SLATON HIGH TIGERS CALM THE WHIRLWIND; PAMPA COMES NEXT

Friday, Nov. 7, the football teams of Slaton and Floydada High Schools met on the Floydada gridiron to compete for the district championship of this district. This was one of the greatest games that has ever been played in this district and one of the hardest fought battles as well. No two high school teams, no bunch of fans worked so hard nor were held so much in suspense as those at the Floydada-Slaton game.

To begin with, both teams were clean players and good sports. No squabbling, fussing or wrangling were evident during the game. A spirit of friendly rivalry and good sportsmanship made the hardest tackles, of which there were plenty, seem only fun. We are here to recommend any game that will make men of boys, as football seems to have done for the fellows on the Slaton and Floydada teams.

And the spirit among the rivals on the side lines was as good as that among the players. The visitors were treated with the greatest kindness, were given the best side of the football field and received the very best of treatment in every way. The Floydada people are to be complimented on the reception that they gave the Slaton people. The Slaton people responded in the proper manner to this treatment and throughout the entire game no word of criticism or dissension was heard from them.

The first half was a bitter battle, in which it looked for a time as though the teams were evenly matched. After the first few minutes the Floydada team kept the ball in the Slaton territory and by rapid and brilliant plays were in possession of the ball most of the time. A long completed pass put the score 6 to 0 in Floydada's favor at the close of the first half.

During the third quarter the Slaton Tigers took the bridle in their teeth and showed that the hard-fought first half had only aroused their mettle and that they were in better shape. It has never been our pleasure to see high school men hit any harder than the Tigers did on that memorable day. Clean, hard tackles that would do credit to college men, center rushes that never failed to gain, short, swift passes that gave gains worth while. The third quarter gave to Slaton seven points.

In the fourth quarter the hardest fighting of the game was shown. Time after time the opposing teams drew near to each other's goals. It was within one minute of the close when Slaton blocked a drop-kick from Floydada and covered the ball behind Slaton's goal.

Thirteen to six for Slaton, and it was a hard matter to keep the Slaton rooters from finishing the game themselves, so great was their joy.

The individual players on the Slaton team did splendid work. There was not a man on the team who could not be pointed out as having made some especially good play to the glory of their team. And it was for the team they were working. No one can ever accuse the Slaton boys of making grandstand plays, for they work to one common end as a well-oiled piece of machinery, absolutely unconscious of the sidelines. The quarter halves, safety, ends, tackles, guards and the center deserve special mention for their brilliant playing.

The Floydada team lacked very little in playing, as well as the Slaton boys, and Slaton feels prouder than ever for having won over such strong opponents.

REAL ESTATE BUSINESS LOOKING UP IN SLATON

Slaton realty is moving is changing hands these days and at prices that would indicate that investors have confidence in the future of Slaton. The real estate business is good, according to dealers. There is a good demand for rent houses; in fact, there are few to be had at any price. There is also a fair demand for town lots. All of which, according to J. T. Overby, real estate dealer, assures us of a building program equal to, if not larger than any previous year.

The following sales were reported by Mr. Overby for this week:

- A. L. Foster, purchased improved quarter section near Ralls.
- G. R. Leverett, four lots on Railroad Street.
- H. Wurdick, for West Texas Utility Company, one lot on Ninth Street.
- W. E. Martin, four lots on First Street.
- L. D. Pierce, four lots on Panhandle Avenue.
- T. M. Keller, two lots on Division Street.
- J. B. Lowrie, five-room modern house on Fourth Street.

VISITING PREACHERS FILLED BAPTIST PULPIT SUNDAY

Rev. John P. Hardesty, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Slaton, and Rev. C. E. Ball, pastor at Brownfield, spoke at the Baptist Church Sunday morning in the interest of the 75 Million campaign. The five-year period included in the campaign will close within a few days and Baptist leaders are now making the last drive to successfully conclude the campaign. During the preceding four years of the campaign about $52,000,000 has been raised for the purposes fostered by the denomination, including foreign missions, education, hospitals and other benevolences. The effort now is to raise the remaining $23,000,000 throughout the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention. As a result of the meeting here Sunday about $447 was pledged.—Lynn County News.

He immediately left for Wilson, where preparations were made and he left Slaton Tuesday noon for Rockdale.

PROF. C. L. SONE EXPECTS MANY TO ATTEND MEET

FORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 11.—C. L. Sone, superintendent of the Slaton schools, and E. R. Haynes of Lubbock, superintendent of the Lubbock County schools, are expecting a large attendance from the city and county at the Texas State Teachers' Association Convention, which will be held in San Antonio Nov. 27, 28 and 29.

Dr. George A. Works and others who have been engaged in making the Texas School Survey will make addresses. The needs and conditions of Texas schools will be discussed, with a view to offering remedies for prevailing weaknesses.

