Bond Election Saturday!!!

by Denise Kinner

The biggest bond election ever called in the City of Lubbock is set for Saturday, November 21. There are 8 propositions on the ballot totaling $42,547,000 to finance a variety of capital improvements through 1987. The proposals that will appear on the ballot are:

State Improvement - $9,495,000. Of primary concern to East Lubbock residents, the city council proposes to remove the curve and rebuilding Quirt Avenue across the railroad track to East 34th Street. The council also proposes to purchase the right-of-way for a future overpass at that location.

Traffic Signal Controls - $4,283,000. This funding would provide a new central computer and controllers at 109 intersections. Aimed at reducing overall traffic delay time and accidents.

Water Resources - $5,226,000. This proposal would make $5 million available to purchase additional water rights for a future underground supply. The remaining money would allow installation of new water lines.

Sanitary Sewer System - $7,892,000. These funds would allow a relief line to be added to prevent overloading of the sewage treatment plant in Northwest Lubbock.

Air Transportation - $12,854,000. This funding will provide money needed to add two gates, additional ticket counter space, office space and inbound and outbound baggage space for serving present and future airlines.

Fire Protection - $377,000. The funding will make it possible to build a suburban station where growth dictates the need. Also under consideration is expansion of the fire training facility on Municipal Drive.

Health Care - $1,000,000. This funding will permit expanded facilities to meet current needs of the Health Department.

Athletic Funds - $920,000. This funding

Adult Class Honorary Citizen At Digest Seminar

The Free Adult Education class that has been meeting in the Struggles Junior High building has been moved to room 106 in Dunbar High School.

The class meets on Monday and Wednesday nights at 7:00 p.m. This is a basic education and GED program that is designed to improve a person's ability to secure employment, qualify for a job promotion, achieve a certificate of high school equivalency (GED), and to become a more efficient consumer and a more active citizen. Supplementary areas of instruction include consumer, education, occupational opportunities and requirements, health education, citizenship, government, home and family life, science, history, and literature. Mrs. Alma Gopie is the teacher.

For further information, call 765-9338.

HONORARY CITIZENS - Mayor Pro Tem Alan Henry (right), who served as master of ceremonies at the 4th Annual Market Seminar last Saturday at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center, presented the honorary citizenship to Mr. and Mrs. George V. Smith, Sr., owners of The Smith Pipe Companies of Houston, Texas. Mr. Smith, who completed the third grade and his companies grossed nearly $30 million in business last year, told the audience that nothing beats hard work. (Photo by Ufak Eukudo)

Seminar For Women On Tap

Prime Time for Women III, a day-long conference of workshops, talk sessions and seminars on more than 40 topics, will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday, November 21, at the Texas Tech University Center.

Mary Scott-Welch, author of "Networking: The Great New Way for Women to Get Ahead," will keynote the third annual Prime Time expected to draw more than 200 women.

An autograph party and reception for Welch will take place at 7:30 p.m. Friday (November 20) at 2:02 Slide Road. The event is sponsored by Lubbock networking women.

Conference preregistration is requested before 5 p.m. Wednesday. Cost is $15, including a luncheon where participants will choose to sit where the table topic will interest them most. Texas Tech students are admitted to all sessions free, paying only $5 for the luncheon.

To register, write Prime Time for Women III, Division of Continuing Education, Box 4110, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas 79409.

The phone number is 742-2404. A limited number of late registrations can be accepted November 21.

Prime Time workshops will include sessions on financial planning; depression in women; developing supervisory leadership; achieving goals for women; self-motivation for self-improvement; couple communication; cosmetic surgery; interviewing techniques stress and relaxation techniques; what every woman needs to know about the law; gamesmanship, hierarchies and sexual harassment; the Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981; pros and cons of sexual freedom and its impact on women; hormones and harmony; active listening and networking.

Our session on aerobics will include both a demonstration and exercise. This will be led by Patsie Ross, part-time instructor in the Texas Tech Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Welch will conduct the workshop on networking, a nationwide movement which gained impetus through her best-selling book.

The Texas Tech

University Division of Continuing Education has coordinated the conference.

Local Deltas Making Plans Here

The Lubbock Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority is getting an early start in planning for Black History month. According to Gwen Titus, president of the chapter, the sorority will present the black musical "Movin' On Up: The Black Experience in Song," on February 11, 1982.

"In conjunction with Black history month, we thought we should bring something entertaining and educational to the total community," Titus said.

The musical is an AFRI Productions, which is a non-profit theatrical producing organization specializing in touring high quality Black Musical Theatre productions coast to coast.

The musical will be presented at 7:30 p.m. at the University Center Theatre on the Texas Tech campus. Tickets will be $10 for adults and $5 for students.

Proceeds from this event will help in establishing two scholarship funds to be awarded to young ladies graduating from Estacado and Dunbar High School.

Something Different About Samuel Curtis

by Denise Kinner

There is something different about Samuel Curtis. You realize that when you first meet him, but then, prison changes a lot of people. It was an experience that Curtis says he'll never forget.

"It was a hard pull. I don't think I could go through it again. The majority of the people there didn't realize they were in prison. Some people enjoyed being in prison because they are not recognized in the free world and when they go to prison they're put over other people and they can be boss."

Curtis served seven months of a three year prison term for possession of stolen property. After being paroled from Huntsville State Prison, in October 1980, he was released to Eagle Wing Halfway House in Lubbock. He has since been released from the halfway house.

During his stay in Lubbock, Curtis has had the opportunity to speak to a class at Texas Tech about life in prison. Besides speaking to classes, Curtis says he would like to try and help young people and give them some direction in life, so that they will not make the same mistakes as he.

Curtis says he feels fortunate to have been released to the halfway house in Lubbock because of the kindness shown him, especially in the East Lubbock community. But above

Editorial VOTE YES!!!

The Lubbock Digest has carefully evaluated the needs, concerns and aspirations of the City of Lubbock as far as planned growth and organized growth. We know since Lubbock is a part of the Sunbelt, it will grow. We must be prepared to compete with other Sunbelt cities.

Therefore, we URGE your YES VOTE on all 8 propositions to finance the $42,547,000 capital improvement package through 1987. We urge your YES VOTE on Saturday, November 21st. Most of all, we URGE you to vote, regardless of how you may vote.

In a breakdown of the 8 propositions, here is the way we see each:

Street Improvements - $9,495,000. We urge you to vote YES. This includes the East 34th & Quirt Avenue right-of-way.

Traffic Signal Controls - $4,283,000. Yes, the present system is outdated. Traffic flow will only get worse with growth.

Water Resources - $5,226,000. We urge YES!! No explanation needed. Every West Texan knows the importance of water for West Texas.

Sanitary Sewer System - $7,892,000. YES! To be able to meet growth and demand!

Air Transportation - $12,854,000. YES! This is necessary to keep pace with growth of the Southwest. Whether you use the airport or not, goods and services are very necessary here.

Fire Protection - $377,000. YES! No explanation needed!

Health Care - $1,000,000. YES! It is important that we be able to keep up with the times. Health is important to all of us.

Athletic Funds - $920,000. YES! We must keep pace with competitive cities on the South Plains for tournament revenues. Anyway, people need wholesome recreation after a hard day's work.

It is very important that we support this BOND ELECTION. You can do so by joining us on SATURDAY, November 21st, between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. VOTE YES!!!

