News -- Views from West Texas, New Mexico and the Nation

by Bob Tieucl, Jr. & Marion Shorter

HOBBS, NEW MEXICO -- The NAACP sponsored a real inspiring program Sunday, February 28, at the Ebenezer Baptist Church, with R. D. Littleton, president presiding. The theme: Afro-American History - Blueprint for Survival. Among those participating were: Elma Lois Bridges, Elder W. G. Patton, Ethel M. Walker, Yvonne Williams, Floydene Young, Sydney Mayes, Mayor Max Calmitt and others. A membership campaign is underway.

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO -- There is an increased impulse to combine the Corporation Commission and the Public Service Commission. Most observers agree. Why the PSC an appointive body, to regulate electric, gas and water utilities; while the Corporation Commission, an elective body, regulates corporations, telephone rates, insurance, pipelines and transportation tariffs.

LOVINGTON, NEW MEXICO -- New Mexico may soon return to execution if death penalty laws passed by the last legislature in 1979 are not thrown out by the Courts. There are four Democrats and four Republicans running for governor and all candidates will be asked their opinion of the law, it was reported.

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE -- Dr. L.V. Stennis, Ph.D., a former pastor in New Mexico and a candidate for the bishopric of the C. M. E. Church that will hold a General Conference in May in Memphis, told the Digest that the episcopacy "in our church is a good example of monarchy. It is a structure fortified against effective complaints. No one questions his spending habits or actions." If I am elected this will be changed and the pastors of the church will have a voice again," Stennis added.

Local Citizens Map Out Election Plans

A committee of concerned citizens met with Rev. Harvey Robinson last week to organize a steering committee for a voters league in Lubbock. Mr. Harold M. Chatman was elected chairman of the committee. The meeting was very inspirational and challenging. The following committee will meet again on Monday, March 8, 1982 at the Ella Iles Elementary School, beginning at 7 p. m. Members of the committee are: Eddie P. Richardson, Alfred Cavieil, Dr. Heenan

EHS Holds Coronation

With action of motion figures in the background, the 15th annual Estacado High School Coronation, "Estacado In Motion," was held Saturday night at the Estacado auditorium. One hundred sixteen young people were involved in the Royal Court and the Finalist March. Young people represented every club and organization on the Estacado campus. Clubs represented were Science Club, Spanish Club, V.O.E., Library Club; organizations represented were football, tennis, drafting, basketball, student council and various others such as auto-body, and mill cabinet. The young people marching were selected by the clubs and organizations, based on their achievements and contributions to their individual organizations as well as to Estacado. Mr. and Miss EHS candidates were selected by the student body. Mr. and Miss EHS were then selected in a schoolwide election held Thursday, February 25. Mr. EHS is Hector Limon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Limon. Miss EHS is Adela Martinez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Martinez. First runner-up is June Harris, daughter of Mrs. Louise Coleman, and Rodney Guyton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Guyton. Second runner-up is Natalie Upshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Upshaw, and Freddie Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris. Third runner-up is Stephanie Peoples, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Clifton Peoples and Keith McCarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene McCarty. The fourth runner-up is Angela Lethridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zebbie Lethridge, and Jesse Alamanza, son of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Alamanza. Being selected a Mr. and Mrs. EHS candidate is the highest honor offered an Estacado student. Following the Grand March and crowning ceremonies, a Grand Ball was held in the Estacado cafeteria.

Youth Stabbed

A 17 year old youth was stabbed at the Hicks Solar Roller, 1701 Parkway Drive, this week. The incident happened when he asked a patron to put out a cigarette, according to police. George Atkinson, at this report, was in satisfactory condition.

Shephard Supports New Federalism

by Denise Kinner

In his first State of the Union message to the nation on January 26, President Reagan outlined a comprehensive program to transfer $50 million of the federal programs to the states. Included in this "New Federalism" program, as the president terms it, the federal government would takeover Medicaid while the states take over the food stamp and AFDC programs. States would also be responsible for more than 40 federal education, transportation, community development and social service programs.

Thus far, the response to the president's proposal has been lukewarm by the nation's governors and the U. S. Congress. But such is not the attitude of McKinley Shephard, president of the Black Republican Council of Texas.

In an exclusive interview with the Lubbock Digest, Shephard said he believes the new federalism program will benefit Black Americans. "This new federalism program will revitalize the black movement for equality. Blacks have been lulled to sleep in believing that father government will take care of us. And that has been a detriment to the black community. If we put programs back in the hands of the states, the states will decide how much money will be spent on those programs. It will make the black man sit up and get out and vote because it is those state legislators who will decide where the money goes. As long as we stay at home and don't vote, we have no say so and how the money is spent."

What concerns black leaders most, about the president's proposal, is that state legislatures may reduce funding for programs that many blacks depend on, such as food stamps and AFDC.