San Antonio has arranged to entertain 5,000 visitors and it is probable that the attendance will be the largest in the history of the association.

Brother Kimmel comes to the church highly recommended as a faithful gospel preacher. He is a man of about 35 years of age, and is well equipped in every way for the work of the church in this city.

The Church of Christ owns its own house of worship, a nice brick building. It is contemplated to finish the church building early in January or just as soon as it is vacated by the school board. The building is subdivided for school purposes.

SALESMANSHIP IS DISCUSSED BY DISCUSSED BY SECRETARY ROSS

By J. J. ROSS.

Every soul is a salesman of some nature or kind. You are traveling and peddling your special line. Our preachers are the biggest and oldest of all salesmen, representing the biggest and the greatest concern on earth or in heaven.

Selling the opportunity of eternal life, and with each sale a guarantee from our Lord of peace, happiness, love, wisdom, knowledge and a ticket to the home of everlasting life. Listen, dear readers, all of this is without price, the cheapest article on earth—just believe and obey and sign your name on that dotted line of the book of life.

Dear preachers, are you doing your duty as salesmen of this wonderful institution of souls? Are you working eight hours a day and seven days in the week? You are holding the highest position of all salesmen.

Your institution offers the greatest opportunity of all concerns, which pays the biggest salary in all the world. Your salary is a happy, lovable life and a guarantee of eternal life; your commission is the souls of men to whom you have sold the eternal truth and everlasting life. Your great eternal institution made it so easy for you to sell the lowest priced article offered in all the world and made every human soul a prospective buyer.

Your sales contract is so easy, your payments so small—just a smile, a pure honest life make the payments and fulfill the contract.

But my dear preachers, are you pushing your company's business? Are you making talents for the Lord? Are you holding the lights for the millions that are grouping in the dark? Tens of thousands of souls are wanting to buy and are looking for you as a representative or a salesman of God. They are wanting to

JONES BROS. MANAGERS ARE MEETING IN ST. LOUIS

Mr. G. M. Ayers, manager of the Jones Dry Goods Company of Slaton, is in St. Louis this week, attending a meeting of all the Jones company managers. Mr. Ayers will also make large purchases for his store while in St. Louis. The Jones company has 30 stores in West Texas.

buy stock in that great, eternal company, whose dividends are peace, love, wisdom, knowledge and eternal life.

Remember how our Lord worked and sold till his company grew and covered the earth and checked the army of Satan and closed the gates of hell.

Let me point out to the modern commercial company that employs skilled salesmen to sell their merchandise. Their instruction are if you sell my goods and make good you may hold your job. Thousands lose, but a few win by working every day, early and late. A lost sale with these companies only means a little less money, but a lost sale with you means a lost soul.

Business Men

Bankers, merchants and business men of all walks of life, what are you selling? May I ask, is it peace and good will, or is it division, strife and confusion? You stated in the headline of your advertisement that you were selling merchandise, co-operation and service? Have you left off the co-operation and service? If so, you have left off the real guarantee of the life of your business and the article as well. Why should you or I buy from the merchant or salesman that only offers us the merchandise without a guarantee, when there are other merchants and salesmen that sell the same merchandise with the guarantee of co-operation, peace, good will and service? All of this is the fiat of your merchandise and the life of your business.

A suit of clothes fits better, feels better and lasts longer when that spirit of service is woven into the making and selling. Just how hurtful, how stinging, how pitiful to walk into some business man's store, and the first thing you notice is a frown or a cold, icy complexion, when just

SOUTH PLAINS MUSIC TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION IS A BIG SUCCESS

LUBBOCK BAPTIST ASS'N HOLDS FIRST SESSION HERE

At a called meeting of various churches from this section which have formerly been affiliated with the Brownfield Association or the Staked Plains Association, there was organized at Lubbock Nov. 3 the Lubbock Baptist Association. The first session of this association was held with the Baptist Church, Slaton, Monday, Nov. 10.

An all-day session was held, visitors being here from the various churches which will enter into the new association. The organization was perfected Monday with the adoption of the constitution, election of executive board members, organization of women's work and plans for the year's progress.

Among the visitors present were: Rev. Bowen, Lubbock pastor; Rev. Hunt, Lorenzo pastor; Rev. Agree and wife, Lubbock; Rev. Clinton and wife, Lubbock; Rev. Hankins, Friendship; Rev. Hembree, Plainview; Mrs. Wilhelm, Lubbock; Mr. Carlisle, Lubbock, and several others whose names we did not secure.

The local church served a turkey dinner to the visitors and local people in attendance. About 100 people enjoyed the program of the entire day.

The fifth Sunday meeting this month of this association will be held at Slaton, beginning on Friday, Nov. 28, and continuing through Sunday following.

