Bond Drive Past Initial $100,000

Big Spring and Howard county had taken the first $100,000 stride toward reaching the Fourth War Loan quota of $1,350,000, including $453,000 in series E bonds, a survey of issuing agencies showed Thursday.

The total sales through Wednesday amounted to $108,241.75. How much of this was series E bonds was not known, but leaders were confident that the bulk of it had been bought by individuals.

Louisiana Vote May Place Foes In Top Posts

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 20 (AP)—

Election of a governor backed by the current "reform administration," and a lieutenant governor, who has made no bones about his desire to return the state to "the liberal regime it enjoyed under my brother Huey P. Long," appeared likely in Louisiana today. On the basis of late unofficial returns from 1,008 of 1,867 precincts in Louisiana, the democratic primary, James "Jimmie" Davis of Shreveport topped the old regulars' elderly Lewis L. Morgan by 7,633 votes in the governor's race. Earl K. Long, old regular candidate, led his nearest rival, Emile Verret of New Iberia, by 35,726 for lieutenant governor.

The irony of Davis and Long as possible capitol team-mates is illustrated by a home-stretch stump of Long's in which he said Songwriter-actor Davis "would make a fine governor, what with spending half his time in Hollywood playing in movies."

The governor's count gave Davis 94,516 votes; Morgan 86,833; United States Representative James H. Morrison 33,570; Mayor Sam S. Caldwell of Shreveport 19,723; State Senator Dudley J. Leblanc 15,402; State Senator Ernest Clements 7,189; Vincent Moseley, Opelousas attorney, 3,838; and Lee Lanier, Amite newspaper publisher, 1,102.

Lieutenant governor figures for 952 of 1,867 precincts gave Long 100,595; Verret (Davis ticket) 64,869; and Frank Ellis (Caldwell ticket) 51,041. Gladden Harrison of Shreveport, Sam Tennant of New Orleans and Carl T. Jeanson of New Orleans trailed far behind with respective votes of 9,902 and 4,265 and 2,854.

Among changes revealed by the latest tabulation was the climb of incumbent A. P. Tagwell to a position above that of the old regulars' John B. Daigle of Lake Charles in the state treasurer contest. Tagwell came from well behind to poll 67,802 to Daigle's 61,543 in 777 precincts.

Other incumbents apparently succeeding in their bids to retain office include Harry D. Wilson of Amite, commissioner of agriculture and Lucille May Grace, registrar of state lands. Each is opposed by but one rival; each has more than doubled the vote of the opposition.

Old timers faring wanly in comeback tries today were Attorney General Eugene Stanley and Secretary of State James A. Gremlion. Stanley trailed State Senator Joseph T. Cawthorn and Fred S. Leblanc, Baton Rouge mayor. Gremlion needed more than 11,000 votes to overhaul Wade O. Martin, Jr., of Baton Rouge.

Distillers Scored By Head Of WCTU

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—The president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union told a special senate committee that distillers would use wheat as well as corn to make alcoholic beverages while the world "is hungry for bread" and that egg nog had been marketed through department stores as "one more trap to get women to drinking."

Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith dabbed a handkerchief several times at her moist eyes as she directed the most and other charges at the liquor interests. The committee, headed by Senator Van Nuys (D-Ind.), is investigating conditions in the liquor business.

Man Found Dead On Lubbock Street

LUBBOCK, Jan. 20 (AP)—The body of Marvin C. Berry, 44, was found here early today near a street intersection, where he had apparently been struck by a car. His body was discovered by First Sgt. Samuel B. Morris. Police are investigating the death. Berry's widow survives.

Jap Resistance Collapse Seen For New Guinea

Stimson States That Allied Troops Are Advancing In Pacific

By WILLIAM FRYE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—An indication that Japanese resistance may be collapsing in northern New Guinea was reported today by Secretary of War Stimson, who said that Allied troops were making steady progress throughout the Southwest Pacific.

In northern New Guinea, Australian veterans have captured Sio and advanced beyond Vincke Point, and Australian and American troops are squeezing Japanese forces in the vicinity of Sidor.

"There are indications that some of the Japanese are trying to escape by barge at night," Stimson said. "Several troop-laden enemy barges have been sunk by our aircraft and light naval vessels."

In New Britain, Allied troops are constantly enlarging their beach heads, the secretary reported. He said that in the Cape Gloucester area 3,100 Japanese dead have been counted, against American losses of 235 killed and 694 wounded.

Stimson noted that several large enemy ships have been sunk in the Southwest Pacific recently, and scores of Japanese planes shot down. However, there are indications that the Japanese are reinforcing their air strength in this area, and becoming more aggressive in the air.

His discussion of Southwest Pacific operations was included in a review of the past week's developments on all fronts, given out at a press conference.

Sewer Contracts To Be Ready Soon

J. W. Lippert, member of the firm of Lippert Bros., successful low bidder on the city's sewer plant extension project, will return here the first part of next week with bonds in order to close out the contract.

In the meantime, John C. Fleming, engineer for the contractors, is on the ground making preparations for start of the job.

Lippert Bros., experienced sewer plant builders, were $10,000 under the nearest bidder Wednesday with a bid of $124,800. This was about 10 per cent more than had been originally estimated for the project. The army is participating through payment of a little less than half of the job cost.

Marriages And Births Increase Here In '43

Both marriages and births increased in Howard county in 1943, vital statistics records in the county clerk's office show.

A total of 819 births were recorded in 1943, an increase of 215 over the number in 1942.

Of babies born in 1943, 433 were boys, nearly 53 per cent, and 386 were girls.

Cupid scored in 115 more romances in 1943 than in 1942. The number of marriage certificates issued last year was 572 and in 1942 467.

Rayburn Calls For Postwar Program

CHICAGO, Jan. 20 (AP)—Admiring that "if we bungle the postwar job" some people will renew demands for centralization of government, Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) announced to the United States conference of mayors today he would appoint next week a bi-partisan committee of the house to frame legislation for a peacetime prosperity.

The speaker, mentioned prominently by his democratic colleagues for the party's vice-presidential nomination, declared:

"If we allow the spectre of depression to rise once more, then the people will eventually turn again to a strong centralized government. We might as well face it; that is what they will demand. It may be five years hence, but it will happen."

"What then? Will the American people be so fortunate to find another man as great, as democratic-minded, as Franklin D. Roosevelt to lead them through the crisis? Or will the 'man on the horse,' the

Long Siege Doomed, Britons Are Warned

Drive On Leningrad Threatens To Trap 250,000 Germans

LONDON, Jan. 20 (AP)—Marshal Joseph Stalin announced in an order of the day today the capture of city of Novgorod at the northern tip of Lake Ilmen in the sixth day of the Russians' Leningrad offensive. Novgorod had been the lower per of German defenses in the Leningrad area. It is approximately 200 miles southeast of Leningrad.

