CITIBUS CHANGES DOWNTOWN TRANSFER POINTS THIS WEEK

"Black Citibus Riders Want Indoor Shelter"

Although a change was made Monday morning in Citibus downtown transfer points, black commuters want the City of Lubbock to purchase the old drugstore building (John Halsey) at the corner of Avenue K and Broadway.

Conversation has begun loudly by black residents about the city not purchasing this building.

The transfer points went into effect Monday morning, March 16, according to John Wilson, transit coordinator for the city.

The transfer points, which had been at the intersection of Broadway and Avenue K, were moved two blocks east to the intersection of Broadway and Texas Avenue.

Routes taken by specific buses are designated on signs at all four corners of the new location. The new signs have been installed since last weekend.

Unlike the old transfer points at the former John Halsey Drug location (for northbound and westbound routes) and Goodwill Store (for southbound and eastbound routes), the new locations involve all four corners.

Westbound routes 3 and 15 will board on Broadway next to the Lubbock County Courthouse.

Eastbound routes 1, 10, and 14 will board on Broadway next to the Federal Building.

Eastbound and southbound routes 2, 6, 7, and 9 will board on Broadway next to the Mental Health-Mental Retardation office at Texas Avenue.

Westbound routes 5, 8, 12 and 13 will board on the north side of Broadway next to the parking lot at Texas Avenue.

"The route changes were made to provide more curb space for our new, longer buses," Wilson said.

However, some black residents are saying that local merchants were responsible for the change. Many were hoping of something to have come out of the meeting held Tuesday in City Council Chambers.

Wilberforce Celebrates 125th Anniversary

Ohio Governor, James Rhodes, Dayton Mayor, James Mc Gee, Xenia Mayor, Walter Marshall, Los Angeles Mayor, Tom Bradley, along with a host of elected officials throughout the nation, proclaimed the 125th anniversary of Wilberforce University, the first institution of higher learning owned and operated by Blacks.

The nation's oldest Black college, founded in 1856 near Xenia, in southern Ohio, has a proud history of innovative education, academic excellence and strong leadership. Five years before the Emancipation Proclamation, it served as a highly trafficked station of the Underground Railroad to aid and abet escaping slaves gain their freedom and their first exposure to education.

Wilberforce became known as one of the most effective civil rights institutions, vigorously involved in the Underground Railroad movement.

The law was passed in 1833, one month after his death. This law intensified the efforts of the anti-slavery movement in the United States.

Since 1863, Wilberforce, operating under the auspices of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, exemplifies the spiritual and rich educational fulfillment of Black people. The list of its administrators, faculty and staff, reads like a blue book of scholars, churchpersons and executives. Through times of adversity and near disaster, their loyalty and dedication has been unparalleled.

The University continues to pioneer in the academic field, becoming

President Proposes Cut In SBA Lending

In the budget revisions sent to Congress last week, President Reagan proposes to reduce U. S. Small Business Administration programs by a total of nearly $3 billion over the next two fiscal years.

The Agency's financial assistant programs fall roughly into three categories:

- 1) Direct loans in which loans are made to eligible businesses using taxpayers money.
- 2) Guaranteed loans in which loans are made by private lenders and SBA agrees to reimburse the lender for up to 90 percent of any loss suffered.
- 3) Disaster loans, mostly direct loans made to victims of declared natural disasters.

All three of these areas will be impacted. Over the next two years, direct loans will be reduced by $128 million, guaranteed loans reduced by $2 billion, and disaster loans reduced by $830 million.

The President also proposes to increase the interest rates on both direct loans and disaster loans. Direct loans are now made at a 9 1/2 percent interest rate and various disaster loans are made at rates varying from 3 percent to 13 percent.

In the overall proposals to reduce outlays in commerce and economic development subsidy programs, the President mentioned these cut-backs at SBA:

"$45 million in 1981 and $116 million in 1982 by reducing direct lending of the Small Business Administration. Guaranteed commitments for SBA would be reduced by $990 million in 1981 and $1.5 billion in 1982. The decrease for SBA direct loan obligations for disasters is $780 million in 1981 and $50 million in 1982."

