Bigger, Better Than Ever..... 7th Watermelon Round Up

What a day! Perfect weather... a record number of arts and craft booths... tons of free watermelon slices... lots of volunteer help... a huge team roping throughout the day and much of the night... new rides, games... live music, even a bit of boot scooting before the stage... a new event featuring a law enforcement officer kissing a pig... a great classic car show... and a courthouse square wall to wall with visitors throughout the day.

It was once again impossible to tally the number of people attending the Round Up, but veteran observers agreed it had to be the largest event yet.

If you took the smallest part in making number seven a roaring success, THANK YOU!

Cowboys lose opener to Farwell 13 - 2

The Plains Cowboys opened the 2002 season at Farwell last Friday night, and it proved to be a long night with the Steers offense dominating the game.

The Cowboys did get off to a fast start. They took the opening kickoff at the 21 yard line. A Kevin Bartley pass to Zach Broome went awry, but on the second play, Nick Hays found a hole over his left guard and gained 30 yards to the 49. Richard Diaz gained yardage on two carries, Bartley then hit Broome with a 14 yard pass to the 37. A couple of running plays went nowhere, but Bartley found Justin Chambliss open for a 15 yard reception to the Steers 22. Hays, Diaz and Bartley stayed on the ground and moved the ball to the 10 yard line, where a couple of incomplete passes and penalties halted the Cowboys on the 15 yard line.

The Cowboy defense held the Steers in check, forcing a punt from their 25. The Cowboys made small gains on the ground, but Bartley's third down pass effort to Evan Cain was incomplete, and the Steers again had the ball on the 35. Four quick runs pushed the Cowboys back to their 14, where Farwell's McFarland hit his running back with a pass for their first score, the PAT kick put them up 7-0 at the end of the first quarter. With the ball again, the Cowboys managed a first on a Bartley to Broome completion, but were again forced to punt. The two teams swapped offensive punches for much of the second period with little success. Good efforts by Cowboy defenders Hays, Bonilla, McNabb Chambliss helped hold the Steers in check. With less than a minute left in the first half, good work by Cowboy defenders resulted in a safety against the Steers, and the half ended with Farwell up 7-2.

In the second half, the Steers Garcia gained 63 yards on the first play from scrimmage, and ground on down the field to the 2 yardline. Penalties moved them back to the 15, and good defense by Martinez and Broome halted the drive and gave the ball to the Cowboys at their 24. Again their offense was stalled by the Steers, forcing a Bartley punt.

The Steers opened a drive on their 35, and racked up big yardage and three first down, forcing the Cowboys back to their 12 yardline before the drive was stopped. The Cowboys managed a quick first down on Bartley's burst up the middle, but were forced to punt three plays later.

The Steers set their offense at the Cowboys 40, and on the first play from scrimmage their runner Stevenson drove over right guard for their second touchdown and 13-2 lead. They Turn To Page 4, "COWBOYS"

RESOLUTION ON SEPTEMBER 11 COMMEMORATION

Whereas, on September 11, 2001, America was suddenly and brutally attacked by foreign terrorists, and;

Whereas, these terrorists hijacked and destroyed four civilian aircraft, crashing two of them into the towers of the World Trade Center in New York City, a third into the Pentagon outside Washington, DC, and the fourth into a field in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, and;

Whereas, thousands of innocent Americans were killed and injured as a result of these attacks, including the passengers and crew of the four aircraft, workers in the World Trade Center and in the Pentagon, rescue workers, and bystanders, and;

Whereas, these cowardly acts were by far the deadliest terrorist attacks ever launched against the United States, and, by targeting symbols of American strength and success, clearly were intended to intimidate our nation and weaken its resolve, and;

Whereas, these horrific events have affected all Americans. It is important that we carry on with the regular activities of our lives. Terrorism cannot be allowed to break the spirit of the American people, and the best way to show these cowards that they have truly failed is for the people of the United States and their counties to stand tall and proud,

Therefore be it resolved, that the governing board of Yoakum County condemns the cowardly and deadly actions of these terrorists, and;

Be it further resolved, that the governing board of Yoakum County supports the President of the United States, as he works with his national security team to defend against additional attacks, and find the perpetrators to bring them to justice, and;

Be it still further resolved, that the governing board of Yoakum County recommends to its citizens to support relief efforts by giving blood at the nearest available blood donation center.