The administration absorbed a preliminary setback yesterday when the banking committee approved a bill by Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) to liquidate the present subsidy system by June 30, but the measure faces a flood of amendments from the floor to cancel and modify the ban.

Democratic leader Barkley (Ky.) said start of debate on the legislation is contingent on disposing of the revenue bill by tomorrow.

Prospects were that administration leaders would throw their weight behind an amendment by Senator Maloney (D-Conn.) to strike out the subsidy repeal section of the Bankhead bill—similarly to the ban voted overwhelmingly by the house two months ago—and substitute a provision giving the commodity credit corporation and other federal agencies authority to spend up to $1,500,000,000 for food price stabilization in 1944.

The crash was several miles from Kilgore.

Administration Girds For Last Subsidy Fight

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—Administration forces girded for a last-ditch fight to save President Roosevelt's $1,500,000,000 food price subsidy program as the opening of senate debate was tentatively for tomorrow.

The administration absorbed a preliminary setback yesterday when the banking committee approved a bill by Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) to liquidate the present subsidy system by June 30, but the measure faces a flood of amendments from the floor to cancel and modify the ban.

Democratic leader Barkley (Ky.) said start of debate on the legislation is contingent on disposing of the revenue bill by tomorrow.

False Peace-Talk Should Be Guarded Against In England

LONDON, Jan. 20 (AP)—Britons were warned today to be on guard against a wave of insidious peace-talk propaganda inspired by the Germans as rumors printed earlier in the week by Pravda continued to have repercussions in both London and Moscow.

The warning, voiced by the London press, coincided with a similar admonition by the Moscow magazine "War and the Working Class," which called for cleansing of the political atmosphere from "poisonous gases" spread by the Nazis in an effort to split the Allies.

The Soviet publication declared that recent Moscow and Teheran conferences had foredoomed German attempts to sow disunion, but added that "the peoples of the countries allied with us and their responsible leaders must understand the efforts being made by Nazi elements."

The article appeared on its face to be an attempt to dispel the impression created by the communist organ Pravda, which on Monday published a rumor that the British had secretly been discussing possible peace terms with German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop.

Although the rumor was denied immediately by the British foreign office, a dispatch from Associated Press Correspondent Eddy Gilmore in Moscow last night said the relationship between Russia and her allies—Britain and the United States—was the biggest single topic of conversation in the Soviet capital.

"The subject has the whole town jittery," Gilmore wrote.

He said the Pravda rumor had developed into the biggest political news in Russia since the beginning of the war, excepting perhaps the Teheran conference, and that foreign observers were disturbed by the situation—chiefly because they did not know what to make of it.

Russian newspapers have informed their readers of the British denial of the Pravda rumor, but the Soviet government has remained silent.

Jap Counterattacks In Burma Stopped

NEW DELHI, Jan. 20 (AP)—Allied forces holding new advance positions on the Arakan front of western Burma have fought off Japanese counter-attacks again, a Southeast Asia communique said today.

In Northern Burma, Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's American-trained Chinese troops continued their eastward advance along the route of the New Ledo highway by capturing the enemy-held village of Guma, in the Hukwang valley, and pushing on across the Tanai river.

EDDA TAKES A POWDER

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 20 (AP)—Countess Edda Ciano, daughter of Benito Mussolini, was reported today to have taken refuge in a neutral country, presumably Switzerland, following the execution of her husband, Count Galeazzo Ciano.

Americans Take Three Villages In New Advance

By EDWARD KENNEDY
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGIERS, Jan. 20 (AP)—The American Fifth army in Italy enlarged its bridgeheads above the Garigliano river to a depth of two miles in places today after capturing three villages. In addition the Germans broadcast that they had abandoned Minturno, stronghold alongside the Apian Way.

A headquarters announcement said that British troops of the Fifth army had enveloped the villages of Argento, Tufo and Suio—the capture of Tufo carrying the thrust across the Apian Way itself—and that the battle for Minturno was under way. Later Berlin said the town had been evacuated.

Minturno lies 76 air miles from Rome, near the ancient highway that leads into the capital city.

German opposition was reported severe all along the front of at least seven miles where the British began their drive with a night attack Monday.

In the area north of Cassino, now under fire of American artillery, Yank patrols again crossed the Rapido river to probe out German defenses there. Still farther inland French troops of the Fifth army made contact with the enemy, but no details were announced.

The British crossing of the Garigliano, the first action on this sector in two months, was achieved under cover of a smoke screen, and was supported by an amphibious operation in which some troops were moved by sea to a point on the Tyrrhenian coast just above the river's mouth.

Suio, seven miles inland from the coast, and Argento, almost on the stream. Two of the three bridgeheads won by the British advance early Monday night were forced across the river at these points.

Following up the successful blocking of the major rail routes from the north into Rome by air bombardment, Allied heavy and medium bombers yesterday struck directly at a chain of airfields in the vicinity of the Italian capital itself.

Ten New Chamber Directors Named

Election of 10 new members of the board of directors was announced Thursday at the chamber of commerce.

Selection by the membership from a list of 30 nominees were Merle Stewart, Cal Boyin, W. C. Blankenship, Lawrence Robinson, W. L. Mead, Walker Bailey, James Little, Cecil Westerman, Marion Edwards, Arthur Woodall.

These men will meet with members of the old board Monday to appoint five additional directors. Chamber members interested in submitting nominations for these posts are asked to convey their desires to members of the board.

The 10 directors elected by the membership and the five appointed by the board will be installed at the chamber's annual banquet the evening of Feb. 8.

Stevenson Stands Firm On Session

AUSTIN, Jan. 20 (AP)—Governor Coke R. Stevenson today reiterated his opposition to calling a special session of the legislature to release poll tax payments for Texans in the armed forces.

Returning from Dallas where he publicly expressed opposition on grounds the constitution prohibits waiving the poll tax in a special session the governor said "I am going to follow the constitution as I believe it to be."

A poll of members originated by a group of representatives and senators showed at last count that 100 house members and 22 senators favored a session. Thirteen house members made conditional affirmative votes and three opposed the idea.

Sweetwater Put Under Rent Control Set-Up

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—The Office of Price Administration announced today that rent control will be extended February 1 to residential properties in five new defense rental areas.

Among the five new areas are Lockhart, Tex., including justice precincts 1, 6 and 7 in Caldwell county; and Sweetwater, Tex., including Nolan county.

In the Lockhart area, no higher rent can be charged than that of January 1, 1943. In the other areas, rents will be frozen as of March 1, 1943.

