

Slaton "Jimmie" Smith Revival

While very likely hundreds in the community do not realize it, yet undoubtedly Slaton is now seeing the opening days of what bids fair to be the greatest revival of its history thus far.

"Backed" by the official invitation of the Slaton Methodist and Presbyterian churches, the James M. Smith Evangelistic party and tent equipment arrived in the city last Thursday after a 1200-mile trip from their last great meeting held in Enterprise, Alabama.

The party is composed of Rev. James M. (better known in his home state of Mississippi and in many other states as "Jimmie") Smith, evangelist; Mrs. Smith, wife of the evangelist, who presides at the piano and has charge of the women's work; Rex J. Moon, associate and music director, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith's two younger sons, Ray and Kenneth, who have charge of the tent and equipment.

Mr. Smith has brought to Slaton the largest tent equipment carried by any evangelist in the country. The great canvas with its three 40-foot center poles covers almost 20,000 square feet, and with its comfortable canvas chairs easily seats 2500 people. Much comment is being heard as to the size of the equipment and the ideal way in which it is adapted to its purpose.

Over twice the number of people attended the opening service last Sunday night than it was estimated would attend. Many outlying communities were represented. A well trained corps of ushers handles the crowds nightly.

Rev. "Jimmie" Smith, the evangelist, is a man of not very great stature, but is a man of great power in his evangelistic messages. He is considered to be one of the very strongest evangelists in the entire South east of the Mississippi river and will undoubtedly rank with the best in other parts of the country as well.

He stoops to no cheap sensationalism or clap-trap superficialities in his work, but believes that the pure undiluted gospel fresh from the pages of the Bible is the most sensational message of this or any other age, and he so preaches it. All who have heard him thus far know that he does not mince words or beat around the bush when he has anything to say but hits hard straight from the shoulder in terms a child could understand. Further more he bases his every statement on the Bible and challenges proof to the contrary. A noticeable recurring phrase with which he "nails down" his statements again and again is, "I know this is true, for the Bible says it, etc."

On Sunday night he will deliver his well-known famous message on "The Chickens Will Come Home To Roost." Undoubtedly the tent will be taxed to its uttermost capacity.

Mrs. Smith has a wide and very successful experience in work with women. She has already organized the women of the city into groups for morning neighborhood prayer meetings. These are increasing daily in the numbers attending in the most gratifying manner, and is already a testimonial to the effectiveness of Mrs. Smith's direction. She also presides effectively at the piano as accompanist in the revival services.

Mr. Moon not only acts as associate to Rev. Smith and as music director, but also has charge of the young people's work in the revival. The great chorus, the largest in the history of Slaton, now numbers well over 200 voices, and undoubtedly will soon reach the 300 mark. The music committee has done and is doing highly effective work, for which Mr. Moon is giving them unstinted praise.

The song service begins each evening sharply at 8:15. The crowds are coming earlier and earlier each evening. No cars are permitted to park on the tent grounds. The street on the south of the tent and running past the Forrest Lumber yard is closed each night to all traffic. Also no cars are permitted to park on the street east of the tent, which is the street on the east side of the city hall.

Thursday and Friday mornings at 9 o'clock in the big tent Mr. Moon will meet all boys and girls of the city between the ages of 7 and 15 who like to sing and have a great good time, for the organization and rehearsal of the great junior choir, which will occupy the big choir platform each Saturday night of the revival and furnish the music for these services, as well as some others.

Friday evening in the Methodist

Postoffice and Banks Will Close Saturday

The First State bank, the Slaton State bank and the local postoffice will be closed all day Saturday, July 4th, according to officials of those institutions. It will be the annual occasion of celebrating our nation's birthday.

Jones Plays Role of Cowboy Sleuth

A story of gold and the greed for gold is the picture which will come to the Custer theatre on Friday and Saturday. It is a William Fox production starring Buck Jones, surrounded by a capable cast including Elinor Fair, Bruce Gordon, Claude Peyton, Lucien Littlefield and Alphonse Eclair, Edmund Mortimer directed.

The scene is laid in Chance—so named, perhaps, because of the desperate chances that had been taken within its borders. There is a gold mine several miles distant, from which a wagon carries gold along a winding trail where bandits lurk. Buck Jones, in the role of a daring young insurance detective, is sent to Chance to try to put an end to the frequent attacks on the gold wagon.

He immediately challenges the outlaws by driving the wagon from the mine himself. Action begins at this point, and is fast and furious to the end, when Buck succeeds in capturing the bandits and winning the girl. It promises to be an exciting film, well worth seeing.

ACCIDENTAL MEETING REUNITES BROTHERS

A. A. Abney, linotype operator for the Slaton Slatonite, was in Lubbock Saturday afternoon and received the surprise of his life when he met his oldest brother, F. E. Abney, here. The brothers had not met for seven years and because of failure to keep up correspondence had no idea of the whereabouts of one another. The meeting Saturday was entirely accidental, but both were naturally highly pleased.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Wood Goes With Baptist Boosters

J. K. Wood, active vice president of the Slaton State bank, spent Monday on a tour with the Baptists, advertising the annual Baptist encampment at Two Draw lake, July 28 to August 6. Mr. Wood furnished his car and on Monday's tour made Lubbock, Ropes, Brownfield, Meadow and Tahoka.

Buys Fine Scenery for New Theatre

Tuesday Jeff Custer, proprietor of the Custer theatre, purchased a curtain and complete set of scenery for the new theatre which is now under construction, and will be ready for occupancy during the first part of September.

The scenery is of the very latest style and type and is of the best quality obtainable. It was purchased from the H. J. Russells Scenic company of Oklahoma, through the sales manager, A. D. Arnett.

church basement there will be for all young people of high school age and older including the young married folks, a "Food, Faith and Fun luncheon" at 6:15, and lasting until 8 o'clock. A cafeteria luncheon at 15 cents per plate will be served, with the assurance that each plate will contain about 40 cents worth of grub for the 15 cents. Following the special "fun" and the "grub" there will be a very spirited debate or discussion by the red-blooded young people present on the subject "Lopsided Folks." Much interest has been aroused in this unique luncheon, and undoubtedly the basement will be crowded Friday evening.

Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the Methodist church there will be a union young peoples' meeting under the direction of Mr. Moon. The subject will be "Falling in Love." Everyone is guaranteed a "lovely" time. Seats will be reserved in the tent both on the chorus platform and in the congregation for all who attend the young people's meeting.

Monday night of next week all Slaton Boy Scouts will attend the revival services in a body and be the guests of honor for the evening.

THE STRENGTH OF THE AMERICAN EAGLE

Or, rather the strength of American unity which that eagle symbolizes—is respected throughout the world. And the right to Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness—as first sounded by our American Liberty Bell—makes our land a Paradise on Earth!

Let us give thanks for that. And as we once again prepare to celebrate the anniversary of American Independence—the glorious "4th"—let's doff our hats, hold up our right hand, and renew the pledge to stand by and defend the ideals and traditions that that Eagle and Liberty Bell stand for. It's the duty of every true American!

INTEREST GROWS AS FIRST PERIOD OF CONTEST APPROACHES CLOSE

NAME	ADDRESS	VOTES
Mrs. Ivey Moore,	Slaton	43,000
Mrs. Jack Calloway,	Slaton	40,000
Mrs. G. M. Ayres,	Slaton	36,000
Miss Melva Bourland,	Slaton	33,000
Miss Viola Guy	Wilson	30,000
Miss Ruth Clim	Slaton	27,000

These final days should see candidates hustling as they never have before. Everyone of them should realize that the value of the biggest prize at stake runs into the hundreds of dollars. And the next awards are also cash prizes. Think of it! Think what it means! Think what $600 can mean to you.

It is entirely possible for any candidate in the list to absolutely get enough votes by Saturday, July 4th, to "cinch" these big gifts. It is possible for a candidate to make $600 in these next few days. Simply by taking advantage of the present big vote offer.

Time for Action Now

Understand, too, that this gigantic vote offer will never be repeated or extended. It expires Saturday. After that subscriptions will count for less votes. The vote schedule reduces rapidly during the short time that remains till the close of the big event. It's the big subscriptions that count.

Don't Dilly-Dally

This is no time to dilly dally. This is the time for action. This is the time to win the prize of your choice. If you are going to do anything big—do it now.

Don't waste a minute. Get so interested you think "WIN" in your sleep—it won't hurt you and it will make you carry on. You must have it in your head to win if you are to win. No one is going to bring you the $600 or any of the other extraordinary gifts on a platter. You've got to go and get what you want.

After you think you have every subscription you can get, go out and get another and another. That "one more" may be the deciding factor in your favor. Realize that later on the vote schedule is a half and less than what it is today. Know that what you do now counts really about double what it will later.

Can you be satisfied? Can you sit idly by while someone else gets out and takes away from you the prize of your choice—the big prize you know can be yours if you will it so? You can win. You know you can. You have it in you. You have the ability. You have the friends. You have everything that counts. You, by your effort, can be richer by $600. You can "cinch" your election now. What are you going to do?

After all is over, after this campaign is but history—in just a few short weeks—and people actually see how a few good subscriptions could have secured the prize, many, yes, a great many are going to realize that OPPORTUNITY knocked at their door and passed on.

A Prayer for Mothers

Lord give the mothers of the world
More love to do their part,—
That love which reaches not alone
Wake in their souls true motherhood
But every childish heart.
Wake in their souls true motherhood
That aims at universal good.
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Patriotism

By Cornelia James Cannon
There are in every community persons who express great filial devotion, who talk about the sacredness of motherhood and the sanctity of the home, but who are nevertheless most disagreeable members of the family, unhelpful and unkind.

The same kind is found among so-called patriots, whose emotions rise to a height when they see the flag unfurled, to whom the Fourth of July is a time of great excitement, and who acclaim themselves 100 per cent American at every turn, yet who are both unhelpful and selfish citizens of their country.

What should patriotism at its best mean to us and our children?

We cannot do better than find the parallel in what we include in the highest kind of devotion to the home.

There are many elements involved.

1. A recognition of the ideals lying back of the institution of the home and a faith in them.
2. A feeling of being an essential member of the family organization.
3. A conviction that the home, like a stream of water, can rise no higher than its source, and that the quality of the whole is determined by the quality of the parts.
4. An admission that no home is ever perfect; that its growth in grace comes through long and loving efforts on the part of its members to buttress its weaknesses, to develop its finer possibilities, to control the evil and to free the good.

There are the same factors involved if we would attain the highest kind of patriotism.

1. We must be conscious that back of any organization of society into a nation worthy of patriotic devotion lies an ideal of a finer human fellowship, and of generosity and justice between individuals and nations.

2. We must realize that the country we love is made up of a multitude of persons and that we, with the others, are equally responsible for its welfare.

3. We must never forget that the fitness and the idealism of our country are not qualities that exist independent of us, but center in our very selves. If you overhear someone say of you, "O, yes, of course he is an American," you can tell by the intonation of the voice on which side of the scales you have thrown your weight. We have our Wilsons and Hoovers, our Crokers and Hinky Dinks. Whichever type preponderates in our citizenry determines the character of our nation. It lies with us to be a part of the best, or the worst element. We cannot fail to count. We are either with or against the finest ideals associated with the word American.

4. We must not allow our love for our country to blind us to its faults. It is weakness and laziness to feel that perfection has been reached. The most profound love of country recognizes imperfection as preliminary to a higher attainment. It is equally ready to recognize good in the determination to make it better. It is a poor patriotism that will listen to no criticism, and will take offence at suggestions for improvement. A smugly satisfied patriot is his country's worst enemy. Our country's critics are her discriminating friends. Their words must be heeded if we ever hope to build up a noble civilization on the base laid down by our forefathers.