The following resolution was unanimously passed by the Lubbock Baptist Association:

"The Lubbock Baptist Association, in its first meeting at Slaton, Texas, Nov. 10, 1924, unanimously and enthusiastically expresses the love and loyalty of every church co-operating with the new body to all the organized, constructive and co-operative work of the Baptist General Convention of Texas and the Southern Baptist Convention, and especially goes on record as standing for and supporting our splendid, worthy and growing educational institution of the Panhandle and Plains—Wayland Baptist College of Plainview.

"The new association also expresses the most fraternal regard and fellowship for the Brownfield and Staked Plains Associations, out of which noble bodies we have come, and most earnestly and prayerfully invites full and fraternal fellowship and co-operation from these associations in the prosecution of the plans and work to which we have, under God, set our hands and hearts.

(Signed) "JNO. P. HARDESTY, Chairman of Committee."

On November 3 at 10 a. m., at the meeting house of the First Baptist Church of Lubbock, Texas, representatives from most of the Baptist churches of Lubbock, Cochran and Hockley Counties, and one from Crosby County, just over the line, met for the purpose of organizing a new association. After due and prayerful deliberation a motion to institute a new body unanimously prevailed and it was so ordered. Judge John L. Ratliff of Lubbock was elected moderator and Pastor John P. Hardesty of Slaton clerk. After the appointment of a special committee to arrange further details for the perfecting of the new body, the association adjourned to meet at Slaton Nov. 10 or the purpose of completing the organization, adoption of a constitution, election of an executive board and other incidental details. The good women also met and formed their auxiliary organization.

On Nov. 10 the association met at Slaton at the time appointed and spent the day in happy fellowship and service, as we deliberated over the plans and work of the future, to which we have, under the direction of God, as we believe, set our hearts. The association, through its executive board, voted to put a missionary on the field not later than Jan. 1, 1925, and a committee was appointed to look out for available men for the place. The board will probably make a selection of a man at the next meeting, which will be at Slaton during the fifth Sunday meeting in this month.

The prospects for the Lubbock Association are bright.

The meeting of the South Plains Music Teachers' Association that was held here last Friday and Saturday was a decided success. It reflects honor not only on the teachers of the South Plains, but also upon Slaton. It was widely attended and attained in a large measure the goal to which it was striving.

Friday Mr. Clark of the West Texas Teachers' College in Canyon lectured and those who were so fortunate as to hear this lecture were amply repaid for their time. It was a splendid discussion of the problems that the music teacher has to contend with.

Friday night the association gave a delightful program, with the assistance of the local talent. It has been said that this program was one of the best ever given in this part of the country and one that was an honor to all who helped in rendering it.

Saturday morning Mr. Whitlock of the Conservatory of Music of Fort Worth lectured to the association on the "Aims of the State Association and the Way to Attain Them." This was a fine talk and one that inspired the audience to work harder for the goal that they have in view, the standardization of the music in the public schools of Texas.

Saturday afternoon the Dunning System of music was carefully explained and demonstrated by one of Lubbock's teachers and Miss Ramsey of Slaton.

Saturday night the association presented Mr. Whitlock in a violin recital. This was the feature number of the entire program and one that every one enjoyed very much. Mr. Whitlock explained the different numbers in a way that made them very attractive.

All in all, the association was a success and the entertainment given to the visitors by the Slaton people was as nice as one could wish. Saturday a delicious luncheon was served to the association by the ladies of the Parent-Teacher Association. This occasion was very delightful and one that will long be remembered by those who attended.

The association so honored one of our number that Slaton was overjoyed at the honor and opportunity given her. Miss Janet Ramsey will be sent to St. Louis in December as the representative of the South Plains Association. This will not only be splendid for Miss Ramsey, but will have the opportunity of learning from her what she will see and learn there. We feel that Miss Ramsey deserves this honor, because of the wonderful work she has done here for the association. We hope that she will have a most wonderful trip and will not be disappointed in what she finds there.

SLATON HIGH FOOTBALLER INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Walter McAtee, star player on the Slaton High School Football team, suffered a slight accident while returning to his home in Wilson Sunday night in an automobile. He was asleep in the back seat of the car and when the car ran into a ditch in front of George Angerer's place he was thrown out, receiving a severe cut and a blow on his forehead. His companions brought him back to Slaton immediately and his wounds were treated by a doctor. The doctor had to take several stitches and it was about 5 o'clock Monday morning before he recovered consciousness.

Walter says that he does not mind the pain so much, if the accident does not keep him from playing football in the Slaton's finest players and much depends upon his work. It may be, however, that by Friday he will be in tip-top condition for the game. He is hoping so, at any rate.

W. E. SMART TO BUILD TWO BUSINESS HOUSES

W. E. Smart has purchased two business lots on the corner north of the postoffice from O. N. Williams. The price paid or the lots is said to have been $3,500. It is understood that Mr. Smart will build a nice business house on these lots.

Messrs. Homer Preston and Ernest Patterson of the Stamford country were up here last week sightseeing. They stopped with the former brother, C. J. Preston over Friday.