Union Leaders Bury Hatchet At Secret Meeting

By JOSEPHUS A. LOFTUS

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 20 (AP)—After an eight-year estrangement, John L. Lewis and AFL President William Green have met secretly on the question of readmitting Lewis' United Mine Workers to the AFL, it can be revealed today.

Green and Lewis parted company when Lewis founded the CIO in 1935. The break was confirmed a year or so later when Lewis had Green expelled from their speaking terms. After that, their speaking terms were official at long range.

The ultimate results, and the details of their meeting remain to be disclosed. It can not be called a reconciliation, at least not yet. Green refuses to discuss it. This much is known: The meeting was held in Washington recently, strictly on an off-the-record basis. The conference was not sought by Green. It was proposed either by Lewis or by an AFL intermediary who was interested in expediting the return of Lewis to the federation. It is but one evidence of great pressure being brought to bear in Lewis' favor, not only by his friends on the AFL executive council, but by leaders of AFL unions who are pressuring the council.

Lewis, of course, can get back into the federation operation on the federation's terms. The only question is whether he comes back on his own terms. These are: "Take me as I am; I take you as you are." It means that the jurisdictional issues of the UMW's sprawling District 50 would be negotiated only after Lewis was readmitted and became a party to the negotiations on the inside.

The language of the AFL constitution and of the convention resolution which empowered the executive council to act finally is strongly weighted against Lewis' terms, but the pressure in his favor is so great that the result hangs in the balance.

Manager Urges Less Water Use

Hopes of early action on an application for securing a supplemental water supply for Big Spring must not be allowed to produce a sense of security over the general situation in the minds of consumers, B. J. McDaniel, city manager, asserted Thursday.

"The blunt truth is that we will run out of water if the present increase in consumption is not halted," he declared.

Daily consumption now is up to about 1,600,000 gallons. This is about 100,000 gallons above the November average and 125,000 daily above the December average.

Even if there is exceptionally fast action on the part of the Federal Works Agency in developing an additional water supply for Big Spring, it is doubtful that the new sources could be laid into the city inside of four months. During that time the present well supplies must be relied upon to furnish the municipality, the manager pointed out.

He renewed appeals to cease car washing. "About 80 per cent of the stations had returned to this practice," he said, "and many individuals have been washing cars at home in the wake of recent bad weather. We must make a choice . . . whether we want glossy cars or drinking water."

Blast Hurts Sixteen

HOUSTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—Ten Brown Shipbuilding Corporation workers injured in an explosion at the yard late yesterday still were in hospitals today, including four reported in a serious condition. Sixteen workers received burns and other injuries when a gas explosion occurred in a men's wash-room adjoining a pipe shop.

Judge James T. Brooks Is Guest Speaker At Central Ward Meeting

Parents and teachers met at Central Ward school Wednesday afternoon for a regular monthly P.T.A. business session and program highlighted by a talk given by Judge James T. Brooks. His subject was "Old Fashioned Thrift For The Family."

Mrs. Larson Lloyd, unit president, called the meeting to order and Mrs. Wayne Pearce, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Fred Schmidt who sang two songs. In his talk, Judge Brooks stated that more money has been made accidentally than was made purposely years ago. "With the machine age came extravagance," he stated, "and parents' indulgence for children is too great. Thrift must begin at home and should not be left to state welfare work. He said that old fashioned thrift would be needed after the war, but that now is the time for parents to feel their patriotic duty to practice and teach their children thrift."

Mrs. H. G. Keaton, unit secretary read the minutes and Mrs. J. C. Lane, council representative, gave a report on the P.T.A. council.

During the business session, members volunteered for service at one of the bond booths, and Dean Bennett suggested that project money in the P.T.A. fund be used to purchase books for the school library. The group voted to spend $100 for books which will be distributed in the various class rooms.

A printing set was bought for the lower grades, and it was announced that war stamps amounting to $389 has been bought by students.

Members were urged to attend the educational movie on tuberculosis which will be shown at the school Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Mrs. Ann Fisher, county health nurse.

Room count went to Mrs. James Fowler's class and those attending were Mrs. Jack Rutledge, Mrs. Bob Wren, Mrs. James Wilcox, Mrs. Fred Lancaster, Mrs. Lee Jenkins, Dan Conley, Mrs. R. H. ## Army Dog, Master To Get Discharges

BRIGHAM, Utah (AP)—Oahu, named after the island in the Hawaiian and a veteran of World War II, soon will receive an honorable discharge from the Army's Bushnell general hospital near Brigham. The little fox terrier dog will get her discharge certificate at the same time her owner, Pvt. Rudolph "Slim" Kropaczek of Rahway, N. J., obtains his.

When Kropaczek found her on the island, she became the company mascot and transferred with it to Canton Island, riding in a barracks bag. She learned to run into a foxhole when Jap bombers appeared.

The little terrier once flew to Australia in an army bomber and later, with Slim, was forced down at sea when the plane's motor failed. They were rescued by a destroyer.

Dog-Siren Duet Via Long Distance

NICKERSON, Kas. (AP)—Harold McFarland, a Nickerson lad now in the navy, telephoned home from New York to chat with his mother, Mrs. Merle McFarland.

While he was talking the Nickerson town siren wailed and Popeye, the dog that McFarland left behind, began to howl, as was his custom.

"That's Popeye," said McFarland. "Just let me listen, mom."

And so, over an expensive telephone hookup, the Kansas boy listened to Popeye and the siren howl.

Longhorns Defeat Bears In An Easy Cage Battle Wed.

By The Associated Press
The University of Texas Longhorns added an easy one to their long, untarnished record of victories when they trounced the Baylor Bears, 54 to 29, in Waco last night (Wed.) while four games were on tap for Southwest conference fans for the crowded weekend.

Southwestern Methodist's high-ranking Mustangs were scheduled to go through one more workout today before entraining for Fayetteville, Ark., where they will attempt to edge ahead of the power Baylor Bears for a second place spot in the conference standings. They play in the Arkansas gymnasium tomorrow and Saturday nights. Both teams have lost one game each, but Arkansas has won three and SMU two.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Jan. 20 (AP)—Following up Prevy Abe Greene's recent blast at Sammy Angott and Beau Jack for not having at least one of their world lightweight titles on the line in their fight here next week, Col. Heintz Miller, executive secretary of the National Boxing Association today pointed the finger at the promoters for staging such affairs. . . . The colonel wisely figures that the customers can't be blamed for going to see a good scrap even if there is something ridiculous about the situation. . . . It seems from here that the N.B.A. has a remedy in a simple declarative sentence: "The N.B.A. will consider this as a championship bout. . . . It might be a technical violation of the rules, but they're natural lightweight and once they knew the title would be at stake, regardless of weights, the promoters, managers, etc. would get busy and make it a real championship fight."