The President also proposed to end funding for SBA's non-physical disaster program.

"Given existing fiscal restraints," the budget proposals said, "the Administration believes that Federal disaster assistance should be provided only to those who are most in need."

Under today's budget proposals, SBA's new loan guarantee commitments would total $4.9 billion in 1981 and $4.4 billion in 1982, compared with the January proposals of $5.9 billion in both 1981 and also in 1982.

The President proposed to reduce SBA's employment to 4,700 employees in 1981 and 4,500 in 1982. In January, full-time employment at the Agency was proposed to be 5,000.

The President said that the Administration "is developing ways to improve the collection of tax and loan payments owed to the Government." He said, "The accounting and servicing, collection and liquidation functions related to debt management can be handled more efficiently through private contractors." At present, law forbids SBA to use private contractors to collect loan debts.

"You've Got to Work Hard" Says Panelist Members to Esquires

Last Sunday in the A. L. Davis board room of the Lubbock Opportunities Industrialization Center (LOIC), 1701

Parkway Drive, young participants in the "Mr. Esquire" effort of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., were encouraged to make it in life. "You've got to work hard for anything you achieve in life" was the main thought.

"The purpose of this program (Mr. Esquire) is to groom and shape up young black men in the east Lubbock community," says Soro Luella Scott. "We have seen to it that our young black girls are sought after - thru pageants and the like - but nobody has paid much attention to the young black men."

"The Mr. Esquire function is to show love and to uplift," she continued. "We just think a lot of talent has gone to waste because there has been no one to encourage the many talents of our young black men," she said.

A panel of black professionals appeared on program last Sunday afternoon to advise these young men who will appear for their crowning on Saturday, April 18, at on Saturday, April 18th. Those panel members were: Mrs. Barbara White, Germal Berry, Walter Norman, Mark Chandler, Rev. Stephen Pierson, Rev. Larry L. Polk, Sr., Dr. Charles Henry, who also served as moderator; Albert Lincoln, Dr. Robert Pillow, IV, Office Floyd Price, Lt. Gary Dean, Rodrick Mitchell, and T. J. Patterson, Sr.

Dr. Henry explained to the group of young black men and their parents and friends of the seriousness of getting ready now for the world. "We hope these persons on this panel today will open up your eyes of help - open up your eyes of the many opportunities available to you," he said.

Dr. Henry, an education specialist, has offered free consultation to any of the Ms. Esquire participants. "All you

Black Children Assists Atlanta Families

by Yvonne M. N. Armstrong

The newly formed Committee to Save Black Children (CSBC) based in Washington, D. C. has announced plans to assist the most needy families of the deceased children in Atlanta, Georgia, and the formulation of a local campaign to expedite congressional intervention to assist in the investigations.

The Committee will sponsor several benefits to raise funds for those to raise funds for those families that are experiencing emotional and psychological trauma due to the sudden deaths and disappearances of their children.

The CSBC publicly deplores the virtual "open season" that has been called upon Black Children in Atlanta. The group is also lending its voice to the many others who have called for additional federal support in manpower and finances - to hasten the solution of these crimes.

Spokesperson for the group, Carolyn Mason, explained that "it is important to the members of the Committee that we each make a personal statement through our efforts about how deeply we have been moved by this senseless violence on Black children. These children could have been the son, daughter, brother or sister of a member of any of our families. We mourn as a people, a nation."

Other CSBC objectives include support for the Atlanta based Committee to Stop Children Murders, whose primary goal is to thwart future child disappearances and murders. The Atlanta group is also conducting community seminars to promote increased safety procedures.

The CSBC hopes to stimulate the awareness of the local, national, and international communities, through its various activities, about the children murders and disappearances. Information on CSBC and their activities may be obtained by calling 501-587-6191.