SUGGESTED PROGRAM FOR EDUCATION WEEK, NOV. 17-23

November 17-23 has been designated as American Education week, and the public schools of the Nation have been requested to observe it with appropriate programs. For use in Texas public schools, the State Department of Education submits the following program, based on the National Bureau of Education's bulletin, "Suggestions for the Observance of American Education week."

Monday, Nov. 17—Constitution Day.
Slogans—Ballots, not bullets; master the English language; visit the schools today.
Topics of Study—The development of the constitution; written and unwritten constitutions; obedience to the constitution; law enforcement; individual rights guaranteed by the constitution.

Tuesday, Nov. 18—Patriotism Day.
Topics of Study—Patriotism, the paramount human emotion; liberty, the opportunity to do right; the common school, the bulwark of American liberty.
Suggested special activities for the day; dedicatory exercises for a new school flag; public demonstration of the proper display of the flag.

America; one-fourth of all our people are in school (pupils, teachers and administrators).
One-fifth of all pupils are in the first-grade. It is the business of the schools to produce "good citizens."
Schools are the Nation's greatest asset. The schools need better daily attendance, adequate buildings and equipment; membership in the Texas State Teachers' Association promotes better schools. The balance of the $100,000 permanent fund should be raised this year.

our population over 10 years of age have no schooling whatever. In 1920 there were 4,931,905 persons over 10 years of age who could not write, a number greater than the total population of Texas.
In 1920 the percentage of illiteracy in Texas was 8.3 per cent. Texas was thirty-fifth in the rank of the States. How can we best educate native born illiterates? Our need of opportunity schools and classes and Americanization schools.

tion day.

Young Coolidge Inspects Big Guns

John Coolidge, son of President and Mrs. Coolidge, paid a visit to the Washington navy yard, accompanied by Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur, and learned some of the secrets of the manufacture of the giant guns from Admiral Hutchinson, commandant of the naval station. He is here explaining the breach mechanism of one of the 16-inch guns.

OUR FLAG—FAMILIARIZE YOURSELF WITH ITS USE

There are certain fundamental rules of heraldry which, if understood generally, would indicate the proper method of displaying the flag. The matter becomes a very simple one if it is kept in mind that the national flag represents the living country and is itself considered as a living thing. The union of the flag is the honor point; the right arm is the sword arm, and therefore the point of danger and place of honor.

1. The flag should be displayed only from sunrise to sunset, or between such hours as may be designated by proper authority. It should be displayed on national and state holidays and on historic and special occasions. The flag should always be hoisted briskly and lowered slowly and ceremoniously.

2. When carried in a procession with another flag or flags, the flag of the United States should be either on the marching right, i. e., the flags own right or when it is in line of other flags the flag of the United States may be in front of the center of that line.

3. When displayed with another flag against a wall from crossed staffs, the flag of the United States should be on the right, the flags own right

- and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag.
4. When a number of flags are grouped and displayed from staffs, the flag of the United States should be in the center or at the highest point of the group.
5. When flags of states or cities or pennants of societies are flown on the same halyard with the flag of the United States, the national flag should always be at the peak. When flown from adjacent staffs, the flag of the United States should be hoisted first. No flag or pennant should be placed above or to the right of the flag of the United States.
6. When flags of two or more nations are displayed they should be flown from separate staffs on the same height and the flags should be of approximately equal size. (International usage forbids the placing of the flag above that of another nation in time of peace.)
7. When the flag is displayed from a staff projecting horizontally or at an angle from the window sill, balcony, or front of building, the union of the flag should go clear to the head of the staff unless the flag is at half mast.
8. When the flag of the United States is displayed in a manner other than by being flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat, whether in doors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the union should be uppermost and to the flags own right, i. e., to the observers left. When displayed in a window it should be displayed in the same way, that is, with the union or blue field to the left of the observer in the street. When festoons; rosettes, or drapings of blue, white and red are desired, bunting should be used, but never the flag.
9. When displayed over the middle of the street, as between buildings, the flag should be suspended vertically with the union of the north in the east and west street or to the east in a north and south street.
10. When used on a speaker's platform, the flag should be displayed above and behind the speaker. It should never be used to drape over the front of the platform. If flown from a staff, it should be on the speakers right.
11. When used in unveiling a statue or monument, the flag should not be allowed to fall to the ground, but should be carried aloft to wave out, forming a distinctive feature during the remainder of the ceremony.
12. When flown at half staff, the flag is first hoisted to the peak and then lowered to the half-mast position, but before lowering the flag for the day it is raised again to the peak. On Memorial Day, May 30th, the flag is displayed at half staff from sunrise until sunset, for the nation lives, and the flag is the symbol of the living nation.
13. When used to cover a casket the flag should be placed so that the union is at the head and over the shoulder. The flag should not be lowered into the grave nor allowed to touch the ground. The casket should be carried on foot.
14. When the flag is displayed in church it should be from a staff placed on the congregation's right as they face the clergyman. The service flag the state flag, or other flag should be at the left of the congregation. If in the chancel, the flag of the United States, should be placed on the clergy-

- man's right as he faces the congregation and other flags on his left.
15. When the flag is in such a condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display it should not be cast aside or used in any way that might be viewed as disrespectful to the national colors, but should be destroyed as a whole, privately, preferably by burning or by some other method in harmony with the reverence and respect we owe to the emblem representing our country.