No. Of Players May Mean Winner Of 1944 Pennant

NEW YORK, Jan. 20 (AP)—If there's safety in numbers—and some of baseball's best minds figure that mere numerical strength may have an important bearing on the 1944 pennant races

—you may be hearing a lot about the two Chicago clubs, the Cincinnati Reds and Washington Senators before the 1944 season ends. The way the "brains" reason, the clubs controlling the greatest numbers of players will have the best chances of securing replacements when their regulars go marching off to the war. And judging from what's happened since last October plenty of them will go.

Right now, the Cubs, with 36 players on the active list, and the White Sox, with 35, are the best fixed. Washington, with 32 players now available, expects to fill its roster to the limit of 40 men before spring training starts and the Reds plan four additions to the 30 now listed.

As Washington's Clark Griffith pointed out, this year's squads differ from the usual spring training groups in that they're composed largely of slowed-down veterans and untired rookies. In years past, most clubs filled their camps with the 40 men they are allowed under contract, plus a lot of minor leaguers who came in for trials. Only a few could reach that top mark last year.

Most of the clubs would be glad to try out promising youngsters, but Brooklyn's Branch Rickey remarked: "Not many are the kind to take to a major league camp. Even some of the men we have now aren't too hot."

Ski Champion Is Graduated From AAFBS

ART DELVIN
Lieut. Art Delvin, the national ski champ, is ready for some new and record jumps—but this time over enemy territory.

The unassuming 21-year-old Lake Placid, N. Y. youth, a member of Class 44-1, was commissioned a second lieutenant and given his bombardier wings Saturday at the Big Spring Bombardier School. He has his new assignment, which, of course, cannot be announced.

Delvin believes that a 400 foot ski jump is a possibility and that he may be the man to make it. "All they've got to do is make the hill big enough," he said, "and make the take-off long enough and steep enough so he could pick up speed of about 80 miles an hour."

He added that a skier in Switzerland once was clocked at 88 miles an hour in a special downhill sprint, and that he himself had been clocked at 74 miles an hour at the point of take-off in a Seattle, Wash. sprint.

He won the national championship at Duluth, Minn., on Feb. 5, 1942, with leaps of 198 and 204 feet, which were by no means his best since the hill at Duluth is small. Because the event has been suspended for the duration, Art may land the distinction of having held the championship longer than anyone else. He also holds the eastern collegiate, New York Roosevelt, Lake Placid and Rocky Mountain championships. His best jump was in 1942 at Iron Mountain, Mont. when he had a flight of 288 feet. This was a foot behind Norway's Torger Tokle and well behind the European ski-jump record of 351 feet.

Delvin is self-taught, having been on skis since he was four years old. His first jump, at age of 12, was for 100 feet. The only broken bones of his career were received from practicing on pine needles one summer and from playing baseball with some girls. His championship career was interrupted after one year at Syracuse university by enlistment.

Ags Plan To Build Champ Track Squad

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 20 (AP)—Only one letterman returned, but Texas A. and M. College hopes to build, from the ground up, track and field team that will repeat as Southwest conference champions.

And, Coach Lil Dimmitt announced last night, the schedule this year will include the Border Olympics at Laredo, the Southwest Exposition meet in Fort Worth and meets with the University of Texas and Rice Institute. Unless some outstanding performers develop, however, the Aggies will not participate in the Drake relays or other midwestern meets, Coach Dimmitt declared.

The lone letterman to return to the Aggie fold is Steve King, jumper and pole vaulter.

Identification May Be Needed For Drink

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 20 (AP)—"You can't get a drink without an identification card" may soon be the slogan of Minneapolis bartenders—at least as far as what they call the "doubtful age group" is concerned.

A card system under which persons between 21 and 28 would be asked to register and obtain identification cards is the keystone of a plan being set up, administered and financed, by Minneapolis tavern owners to help authorities fight the rising tide of juvenile delinquency. Organizers believe it is the first of its kind in the nation.

Tris Speaker Dubious About Major Leagues

CLEVELAND, Jan. 20 (AP)—Tris Speaker, one of the original electees to baseball's hall of fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., is doubtful about the major leagues' ability to operate this year.

Now a member of a local draft board, the famed Gray Eagle says he "would like to see baseball go on and if it can overcome the manpower handicaps more power to it. But I'll have to be shown."

Speaker doesn't want anyone to deduce from his statement that he's lost his enthusiasm for the game. But he's pessimistic about the coming season.

"They played last year with a lot of 3-A's and a few 4-F's," he explains. "This year there won't be any 3-A's. The boys will either be 1-A or they'll be given 2-A or 2-B deferments because of jobs contributing to the war effort. If they leave those jobs to play ball they'll be 1-A so quick it'll make 'em dizzy."

San Angelo School Pays Tribute To Its Grid Champs

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 20 (AP)—The San Angelo school board yesterday paid tribute to their state football champions, all of whom soon will be on Uncle Sam's team as fighters for Old Glory.

After the team had gone on record as favoring the placing of the bulk of its 1943 profits in war bonds, the school board approved the purchase of $15,000 worth.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or uneasy urination with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pain, leg pain, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Bouquets And Blows Dealt At Pua Dinner

NEW YORK, Jan. 20 (AP)—Boxing began to count noses today after one of its biggest stock-taking jobs, and the score card showed praise for the nose-mashing industry as the "place where democracy works best" and a warning that it's time to get "politics out of the fight game."

These bouquets and belts-in-the-eye were tossed around last night by a collection of such experts as former Mayor Jimmy Walker, National Boxing Association President Abe Greene and Ring magazine publisher Nat Fleischer. The tossing was done at the annual award dinner of the Boxing Writers Association of New York, at which the Edward J. Neil memorial plaque was presented to the 4,100 boxers in the armed forces in appreciation of what they've done for the sport of smashing snouts.

Greene and Fleischer both pleaded to have control of the sport free from politics. Fleischer, after receiving an award from the boxing writers for long service to the sport, reviewed recent appointments to the New York State athletic commission and maintained that governing bodies should include men who know boxing and not men named to commissions "merely because of their political significance."

Both he and Greene suggested that one way to iron out this matter would be to have regular boxing writers—"men with practical experience"—named to every boxing commission in the country.

ROLLS PERFECT GAME
CLEVELAND, Jan. 20 (AP)—Marge Slogar, 30-year-old war worker, bowled a perfect game in league competition last night, the third woman to roll 300 in the United States this season.

