slatonite was highly honored Saturday morning when they received the West Texas Chamber of Commerce community service award at the West Texas Press Association meeting at San Angelo.

Clyde Walter, editor, was given the lions share of the honor in the acceptance of this award by Francis Perry at the meeting. Paul Mirabile of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce made the presentation, noting that the paper supported worthy community projects and helped bring about better law enforcement.

The Post Dispatch of Post, Texas, was another top winner, receiving the general excellence award.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith, Johnny Joe Albert, and Elsie of Odessa visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith's brother, Joe Smith, and family Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Riley of Colorado City were overnight guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilke Thursday night. Mr. Riley was attending the coaches convention in Lubbock. The Rileys are former residents of Slaton.

THAT SCRAWNY LOOKING BUSH in front of Mrs. R. W. Cudd of 1100 W. Lubbock, believe it or not, is a tomato plant. Don't giggle, not only is it a tomato plant, but it is a very productive one. Mrs. Cudd counted 43 tomatoes on the plant which has fallen over with the weight it carries. The tomato plant grows in the back yard of Mrs. Cudd's home and so far has kept the family well stocked in tomatoes, with the promise of more to come.

THE CHRISTMAS BOXES pile up on the production line of Slaton Decorated Box Company as work moves along on Christmas orders. The newly formed business is the result of much thought and hard work by its owner B. N. Ball.

Slaton's Newest Industry To Make Christmas More Pleasant

As a result of Slaton's newest industry there are going to be some pleasantly surprised people over the country when Christmas time rolls around once again. The surprise will come in the form of the usual Christmas package.

But this year the enjoyable part of the package will be not only in what it contains, but the beautifully decorated box that holds the gift.

Ball Brainstorm
Decorating gift boxes is the brainstorm of B. N. Ball and from this idea has evolved the birth of the Slaton Decorated Box Company—Slaton's newest industry.

Ball first got the idea for a decorated box in 1954 and to test his idea he produced a few of them for the Christmas season at O. Z. Ball and Company. The boxes were so designed that a gift placed inside became gift-wrapped simply by closing the box.

Top Decorated
The gift wrapping and decoration was all done to the top of the box and when the top was placed on the box the box appeared to be gift wrapped and ready for placing under the Christmas tree or in the hall closet away from young prying fingers.

The gaily decorated boxes proved so popular in the store that Ball made them again the next year. (Continued on Back Page)

Ranger Posse Take First Place

Slaton's "ambassadors of goodwill," the Slaton Rangers, took first place honors in the riding group's division in the kick-off parade for the ninth annual Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo in Post August 8.

More than 2000 spectators turned out for the parade and opening performance of the rodeo. Jerry Harlan of Slaton took first place in the Flag Race during the second performance of the rodeo Thursday night before an estimated crowd of 1,250.

Contestants in the rodeo must be 19 years old or under to participate. Proceeds from the rodeo went to the Garza County 4-H Club.

Local Firemen Send Disaster Victims Donation

Slaton firemen Monday voted to send a contribution to the State Firemen's and Fire Marshals' Association of Texas to be used toward caring for the wives and children of 15 firemen who were killed in the recent oil refinery explosion and fire near Dumas and Sunday.

All of the firemen killed left little, if any, protection for their families and to alleviate the situation the state association is soliciting the volunteer fire departments of Texas for aid to the families.

The men who lost their lives were volunteer firemen for the most part from Dumas and Sunday. The local volunteers took up the donation at their regular drill session Monday night, according to Elbert Wilson, fire chief.

Bob Brasfield Resigns City Commission Post

Commissioner Bob Brasfield tendered his resignation, effective the first of September, at a regular monthly meeting of the City Commission Monday night in City Hall. Brasfield stated that he and his family are moving to Boonville, Arkansas where he has purchased a farm.

A called election will probably be held around the first of October to fill the vacancy on the City Commission, according to Mayor L. B. Wootton.

The commissioners decided to take no action on the $15,000 fire equipment improvement proposal which passed in the recent bond election. The city officials felt that it would cost the city just as much to put through the $15,000 bond as it would have to put through the entire $150,000 bond issue.

One of the commissioners stated, "We believe the best thing is for us to wait until the people of the community are ready for this issue and then try it again. We plan to explain the needs of the city more fully between now and then."

"There would be no market for a bond issue of $15,000 and the high rate of interest would make it prohibitive—we could borrow the money locally at cheaper interest than we would receive on such a low bond issue."

Police chief Bill Daniels appeared before the commission to request the purchase of a new police car. The commissioners voted to buy a Chevrolet. The car will equip the Slaton police department with two cars—as Daniel quipped "A man in a small yard doesn't have any trouble watching one dog, but when there are two dogs the man is going to have to stay on his toes to keep track of both of them at the same time."

BARGAIN TRAVEL

A New York hotel man recently announced plans to build two ships designed to carry passengers to Europe at a fare of about $50.