Life Style

by Joe McConnell

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Here is another series by Mr. Joe McConnell about "Life Style." It is his way of sharing his own experiences in life.)

What Is Maturity??

This Is What A Community Needs!

First Maturity is the ability to control anger and settle difference without violence or destruction. Maturity is patience. It is the willingness to pass up immediate pleasure in favor of the long-term gain. Maturity is perseverance, the ability to sweat out a project or a situation in spite of heavy opposition and discouraging set back. Maturity is the capacity to face unpleasantness and frustrations, discomfort and defeat, without complaint or collapse. Maturity is humility. It is being "Big" enough to say "I was wrong." And, when right the mature person need not experience the satisfaction of saying, "I told you so." Maturity is the ability to make a decision and stand by it. The immature spend their lives exploring endless possibilities then they do nothing. Maturity means dependability, keeping one's word, coming through in a crisis. The immature are masters of the alibi. They are the confused and the disorganized. Their lives are a means of broken promises, former friends, unfinished business and good intentions that some how never materialize.

another? Learning to live contentedly without consumption goes against the grain of our culture, but is possible in the context of community. Incomes can be cut if every family does not have to have its own laundry facilities, tools, automobiles, house, etc. Concern for the ecosystem adds to the need for developing a simple yet adequate life style. Simplifying our lives also means pruning our abundance of activities to focus energy and to provide time to be present to each other. Many people are finding their present occupations incompatible with their life goals and with the way they like to live. As part of a community it becomes more possible to risk making radical changes in employment. If our answer is "yes" to any or all of the above questions, you are probably already interested in, or trying to build, a community, or commune, where a number of people share and interact a great deal with each other.

Scout-O-Rama Chairman Named

Jim Blagg, Assistant City Manager for the City of Lubbock, has been named the general chairman for the 1981 Scout-O-Rama. The big Scout show is staged annually to demonstrate to the public the many feats of skills and knowledge the youth of the South Plains Council process. Blagg said, "This year our theme is Scouting Game: Play It With a Friend. The show this year will be full of excitement and games of skill competition. Fun for the whole family." The main show will be staged at the Lubbock Civic Center on Saturday, December 5th. A preliminary show will be held at Plainview on November 21st. A Scout-O-Rama ticket is good for either show.

Bond Issue — The Other Side: Their Motives!!

by Eddie P. Richardson, Jr.

The sad thing about the largest organized group against the November 21st Bond Issue is it is based on spite and "get even" with the City of Lubbock. The protest stems from zoning — like longtime city hall critic Jimmy Marshall, who is the chief consultant to the group fight against city hall — started over 20 years ago over zoning and a fence.

When you function out of spite and resentment, the results usually backfire. According to Chapter Fourteen of the Texas Campaign Reporting and Disclosure Act, their effort is on the wrong side of the law. Some of the excerpts from this act states:

(M) "Measure" is defined as any proposal submitted to the people for their approval or rejection at an election, including any proposed law, Act or part of the legislature, revision of or amendments to the constitution, local, special, or municipal legislation or proposition or ballot question.

(O) "Political committee" is defined as any group of persons (1) formed to collect contributions or make expenditures in support for or in opposition to a candidate or candidates, whether presently identifiable or not, or a measure or measures, whether presently identifiable or not, on a ballot in a public election; or (2) formed to collect contributions or make expenditures.

(R) "Political advertising" is defined as anything in favor of or in opposition to any candidate for public office or office of a political party, or in favor of or in opposition to any political party, or in favor of or in opposition to the success of any public officer, or in favor of or in opposition to any measure submitted to a vote of the people, which is communicated in any of following forms:

(B) Every candidate for nomination to or election to a state or district office and every specific purpose political committee in any such election or in an election involving a statewide or district measure and every general purpose political committee shall designate a campaign treasurer by written appointment filed with the Secretary of State, and may also designate assistant campaign treasurers for each county by written appointment to be filed either with the county clerk of said county, or the Secretary of State.

(F) (2) A political committee existing prior to the effective date of this Act shall file a new designation of a campaign treasurer with the appropriate authority for that committee (before accepting) any additional contributions or making any additional expenditures after the effective date of this Act.

Art. 14.03. Campaign Contributions. (A) It shall be lawful for an individual not acting in concert with any other person to expend a sum in a campaign which shall not in the aggregate exceed $100 per election for any lawful purpose out of his own funds to aid or defeat any candidate or measurer, where the sum is not to be repaid to him. Such a sum will not be reportable to any authority unless it constitutes a contribution. If an individual not acting in concert with any person wishes to expend more than $100 for any lawful purpose out of his own funds to aid or defeat any candidate or candidates or measurers, he may do so either by making a contribution or by complying with all of the provisions of this chapter as he were a campaign treasurer of a political committee.

(C) It shall be unlawful for any person to make any contribution or expenditure in the name of another or on behalf of another without revealing that fact in order that the proper disclosure may be made.

Maybe this group against the bond election didn't know the following:

Art. 14.05. Criminal Penalty. Any person who knowingly makes or knowingly accepts an unlawful contribution or who knowingly makes an expenditure in violation of this Chapter shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor unless otherwise provided by law.

Listen and analyze both sides of the issues and VOTE!! Vote your conviction, but most of ALL... VOTE!! With the Voting Rights Act extension still not settled, the right to vote is a very sad right to lose!!

Lubbockite To Conduct Seminar

Robert J. Esch will be returning home this week to conduct a Texas State Teachers Association (TSTA) Minority Involvement Seminar. According to Robert, the purpose of the seminar is to develop an awareness of TSTA as well as the local association and to develop leadership skills necessary to become a more active participant in the United Teaching Profession (UTP). Mr. Esch has been on the TSTA staff as a union person since December, 1977. Prior to joining TSTA, he taught fifth grade at Hodges Elementary School. Mr. Esch has been very active in the local community as well as his sorority, Alpha Kappa Alpha. The seminar will be held Saturday, November 21st, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at O.L. Stalon Junior High School. Minority teachers as well as administrators are encouraged to attend. Lunch will be provided for those who attend. Reservations can be made by calling Margaret Randle at 747-2641, ext. 476.

Roy Wilkins: A Giant To Be Remembered

Recently an elementary classroom teacher I used to have asked her sixth grade students what they knew of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. To the teacher's complete surprise and amazement, not one student knew more than simply the name. It is not permit this to happen again to any of our heroes—and we say this particularly in a time when a giant hero like Roy Wilkins has so lately left us. The virtues were the undimmed ones—simplicity, integrity, persistence, loyalty and dedication to the best interests of the race as he saw it in his own time and way.

When we preserve the heritage of a Roy Wilkins, then we do much more than bring the past to life. Additionally, we create a ready vehicle for inspiration for our own self-congratulation into lives of simplicity. We come to see ourselves in terms which call for no seeking other than that which grows out of our own times and majestic self-awareness. We become self-consciously, effortlessly and implicitly self-defined.

The heritage of Roy Wilkins also is a continuing work of hope in a time in our national and global experience when racial, ethnic values and accepted loyalties no longer prevail. Roy Wilkins lived on as a man who could be trusted. Whether time agreed with him or not, we could always know for which he stood.

