Memorial Services For Dr. King

Memorial services will be held at Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, 2202 Southeast Drive, Friday night, January 14th, at 7 p.m. for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in honor of his birthday.

"During these times of uncertainties, no argument is necessary to convince us that these are disturbing signs of a crumbling culture," says Rev. Stephen Pierson, pastor of Bethel and one of the coordinators of the effort.

"The great American dream has turned into a nightmare for millions of homeless, jobless (unskilled and skilled) unemployed Americans. Dr. Martin Luther King's dream is a dream to some and a myth to others. For those of us who still believe in the dream, it is a theology of hope to keep our footing in a time when there are people and agencies that seem to specialize in defooting the poor of this nation - with acid of human in consideration and imperfection," continued Rev. Pierson.

"For those who see the dream as a myth, they are in a state of endless hopelessness, to be hope is to be dead while you struggle for existence. Come and let us join our forces together to keep this dream alive for the poor people of Lubbock and the nation," concluded Rev. Pierson.

The public is invited to attend. The public is also asked to turn on their headlights while driving on that day and wear something black.

KKK's Were Here In 1920's

With many Lubbock officials belonging to the Ku Klux Klan in the early 1920's, blacks were not barred from voting or running for political office was the opinion of Charles A. Guy, retired editor of the Avalanche Journal, as he took the stand Monday morning in Federal Judge Halbert O. Woodward's court.

This is the second time the suit is being heard. In the first hearing, Judge Woodward ruled that the City of Lubbock did not intentionally discriminate against blacks or browns and that the method of electing city council members was constitution and complied with the one-man one vote rule.

The case was sent back from the 5th Circuit Court to Judge Woodward for further consideration in light of the fact that the Supreme Court had recently made ruling on similar cases.

The case, which is expected to last the entire week, will bring representatives from the black and brown communities to testify. Among those from the black community are Rose Wilson and Harold M. Chatman.

The Southwest Digest will summarize the proceedings in next week's edition.

Vote No Saturday!!

After researching and understanding the three amendments on the ballot on Saturday, January 15th, the Southwest Digest would urge all citizens of Lubbock to vote No on all three amendments.

Although it is predicted to be a small voter turnout, it is important that those concerned citizens - who are concerned about the welfare of their city government - should see that these amendments will not become a reality here. Despite the argument of the Lubbock Property Owners Association (LPOA), these amendments should not pass.

Keep in mind that this election was forced by those who wanted these amendments to our City Charter. In our opinion, these amendments would hurt the growth and economy of our city in at least the following ways:

* Taxes would go up because of a lower city credit rating.

* The amendments would conflict with state law. With the Peveto Bill, the City Council could be sued for violating a state law on one hand or the City Charter on the other, and

* Tax revenues would be frozen. Services would be affected as costs go up. If you look at it, city services would not be able to be extended into growing areas. Construction would be delayed, without any doubt, on projects already authorized by Lubbock voters.

Vote No on Saturday, January 15th!!

When asked how the Estacado band was selected from the other candidate schools, Mr. Roberts replied that he believed the new spirit and enthusiasm generated by this year's "brand new band" helped to promote the situation. "We are certainly proud of our 108 members," Mr. Roberts stated, "and we hope participation in this special event will continue to foster pride and enthusiasm among students and community members for the activities which the band represents."

We want to thank all of the clubs, organizations, sororities, and fraternities that have provided financial support, and we would like to express our gratitude for community members who have represented us in such a positive manner. It makes us feel especially good at Estacado High School to know that we have this type of support from our community."

Money for Artists Available

Austin - Applications are being accepted by the Texas Commission on the Arts from school districts and nonprofit organizations interested in sponsoring an Artist-in-Education residency. The program, coordinated by TCA for over nine years, is based on a model developed by the National Endowment for the Arts and receives funding from the NEA. During the last school year the program served nearly 49,000 teachers and children in 227 individual schools throughout Texas.

AIE residencies place working artists representing every field from ballet to architecture in direct contact with young people. Residencies, which range in length from one week to nine months, may be sponsored by either accredited school districts, Education Service Centers, government entities, or nonprofit tax-exempt organizations such as museums and arts councils.

Program Coordinator Marilyn Schieferdecker, describing the value of the program, says that "Students learn how their creativity can be used for self-expression. Sponsors often report the AIE residencies provide inspiration and motivation to students, who then become more actively involved in other classroom activities." Teachers, she

"GEORGE KIRBY PRESENTS KING HEROIN" - George Kirby (right), famous comedian and impressionist, talks about his battle with drugs and prison life in a candid and provocative interview on Tony Brown's Journal, the nation's longest-running, top-ranked Black Affairs television series. country and over the world, think three or four times before you do anything wrong. Because they made an example out of me, because of my name, they let everybody know, 'We don't care who you are,'" Kirby confides to host Tony Brown (left). Social Security Tips

Your Social Security And You

by
Jewel M. Love
Service Representative

Social Security continues to play a major role in protecting survivors of workers who have died. Nearly 7.3 million widows and widowers, children, and aged parents now receive about $2.5 billion each month.

These regular monthly checks can do much to keep a family together and ease the financial burden following the loss of the breadwinner. The average payment is $377 for an aged widow and $914 for a younger widow with two or more children. Benefits are tax-free and increase automatically to keep pace with the rising cost of living.

Unmarried children - who are under 18 (or under 19 if full-time high school students) or who were severely disabled before age 22 and who continue to be disabled.