- Cautions
1. Do not permit disrespect to be shown to the flag of the United States.
2. Do not dip the flag of the United States to any or anything. The regimental colors state flag organization or institutional flag will render this honor.
3. Do not display the flag of the United States with the union down except as a signal of distress.
4. Do not place any other flag or pennant above or to the right of the flag of the United States.
5. Do not let the flag of the United States touch the ground or trail in the water.
6. Do not place any object or emblem of any kind on or above the flag of the United States.
7. Do not use the flag as drapery in any form whatever. Use bunting of blue, white and red.
8. Do not fasten the flag in such manner as will permit it to be easily torn.
9. Do not drape the flag over the hood, top, sides or back of a vehicle, or a railroad train or boat. When the flag is displayed on a motor car, the staff should be affixed firmly to the chassis or clamped to the radiator cap.
10. Do not display the flag on a float in a parade except from a staff.

11. Do not use the flag as a covering for the ceiling.
12. Do not use the flag as a portion of a costume or of an athletic uniform. Do not embroider it upon cushions or handkerchiefs or print it on paper napkins or boxes.
13. Do not put lettering of any kind upon the flag.
14. Do not use the flag in any form of advertising nor fasten advertising sign to a pole from which the flag of the United States is flying.
15. Do not display, use or store the flag in such a manner as will permit it to be easily soiled or damaged.
- Bunting of the National colors should be used for covering a speaker's desk, draping over the front of a platform and for decoration in general. Bunting should be arranged with the blue above the white in the middle and the red below.
- During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering, passing in review, or in all persons present in uniform, men should remove their hats and salute with the right hand and women with the left shoulder. Women should salute by placing the right hand over the heart. The salute to the flag in the moving column is rendered at the moment the flag passes.
- When the National Anthem is playing those present should salute at the first note of the anthem, retaining this position until the last note of the anthem. When not in uniform, men should remove the head dress and hold it as in the salute to the flag. Women should render the salute as to the flag. When there is no flag displayed, all should face toward the music.

CHEVROLET COMPANY TO HAVE RECORDS OF TEST

It is expected that within 10 days the Slaton Chevrolet Motor Company will have complete records of the oil and gasoline consumption of every Chevrolet car that entered the 100-hour endurance and economy run conducted by nearly a thousand dealers through the country during October 4 to 11, according to Mr. Smith, the manager.

From these records the average gasoline mileage per gallon and the number of miles per quart of oil will be computed, which will tell a most comprehensive story of gasoline mileage and oil consumption. The result will present a truthful, cross-section picture of the average mileage and oil consumption that may be expected from a Chevrolet any place in the country.

Why the records may be taken by the ordinary motor car owner as evidence of what he may expect in everyday Chevrolet driving is due to the following conditions, under which the runs were made:

Regular stock cars were used. Each car was driven, in relay, by from six to eight persons, many of those driving being persons outside the particular organization. Thus it was not a case of skilled drivers who know all the tricks of getting high gasoline mileage.

Bad roads as well as good roads were chosen and every car was driven through city traffic, which cuts down high gasoline mileage.

Reports from dealers show that every variety of speed was used at different times, regardless of the most economical speed for low gasoline mileage.

A large percentage of the runs were non-stop performances, the motor being kept running while drivers were being changed or oil or gasoline being taken on.

As might be expected in a nationwide demonstration, there were handicaps of rain, fog, city traffic, railroad crossings, loose gravel and rough dirt roads.

Many of the cars made intensive runs, going through every city and town in a given territory and over practically all roads. One dealer used 14 different drivers, four women and 10 men, and carried 22 passengers during the run. Another dealer had the driving done entirely by persons outside his organization. Many of the dealers had their speedometers sealed by local officials. And nearly all the dealers exhibited their cars after the runs in their showroom when prizes were awarded in the guessing contests as to the mileage made by the various cars during the 100-hour run.

OUTDOOR SLEEPING IS RECOMMENDED AS HEALTHY

D. E. Breed, Executive Secretary of Texas Health Association, stated today, that outdoor sleeping was one of the greatest tonics for tired minds and also one of the best disease preventives. There is a growing interest in outdoor living by people who are not ill.

The American people are the greatest sport lovers in the world. At the same time the great mass of people lead sedentary, shut-in lives. They inhale fresh air only when they open their windows at night (and in winter they often neglect to do even this), and when they walk from their homes to their work.