Shephard says it will be left up to blacks to fight for what they want.

"We as individuals will have to go to the polls and vote people in who are sensitive to our needs and problems. It's not going to be easy. It's going to take hard work. Blacks will have to get out and fight for what they want just like when they marched in the streets of Birmingham in the 1960's. Black people are going to have to become more involved and more active politically or do without."

Shephard concluded that he believes the federalism program will help produce a healthy economy and reduce the nation's inflation rate because the federal government would be relieved of the burden of administering so many programs

Rev. Roy C. Jones

MAKES BID -- The Reverend Roy C. Jones, a local black pastor of Mount Zion Baptist Church and former president of the Lubbock Branch of the NAACP, announced Monday morning that he will run for Place 7 on the Lubbock School Board.

Jones told the Digest that he is most concerned about "equal representation" on this board. A complete story will be told on Rev. Jones next week.

Johnson, David Lloyd, Clarence Ervin, T. J. Patterson and Harold M. Chatman.

These men will again tackle the problem of pulling the black and concerned voters of Lubbock together, in a united cause.

Several young ladies, according to Rev. Robinson, will work with young people between the ages of 18 and 25. They are looking forward to working with at least 30,000 voters in

Black Vote Will Decide Council Seat

Hobbs, New Mexico -- Bulletin: The Digest has just learned that the Black vote may well decide who holds one of the council seats in this week's hotly contested races in Ward 3, in which there are five prominent candidates. A slight majority of minority votes could throw the contest into the hands of minorities if they hold together, the Digest learned.

There has never been a black representative on the council and there are reports that court moves may be made in the near future to assure black representation.

The only black elected official in the history of this oil rich Southern Lea County region is R. D. Littleton, who was re-elected to a position on the school board. He is also president of the NAACP and former principal of several local schools.

There will be a concerted effort here within the near future to double the number of black and brown registered voters. One Spanish American has served one term on the council, but he did not seek re-election it is reported.

NAMED MISS BLACK TEXAS TECH -- Marvis Michelle Conley, a sophomore Marketing and Finance major, was named "Miss Black Texas Tech" last Saturday night.

A Fort Worth native, she is the daughter of Ms. Bertha P. Conley and the late Charles M. Conley. Her hobbies are dancing, reading, and meeting people. She is a member of Raider Recruiters and Raiderettes. Her ambitions are to be successful, happy, and one day own a business. (Photo by Ufok Etukudo)

Public Hearing On Tap

The public will have a chance to comment on proposed changes in bus fares and bus routes at a hearing scheduled for 5:30 p. m. Tuesday in City Council Chambers.

Members of the Transit Advisory Board will conduct the hearing and will consider public viewpoints when deciding on the changes.

"If you are unable to attend the hearing, you can write your comments to the City of Lubbock Transit Department, P. O. Box 2000, Lubbock, Texas 79457," said John Wilson, transit coordinator for the city. Among the changes in the bus fare is the proposal to raise the adult fare from the present 50 cents to 75 cents. The money-saving Econocard would be raised from $4 (40 cents a ride) to $6 (60 cents a ride).

The fare for the elderly and the handicapped would be increased from 25 cents to 35 cents, if the proposal is approved. There would be no increase in the fares for children under 12 years of age.

For the handicapped riding the special vans equipped for wheelchairs and door-to-door service, it is proposed that the fare be increased from the present 50 cents to $2.

Purpose of the proposal to increase fares is to help offset the expected loss of federal funds that subsidize bus service.

Social Security Tips

Your Social Security And You

by Jewel M. Love
Service Representative

Many people contemplating retirement and wondering about their financial condition think first of Social Security.

There is no single answer to the question: "When is the best time to retire?" Economic, medical, social, and psychological factors all play a part and these are different people.

For example, some people can look forward to a pension after they retire from the company where they are employed. Others plan to continue working, possibly even starting a new career. Still others might be forced into retirement because of medical problems or adverse economic conditions.

Despite these variables, there are some constants and one of these is the Social Security system.

Persons thinking about retirement should bear in mind that Social Security benefits can be paid as early as age 62. However, if benefits begin before age 65, the amount of the monthly payment is reduced.

It is important to apply for Social Security retirement checks 2 to 3 months before the actual date of retirement. This will assure that the payment of benefits will coincide with the less of income when the person is no longer employed.

This is particularly important for people who plan to retire at 65 since many commercial and non-profit health insurance plans take account of Medicare coverage and adjust their own coverage accordingly when a person reaches 65. It is a good idea for persons thinking about retirement to discuss their individual health situation and needs with a representative of the company that covers them for health insurance.

Those still undecided about retiring might want to bear in mind that their future Social Security benefits will be increased should they continue to work. A person reaching 65 in 1982 or later who works past 65 will have his or her monthly benefit increased by three percent (1/4 percent per month) for each year that a benefit is not paid.