"COWBOYS"

Tried running for a two point conversion, but McNabb stopped the play.

The Cowboys got the ball again with 6 minutes on the clock. The line blocked well for Diaz who gained a first in two carries, the Bartley hit Broome for a 22 yard gain and another first down, but the drive stuttered on the 31. From there the Steers were moving the ball when the final gun sounded.

The Cowboys had total offense of 185 yards in the game, 94 on the ground and 91 in the air, while Farwell managed 329 total yards. Nick Hays led rushing with 7 carries and 42 yards, and Bartley gained 91 yards passing in 30 attempts. Broome caught 4 balls, Chambliss, Diaz and Isaac Ramon 1 each. The stat sheet credited Bonilla and McNabb with 12 tackles each, Bartley 11, Martinez 8, Hays 7, followed by Ruiz,, Broome, Chambliss, Ramon, Bean and Ramirez.

Plains student's mission trip to Spain..... A letter from Nicole Haynes, continued from last week

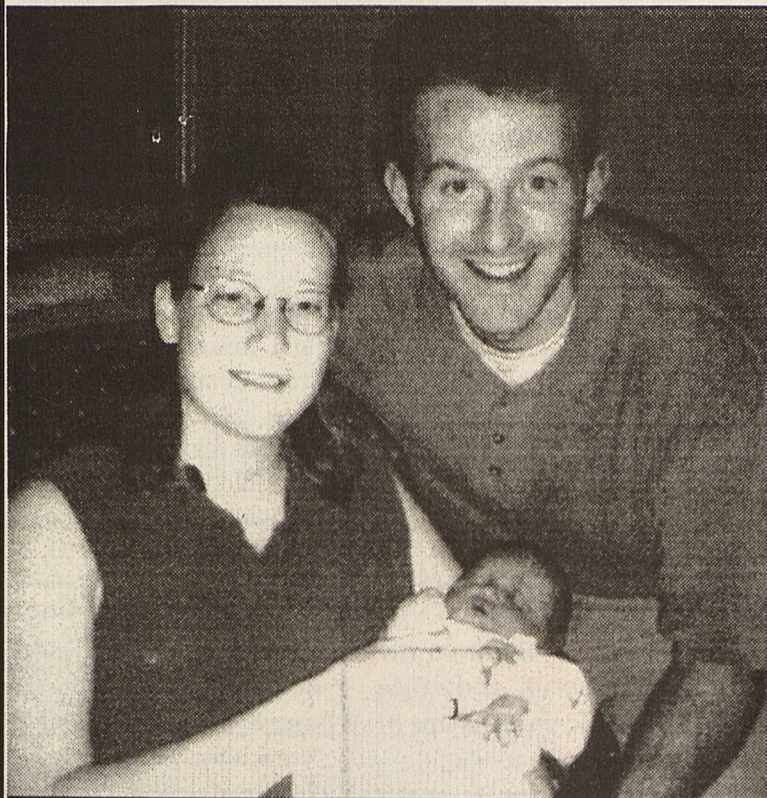

This mosque was in a small town and it wasn't even a building by itself. It was in two rooms at the bottom of an apartment building. There were two doors to enter, one for the men and one for the women and they each led to separate rooms. However, the walls between the rooms stopped about two feet from the ceiling so that way the women could hear what was going on since the service was only led by men. When Aida and I went into one door while our guys went in the other, it was kind of a scary thing. Our first thought was, "We're on our own," but of course we weren't. God proved His faithfulness again and we could feel His protective arms surrounding us. Also, at that point in particular, I could feel your prayers. It was absolutely amazing because here we were, probably in the most dangerous situation we had been in the entire trip, and I was completely at ease. I knew many people around the world were interceding for me, and I thank you. During their service I had to really keep a tight reign on my emotions. We saw these women getting up and down, calling out chants robotically, like slave to a dead God. At one point this lady was on her knees and she just lifted her hands up in prayer, and I couldn't help but think what a devoted heart she must have, if only it was serving the living Lord. These women are so beaten down, so restricted by their "religion". They haven't found freedom, instead they've become slaves to a religion that will suck them dry and then leave them to die with no security in an eternity with the one true God. This is our goal: to show these people that there is a God who will love them back, who has sacrificed for them just as they sacrifice for Him, who will reward them for their devotion to Him while on Earth, and who will hear them when they cry out to Him.