There are many treasures these days in children's books. They are indulged and delighted in perhaps by as many adults as children. Most are artistically exquisite and they either demonstrate or elicit an essential solidarity of the spirit which binds lovers of beauty and imaginative minds of every chronological age.

Vacation Time is a kind of superlative treasure among such books for the young in heart. It is a happy book to be shared by grandparents and children, parents and

Atlanta Police Get $$ From 2nd Concert

By JEAN WILLIAMS
LOS ANGELES—Jack Gibson, publisher of the Jack The Rapper weekly newsletter, is spearheading a Help Save Our Children benefit concert at Atlanta's Omni Auditorium.

The concert is a benefit to raise funds to aid Atlanta's police department in the apprehension of the killers of 18 Atlanta youngsters. At present the official number of kids murdered or disappeared had skyrocketed to 22.

According to Gibson, Atlanta's mayor Maynard Jackson requested his aid in pulling together a concert aimed at kids. Tickets, says Gibson, will be affordable to the young people.

He points out that the concert probably will be in the form of a music festival from 11 a.m. - 6 p.m. "The Sammy Davis, Frank Sinatra concert is perfect for adults. However, most kids can't afford the price of the tickets. We want everyone involved and we want the kids to feel that they are also contributing."

"We will have artists whom kids relate to—both established and new performers. Since there is a 7 p.m. curfew they will be able to get home by that time."

"We're asking all artists to call the mayor's office in Atlanta and agree to appear at the show in an effort to help Save Our Children. If we have enough artists committed we will have concerts two days, Saturday and Sunday." The contact person at the mayor's office is Lena Hain, (404) 658-6899.

Although no date has been set for the concert, Angelo Foster, press secretary to Mayor Jackson, says, "We're definitely going to have the concert at the Omni but we want to first complete the Frank Sinatra/Sammy Davis benefit concert March 16."

Tell It Like It Is!

by
T. J. Patterson, Sr.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK: "They say unto him, Caesar's. Then he unto them, render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's." Matthew 22:21.

A thought one could get from the mentioned above scriptures is that we should give to God what is His. We should also render to Caesar what is his, such as paying of our taxes to take care of our welfare on earth. But another point, which this writer believes is important, we should keep an eye on the politicians who utilize their political power to keep black people out of the mainstream of life.

Serving as one of the panel members at last Sunday afternoon's "Career Day" -- sponsored by the Lubbock Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. -- it made me think about the need for young black men in our community to have an opportunity to know of the many opportunities around them. For this effort, we thank you -- Deltas -- for realizing that there needs to be more programs for the young black men in our community.

As I looked over the list of blacks who appeared on the panel, there was only one full-time business owner and manager in the black community represented. He was Dr. Robert Pillow, IV, a local dentist and former graduate of Dunbar High School, who has gone on to do great things in the dental profession.

This writer and others, who were gifted with words of encouragement, did not work completely (100%) in their OWN profession. Of course, there were two pastors, i. e. Rev. Stephen Pierson, pastor of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church; and Rev. Larry L. Polk, Sr., pastor of Mount Gilead Baptist Church, who represent full-time involvement managing their local pastoral commitment.

Yet, young black men don't really have many images of black businessmen and businesswoman in our community. As one of the young men participating "Mr. Esquire" -- who were special guest -- asked: "Why don't more blacks go into business?" A very good question, and one in which must be addressed by the black community. For one, we could say that fear has turned many of us from seeking the business world. The fact, that many of us -- including this writer -- is we (blacks) have depended on so-called security. We've been concerned on receiving the monthly or weekly pay check.

It is something for us to think about if we are going to get into the mainstream of American life. It takes hard work, and many of us will not be able as owners and operators. But, still there are young blacks who want to see more blacks in business.

This writer hopes that seminars will be sponsored by this newly organized Lubbock Black Chamber of Commerce so the black community will become more business oriented.

NOTE: Many of the young blacks want to know why we are not in business as we should be.

Speaking of business opportunities: If the East 34th Avenue and Quirt Avenue overpass or underpass becomes a reality, think about what kinds of business opportunities which could be available for hardworking and aggressive young blacks in this community. At the same time, there would many job opportunities for blacks for several years.