This character is not always one of respect for individuals, as both Howard Thurman and Benjamin Mays have so eloquently indicated. Oppressed people cannot survive in many instances if they are open and honest. Thus they may need to feign, to obfuscate.

to others in the same manner as Roy Wilkins. To preserve the heritage and history of a Roy Wilkins is to preserve and enhance the present and to seek possibilities for all in our next hour, in our nation, in the civil halls and most importantly within our homes. For Roy Wilkins, God of heaven, will be kept alive.

The Truth of The Matter!

by Eddie P. Richardson

We as a people in Lubbock really did harm to ourselves Tuesday, November 3rd. If 81 year-old Jessie Johnson had to depend on our vote to keep the home he purchased and paid taxes on for 53 years, he would have received a grave miscarriage of justice as well as a few other senior citizens in Texas.

Maybe most of us do not realize that the Voting Rights Act is still not sealed in concrete yet. If we lose this right, then we will be back to where we used to be - complaining about not having the right to vote. In Precinct 20, alone with over one thousand people registered to vote, only 39 voted. This is a downright sad situation. We have had mixed reactions for printing the names of a few people who did not vote. One person was glad because they had a deceased relative on the list which was a reminder for them to have the name removed from the voting list. Others have threatened law suits, others boycotts. No matter what the reaction - it's apparently working. By the way, that information is public record.

Even realizing some people could have been out-of-town and did not vote absentee, some could have worked over twelve hours, some could have been ill, some could have just plain forgotten and some just plain could care less. When you think about it, 59 out of 1,200 is a disgrace and unacceptable on any standard!

What makes this situation so bad is we go to City Hall and raise Cain, go to meetings and complain, then we fail to exercise one of our most precious rights as Americans. When you do not vote, politicians react to that. When you vote, politicians react to that also. This one practice we must abandon immediately. If we are truly concerned and want our voices heard, we must vote. If you vote, you have a voice. If you do not vote, you have no voice ... and that's a fact!!

This columnist had the distinctive honor of representing this publication last Friday evening (November 13) at the Chamber of Commerce's annual banquet which was, in this writer's opinion, the biggest event in Lubbock for a long time. The Vice President of the United States of America was the guest speaker. The high point of this affair was his speech. A special arrangement of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic", played and arranged by the Air Training Command, Lackland Air Force Base Band of the West, sung by T Sgt. Emmanuel Williams was great. He just happened to be a brother.

Saturday, November 14, was a very special day for those in attendance of the 4th Annual Market and Consumer Seminar. A lot of good professional information was presented by the people who know and by people who are making things happen. The panel members, represented by big business, educational, private business, various financial consultants, and governments agencies, were great. The panel members were rich in experience and knowledgeable of the world of work, and the function of the free enterprise system. Mayor Pro Tem Alan Henry and newly elected Texas Municipal League President, did a splendid job as toastmaster.

The highlight of the day was Mr. & Mrs. George V. Smith of Houston - representing The Smith Pipe Companies, as they mingled with the people in the audience. Mrs. Smith did a beautiful job participating with the panel members in the question and answer sessions. The event of the day was when Mr. Smith told it like it really is about the American Free Enterprise System. He gave himself as an example of how it applies to all Americans if the individual is willing to work and pay the price. He told the not enough people in the audience that there is no room for excuses if you really want a share of the American dream. For example, no education. He went through the third grade, Black (look at me), no money. He said: "I did not have any money, had to go to work from the third grade to help me and the other children."

He continued: "My daddy was a drunk; my daddy died when I was three months old; my mother remarried and stayed together long enough to have four more children. My step-father was a drunk, and so was my mother. She drank until she was 54 years of age. She is 85 years old now. I built her a new home. It was just finished a few days ago."

The people in attendance lives will be richer after Saturday, November 14th. One sad thing was some of the young people who would have benefited more from this true life "Rags to Riches Experience" finished their meal and left. The ones who remained for Mr. Smith's speech received something. The only reason why he came here was to help some young people. The main reason for these seminars is to serve as image building for young people.

But no doubt about it, Saturday, November 14th, was a very busy and exciting day. The publishers of this publication was invited to the Outreach Prayer Breakfast. We were told it was very important that we be there. After leaving the seminar, we went to the breakfast, we received the roughest roast of all times. They demanded T. J. and I read some mistakes we had made in an issue they had recently. We took the paper and opened it, and low and behold there were three pages covered with green dollar bills, plus one of the nicest "thank you" letters we have ever received. T. J. and I were dumbfounded. Thank you!! NUFSED!!

The same day, we were informed by the Outreach Youth Ministries they were going to honor us. So in spite of somebody out there trying to hurt us, there are those who appreciate what the Lubbock Digest is attempting to do - and that is to focus and refocus minds in the Black Community for the good of all America, and to be primarily oriented to and basically reflective of the Black Community in a positive and self-determining and sustaining manner for the good of us all.

"Thank You!"

Dear Mr. Richardson and Mr. Patterson:
The members and friends of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast truly appreciate you and your staff for being so kind and loving toward us - telling the City about the breakfast, and what's going on. Oh how good and pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in Unity!
We love you and all your staff.

Guest Editorial When Polls Open Nov. 3rd Vote!!

by Tony Davis
Publisher, Dallas Weekly

(Editor's Note: This an editorial from Tony Davis' Dallas Weekly, dated October 30 - November 5, 1981. Even though the date has passed, the message is forever current. The importance is voting is necessary for all of us).

If you fail to vote ... then you will have no say in many issues that will be decided by the SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS ... no say about SAVING THE JOHNSON FARM ... and NO SAY about the many other items that are on the ballot... or in the machine ... whichever way you prefer to refer to the happenings...!!
Past elections have shown us the folly of NOT VOTING ... what it can do to you and yours... This writer is sick to death of the many times what we have heard registered voters say ... "My lone vote does not mean anything" ... they are wrong as TWO LEFT FEET ... YOUR LONE VOTE DOES COUNT and many an election has been won by JUST ONE VOTE ... or a COUPLE VOTES or even 10 ... and without the ONE ... you never count to 10!! Plus ... just think of what happens when about 20,000 Non-Voting Blacks stay away from the polls with EACH SAYING ... "My one vote does not count."

Frankly, when you fail to vote you harm yourself more than anyone else ... especially, any candidate ... those who are against you are gleeful that you did not vote ... those who are helpful to you ... are saddened by your absence ... !!! Many happenings ... are dependent and make decisions by counting the VOTERS ... RESPECT from politicians are mainly determined by THE NUMBERS OF VOTERS AND IT DOES AFFECT THEIR VOTE ... If you are know to not vote ... why should he care about your welfare ... or desires ... after all, you are not going to get in position to help him get back in office ... and any politician knows that out of office ... he cannot help anyone or any issue!!

THINKING ABOUT THIS: ... If the VOTE did not mean so much ... then why are the BIGOTS WAGING AN ALL OUT WAR TO PREVENT THE EXTENSION OF THE VOTING RIGHTS ACT...?? Many parts of the NORTH AND SOUTH have learned to use the ballot ... MICHIGAN better than any state ... but even MISSISSIPPI is changing, mainly because of the Black use of the ballot ... TEXAS would be a better state, if Blacks learned to use their ballot effectively... than they have in the past 10 years... that is since they started thinking that they "HAD IT MADE."