Each person contemplating retirement has a different set of circumstances to weigh, and some of the uncertainty may never be resolved. But one thing can count on is that their Social Security retirement benefits will be there when they retire.

Q. I want to apply for Social Security retirement benefits, but I find it difficult to visit the office. Can I apply by mail?

A. First use the telephone. After you've been interviewed by phone, the rest can usually be done by mail.

Q. I want to apply for Social Security retirement benefits, but I don't have a birth certificate. How can I prove my age?

A. Age can be established by baptism or school records or a variety of other documents. Contact any Social Security office. The people there will be able to tell you which documents are acceptable to establish your date of birth.

Salinas Will Seek Another Term

State Representative Froy Salinas announced last week that he will seek a fourth term in the Texas House of Representatives. At this report, he is unopposed in the new District 83 which is proposed to be expanded from basically just north and east of the city of Lubbock to include Slaton. Salinas has requested that Idalou be also included in his district. The Justice Department recently ruled that the lines drawn by the Texas Legislature diluted minority strength and rejected the plan. Salinas was a plaintiff in a federal court suit challenging State Legislative Redistricting Board lines approved last November.

Salinas said: "I hope the Republicans got the message the last time I ran. In my district, Reagan ran second to me."

Young Black Doctor In Nuclear Medicine

by Denise Kinner

Dr. Keith Madison

For the past eight months he has headed the Nuclear Medicine Division of Lubbock General Hospital. Except for his colleagues, very few people know he was black. Dr. Keith Madison, 32, says he came to Lubbock because of the need for someone with nuclear medicine skills in this part of the country and most importantly he came to raise his family. "I came to Lubbock because it would allow me to raise my family in a moderately crime free area which is quite different from where I was raised which was Chicago and New Jersey." Part of Dr. Madison's duties at Lubbock General include teaching medical students, giving conferences for his colleagues in radiology and diagnosing medical problems.

Nuclear medicine was not Madison's first choice as a profession. He originally went to medical school to become a brain surgeon, but soon changed his mind.

"I was putting in 92 hours a week. Although you can make a tremendous amount of money you don't get an opportunity to spend it. Many of the surgeons I know had social problems and family problems. I wanted a human life as well. There are two parts to any physician -- his professional life and his family life. I opted for a family life."

For young blacks that may be considering a career in medicine, Dr. Madison listed the following qualities that will aid those aspiring to be doctors:

"Perseverance is a big thing. There are a lot of little setbacks along the way and some major ones as well. Intellect is another quality that you need. Admissions boards are not looking for straight-A students, but for someone who is well-rounded. It is important to develop a consistency about studying so that you feel uncomfortable if you haven't had a book in your hands in the last two hours. Finally, humility is important. The worst physician is one who is so egotistical and so proud that he looks upon his patients as less than human. Humility is important because you won't be crushed by failure."

When he and wife and their three children came to Lubbock, Madison said he was worried about Lubbock because he had never lived in the south before. But thus far, Madison says he had no problems.

The Good News Report

by Thomas W. Pauken, Director of ACTION

Good news isn't hard to find, but sometimes to find it you have to look around a little. Jim Griffin of Hialeah, Florida, can tell you that. It began with bad news for him. He was 62 when the doctor told him he'd have to quit work, and for a man who had never been sick a day in his life, a man who prided himself on his physical activities, the blow was a hard one. What to do? He wasn't going to sit around and feed the pigeons all day.

As Bea L. Hines, Miami Herald Staff Writer, tells it, Jim heard about the Foster Grandparents program. This is a nationwide program sponsored by ACTION "which places senior citizens who have time and love to spare with children who need and thrive on that love." The result was that Jim took a bus out to Sunland Training Center for mentally retarded youngsters. Now two years later he is one of more than 100 foster grandparents giving his time and care (two to four hours daily) at schools and hospitals and centers like Sunland which offer training and inspiration to 225 disadvantaged young people in Dade County.

A few days ago, as Grandpa Griffin guided Charles, his foster grandson, out to the play area, he commented, "This program means so much to me. I need these kids a lot more than they need me." And that's his good news. He found a purpose in life. But it's Charlie's good news, too, because Grandpa Griffin's knowing and love has brought Charlie out of a dark place and helped him to see the sunlight in a way he hasn't seen it before.

Dorothy Rollins, who is the project director of the Dade County Community Action Agency, summed it up best when she observed: "It takes very special people to work with these kids. A lot of people think these kids can't respond to anyone. That simply isn't true. Some of them had never walked until a foster grandparent spent time with them and gently prodded them until they learned to take the first step."

And as you know, that first step for everyone is good news.