Dear Eddie:

I am glad to hear from you and receive your paper (a very good one), and your June/teenth schedule. I don't think funds are available at this time, nor am I sure I can be in Lubbock on the 19th (I don't think so). I would suggest you have a brief luncheon where some leader would give some history and or educational background about the day (19th). You could also solicit community support from businesses, etc. Otherwise, I think you have a good plan. We will have another meeting in Austin very soon.

Sincerely,
Al Edwards
State Representative, District 8
Houston, Texas

Black History Month or Black

History Year

We hope that the time is not far away when it will not be necessary to hold a Black History Month or Week, but that every day will be a realization that Blacks have made notable contributions to the American way of life and culture. This would be reflected in our schools, churches, civic, fraternal and social clubs and other personal welfare organizations.

We also would like to call attention to the beautiful packet of poster material on "The Story of Civil Rights as seen in by the Black Church in America" and is published by David C. Cook Publishing Company of Elgin, Ill. 60120. There is also included a sixty-four resource booklet. Would like to take this means to thank Bishop C. D. Coleman of the Christian Methodist Episcopal (all of Texas districts-5) for making available a great number of packets to the membership.

States Bishop Coleman: "The story of the black in America cannot be told without recognition of the primary role of the black church in the black community. Unfortunately, under the guise of separation of church and state, much of the written material on Afro-American history fails to set forth the vital and continuing role of the black church. This packet therefore, is our effort to tell our youth what their church, their forefathers, their teachers and servants of God -- unprepared as they might have been -- have done.

"What has been accomplished toward righting the wrongs inflicted on all persons of color has been accomplished in this country because of the integrity and dedication of Christians who believe in Him, end of quote.

Coleman is Editor-in-Chief of the material. For more information, contact him at 2330 Sutter Street, Dallas, Texas 75216.

You All Come: Persons traveling west to Arizona and California on Highway 80, should arrange if on weekend to stop by and see the display on Black History & Culture, located in Friendship C. M. E. Church, located at 315 South Pecan Street, Pecos, Texas. It is said to be one of the most elaborate ones in the state. We are especially interested in old photographs of West Texans and New Mexicans (Blacks) who made notable contributions to our early history.

The Black Church in America indeed is the most distinctive institution which the Negro has created in this country. In addition to its religious roles, it has served as a concert hall, a classroom, a center for recreation and a source of political strength.

According to Joseph Durham, writer for the Packet on the Black Church, it was born in protest. In the South, the Black slave used the black church as a means of protest by not accepting the white man's definition of the black man as a piece of property, and by refusing the view that God ordained black men to be slaves. The cruelty which was the common lot of all slaves, forced them to sing and think about another world, since there was little hope for freedom in this one. So they sang: "I'm so glad, trouble don't last always" or "Steal Away to Jesus and Pray." They were songs that were born of the soul of a people who could "Praise God together on Our Knees" and "One Day we Will be Free at Last."

Reagan Resolution Jobs Paying $30,317

In order to maintain a "comfortable" life style, and truly be taken for middle class, an urban family of our needed income of $30,317 a year ago, according to the Conference Board, a non-profit research organization.

This "comfy" family has a "working" husband and a wife to watch over a 13-year-old son and an 8-year-old daughter. It's a good thing the children are too young to look for jobs since the teen-age unemployment rate is at depression levels.

Looking ahead the teen-agers can expect to take home a lot less pay than their counterparts, considering the administration's admitted desire to cut the minimum wage rate paid to teen-agers. If things aren't tough enough, wait until the tough gets going!

Getting a job is just the beginning for most Black Americans intent on entering the middle class. With unemployment for Black Americans above 14%, it's the first thought! Considering the challenge of Black Americans in the 60s to start working, and the 70s to survive on the job, the 80s appear to be an era of hibernation and hope.