The truest love of country and the highest kind of patriotism demand that

1. You love your country's ideal with all your heart.
 2. You never forget that your country is made up of individuals all equally responsible.
 3. You become a worthy citizen by becoming the finest human being of which you are capable.
 4. You see your country's faults and failures as well as its virtues and successes, in order that you may fight the evil and increase the good.
- It is the opportunity of educating ourselves to the highest national aspirations that makes July a sacred month to old and young Americans alike.

Baptists Boosting Annual Encampment

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week Baptists of this section, accompanied by the Host City band, formed a delegation of boosters who traveled over all the South Plains country.

The tour was for the purpose of advertising the annual Baptist encampment, to be held at Two Draw lake at Post from July 28th to August 6th. Programs were rendered and literature distributed in each of the towns traversed, and on each occasion a hearty welcome was extended the boosters.

The party passed through Slaton Monday morning, this city being the second stop of the tour. Rev. Jno. P. Hardesty, local Baptist pastor, was in charge of the delegation.

Slaton State Bank Pays Dividends

At a recent regular meeting of the directors of the Slaton State bank, the regular semi-annual five per cent dividend was declared and ordered paid to the different stockholders in that institution.

Books of the Slaton State showed the business to be in splendid shape financially, and that the coming fall will see the biggest and most prosperous business yet for that institution was expressed by J. E. Wood and W. E. Olive, active vice president and cashier, respectively, who are optimistic not only as to the Slaton State's progress, but all business in Slaton as well.

Dry Goods Stores Will Close Saturday

Secretary J. J. Ross of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce has authorized The Slatonite to announce that all dry goods and clothing stores in Slaton will be closed all day Saturday, July 4th, commemorating Independence Day.

Supt. Sone Returns from Summer Vacation

Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Sone, Miss Olive and granddaughter, Alice Anthony, drove in Wednesday evening from their vacation. This vacation was an ideal one and from reports of the Sone family not anything worth while escaped them.

They left Slaton in time to attend their son's (Law) graduation exercises at Canyon. The next morning they all left Canyon for this western trip.

At Glen Rock they were joined by their other son, L. L. Sone, who accompanied them to Elk Lodge, the home of some friends, where they were to spend the vacation.

Elk Lodge is about 25 miles from Glen Rock and is a wonderful spot for an outing. On the way home stops were made at Cheyenne, Fort Collins, Boulder, where they visited several days with Mr. Anthony, their son-in-law; Denver and Amarillo.

For the Children of the Street

Heavenly Father, whose unveiled face the angels of little children do always behold, look with love and pity, we beseech thee, upon the children of the streets. Where men, in their busy and careless lives, have made a highway, these children of thine have made a home and a school, and are learning the bad lessons of our selfishness and our folly. Save them, and save us, O Lord. Save them from ignorance and brutality, from the homelessness of lust, the hardness of greed, and the benotting of drink; and save us from the greater guilt of those that offend thy little ones, and from the hypocrisy of those that say they see and see not, whose sin remaineth.

Make clear to those of older years the inalienable right of childhood to play, and give to those who govern our cities the will and ability to provide the places for play; make clear to those who minister to the appetite for recreation the guilt of them that lead astray thy children; and make clear to us all that the great school of life is not encompassed by walls and that its teachers are all who influence their younger brethren by companionship and example, whether for good or evil, and that in that school all we are teachers and as we teach are judged. For all false teaching, for all hindering of thy children, pardon us, O Lord, and suffer the little children to come unto thee.

—Mornay Williams.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, it has been published to the world that there is community strife in Slaton to the retarding of the town's development because of the Klan and anti-Klan organizations, this publication being made in an attempt to get both organizations to disorganize; and

Whereas, the Constitutional club, being the anti-Klan organization referred to, has not denied the implied charges that it is equally guilty with the Klan, but has acquiesced temporarily pending our proposal to disorganize if the Klan would do the same; and

Whereas, the Klan seems to ignore the proposition and there seems to be no further hope of mutual disorganization; be it

Resolved, That it now becomes our duty to enlighten the public as to the real conditions affecting the development of our community and as to any blame that might be held against the Constitutional club by the following statement of facts:

1. Our town and community is developing very rapidly in spite of said friction which seems to extend only to social, political and religious affairs. The town is on a building boom in good homes unexcelled in past times or by other towns. Our prosperous future seems assured industrially. There is no need to fear investments here.

We can assure the public that there is no more community friction here than in any other place where the Klan is active and those opposed to Klanism, have American grit enough to assert their citizenship rights.

This club cannot justly be blamed for the friction here because the Klan was active here two years before we organized, during which time the friction was as keen and even more subject to violent outbreaks than it has been since our organization.

The only purpose of this club is the construction and up-building of this community in harmony with the principles of the American declaration of independence and our glorious constitution and to protect our social and political franchise against the submarine methods of the Ku Klux Klan. If all who are really opposed to Klanism would join and cooperate with us we feel sure the Klan issue would soon disappear. We urgently invite them to join us in working for conditions in our community that will pro-

VISITING DAUGHTER

Rev. A. R. Meador, wife and two children came in Monday from Channing on a visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. O. Z. Ball, and family. Their daughters, Misses Ella and Elberta, whose schools have just closed at Gomez, came in Tuesday. They expect to return to their home at Channing the last of this week. They will be accompanied home by their daughter, Miss Audie Meador, who has been teaching in the schools at Ralls, and who has been here with Mrs. Ball since the close of her school.

ON OUTING TRIP

J. J. Ross, J. E. Miller, A. T. Hill and Stansie Bagby are spending the week on the Llano river, fishing and otherwise enjoying an outing and vacation.

BREAKS COLLAR BONE

On Tuesday of last week, while catching for the Slaton baseball team, in a game between his team and the shop boys, Bill Sledge suffered a broken left collar bone, when a foul ball struck him on the shoulder. Bill is well able to be about, but has to suffer the disadvantage of not being able to use his left arm.

RETURN FROM VISIT

T. H. Carter and wife passed through Slaton Monday afternoon enroute to Lubbock, the home of Mrs. Carter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Foster, after a two weeks' visit with relatives in Dallas, Fort Worth and Anson.

