Position Of Japanese On Luzon Shaky

Air Raid Prevented New Attack; Native Uprising Feared

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—The war department reported today that the success of the Subic Bay air attack announced two days ago was believed to have dislocated Japanese plans for immediate renewal of the offensive against General Douglas MacArthur's forces, and that enemy activities in the last twenty-four hours in Bataan were "negligible."

The department said also that a Japanese order directing Filipinos in occupied areas to surrender guns and blade weapons of every description was interpreted by MacArthur as indicating that the invaders were afraid of a popular uprising.

The text of the communique, number 137, based on reports received here up to 9:00 a. m. Eastern War Time (about 170).

"Philippines theatre: Enemy activities during the past twenty-four hours were negligible. It is believed that Japanese plans for an immediate renewal of the offensive were dislocated by our successes in the Subic Bay air attack."

"A copy of an order issued by the Japanese army in the Philippines which has reached General MacArthur's headquarters directs the Filipinos in occupied areas to surrender guns and blade weapons of every description, including ornamental and utilitarian knives and trophies."

"This order would operate to deprive the Filipino of his bolo which, while sometimes used as a weapon, customarily serves as a tool. It is universally used as an industrial and agricultural implement. With his bolo the Filipino farmer builds his house, fences his stock and harvests his crops. Hence, if he surrenders his bolo he will find it difficult to earn a livelihood."

"This order is interpreted by General MacArthur as indicating that the increasing resentment of the natives may develop into a popular uprising against the Japanese."

"There is nothing to report from other areas."

In a sudden attack on March 4, MacArthur's small air force caught the Japanese off guard and destroyed three large ships, two small ones, damaged several small vessels and set fire to supplies, including munitions, on the docks in Subic Bay, just north of Bataan peninsula.

The ships destroyed totaled more than 30,000 tons, and MacArthur reported that they were believed to have been loaded with troops, several thousand of whom apparently drowned during the attack.

Ordnance Blast Toll Up To 16

BURLINGTON, Iowa, March 6 (AP)—The death toll in the second Iowa ordnance plant explosion in less than three months rose to at least 16 today when Clarence Wixom, 44, of Farmington, Iowa, died. Five workmen are missing and 81 others are in hospitals, some in serious condition, as the result of a blast in the 20,000-acre plant Wednesday night when a three-story TNT melt unit was blown to bits.

ABC Favors Traffic School

Members of the American Bus pass club went on record as favoring a safety traffic school in Big Spring at the luncheon Friday noon at the Hotel Hotel.

Plans for a spring golf tournament between service clubs were made with Coy Nalley and Roy Reeder in charge. Matches with the Kiwanis club were arranged.

Charles Girdner, who presided, discussed the Thursday night entertainment for the Fort Worth Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Five Take Exams For Air Corps

Five young men left Friday, at their own expense, to stand examinations at Lubbock for a chance to be an aviation cadet in the army of the United States.

President Signs Huge Money Bill

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—A $32,785,757,000 appropriations bill—the largest in history—was signed today by President Roosevelt to provide vast additional funds for the army, lend-lease aid, and the maritime commission.

The new allotments brought to more than $142,000,000,000 the total appropriations thus far for defense and war during the years 1941, '42 and '43.

Included was close to $23,000,000,000 for the army, with a clause attached permitting diversion of approximately half of the material that amount will provide to the allies in the form of lend-lease aid.

In addition there was $1,500,000,000 in direct appropriations plus $2,500,000,000 in contract authorization for the maritime commission to finance a huge ship-building program. The balance of the money in the record bill would be devoted to direct lend-lease aid.

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—The house ways and means committee unanimously approved today legislation to increase the federal debt limit from $65,000,000,000 to the record-breaking total of $125,000,000,000.

The action came quickly after Secretary Morgenthau had testified that the treasury expects to run out of borrowing power before the end of next month and had expressed strong opposition to any forced savings plan at that time to obtain revenue.

While testifying on the measure, Morgenthau told the committee: "At this time I hope that the committee will not force on me forced savings. We are just getting under way with a voluntary plan."

"All indications are that the people are going to respond in a big way and you can't have a forced basis and a voluntary basis—they don't go hand in hand."

"If the time comes that I am fearful that we can't get enough on the voluntary basis, I'd like the privilege of coming before this committee and saying so."

Rep. Robertson (D-Va.) asked how soon it could be determined whether the arbitrary system would work, and Morgenthau replied by about July 1.

He said that 68 per cent of all companies employing 500 or more persons already had installed a system of voluntary payroll deductions for the purchase of defense bonds.

Japs Say Pearl Harbor Hit Twice

TOKYO, (From Japanese Broadcasts), March 6—(AP) Imperial headquarters declared today that a "special attack flotilla" of the Japanese fleet delivered the sea-borne attack on Pearl Harbor on the night of Dec. 7, more than 13 hours after the original assault by air, sinking a battleship of the Arizona class.

This assertion came in after-death citation and promotion for nine officers of the flotilla which never came back—presumably blown up by its own hands or sunk by the defenders.

(All official United States accounts of the Pearl Harbor episode have indicated that all damage, both afloat and ashore, was done in one swift coordinated attack by planes and two-man submarines.)

(The Japanese report of a night naval attack following the early morning air raid would be a natural line for propagandists to take in an attempt to cause confusion or create doubt as to the accuracy of accounts made public by the United States government.)

Delivery Of Typewriters Is Banned

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—An order banning sales and deliveries of new and used typewriters was issued last night and became effective today.

Much of the typewriter industry is being converted to war work and a rationing program to conserve the existing machines is expected soon.

Meanwhile, the new WPB decree permits delivery of typewriters only if they were in treatment at midnight, the time the order went into effect, or if they are being delivered by one dealer or distributor to another.

Those who have rented typewriters must return them to the owners by April 1. Anyone who has only one used typewriter may sell it to someone else.

The industry produced 1,266,000 machines in 1941. A month ago it was asked to curtail production immediately by one fourth. Eventually it is to reduce production of standard type machines by 40 per cent and portables by 80 per cent.

Little Tokyo Is Disappearing

LOS ANGELES, March 6 (AP) Strange things are happening in Little Tokyo.

Reds Tighten Pincers On Nazi Armies

Moscow Undergoes Light Air Raid After Long Rest

By The Associated Press The Russian encirclement of the 16th German army about Staraya Russa was coupled today with a restriction of the Nazi-held Rzhev-Vyazma pocket on the central front through recapture of Yuhknoy.

Yuhknoy is a Ugra river town 130 miles southwest of Moscow and 50 miles southeast of Vyazma, skirted in Russian thrusts westward toward Smolensk. Soviet authorities said it had been heavily fortified and reinforced by German troops ferried east by plane.

Russians reported more than 500 Germans were killed along one mile of the sector after Red army detachments penetrated their lines despite heavy artillery fire; that the fleeing survivors abandoned their wounded and failed to destroy their munitions dumps.

After nine weeks without an alarm, Moscow was raided again last night. Although Soviet anti-aircraft shells blazed spectacularly over the capital, some damage and casualties resulted from the bombing, which the Russian radio described as "at random."

Bad weather kept the British air force grounded for the second night in a row. The air ministry, however, said photographs taken in daylight by a daring aerial scout confirmed vast damage that raiders had reported inflicted Tuesday night on French factories in the Paris area producing war materials for Germany.

The photographs showed fires were still burning in the great Renault motor works and that the damage was "evenly distributed over the whole area," the ministry said.

Informed American industrialists estimated in New York that the French plants—operating 24 hours a day now instead of the former 40 to 48 hours a week—were producing for Germany at possibly three times the rate at which they had contributed to France's fighting forces.

Mixing Plant Assembled For Airport Paving

Hunter Strain, Colorado City, was directing the assembly of a mixing plant near the airport Friday in preparation for paving operations, possibly within 10 days.

Meanwhile, work was progressing on the treatment of base material for the last runway, and this was due to be completed shortly.