PETROLEUM CAREERS -- Leaders of three major predominantly Black universities met recently in Houston, Texas, with executives of Aminoil USA, Inc., and parent company R. J. Reynolds Industries, Inc. to discuss career opportunities in the energy industry. Aminoil chairman George E. Trimble proposed an innovative program enabling Black engineering students to gain practical experience in petroleum operations while continuing their education. Participating in discussions were (from left): Marshall B. Bass, corporate director of personnel development, Reynolds Industries; Dr. Alvin I. Thomas, president, Prairie View A & M University; George E. Trimble; Dr. Edward B. Fort, chancellor, North Carolina A & T University, and Dr. Benjamin F. Payton, president, Tuskegee Institute.

SBA Branch Council Joins U. S. Attorney's Staff

C. J. (Neil) Calnan has been appointed Chief of the Civil Section of the United States Attorney's Office, Southern District of Texas, in Houston. Calnan leaves his post as Branch Counsel of the U. S. Small Business Administration's Farm Disaster Office in Lubbock where he has served since August 1979.

Calnan headed the legal section of SBA's farm disaster operation which at one time employed as many as twenty-two temporary employees. The servicing office for farm disaster loans, including duties of the former legal staff, are now being handled by district office personnel of Lubbock's district office of the SBA, according to Phil O'Jibway, District Director.

A highlight of the event will be the introduction of an entirely new council patch, which troops may work on, pointing up the importance of water to our area. As a part of their 70th birthday celebration, Girl Scouts nationwide will participate in the "The Gift of Water" project. This will include activities in water conservation, water emergencies and water safety.

Adults in Caprock Council will mark the Girl Scout Birthday, Friday, March 12, with the annual Reunion Luncheon, scheduled 11:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. at the service center. Dee C. Ogale and Bobby Shaw, reunion luncheon chairwomen, invite leaders, former leaders and friends of Scouting to attend. Reservations may be made through the Caprock Council Services Center, 2567 74th Street, Lubbock, Texas 79423 or by calling 745-2855 for information.

Caprock Girl Scout Council comprises eighteen counties with headquarters in Lubbock. The council is a member agency of the local United Way and Mrs. Nolen Swain, Lubbock, is president of the board of directors.

Black Business People Says "Work Hard; Don't Give Up"

by Denise Kinner

The Travelodge Motel and Restaurant, on Parkway Drive, have long been a center of attention in the East Lubbock community. However, most of that attention has not been good and as a result the establishment has a bad reputation in the community. But the new owners of the restaurant and ballroom are hoping to change all that -- and for the first time the owners are black. The Lubbock Digest had an opportunity to talk with two of the five owners -- Louie Scott and Irvin Jones. The other owners are Pat Shelby, Clyde J. King and James Hall. Scott and Jones told the Digest that the reason for their business venture is quite simple -- they got tired of working for other people. Besides having an interest in the Travelodge -- Scott has also opened stores in Slaton and Lamesa. Scott and Jones both agree that the key to success in business involves hard work and sacrifice. "You have to keep your nose to the grindstone. You may be operating in the red for a while, but that doesn't mean you quit. That's what bothers me about a lot of blacks. They'll invest in something and then they want to see an immediate profit on their investment. But it doesn't happen that way," Jones said. So far, thousands of dollars have already been spent on the Travelodge and the owners say they are willing to spend whatever it takes to open the restaurant and ballroom in the next two months. The owners say they are willing to help the community as much as possible by providing banquet facilities for churches and schools without charging an arm and a leg. Eventually, the owners say they would like to counsel other blacks who want to get into business. "Right now all we're asking is for the community to bear with us. We can't beat J. L.'s overnight and we might not be able to roll out the red carpet but we want to give any way we can in the community," concluded Scott.

JULIAN BOND

Leave 'intent' to mind readers

By Julian Bond

Did the man who stepped on my toe in the elevator intend to hurt me?
 Did the waiter intend to put his thumb in my soup?
 Did Cincinnati intend to lose the Super Bowl?
 Does Ronald Reagan intend to make it difficult for black people to exercise the right to vote?
 It is difficult, at best, to decide whether someone intended to do what he or she has in fact done.

The American Heritage Dictionary defines "intent" as "the state of mind operative at the time of an action." To know intent, in other words, you have to be able to read minds.

Intent has become a crucial concept in the fight to renew the Voting Rights Act of 1965. Major portions of that act are due to expire in August.

Renewal legislation passed the House of Representatives last October by an overwhelming vote of 389-24. Now the matter is being considered by the Senate.

The House version of the renewal includes a modification that would enable blacks or browns to challenge an objectionable electoral procedure on the basis of its discriminatory effect.

For example, they would have to prove that electing county commissioners at-large rather than from districts would dilute black votes. Or that opening a voter-registration office only during business hours would discriminate against blacks (and other voters) who must work from 9 to 5.