The ships would be of tremendous size, and would be capable of carrying 6,000 passengers each. The $50 fare would include the cost of transportation and a berth; food, entertainment and other luxuries would cost extra. But the hotel man estimated that cafeteria style meals for the trip could be provided at about four dollars per day.

He is convinced that by doing away with a lot of the luxury features the cost of travel could be greatly reduced. Yet travelers on the ship would have facilities for movies, concerts and swimming as well as for religious services.

If the plan is practical it could have many good results. It would provide Americans who do not have large incomes with the chance to enjoy foreign travel. It would also increase our understanding of European peoples and their cultures and it would give Europeans a chance to see some Americans who are not carrying well filled wallets.

It may be that the idea will prove impractical, that it will remain an unrealized dream. But it is a very pleasant dream and one quite in keeping with the tradition of big dreams that Americans have so often made come true.

FLUFFY-TENDER

Do you speak ad-ese? If so, you must be a television announcer doing commercials, for no one else uses such language. "Ad-ese" is the name given to the jargon by John Loudon, writing in Sales Management.

We all recognize ad-ese even if we do not use it ourselves. "Fluffy-tender," "party-pretty," "whisper-soft" are typical ad-ese terms which no one but a copywriter ever dreamed of using.

Does this line of talk work? Once, Loudon thinks, it had shock value, but now that everybody is doing it, its effect has largely worn off.

The advertisers have good products to sell. Why not tell the world about them in straight talk? Did any beverage ever appeal more to the average man or woman because some spokesman described it as "sippin'-pretty?"

WHY ROME FELL

Why did Rome fall? This old historical riddle has had many explanations, one of the more plausible being the spread of malaria in Italy and in the adjoining provinces. Now Prof. Arthur E. R. Boak has come forward with a new and convincing explanation in his book, "Manpower Shortage and the Fall of the Roman Empire in the West."

Rome fell, according to Boak, because the population dropped to a point where it was insufficient to keep the government and the army going.

Epitaphs and the statements of Roman writers reveal that length of life was short, and the margin of births over deaths never large. By as early as A. D. 193 the decline of population became noticeable. Malaria was a factor, and there were great plagues in the third century.

The ever growing number of barbarian enemies outside made larger and larger armies necessary, drawing workers away from productive occupations. Military defeats completed the picture. Rome finally fell because not enough Romans were left to preserve her.

One housewife demonstrated to her man of the house just how much she did in a day's time by one day of not doing it. The proof of the task was in the seeing! (Memo to wives: Husbands don't recommend this approach. They'd rather take your word for it.)

With so many things supposed to be completely foolproof, it's amazing how some people get their hands on them.

When putting things off until tomorrow, bear in mind that the days are pretty short this time of year.

We're now in the midst of an election year—the Republicans will claim credit for the sunshine and the Democrats will try to blame them for the floods.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM YOUR State CAPITOL

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN—The eyes of Texas are on Chicago this week. And, politically speaking the state nestles in one man's pocket.
 Sen. Lyndon Johnson heads the 112-member Texas delegation, each of whom will cast one-half vote of the state's 56 nominating votes. They are pledged to support him as a favorite son nominee until he releases them.
 Thereafter they will vote under the unit rule, probably for whatever candidate is favored by Sen. Johnson. All delegates and the 70 alternates were selected by the May convention with the senator's approval.

Another Texan, Speaker Sam Rayburn, figures prominently in convention affairs. He will be presiding over a presidential convention for the third time.
September Convention in Doubt
 Who will win out at the September State Democratic Convention is a subject of heated debate.
 Actual outcome will not be known until the meeting gets underway in Fort Worth. Rival conservative and liberal delegations will struggle for nearly 600 seats. Convention control hinges on these places.
 Precinct and county conventions named some 577 definitely liberal delegates, about 224 conservatives. But neither side can control the 1900-vote convention without the contested seats.