Theo Montgomery, rock contractor, was making ready with rock crushing apparatus at a pit south-east of town and said that he probably would be turning out aggregate for the paving by the middle of next week.

Contract for paving is held by Strain, who also had previously bid in the base stabilization unit of the airport job. Topping will be of a pre-mix type, necessitating a plant near the field. The machinery is to be located at the caliche pit on the southeast edge, reducing obstructibility without losing proximity.

Boxer Succumbs To Blood Infection

CHICAGO, March 6 (AP)—Milt Aron lost a game five months bout against illness last night. The 24 year old welterweight boxer died of a blood infection which had forced him into a hospital shortly after his five round knockout by Fritzie Zivic in Pittsburgh last September.

A professional fighter since 1936, Aron came up from Dubuque, Ia., through the Golden Gloves ranks.

Big Ranch Deal In New Mexico Made

SPRINGER, N. M., March 6 (AP) The purchase of the 52,100-acre Circle D cattle ranch (shanty) of Springer by Frank E. (Shanty) Sauble was announced today.

Sauble declined to reveal the purchase price or estimate the value of the holdings, but the deal was the biggest in northeastern New Mexico in a decade.

Two Men Leave For Army Hitch

Two men left Friday for induction as selective service registrants, the local board announced.

They were Robert Martin Williams, Jr., teacher in the Valley View school of Martin county, and whose residence was Knott, Texas; and Joe Sanchez, a transfer from San Antonio.

Batavia Abandoned As Bandoeng Defended

Allies Regain Ground Australia Next? Situation Critical But Not Hopeless

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—A powerful drive against Australia, designed to knock out the Darwin naval base and envelope the whole north coast of the continent, was predicted here today as Japan's next move in her lightning campaign to dominate the entire southwest Pacific before the United Nations can hope to take the offensive.

At the same time military and naval experts said it was probable that the drive into Burma would be intensified in line with the apparent Japanese strategy of trying to close the Burma road to China permanently and also place strong forces in position for an invasion of India.

Thus the third month of the war ended, qualified observers here found scant cause for any optimism in the whole vast theatre of Pacific-Atlantic operations, and the general belief was that barring some surprise action on the part of the allies the disastrous sequence of events which started at Pearl Harbor Dec. 7 must be expected to continue in the immediate future.

It was noted, however, that the pattern of war the world over was not one of unrelieved gloom. In the British Isles, where fresh thousands of American troops landed this week, in Washington and even in embattled Java indications were that some sort of allied counter action was in the making.

But the Russian offensive against the once undefeated German army continued to press slowly westward in the greatest achievement of allied arms to date, and it was believed here that the switch from Burma to India as a gateway for supplies to China would not materially hamper the Chinese forces, at least for the time being.

Moreover the United States navy, in spite of its preoccupation with the world-wide task of keeping supply lines open and battling U-boat raiders in the Atlantic, had so far recovered from the blow at Pearl Harbor that it was extending its operations in the central Pacific deep into Japan's mandated islands area, menacing the enemy's eastern outposts and supply lines.

Against these evidences of growing allied strength, bolstered by the steady increase of munitions production in the United States, the situations in Java and Burma and recurrent hints of a gigantic mad offensive in the spring weighed most heavily, experts said.

Few informed persons here held and hope that the defense of Java could long endure under the heavy pounding of Japanese land and air forces. The most expected was that the Dutch, British and American defenders might be able to withdraw to some defensible corner of the island, where like General Douglas MacArthur's army in the Philippines they could form a sturdy pocket of resistance and hold out for some time.

While such a maneuver would pin down a portion of the Japanese invasion army, the great bulk of Nippon's forces would be released for the anticipated attack on Australia.

As a result of the enemy's great superiority and mastery of the air," said the high command, "our troops are exposed continuously to such violent bombardment that they have been unable to rest for many days and now are gradually becoming overtired."

"This makes the situation serious, but not hopeless," it added.

Jogjakarta, with a population of about 180,000 Indonesians and 6,000 Europeans, lies in middle eastern Java less than 15 miles from the island's south coast.

These were two of the places which the communists conceded lost to the foe.

On the credit side of the defenders, however, was a report that a joint Japanese force to the Japanese had been regained by a Dutch attack today. Evidently this town—not at once identified—was on the are of invasion 25 miles north of Bandoeng.

Bandoeng, now the focus of defense, heard artillery fire today, perhaps from one of the three regions of penetration to its north: Pervakarta to the north and west, Kalidjati to the north and Soehang to the north and east. It may be that one of these places which the Dutch regained.

Aneta, authoritative Dutch news agency, said it was dutifully learned tonight that all N.E.L. forces—and, presumably, any of their British, Australian and American allies that were with them, had withdrawn from a great section of western Java, leaving it to the invader.

It was believed, Aneta said, that Batavia either had been occupied or shortly would be taken. But the Japanese will find it somewhat a hollow prize. All important installations there had been destroyed in advance, it was said, and many persons moved to the interior.

At a recent meeting, the following were named senior wardens and assistants in 11 communities, with the senior listed first and assistants next:

DALLAS, March 6 (AP)—Firemen who stood at a station four blocks away watched three frame houses burn down today because they had been ordered not to go outside the city limits.

The city ordered rural fire fighting stopped March 1 after the county refused to pay $40,000 for the service.

TO VISIT TEXAS WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Lord Halifax, the British ambassador, declined today that he planned a week-long vacation trip to Texas, starting about March 22.

He Was Labor's Martyr — Tom Mooney Dies

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6 (AP) Tom Mooney, 38, labor leader who served 23 years in prison for the 1916 San Francisco Preparedness parade bombing died in St. Luke's hospital here early today.

The grey-haired Mooney, released in 1939 from San Quentin prison where he had grown old, underwent his fourth major abdominal operation last Monday.

He was believed recovering satisfactorily only yesterday but at 1:20 a. m. today he lapsed into unconsciousness and died at 2:25 a. m., P.M.T. His sister, Anna, and his brother, John, were at the bedside.

Mooney and Warren K. Billings were convicted respectively of first and second degree murder in the Market street blast which killed 19 persons and injured 46.

President Wilson intervened and Mooney's death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment, the same sentence Billings had received.

Throughout the years Mooney fought for freedom, contending he was "framed" by perjured testimony because of his activities as a labor organizer.

Labor and other groups clamored for his freedom and his case went before the United States supreme court four times. He was pardoned Jan. 7, 1939, by California's new democratic governor.

TOM MOONEY

Culbert L. Olson.

In his 22 years behind San Quentin walls Mooney became a "quain celebre" of militant labor throughout the world, a political issue, the subject of legislative debate, the center of congressional investigations, the imprisoned hero of mass meetings, the Key figure in one of the most remarkable legal records in American court history.

Sugar Ration Chiefs To Meet

DALLAS, March 6 (AP)—Plans for registering every person in Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma for sugar rationing books will be discussed here tomorrow by administrators of the three states at a meeting called today by Max L. McCulloch, regional OPA director.

McCulloch will be assisted in the conference, which is preliminary to actual start of rationing, by his executive officer, W. H. Brooks.

Administrators asked to attend are U. S. Goodman of Louisiana, Bert McGehee of Oklahoma, and Mark McGee of Texas. Meeting members of the regional OPA staff.

"We will discuss everything that must be done before R day," Brooks said. Brooks said there would be four R days devoted to registration. Dates will be designated by National OPA Administrator Leon Henderson the last part of this month, and will be observed throughout the country at the same time.

Band To Appear At Sing-Song

A feature of the community sing-song at the city auditorium at 6 o'clock Sunday will be the appearance of the Big Spring high school band under direction of Dan Conley.

The band will open with the "Star Spangled Banner" and will play three marches, "Little Champ" and "Symbol of Honor" and "Beautiful America." Other numbers will include the "Lyceum Overture," "Flag of the Free," and the closing number, "America."

A large crowd is predicted to attend the event due to increased interest in the sing-songs and also to the first appearance of the band at the affair.