Apricots Flavor New Meat Loaf

Apricot Upside Down Meat Loaf is a new version of a popular dish. Smoked ham, beef and pork are suggested in the recipe, but any combination of meats may be used. If ham is omitted, add salt to taste. You'll find the tartness of the apricots emphasizes the fine meat flavor of this unusual Meat Loaf. For 8-10 servings:

- 1 pound ground smoked ham
- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 pound ground fresh pork
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup cold water
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup crushed corn flakes
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 2 teaspoons prepared mustard
- 1 tablespoon minced onion
- 4 tablespoons fat
- 4 tablespoons brown sugar
- 1/2 cup apricot halves

Combine the ground meats. Add slightly beaten eggs, water, milk, cornflakes, Worcestershire sauce, pepper, mustard and minced onion and mix thoroughly. Melt fat in the bottom of a 9x5x3-inch loaf pan. Add brown sugar and heat until well-blended. Arrange apricot halves, cut side up, on the bottom of the pan. Pack the meat mixture over the apricots. Bake in a moderate oven (350 deg. F.) for one and one-fourth hours.

TORTILLAS, Mexican Style
Shape masa into cakes about 5 inches in diameter; pat out thin—some use a press for this purpose. Bake on lightly greased griddle, turning frequently so tortillas are thoroughly cooked. Yield: About 7 dozen.

- TORTILLAS, American Style I
- 1 c. cornmeal
- 1 c. boiling water
- 1 t. salt
- 2 t. bacon fat

Stir boiling water into cornmeal. Add salt, bacon fat, mix well. Pat into thin cakes; turn as they brown. Yield: 2 dozen.

- TORTILLAS, American Style II
- 3 T. fat
- 1 t. salt
- 2 c. flour
- 3-4 c. water

Sift dry ingredients into mixing bowl; cut in fat, add water to make soft dough. Roll thin, cut into cakes 5 inches in diameter. Bake on lightly greased griddle; turn frequently to brown evenly. Press lightly with pancake turner to keep cakes flat. Yield: 2 dozen.

TACOS
Place sliced meat or chicken on tortilla; spread with pickle relish, fold over; fasten each with 2 toothpicks. Fry in deep fat (390 degrees F.) or toast on hot griddle, until thoroughly heated, a golden brown color. Have salad ready of shredded lettuce and chopped tomatoes dressed with Gebhardt's Salad Dressing. Top hot tacos with salad; serve at once.

Note: TACOS is the Mexican's sandwich; generally thought of as made of roast meat or chicken, but cheese and sweet fillings are rapidly gaining popularity.

PASTEL DE TAMAL CALIENTE (Hot Tamale Pie)

- 2 c. cooked meat, ground
- 1-2 c. gravy or meat stock
- 1 garlic clove, minced
- 1 t. Gebhardt's Chili Powder
- 1 t. salt
- 1 qt. cooked mush, stiff

Use meat from cold roast or steak. Mix with gravy, garlic Gebhardt's Chili Powder, salt. Line bottom and sides of casserole with mush, pour in meat mixture, then put mush over top in broken pieces. Bake 20 to 30 minutes in hot oven. Serve hot.

TORTILLAS TOSTADAS (Toasted Tortillas)

Cut Tortillas in pieces 1 inch square, fry in deep fat (390 degrees F.) until delicate brown color. Drain on absorbent paper; sprinkle with salt.

Suggestions: The Tortilla is the national bread of Mexico, used as a basis for many characteristic dishes, as Enchiladas, Tacos, etc. In the Mexican section of our larger cities, Tortillas may be purchased by the dozen, then reheated when ready to use. If unable to procure either Tortillas or dough, scalded cornmeal or flour may be used, as in American Style I and II or a very thin griddle cake. However, they are merely substitutes.

ECONOMY

LAMOFILM PACKAGE PRESERVES THE FRESHNESS

One of the very real economies of Admiration Coffee is its unique freshness. When freshness evaporates so too do aroma, flavor, and strength. Admiration Coffee retains all these qualities oven-fresh because its Lamofilm Package is leak-proof. Once sealed (we should say once triple sealed) nothing can escape. Nor can moisture seep in. This freshness thus saves you many a pound during the year—and as much money.

ADMIRATION PREVENTS COFFEE-MAKING FAILURES

If your coffee maker and water are clean, it's practically impossible to make a "bad" cup of Admiration Coffee. This wonderful old blend, favorite for years in the Southwest, is rich, flavorful, and aromatic. No matter how you prefer your coffee, weak, moderate, or strong, its distinctive flavor is always discernible. You'll know it's Admiration, for Admiration alone tastes like that. By all means try a pound today if you're one of those rare individuals who've never had the pleasure.

Cotton Seed Should Undergo Treatment

Texas cotton growers can render a service to themselves by doing two things . . . getting their planting seed early and chemically treating it for protection against disease well in advance of planting.

The old saw that the first customer who gets the pick of the goods is as true of buying cotton seed as of merchandise. The farmer who buys when the stock is large gets the best of the variety he wants, and is more likely to get the quantity of good germinating seed he needs. If there is any question about the quality of germination, a farmer with seed on hand will have time to run his own tests.

According to M. C. Jaynes, cotton work specialists for the A. and M. College Extension Service, the seed situation in Texas is variable. Registered foundation seed . . . that is, approved varieties of first growth, is being bought rapidly. However, there still is a fair supply of class "B" seed remaining.

This is the first year increase of the foundation seed and is in the registered classification also. On the whole, Jaynes adds, the situation affecting registered seed is better than it has been for the past two or three years.

There is a third class, namely, seed of reasonable purity although not certified, which is good enough for general planting. Jaynes suggested that all of this should be kept for cropping.

There is a further important reason for obtaining seed early even if the farmer has to get it from a distant point. Railroad transportation is congested and truck hauling is steady on the down grade. If he delays ordering until spring, the farmer may not get his seed in time for the best planting time.

Jaynes recommends treating seed with one of the mercury dusts ahead of planting. Treatment controls disease carried by the seed, and it doesn't take so much seed to get a good stand of cotton. See the county agricultural agent for the method of treatment.

Production Plans For The Farmer

We assume that every farmer in Howard county wants his farm to make the largest contribution possible toward winning the war, and feeding the starving millions in Europe as they are liberated from Nazi tyranny. Fortunately planning on this basis will be more profitable to the farmer, because price adjustments must be kept in line with these aims.

Howard county climate and soils are admirably adapted to the production of the sorghums for grain and forage and to cotton. Other crops can be grown but none are as sure as these. Then there are some crops such as peanuts and soybeans that are badly needed in the war effort; but, which do not yield so well or which would ruin the fertility of the fields. There are still other crops that might yield well, but the growing of which is not well understood.

Therefore, the "largest contribution" is almost certain to come from farms devoted pretty largely to sorghums and cotton.

In this narrowing process, however, there are other things that must be taken into consideration, the most important of which is labor. Then we cannot ever know what the weather will be. Sometimes cotton makes better and sometimes the sorghums are more productive. To plant the whole farm in one crop hazards the outcome from both weather, and labor needs.