Sure the candidate needs your vote ... but more important than THAT ... is that the CANDIDATES KNOW ... that he OWES YOU HIS CONCERN AND CONSIDERATION ... when he votes on issues or things of concern to you ... but when you failed to VOTE ... he needs not worry or even think about you ... and HE WILL NOT ... no matter what he says about being a "MAN FOR ALL PEOPLE" ... the politician really means ... "ALL PEOPLE THAT VOTED FOR HIM TO BE IN OFFICE" ... If knowing that this is a political operation... at best... you should expect no less ... SO ... you have the chance AGAIN ... TUESDAY, NOV. 3rd ... to go to the polls and VOTE ... please do ... !!!

is a beautiful phrase but you are reminded that it is a very relative phrase. In other words, whose interest is being served? Does this "planned growth" reflect the wishes, desires, needs, hopes or aspirations of the entire citizenry? Are particular segments within this City being repeatedly denied a fair or reasonable share of the end result of the "planned growth" process? In the absence of fair representation on the City Council, County Commissioner's Court, (and other Courthouse Offices), School Board, etc., wouldn't you agree that certain geographical areas within this City have and continue to be left out of the mainstream, both economically and politically?

Sincerely,
Harry Stokley, Jr.

Letters to the Editor

"Fraud Funk Festival - Sponsored by ZTZ"

Dear Editor:
A concert was publically advertised by Lubbock newspapers and local radio stations, the first week in November and in some cases, weeks earlier. The concert was to be held November 6 at the Lubbock Colosseum and sponsored by the Tech organization ZTZ. The advertisements stated that the singers "Curtis Blow" and "The Seventh Wonder" were to be entertaining.

I attended this concert on November 6 and found false advertisement and false impersonation to be the case. Having paid money to see the concert, I found this to be a case of fraud against me and other Lubbock citizens that attended the concert.

The first band that played was a local band named "No Compromise." The second band that came on stage was introduced as "Direct Connection," a band from Houston, Texas. After the second band played their songs, the M. C. of the show came out on stage and asked the audience if they were "ready for the original rapper" - which is the title which Curtis Blow is known by. At that time a young man came on to the stage in a suit - presumed to be Curtis Blow. He spoke a little, while stage hands fixed crossed wires on the stage. The audience seemed puzzled by the young man, having been given the impression that he was Curtis Blow. Before the young man left the stage, he announced that he would "be back later with some rapping." Next the third band came on stage. Before this band played its last song, the M. C. appeared from behind the curtain and said something to the effect of "Let's hear it for The Seventh Wonder." At that point, the lead singer of the band stopped to look at the M. C., he then turned to the audience and said "That's wrong, we are not The Seventh Wonder, we are 'Something Cool.'" He noted also that they were from Houston. After this band played their last number, the lights of the colosseum were turned on. The audience remained in their seats. The feeling was puzzling because there were still expectations and shouts for Curtis Blow. After realizing that was the end of the show, people began to leave.

I'm sure you understand my complaint. Not only were the advertisements for the concert false, the announcement of a change in the show was not given and there was false impersonation on the stage in two, maybe three instances.

This was a public event, public advertisement was used and the number of the public that paid their money to see the concert was deceived. I see this as a very serious public offense and would appreciate your help in resolving this act of fraud.

Thank you for your attention,
Regina G. Ray

"Continues to Write Digest"

Dear Editor:
It appears that you and I are going to get to be pen pals on the Bond Election Issue. Let me begin by thanking you for sharing my views with the general public. I would also like to thank you for reminding me of the manner in which city officials select and appoint members to their various Boards and Commissions. After all, one does have a tendency to forget when he has only been asked to serve on one since 1971. However, I do recall that I was granted the right to refuse to serve on that commission if those were my wishes. And, unless the rules have changed considerably, I think you were given that same option when asked to serve on the committee for Capital Improvements. "You are still playing games Brother."

At the community meeting on last Monday night, I heard no Black citizen get up and express opposition to planned growth and progress for Lubbock, Texas. What I did hear a considerable amount of opposition to is the raw fact that, "East Lubbock is being excluded from the Plan!" Even the most illiterate or naive citizen in the community can see that. Yet, you as one of our "leaders" would encourage us to turn out in masses to support the Bond. Well, Mr. Editor, I have far too much self respect and respect for struggling citizens in East Lubbock to allow for the exclusion of Black people from that "Plan." I am definitely challenging any self respecting citizen of East Lubbock to take the same stand. We must, as a collective community, be willing to say to our elected officials that we demand our fair share of the tax dollars generated in this community. As I see it, there is no better way to express this point than to turn out in force on November 21st and vote "NO" on every proposition.

In conclusion, I am aware that we will sacrifice some very needed services if the total package is defeated, but this is the only way that we can get the message across to our elected officials. I am also certain that this is precisely what was expressed to you and the Mayor on Monday night by angry East Lubbock citizens.

Cordially,
Oscar Jones

(Editor's Note: Thanks again for expressing yourself as to how you feel about the upcoming Bond Election. Perhaps your interest will serve as a catalyst to get more people to the polls on November 21st. From your letter, it appears to me that you are for planned growth, and hope you will vote "YES" on next Saturday. By the way, your input was really a political announcement, and you will not be billed for it. YE ED)

"Responds to This N That"

Gentlemen:
This is in reference to the November 12, 1981 edition of subject newspaper.

On page 10, under the caption "This N That", you displayed one of the most flagrant violations I have ever seen pertaining to the secret ballot. In my opinion, you have invaded the privacy of every individual whose name was listed as not having voted in the recent Constitutional Amendments Election (November 3, 1981). As you well know, I am personally a firm believer in the ballot and the necessity of full citizen participation. However, the public disclosure of the names of those who did not vote appears to be a violation of the trust placed in the Box 20 Precinct Judge.

In reference to the upcoming bond issue, we noted that you sandwiched a vague reference to my comments during the recent meeting at Mae Simmons Community Center regarding the bond election between your (Lubbock Digest) endorsements of the issues. The manner in which the reference was made could easily be construed as an endorsement by me!! This was misleading, and all of those who were in attendance are aware that I did not endorse any of the issues to be placed on the ballot. I simply reiterated the community's position that we want an overpass at the location in question ... or nothing at all!

You further stated "No one ... absolutely should not be against it." Based on your unequivocal stance in favor of the bond issue, you apparently intended to say "No one ... absolutely should be against it." You also inferred that those who oppose the bond issue are not for planned growth. I am not against any election!! However, I reserve my right to vote my choices on issues - whether they be pro or con. "Planned growth"

$15,000 or More
What's New About All Savers
Certificate

On October 1, 1981, all over America, A men and Bankers rejoiced. Rolling out special invitations and high powered campaigns to convince investors and savers to put their pennies into the "New All Savers Certificate."

Considering the savings to the banks and savings and loans associations it could be a big bonanza. But all that glitters is not gold, especially if you get to be the goat and not the getter. For those who don't look deep, they will find no gold in the "New All Savers Certificate" only grass.

The "New All Savers Certificate" is sponsored to give you $1,000 tax free, or even as much as $2,000 if you have a legal spouse. There is a "catch-22" of course. First, in order to get the $2,000 tax-free you must deposit $15,860 and leave it there in the bank for a year. No more tax-free interest by the way after the $2,000.

This $15,860 figure is founded upon the fact that you did indeed deposit that sum of money on October 1st or 2nd at the latest. The interest rate dropped to 12.14% from 12.61% to the utter dismay of most bankers. It turns out the Depository Institutions Deregulation Committee has the ultimate authority on these matters and dictated the drop in interest rates earlier than anyone expected them.