President Reagan apparently has decided to run the risk of allowing the aspirations of Black and other minority Americans to hinge on a mythical political self-help vision. With the blessings of the new President, Richard N. Richards, new chairman of the Republican party, will run the GOP with the criteria that for minority members of the country to gain access to U. S. affluence they must elect republican officials.

In short, if Black, Hispanic and other minority American groups get republican congressional and legislative representatives elected, then and only then will they get a "piece of the pie." Strange sounds from a man who readily admits the Republican party is "still a minority party."

There can be little quarrel with the fact that the Republican party can put its large cash coffers to work behind any candidate it believes in, but if Black Americans or any other minority group must go with any party just because it is in power, the nation is in a negative state of affairs.

All Presidents, regardless of party, are elected to serve all the people, all of the time. The Republican party can play a major role in gaining access to Black American and other minority communities by appointing a fair share of individuals from these communities in the newly won GOP positions. People will respect the Republican party more for its sense of fair play when it is in power, than for its well know ability to buy its way into positions at any point in time.

President Reagan, must make people like Mr. Richards aware that it is a sad state of affairs in America when people already know it takes thirty grand a year to get your act together in this country. An impossible task without a job!

That's why Blacks today remember a long time ago and can still sing all the year around, not just February that "soon will be done with the troubles of the world and then I'm going home to live with God." Freedom at last, would you say?

Peace and Love we pray bellringers. Be a good neighbor. They come in all colors!

The Final Call

Controlling Crime In The Black Community

by
Minister Louis Farrukhan
National Representative of The Honorable
Elijah Muhammad, Messenger of Allah

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad taught us to search thoroughly everyone that comes through a Temple door. Mr. Muhammad's orders were, "Everyone must be searched 100 percent before admittance into the Temple." As I questioned this procedure as I grew in Islam, under The Honorable Elijah Muhammad, He was engaging us in a physical routine that was to teach us a gullible people, "I don't care how good it looks, and I don't care how good it sounds, you stand outside the gatepost of your ear and search every idea thoroughly before permitting it to become a part of your development."

The Honorable Elijah Muhammad used to teach us a man could turn devil overnight. So if we search this minute, and the Brother went out to his car and he came back, we would search him again. We live in a time when the Scriptures are being fulfilled when Brother is to deliver up Brother, when Brother will become an enemy to the Brother for an advantage with an enemy. So we can't take anyone or anything for granted. We must search thoroughly ourselves search thoroughly those around us; search and constantly search things out for today's Brother may be tomorrow's enemy, and tomorrow's enemy may be tomorrow's friend, but go to sleep on no one, friend or foe. That should be the lesson we have learned from the Sixties.

As we move into the Eighties, we're got to be even more careful because the stakes are higher now. The enemy is wiser, and unfortunately, it seems we've gotten a little dumber. It seems as though we have gone to sleep in a very serious and critical time.

To be a Black policeman or policewoman in this time is almost like saying, "I would like to have a gasoline jacket and run through Hell." To be a Black policeman or policewoman and stay alive, you have to be wise. Brothers and Sisters who are on The Police forces in cities and towns across America, you must know your role, your function, your aim, and you must be wise to the aim of those for whom you work, whose aim is not the same as yours.

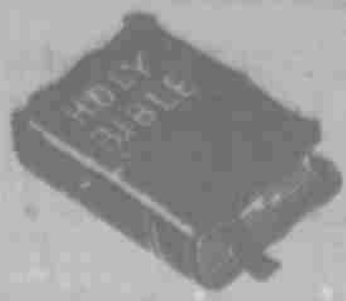

Crime control is not crime eradication. It's the recognition of a disease. But implicit in crime control is the fact that you recognize you don't have a solution to cure the disease. All you want to do is control it.

Where is the disease most prevalent? Who do they say seems to have it most? Who's affected most by the disease? Then where is crime control focused? We respectfully suggest that the disease of crime, which is the number one disease of America, is something that is now so completely out of control because the disease is right in the marrow of the bone that produces the cells of blood which carries life to every part of the body. And what you see in the Black community as a manifest, blatant crime is the manifestation of hidden, undercover criminal activity from the highest echelons of governments, of law enforcement, of business.