 Mrs. Kathleen Voigt of San Antonio, liberal leader, charged last week the conservative executive committee planned to "steal" the convention. She asked that the May state convention, which was recessed rather than adjourned, be reconvened to take charge of the situation.
 Executive Committee Chairman George Sandlin dismissed Mrs. Voigt's charges as "the same old thing, every two years."
 He promised the committee would give all contesting delegations a fair hearing and seat those legally entitled to places. He predicted the convention would be made up of middle-of-the-road conservatives "with no ax to grind."
 As for the May convention, he felt the intervening precinct and county conventions had made it past history.
Webb Investigators in Controversy
 Who should investigate alleged voting irregularities in Webb County is still being debated.
 Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd has twice been set back in efforts to set up a state-level inquiry. But his office said he intends to continue the fight.
 At Shepperd's behest, Austin Dist. Judge Charles O. Belts sent Dan Moody Jr. to Laredo to act as master in chancery of an inquiry.
 Webb County Dist. Judge R. D. Wright is issued an injunction to stop the Moody investigation. He claimed prior jurisdiction for the questioning being conducted in his own court.
 Shepperd and Moody took the matter to the State Supreme Court which rejected their petition.
 Meanwhile, the Webb County grand jury indicted seven persons. But spokesmen for the Reform Party called this "window dressing." They were still working for an investigation originating in Austin.
Re-hearing Asked in Santa Fe Case
 Awaiting the Supreme Court when it reconvenes in October will be a motion for re-hearing in the long-contested Santa Fe Railway case.
 In July the court upheld the right of unions to make closed shop agreements in the railway industry. Such contracts are prohibited by the state "right to work" law, but allowed by the federal railway act.
 In their motion, railway attorneys asked the court either to reverse the July ruling or modify it. They contended that union contracts should allow only for collection of "dues and assessments necessary to support collective bargaining action."
Smaller Cotton Crop Seen
 King Cotton is wearing a drought-scarred crown.
 U. S. Dept. of Agriculture estimates put Texas' 1956 cotton crop at 3,600,000 bales, compared to 4,039,000 last year.
 Prospective yields ran to extremes. They were termed "extremely poor" in dryland areas.

"excellent" in irrigated sections.
 Farmers who did not grow cotton will get the lion's share of Texas' soil bank payments. Of the $22 million to be paid to Texas farmers by the federal government within the next few weeks, more than $16 million will go for idle cotton acreage.
 Other payments: $5,524,000 for wheat, $372,000 for peanuts, $210,000 for rice.
Justice Department Suggested
 Texas needs a department of justice to bolster local enforcement of state criminal laws.
 State Auditor C. H. Cavness made this suggestion last week in a report on the Department of Public Safety. He pointed out that legislative investigators had urged such a move three years ago.
 Cavness also noted that while the DPS funds and staff have grown, they have not kept pace with needs and responsibilities.
Federal Inquiry of US Trust
 A federal grand jury investigation of the bankrupt US Trust and Guaranty Co. is scheduled for Sept. 24.
 Federal officials would have the power to prosecute if they found the company had violated U. S. postal regulations or securities laws.
 U. S. Dist. Atty. Malcom R. Wilkey of Houston declined to say what course inquiry might take.
Short Snorts
 Withdrawal of Sen. A. M. Aiken Jr. from the lieutenant governor's race for health reasons caused only minor delays in second primary preparations. Most counties reported they had printed only a few ballots for absentee voters. In urban counties voting machines were changed with little difficulty.
 State Health Department officials last week warned gardeners against use of some of the newer "organic phosphate" insecticides. Such sprays are safe only in the hands of professionals who use protective clothing, goggles and respirators, said the department.
 Texas Dept. of Public Safety polygraph (lie detector) examiner Dee Wheeler has been named in the book, "From Evidence to Proof," by Michigan professor Marshall Houts, former FBI man, lawyer and judge.
 William L. McGill, state civil defense director, has been in M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston for "examination and observation." McGill is nationally known for his work in civil defense.

Turned Out To Be a Good Break

We had a water main break last Thursday. Happened early in the morning—about two a.m.—and the first thing most of us knew about it was when we tried to turn on the faucets and nothing came out but a hissing noise.
 Nobody was inconvenienced much though. Repair crew went right to work—and things were fixed up in jig time.
 Incidentally, the water company got a flood of payments on overdue bills that day. Lots of "forgetful" folks must have figured they were being warned!

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pike were in Clovis, N. Mex. August 6 to attend a birthday celebration for Mrs. Pike's mother, Mrs. Mae Shue. Others attending were, Mrs. Shue's daughter, Mrs. J. W. Booth, Mr. Booth and family of Amarillo, a son, Paul Shue, Mrs. Shue and family, and another son, Clyde Shue, Mrs. Shue and family all of Belen, N. Mex.

Mr. and Mrs. Bentley Page had as their guests Saturday Mrs. Page's brother, Vernon Bradley and Jack Stewart and two sons of Clovis, N. Mex. Frank Page of San Diego, Calif., Mr. Page's nephew, has been visiting with the Pages for the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parks left Sunday for a weeks vacation in San Antonio where they will visit relatives and friends.

Mike Moorhead of Lubbock is spending the week here with his great grandmother, Mrs. Kate Fancher.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Pendleton of Dora, N. Mex. spent Sunday night in the home of Mrs. Pendleton's brother, Larkin Taylor, and Mrs. Taylor.

Would you trade 20 minutes of your time for a saving of hundreds?

Why put off the fun of a Ford Test Drive for a single day? As you know, it puts you under absolutely no obligation. And it may save you literally hundreds of dollars—we'll get to that a little further on.