The interest rate is expected to be set at 70% of the U. S. Treasury bill auction rate of the fourth Thursday of the month for the next Monday. Which brings up another investment point, why take a 30% interest rate discount from your $10,000 Treasury bill to start with? Especially since the "New All Savers Certificate" interest income is not exempt from state taxes.

Congress got the "New All Savers Certificate" going by getting people to believe they have the ability to not only save the entire housing industry, but also to provide much needed mortgage money to help all Americans buy homes. Another notable cause that failed from the start.

Short-term funds, one-year deposits for the bankers, better not be used for long-term loans for mortgages. That is more of the same of the present problem in the banking and savings and loan industries.

Unfortunately, the current culprit is the Money Market Fund. High daily interest rates and immediate withdrawal of funds deposited is an excellent alternative investment to any existing bank savings accounts. At 16 1/2% daily average interest rates the Money Market Funds pay, they run rings around locked up Certificates of deposits at lesser rates.

The "New All Savers Certificate" is competitive if you are in a high (44% tax bracket, but pales for poorer people. Alexander Grant & Co., a national CPA firm, claims a joint tax return in 1982 with taxable income over $45,800 will be getting a tax equivalent yield of 22 1/2%. In short, it would take a non taxable investment returning 22 1/2% in cash to equal the tax free return of 12.61% offered the first two days in October on the "New All Savers Certificate" for those in the 44% tax bracket. However, for those in the lowest tax bracket the tax bracket is marginal if not non-existent.

Citibank, New York City's biggest bank, is counseling anyone with a gross income below $15,000 or thereabouts, as well as, anyone who cannot park their money for a year, against participating in the "New All Savers Certificate." A word from the wise should suffice.

Ringling The Bell

by Bob Tieucl

From a Black Teacher's Viewpoint: "Dear Bob-- As an elementary teacher for 12 years, I can't help being more than a little annoyed by the criticism heaped upon the public schools today. I don't think our schools are as good as they should be, but neither do I think that public education should be made the scapegoat for all of society's problems.

"First, it is time the public realized that schools have changed. No longer is there a clear separation between home and school. Where once home was the place where self-esteem, respect, discipline, and values were nurtured, that role has now shifted to the schools. Teachers now serve as surrogate parents as well as amateur psychologists, counselors, sociologists, lawyers and disciplinarians. On top of this, we are expected to teach the three R's, which is our main job.

I have no quarrel with educating the 'wheel child' and monitoring his or her physical, mental, and emotional well-being. No teacher can assume that kind of responsibility for every student, however.

Students are confined about what school is for. Are they to learn, or to socialize? Should they expect learning to be fun, or should they demand a challenging curriculum? Should they be dependent upon teachers for answers, or should they be motivated to think for themselves? The state must provide adequate funding.

Administrators must back their personnel. Teachers must be prepared to teach. Parents must take more than a passing interest in what their children are learning. We all need to stop passing the buck to one another, and work together to get the job done."

signed J. L. S.
Well said Madam school marm. I bet a lot of bell-ringers agree with you. Let's back our public schools 100 percent and demand quality education and forget about busing, me thinks.

Black churches and black people themselves have always been in some significant sense, this nation's conscience. This fresh coming together of seven of the major historic black denominations reflects officially the religious aspirations, heritage and purpose of more than one half of all black Americans.

According to the National Black Monitor, The Congress of National Black Churches is thus a black response -- at once infinitely religious and profoundly patriotic -- to the social and civic disintegration among "our perplexed and beleaguered youth, in our embattled and fractured families and in the fragile and disintegrated black communities throughout the land." These seven national black church bodies present a membership of an estimated fifteen million people and provide the primary informal network of influence in the nation's black community.

The National head of the NAACP, Attorney Benjamin L. Hooks of Washington, D. C., believes that more white people will be affected by present administration cuts than blacks. He said in Dallas recently that in gross numbers, there are 20 million poor white families and eight million poor black. He added "If the tax cuts trigger another round of inflation, which I am sure they will, then white people will discover that eggs don't go up simply in the supermarkets where blacks trade, they go up everywhere. I think that it is a tragedy that a lot of white people in this nation have not awakened to the fact that these huge budget cuts in social programs is an assault on the poor of the nation, not just blacks," end of quote.

Responding to controversial new U. S. Department of Education research that claims bilingual education programs don't work, one high NEA official declared "Teachers consistently express support of good bilingual education as an effective way of meeting the needs of non-English-speaking students."

This Week - The Digest Examines

A Black Cooperative Effort

There is virtue in adversity. Seen posted on a wall as a magnificently beautiful reminder in this regard, in these words: "Hidden in every difficult situation there is a treasure of goodness." This is true for individuals and for groups.

The tragically alarming announcement by the federal government more than a year ago regarding the escalating black youth illiteracy rate represents an exceedingly difficult situation which is beginning to be filled with bright promise. An adversity facing us in the black community may thus become -- as it now seems to be -- a tremendously important opportunity.

Specifically, the federal government has indicated that 44 percent -- or nearly one-half -- of all of our black youth leaving school at age eighteen and older cannot read at or above the fourth grade level!

Such incapacitated persons cannot ever be hired permanently in our present-day society because they cannot read posted warning signs or labels of instruction. Consider, then, the plight of a race where -- twenty years from now -- one half of us will be like unemployable parasites and like unproductive dependents who are gratuitously supported by a largely white America. It takes very little imagination to see that every black American will have at least the image of being expediable.

It has been in the face of this awesome predicament, which is perhaps the worst in our entire history of freedom, that those in the leadership of our national black groups have begun to come together in a manner as never before.

Bill Brooks, president of the National Association of Black M.B.A.'s (Masters of Business Administration), has said that all of our groups must work together now, otherwise it may be too late. Barbara Phillips, national president of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, has indicated that every previous goal of inter-group cooperation must now be surpassed. Leon Sullivan, chairman of the Opportunities Industrialization Centers (OIC's) has called upon every black group across the nation to work together behind, or as a part of, what has now come to be known as the National "Assault-On-Illiteracy-Program" ("A-O-I-P").

The National "Assault-On-Illiteracy-Program" or "A-O-I-P" has enlisted on its national steering committee (presently serve as its Board of Directors) the heads of more than fifty major black national organizations. That kind of cooperative achievement is almost unprecedented. Here are just a few of the kinds of groups whose leaders are involved: The Congress of National Black Churches (or CNBC, comprising the seven historic black denominations and their leadership), the National Council of Negro Women; the Booker T. Washington Foundation; the National Business League; the National Negro Press Association; the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; the National Black Police Association; the Colored Women's Professional Clubs; the major Greek Letter organizations; and the professional associations (including importantly the National Association of Black School Administrators and the National Association of Black Social Workers).

These are just a few of the more than fifty groups whose national leaders are giving leadership, direction and projection to the National "Assault-On-Illiteracy-Program". "A-O-I-P" is presently the major cooperative effort of our national black leadership community.

If your group's leadership is not already enrolled in a major capacity with "A-O-I-P", you might encourage them to get involved immediately. The monumental and urgent task that we face calls for nothing less than a total commitment from all of the leadership groups in the black community.

"A-O-I-P" is not based upon, nor does it essentially ask any participating group for, money. Some monies are needed largely on a local basis. Some groups nationally have chosen to make special resources, available to specific targeted communities. But "A-O-I-P" is designed to help all of our groups make the most of our already existing resources.