Installations At Soerabaja Destroyed

SOERABAJA, Java, N. E. I., March 2 (Delayed) (AP)—Certain installations here at Soerabaja, site of the only important naval base remaining to the United Nations in the southwest Pacific, were demolished today in a three-hour campaign of destruction by the defenders, Aneta, Dutch news agency, reported.

The explosions, which shook residences and office buildings throughout the city between 7 and 10 a. m., followed Sunday's Japanese landings on the north coast of Java.

LONDON, March 6 (AP)—Dutch forces, in a terrific frontal attack, drove the Japanese from a section of the plains of Bandoeng which the invaders occupied yesterday, Reuters reported from Bandoeng today.

(Other dispatches from Bandoeng reported allied recapture of one unidentified point.)

The Japanese have withdrawn to the north, Reuters said. Heavy artillery fire in the mountain defenses to the north could be heard in Bandoeng.

In eastern Java, the Japanese have been pushed back in some sectors, Reuters continued. Indications are that the main battle will be fought around Bandoeng.

BANDOENG, Java, March 6 (AP) Dutch and allied defense forces have evacuated Batavia, one-province capital of the Netherlands East Indies empire, it was announced today, while the Japanese invaders occupied all of northwestern Java and all but the island in half by capturing Jogjakarta far to the east.

The outnumbered and weary defenders were withdrawn from Batavia, a delayed communique from the high command reported, so that they could consolidate their thinking ranks in more favorable positions for the battle of western Java, presumably in the high plateau around the military headquarters at Bandoeng.

As a result of the enemy's great superiority and mastery of the air," said the high command, "our troops are exposed continuously to such violent bombardment that they have been unable to rest for many days and now are gradually becoming overtired."

United States Sends Mission To India

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—The United States is sending a mission to India, the state department announced today, to explore the possibilities of American help in creating a great supply base there for the United Nations.

Personnel of the mission was not disclosed, but the announcement said it would proceed to India "as soon as possible."

In a statement emphasizing the great importance of India's strategic position and natural resources, the department expressed hope that "this step in American-Indian collaboration may serve to make an effective contribution to the success of the United Nations in the war against aggression."

The text of the statement follows:

"The military situation in southeastern Asia emphasizes the need to develop fully, and as rapidly as possible, the industrial resources of India as a supply base for the armed forces of the United Nations in the Near East and the Far East. The government of the United States, accordingly, inquired whether the government of India would agree to the dispatch to India of a technical mission which could examine and report on the possibilities of American assistance in such development. The government of India has expressed its readiness to receive such a mission and has invited it to be its guests during the mission's stay in India. Accordingly, it has been decided that the mission should proceed to India as soon as possible.

Air Wardens Instruction Period Fixed

First of a series of instruction periods for air raid wardens of Howard county will be held at the court house Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, according to Deputy Sheriff Denver Dunn.

He urged all wardens and their assistants to be present at that time. Men have volunteered an air raid warden in all except three communities—Fairview, Washmoon and Vincent. These communities are urged to have representatives present for the first instruction period.

At a recent meeting, the following were named senior wardens and assistants in 11 communities, with the senior listed first and assistants next:

HELEN HURT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. HURT, who has been visiting in Detroit, Mich., since Christmas is leaving today for Louisville, Ky., and Smithgrove, Ky., where she will visit before returning home.

An everyday quartet that is something in the luncheon group composed of OHIE BRISTOW, BILL TATE, DR. M. H. BENNETT and A. SWARTZ. Seems these gentlemen gather round the table for the noon day meal but always persuade somebody to join them. How they do it is beyond us, but they always flip for the check and the visitor looses with surprising regularity to the amusement of the quartet.

Breasting along in the cold the other day was Mrs. C. L. RODEN who had to do like everybody else—hold her hat on with both hands. When the winds blow they really do a good job.

Hear tell that HARRY BLOMFIELD, twin son of Mr. and Mrs. CARL BLOMFIELD has joined the navy. JOHN is still in school at Tech, and intends to join the army later it seems. That ought to make the BLOMFIELD family all American or something.

Something to take your children to, in the play "MRS. WIGGS OF THE CABBAGE PATCH" to be given here March 12th. You take the children as an excuse and then you can really enjoy the play. It's one of those never-grow-old plays that never fails to amuse.

Red Cross Club Of Forsan Has All Day Meet

ELBOW, March 6 (Sp) — Six sweaters were turned in and 30 skirts were completed when the Red Cross Knitting club met Thursday at the school for an all-day meeting.

Guests were Mrs. Dan McRae of Forsan and Mrs. I. B. Cauble of Elbow.

Attending were Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Mabel Dunagan, Mrs. R. L. Findley, Mrs. Pearl Cauble, Mrs. Jack McKinney, Mrs. Ross Hill, Mrs. Ray Shortes, Mrs. Florrie Neill, Mrs. Truie Dunagan, Mrs. Irene Vandenburgh, Mrs. Cecil Long, Mrs. Bob Ashby.

Announcement was made that the Elbow school would sponsor a pie supper and program Friday night, March 13th at 8 o'clock at the school. Proceeds will go for the hot lunch program.

Coahoma Singer To Be Featured In Style Show

Jeanne Young, Coahoma, will be featured in the second act of the Fashion Review to be held here March 10th at 8 o'clock at the city auditorium.

Miss Young will be assisted by Frances Kelly, Pat McKinney, Ronald Minter and Peppy Blount.

The Review, which is the 10th annual event sponsored by the Episcopal Auxiliary of St. Mary's church, will include showings of spring ensembles for men, women and children.

First act of the show will be the Victory Gardens. Jack Free and his orchestra will furnish music and will also play following the review at the country club for a dance.

Baptists Honor Lee Scarborough

BELTON, March 6 (Sp)—Baptists from many Texas cities gathered here last night for a banquet honoring Dr. Lee R. Scarborough, for 25 years president of Southwestern Theological Seminary.

Dr. George W. Truett, pastor of the First Baptist church of Dallas, said of the honor guest, "there is no man in the world whom I believe is so thorough. He is a genuine man, a prodigious toiler and a great friend."

About a hundred attended the banquet, held by Mary Hardin Baylor College.

Crash Is Fatal To Aviation Cadet

SAN ANTONIO, March 6 (Sp)—Aviation Cadet Arthur P. Prouse, 26, of Randolph Field was killed instantly Thursday night when his basic training plane crashed in a field three miles north of Randolph.

The ship did not burn but was badly wrecked. Cause of the accident is being investigated.

Cadet Prouse, whose home was at Rutland, Vt., was on a routine night training flight at the time of the crash.

Knott Scouts Change Time Of Meeting

KNOTT, March 6 — Boy Scout troop No. 15 under the supervision of Noel Burnett has changed its meeting date to Thursday and plan to meet during the school day because of the desire to conserve rubber and gasoline and have that extra trip to meet in the evening.

The Knott women's missionary society met Thursday afternoon at the church for an all-day meeting to study and have a program on home missions. The program was in charge of Mrs. J. T. Gross, president, and each member had a part on the program. Present were Mrs. Herschell Smith, Mrs. Walter Barbee, Mrs. L. J. Burrow, Mrs. Oscar Smith, Mrs. Gross and Betty Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Pendergrass and Mrs. Sheppard and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pendergrass, all of Colorado City, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Phillips and children spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Springman of Westbrook.

The first aid class met at the Garner school for the second period of training with instructor Neal Barnaby of Big Spring. Present for the two-hour class were Mary Lynn Crawford, Farris Bass, Lola Avant, Margie Adams, Lloyd Spraggins, Ruby Awall, Marie Spraggins, Faye Johnson, T. J. Turner, Walter Hadley, Beasna McGregor, Montie Stallings, Cathie McCauley, Walter Barbee, Norma Burks, Wilmon Burks, Edna Weed, Lila Knight, Gladys Sanderson and Ada Kestlightep. Other community people are urged to come and take this valuable training.