But President Reagan and Attorney General William French Smith want to require victims of racial bias at the ballot box to prove that the discrimination against them was intentional — that is, to prove that the people who arranged to minimize black or brown influence at the polls did so deliberately.

How do you prove that?
 How do you prove that a Southern state legislator drew new district lines that made blacks a permanent minority in order to keep them from electing their own candidate?

How do you prove that a Western election board eliminated bilingual ballots in order to keep Spanish-speaking voters from knowing what they were voting for?

And how do you prove that changing from district to at-large elections for a school board was done to keep a strong minority constituency from influencing the education that its children receive?

Unless you can look into the minds of those who came up with these schemes, you cannot prove that racism was their reason. Unless you know their secret thoughts, you cannot prove that they deliberately set out to discriminate against minority voters.

But it seems that the president, the attorney general and some members of the Senate want to require minorities to become mind readers before they can ask for federal protection of their right to vote.

The legislative legerdemain they propose amounts to a back-door repeal of the Voting Rights Act and a return to the days not long ago when black and brown Americans were a vote-less and hopeless people.

If enough voters contact their senators and insist that they support the House version of the Voting Rights Act renewal, we won't need telepathic powers to find our way to the ballot box.

If the coalition of civil-rights groups and private citizens is as persuasive with the Senate as it was with the House, we won't have to become mind readers to enforce our voting rights.

Right now you don't need any special powers to figure out President Reagan's intent in throwing this stumbling block in the path of voting rights. His state of mind seems pretty plain to me.

THE ROAD TO HELL

Ringing The Bell

by Bob Tieucl

Preface to the Black Experience: As the nation observed February as Afro-American History month, we cannot but realize that it was the black Church that led in the emancipation of the minds and bodies of thousands of slaves and those that had recently been freed by President Lincoln's proclamation just before the turn of the 19th century.

And with the risk of being labeled 'prejudicial' we look at the record and can see that it was the Black Methodist Church bodies that led the pace for the 'emancipation of the mind' of the newly freed slave. He had been freed but had no place to go. The Big 3 Black Methodist bodies were: the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, and the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. We might say truly, that the Black Baptist Church and other black denominations have followed closely in the steps of our Methodist brethren, so much so that there has developed in recent years a "Black Theology" that is unique in American religion.

It is in this light that we have just received one of the most challenging and revealing books ever published on The Black Church with a sub-title of "Why sit we here until we die?" It has been written by L. V. Stennis, Ph.D. Dr. Stennis has only recently served as pastor of Phillips Chapel in Albuquerque, N. M. and Patterson Chapel C. M. E. Church in Clovis, New Mexico. Perhaps the reason for the book written in behalf of the thousands of black church members whose voices cry out to be heard amidst the noise and fervor, but too often have fallen on deaf ears. The book is published by Chi-Mik Pub. Co. of Seattle, Washington.

Stennis states in his preface also that too many of the black clergy have remained silent over the many problems that remain in the Black Church because many of them aspire to be a part of the status quo and fear for their careers in the church. He believes it is time for somebody to speak up. And gain the laity for the most part are not able to the classrooms in an effort to find out what kinds of things are happening. However, if a visit to school is impossible, then the parents are encouraged to write a note to the teacher asking that the child's progress be reported to them. Parents are further encouraged to ask the child about his progress and his school activities. Some elementary students will not have homework assignments every night. Parents should not think of this time as a "free night". This is a golden opportunity for the child to do free reading (reading for enjoyment). The parent may choose to read to the child themselves and ask him questions afterwards. Fun type activities, such as activities in Ebony Jr. are good learning activities and children usually do not associate them with school work.

Students at the secondary level should have homework at least four nights a week. Parents should encourage their child to study a minimum of two hours. Studying should be confined to a quiet place, free from distractions such as the telephone, television and younger sisters and brothers. Assignments should be kept in an assignment notebook to be brought home each night. If no assignment was made, the child should then indicate it in the assignment notebook.

Helping our children to become responsible adults should be the responsibility of the school and the home. This can become a reality if the two institutions work together very closely.

express or articulate their feelings in a manner whereby they can effect change or feel intimidated by their more vocal counterpart. He attributes this to a lot of religious 'brain washing' that they have received from the bench, the higher-ups and the pulpit for the past 100 years.

A Look at Black Theology: Stennis: Black theology has been called a theology of survival... The first black settlers in the New World were kidnap victims. They were sold into slavery, suffered hardships from European slavemasters, a great many of whom were piously devoted to the Christian religion. Religion, which can either a liberating or enslaving weapon, became one more means by which slave masters cut away at the slaves' roots to their homeland, thereby, tightening the shackles and reminding the news converts that they were no longer free to make the important decisions of their own lives.