In this latter respect, "A-O-I-P" on the local, state and national levels represents perhaps the most strategic framework we have ever had for our groups to mesh their present resources for the most optimally effective results.

Local Task Forces for "A-O-I-P" and State Committees for "A-O-I-P" need to be created across the country. Every church and club, and every business, civic, social or professional group in the black community needs to be involved in this unprecedented effort in black cooperation. The adversity is great. So may be its virtues also!

Please write today for further information to: "A-O-I-P", 770 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10003.

BLACK POETRY

Mothers of The World

To all the mothers of the world who pained to give birth so we could live and enjoy the wonderful earth

To all the mothers of the world who worked hard for the money so we would always have our milk with some honey

To all the mothers of the world who had to fight for their children to make things right

To all the mothers of the world who stuck with us and gave their love and trust we the children of this world will love you forever forget you: love we shall never and if we can we'll try to follow your dreams but if we don't we are sure you'll understand (dedicated especially to my mother)

HE'S GOT A NATURAL GIFT FOR POLITICS: A SHORT MEMORY

Sunday School Lesson One Body And One Spirit

Background Scripture: Ephesians 4:1-16

Ephesians 4:1-16
 1 I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called.
 2 with all lowliness and meekness, with patience, forbearing one another in love,
 3 eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
 4 There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call.
 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
 6 one God and Father of us all, who is above all and through all and in all.
 7 But grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift.
 8 Therefore it is said, "When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men."
 9 (In saying, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth?
 10 He who descended is he who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.)
 11 And his gifts were that some should be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers,

12 for the equipment of the saints, for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ,
 13 until we all attain to the unity of the faith and the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ;
 14 so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the cunning of men, by their craftiness in deceitful wiles.
 15 Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ,
 16 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every joint with which it is supplied, when each part is working properly, makes bodily growth and upbuilds itself in love.

WORDS OF LIFE
Biblical Inspiration For The Week
"I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for good and not evil, to give you a future and a hope."
 — Jeremiah 29:11

Rev. Robinson Speaks Ministers Must Inform Their People!!

The divorce rate is high and will get even higher unless we as ministers of God preach and demonstrate the will of God as it relates to marriage.
 In many cases, adultery is never mentioned in the preacher's message to the people. I do know that out of all the preaching a minister may do, there will be some who will divorce. Yet the pastors should let the people know that the family unit is very important, and we cannot get to heaven unless we obey the Word of God as it relates to the family.
 The concerned minister is the one who teaches his people the Will of God, which says: "Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands as unto the Lord. For the husband is head of the church, and He is savior of the body. Therefore, as the church is subject unto Christ so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives even as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself for it," Ephesians 5:23, 24 & 25.
 Notice, the happy marriage is one in which the wife has not become a part of women's liberation in that she lets Satan deceive her as he did Eve, by closing her eyes and ears to the truth of God so that she no longer believes that she has to be subject and obedient to her own husband.
 Because a woman works is no excuse for her not to obey the Word of God, by saying, "There is no head in our house; we both work and so we are equal." For in reading the Holy Scriptures you will find that God made the man head. In making the man head of the wife and family, God requires that the man love his wife just as Christ loved the church, in that He gave Himself for it. The Lord requires the man not to be bitter toward his wife. It is the nature of most women to "fuss" sometimes; yet we must love them as we love ourselves.

 The wife is told of the Lord to see that she respect her husband. Ephesians 5:33. This respect is to be in love. She is not to think of her husband as being "so dumb." If Satan can bring into a home the lack of respect, the marriage can easily be destroyed.
 The greatest responsibility in a marriage is given to the man: "So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself." Ephesians 5:28. This is the plan and program of God for men to live by. We cannot expect to see God in peace unless we follow this program.
 To live by God's law will cancel the divorce rate; not to obey God will cause many homes to be destroyed.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The members and friends of the Prayer Outreach Breakfast met last Saturday morning at the Community Baptist Church at 9 a. m. Host was Mrs. Mildred Bogus with pastor, Rev. Tony Williams. This was an annual Pre-Thanksgiving Breakfast. Also a special thanks went out to Mr. J. J. Patterson and Mr. Eddie P. Richardson of the Lubbock Digest. Opening devotion was taken from 23rd Psalm. Participating were Mrs. M. Bogus, Mrs. J. Ervin, Mrs. C. I. Brown and Mrs. M. Ward.
 Morning devotion involved silent meditation. Each thanking God for all their many blessings; singing of praise. Psalm 133 was most appropriate for this gathering.
 "How wonderful it is, how pleasant, when brothers in harmony! For harmony is as precious as the fragrances of anointing oil that was poured over Aaron's beard, and ran down onto his beard and onto the border of his robe; harmony is as refreshing as the dew on Mount Harmon. On the mountain of Loyal, and God has pronounced this

Faith First Baptist Church News

Sunday School was 9:30 a. m. last Sunday morning. The lesson was "A More Excellent Way." The scripture was 1 Corinthians 12:27; 13:13.
 The devotional during the morning worship hour was led by Sis. A. Mozely, Sis. L. Lewis, Sis. F. Dinwiddie and Sis. M. Wallace. Evangelist L. F. Craig delivered the message of the hour. His subject was "What You Talkin' Bout Preacher." His text was found in Acts 17:16-28. The sermon was enjoyed by all.
 Let us continue to pray for our sick and shut in members of the church and community.

The Donation Process
 Donors give blood in one of two ways. They either go to a blood center, or the blood center staff comes to them through a mobile blood drive.
 Blood donors at either location receive specialized attention so that the experience is as pleasant, safe and brief as possible. First, the prospective donor is registered and asked some simple questions about current health and medical history. A mini-physical examination is conducted to check the volunteer's temperature, blood pressure, iron level, and pulse. For the protection of both donor and patient the volunteer must meet basic qualifications to donate.
 If all the checks show the volunteer to be healthy, he or she is escorted to the donation area. While relaxing on a lounge, the donor's arm is cleaned and a unit of blood (approximately one pint) is collected. The blood flows into a bag and is immediately mixed with an anticoagulant and preservative. The donation itself only takes about 5 minutes. The donor then rests a few minutes, has a light snack and beverage, and returns to normal activities.
 The donation of blood is the first and most important step in the lifeline to the patient. However, it is only the first step in preparing a unit for transfusion to the patient. It must now undergo a series of tests and processing steps before it may be used.
 In a complicated, time-consuming process the blood must be typed, tested for antibodies and hepatitis, and in some

THE MAYOR & CITY COUNCIL ARE ASKING LUBBOCK TAXPAYERS TO PAY $180,877,666.00 INTEREST ON A $42,500,000.00 OBLIGATION BOND SALE OVER A 40 YEAR PERIOD HAS TRIGGERED A

LUBBOCK TAX PAYERS REVOLT AGAINST SELLING $42,500,000.00 GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS

On November 21st the Taxpayers of Lubbock are being asked to mortgage their property by voting to sell $42,500,000.00 in General Obligation Bonds for permanent City improvements. A Grand total of $222,877,666.00

The Mayor and City Council are asking Taxpayers for authority to sell bonds at any price they see fit to accept and at any interest that they see fit. This $42,500,000.00 indebtedness is to mature over 40 years.