A birthday celebration was held recently at 3-ckerly in honor of the 79th anniversary of Grandmother Burrus. Attending the affair was Sergeant Coleman and wife of Goodfield Field, San Angelo, Earl Hughes and family of Forsan, Mrs. Willie Witt and daughter, Jo Nell, of Big Spring, Mrs. Pansy Bollinger and children of Ackerly, Luther Coleman and wife and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Coleman and Wanda Sue, Lee Burrows and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bryson, all of Ackerly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas and children visited her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long of Big Spring and relatives here at Knott.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Palmer over the weekend were her daughter, Mrs. Bowman Williams and children, Mrs. George Thomas Palmer and son of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lanford of Denver City were visitors of Mrs. Robert Merrick and family. This plan to make a three week visit at Ackerly and Lamesa before returning home.

Edward McEwen Is Honored With A Farewell Gift

Ott Needing Only A Pitcher To Put Giants Back In The Running

MIAMI, March 6 (AP)—More baseball fans are asking about the New York Giants than about any other club, apparently under the impression that the grand old team that the great John McGraw made famous is about to stage a comeback. To many thousands of diamond bugs that never saw a big league game, the Giants still are the most glamorous outfit of them all, even after three years in the second division.

First, they always ask if the team has added enough strength to win the National league flag, and the answer to that one is no, that there are three other clubs with too much pitching strength—Brooklyn, St. Louis and Cincinnati. To the second question, whether young Mel Ott packs enough weight to make a really good manager, the answer is yes, sir. He does.

The boy from New Orleans is leaving no doubt in anybody's mind about who is running the show. He is friendly enough with the fellows who have been his teammates all these years and still speaks quietly, but it is necessary to be around their camp here only about five minutes to discover that he means to be the boss. He is going to do all right.

About his team, he says in his easy drawl: "I would say that a lot depends on two things, how Connie Ryan does at second base and whether we can come up with a good young pitcher, one that can win maybe a dozen or 15 games. If Ryan is as good as he looks to me now and I find that pitcher, we're going to be a mighty good club. I wouldn't like to guess where we'll finish, but it shouldn't be in the second division."

Through modesty, no doubt, Mel failed to mention that he would be in there coking his right leg and clouting the ball every now and then, himself.

Everybody on the club fully expects Harry Danning to come back fighting under Ott's leadership and again be the best catcher in the league. That would put still another 200 clouters in the line-up. And if Billy Jurges has a good year at shortstop it will be a good-looking team all around. Except for its pitching.

Major League Game Will Be Played Here

Big Spring will remain the site for a major league baseball game on April 6, Tink Riviere, president of the Lamesa club and formerly head of the club operating here, said on a visit here Thursday.

Both the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Philadelphia Athletics have been notified that the game will be played in Big Spring as originally scheduled, said Riviere.

While here Thursday, Riviere made arrangements with Dick Ruff, one of the leaders in the Big Spring club, to stage the game in the Bomber park. The tilt was scheduled at the close of the season last year when Riviere and Jodie Tate were still operating in Big Spring.

Lubbock, Amarillo and Lamesa were interested in having the game, said Riviere, but he figured it would be more practical to have it here. Too, he added, "we planned to have it here at first, and we're going to make good on the promise."

Teams coming here will be no second-stringers, he declared. The first line men, include Pie Traynor, Frankie Frisch, Pirate manager, Honus Wagner, one of the baseball greats of all time and now a Pirate trainer, Connie Mack, grand old man of baseball and Athletic manager, and many other big names in the game.

Class B Teams Take Over Today In Schoolboy Basketball Tourney

Crowley Giving Up Fordham Post For Stretch In Navy

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Jim Crowley's offer to give up his job as head football coach at Fordham to enlist in naval aviation may leave the students speechless, but not officials of the university, who already have a successor to the former Notre Dame star in mind.

Crowley, one of Knute Rooker's famous Four Horsemen, announced his application for enlistment unexpectedly last night, coupling with it a request for a leave of absence for the duration.

But with spring practice due to start March 30, university officials indicated that a coach of national reputation would be obtained soon to replace the man whose teams have won 55 victories and suffered only 13 defeats in nine seasons.

"It sets us back on our heels for the moment," said the Rev. Robert I. Gannon, university president. "But we have no intention of curtailing our athletic program and will conclude negotiations with his successor, a nationally known figure, in plenty of time for spring practice."

Crowley, whose present five-year contract still has two years to run, already has taken his physical examination. If accepted, he said he would be assigned to training naval air cadets in the Navy's new three-mouth football-type "toughening routine."

El Paso Team Defeated In First Game

AUSTIN, March 6 (AP)—Eight class B region title-winners faced initial-round tilts today to open the second of three days' play-offs for state high school basketball championships in three divisions.

While the small-school champions squared off for a quick-death series, railbirds still gabbed about last night's surprising final first-round clashes in class AA for large and class A for intermediate-sized schools divisions.

Heavily-favored Austin of El Paso went down 40-36 before a smooth-functioning, fast-breaking Denton crew in class AA while Sidney Lanier of San Antonio came up from the short end of a 11-24 half-time score to whip Aransas Pass 39-31 in class A.

Other class AA first round tilts were Lufkin 50, Childress 45; Dallas Tech 41, Robstown 27, and Jefferson Davis of Houston 51, Waco 26. In class A, Nederland defeated Crane 26-21, Elkhart downed Lakeview 36-22 and Van eliminated Gatesville 59-30.

Today's card listed class B tilts as Addicks vs. Ingleside, Alpine vs. Fayetteville, Midell vs. Stratford and Burkett vs. Boies Home of Quinlan.

Class A semi-finals later pitted Jeff Davis against Dallas Tech and Lufkin against Denton. The class A semi-final card showed Van vs. Elkhart and Nederland vs. Sidney Lanier.

Pepperdine Wins El Paso Tourney

EL PASO, March 6 (AP)—George Pepperdine College of Los Angeles played steadily to win the southwestern invitational basketball tournament championship last night by defeating New Mexico Mines, 39 to 29 in a hard-fought title game.

Ruby was the Pepperdine high point man with 12 points. The Mines were led by Edgerton with 10. Pepperdine led at half time, 28 to 10.

Rural School Championship Tilt Cancelled

The scheduled championship game between Midway and Center Point, set for this evening, has been cancelled, it was announced by representatives of the two schools Friday.

Both teams were declared co-champions of the Howard county rural basketball league.

Because of a more impressive record, the championship trophy has been awarded to Midway. Although both teams had won seven and lost one game over the season's route, Midway had a margin of 92 points over its opponents while Center Point's scoring margin was only 85 points. This was the basis on which the trophy was awarded.

In league play each team defeated the other once, and swept through all other competition with comparative ease.

350 Athletes To Appear At The Border Olympics

LAREDO, March 6 (AP)—Stringbean Don Boydston starts his vital season of fliriting with a world's record in the high jump tonight as headliner of the tenth annual Border Olympics.

Three hundred and fifty athletes from Texas and Oklahoma will battle time and distance in the first major outdoor track and field meet of the season.

Boydston, the Oklahoma A. and M. star built like a crane, is expected to smash the meet record because he often has gone over the 6 feet 6 inch standard of the Olympics.

At the present time the Aggie holds the Texas Relay record of 6 feet 7 1/2 inches. Two years ago at the Southwestern Exposition meet in Fort Worth he barely failed to smash the then-existing world mark of 6 feet 9 3/4 inches.

He will have competition plenty tonight, however, from Texas A. and M.'s Pete Watkins, who also soars well over the 6 feet 6 inch mark.

Vying for interest with Boydston's efforts will be the 120-yard high hurdles which matches Howard Payne's Pete Owens and Texas A. and M.'s Roy Buck. The record is 14.3, set by Freddie Wolcott of Rice in 1939. Wolcott is not an entry this year and his standard is expected to topple before Owens and Buck, pushed by Ralph Tate of Oklahoma A. and M.

Buck is Southwest conference champion in both hurdles and Owens has been outstanding for two seasons.

The defending champion University of Texas team, with such stars as Mac Umstadtd, conference half-mile record-holder, and Harry Hafenick, conference mile champion, is expected to receive strong competition from the always versatile North Texas State team.