By a Test Drive we mean more than a once-around-the-block "spin."
 We want you to test the power that rocketed Ford to a 500-mile stock car record at Indianapolis . . . the GO that won the grand prize at NASCAR's Daytona Championships. We want you to feel how this Ford scat pays off in your kind of driving: in traffic, passing on the highway, getting going at traffic lights. We'll put either a Ford Six or a mighty V-8 with up to 225 h.p. at your disposal.
 We want you to drive and listen—drive and feel.
 That fine-car quiet results from sound insulation under the hood, under the roof, in door and body panels—the most insulation in any car at anywhere near Ford's low price.
 Some other things that contribute to that smooth, silent, luxury-car ride are things which Ford's leading competitor certainly can't boast: Ball-joint suspension with wide base control arms for better steering, more stabilized wheel alignment . . . shock absorbers that are mounted to the frame rather than the body.
 "Sure," you'll say as you drive along the road. "Feels pretty good—but after all, this car is new."
 Well, sir, when you come in from your drive we'll show you why Ford will stay like new for a long, long time.
 We'll show you how Ford has five cross-members (including a "K" member) in its frame. Ford's leading competitor only has two. We'll show you the deep-block Y-like engine design which enables Ford engines to take it.
 Now—what you've been waiting for. How can you save hundreds of dollars by taking a Ford Test Drive?
 Simply by proving to yourself that there really is a fine car in the low-price field.
 You see, the reason a Ford does not cost hundreds of dollars more than it does, is Ford's huge production and the huge volume which we Ford Dealers sell.
 But enough of this talk. Come in. And you do the driving and the talking. Bring the family, too.

Tornado Warning System Discussed

Lubbock County's tornado warning system was the subject of a film shown at the Slaton Rotary Club last week. The film was shown and narrated by Howard Cross of the Lubbock Weather Bureau.

Guests at the meeting included A. D. Steed, Amarillo; Mark Haley, Lubbock; Woodrow Chandler, Greenville; J. D. Thomas, instructor of Bible History at Abilene Christian College; C. L. Newcomb, Church of Christ minister of Slaton; George Gamble, and B. N. Ball both of Slaton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Westbay of Amarillo spent last week end visiting in the home of Mrs. Westbay's aunt, Mrs. L. B. Hagerman. Mrs. Westbay remained for a longer visit.

The driver who is heavy on his horn is usually light in other departments.

August Revival of Nazarene Church To Continue Through August 26

The Rev. Buford Battin is guest evangelist at the August Revival which began August 15 at the Nazarene Church in Slaton. The revival will continue through Sunday, August 26.

Services are being held at 7:30 p. m. daily and at 10:45 a. m. Sunday. Pre-service prayer groups meet at 7 p. m. nightly.

Rev. Battin has held successful pastorates in Texas and New Mexico and at present is making his home in Lubbock. He has for a number of years been a much sought after evangelist, according to the Rev. Marshall Stewart, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene.

"Rev. Battin is a very forceful preacher of the Bible, one that anyone would enjoy hearing," the pastor stated. A musical program has been a part of the nightly services.

"Everyone has a very special invitation to attend each one of the services during the remainder of the meeting," Rev. Stewart said.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Butler of Seminole announce the birth of their son, Randal Boyce, born August 9th, weighing 5 lbs. and 3 oz. Mrs. Butler is the former Bonnie Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Boyce. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Butler are the paternal grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Townsend have returned home after having attended a camp meeting of the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Amarillo last week.

Chapel Choir To Present Music In Wilson Revival

The Chapel Choir of First Methodist Church, composed of 7th, 8th, and 9th graders, is to present special music this Saturday night, August 18, in revival services at Wilson Methodist Church. The choir's director, Jim D. Campbell, is leading the singing in this meeting at 8:00 p. m. each night this week.

The choir will meet at 6:30 p. m. in Fellowship Hall of First Methodist Church and travel to Wilson in a group. After the revival service, they will return to Slaton for a watermelon feast.

Members of the choir include Patty Clark, Melinda Clifton, Ann Wright, Catha Walker, Linda Walker, Dana Heaton, Donna Wilke, Elaine Pickens, James Wright, Don Edwards, Danny Edwards, Robert Keys, Johnny Morris, Howard Hoffmann, Jr., Mike Genoble, Jay McSweeney III, Kay Kincer, Da Onne Weaver, Linda Shelton, Marilyn Gilmore, and Joan Thomas. Miss Mary Ann Klattenhoff is accompanist and assistant director.

Don Edwards is president pro tem and James Wright is secretary pro tem. A nominating committee composed of Robert Keys, Don Edwards, Ann Wright, and Joan Thomas will soon select permanent officers for the approval of the choir.

Methodist Chancel Choir to Present Concert Sunday

The Chancel Choir of the First Methodist Church, the adult musical group of the church, will be presented in a special summer evening concert of sacred music this Sunday, August 19 at 7 p. m.

The concert will be presented in the church. The program will be composed of popular hymns, Negro spirituals, and great works of sacred music as well as solos, duets and quartets.