So if you are going to control the crime, we ought to think in terms of not only controlling crime in the ghetto. We can eradicate crime in the ghetto, but the disease is so heavy with those who produce the crime. We ought to really think about controlling crime in the White House, controlling crime in Congress, controlling crime at the top echelons of police departments.

Compromising affirmative action programs which put minority people in jobs while pledging to broaden the Republican party's appeal among minorities by making more cash contributions to minority political candidates is too little and too late for the current and growing crowd of job seekers.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Members of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bogus. According to a spokesperson for the group, "It seems as if we had a multitude present." It was a great breakfast with the president, Mrs. Mary Ward, presiding. Opening devotion leaders included Mrs. Ward, Ms. T. Ervin and Ms. C. E. Brown. Scripture was the 23 Psalms.

Morning devotion lesson was taught by Mrs. Vivian Peoples. Her subject was: "Somebody Help Me Lift Jesus." Her scripture was found in St. John 12:32.

"And if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

"He said go into my vineyard and work, and what's right I'll pay," the speaker said. She went on to tell the group that she wasn't concerned about credit as long as God gets the glory. "Just lift up Jesus for men to see, and he will draw," said Mrs. Peoples.

Mrs. Peoples, you fed our very souls. We realize now he told us to lift and don't try to draw before we lift. He would draw. The Lord is concerned about quality, not quantity. The Lord truly was in control. Mrs.

Peoples, you are the greatest and you are loved by this group.

Mrs. Day led the group in singing "Walk With Me Lord." Mrs. Sowell sang: "Somebody Help Me Lift Jesus."

Thought for Today: "Try Jesus; We Are Satisfied Customers." Think about it!

Breakfast was served with so much love by the kitchen staff, with hostess Mrs. Bogus, with her speciality homemade biscuits. We have the best cooks in the west. Are you hungry? Come!

Our guest list included: Rev. and Mrs. Tony Williams, Rev. Montgomery, who was in our city for the weekend; Rev. and Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Lousie Durns, Mr. Carl Wheeler, E. M. Brooks of DeCatur, Texas, Elizabeth Lovett, who is back with us; Mrs. Annie M. Johnson, Mrs. Marie Regon, Mrs. Bessie M. White and Pollie Smith, who is back with us. Mrs. Willie M. Washington welcomed our guest.

Oh, what a difference a day makes when we see your smiling faces. Do come again!

Our sick list includes: Mr. M. C. Collins, who is doing nicely at home; Mr. Alexander (Sonny) Johns, Willie M. Thomas, Mrs. Barbara Wilson, and Mrs. Elosia Zanuba, who is a patient at a local rest home. Rev. Tony Williams offered special prayer.

Barbara Jordan Senior Citizens Hold Meeting

The members of the Barbara Jordan Senior Citizens of Mae Simmons Community Center met last Sunday afternoon in the auditorium of Mary & Mac Private School, 902 East 28th St.

"Hats off" was given to chairpersons, V. Hereford and E. S. Swisher, for such a lovely program.

The program opened with the group singing "What A Fellowship" with Mrs. B. Wilson at the piano. Mother Zora Phillips and her devotional group were in charge. It was said this was one of the better programs ever given by the organization.

There were some very special guests on the program. They included Mrs. N. Dyer of New Hope Baptist Church who sang; Mrs. A. W. Wilson of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church who lectured; and Rev. Carl Jefferson who sang two solos. Mrs. V. Smith gave a very good talk. Sister Mable Carter also of Bethel made the entire group feel good. Mrs. Christene Carter brought the group some lovely words.

Mrs. Brightmon of the Church of God in Christ did a splendid job. Mrs. L. S. Graves made everyone happy when she sang: "I Don't Know What God Is To You."

The group was blessed with three young children on the program who were from the Wilson Music Studio. They are going places. The group wishes to thank Mrs. Wilson and the parents.