Mr. Carter, who was formerly linotype operator for The Slatonite, has gone to Brownfield for a short stay with his nephew, Ralph Carter, Chevrolet dealer of that city. From there he will probably go to Abilene, where he has under consideration the accepting of a position with the Abilene Printing company.

Miss Trannie May Russell spent the week end with Miss Lucile Corthorpe at the country club. Lucile returned with her to her home in Slaton to spend a few days.

The Slaton Chevrolet company this week delivered a new Chevrolet to Rev. McGee of Southland.

HOME FROM CLEVELAND

W. H. McKirahan returned Wednesday morning from Cleveland, Ohio, where he represented the Slaton Rotary club at the International Rotary convention. Mr. McKirahan had a wonderful trip, and while at the convention had the pleasure of associating with some of the country's leading Rotarians and business men.

At the convention there were 10,026 registrations, representing Rotarians from 27 countries, and it must have been a wonderful convention, indeed.

Mack, who is president of the local Rotary club, will in all probability, have a very interesting report to impart to the boys at Friday's luncheon.

SLATON WINS, 6-5

In a fast game of baseball, played on the local grounds Tuesday afternoon, Slaton won over Tahoka by a close score of 6 to 5.

Both good pitching by Jackson and perfect infielding by the Slaton team won the game for the locals. Jackson, who pitched the last seven innings, allowed the visitors only three hits, while during the entire game not an error was made by the Slaton infield.

A game has been scheduled with Crosbyton for Friday, to be played on the local grounds, while Post will come over Sunday afternoon and, we predict, bring another victory for the Slaton club.

RETURNS FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Willson returned last Friday from a trip to eastern parts of the state where they spent several days among relatives and friends of various sections. They also visited Mrs. Willson's sister at El Dorado, Ark., while they were away.

Mr. Willson states that this was his first time to be within the boundaries of the state of Arkansas, and while he does not wish to cast any undue reflections on that state nor the present or former residents of same, still he declares he can't understand why those people stay there when the Plain of West Texas are only about six hundred miles from them.

Crop conditions, according to Mr. Willson, are a bit farther advanced in eastern parts, but rain is badly needed in practically all sections, he said.

Rev. W. M. Money has gone on a visit to Greenville and to take his mother, who has been visiting in Slaton, home. Rev. Money's wife and daughter accompanied them and will be away about a week or ten days.

WHY IS MAN A SKEPTIC?

Why is man a skeptic?
 Can you tell me the reason why?
 Or what makes a human being,
 And then what makes it die?
 With all the wonderful marvels,
 That many men do make,
 What without God,
 Could human life create?

Take for instance Benjamin Franklin,
 Who drew electricity from the sky;
 Even the inventor Wright,
 Who made the aeroplane fly;
 Next take Thomas Fulton,
 Who was called the steamship man,
 Thomas Edison who has made
 Most everything human does demand.

Man has made the king of birds
 Seek protection on the earth,
 Flop its wings and beg for mercy,
 Down upon nature's hearth;
 With the mighty flying engine,
 That is called the aeroplane,
 That has chased the mighty eagle,
 Caused him shrieking for his pain.

Man has also made the engine,
 That is called the submarine,
 It goes into the bottom of the sea;
 Chases fish we've never seen,
 Finds and chases deep sea monsters,
 That are terrible to behold;
 Oh, this wonderful diving motor,
 That is not so very old.

All inventors their powers combined,
 Cannot make a seed to live,
 Without receiving from God,
 What God has to give,
 Why then does man doubt,
 There being a heaven above,
 There being a true crucifixion,
 And a wonderful God of love?

CARE OF CONVALESCENT IN SUMMER

For those who are just recovering from a serious illness the problem of food is a serious one. The patient, though well on the road to recovery, is usually weakened by the rigors of disease and the excessive heat is wont to sap his energy. Hence, the foods that are consumed during this period should be considered carefully as to digestibility, food value, ease of assimilation, purity and sterility. These are important in any food but especially so when the consumer is not strong and healthy.

In most cases, the one who is convalescing consumes milk in large quantities. This food contains all of the elements that are essential to the body. If milk is pure and germless, it is easily digested and assimilated. Where the milk supply is uncertain or the quality not of the best, evaporated milk should be employed. It is sterile; it is just pure milk with about sixty per cent of the water removed. Its double richness may be modified, if desired, by the addition of water or it may be used just as it is, where rich, creamy dishes are desired.

Many people make the mistake of confusing evaporated milk with condensed milk. They are not at all similar in appearance, composition or taste. They cannot be used for the same purposes; condensed milk is a combination of sugar and milk; evaporated milk has no added sugar, being pure milk of double-rich quality and food value.

Following are recipes of easily prepared dishes and foods that are well suited for the invalid and the convalescent.

Loganberry Cream.

1/2 cup evaporated milk
 1/2 cup water
 1/2 cup loganberry juice
 2 tsp. lemon juice
 Pinch salt

Put all ingredients in a Mason fruit jar and shake thoroughly. Chill and serve in glasses filled 3/4 full of ice chips. Raspberry, blackberry, and cherry juice may be used instead of the loganberry.

Iced Cocoa.

3 tsp. cocoa
 3 tsp. sugar
 1/4 cup water
 Pinch salt
 1/2 cup evaporated milk diluted with 1/2 cup water
 1/4 tsp. vanilla

Mix cocoa and sugar thoroughly and add the 1/4 cup water and boil over a low flame for 15 minutes. Scald the diluted milk and add cocoa syrup and salt. Continue cooking for 15 minutes in double boiler. Add vanilla. Chill and serve with chipped ice. Top with whipped cream.

FARM MARKETING SALESMANSHIP

Address By Former Lieutenant Governor Lynch Davidson, Delivered Before Houston Salesmanship Club, Houston, Texas.

Show me the man who is a good home provider and, with few exceptions, I will show you a good citizen. It was said by Napoleon, one of the greatest military geniuses of his age that "An army travels on its stomach," meaning of course, that it must be fed and provided for or else it would not travel.

So it is in all walks of life, and that calls for individual economic independence. It calls for man to first provide for his own security, but not selfishly. Individual economic independence creates good citizens, and upon good citizenship government depends for its existence.