Why should not the United States become a nation of outdoor sleepers, of vigorous men and women who arise refreshed on a winter morning, blood and brain clear for a day's achievement? The lungs that inhale outdoor air for eight hours out of twenty-four are not a fertile field for the tubercle bacillus.

It is with this thought in mind that the Texas Public Health Association urges every one who possibly can to sleep out of doors all the year round. Mr. Breed stated that this was something that most Texans could enjoy and hoped that they would avail themselves of the opportunity to enjoy nature's great restorer.

Mr. Doyle Morrow of Comanche, spent several days last week with relatives in and around Slaton.

SUDAN WOMAN IS SHOT IN HOME

SUDAN, Texas, Nov. 8.—C. A. Rice and wife, of this community, were arrested and are being held in the custody of officers of Lamb county, following the shooting of May Cummings, wife of a farmer, Saturday.

The shooting occurred at two o'clock Saturday afternoon when Rice is said to have fired twelve shots into the Cummings home. When questioned by officers he declared that he did not know that the bullets were reaching the Cummings home, and that he was shooting at cattle that had broken into his field.

The woman's condition is not believed to be serious, however Rice and his wife will be held until her true condition is determined. It is reported here that Rice and Cummings families have not been on friendly terms for several months.

COTTON STEALING

Cotton thieves are becoming a little bolder within the last week or so. They wagon as they stood in the fields and have taken it to the gins to be ginned.

It is about time that this devilment was stopped and if the thieves know what is good for them they will leave this vicinity to do their meanness. Within the last week or so the officers of Lynn County have caught and brought to justice several of these men. A case of this kind developed at O'Donnell and it was only a few hours until the officers had learned who had done the mischief. A similar case happened when almost a bale was stolen from the farm of Mrs. J. H. Nelm near Tahoka. We understand that a man was arrested and charged with this crime and that he secured bond.

So it is with justice. No one can be sure of making a clean get-away with the tireless officers of the law always on the job. If you are so unlucky as to lose even a small amount of cotton, report it immediately to the officers and help them to trace the thieves to their lair.—Wilson Pointer.

ISSUED WEEKLY

Entered as second-class mail matter at the postoffice at Slaton, Texas.

Jim Ferguson says that he will now be a dignified servant. All who believe this please stand on their several heads. Ferguson is too vindictive to be dignified, and likes to run things his own way too well to be anybody's servant. The people of Texas have returned Ferguson to power, but it was a peculiar and very extraordinary circumstance that brought this about, and we opine that when his term as governor is ended Texas will be through with him.

Halloween has come and gone. The event was very quietly celebrated in Jayton, there being but little evidence of youthful pranks manifest. The next big event that is emerging through the haze of the passing days is Thanksgiving—that day set aside or the giving of thanks to the Almighty for His manifold blessings, both material and spiritual. To the average person, however, Thanksgiving means little more than a feast day, when all rest from their labors and gorge their already too full abdomens with turkey and dressing.—Jayton Chronicle.

Yea, brother. They are coming thick and fast at this season of the year—we mean the holidays—and the grand climax comes with the Christmas festivities. They all mean that dad will have to dig deeper into his jeans and that mother will have to work overtime crocheting and embroidering, baking and basting. But these events are milestones in our short stay on this mundane sphere. Families that are all together and in good health should make the most of these holidays, for they will be called up in the years to come and their joys sweetened by the lapse of time.

A community divided among itself cannot go forward. This is as true of a community as the Biblical saying in St. Luke that "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against a house falleth." A simple example of this folly is found in one of Aesop's fables of the Stomach and other Members:

"One fine day it occurred to the Members that they were doing all the work and the Stomach was having all the fun. So they held a meeting and after a long discussion, decided to take its proper share of the work. So for a day or two the hands refused to take food, and the Mouth refused to receive it, and the Teeth had no work to do. But after a day or two the Members began to find that they themselves were not in a very active condition; the Hands could hardly move, and the Mouth was all parched and dry, while the legs were unable to support the rest. So thus they found that even the Stomach was doing a necessary work for the Body, and that all must work together or the body will go to pieces."

BRIDGE—"42"

Mesdames H. C. Jones and Harry Stokes entertained Thursday in honor of Mrs. Ellis of Idalou and Mrs. Russell of Hayworth. There were six tables of bridge and "42."

The guests played for high score. Mrs. Stevenson received the high score prize in "42," which she presented to Mrs. Ellis as honor guest. Mrs. Anton won high score in bridge. The hostesses served a wonderful two-course luncheon, a salad course and a dessert.

MRS. E. S. JOHNSON ENTERTAINS

Monday night Mrs. E. S. Johnson entertained with a bridge party in honor of Mrs. W. B. Russell of Hayworth, Okla. The rooms of the Johnson home were attractively decorated with fall flowers.