"It was questionable however, that after experiencing life on a slave ship, even the lowest levels of hell would seem pleasant by comparison. Certainly a large number of the occupants of these ships did a great deal of praying during the course of the voyage. There was nothing for them to do but suffer, pray and survive.

"undoubtedly, a great number of Black preachers and theologians during slavery honestly believed that they were improving the lot of their fellow-slaves by preaching subservience in this life as a means of gaining a decent life in the next world.

"The same theology that should have created black pride became instead a tool of white America. It destroyed the Afro-Americans mind, a subjected people, who were not considered a vital and prosperous portion of the American nation. The same preachers who had refused to preach revolution were anxious to endorse the appeasement campaigns of Booker T. Washington (my note - born in February) and whose rallying cry was "let down your bucket where you are."

Facism and the Reagan Administration

Not a single week passes without new evidence being revealed, or old evidence being reaffirmed, which documents the Reagan Administration's slide toward facism.

Currently, two of the government's most powerful agencies are locked in a battle over charges that spies have infiltrated the General Accounting Office, the congressional watchdog agency, thereby raising the question of whether certain secret information should be withheld from this agency.

Defenders of the G.A.O. insist that these charges are being made by Defense Department spokespersons in order to refuse G.A.O. investigators classified data needed to uncover Pentagon cost overruns and mismanagement.

U.S. Comptroller General Charles Bowsher, who serves as chief of the G.A.O., insists there is no truth to the spy reports. According to Bowsher, the report "could adversely affect G.A.O.'s ability to do its work on behalf of the Congress on matters requiring the handling of classified material and on its reputation for dealing with matter requiring cooperation with the F.B.I."

Staunch Reagan supporter, Sen. Orrin Hatch (R., Utah), has launched an investigation to determine whether spies have in fact penetrated the G.A.O. I am of the opinion that if Sen. Hatch has his way, the G.A.O. will not escape without serious blemishes.

This one requires close watching. The ability

The Real Federalism

by Eddie P. Richardson

Lately, we have heard so much rhetoric about Federalism -- both pro and con. From our point of view, here is the real story.

It is not hard to recall the time before we had too much government when it was up to the states and cities across America who will always get screwed or the short end of the stick. This is why the Feds had to intervene in the first place to see that Blacks and other minorities had at least a chance.

The Reagan and Stockman's trick -- which many key Republicans has abandoned -- is turn everything back to the states. This, in a very short time, will require new taxes. So who will be blamed -- the states -- not Reagan. Do you see the picture. So does most of the nation's governors. So the turning back of all these programs that need large bureaus to operate.

Reagan obviously is not up on history. If he was, he would know the reason the states did not have these programs in the first place is because of their failure to administer them equitably. And what is there to make us think they will now. Most states have stolen from almost every fund handed them especially in the unfairness of their distribution methods.

Think back to how the states handled the education funds down through the years. We received moth eaten band uniforms, football uniforms, basketball uniforms, books and others. Remember separate but equal? Even the military stole from Black units during World War III! Bigoted whites hated Eleanor Roosevelt because of her personal involvement with Blacks and the poor. FDR died with his girlfriend and Graham Jackson of Atlanta, a Black gifted organist, was one of the very few insiders on hand at Warm Springs.

Bigoted whites hated Eleanor Roosevelt because of her personal involvement with Blacks and the poor. FDR died with his girlfriend and Graham Jackson of Atlanta, a Black gifted organist, was one of the very few insiders on hand at Warm Springs.

New Food Stamp Rules Went Into Effect With More Stringent Rules Coming!

Most mayors agree with the statement of Mayor Helen Boosalis, president of the U. S. Conference of Mayors, urged them to take a hard look at the Reagan gift of those programs, etc. The picture is crystal clear. Turn them over to the states and they get the blame for new higher taxes and not him! The origins of the programs that is causing so much stir of social programs are the social programs of FDR -- who was really the author of the first ones. His only contribution was through restoring the spirit of the people during the Depression. But as for helping Blacks, this is one big lie. FDR was not a friend to Blacks or minorities. After all, he was the one who ordered the confinement of Japanese during World War II. When you look at the whole story, it all means one thing -- we must look out for ourselves and find ways to work with and help each other.

Cost to go up, by passing Congress, watch for costs to go up. Gas prices are about 35% in 1983, then doubled by 85% only some lawsuits will delay this happening. Luxury items of all kinds are doing well under Reagan's policies. Those businesses who can do better than ever, only the worker gets hit hard. More reason to get our act together.

Reagan deficits will shock you when they are finally truthfully announced.

GOP unity being strained to the hilt because they know (Baker, Dole and others) ... they are dead and Reagan is a one time president like Carter.

The trick will probably be for you and you to suffer all through the next year. And then, just before the election, they pump up the economy to make you think his plan is working. Just think, however, we will be getting back only one-fourth of what he has taken from the poor ... and you.