AIRPORT

The Lubbock Taxpayers Revolt Association is tired of taxation without representation. The airport terminal building has 19,500 sq. ft. of floor space. Originally the taxpayers voted $14,000,000.00 in bonds to build it. Now the mayor and city council are asking the taxpayers to vote 12.9 million for a 7,500 sq. ft. addition to this terminal building. The Taxpayers Revolt questions the judgment of this airport addition as well as all the other propositions.

The eight Propositions total $42,500,000.00. $21,670,000.00 of this is for streets, sewers, street lights and street signalization. The Ordinance is vague: not one street is named, therefore, not one street improvement must be made. When new Additions are developed, the Developers are required to pave the streets and install Water, Sewers and Lighting requirements for the new Additions.

The KITCHEN BEAT

COOKING WITH THE DE CUIR FLARE

In today's black American home, cooking is no longer the responsibility of one person. Because of busy and varied schedules, usually every member of the family at some time or another has to prepare personal meals or meals for other members of the family. The Kitchen Beat is designed to meet some needs of the various cooks in the modern black family.

Arthur DeCuir, a black man, is one of America's leading chefs and restaurateurs. He has been cooking ever since he was a child and prepared regional Louisiana creole cuisine for his family. Following his graduation as a licensed pharmacist, an experience which helped greatly in his culinary career by giving him knowledge of using precise measurements of ingredients he claims are important to a good chef, he entered the restaurant business. He worked in all departments of restaurant service and as chef in Louisiana, Houston, Chicago, Los Angeles, Washington, D.C., and New York City.

Mr. DeCuir is currently associated with Sardi's restaurant in New York City and is the culinary consultant to Champale, Inc., makers of the Champale line of malt liquors. As culinary consultant to Champale, he is touring the country to help consumers to learn how to apply the techniques and skills, menu planning and recipes he uses in the famed restaurants of the United States.

The following recipes are the same as the foods he prepares himself in his restaurant kitchens, and teaches to many famous restaurant personnel. He designed the recipes following the same ingredients and preparation that he uses in restaurants, for serving four to six.

STRIPED BASS STUFFED WITH OYSTER DRESSING

- 1 3 lb. striped bass*, scaled & slit open on one side
- 1 stalk celery, chopped
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 6 Tablespoons butter
- 8 slices stale white bread, cut into 1/2 inch cubes
- 1/2 teaspoon dried thyme leaves
- 1/2 teaspoon dried sage leaves
- 1 pint shucked oyster, drained
- 2 Tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Few turns of pepper mill
- 4 cups Extra Dry Sparkling Champagne

*Type of fish optional.

Preheat oven to 350°. Sauté celery and onion in butter. Use a large skillet, and sauté until soft, about 5 minutes. Add the bread crumbs and sauté until golden. Remove from heat. Stir in sage and thyme. Drizzle oysters with lemon juice and fold into the bread mixture. Butter a baking dish large enough to contain the fish, stuff the fish with oyster mixture, place in dish, and add the Champagne. Cover with tent of foil, place in heated oven and bake for 25-30 minutes. Test with tongs of fork for completion. If fish is flaky, it is done. (Serves 4)

CHICKEN LEMONNAISE WITH PINK NOODLES

- 2 chicken breasts, halved, skinned and boned
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 1/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs
- 5 Tbsp. oil or margarine
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 3 teaspoons flour
- 1 1/2 cups Extra Dry Sparkling Champagne
- 1/4 cup of chopped parsley
- 3 teaspoons lemon juice
- 1 pinch salt and white pepper, to taste
- 1/2 lb. of Fettucine
- 1 1/2 oz. bottle of Pink Champagne
- 2 cups water

SUPPORT
A. O. I. P.

Brush chicken with mayonnaise, coat with bread crumbs. In skillet, heat margarine or oil at medium heat. Add chicken breast and cook for 15 minutes until tender. Remove and keep warm. In saucepan, sauté onion in margarine or oil, stir in flour until well blended. Gradually stir in Extra Dry Champagne Malt Liqueur, lemon juice and parsley. Add Mayonnaise, cook and stir until hot, and sauce is reduced a little. Spoon sauce over chicken and garnish with slice of lemon and sprig of parsley. To prepare noodles, bring 12 oz. bottle of Pink Champagne to a boil and add 1/2 lb. of Fettucine. Serve the chicken on top of noodles.

We believe that our readers will want to support those advertisers who support the press of Black America. We are sure, therefore, that when you select the ingredients for this week's recipes, you will want to use:

- Gold Medal Wondra flour
- Iroquois Brands/Champale Kraft mayonnaise
- Land O' Lakes butter
- Lawry's seasonings and spices
- Mazola oil and margarine
- Pepperidge Farm bread and bread crumbs

TWO BOOKS FOR BEGINNING READERS

Window Wishing, by Jeanette Caines, illustrated by Kevin Brooks. Hardcover, $7.95 (Harper & Row, Publishers).

Walking barefoot on the sidewalk, having a peaceful picnic in a cemetery, going downtown to window wish are only some of the exciting and fun things that Bootsie and his sister experience while visiting their Grandma Mag. They spend their summer vacations with her. She's not your everyday, run-of-the-mill grandmother.

Grandma Mag is full of spunk and humor. Any child would love to visit with her. She even wears sneakers!

Imagination is an important part of a child's world. Grandma Mag seems to have tons to share. She and the children create a vacation that they'll always cherish.

Share this fun-filled story with your children—they too will enjoy what Window Wishing has to offer.

RUBY JAY'S CORNER by Ruby Jay

Sunday services at the New Hope Baptist Church were great, beginning with Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Sis. Dorothy Kiener, assistant superintendent, presiding.

Morning worship services began with devotion, led by Deacons Kelly and Swain. Choirs were in their places at the right time. The sermon was brought by Rev. A. L. Dunn, pastor. His scripture was taken from St. Matthew 3:1-3.

The Baptist Training Union met from 6 to 7 p. m. Director Allen was at her post of duty. This group is still inviting members to attend. They are having a wonderful time.

Pastor A. L. Dunn, Deacon U. Kelly and Sis. Johnella Savage motored to Plainview, Texas last Sunday afternoon to worship with the Happy Union Baptist Church in the celebration of their pastor's fourth anniversary. Rev. J. V. Harris.

The Fifth Sunday Mission program will be held November 29th at 7 p. m. President Ruby Jay is counting on the members to do their part by paying $10.00.

Those who attended the West Texas Baptist Executive Board in Abilene, Texas last Wednesday and Thurs-

Premenstrual Pain Clinic Scheduled

Community Hospital of Lubbock will be conducting a Premenstrual Pain Examination, November 19, 1981, from 5 until 7 p. m. All women who experience premenstrual discomforts, such as irritability, tension, cramps or headache are urged to attend. Physicians and staff members will be donating their time and expertise to provide this examination at no charge to the community.

If you plan to attend, please call 795-9301, extension No. 45, to make your reservation.

American Diabetes Meets

The Greater Lubbock Chapter of the American Diabetes Association will have as its November meeting a cooking demonstration with Joy Parnell, Home Economist for Southwestern Public Service. The meeting will be tonight, Thursday, November 19, 7:30 p. m., at the Reddy Room, 1120 Main. A tasty holiday menu suitable for the Diabetic meal plan will be prepared. Linda Douglas, Registered Dietician, will be available to answer questions. For more information call 792-0675.