The games were unusually interesting and some very brilliant playing was done by the guests.

Mrs. Johnson served a delicious two-course luncheon in a very charming manner to the following guests: Mesdames Baldwin, Minor, Russell, Jones, Scott, Smith, Brewer, Whitney, Bradford, Walker, Parker and Harding of Amarillo and Misses Dodgin, Whitaker and McKinney.

T. E. L. CLASS MEETS

The Baptist ladies of the T. E. L. Sunday school class met Wednesday with Mrs. Claude Anderson. The business being dispensed with, a very enjoyable social hour was spent, beginning with an old hymn guessing contest. Mrs. Young and Mrs. Hardesty received prizes. Another feature of the afternoon was a baby shop contest, consisting of baby or youthful pictures of the ladies of the T. E. L. class to be recognized by resemblance to the lady. Dainty refreshments were served to 27.

MRS. C. F. ANDERSON IS HOSTESS OF T. E. L. CLASS

The T. E. L. Class of the Baptist Sunday school were entertained on Wednesday evening, Nov. 5, at the home of Mrs. C. F. Anderson, with Mrs. F. Graves as assistant hostess. The living room and dining room were lovely with cut flowers. After a short but enthusiastic business session the fun began, the guests having brought photos of themselves taken in early life, some as far back as babyhood, and others in early girlhood. The guests were asked to write on a card the name of the poor, misrepresented victim. Some few could be recognized. A musical contest was next engaged in. The hostess played 12 old familiar songs. The guests were asked to write the titles of the songs as she played them.

Mrs. C. V. Young received first prize on this contest, a beautiful bouquet of roses, and Mrs. J. P. Hardesty second prize, a song book.

Delicious refreshments were served to 24 guests. TEACHER.

Miss Audrey Preston entertained a few of her friends at her home southwest of this city last Wednesday evening. The young people enjoyed themselves in playing games and singing, which was led by Prof. M. L. Kelly of Slaton, and Miss Cieta Jermigan presided at the piano. The hostess served dainty refreshments which was enjoyed by all. Those present were: Misses Cieta and Selma Jermigan, Eva and Jessie Hood, Ada Bell Benton, Elizabeth Burton, Eunice Florence, Lucy Merle Hastings, Mae Ward, Lillian Williams and Jessie Anderson, and Prof. M. L. Kelly, Oscar Stone, U. L. Ward, Leslie Smith, Theron Lane, Autice Ward, Raymond Robertson, Raymond Kendrick and Alton Preston.

WOULD BUY LAND CHEAP, SAYS SEC. ROSS

By J. J. ROSS,
 Secretary of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce.

Weather conditions have been the very best for the gathering and harvesting of our crops. All feed crops have been saved in fine shape. Cotton picking has been the rush of the season. All cotton growers are well supplied with hands and are keeping well up with their picking. Cotton has opened fast, gins are running full time and are giving the best of service.

Our ginners have spared nothing in equipping their plants with every modern advantage that would render service to the public.

Our merchants are all smiles and report a splendid business, and all alike are trying their utmost to meet the demand and render that special service that is so appreciated by the public. There is a general activity toward all lines of business. The greatest of all things so noticeable is the general satisfaction and absolute contentment of all the people.

There is nothing so staple and imparts such wonderful influence as a well contented, well satisfied people. There is no section of Texas that is enjoying greater prosperity and a more contented and satisfied condition than the people of this section.

No one is growling or whining over the conditions. There is not a farmer that has realized more profit off of his investment and labor than the farmers of our section.

No one is begging the banks for a renewal of his paper. Nobody is wanting to move, but hundreds from all parts of Texas are here renting and buying lands to locate. Remember, farmers, the lands that are selling today are the last cheap lands of Texas. According to price of land, production and labor, our section is today offering the greatest opportunity of any agricultural section of our State.

Farmers, buy your small tract of land while the price and opportunity is in your reach.

The present prices and long-time payments will soon move into the hands of the big land corporations. This is a living witness of all other sections of our State. Many of our good farmers have made from two to five hundred per cent off their investment and labor. Now if you can make a small payment and get time on the balance at six or eight per cent, with your land advancing 10 or 15 per cent per annum on purchase price, will this not be a money making investment.

There is nothing that so stabilizes a community or country as the cutting up of all the big farms and all the big ranches into small tracts and a good family living on and owning the small homes. There is a deeper interest in school and church civ-pride and home. Farmers, bait your hook with this cheap land and you will catch a good home that will bear you dividends for old age.

Opportunities of a good country last only a short time, then each of us look back at that once undeveloped and almost barren section and see a beautiful city, a well developed agricultural community, all dotted with beautiful homes and schools. Then we tell our little story, shed a tear, and if—but too late. It has passed into other hands, so to save your tears and cut out your 1/2s and stay in the section of Slaton and live a long and prosperous life, the best country in Texas.