They figure that by that time, you will be grateful for whatever you can get. And vote for a GOP since it looks like their plan might work. Whoa! Now is the time to let him and our elected officials know we know it will not work. Now is a good time to move some of his henchmen. NOW! And let them know we see the game now. This is the problem with whatever is announced now. Nothing but nothing can start until about 1984. By then Reagan will be leaving. He will not be around to see or even care if his crazy plan will work. But many states will believe that they would have been well off if Reagan had stayed in office. Now can you see the seed that is being planted?

Reagan's State of the Union message had no less than 16 areas of untruth or errors. Now Reagan wants to turn the Education Department into Foundations. Another game! The morale of this story is since the racist FDR regime and the New Deal, no party cared about the Black population, per say. Just the economy and country.

Since the 1940's, Democrats have hip pocketed the Black community and take us for granted because we put all our eggs in one basket. Now the GOP or Republicans ignore us because they know the Democrats took us for granted. The one and only way for the system to truly work for Black people and not work them or them be worked by the system is for Black people to become involved in both parties -- from top to bottom. This is to insure that the two party system works for us.

The key and crucial point is that we participate in the two party system, instead of getting mad and not speaking to each other. We must communicate with each other and let one side know what is going on the other side. Together as Blacks, we will be able to find out what's best for us on both sides and collectively work for what's best for the good of all of us collectively. That's the only way to work the system and not be worked by the system.

Rev. Robinson Speaks

Pastor
East Lubbock Church of God

Do You See, Hear Or Understand

"Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear and shall not understand; and Seeing, ye shall see, and not perceive. For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted and I should heal them." Acts 28:26-27.

For years the people heard that the Messiah was coming, and after he came into the world, they did not understand because He did not come in the way that suited their fancy.

They saw Him, also they saw the miracles that were performed by Him. They heard the words of truth from His lips, but could not perceive because of their heart problem.

Waxed gross.
The word gross means, thick, heavy, dense or hardened. The condition of the heart caused the ears to be Dull of Hearing which means insensitive. Their ears could no longer hear the voice of God.

Please note: The people closed their eyes to the program and plan of God. As a result of that, they could not be converted, nor could God heal their sins.

Can you hear and understand the word of God when it said, "But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the everlasting life. For the ways of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 6:22-23.

Jesus came to take away our sins. Do not close your eyes to the plan and program of God. If you do, you cannot be converted, neither will God forgive your sins.

Jesus is standing by now to forgive your sins and keep you living for Him daily.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Members and friends of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning at 9 a. m. in the home of Mrs. Gladys Shephard. This lady truly gets involved in all good things, and plays a vital part. Presiding over the part. Presiding over the meeting was Mrs. C. E. Fair, vice president.

Participating in the opening of the meeting with devotions were Mrs. Joan Y. Ervin, Mrs. C. E. Brown, Mr. McCoy and Mrs. Fair. The scripture was found in Psalms 11:1-7. Mrs. Mildred Bogus presided over the devotions.

The morning scripture lesson was taught by Mr. Ray McCoy. His scripture was Luke 15:11-20. His subject was "I Believe I'll Go Back Home."

And he said, "A certain man had two sons; and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And when he spent all, there arose a mighty famine in the land; and he began to be in want. (Key verse 17-18) And when he came to himself, he said, how many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee."

This powerful speaker said why not ask God for a portion of his Grace and don't go out and waste it away, but come to ourselves and stay away from the hog pen. Turn around and do right. Go back to our churches another way. You see judgement might be tonight for you, when the man was in the hog pen, he was by himself. You have to make your own decision. It's a lot of people out there alone. Decide for yourself today and "go-go-go!" back to the Lord NOW!!

This was a powerful message. This man is truly 'somebody.' Mr. McCoy, you are loved by 'this group.'

Mrs. C. C. Peoples led the group in singing "Glory Hallelujah." Remarks by guest and friends really did make a lot of sense.

Question for the week: "Why don't more people pray when they know they should?" Think about it!

Breakfast was prepared and served buffet style. The following ladies were voted in as kitchen helpers; Mrs. Gladys Shephard and Mrs. Willie M. Hereford. When the cooks prepare our food - they are the best in the West - these ladies specialize in preparing good food for people who are hungry. Come and become a witness. You have a choice of foods - physical or spiritual.

Mrs. Winters also thanked the president for that gift of love. The guest list last Future." Scriptures were found in Mark 13:24-37 and Luke 21:25-32. Morning worship was at its usual hour. Devotion was led by Deacons Jackson and Portee. The choir was at its post of duty and all members sang beautifully.

Pastor F. B. Bell preached a wonderful sermon. His subject was "Prepare For The Harvest." His scripture was Luke 10:2; and Galatians 6:7-8.