There will be squads from 13 colleges and universities and 19 high schools.

Yankee Lineup Is Strange One, Due To Six Holdouts

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 6 (AP)—The appearance of the world champion New York Yankees became more fantastic than ever today as they lined up for their opening exhibition game with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The determined holdout of six of the Yankee regulars already had established that the New York team entering the grapefruit grind would have to be a collection of misfits. But nobody could foresee the last minute changes Manager Joe McCarthy decided upon at yesterday's final workout.

Ever since camp opened he has been grooming Gerry Friddy for third base and has been playing a rangy, rookie first baseman, Ed Levy, at second base. However, when he announced his batting order for the inaugural at Waterfront park, he put Friddy at second and Levy on third—admittedly because he figured the 6-foot, 5-inch freshman could do less harm at the hot corner than at second.

The result of this swap gave the Yanks this novel batting order: Rimsuto, ss. Hensel, lb. Henrich, cf. Chastak, rf. Selkirk, lf. Friddy, 2b. Levy, 3b. Rosar, Sears, Robinson, c. Candlin, Borowy, Queen, p. McCarthy had been hoping that the veteran Frank Crosetti would show up, but even though the little fellow was an early signer he is not yet in camp.

Draftee Runs Amok, Stabs Five Men

EL PASO, March 6 (AP)—Five persons are in serious condition of stab wounds inflicted by a young Mexican Army sealer who ran amok last night on a Texas and Pacific train as it left the Union Depot here.

The Mexican was being sent to a military post from the Fort Bliss center. After stabbing the five passengers, he escaped from the train by jumping from a window, severing his little finger on the broken glass.

Wounded were Paul Carrasco, 35, of Pecos, gashed severely in the back; Carl Cosh, 30, of Pecos, cuts in the side; an unidentified man, whose jugular vein was severed; Winford Gaston, CCC youth and Sid Derbin, 57, of Hartford, Calif., who suffered back and arm cuts, respectively.

Ted Williams Preparing To Don Uniform

MINNEAPOLIS, March 6 (AP)—Ted Williams headed for the baseball hunting grounds today not so much with the idea of defending his 406 batting championship, but he insisted, with the idea of cutting short his path to war time service.

The Boston Red Sox slugger, having decided to use his draft deferment to get back into a baseball uniform, wound up his affairs at his winter residence and said goodbye to the girl friend and hunting pals at nearby Princeton. He had assured Tom Yawkey at Saratoga yesterday that the thing to do was to play out that rumored $30,000 contract.

"This has been a mighty hard decision to make," said Ted who indicated resentment at what he termed some "harsh treatment" because his draft case was appealed to Washington before he was transferred from class 1-A, subject to immediate service to class 3-A, subject to indefinite deferment because of his dependent, divorced mother.

Mrs. Barr Gets 4-Year Term

DALLAS, March 6 (AP)—Mrs. Juanita Barr, 39, was found guilty of "murder without malice" yesterday in connection with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Blanche Woodall, pretty night club dancer.

A district court jury sentenced Mrs. Barr, estranged wife of a former Dallas newspaper columnist, to four years in the state penitentiary.

Mrs. Barr sobbed as the verdict was read; her sister, Mrs. Denora Brown, collapsed in court and was carried from the room by deputy sheriffs.

The verdict came after the jury had deliberated for 18 hours and 47 minutes.

Testimony was offered during the trial to show that Eddie Barr, the defendant's husband, was infatuated with Mrs. Woodall.

Terry Turner, exploitation manager of a motion picture company, said Barr, who did not appear at the trial, had resigned as a company representative in Minneapolis and was preparing to join the army.

T. J. Monroe and Maury Hughes, attorneys for Mrs. Barr, announced that they would file an appeal.

Mrs. Barr was placed in a jail cell, where she must remain until the court acts on a motion for a new trial, a preliminary move to appeal.

Waner Wants To Be Active This Season

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 6 (AP)—Lloyd Waner, who played 77 games with the Pirates, Braves and Reds last season, is ready to play 125 games for the Phils this year. Waner said that when he signed with the Phils last winter, he asked that he be used regularly.

"I would rather be out of baseball than ride the bench," said Lloyd.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 6—This is probably the only town where college boxing carries a real tradition, and the folks are finding the Eastern tournament, which starts today, a poor substitute for the old-time Southern conference gathering. That always was old home week for everyone who ever wore a mitt in Southern college fights. Still you can hear some good yarns, such as Bobby Goldstein, the Maryland coach, telling how he became the "highest paid amateur" by collecting $1,400 for a three round scrap against Norman Quarles in Richmond. Then there's the one about the Virginia scrapper whose eyes became crossed when he was belted one. The referee stopped the fight, turned and disarmed the other guy had been knocked cold by a final punch. "They'll tell you, though, that the place he heard some real barbering is at the basketball tournament in Raleigh.

Sideline coaching—

Lon Stiner, who guided the Oregon State football team to the ramble Rose Bowl game, admits that there's one word in Southern that gave instructions better than he could do it. "Against Washington, the Beavers were nursing a 9-6 lead when someone tossed a reckless lateral. Lon beckoned to a boy on the bench. One of the officials who noticed the move asked: "What's the matter, Lon? Afraid of losing your job?" Stiner merely went on instructing the kid to tell the boys to play it safe and stop losing the ball second. The sub dashed on the field, reported and a moment later the whole team burst out laughing. "The coach says," he had shouted, "for you guys to quit throwing his job around."

Today's guest star—

Springer Gibson, Chattanooga Evening Times, Syracuse has signed a couple of Cuban ball players. Looks as if they've planted a fifth column in the Washington Senator offices.

One-minute sports page—

Lieut. Col. (no longer Major) Bob Nayland, who used to teach a fair brand of football at Tennessee, claims that when the war is over he probably will have to learn the game all over again. Cy Young, who spent 22 of his best years pitching major league baseball, will celebrate his 76th birthday anniversary March 29. That 1941 point basketball record Ken Griffin set for his four years ended in 1941 may be beaten any year now. Stis Modzelewski of Rhode Island State has 1,714 points, out in Oregon Ernie Rostock hit 1,601 and Bob Kilbourne of Emory and Henry wound up last week with 1,537. Colorado U., which finished winter football practice only a couple weeks ago, will start spring practice late this month.

Postman's paragraph—

Sam Miller of the Charlotte, N. C. Observer, suggests some praise for the Central high school boxing team there. The kids haven't been locked in 37 straight meets and fought a draw with Staunton Military Academy, which hasn't lost to a high or prep team in 20 years. Seems there should be some praise of Staunton, too.

Service dept—

Terry Fox, former U. of Miami and Philadelphia Eagles, has enlisted in the Marines. He wanted to make the air corps, but found it too tough when they gave him just 30 days to reduce from his normal 216 pounds to 200. The Pensacola naval air base basketballers have been given permission to enter the National A. A. U. tournament at Denver. Naturally they'll fly out for the games.

Ft. Worth Show Boosters Spend The Night Here

Invitation to Big Spring people to visit the Southwestern Exposition and Fair Stock show was voiced in typical Texas fashion Thursday night, as a delegation of 75 Fort Worth business and professional men made a stop here on a circuit of West Texas.

Traveling in two chartered buses, the Fort Worth men arrived Thursday evening to present a brief program on the street, and spent the night here. They left early Friday for San Angelo.

The visitors put on their own program at a dinner at the Settles hotel, for which local arrangements were handled by the American Business club. Bill Allen, co-chairman with Tommie Marrs for the trip, presided, after a welcome from Charles Girdner, and introduced several in the Fort Worth party, including Charles Cotten of the chamber of commerce, John Justin, Charles Galen and Boyce House, newspaper-radio columnist.

Describing new features of the stock show this year, Fort Worth men urged attendance from this section, and invited Big Spring to designate a special day at the exposition.