Numbers to be presented include Negro spirituals "Were You There?" "Lord I Want to Be a Christian," and "I Know the Lord;" the hymns "Still, Still with Thee," "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," and others; "Cherubim Song" by Bortniansky, and selections by Wagner, Saint Saens, Bach, and Dvorak. Solos will be sung by Mrs. M. G. Davis and Mrs. F. L. Elterman; a duet by Ed Cummings and Ted Swanner will be featured; and a quartet composed of Mrs. Phil Brewer, Mrs. C. H. Green, Jack Nowlin, and Jim Campbell will be heard. Mrs. Webber Williams and Mrs. J. A. Wright will present instrumental music at the organ and piano. The program will conclude with Fred Waring's stirring version of "Onward Christian Soldiers." Jim D. Campbell, Minister of Music, will conduct the program.

The public is cordially invited to attend, according to Campbell. "The concert is light and enjoyable in nature and will be concluded in ample time for the congregation to attend 8 o'clock services at other churches if they wish to do so," he stated.

At an eight-year-old's birthday party, the adults rushed around frantically keeping the party going—organizing games, treasure hunts and races. In the midst of the confusion, one little boy asked: "When this all over, can we play?"

Irene Tomlinson Entertains Lions At Tuesday Meet

Irene Tomlinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bland Tomlinson entertained the Lions Club Tuesday with a selection of musical numbers at the piano. Miss Tomlinson's selections included "Little Ma'melle," "Juke Box Boogie," "Deep River," "Young At Heart," "Memories Are Made of This," and her own arrangement of "The Breakers."

Charles Marriott reported to the Lions that the organization is again sponsoring Janet Hollingsworth at the Lions Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville. Janet went to the camp Sunday where she will remain for two weeks.

Marriott stated that the board of directors of the camp had requested that Janet be brought to the camp. She had attended last year and was one of the 10% of the children who was asked to return.

Under the camp set-up each child, whose handicap will allow it, is assigned a child who needs a little more care than the less handicapped child. In Janet's case she was assigned a wheel-chair case last summer and the directors of the camp were so delighted with the interest she took in the child in the wheel chair that they asked the local club to send Janet back for a second summer.

Lubbock Layman To Preach Sunday In Slaton Church

Reese Barone from First Christian Church in Lubbock will be the speaker at the morning services at First Christian Church Sunday at 11 p. m. Mr. Barone was the speaker last Sunday when he was well received, according to O. D. Kenney who invites all the members to be present Sunday Morning.

First Christian Church is without a pastor since the resignation of the Rev. Ed Gorom who accepted the pastorate in Luling, Texas.

More Deaths on Highway Than On Battlefield

More Americans died on the highway in 1955 alone than on the battlefield during the entire Korean War.

The National Safety Council's statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts," just off the press, shows there were 38,300 traffic deaths in the United States in 1955. Official Defense Department records list the battle deaths in the Korean War at 33,629.

"We don't for a moment want to imply that the highway is as hazardous as the battlefield," said Ned H. Dearborn, president of the Council. "But the fact is that the loss to the nation from the 1955 traffic toll is greater in terms of human life than the loss sustained in the Korean War. Therefore, it's certainly worth getting excited about."

Approximately 1,350,000 Americans were injured in motor vehicle accidents during the year, the Council said.

The more you lean on others, the leaner your chances for success.

Accidental Death Toll of Women Lower Than Men

Don't laugh at your wife because you think she's a scaredy-cat. The National Safety Council says feminine prudence and skill are playing a part in holding the accidental death toll of women to about half the toll of men!

The Council's statistical yearbook, "Accidental Facts," which is just off the press, also points out, however, that men are more exposed to danger because of their occupations and activities.

More women than men were killed in falls in 1954—the latest figure available. But the difference was not very great—551. And in all the other seven principal causes of accidental deaths, men outnumbered women.

Motor vehicle accidents killed 26,725 men, 8,861 women; falls, 9,610 men, 10,161 women; fire burns, 3,372 men, 2,711 women; drownings, 3,450 men, 884 women; railroad accidents, 2,129 men, 487 women; firearms, 2,016 men, 265 women; poison gases, 881 men, 342 women; and poisons (except gas), 773 men, 560 women.

Let's Stop Maligning Our American Youth

Lurid publicity about a tiny minority of teen-age delinquents has blinded us to the solid achievements and ideals of the typical youngsters which constitute 95 per cent of American youth today.
Writing in their defense, Margaret Culklin Banning says this vast majority of teen-agers "has never been before the police, even for such a minor offense as breaking a window."
Surveys have shown that teen-agers place a high value on education. Their willingness to work at part-time and summer jobs refutes any accusation of decadence; indeed their earnings and allowances give them an annual purchasing power of four billion dollars.
More adolescents than ever before participate in church activities. Millions of them join the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, the Boys' Clubs and similar youth organizations.