If typical of its title, this organization's membership relies upon salesmanship as a means of maintenance. There are many kinds of salesmen: hardware, grocery, dry goods, lumber, steel, oil stock, cigars and cigarettes, pen and paper, peanut and pop-corn vendors, but how frequently do we ever see or hear of a real "farmer salesman." And so I have chosen FARM MARKETING SALESMANSHIP as a theme kindred to this organization and occasion.

No class of people throughout this broad land enjoy less economic independence than the farmer—the biggest business of all businesses—producing annually more new wealth than any other single business. It provides, generally speaking, poorer standards of living, less opportunity to enjoy the luxuries of life than any other single industry, and yet is the very heart, soul and backbone of the nation's prosperity.

The farmers' method of production may be unscientific and wasteful, but cost is variable—up or down, by efficient methods on the one hand, or inefficient on the other—to only a small degree. One single item of Texas farm products—cotton—within a period of less than five years, has ranged up and down in price more than 300%. I distinctly recall in one swift fluctuation it dropped from 36¢ per pound at high point down to 11¢ per pound at low point. Make the cost of production what you will, no business on earth can withstand such violent fluctuations and downward depletions on its income. The law of supply and demand is ever present and active. Its influence may be minimized by coordinated efficient salesmanship. By the same token, speculative raids upon the farmers' income can be averted.

So long as the individual farmer, with sample in his hands, peddles his crops from door to door, his individual economic independence will be destructively violated and ruination wrought to his business—the greatest business of all—the business of farming.

Salesmanship has become a science. In its most modern and advanced form it is a science of co-operation through corporations. The stockholder buys stock in a corporation—banking, manufacturing or otherwise—and immediately becomes a co-operative unit dealing in some particular product and represented by scientific salesmanship. The agricultural producer is the fundamental basis upon which the success of all such enterprise depends and upon whom your success likewise depends. We are so much concerned with establishing our own economic independence that we are apt at some point to exchange success for selfishness and forget the very basis of our prosperity—the farmer.

But economic independence work unerringly, and will destroy the basis of all prosperity—the farmer—if we continue to forget. In his own mad fight for a footing in life, the business man neglects to shower the farmer's thirsty field with drops of his business experience. Farm marketing salesmanship is the silver lining to the cloud. Farm co-operative marketing organizations are fighting their feeble way to the front. They are a nucleus around which efficient scientific salesmanship may be established for the farmer. He is fundamental to our success and we should contribute to his.

He can succeed by controlling 50% of the flow of his production, and by the same means control the sale of his output. Financing is the first essential to such control. Create control through co-operation in financing and production. Control farm production and sales control of output will follow. Legislation can aid, but not cure the farmers' ills.

Co-operation of the farmer and the business man, whose interests are one and indivisible, will make the farmer salesman a familiar figure in the marts and markets of the world, and bring to the farmer much needed economic independence. The world's welfare lies in being your brother's keeper in this needed evolution in the marketing of the nation's agricultural products.

Did You Ever Stop To Think?

That well-advised lines please customers and bring profits to a business.

That modern business concerns, who are constantly originating new plans for advertising through the printed page, are the ones who are producing improved business for themselves.

That sales of well advertised-lines are always increasing because they meet the trade's demand.

That quality merchandise, attractively advertised, does not stay in stock long.

That it is a well known fact that well advertised merchandise sells better because it looks better and serves better.

That advertising tells the public where the newest merchandise can be found and where to buy it to their best advantage.

That the public know why they buy from regular advertisers, they won't have to worry about not getting the right things at the right price.

Good times are ahead for the business concerns who grasp the opportunities that advertising offers them. They will profit in proportion to the way they use its service.

The foundation of any business is

Blood Relative of First President

George Baron von Washington Is Distinguished Austrian Citizen.

The most distinguished kinsman and namesake of George Washington, our first President, lives in Europe. He is George Baron von Washington, of Poels, who was a captain of Austrian cavalry and fought against America in the World war. The Baron is sixty-seven years old and lives alone, with his seven dogs, in an enormous shabby castle in Styria, southern Austria.

Nine hundred years ago, the baron says, there was a Torfin, lord of Ravensworth, England, from whom the Washingtons descended. From Torfin to Robert Washington, lord of Millbourne, in 1480, the family trees of George and the baron were the same. Robert Washington married the daughter of Lord Kerneford and had several sons. One was Robert, Jr., whose sons emigrated to America. One of these great-grandsons of Robert was the great-grandfather of George Washington who became first President of the United States.

John, another son of Robert Washington, and his descendants lived in England until the end of the Eighteenth century when they emigrated, but not to America. James Washington, descendant of John, went to The Hague and sold his services where he could as an officer. In 1700 he learned that a Washington had become President of the American republic, and after investigating found that George was his true blood cousin. James then tried to get a job in America and letters were exchanged between the two. The baron has no copy of his great-grandfather's letter but he does have the original of the answer our President sent refusing James a military post in the new republic. George's reason for the refusal and plain dealing as stated in the letter was that "it was not in accord with the policy of the American government to bestow offices of any kind on foreigners to the exclusion of her own citizens." However, he admitted his blood relationship to James.

Later we learn that James Washington also made a name and position in life for himself, and his son Jacob an even greater one. Jacob sold his services to the Bavarian government under King Ludwig I, and finally became marshal of the court. He became a baron and lord of the estate at Notzing, Upper Bavaria. Jacob's only son, Maximilian, the present baron's father, carried the family career still further by marrying a royal duchess—a cousin to Queen Mary of England. Now the baron is the last of his line, his brother having died.—Pittsburgh Magazine.