Hospitals Face A Shortage Of Help

AUSTIN, March 6 (AP)—Due to the war, the salary scale and insecurity in position, the state is experiencing difficulty in obtaining suitable attendance for its system of mental hospitals, according to Weaver Baker, chairman of the board of control.

Currently about 350 mentally ill persons are held in jails, compared with 700 at the start of the year, pending removal to institutions, he said. The transfer was effected despite badly crowded conditions.

Baker also said the board has placed 21 applications with the federal priority officials seeking to start a huge construction program authorized by the last legislature which would provide facilities for 1,200 more patients.

Golden Gloves Champs To Be Named Tonight

CHICAGO, March 6 (AP)—Weeks of campaigning in preliminary eliminations will be climaxed tonight with the naming of champions in the Golden Gloves amateur boxing tournament. Semi-final and final round bouts in each of the eight weight classes will be fought in the Chicago stadium.

Survivors of a starting field of thousands who entered 37 sectional meets in 23 midwestern and southern states, 32 boxers will answer the bell tonight. The field was narrowed to four men in each class by last week's tournament.

Cleveland, Fort Worth and Milwaukee each have four men in the running. Two fighters each will represent Chicago, Fort Wayne, Ind., Kansas City, St. Louis, Sioux Falls, S. D., and Des Moines.

Hopes To Develop Nicholson's Hitting

AVALON, Calif., March 6 (AP)—When Connie Mack gave up on Bill Nicholson as a prospective big leaguer, he threw him in with $25,000 to get outfielder Dee Miles from Chattanooga. Kiki Cuyler, then managing the Lookouts, took Nicholson in hand and by mid-season had sold him to the Cubs for $35,000.

But Cuyler, now a Cub coach, says Nicholson is strictly a fast ball hitter and, after the pitchers hit their stride, Bill is lost. Last season he batted in 81 runs in the last 97 games. Cuyler hopes to do something about that.

Colorado City Boy Gets A Promotion

COLORADO CITY, March 6 (AP)—John McCorkle, stationed with the 42nd bombardment squadron at Hickam Field, Hawaii, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McCorkle.

Stationed at Hickam Field for the past three years, Sergeant McCorkle continues to write enthusiastic letters of his interest in working with planes. He was among those who narrowly escaped injury during the Japanese attack of December 7.

Miners To Start Drills On Mar. 9

EL PASO, March 6 (AP)—Cosch Jack Curtice postponed Texas Mines' spring football practice here for about a week, setting the first roll call for March 9.

Confronted with the wind-up of basketball season prompted the new mentor's decision. Coupled with this was several weeks of bad weather and a weatherman's guarantee of more of the same this week.

"Two linemen and one back are affected by the delay. Les Floyd, a regular on both the hardwoods and the gridiron, Sammie Klink, and Mike Devlin will get in the full 25-day training period now. Meantime the athletes continued to turn "pre-season fat into post season muscle" under Curtice's new physical fitness program. The program is compulsory for athletes and drills them one hour a day, five days a week, in fundamental gymnastics.

Chapter Two YOUNG STRANGERS
Melissa snapped off the light and instantly the blackness swooped over them again. "I'm the light-tender," she told him, and then swiftly, "Are you hurt?"
"No, a woman—in a storm like this. Turn the light on yourself a minute, will you? Why—yourself only a bid—The man passed a shaking hand over his forehead. "Hurt? No—I'm just starved and exhausted—I've been lost in these infernal woods for days—"

"In the light she saw that he was awfully thin, and she ran to him, no longer afraid, offering him her slim, strong shoulder, saying swiftly, "Lean on me—let me help you. The cabin's right close here. I'll get you some food—"

The man muttered something—she wasn't sure what. He was leaning heavily on her, trying not to stagger as he walked. The round white beam of the flashlight falling before them, she helped him to the cabin. A light sprang up in the window before they reached it, and Gran swung open the door as they reached the edge of the porch.

"What's the matter? I saw you stop off there in the woods—sakes alive, what you got there?" she cried anxiously, helping Melissa into the house and closing the door.

"He's been lost in the woods for days—exhausted and starving," Melissa explained swiftly. "Get him a glass of milk, Gran, while I fix him some soup and bread and butter."

The man lifted his head. His dazed eyes opened and he said huskily, "S—s—opened to be s—s—sakes alive," protested Gran as she held a cup of milk to his parched lips, "you ain't the first fellow that ever lost his way in these woods and put' near starved 'fore he was found. Here, drink this while Lis fixes you some soup."

Later, when the man had been fed, when he was wrapped in dry blankets, when his sodden clothes steaming in the light of the open fire where Melissa had piled fresh logs, he smiled at them and said heartily, "I don't know how to tell you what I feel about all this. I never knew that a light could look as good as that one I saw out there—I'd about given up hope."

Melissa had been spreading fresh sheets on the old couch at one side of the room. She turned now, smiling apologetically. "I'm afraid this is the best we can offer you." She indicated the couch. "You see, we don't happen to have a guest-room."

"Lady, the royal suite at the Savoy wouldn't look half as good to me," said the man, and meant it sincerely. "I seem to have forgotten my manners completely. I'm Rand Hendricks—my friends call me Randy."
"I'm Melissa Marlowe," said Melissa quietly. "And this is my grandmother, Mrs. Marlowe."

Randy nodded and looked from one to the other, puzzled a little. "But surely you two don't live here alone in this wilderness," he protested. "Two lone women—"

Gran chuckled drily. "I've lived here for more than sixty years, and Lis was born here," she said promptly. "And there ain't been no men-folks around since her Paw was caught in a cave-in eight year ago. Since then she's tended the lamp herself since my rheumatism got so bad."

Randy looked more puzzled than ever. "Tended the lamp?" he repeated, and looked at the old-fashioned coal-oil lamp on the table, with its shiny tin reflector. "The river lamp at Black Point. I'm a river lightkeeper," Melissa explained.

"A Mississippi lightkeeper?" demanded Rand, in a tone that said no amount of persuasion

Eliminate two trouser suits, vests, cuffs, pocket flaps and possibly even lapels. There will be fewer colors in women's wear and the coat given that flaboyant color and race-track checks will have to do his sartorial strutting in black and darker shades of blue and brown.

(4) Money. The prospects here are too complicated for any one outside the field of economy to forecast with any certainty. If Leon Henderson's price fixing works, if wages and farm prices can be kept from skyrocketing and a couple of dozen more "ifs," there will be more money with less to spend it on. The "more money" probably will be in the hands of formerly unemployed; those (especially skilled machinists and factory workers) who haven't for years been able to work every day; the industrious farmers; given in the hands of those who supply the goods and the pleasure that money CAN buy. But it'll get around. And heaps and heaps of it will go right back to Uncle Sam.

SHOW BOAT CHARLIE

could make him believe it. Melissa laughed, a laugh that lit up her too grave small face and made her red-brown eyes dance a little. "Not a lighthouse keeper—just a light-tender," she answered. "I see that the lamp is kept clean and shining and filled with oil. I light it at dusk and turn it out at dawn and the government pays me ten dollars a month for doing it."

"A Mississippi light-tender," harveled Randy. "I never heard of one before."

"Then how in time d'you suppose the river-pilots navigate if there ain't lights to guide 'em?" demanded Gran tartly, as though she resented even the suggestion that there was anything odd about Melissa's duties. "With Old Al actin' up like he does, rampagin' around, refusin' to keep to the channel that folks cut for him, and diggin' out in all directions for himself? The channel shiftin' every few days—every few hours, sometimes—old Al's a mean, ornery yellow snake."

"Old Al?" Randy repeated, completely bewildered.

"It's what river people call the river out there," said Melissa. "Oh—you mean the Old Man? I've always heard him called Ol' Man River," said Randy.

Melissa smiled again, and her red-brown eyes glowed. "My mother used to sing that," she said simply. "In a show. And she sang 'Make-Believe' and all the others, too—they were the songs she used to sing to me when I was little."