Everywhere they are taking prominent parts in community betterment.
The U. S. Department of Agriculture lists over two million farm boys and girls who are bringing credit and profit to themselves as members of the 4-H Clubs. In the cities some 40,000 belong to Junior Achievement, which trains teen-age groups in business methods and problems by teaching them to organize and operate small companies of their own.
Alarming statistics about delinquency are often misleading. Police Commissioner Kennedy of New York City points out that boys and girls are more closely watched by the police than formerly; hence minor offenses and even warnings get on the record. The object is to nip in the bud any tendency to delinquency. But the statistics tend to exaggerate the facts.
A small minority of teen-agers has smeared the reputation of youth. The activities of the 95-per cent majority "provide heartening evidence of character and capacity," Mrs. Banning concludes.
Cotton producers of Texas and the nation are being asked to take every possible step to keep tar spots out of their cotton. The problem has become serious enough, says F. C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist, to warrant a belt-wide campaign of elimination.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas
A public relation feature of the State Bar of Texas

No Will? State Laws Will Name Your Heirs.
What will happen if you should die without executing a legal and proper will? Who will inherit your property? Your husband, wife, mother, father, children, your wife's relatives? The best way you can say who will have it is to provide a will which will protect your rightful beneficiaries and dispose of your property in accordance with your wishes.
When a deceased has no will, or dies "intestate" as the law calls it, the property of that person is distributed according to a detailed formula fixed by law. In some cases this may be the way you yourself would divide it—but in many cases it is not.
The provisions of the law concerning the distribution of the property of a person who dies without a will are rather complicated, and all of the possibilities cannot be covered by a general statement.
There are different rules for real estate and for personal property, for community property and for separate property, for homestead property, and for all of the many possible combinations of surviving relatives. Each situation

I guess the juvenile delinquent gets on the wrong track because of a misplaced switch.

Never send a boy to do a man's work; send a woman.

It's what a worker does, not what he is capable of doing that shows in the record of achievement.

Handsome bachelors often make good husbands, especially out of other men.

A dictator would have a rough time in this country, where the people like to kill the umpire for making just one bad decision.

Little Willie: "Mom, you said the baby has your eyes and Daddy's nose didn't you?"
Mother: "Yes, darling."
Willie: "Well, you'd better watch him, he has grandpa's teeth now."

must be carefully studied to determine the correct distribution of the property.
For example, here is a general idea of how the community property you and your spouse have accumulated will be divided if you do not make a will prior to your death.
If your husband or wife survives and there are no children, the surviving spouse receives all of the property.
If, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of deceased children, they would divide one-half of the property, while the surviving spouse would receive the other one-half.
Of course, grandchildren do not share in the estate unless their parent who would inherit is deceased. And when descendants of previously deceased children do inherit, they receive only the portion that the child would have received, regardless of the number of such descendants.
An odd note, perhaps, is that the surviving spouse already owns one-half of the community estate prior to your death, and the law adds nothing to this share where there are children surviving.
When there are only children and their descendants surviving, they divide the entire community estate between them.

Finders Keepers?
"Finders keepers, losers weepers." Is this old rhyme true or false? Lawyers say it is not always strictly accurate under the law. It is sometimes rather difficult to define the rights of a finder in court.
There are some rather fine distinctions and exceptions to the "finders keepers" maxim that have plagued the courts—and finders—for generations. In the first place, the finder is not entitled to keep the property unless the original owner is not known and cannot be located. Neither may he keep it unless the object is truly "lost," and not merely "misaid."
In general, property is legally "lost" when parted with involuntarily—through accident, neglect, forgetfulness or any other unintentional circumstance. Property is not lost in the legal sense when voluntarily left by the owner, intending to pick it up later—even though he fails to do so. Such property is "misaid."
Thus, if one loses a watch on the street by having the clasp break, not knowing where or when it was dropped, it is legally "lost." The same is true of a fountain pen falling through a hole in one's pocket unobserved. In such cases, the finder owns what he has found against all but the true owner.
On the other hand, a package left on the seat of a bus is "misaid" rather than lost. In one southern state, a pocketbook left in a barbershop by a customer was held to have been "left," not "lost." The barber was arrested and convicted of larceny when he spent the money that was in it.
Under the law the finder of either lost or misaid property should make a "reasonable effort" to find the real owner.
When articles are left on a train or bus, in a public hotel room, or even when dropped on a shop floor, under circumstances indicating that the true owner will later return to claim them, such items are not considered lost. The proper custodian to hold them for the owners return would be the proprietor or other person in charge.
Remaining unclaimed, the property sometimes goes to this custodian, sometimes to the finder. The distinction here appears to be whether the place it is found is private or semi-private, or a place used by the general public.
(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

From this Christmas novelty has grown what presently is a rapidly growing business for Ball.

The six-man production line in the Slaton Decorated Box Company is at present turning out about 1500 boxes each day with production, once the kinks are ironed out, expected to increase to about 2,000 per day.

The first boxes came off the production line Tuesday, July 31 at which time work was begun on the first shipment of boxes.