Short staple cotton (less than fifteen-sixteenths) is not needed. In fact there is danger that the large supplies of very short cotton will make such cotton raising unprofitable. And under our marketing system every thousand bales of cotton carried in the warehouse depresses the price of all cotton. However, the seed of cotton does contribute to the food supply, and linters are needed for gun cotton. If farmers would control their plantings to reasonable acreages, and thin the cotton so the staple would not be too short, cotton would be a good crop.

Maize and other sorghum grain will continue to bring a good price. In fact there is nothing in the situation to indicate lower prices for this year's production than it sold for last year, regardless of how much is produced. Sorghum forage also may bring a good price. At least the West Texas area will be completely out of bales before the new crop comes on the market.

Dry Cure Practical For Domestic Use

By REBEA MERLE BOYLES

This is the season when folks have questions on their minds about meat curing. For instance, lots of people want to know which is better for meat . . . a brine or dry cure.

Here's an answer from Mrs. Winifred Leverenz, the specialist in food preservation for the A. and M. College Extension Service. While she won't say either is the best, she says for pork, dry cure seems to be the most practical method for home and farm use. First of all, it's simple. It requires less equipment and less trouble than the brine cure.

Mrs. Leverenz says from all the reports she gets from hundreds of farm people, she'd say there's less spoilage when the dry cure method is used for pork than when the brine cure is used. In extremely dry climates and colder climates, the brine cure often is preferred. That's because meat preserved by the dry cure often gets too dry under those conditions.

And by the way . . . the brine cure is preferred for curing beef. You may not have realized it, but cured beef usually is referred to as "corned beef." Any portion of a beef carcass can be cured. But the boneless pieces are the most practical for the brine method. Cured or corned beef shouldn't be kept as long as ham and bacon.

Now about keeping cured meats . . . One good way is to store it in an edible oil . . . such as cottonseed; peanut, or some other cooking oil. You can use lard, but it gets rancid quicker. This method of keeping cured meat has lots of advantages. It prevents mold from developing. It keeps meat from getting hard and dry. It eliminates fly and skipper contamination, and it's cleaner. Remember, though, you can't cure meat with oil. For other questions on curing and storing meat, consult your county Extension agents.

O'Brien Says Bond Appeals Are Undeniable

Appeals for bond purchases come from such sources that no patriotic American can fail to yield to them, the Rev. Dick O'Brien declared in a brief address before the Lions club.

First source is from the Pilgrim fathers who originally purchased our freedom, he asserted, and from the men who bought independence with their blood at Brandywine, Valley Forge, Tippecanoe and Yorktown. Calls to buy come from "the patriots of 1917-18—rising as a moan from the graves of them who sleep beneath the poppies in Flanders, Italy, England, from Wake Island, Bataan and Pearl Harbor . . . It comes strongest today because it comes from our sons and brothers."

Jake Douglas, reporting for the club, said that members had bought or caused to be bought a total of $30,500 in war bonds.

The club went on record unanimously as favoring a move to establish a youth center.

Also sanctioned was the matter of sponsoring a jug for infantile paralysis fund collections. The club went on record, too, voting the net proceeds from the appearance of the North Texas State Teachers College A Capella choir here in February to the paralysis fund.

Speedy Nugent and Stoney Henry urged enrollment in a safety engineering class starting soon under sponsorship of the Big Spring Safety council and Henry, active in Red Cross, Boy Scout and safety affairs, said farewell to the club. He is leaving the city soon.

Rapid Progress Made On Freezer Locker Plant

Rapid progress is being made on the installation of a freezer locker plant here, and prospects are now that the unit may be in operation early in February.

This was the conclusion to be drawn from a statement of progress by H. S. Ashley, engineer for Harris & Beeman, Inc., contractors for the Big Spring Locker Plant.

Marvin Sewell, Big Spring, is having the 650-locker unit installed in the Currie building, which he purchased at E. 1st and Gollard streets. Originally the building was erected as a produce warehouse.

Ashley said Wednesday that about one-third of insulation work was complete, that pipe work was about two-thirds accomplished and that work in general was progressing rapidly. Discovery of holes in the brine tank necessitated the replacement of this unit, which will cause about a week's delay in completion, he said.

Compressors for the plant have been found ample, and the contractors are putting in new working parts so that "they will perform just like they did when they left the factory," said Ashley. Lockers come dismantled and are installed quickly when construction reaches that state, he said.

Postoffice Exams Offered By Civil Service Locally

War service regulations have been extended to substitute clerk carrier positions in the postoffice at Big Spring, Lindsey Marchbanks, local civil service secretary, said Thursday.

Persons who are interested in examinations which will be held to fill vacancies which might occur in the Big Spring office may apply to the 10th civil service region office at 210 S. Harwood, Dallas.

"Appointments to substitute clerk positions hereafter will be made for the duration of the war and not to exceed six months thereafter," said Marchbanks. Those now appointed do not receive a classified civil service status. The examinations, when they are given, will require only about four hours. Further information may be secured from Marchbanks at the postoffice.

Insurance Men To Study New Methods

Big Spring life insurance men have been invited to join with life underwriters throughout North Texas in studying war-time selling problems during the Dallas session of the annual tri-state congress of the Texas Association of Life Underwriters at the Hotel Adolphus January 20. It was announced today by Dalton Mitchell, president of the Big Spring association.

During the all-day program the insurance producers will hear talks by a nationally known insurance editor from Indianapolis and a million-dollar producer from Milwaukee, Mitchell said.

How To Remove Drip Of Wax From Cloth

By REBEA MERLE BOYLE

If candle wax dripped on your holiday table cloth and you haven't known what to do about it, you may find the answer in a dull knife, a warm iron, and cleaning tissues.

Mrs. Bernice Claytor, specialist in home improvement for the A. and M. College Extension, suggests this procedure: First, scrape off as much of the hard wax as possible with the dull knife. Then, place the spot between cleansing tissues of paper towels, and press with a warm iron. Be sure to change the paper as it becomes soiled. Finally, sponge with a household grease solvent. If color still remains, sponge the cloth with a liquid made up of half as much denatured alcohol as water.

Farm Slaughterers May Sell In Quantity

FARM SLAUGHTERERS 14 . . . . .

Farmers who sell meat may take ration stamps that are not yet valid at the store. Only a person holding a permit as a farm slaughterer may do this.

The reason for this is that the farmer would sell in larger quantities. For instance a customer may want to buy a whole hog at one time. He would not have enough valid stamps that he could spare to do this. By giving stamps of future months, he could do it, and have enough stamps left for each period, to buy the other things he needs.