"You aren't bigger than a minute now," said Randy, and there was a curious, almost startled note of tenderness in his voice that made Gran look sharply at him a moment before she said curtly, "High time we were all gettin' some sleep. Hope you'll be comfortable. Mr. Hendricks. Come on, Lis."

"Good night," said Melissa. And something in the eyes of the man brought the color to her cheeks.

Enforced Yisit
By morning the storm had decreased. At breakfast, when Randy rubbed his bewhiskered chin ruefully and apologized for looking like a scarecrow, Gran said almost curtly, "My son's shavin' things are in the kitchen closet on the top shelf if you want to use 'em."

Gratefully Randy accepted them, and when he came back from his fairly successful attempt at shaving with a dull razor and ordinary hand-soap, breakfast was ready. Melissa had gone out to put out the lamp and came in just as they were ready to sit down to the table, which was covered with a neatly scrubbed cheerful yellow oilcloth and set with homely, appetizing, simple food.

The storm had lessened, but there would be no chance of Randy getting away that day. He would have to wait for a passing boat, somebody who would row him to the nearest landing a mile below the point, where he would wait for the next river-steamers. His own boat had broken loose the first night of the storm, and he had set out from his camping place to search for help when he had become lost, and had stumbled much later upon Melissa.

Let's Refine Oil Where It's Found

Oil men are inquiring into the feasibility of taking up some pipelines on duplicated runs and using the pipe in the proposed line to the east coast, in order to conserve the metal.

It is understood on good authority that all pipe available for such use is eight and 10 inches in diameter, which is too small for a transcontinental crude oil transportation line. However, it is big enough for gasoline, and if the growing shortage of tankers due to submarine sinkings makes so tremendous a project imperative, there is no reason why it could not be a gasoline pipe line as well as a crude oil line. On the contrary, there are several reasons why the former would be better.

In the first place, an eight-inch line would carry as much gasoline as one of twice that capacity would hold in the form of crude oil, and gasoline is the thing the easterners need. There is no use of hauling the bulky petroleum all the way across the continent to refine it.

In the second place, it is Texas' interest to build a gasoline pipe line, rather than a crude oil line, if one must be built, because that would keep the refining industry in Texas. In fact, it would increase Texas' refining business, and probably make possible the reopening of some refineries in East Texas that have been closed down.

The oil producing territory is a better place for refineries than the east would carry an important military reason: On the Atlantic seaboard they would be more vulnerable to submarine attacks and air raids.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds—

Cabbage Glamour

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD — There'll be no corn in the Cabbage Patch. Well, not much. Well, not very much. No cabbage, either. I'm always a little surprised by that, though after seeing the movies and reading Alice Hegan Rice's book—long ago—nobody should be surprised.

The Cabbage Patch is still a cabbage-less shanty town, and Mrs. Wiggs and her brood of children, horse, and goats still carry on next door to Miss T. Hazy. Mrs. Wiggs, cheerful soul, still does her washin' and ironin' to keep the family's bodies and rags together, and Miss Hazy, lovelorn seamstress, still decorates her shack with ancient valentines, hearts and pathetic bits of ribbon and lace. Director Ralph Murphy says there's still a Cabbage Patch of sorts outside the late Mrs. Rice's own Louisville, Ky., but Paramount's Cabbage Patch, turn-of-the-century vintage, is "better."

And it is a beautiful set in its way. Decrepit, painless huts with wisps of smoke puffing from stovepipes are ranged around a gully, and dead weeds, leafless trees, pathetic potted geraniums add to the wintry, snowless gloom. The cheer is provided by the people—Fay Bainter's Mrs. Wiggs, Barbara Jo Allen's Miss Hazy, Hugh Herbert's Mr. Stubbins, and the children, Carolyn Lee as Europena, Betty Brewer as Asia, Mary Thomas as Australia, Billy Lee as Jimmy, Carl 'Alfalfa' Switzer as Billy.

Wartime Living Prospects Shape Up

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON—The pattern of wartime living is beginning to shape up.

The future still is too uncertain to make predictions safe but some lines in the picture of things to come for John A. Public are being rapidly sketched in. To consider a few of the most important:

No. 1 on anybody's list must be transportation for it is likely to be the most drastic of all the changes ahead and probably will be felt first. Some here predict the auto and rubber shortages will set a lot of us back on our heels by autumn. That's going to affect home life, social life, recreation, and vacations (train travel might be restricted, too). Getting acquainted with one's close neighbors is likely to become more popular than hiking or peddling across town or to the next village to spend an evening with Bill and Mary. And recreation will be found closer to home than the country club that is ten miles out.

No. 2. Food. There's going to be plenty of it, even if the war drags on, but menus are going to change. Try putting together a meal without using anything that comes in a can (except soups, the supply of which may not be reduced), no spices or condiments that come from the Orient, less sugar (and therefore more sugar substitutes).

No. 3. Clothing. This, too, will be plentiful, but it won't be the same. Silk is out and nylon, too, is soon as present processed stocks are depleted. Cotton and rayon are plentiful. The wool supply is being carefully shepherded. Women's dresses will have fewer frills, gadgets and costume jewelry—or none at all. Male attire may undergo drastic changes.

Eliminate two trouser suits, vests, cuffs, pocket flaps and possibly even lapels. There will be fewer colors in women's wear and the coat given that flaboyant color and race-track checks will have to do his sartorial strutting in black and darker shades of blue and brown.

(4) Money. The prospects here are too complicated for any one outside the field of economy to forecast with any certainty. If Leon Henderson's price fixing works, if wages and farm prices can be kept from skyrocketing and a couple of dozen more "ifs," there will be more money with less to spend it on. The "more money" probably will be in the hands of formerly unemployed; those (especially skilled machinists and factory workers) who haven't for years been able to work every day; the industrious farmers; given in the hands of those who supply the goods and the pleasure that money CAN buy. But it'll get around. And heaps and heaps of it will go right back to Uncle Sam.

General Revenue Fund Shows Gain

AUSTIN, March 6 (AP)—The deficit in the general revenue fund declared slightly in the last two weeks, State Treasurer Jesse James reported today.

It stood at $29,338,782, a drop of $27,363 from Feb. 20.

However, it was up about $3,600,000 compared with a year ago.

Rev. Henson To Continue Sermons Here

"Un-American Activities in Big Spring" will be the subject for the sermon of the Rev. Elmer D. Henson, who is leading in a revival meeting at the First Christian church. Thursday evening he spoke on "Witnessing for Christ."

"Jesus had an abiding faith in those who were, and who were to become His followers," he said. "To those who were with Him in the day of Ascension He said 'Ye shall be my witnesses.' ... Across the centuries come those words, today whispering to every follower of Him ... If the world is to see me, they will see me in your character, in your ideals, in your program of life."

"The question 'Sir, we would see Jesus,' becomes the question of the world today. Many times we have shown Him in such a way that the world would rather not have Him. Russia wanted to see Jesus, and the Greek church showed them pomp and ceremony. They wanted to see his righteousness and they showed them political power. They wanted to see his love and they showed them hate. Russia became atheistic, not because Russia wanted to be, but because the Christ and church that was revealed was so distorted and crooked that they said 'If that is Christianity, we want none of it.'"

The Rev. Henson said "we witness for Christ today by our (active) faith in Him, loyalty to Him, by bearing fruit of redemption, by our stewardship."

Tax Bill A Shock To New Payers, But Most Are Agreeable About It

Furrowed brows, yet a generally cheerful outlook, is evidenced by the greater number of the vast legion of new income tax payers, according to local accounts who are serving as tax consultants this year.

They report that taxpayers—new and old—are quite often visibly shocked by the total bill they find themselves owing Uncle Sam, but that most of them, rebound after a brief oath to remark that they are "glad they are able to pay and glad to do that little bit in the war."

Many have been heard to remark that the stiffest tax bill represents a small sacrifice as compared to those being made by the boys on Bataan and Java.

Others, remembering well the days of 1930-35 when $1,500 per year would have looked like a million to them, add that they are glad to make enough money to be in the income tax paying class.