So, that is what Spain was all about, that and a whole lot more. You cannot even begin to imagine the impact this journey has had on my life. I'd like to thank each and every one of you for any support you've given me financially and/or prayerfully. God met my needs through your generosity. The Lord moved in a great way while we were in Spain and we saw His blessings anew every day. However, His work is not done yet and so I encourage you to keep praying for Spain and its people. Matthew 9:37-38 says, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest field." God is doing amazing things while the hearts of those in Spain, not just the Muslims, but the Spanish as well. Many of those hearts are ripe for harvest, He's just waiting for us to step up and make a commitment to reap. I love you so very much and will be forever grateful for your support!

Love in Christ,
Nicole Haynes

Health Fair-An update on the Health Fair mentioned a few weeks ago brings information that Interim Home Health and SPAG will be hosting the health fair on September twenty fifth at the Senior Center. Testing will be done for Blood Pressure, Cholesterol, Blood Sugar, Bone Density and others. A small fee will be charged for those under sixty. There will be flyers placed around town with more details, and you may see information on the local cable TV station. We need an estimate on the number of persons wishing to participate in this, so be sure to let us know at the Senior Center or call 592-8000.

A good group from Lovington and Hobbs attended our monthly Pool Tournament on Wednesday. Eileen Phillip, Carl Davis, and Leo Daniel were local winners while Lovington carried home the other prizes.

Saturday was a special day at the Bickley home when Cecil celebrated his 90th birthday! Many friends stopped by to wish him well and share his birthday cake.

Bob and Eileen Phillip have been enjoying a visit from their daughter who lives in Michigan.

Billie O'Neal went with friends to spend a long weekend in Ruidoso.

Harold and Vera Brown, along with Calvin and Helen Stewart are enjoying a visit this week with their brother, James Stewart and his wife, Marilyn, from Oregon.

June and Elmer Hanneman helped their sons celebrate their shared birthday last week.

A group enjoyed the '42' tournament on Tuesday afternoon. The winners this time were Inez Turner and Chris Humphries.

Again we wish to recognize the names that have appeared on the list of 'money counters' in the last few weeks. Those appearing were Rudy Kennedy, Layne Black, Spencer Randolph, Charlie Gillis, Jack Sessions, Tom Clevenger, Wand Black, June Hanneman, Bob Thurston, Walter Gayle, and I.V. Harmon. We appreciate each one of you who has given freely of your time to do this. The Board has voted to start, in September, using a paid employee to work the Registration Desk. A member of the Board of Directors will help to count the money each day and see that it is delivered into the Director's office for deposit.

Names appearing on the visitor's list recently are Isabel Aguilar, Ambrosio Aguilar, Tony Kucera, Minnie Kucera, and Betty Reed. Welcome to each of you.

Thanks to Red Powell for coming to fix our microphone in the dining room. We look forward to when the speakers will be arranged so everyone can hear the announcements better.

A BIG WELCOME to two new ladies who came to join our Monday night local pool tournament this week. Vanette Cochran and Nancy Chamberlain are both newly retired ladies and we hope they will save their Monday nights from own on and become a part of our Monday Night Family.