BETTER FARMING

After we have done everything that it is possible to do toward improving agriculture as a whole it will still be true that only those who farm intelligently and carefully, who work diligently and save reasonably can hope to prosper. Those who fall below these standards will make at best but a bare living. It is a mistaken notion that when prices are low because of overproduction that the remedy is to take less pains and let the yields of our acres and of our animals run down. Such practice leads to but one end—bankruptcy. Whatever the price, it is the man that makes the highest returns on his acres who is most prosperous. The truth is the lower the price of the product the greater the need for high efficiency in producing it. When prices are high even mediocre yields are profitable, but such yields are always unprofitable when the prices are low. Therefore the more discouraging the price of farm products, the greater the necessity for good farming. Except for brief periods when we were farming new land that had been virtually a gift from the government those who have taken only average pains have never prospered. There is no more new land now. Henceforth we shall have to farm old land and pay a good round price into the bargain for it. No agriculture can be prosperous in the face of declining yields and raising production costs. The surest way to cut production costs is by increasing the yields of our acres and our animals. The farmer who disregards this law cannot be saved by any outside help.

TRAFFIC HANDLING

There are seventy American cities of 100,000 or more population in the United States. Of the seventy, just one so handled its street traffic problem that during the first five months of 1925 it did not have one single fatality. That is why the methods of New Bedford, Mass., are so interesting to the people of Philadelphia.

The policy of the Massachusetts city is based on two salient ideas. One is the education of the people, especially of the children. The other is suspension of driving licenses as a preliminary protest to the reckless driver, and stern justice for him, if he persists in his recklessness. A special police campaign of education, with posters, charts and short talks, reached every boy and girl in public and parochial schools. Every reckless driver was quietly reported to the state registrar of automobiles and received a stiff warning. This, and the thirty-day suspension of driving license, has reduced the number of court cases to a minimum. —Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

That Floydada is a town of progress was well evidenced in Slaton last Friday, when more than a hundred business men and other citizens of that city stopped over for a few minutes, and in a very impressive manner, invited our citizens to attend Floydada's big barbecue and celebration July 3rd and 4th, which is being sponsored by the American Legion post of that city.

FURNITURE STORE MOVED

This week O. D. McIntock moved his new and second-hand furniture business to the Unger building, just across the street from the postoffice. Mr. McIntock is now conveniently located, has his store well arranged, and invites his customers to call at his new location.

W. O. Bowen and family left Wednesday morning for New Mexico, where they will spend the next two months recuperating.

The Plasterers of Lubbock lodge gave a picnic at Post Sunday. Those attending from Slaton were Mr. and Mrs. Binnian and family, Walter Lee and family, Lon Barton and Mrs. Ivy Moore. They report a very delightful occasion.

Nor would I discourage the message that cheers, Or the prayers or the blessings of sympathy's tears; They are always in order, they help in their way, To hasten the dawn of Millennial's day; But a little more gold sandwiched in with your prayers Would banish more tears and enlighten more cares; Though your voice be as sweet as the song of the birds, Remember that actions speak louder than words. —Anon.

42 Party

On Tuesday evening, June 23, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bruner entertained the Evening 42 club. This was the first meeting of the club for several weeks and the reunion was a very pleasant one. At the close of the usual round of games Mrs. Bruner, assisted by her daughter, Miss Hazel, served a delicious two-course lunch.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brewer, the date to be announced later. The members and guests who enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Bruner's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. K. Scudder, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hood, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peavy, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKirahan, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Pitman, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Owen.

Club Notes

The Thursday Bridge club met on June 25 with Mrs. A. A. Bradford as hostess. Mrs. W. B. Heston substituted for Mrs. H. W. Ragsdale, and the hostess served a dainty two-course lunch to the following members: Mrs. Richard Ragsdale, Mrs. J. A. Klasner, Mrs. J. F. Anton, Mrs. Hillman, Mrs. J. H. Brewer and Mrs. W. H. McKirahan. The club will not meet during the next month.

The Wednesday Study club will not meet this week, as previously announced, on account of the meeting of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches.

Birthday Dinner

On Friday evening Mrs. Jack Calloway entertained at a 7-o'clock stag dinner in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. The home was transformed into a Japanese garden. Lanterns and flowers were effectively used throughout the house.

The gentlemen were asked for 7, and the wives came at a later hour, just in time to be served the ice course, which was served in Japanese style. The favors were tiny baskets filled with mints. Miss Wilks, in her charming manner, gave "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," which always pleases the bearers.

Tables were arranged for 42 and bridge, where the following guests were seated: Mr. and Mrs. Claud Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Olive, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Pitman, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Murry of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peavy, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKirahan, Miss Ora Kuykendall, Miss Willie May Wilks, Rev. Calloway.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Marriott invited a few of their friends to their apartments in the Reading Room to enjoy a picnic supper with them. The affair was in honor of visiting friends and friends leaving for vacations. Those enjoying the spread on the lawn were Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Pitman, Mrs. J. D. Collins and daughter, Miss Dorothy, of Caddo, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Anton and daughters, Charlotte and Mary, Mrs. Shaddock of Shreveport, Louisiana; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peavy and daughter, Doris; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKirahan and Mrs. V. E. McKirahan of New Rochelle, New York.

Slumber Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson is always open to the Camp Fire Girls and this week they met for a slumber party. The girls came Monday evening and spent the night. Early Tuesday morning they took their breakfast over to the club house, where it was prepared camp fashion and enjoyed by all. Mrs. Anderson is a wonderful lender for our young girls and her Camp Fire Girls are her ardent admirers.

Mrs. S. A. Peavy and daughter, Doris, have gone to Brownwood to visit Mrs. Peavy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boone. Mrs. Peavy's sisters, Mr. Petty of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Wheeler of San Antonio, are spending some time in Brownwood also.

Santa Fe Notes

Mr. S. C. Woolley, claim adjuster, from Amarillo, has been in Slaton on business.

Mr. C. J. Sutton of Clovis, transportation inspector, is here on business for the company.

Mr. E. E. McChavek, mechanical superintendent, with headquarters at Amarillo, was in Slaton Tuesday.

Supt. J. F. Anton left Slaton Sunday, accompanying Mrs. Anton and daughters as far as Clovis, for Chicago, where he will spend several weeks on business.

Weldon Walters was in Slaton Sunday, spending the day with his parents. Weldon is doing some work out on the Dowd extension during the summer months.