At the present time Ball is distributing his decorated boxes through the Anarillo Paper Company and the Mayfield Paper Company of Abilene. He is in the midst of negotiations to distribute boxes through a paper firm in Oklahoma.

Boxes Enter

When the boxes enter the factory they are undecorated though their tops are covered with slick paper in solid colors. When they leave the factory they are decorated with Christmas ribbon and seals and all carry a Yule-tide scene of some sort. Some have bells and holly, others have tiny reindeer or candles. The Christmas scenes are placed on the box by means of a stencil and a spray gun carrying the color of paint which goes with it. Some of the scenes have up to three colors of paint on them.

Six Employees

At present Ball has six full-time employees and anticipates adding three part-time employees in the near future. In talking about his newly organized business Ball stated, "It is our intention, should the business live up to our expectations, before too many seasons pass to establish a box factory in Slaton and make our own boxes instead of having them shipped in for decoration."

In actual operation the production line moves very smoothly. The box top is first sprayed with the Christmas scene. The box then moves down the line to have ribbon and Christmas seals put on it and then in the final step is inspected and packed for shipment to the paper company for distribution.

Employees

The people who dress up the boxes at Slaton Decorated Box are Mrs. Eilon Hacker, painter; Mrs. Carol Nelson and Mrs. Jim Hargrave, both ribbon applicators; Mrs. Margie Wright, inspector and Mrs. Margie Wright, inspector and decorator; and Burt Lively, line foreman.

Ball's entire production at present is given over to Christmas boxes. The wide variety and assortment of designs include three different sizes of boxes in 25 different patterns.

Klaus Family Returns From Week Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Klaus and sons R. D. and Calvin Wayne returned home Saturday from a week vacation trip spent sight-seeing and visiting with relatives. Their first stop was in Fort Worth and Arlington where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Frost and their two sons, Gary and Scotty. From there they went to Sealy, arriving there Monday morning. Here they visited with Mr. Klaus' cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Michaelis and their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Michaelis and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Michaelis, Mr. Klaus' uncle and aunt.

On Tuesday the Klaus family accompanied by the Leroy Michaelis went to Bay City for a visit with their great uncles, Herman and Charles Michaelis. While they were there they went to Matagorda Bay on a sight-seeing trip. Then on Thursday they made a trip to Houston and Galveston. In Houston, after having driven around looking at the town, they went to the zoo, the San Jacinto Battle ground, saw the battleship Texas, and the San Jacinto monument.

One of the most interesting places they saw in Galveston was the Big John Economides Dreamland Restaurant where they had dinner. This place has become a nationally famous for the management having fed the sea gulls through the winter months. Last year there was a story in Redbook Magazine telling about this place. Here the patrons can feed the gulls with scraps as the restaurant is built on a pier out over the gulf. Big John enjoys telling the children that the gulls are his personal friends as they circle around overhead and come down one by one to get a morsel of food from his hand. He explains that their constant squawking is saying "thank you" in Greek.

After taking a boat ride to Bolivar Point and seeing the bird life and the port they returned to Sealy where they started their return trip home. All the trip was made by train.

SALAMI-SHARP CHEESE ROLLS WITH PICKLE-TOMATO SAUCE

This is a quick main dish because it takes practically no time to fix. Large slices of spicy salami are rolled around strips of sharp yellow cheese. These rolls are quickly browned. Canned tomato sauce and sweet pickle relish are stirred in and heated to make a piping hot sauce.

MENU

Salami-Sharp Cheese Rolls With Pickle-Tomato Sauce
On Hot Fluffy White Rice
Buttered Frenched Green Beans
Fresh Fruit Salad
Hot Hard Rolls
Lemon Tarts

INGREDIENTS:

2 cups water
1 cup uncooked white rice
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 lb. sharp yellow cheese
6 slices (1/2 lb.) large salami
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 1/2 oz. can tomato sauce
1/2 cup water
3 tablespoons sweet pickle relish

METHOD: Put the water, rice and salt in a 2-quart saucepan.

Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover with a lid and leave over this low heat 14 minutes. After the rice cooks 14 minutes, remove the saucepan from the heat but leave the lid on until ready to serve, at least 10 minutes.

While the rice cooks, cut the cheese into six strips about 2 1/2 inches long, but shorter than the salami slices are wide. Roll a slice of salami around each strip of cheese. The cheese should be completely covered. Fasten the salami roll with a wooden toothpick.

Melt the butter or margarine in a large skillet. Add the salami-cheese rolls and quickly brown on one side. Turn and brown on the other. Some of the cheese may cook out of the rolls. After the salami-cheese rolls are browned, stir in the tomato sauce, water and pickle relish. Heat, stirring frequently.

To serve, place the hot rice on a platter. Arrange the salami-rolls over the top. Pour the sauce over the rice and salami-cheese rolls.

Makes 6 servings.