GARAGE SALE-The Site Council is planning a big sale on Saturday, September 21st, at 8:00am. This will be our final fund raiser for the current fiscal year. Any usable items you would like to dispose of around your house would be greatly appreciated. If it is inconvenient for you to deliver them to the Senior Center during the week prior to September 21st, call us at 592-8000, and we will have our bus pick them up for you. Mark that date on your calendar and come by during the forenoon and see if you can't find some treasure you've been needing!

From The Hack

I heard a very amusing, and apparently a very true story involving one of our illustrious local citizens. Seems the guy, as part of his daily routine, took his copy of the Lubbock A-J into the bathroom, got himself comfortably perched on the 'throne', and was busily catching up on the latest worthy and unworthy news.

Suddenly, he was rudely and painfully struck on top of his bald head. Naturally, the lack of any cushioning hair on his head didn't help matters. Almost simultaneously, there occurred a very loud crashing noise, and he saw the large globe which had formerly covered the overhead bathroom light shatter into maybe a thousand pieces on the bathtub.

That's right, he had been struck squarely in the pate of his shiny head, which naturally made him, at least temporarily, forget the original purpose of his visit to the potty room. Then his wife stormed through the door, screaming "What have you broken NOW?" He reported he denied breaking anything, trying to convince her the dumb globe just fell right on his pate. "I know better than that," she stormed, "You HAD to do something to break it!"

Very foolishly, he reported all this to coffee drinkers in Johnnie's restaurant the next day. The waitress overheard his report, came over, inspected the very red, very large lump on his bald head, and cooed, "Oh, you poor dear, here, let me rub some butter on it!"

Under normal circumstances, I would reveal his identity. Recently, however, I had occasion to write another humorous bit about the same character, which he took a bit of offense over. He told me he was going to let me live that time, but he would be carrying a .357 magnum from then on. My lips are sealed. But I'll wager you can nose around the local watermelon loading facility and pick up a clue or two about his identity.

KIDS - A first grader slipped and fell on the playground, skinning his knee. The teacher urged him to be brave about it. "remember, big boys don't cry," "Cry?" the boy exclaimed, "I'm not going to cry, I'm going to SUE!"

A father returned home from his usual day of work and found his small son sitting on the front steps, looking very unhappy.

"What's wrong, son?" he asked. "Just between me and you," the rear faced lad replied, "I simply can't get along with your wife."

The 7th and very successful Watermelon Round Up is history. THOUSANDS of folks enjoyed it, and HUNDREDS of volunteer workers uttered up prayers Sunday morning, "Thank you, Lord, for allowing me to survive another!"

I witnessed a number of intriguing, even bizarre scenes during my 8.94 hour stay Saturday. I saw a very young lad eating a foot long corn dog. He took the first bite, his pet Lab puppy took the next, right down to the wooden stick.

A young mother, I guessed monitoring her first born still in a stroller, kept trying to interest the girl/boy/whatever child in Kettle Kooked Pop Corn. The he/she/it kid repeatedly spit the kernels back at Mommy for at least ten minutes. I heard her utter an indecency, then stick a pacifier in the 'it' child's maw, which immediately produced a needed nap.

The most remarkable scene I have EVER witnessed, however, from the first round up to infinity will have to be County Judge Dallas Brewer registering for a prize at the REPUBLICAN candidate's booth. You know his honor; A staunch Democrat who bleeds Democrat red, who gets violently ill when his radio features a conservative talk show host, and considers Apple Pie and Mom conservative radicals.

His Honor actually won the Repub's door prize, and a nice one - a ceramic in the shape of our state.

I happened to pass by as he gloatingly accepted the door prize from Repub District Clerk Vicki Blundell. I jerked my camera out, aimed it at him with his trophy, and he glowered and snarled, "I am only accepting this cheap thing until I find it's rightful owner, no doubt an anarchist Republican talk show host. It will lay in my back yard, right by the rock garden, until the true owner is found! And no body better step on it, either!"