Mr. Joe McHugh, formerly of Slaton, passed through Slaton on his way to Dowd, where he will take up his work with the Santa Fe. Mr. McHugh reports that his wife and daughters, Misses Marian and Josephine, are nicely situated in Austin, where they will make their home for the present.

Mrs. Lula Clark

Mrs. Lula Clark, aged 30, wife of E. C. Clark, a Santa Fe employe, of Slaton, passed away at her home after an illness of two months' duration. Mrs. Clark leaves to mourn her loss her husband and one son, a brother, B. H. Cooper of Slaton; a sister in Clovis and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Cooper, of Hiawasse, Arkansas. The remains were prepared for burial by the Foster Undertaking establishment and were shipped to Mrs. Clark's old home, where the body was laid to rest in the family burial grounds. Slaton friends mourn with these people in the loss of their loved one.

Civic and Culture Picnic

Thursday, June 25th, the Civic and Culture club entertained their families with the annual club picnic at the V ranch. At 7:30 o'clock the basket lunches were spread and everyone enjoyed an old-fashioned feed.

After supper games were played until a late hour. The crowd joined in singing "Good Night Ladies" and returned to town. —Reporter.

Twentieth Century Club

The first regular meeting of the Twentieth Century club will be held in the City Library rooms on July 17 at 4:30 o'clock.

BABY CONFERENCE HELD AT SLATON WAS SUCCESS

Despite an epidemic of whooping cough that caused many mothers to not take their children to the baby conference held at Slaton Friday, a valuable meeting was held, and a number of cases examined where serious defects were revealed and recommendations for cooperative steps to be taken at once made by the physicians.

Miss Ann Buckner, public health nurse for Lubbock county, was ably assisted by Dr. Jess Phillips and Mesdames Lowery and Hardesty in conducting the conference.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Editor Cowan of the Idalou Echo was in the city Monday, paying The Slatonite a visit while here.

One Hundred and Forty-Ninth Birthday

More Space Required for Exhibits at Fair

Lubbock, July 2.—Additional space will be added to the agricultural building of the Panhandle South-Plains fair, which will be held here September 30, October 1, 2, 3, to take care of the increase in demand for space in the building, according to officials of the fair association. Letters to chamber of commerce secretaries and county agents have been mailed out recently and replies are coming in daily asking to reserve space for the different counties over the Panhandle and South Plains. The space for the different counties is being reserved earlier this year than ever before and every indication is that a large addition will have to be provided to take care of the agricultural exhibitors this year.

Garnet Reeves, who has been employed as assistant manager of the fair, has had much experience in preparing exhibits for fairs and his services in helping the various counties in preparing their displays has been offered by the Fair association. The time to begin work is here, according to Reeves, and a letter or call to him in care of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce will gain his services for a time in preparing the local exhibit of each county. He insists that each county feel free to call on him.

The catalog and premium list of the Twelfth Annual Panhandle-South Plains fair will be off the press soon and exhibitors will find the premiums offered will compare favorably with other fairs.

The Fair association is making every effort to ascertain the exact num-

The Stray Dog Must Go Says Health Officer

The strict enforcement of laws against unlicensed dogs running at large is urged by Dr. H. O. Sappington, state health officer, in the following statement:

"From information given the state board of health by Dr. J. T. Wilhite, director of the Pasteur Institute, it is ascertained that during the present month, the heads of 325 supposedly rabid animals have been sent to him for examination. Of this number, 17 per cent has been found to be infected, which shows a decided decline over the record for previous months, there being 35 per cent in March and 43 per cent in December. This decrease in the number of infected animals with the advent of warmer days is doubtless due to the activities of the dog catcher at this time of year. The menace from rabies would materially decrease should the dog catcher stay on the job the year round, as the stray dog is the greatest medium by which rabies is transmitted.

"Six cases of human rabies have been reported to the state board of health in the last six months, and reports from the Pasteur Institute show that hundreds of people have taken the Pasteur treatment. This shows the necessity for everyone using extreme precaution against infection from this terrible malady. Do not try to get ber of exhibitors early in order to provide ample space to care for every county in this section. County officials are urged to make their reservations at once.

familiar with a stray dog, as he may be rabid. Do not allow your own dog to roam at will over the neighborhood as he may be bitten without your knowledge. When a dog shows a surly disposition, it is best to chain him up for observation. Enforce the law the year round against stray dogs running at large instead of just for the duration of the summer months."

Itching diseases can be controlled and cause removed by applying Ballard's Snow Liniment. The relief is prompt and permanent. Three sizes, 30c, 60c and $1.20 per bottle. Sold by—CITY DRUG STORE John Dabney & Son, Props.

Slaton Fire Dept. Has Annual Meeting

On Monday of last week the Slaton Volunteer Fire department met at the city hall for the annual election of officers and for the general discussion of problems pertaining to the protection against fire.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Geo. Holt, chief (re-elected); Ed Childress, assistant chief; Bud Wooliver, hose captain; Bill Martin, secretary-treasurer.

At this meeting it was favorably noticed by the firemen that up until that time not a single alarm had been turned in during the month of June.

THAT FEELING OF FREEDOM!

Freedom meant more to our forefathers than life itself. They sought it. They fought for it. And they died for it. That they, fortunately for us, attained it—accounts for our annual celebration of Independence Day!

Yet many there are who, in their older days, wish they had "fought" for Financial Independence in the days they were young. That they had attained that feeling of complete Freedom that comes with knowing that one does not have to worry about the tomorrow. That feeling that makes for contentedness in mind and happiness at heart.

Save! Save while you are young so that when the time comes and you feel you have earned a rest, you can stretch out your arms and shout to the world—"Free! Free, am I, from every kind of worry!"

Community Fair Sept. 24, 25, 26

Not many weeks remain until each community and city will be in preparation for the holding of their fairs. There is nothing in the form of meeting and coming together of such importance as a fair.

It brings out the true spirit of its people and shows the steps of progress in both the productive and animal life.

It is here we test our skill in whatever vocation of life we fill; it is at these fairs that people are inspired to do more and bigger things in community life; here our boys and girls are shown and taught the great lessons of thrift and the fullness of home life.