HUNTING

Saturday, Nov. 1, J. A. Holden and J. Carl Holden left Wilson for Abilene. The former went from there to Clyde to visit his parents.

J. Carl Holden picked up one of his friends of Abilene, David Farmer, and they went from Abilene to a big ranch in Kimball County. Mr. Holden says that this ranch home is one of the best it has been his pleasure to visit.

While on this ranch the gentlemen were furnished horses by their friends and they spent several days hunting. Mr. Holden was lucky enough to kill three wild turkeys and a large number of squirrels. He says that this is one of the greatest sports imaginable and that he intends to take a little time off every year for recreation and this sport. Mr. Holden bought a fine blooded bird dog that he is going to begin training for next year's hunting.

On the way home the party came by Hamlin for Mrs. Carl Holden, who has been visiting her parents.—Wilson Pointer.

Bad Coughs Ended Quickly by Double-Action Remedy

Remarkable results in quickly clearing up the severest coughs have been obtained with a prescription by a well-known specialist that does two things at once. It not only soothes and heals the soreness and irritation, but it very quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of the coughing. It is often astonishing how speedily the cough stops. The prescription is known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. It is particularly valuable for night coughing. To promptly end this annoying and weakening scourge, simply before retiring take one teaspoonful of Dr. King's New Discovery and hold it in your throat 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing. People who have been unable to rest on account of continual coughing have often gotten their full 5 or 3 hours' sleep by this simple method.

Dr. King's is excellent, too, for children's spasmodic croup, bronchitis, laryngitis, bronchial asthma and hoarseness. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for

Who Wanted to Play Anyway?

KNITTED FASHIONS FEATURE PLAIDED RUSSIAN BLOUSE

To VISIT the 1924 autumn and winter knitted outerwear fashion displays is like entering a new world of discovery. Again have the designers in the knitted arts succeeded in creating that "something different" atmosphere which so fascinates and fascinates the seekers of style.

Especially do sweaters this season take on a prepossessing guise of being other than they really are. In its modern aspect, whoever would guess that the handsome knitted Russian blouse shown in the picture traces its ancestry to the humble sweater of pioneer days?

The vogue for white is emphasized in this modish knitted Russian blouse, color contrast achieved in an allover plaid Lavin green. Plaids in knitted sportswear are the ultra-smart note.

Speaking in regard to the evolution of the sweater, not only is the Russian blouse a flattering testimony to knitted achievement, for an equally elaborate treatise might also be penned concerning the latest knitted jacquettes which are as luxuriously and handsomely designed as are milady's novelty fur coats. In fact, the knitted "bob" coat, or jacquette with its clipped yarn collar, which measures up in appearance to real fur, is the last word in autumn wrap fashions. That such a fur-like resemblance can be attained through the simple process of clipping or shearing yarn can scarcely be appreciated through the simple telling.

There is also added attraction in the many charming trimming details employed in connection with things knitted, such as glass buttons, leather trappings, fringe, embroidery and remarkable color combinations. Plain knit borders and finishings effectively contrast plaids, in a trimming way. An interesting example of color combination is that of yellow and white striped jacquette overlaid in black, with collar, cuffs and other details carried out in plain knit deep yellow.

Other color favorites stress warm reddish tones, specially burnt russet. Leading shades also include cocoa brown, greens, bright and subdued tints, fuchsia, copenhagen blue.

TEXAS SEWAGE PLANTS

tatus of sewage disposal system of the municipalities of Texas is announced by Dr. Malone Duggan, State Health Officer, in the annual report on activities of the department relating to stream pollution.

There are some 450 incorporated municipalities in Texas with only 210 of them maintaining sewage systems kind or another. Of this number, 150 have partial treatment, while 10 discharge sewage into streams and waterways untreated.

Disposal of sewage is a public question about which there can be no hard and fast regulations, for what is sufficient treatment in one town is totally inadequate in another. Those rivers or relatively close to other towns cannot discharge their waste into streams without endangering the health of those situated on the river below them. On the other hand, towns located near the mouths or rivers or close to the coast, because their sewage does not come into contact with the water supplies of other cities, can discharge their waste into the stream with little or no treatment. The State Law.

The State law provides a general rule which must be interpreted and enforced by the State Health Department. This law stipulates that sewage and waste matter discharged into rivers and waterways of the State shall be purified to such a degree as not to affect the health of the people in any way through reasonable use of the river water, nor to cause material injury to the fish and shell-fish industry, nor to cause the silting up of channels of navigable streams. Generally, then, sewage must be subjected to some sort of treatment before it is discharged into the streams of the State.

Domestic sewage consists principally of liquids with a small percentage of organic matter, which, when acted upon by the bacterial agents of decomposition, gives off the objectionable odors of putrefaction. To settle out the organic matter and obtain an effluent, clear of suspended solids is one of the first aims of scientific disposal. This process is accomplished by the settling action of septic tanks.