The president, chairmen and all committees wish to thank all the members, friends and visitors for spending an afternoon with them. A special thanks all their special guest. "You made our day!" life" was the main thought.

An outstanding black explorer in the early 1500s was Estevanico, who opened up New Mexico and Arizona for the Spaniards.

Morning worship services at New Hope Baptist Church were great last Sunday morning. Deacon Swain and Deacon Francis led the devotion. The choirs were present. Rev. A. L.

Dunn, pastor, delivered a splendid message. His scripture was found in John 4:19. His subject was taken from that verse. Mrs. Annie Mae Dotsey McBride united with the church by Christian experience. Two young children became candidates for baptism.

Mrs. Geneva Jackson of Los Angeles, California is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Luella Scott, here. She attended morning services at Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Kate Noble, a former resident of Lubbock, spent the weekend here. She was special guest of Mrs. Doris Dickens.

Rev. Stephen Pierson, pastor of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, returned last Saturday from a week long revival he conducted in Kingville, Texas. He reported a wonderful experience preaching the word of God.

Lee Savage spent his spring break from school this week in Littlefield, Texas visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Clara Colquitt spent this week in Austin, Texas visiting relatives. Her trip was a birthday gift from her son, Jerry.

Let us continue to pray for our sick and shut ins of our community.

Among our sick is Mr. Alexander (Sonny) Johns who is a patient at Methodist Hospital.

There will be great services at the annual Federation of Choirs anniversary on Sunday afternoon, March 22, at the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church. The program will begin at 2:30 p. If you want to get a seat, you'd better hurry to it.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Ora Lee Paul who lost her sister, Lendra Lewis.

Mrs. Fannie Young is home from attending funeral services of her sister in Marshall, Texas.

Amarillo Invitational Track Meet Opened Saturday

Tascosa's girls and Palo Duro's boys own the favorite tags in their respective divisions as the Amarillo Invitational Track Meet inaugurated competition on Dick Bivins Stadium new weather oval set.

Running prelims and field events were scheduled to start at 10 a. m. and running finals were slated to start at 2 p. m. on the stadium's new 400 meter track. Saturday's meet served as the first organized competition staged on the new $120,000 facility completed last August. The new track features six lanes around the track and on the straight away areas. The new bricked oval replaces Bivins' old black cinder 400-yard track.

Coaches say it's a fast track. "I think everybody that's seen it feels it's going to be a good fast track," said John McGuire, athletic director for Amarillo Public Schools.

Tascosa's girls are unbeaten in two meets this spring, while Palo Duro's boys finished fourth in the strong field at El Paso in their opener last weekend.

Other girls' teams entered in the Varsity Division - boys and girls' Junior Varsity Divisions were conducted Saturday at Caprock, Berger, Lubbock Coronado, Lubbock Dunbar and Pampa.

included Amarillo High, Berger, Canyon, Lubbock High and Midland High.

Admission were $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for students. The north ticket window of the stadium were opened at 1:00 p. m.

Ten other high school track meets Saturday were by attending either partial or full fields from the Panhandle area schools.

Two-day meets at Hereford and Panhandle areas were to end Saturday.

Other meets drawing at least some area entries were scheduled Saturday at Silverton, Sundan, Floydada, Gruer, Olney, Aspermont, and Farwell.

Burgess had gone ahead on Chuck Gomez's three-run homer in its half of the inning.

Amarillo High won its fourth game without a loss, beating Berger 7-5 at Berger.

Palo Duro hosts Burgess and Caprock (4-2) will entertain Bowie in a pair of twin-bills. Both contests will start at 10 a. m. Saturday.

AHS is scheduled to play Saturday in the Hereford tournament which was cancelled because of wet grounds. The Sandies will host Canyon today, Thursday.

Dons Down El Paso Bowie

The Palo Duro Dons downed El Paso Bowie 4-3 last Friday at Palo Duro field. Jerry Elizardo picked up the win with relief help from Roger Carlton in the seventh inning.

Caprock scored three times in the bottom of the sixth to defeat El Paso