We, and you, are going to strive to make this coming fair one of the outstanding events of the South Plains, that will not only inspire and build community life, but will open the commercial highways into the very heart of every home.

We are asking the cooperation of every person and every community to take part in making this, our community fair, a big outstanding success!

Frequent Bilious Attacks

"I suffered with severe bilious attacks that came on two or three times each month," says Mr. J. P. Nevins, of Lawrenceburg, Ky. "I would get nauseated. I would have dizziness and couldn't work. I would take pills until I was worn-out with them. I didn't seem to get relief. "A neighbor told me of and I began its use. I never have found so much relief as it gave me. I would not be without it for anything. It seemed to cleanse my whole system and made me feel like new. I would take a few doses—get rid of the bile and have my usual clear head, feel full of pep, and could do twice the work." Bilious attacks are "seasonal" with many people. Millions have taken Theodor's Black-Draught to ward off such attacks, and the good results they have reported should induce you to try it.

THE FRUITS OF HOPE

(Dorothy Clifton Wilson)

After day—then night, And oh, the darkness of my soul. First wrong—then right, I see the glimmer of my goal. After dark—then dawn, And oh, the sadness of my heart. Now here—now gone, How sad for I must part. After heart—then soul, And oh, I look between these two. Two ones—one goal, But for lift 'tis too few.

Chevrolet Motor Co. Has Service School

The Chevrolet Motor company, expanding its policy of assuring long years of driving satisfaction through proper service, has added three more units to its chain of service schools.

There are now ten schools in various parts of the country, each in charge of two highly skilled instructors. It is axiomatic that there always is one right way and several wrong ways of doing anything. The Chevrolet instructors teach that right way. Their classes are small—not more than six or eight men—to permit of individual attention. Each week the ten schools return to the service organization between 60 and 80 graduate mechanics whose specialized knowledge of the car and its servicing equipment eliminates the element of chance and guesswork.

"Improper fitting of a minor part may cause expensive damage to any automobile," declares C. E. Baldwin, director of Chevrolet parts and service department. "But when a man leaves one of our schools he is a precision mechanic. He does not guess; he knows. He has knowledge of the Chevrolet mechanism unobtainable in any other way."

The seven original service schools were established last summer at each of the Chevrolet assembly plants in the United States located at the following cities: Flint, Mich.; Tarrytown, N. Y.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Norwood, O.; St. Louis, Mo.; Janesville, Wis., and Oakland, Calif. The success of this group resulted recently in the establishment of the three additional schools at Dallas, Texas; Denver, Col., and Portland, Ore., for service men in territory geographically remote from the assembly plant schools.

A chief instructor travels constantly from one school to another. In the schools are Chevrolet chassis, used motors, gears, axle and transmission assemblies upon which the students work with Chevrolet precision equipment. Often a motor is intentionally disabled and then placed in perfect order.

The students are from the service departments of the 3400 direct dealers and the many associate dealers. The intensive course lasts one week. Shop foremen predominate but many subordinate mechanics also attend the schools. Only Chevrolet men are accepted as students.

Another angle in the work of giving the owner the ultimate in driving satisfaction is the service promotion department, also under Mr. Baldwin. This department sends experts to suggest improvements in shop practice and arrangement that patrons may obtain maximum speed and accuracy in servicing.

"This combination of service training for the men and installation of intelligent shop methods is causing a growth of the flat rate service plan among Chevrolet service stations," says Mr. Baldwin. "Proper training enables the men to determine exactly what a particular service will cost. Thus they can give the owner a price before they start the work. The plan is of mutual benefit to dealer, service man and car owner."

Record Crowds Are Expected at Abilene

Abilene, June 29.—Eddie Hearne, Frank Lockhart and Steve Elmore are en route to Abilene from California for the greatest conclave of world-famous racers ever held in Western Texas. And that's not all of the story, for interest in the July Fourth races at Abilene has gone out to wide points of the land, and other noted drivers are getting in entry blanks. One of the latest sprouts of interest came in the announcement that Fred Roberts, fast driver of Danville, Illinois, will probably be another of the wellknown speedsters to line up before the starter for the Independence Day contest.

Roberts drives an unusually speedy Chevrolet and is well known to racing fans throughout the East. This adds a new element to the already tense interest in the famous Miller specials to be piloted by the western monarchs of the track, at Abilene, July 4. This interest bids fair to draw one of the greatest crowds on record here.

Wilson Will Assist in Lorenzo Revival

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Baptist church of Lorenzo will open the revival meeting season of the year at the tabernacle. Rev. Crane of Wolf City, Texas, will do the preaching and L. A. Wilson of Slaton, assisted by his wife at the piano, will have charge of the music department.

Chrysler Sales Set New Record

Announcement by J. E. Fields, vice president in charge of sales of the Chrysler Motor corporation, shows that retail sales by this company's dealer organization are greater than ever before in the history of the company.

Retail sales for the week ending June 13th were 55 per cent greater than for the same week a year ago, an average increase which has been maintained constantly for the past two months. Analysis of the sales curve as charted by the sales department, based on territory reports by the wholesale organization, indicates a steadily increasing demand from the field which has more than tripled in volume since January.

Mr. Fields also announces the fact that in May the 50,000th Chrysler Six was built. During the first year of its production 32,000 Chrysler Six cars were built. Production of this model

GAS TO CHANGE OUR HABITS, SAYS A.S.G.I.

While we marvel at present inventions like the radio and wireless photography, the gas industry in the next generation will have made such strides that the living habits of Americans will be revolutionized completely, according to H. C. Abell of New York, president of the American Gas Association.

"America will be the first nation to have its homes heated by gas, thermostatically controlled," he said. "We will be the first nation to discard the gas operated refrigerators; the first to adopt universally the temperature method of cooking food by gas and first to outlaw smoke, soot, ashes by using gas fuel instead of solid fuel for all heating purposes in shops and factories."

has speeded up since January with the result that last year's fine output mark promises to be far exceeded this year.