Principal pinch of the next tax, according to one consultant, is coming for those people who have entered the business world more or less recently on borrowed money and face the obligation of heavy repayments to their creditors. In other words, their incomes are good, but a large portion of them go to repay loans, leaving a smaller portion for living expenses, from which must be subtracted a sizeable tax bill. In one such instance a man with a good business figured he would have only $85 per month left to live on.

Paris Plants Turning Out More For Hitler Than They Were For France

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—British bombers in their devastating raid on Paris were blasting at factories turning out war material for Germany at possibly three times the rate they had worked for the French, informed American industrialists said today.

They based their estimates not so much on the unknown present capacity of the huge French motor, aircraft and munitions works as on the hours operated.

Many French factories, they said, worked only 40 to 45 hours a week up to a few weeks before France fell.

Guy La Chambre, former French air minister, testified in the Riom war guilt trial this week that extensions of the work week from 40 to 45 hours was used by some managements to cut down personnel instead of to increase production.

The American production men said, however, that during the final desperate effort to save France, the men "went to work like insane people," working 24 hours a day and until they dropped—but it was too late.

German managers, they asserted, unquestionably have stepped French factories up to as near 24 hours a day and seven days a week as possible, while expansion started by the French has been continued under the invaders.

One Frenchman, whose plant at Paris turned out planes for more than a decade up to June, 1940, said Germany now was getting more than 25 per cent of her trucks from France and comparable amounts of planes, tanks and guns.

Hogs 1.90; steady to 15 lower than Thursday's average; top 13.25; 13.25; good and choice 180-280 lb. averages to shippers and city butchers 13.15-15; good butchers at 13.00; good and choice 150-175 lb. weights 12.00-15.00; packing sows and pigs steady; packing sows 11.50-12.00; stocker pigs 9.00-10.00.

Sheep 2.00; shorn lambs steady, other killing classes scarce; shorn lambs 9.00-25; remainder supply mostly mixed grades unsold.

Charge Of 'Price-Hiking' Is Scored By Farm Bureau Man

T. R. Haggard, Westbrook farmer and alternate district director in the Texas Farm Bureau federation, defended farmers against accusations of price-hiking Thursday afternoon at the closing session of a district farm bureau meeting here.

Retort that farmers are seeking only a fair price for their products and an elevation of the farming class of people from poverty. Haggard scored a recent editorial in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram which accused farmers of instigating a "billion dollar bill rise." "And at the very same time," Haggard asserted, "that newspaper was advancing its subscription price from $5 to $12 per year."

Haggard said that agriculture has been donating its products to the consuming public for a low return, and that this ought not continue. "They say we are biting the hand that feeds us," the speaker said. "But what I want to know is, who feeds this country, Washington or the farmer?"

In concluding the meeting representatives of the various counties in the district pledged to more than fill their quotas of new members for the bureau within the next few weeks.

Howard county delegates pledged to obtain 500 members for 1942. Fisher pledged 500, Mitchell 300 to 500, and Scurry 200. Reports have not been made by several other counties.

Don't Take Dirt From Public Road

It is that time of year again. Town folks are hauling dirt for their lawns, and county commissioners are expecting to see in-roads made along the borrow ditches of county roads.

With this in view, the commissioners and County Judge Walton Morrison have issued a request that dirt not be removed within the right of way of any public road. Of course, prosecution can be made of any person who insists on doing so.

Landowners will allow dirt haulers to get dirt from their farms, for a cost that likely will run only a few cents for the average lawn.

Legion Auxiliary To Sponsor Sale Of Easter Seals

The American Legion auxiliary will sponsor the annual Easter Seal sale for crippled children, it was announced here today.

Mrs. L. E. Jobe, who has headed the drive since it was first staged here several years ago, will again serve as chairman.

Mrs. E. W. Anderson, who also has served as treasurer since the first drive, will continue in her capacity.

Proceeds from sale of the stamps is used to finance treatment and rehabilitation of crippled children, both locally and on a state-wide basis. In former years, the sale has enjoyed an increasing support here.

Here And There

This time firemen didn't get to ride the elevator. Another mattress caught fire in one of the rooms of the Settles hotel last night, but occupants threw it out the window before firemen had a chance to go up and get it. So they just extinguished the blazing bit of bedding in the alley.

Maxine Davis, 16, decided she would leave her home in Watonga, Okla. But when she got here, the stop sign was out, and Friday she waited at the city hall for folks from home to come after her.

The Rev. George M. Hank, pastor of the Mexican Baptist church, has announced he wants to give his services to those who wish to learn Spanish, Italian or German. If as many persons interested in any one language contact him at the mission, a class can be started.

A letter mailed out to some 200 prospective members of the chamber—or more nearly to that many—persons chamber leaders felt should be invited to become members—is getting response. Intended as the opening move in the membership drive set for next week, the letter already has brought in three memberships.

Men enlisting in the Army now may be eligible to enlist in the reserve officers training school within 90 days, Sgt. Troy Gibson said Friday.

Rotary And Lions Plan Golf Tourney

The Rotary club will tangle with the Lions club in the first round of the service club golf league here next week, it was announced Friday.

At the same time, the Kiwanis and ABC club golfers will be scrapping it out. Individual matches are being made now and may be played on either course.

In the first rounds, matching will be by appraisal of relative strength as players, but later may be on a handicap basis.

Texas Projects Get Approval

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Continuation of construction on the $54,000,000 Red river dam near Denison and improvements on the Sabine-Neches waterway and Buffalo Bayou were the principal Texas items contained in the war department civil functions appropriation bill introduced today in the House.

House appropriations subcommittee hearings on the measure showed that Army engineers contemplated an expenditure of $11,000,000 during the 1943 fiscal year, beginning July 1, on Denison dam, leaving an estimated balance of $15,800,000 still to be appropriated to complete the job.

The only Texas project among those of a strictly navigation category was that for improvements to the Sabine-Neches channel at a cost of $1,475,000. It was recommended by Army engineers for inclusion in a lump sum of $20,629,000 approved by the budget bureau for national defense navigation undertakings.

The Denison dam and Buffalo Bayou projects were included in an item for flood control works.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, March 6 (AP)—Cotton futures declined here today under hedge selling and long liquidation. The market closed steady 6 points net lower.

Wool Warehouse Swept By Blaze

BOSTON, March 6 (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin swept through the six story National Wool Marketing Corporation storage plant—housing 1,500,000 pounds of wool—today, but company officials said that most of the clip could be salvaged and the loss would be comparatively low.

David Judd, treasurer of the corporation, said the damage was confined mostly to wool stored on the first and top floors. He estimated the value of the stored wool, all owned by the corporation, at $800,000 and indicated it would be several hours before the actual damage could be determined.

Citations Issued For Pearl Harbor Attack

TOKYO (From Japanese broadcast), March 6 (AP)—An account of the Dec. 7 penetration of Pearl Harbor and assault on United States warships there by a "special attack flotilla" was issued today by Japanese imperial headquarters.

This was in the form of citations and after-death promotion by two ranks of nine of the flotilla officers.

(The context of the broadcast, not entirely received on account of static interference, suggested that the "special attack flotilla" was made up of one-man submarines.)

PHILLIPS 66 POLY GAS

LIFE SAVER FOR Cold Weather Starting

Are you all at sea about what to do when your motor suddenly refuses to start because the temperature is low?

Here's the answer: Just fill the tank with Phillips 66 Poly Gas. That's the quick, easy way to find out what a difference High Test makes.

A touch of the starter, and your engine rolls into action with split-second speed. It's got to, because any engine in good mechanical condition will start provided the gasoline in the tank is "hot" enough.

And Phillips 66 Poly Gas is extra hot ... without a penny of extra cost!

Try a tankful. Compare. See if Phillips 66 Poly Gas doesn't give you just about the fastest cold-weather starting, and the finest cold-weather performance, you have ever enjoyed.

Remember, the Orange and Black 66 Shield is High Test Headquarters for car owners ... because Phillips is the WORLD'S LARGEST PRODUCER of natural High Test Gasoline.