Our visitors last Sunday were Mrs. Opal Coleman and son, Mrs. Diana Hooker and children and Mr. Jim A. Turner and daughters.

A Look At The Black Church

Unity Baptist Church

(Editor's Note: This is a series written by Rev. Robert D. Adams, pastor of the Unity Baptist Church. Because of the interest shown by some readers, it will continue next week.)

Sunday School in The Black Churches

SAD as it may sound, most pastors of black churches don't even go to Sunday School. Most pastors get to church after Sunday School is over.

Have you noticed? You probably have never thought of the fact that more sinners, more potential leaders, robbers and murderers, gangsters, and so forth, come to Sunday School than to any other part of the services. You probably have never noticed that you have an excellent opportunity to reach the whole family in Sunday School.

Whereas in the women's organization, you can reach only the women or in the men's organization you can reach only the men.

Now that the facts have been called to your attention, utilize your Sunday School to reach men, women, boys and girls alike for Christ. Do you know that in a lot of churches the Superintendent is a little pastor and does not stay for church? This is especially true if he thinks he knows more or has better judgement than the pastor.

The average black pastor is so concerned about what he is going to say when all the folk come to the church that he doesn't have time for these little things. He is often afraid that if he says something in Sunday

DID YOU KNOW?? How many of you knew that in San Francisco there is a KLU KLUX KLAN leader THOMAS METZGER who is a candidate for the U. S. Senate... At least he is not ashamed to say what his convictions are while here in Lubbock... he may have a friend who is running for a position on the Lubbock School Board... At least Metzger who is a racist... as gone on record by saying: "We have had many racist presidents in the United States..." Did you know that he is determined to win... HANG IN THERE, REV. JONES! Since the REV. ROY JONES has announced that he will seek the position of PLACE 7 on the Lubbock School Board... attacking the present president of the board MONTE HASIE... THIS N THAT wishes him well... It is about time for some new blood on the school board... Blacks haven't been heard as they should be on this local political sub-division... Until there is BLACK REPRESENTATION in the 1980's... Black folk will not be heard! CCALITION ORGANIZED! It's just great to know that there are BLACK MEN in Lubbock who want to do something about the political situation in the Black community... With a meeting last Friday evening in the home of the REV. HARVEY ROBINSON there are some plans being made to shake the BLACK POLITICAL TREE in Lubbock. Would you believe that 4,000 BLACK VOTERS will make a difference in any election here. HAROLD M. CHATMAN will head up this effort as its chairman... The coalition is scheduled to meet again on MONDAY EVENING MARCH 8TH. WATCH OUT, PROSTITUTES! All of you WHITE BLACK and BROWN who call yourselves PROSTITUTES had better beware of what you are doing these days and nights in Lubbock. With the recent raids on various massage parlors in Lubbock and Carlisle you are in a world of trouble... according to SHERIFF SONNY KESSEE! This is especially true to those of you who are frequently seen chasing cars in the 1600 block of Avenue C and D... CLOVIS HAS 2,500 BLACKS! Not many of us knew it until last week... at least those of us who live on the South Plains of Texas knew that there were more than 2,500 BLACKS who live in Clovis, New Mexico... Of course... they have problems... also... but are working to make some things happen... One of the reasons is the support of the LUBBOCK DIGEST which is being read by more than one hundred and fifty people each week... Thanks to REV. AND MRS. R. D. WESSON and MR. AND MRS. WILLIE HOBDY! ANOTHER REASON! No doubt about it... the efforts of a local teacher... and president of the Clovis Branch of the NAACP MRS. ETHEL STUBBS... some things are happening one hundred miles to the west of Lubbock in that Black community. She is a strong advocate of CIVIL RIGHTS for everyone... Something good should come out of Clovis in the future... By the way... our own JOE NEVERGONE will be there selling subscriptions the later part of March... Keep up the good work... SISTER STUBBS! NO NEED TO RAISE BUS FARES! THIS N THAT hopes that...

the local Transit Board WILL NOT RAISE BUS FARES for persons who ride CITIBUS! It's better to keep prices as they are and keep the buses full than to raise fares (BY 50%) and have more riders... Of course... it takes money to run a business... but raising the prices 50% is not the answer... Regardless of what happens in the hearing BETTER KEEP PRICES ON FARES AS THEY ARE! It just makes good sense! DO YOU AGREE, VERA NEWSOME?? CONGRATS! It is only proper and fitting that THIS N THAT CONGRATULATE the members of the Student Organization for Black Unity (SOBU) for a splendid job on the campus of Texas Tech during BLACK HISTORY MONTH... It will get better and better each year... regardless of how many hard workers you have working... ALIENE HARVEY and JOHN PIERRE worked real hard!

Aren't you glad you did??