We Lie Down With An Enemy

One of the greatest enemies of the United States is practically our bed-fellow. He is Waste. Not only do we countenance this creature, but we even seem to encourage it in wartime despite repeated campaigns to save for salvage purposes.

000 pounds of paper by government agencies in New York while every string possible is being pulled to promote a waste paper salvage campaign.

Washington Daybook

By HOWARD BLIEGER

WASHINGTON—The new session of Congress will have lots of fights on its hands, but one of the biggest may develop from a wholly unexpected quarter; industrial profits in wartime.

war profiteering in some cases. They argue curbs on excess war products would collapse under the weight of the Senate committee bill.

But now the Senate Finance Committee—using a new tax bill as the framework—has drafted a complete overhaul for the renegotiation system.

Members of the committee replied, in effect, that Morgenthau didn't know what he was talking about when he ventured into the field of renegotiations.

Advocates of the changes say they are needed to prevent the government from getting a dangerous hold on industrial economy and to give business a chance to get ready for its return to peace.

The Hebrew language as originally written contained no vowels, but only consonants. Vowels were not introduced into Hebrew until about the sixth century A.D.

Andrew Jackson didn't like the President Adams, father and son. In his first annual message to Congress President Jackson referred favorably to Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe.

On Aug. 6, 1831, President Jackson sent the following "executive order" to members of his cabinet: "Sir: You will, after the receipt of this report to the President for dismissal every clerk in your office, who shall avail himself of the benefit of the insolvent debtor's act for debts contracted during my administration."

Later one of the higher officials in the Treasury department borrowed some money from the Riggs bank in Washington and failed to make the note good when it came due.

On Dec. 23, 1821, a Unitarian minister named Sparks was elected chaplain of the U. S. House of Representatives and a few days later, according to current reports, "preached for the first time at the Capitol to a crowded auditory."

But Secretary of State John Quincy Adams wrote in his diary that date: Mr. Hawley, the Episcopal preacher at St. John's Church, last Sunday preached, a sermon of coarse invective upon the House, who, he said, by this act had voted Christ out-of-doors; and he enjoined upon all the people of his flock not to set their feet within the Capitol to hear Mr. Sparks.

Asleep On Job

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — The city police court will show a 50-cent deficit this month and officers aren't so sure they want to explain it.

Mr. Hawley, the Episcopal preacher at St. John's Church, last Sunday preached, a sermon of coarse invective upon the House, who, he said, by this act had voted Christ out-of-doors; and he enjoined upon all the people of his flock not to set their feet within the Capitol to hear Mr. Sparks.

Of Aristobulus, one of the Maccabees whom Pompey's partisans poisoned, Josephus says: "His dead body also lay for a good while, embalmed in honey, till Antony afterward sent it to Judea and caused him to be buried in the royal sepulchre."

Mixed Up Orders

NEW YORK (AP) — A Brooklyn grammar school principal reluctantly told graduates that diplomas would not be handed out as the plant that printed them had burned down.

But, he said, that wouldn't stop his giving out cloth chevrons to marshalls and classroom monitors, and he opened a large box. Out came more than 3,200 glittering porcelain false teeth—the manufacturer had mixed up his orders.

Good Solution

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP) — A Guilford county woman wrote Gov. J. M. Broughton that she had plucked a magnolia blossom from a park here some years ago, and asked the governor what she could do to ease her conscience.

"Buy a war bond," the governor replied.

Germans Launch New Drive Against Slavs

LONDON, Jan. 20 (P) — Marshal Broz (Tito) reported today that heavy fighting was spreading along the Croat coastal area below Fiume, where the Germans have sprung a new drive apparently aimed at preventing Yugoslav Partisans from developing a threat to the naval base from the south.

Tito's communique, broadcast by the Free Yugoslav radio and recorded by the Associated Press, said the Germans had launched two drives toward the coastal area, one in Croatia and the second in Western Bosnia and that fighting was mounting in intensity.

New Ins. Policy To Start In May

AUSTIN, Jan. 20 (AP) — Beginning May 1 a new form of policy providing fire, windstorm, extended coverage, explosion and rent insurance will be available to buyers.

The state insurance commission yesterday announced approval of the form which was described as "modern, readable and understandable."

Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall declared it provides complete coverage in one policy and eliminates confusing endorsements and riders now attached to policies.

He added it was likely that after May 1 all companies automatically will endorse existing policies to the broader terms of the new policy form.

Strike Settled

SOUTH PACIFIC AIRBASE, Jan. 19 (Delayed) — Japanese fighters who engage Allied planes in raids on Rabaul these days "are as good as we ever encountered in the South Pacific," says Lt. Col. W. H. Council, Fort Valley, Ga.

The commander of an Army fighter group said one of our best squadrons lost eight P-38's in a single sweep recently—"the heaviest loss we ever took."

"The Japs are smart," Council continued. "They time their attacks well. They hold formation better. That's no second team in there now."

NEW YORK—Hang it all, if fellows like General Eisenhower and Admiral King can be optimistic about this year, why can't sports leaders? "Ike" and "Dolly" have a war to win. The other guys only have to grab off a championship here and there.

We've had enough singing of the blues—too much, in fact. Who ever heard of a team getting anywhere by moaning: "It looks pretty bad." "We may lose." "Don't know how we'll do it," etc.

No, the champs, the kind of boys making up America's victorious team, grit their teeth, pull their belts up another notch and move full speed ahead shouting: "We can do it. It's in the bag."

That's the attitude sports should take from now on. The darkest hour has passed. When we turned the corner for 1943, there was only hope. Today, there is confidence—and our war bosses are showing the way.

Will Harridge, president of the American League, and Billy Evans, proxy of the Southern Association, caught the idea recently. Both expressed confidence that baseball would have a much better year in 1944, in spite of the loss of additional manpower.

Note the word CONFIDENCE. There's a big difference between that and hopeful, the angle sports leaders were tossing around this time last year.

Sure, baseball will open the season in April minus a few more stars. What the heck is the difference? There are always other fellows to replace those who go, and the diamond sport will be as good as ever.

As a matter of fact, it should be better. The teams will be more evenly matched. The managers will really have to dig for their victories and chances are good for two new teams to battle it out in the world series.

What's more, and strictly along the lines of confidence, some of the minor leagues, which failed to operate in 1943, have indicated they will resume this year. So baseball will pick up in 1944, despite the cry babies.

The same holds true for other sports. You'll have more horse racing, more golf, more tennis, more football, more basketball, more everything the coming months.

And don't be surprised if some of the old stars come out of the services to add to your sport thrills.

Yes sir, every day in every way, sports will get better and better in 1944. The water for the greatest boom athletics has ever had—after the war.