Slaton Women Give Their Favorite Tested Recipes

A "De Luxe Banana Cake" recipe was chosen by Mrs. C. L. Newcomb to be shared with her neighbors and friends. This is one of her favorite cakes and she feels sure you and your family will enjoy this "different" banana cake.

De Luxe Banana Cake

1/2 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 eggs
2 cups sifted flour
1 tsp. soda
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 cup buttermilk
1 cup mashed (very ripe) bananas

1/2 cup pecans or black walnuts (chopped)

Method: Cream shortening and sugar; add eggs, one at a time beating well after each addition. Add sifted dry ingredients, alternating with buttermilk and bananas. Stir in nuts. Bake in 9x5x3 inch paper-lined loaf pan at 350 degrees for 65 minutes or until done.

This cake may be served topped with whip cream which makes a very nice party dessert, according to Mrs. Newcomb.

Lived Here Year

Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb moved to Slaton in August of 1955 when Mr. Newcomb became the minister at the local Church of Christ. They moved here from New Home. He has been in the ministry for about five years and although she did not marry a minister she loves the work and is happy with their life.

Mrs. Newcomb, who was Mary Nell Hunter before her marriage, was reared at Eunice, N. Mex. and met her husband while he was stationed at Hobb's Air Force Base during World War II. They have two children: Gary and Carolyn, ages 10 and 11, who will be in the fifth and sixth grade.

The Newcombs lived in Mt. Vernon, Ill. for several years, this being Mr. Newcomb's home. Although Mrs. Newcomb says she likes anywhere they live, she likes Texas best of all the places she has lived. She laughingly told about her husband bragging about Texas on a recent trip to Illinois.

Before moving to Slaton, they lived in Doole, Carlton, Texline and New Home where he was the local evangelist for the church. The children especially like Slaton and have been active in Cub Scout and Girls Scout activities.

Mrs. Newcomb not only takes an interest in the work of the church but has been a den mother for Cub Scouts for the past three years. She is a member of the Slaton Home Demonstration Club, too.

Collects Plates

For hobbies she enjoys collecting plates from the different states, skating and traveling. They have just recently returned from a trip to northern New Mexico and are planning a trip to Washington, D. C. for next year.

Of course as most mothers, her main interests in life are her family and her church. She loves to visit the elderly people for she feels we neglect them when their years of activity are over. She has had illness in her family since moving here and has not been able to visit them as much as she would like and but hopes to be more active now.

New Pig Wormer

The new era of simplified on-the-farm worming methods has now been extended to swine with the announcement by the Ralston Purina Company of a liquid pig wormer for use in the drinking water.

A few weeks ago a drinking water wormer for poultry was announced. Following further research, the same type of worming program has been adapted and made available for hogs.

The active ingredients in the liquid wormer is piperazine, which is widely used by the medical profession as a wormer for humans. Its recent application to hogs has produced spectacular results.

Pigs are wormed by this new method at 9 to 14 weeks of age, or at 45 to 90 pounds body weight. The liquid wormer is used at the strength of one ounce to a gallon of water for each pig. The pigs are not allowed access to any other drinking water until the entire amount of medicated water has been consumed.

In warm dry weather the total amount of one gallon of medicated water is drunk.

The hogs' feeding program does not have to be changed in any way during the worming period, and there is no shock to the animals. It is also very economical.

Round worms in hogs have long been a problem for hog raisers. The drinking water wormer introduces a new era of simple, economical and effective worming for hogs and poultry.

Drought Stricken Farmers Provided Income Tax Relief

Drought stricken farmers have been provided income tax relief on the sale of livestock by Public Law 629 approved June 29, 1956. When a farmer has to sell his livestock, in excess of the number that he usually sells in his ordinary business, due to drought, he can consider the sale as an involuntary conversion. The tax relief provisions relating to involuntary conversions have in the past applied to such things as the burning of your house, losses by flood, etc. on which insurance is collected. No tax is due on the sale of property due to an involuntary conversion if the property is replaced with like kind within a specified period, generally before the end of the following year.

Mr. H. O. Nichols, Administrative Officer of the Lubbock office stated that farmers who are having to sell livestock due to drought conditions will qualify. He pointed out that the Farmers Tax Guide for 1955, Internal Revenue Service Publication 225, sets out the procedures the farmers should follow in Chapter 13. Publication 225 is available at Internal Revenue Service offices and at county agents' offices. Thousands of farmers used this publication in preparing their 1955 tax returns.

SECURITY

Security is everyone's byword in this era of tension, anxiety, and bristling competition. It's the goal of government, industry, business, family, and nations.

Security generally means being sure of something, or even someone. But, no one gets security without giving. It is not self-accomplished. Other people and factors contribute in providing our security.

Above all, God alone is the source of security and serenity. Society cancels out our security with finality when we run afoul of its standards, whereas God endows us with the privilege of obtaining forgiveness and mending our ways.

How secure are we against the disasters and perils of life and against our own imperfections? To find the answer, turn to God's Church where we will find the fountain of security.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