BLACK POETRY FEAR FOR LOVE

Do I love your friendship?
Or do I love you—
Is it right to love those things
one possesses?
Or to offer a kind hug
of sincerity?
What is fear of need than need itself?
Though I speak in shattered tongue,
Do I fear friendship—or its outcome?
Then I must fear love,
Regardless of what it is,
I love you with undying love.

Sheridan's Ride

For first time ever, the Lubbock Symphony Orchestra is offering a free to everyone public concert to be held at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Theatre at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center Theatre.

This concert will be conducted by the founder-conductor of the organization, William A. Harrod, and is made possible under the sponsorship of Target, Lubbock's store at University and the Loop.

The concert is called "Golden Melodies and Memories" and has been specially put together to honor the Senior Citizen community of the city. In the program one will find a wide-range of selections designed to please everyone in the audience and there will be, as an added highlight, refreshments and door prizes, all for no charge at all.

The afternoon program will open as is customary with the "Star Spangled Banner" and the program will include "Deep in the Heart of Texas," "Prayer of Thanksgiving," Tchaikovsky's "Sleeping Beauty Waltz," Stephen Foster's "Beautiful Dreamer," a medley of familiar themes from TV shows (Westerns), and the hymns, "Amazing Grace" and "How Great Thou Art," and Bizet's lively Gypsy Dance from the opera, "Carmen."

More there will be the familiar "Goin' Home" theme from Dvorak's "New World" Symphony, a collection of tunes called "songs of yesterday" and still more with "memories of America." You can find out further information if you will call the Symphony Office, 762-4707.

Remember, all this Scot free to everyone and all you have to do is just show up, sit down and back and enjoy.

The program is in line with other Symphony services for the community including the long-standing Youth Concerts given each year for the grade schools of the area.

The two best films of this year still on the screens in town are recommended for you: "The French Lieutenant's Woman," starring Meryl Streep, now at the Mann Theatres across from the South Plains Mall, and "Arthur" that comedy gem with Dudley Moore, Liza Minelli and the season's most sparkling performance, that of Sir John Gielgud; this one's been at the UA South Plains Cinema for five months, believe it or not!

vote for COMMON SENSE GROWTH!

OVER THE NEXT FIVE YEARS, THESE EIGHT PROJECTS ARE NEEDED TO KEEP LUBBOCK A GROWING, PROSPEROUS CITY. THESE ARE NOT FRILLS, BUT PROJECTS THAT WILL INSURE WE CONTINUE WITH THE COMMON-SENSE DEVELOPMENT OF LUBBOCK INTO A MAJOR MARKET CENTER IN WEST TEXAS, OFFERING ITS CITIZENS THE BEST POSSIBLE LIFE STYLE TO RAISE A FAMILY AND BUILD A FUTURE. READ THEM CAREFULLY AND BE SURE YOU VOTE THIS SATURDAY.

AIRPORT EXPANSION

The terminal at Lubbock International Airport was designed to serve four airlines. Today there are six, and two other major airlines have already secured Civil Aeronautics Board approval to serve Lubbock. But they might serve another city instead, if there's no room for them in Lubbock's terminal.

Airport officials report there is only 19,500 square feet of terminal space available to airlines. Existing airlines could use 27,000 square feet if it were available, and that still doesn't provide for growth. Why provide more air service to Lubbock? Because it opens the door from Lubbock to additional cities. This can be important to industry which can ship its goods to new markets. Air cargo operations at Lubbock have increased from 367 tons a year to 1,800 tons since this terminal was built. And it's still growing. This will provide $12,854,000 to expand the terminal and thereby expand air service to Lubbock.

WATER RESOURCES

We have an adequate water supply today because of the far-sighted planning of Lubbock's leaders back in the 1950s.

We have to be far-sighted, also. We must look even beyond our next major source of water and assure our grandchildren of a secure water supply.

This proposal would make $5,000,000 available to acquire rights to an additional underground water supply. This would allow us to meet peak daily needs in the future as the existing well supply is depleted. Another $226,000 is included on the ballot to provide water lines in growing areas of the city.

STREETS AND PAVING

More than 8,900 homes and apartments have been built since the last street improvements were authorized in a bond election.

Narrow, rural-type roads in some of these new neighborhoods are already carrying up to 9,000 cars a day.

The street work being proposed totals $9,495,000.

This amount would allow Quaker Avenue to be widened from the loop south to 98th Street. It would permit improved access into the city by widening Quaker south of Clovis Road to the loop.

Other proposals include widening 82nd Street east of University, Quirt Avenue south of 52nd Street and Frankford Avenue between 19th and 34th.

Another project would be to rebuild Quirt Avenue across the railroad at 34th Street, removing a long and dangerous curve.

FIRE PROTECTION

Homes, apartments, businesses and industries are springing up in areas outside of Loop 289, making it very difficult to reach them quickly in cases of a fire.

As the city grows, fire protection must grow with it.

Part of the $877,000 included for fire facilities would provide a suburban fire station where most needed.

Another project that is proposed is expansion of the fire training center in Northeast Lubbock. This would provide a better place to train our fire fighters, and it would be designed to house a fire crew and equipment to serve homes and industries in North and East Lubbock outside of Loop 289.

SEWAGE TREATMENT

One of the least familiar of our needs is one of the most important. Every growing community must keep its utility systems up to date.

There's nothing worse than an overloaded water reclamation plant.

The $7,892,000 proposed will accomplish three things:

It will permit a new trunk line in South Lubbock to serve new subdivisions.

It will allow a relief line in North Lubbock to prevent overloading of the sewage treatment plant on Clovis Road.

And it will allow improved treatment of wastewater so it can be sold for industrial use.

HEALTH CARE

In 1960, the health department conducted 8,200 laboratory tests.

Today, it's not unusual to handle that volume in one month.

The vital statistics department has run out of room to store birth and death certificates.

Clinic space is cramped.

But what can you expect in a building completed in 1956?

Lubbock population has grown ... the number of patients has grown

... the staff has grown ... everything has grown except the size of the building.

The $1,000,000 included on the ballot will provide larger quarters for the City Health Department.

TRAFFIC SYSTEM

Lubbock's population has increased 17 per cent since the new traffic signal system was installed. And the number of vehicles registered in Lubbock has increased even faster.

The type of computer that adjusts the timing of most signals is obsolete. Parts are harder to get. It is limited in how effectively it moves traffic.

Engineers say a more modern type of computer can decrease the overall traffic delay time by more than 21 per cent. They feel it can reduce accidents, too. Cost of the new central computer and related equipment is $4,283,000.

RECREATION

A decade ago, seven softball fields served our city well. The 80 or so teams had a great time ... such a good time that the sport grew and grew. Today there are more than 600 teams involved in softball leagues.

But there are still only those seven softball diamonds.

Additional fields with bleachers, lighting, concession stands and parking lots can be provided with the $920,000 on the ballot.

LUBBOCK IS GOING TO GROW..AND PLANNED GROWTH IS THE ONLY GROWTH THAT WE CAN AFFORD!

To All Our Neighbors... Have A Happy Thanksgiving!

-- Psalm 100 --

1. Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.
2. Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

3. Know ye that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

5. For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

Thanks to Mallard's Scalp Treatment I had spent hundreds of dollars trying to get my hair to grow. Everyone told me it was never. I had almost given up hope, until I read of Mallard's Scalp Treatment advertised in the paper. I wish to tell you of this wonderful product.