Officer Lauds City For Helping Morale

Big Spring residents may take justifiable pride in the quality of morale at the Big Spring Bombardier School, Lieut. John Auerbach, acting special services officer, told the Lions club in an impromptu talk Wednesday noon.

Relations between the military personnel and the townspeople have been exceptionally cordial, said the officer, so much so "that many of us have come to look upon Big Spring as sort of second 'home town' for us."

He added that "morale is not something which you can pluck out of a hat, and we need the co-operation of every one in keeping our men in fine spirits." Lieut. Auerbach said courtesies extended the military were thoroughly appreciated.

"You've made us feel so at home," he continued, "that after the war you may find a lot of Easterners staying in Texas."

He chuckled, "It might help them too." The club laughed heartily with him.

Senate Confirms Eccles Nomination

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—The senate confirmed today the nomination of Marriner S. Eccles of Utah for a new 14-year term as a member of the board of Governors of the Federal Reserve system. Eccles is now chairman of the board.

Also confirmed for two-year appointments on the board of directors of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation were: Charles T. Fisher, Jr., of Michigan; Charles B. Henderson, Nevada; Sam Husbands, South Carolina; Howard J. Klossner, Minnesota; Henry A. Mulligan, New York.

HAYS, Kas., (AP)—Arthur J. Wiles, Hays attorney, says he has found a way to bring home the birds every time he goes hunting.

Austin Man Speaks At Kiwanis Session

Henry Pepper, Austin, field representative of Kiwanis International, was guest speaker at the regular weekly luncheon of the Big Spring Kiwanis club Thursday.

After introducing Ernest Hock as a new member, Pepper read four new by-laws which were voted into the backlog of the chapter.

Pepper spoke on the Kiwanis organization. After citing some background history he emphasized how the individual can better both self, the organization and community by speaking of himself as "I am a Kiwanian—I want to do my share of service in the community." Instead of speaking of the organization as we.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors tonight at 8 in the parish of the Episcopal church, and the Rev. Bob Snell, president, urges all members to be present. Pepper will speak at this meeting also.

Scouter Session Set For Today

Boy Scout leaders from 15 counties in the Buffalo trail council were to converge here this evening for the traditional area scouters meeting.

Initial sessions were set for 5 p. m. at the Settles with the executive board parley. Reports and the election of officers were on the docket. At the same time the 1944 program will be studied by scoutmasters of the council.

At 8 p. m. a banquet affair will be held in the Settles ballroom with Charles Paxton, Sweetwater, veteran president, in charge. Speaker is to be James L. Patterson, Big Spring Bombardier School chaplain, and special awards will be presented by Col. R. W. Warren, commanding officer of the post. Parents and friends of scouting as well as those actively engaged in places of leadership are urged to take part in the banquet.

Air Raiders

"The air was black with United Nations planes, over the target," reads the communique. But before those pilots started on their trip to Berlin and Tokio they were trained in American flying schools. Advanced trainers for this work were between $40,000 and $50,000. To pay for this great cost of the war will require great savings in War Bonds. Back the attack with War Bonds in the Third War Loan.

After our boys become proficient in advanced trainers they are given war planes to fly. The next thing we hear from them they are dropping messages to Hitler and Hirohito.

Off-Farm Employment Procedure Explained By Co. Agent Griffin

New procedure under which farmers may secure releases for employment off the farm was outlined in information received by County Agent O. P. Griffin Thursday morning from the state war board.

Under selective service regulations, farmers or farm employees are placed in class 1-A in release, said the county agent. Unfarm without first securing a release, said the county agent. Under the new procedure, they apply for a release to the county war board, which makes its recommendation to the selective service board. Heretofore the recommendation was made by the county agent to the United States Employment service.

Agricultural workers classified as 1-A who wish a deferment also follow the new procedure, applying to the war board.

The board, which has headquarters in the AAA office, meets each Saturday afternoon. Members are L. H. Thomas, chairman, Ur D. Kindricks, secretary, Dudley Mann, H. C. Barnes, O. B. Bryan of Stanton, Ed Jay of Sweetwater and Griffin.

Approximately 60 farmers have turned in answers to questionnaires mailed several days ago to all farmers in the county and requesting information on extent of work a farmer does on his farm, production of crops and livestock and farm employees, said Griffin. The reports are to be used as basis for deferments.

Here 'n There

Agreed judgment of $2,500 was entered in district court Wednesday afternoon in the case of T. E. Sanders, representing Alice Sanders, a minor, vs. Central Surety and Insurance company. The plaintiff allegedly suffered serious and permanent injuries when she fell 18 feet down an elevator shaft while employed by Big Spring Hotel company.

Two juveniles, 14 and 15 years old, were to appear before Judge James T. Brooks at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. One is charged with forgery and the other with passing a forged check.

To avoid confusion, The Herald wishes to make this further explanation of a story carried Wednesday. The Mrs. Ruby Henry Ruth Smith mentioned in connection with a driving case has resided here only a short time, according to the sheriff. The name has local similarity which proved a source of confusion.

Big Charles R. Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Pearson of Sterling City route, has completed the aviation mechanic training course at the Army Air Force Technical school at Amarillo Army Air Field. Now fitted for airplane maintenance, he will be assigned to an air base.

Howard county farm production goals submitted by M. Weaver, AAA administrative officer, and approved Tuesday by county and community committees are being mailed to the state AAA office Thursday. Plan sheets for individual farms are expected by Feb. 15 and after that date farms in the county will be canvassed, said Weaver.

'Hell's Angels' Crew Returning

A U. S. BOMBER BASE IN BRITAIN, Jan. 20 (AP)—Twelve delighted members of the U. S. Eighth airforce took off for home today in the flying fortress "Hell's Angels" which had weathered 46 missions over Europe without ever bringing back a wounded crewman.

Her pilot during her last five missions, Capt. John R. Johnston, of Orlando, Fla., and five other fortress fliers who have finished their raid quotas will accompany the fortress and her ground crew on a tour of assembly and parts plants at home.

"Hell's Angels" arrived in England Oct. 24, 1942, piloted by Capt. Irl Baldwin, of Yakima, Wash., who was the first pilot in the European theater to complete his quota of raids.

Lieut. Clifton Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sanders of Big Spring, was pilot of the ill-fated "Hell's Angel II," named for the original ship. He has been reported missing in action since Oct. 14, 1943.

Air Raiders

"The air was black with United Nations planes, over the target," reads the communique. But before those pilots started on their trip to Berlin and Tokio they were trained in American flying schools. Advanced trainers for this work were between $40,000 and $50,000. To pay for this great cost of the war will require great savings in War Bonds. Back the attack with War Bonds in the Third War Loan.

After our boys become proficient in advanced trainers they are given war planes to fly. The next thing we hear from them they are dropping messages to Hitler and Hirohito.