Widow or widower - who is 60 or older (50 if disabled) or is caring for a child - under 16 or disabled - who is also entitled to benefits. A surviving divorced spouse is eligible, but the marriage for an individual 60 or older (50 if disabled) must have lasted at least 10 years.

Dependent parent - who is 62 or older. Before benefits are payable, the worker must have earned enough Social Security work credit to be insured. In the case of payments to children and a surviving mother or father, as little as 1 1/2 years of credit are needed.

In addition to monthly check, a one-time lump-sum death payment of $255 is made. It is usually paid to the surviving spouse who either was living with the deceased or is eligible for monthly benefits.

If a worker in your family has died, contact any social security office to see if benefits can be paid. Among proofs generally required are these: Proof of death; the worker's social security number and Social Security numbers and proof of age for all applicants; the worker's W-2 wage statement or Federal tax returns for the past 2 years; and proof of marriage and divorce if you are applying as a surviving divorced spouse.

AMENDMENT 1

The annual ad valorem taxes levied by the governing authority of the city government shall not exceed the rate of $1.12 per $100 valuation of taxable property.

"It seems harmless on the surface, since our tax rate is only 41 cents now that we're taxes on 100% not 60%...but when Galveston and Corpus Christi put a limit on their tax rate for operations and debt service, their credit rating dropped."

"...and when the city's credit rating goes down, the interest rate goes up...and when the interest rate goes up, our taxes go up. It's as simple as that."

The annual ad valorem taxes levied by the governing authority of the city government shall not exceed 60% of the fair market value of the property as the assessed valuation of property subject to tax.

"If this is supposed to limit the tax assessment to 60%, it's in direct violation of state law which says tax assessment has to be at 100%, and we could have all city services and bond payments tied up until it goes through the courts."

"If this amendment is passed, it would mean an immediate halt in Lubbock's growth, with a gradual deterioration in services as costs outrun a frozen tax base."

AMENDMENT 3

The annual ad valorem taxes levied by the governing authority of the city government shall not be increased on the basis of an increase in the rate of evaluation of taxable property nor on the assessed valuation of property subject to tax, from the preceding tax year, without first securing approval of said increase at an election submitting said proposed increase to the voters of the city of Lubbock. Said increase, if any, requiring a majority vote for its approval.

"Again, because of changes in the State law which now requires property to be taxed at 100% of value, the 'assessment' wording makes it confusing and might mean that an election would have to be held before property could be re-assessed."

"Yes, but even worse, with this wording, it could mean 60% of the property's value or $30,000 in taxes on a $50,000 home. It's confusing."

Join us Saturday to vote against all three amendments and for the continued growth of Lubbock!

It Has To Be Me - Us!!

by
Eddie P. Richardson

Each one of us should live by the creed, if it is to be it is up to me, and truly act the part as well as actually live the part day to day. In this part of the country, with Blacks being a minority, minority, we have to work collectively for the good of all of us by pulling in the same direction with our priorities in tact. We need to bread up all these little camps and pool our efforts and resources by taking the initiative and leadership coming from within our own long denied communities. The pace must be made by Blacks making the decisions about how our communities must be built and rebuilt. Too long we have sat around and waited for someone to do for us what we should do for ourselves. We must work with others that share our feelings of updating and upgrading our communities but we must not let them take us by the hand and lead us to a welfare mind of waiting for someone to do for what we must do for ourselves.

We do not need leadership from outside ourselves nor do we need aid, we need jobs, contracts, trade and charting our own courses.

One point is hand is the second time around for the single member district case in U.S. Court here is the lack of Black people's support both moral and financial. Black people should be out front supporting this effort to the fullest extent since it affects Blacks more by their being the minority, minority. This is just another case of taking for granted, assuming and thinking someone owes us something for nothing. We must work our way out of this take for granted welfare syndrome.

We need to organize and not have so many organizations. We have so many organizations and so little organization just too many big fish in small ponds instead of just fish in the mighty ocean. Black cannot afford to move in different directions as fro as building and rebuilding our communities are concerned, we must get our priorities in order for us to reach our desired goals collectively and together for the good of us all.

We hope to learn to trust, love, respect each other, buy from, sell to, and hire each other when ever possible or feasible. We must understand no one can save us from us, for us, what we must do for ourselves. The first step toward building and rebuilding our long denied communities is to focus and refocus our inds to program and reprogram ourselves to the theory of yes I can, instead of somebody help me. Once we get our minds focused in a positive (yes I can) attitude, things will begin to change and results will start being positive and we will start to chart our own destinies and eventually take charge to our own future and leave something tangible for generations to come to have to cling to and have pride in. Then, eventually, our communities will be know as trade areas and not Aid areas. We hope in time our communities will have aid plus trade and in less time aid with more trade and in more time all trade and no aid just the opposite of what we have now, all aid and no trade.

It would really be great if by next January the birth month of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Black people across America would be working together collectively to make our communities self sustaining market places. This can be done by all of us working together united a not pulling in different directions, with different courses, which is the reason for the state of our communities today.

For us to successfully reach our desired accomplishments for our communities, it take us all working together collectively along with other that want to help but the leadership and initiative must come from us.

The time is long past when well meaning liberals and others take leadership paternal roles in our communities. The decision making must be made by the Black community from outside the community and the role must be supportive only, whether financed, consultation, resource or hard work, anything but leadership, we will have to get ourselves out of the hole we are in but we have to take the first steps and be in com-

Paradise Reborn Jamaica Fantasy

New Flamouth, Jamaica, West Indies....

Once upon a time, there was the most perfect Island under the sun, set in warm waters off the coast of Cuba. Colorful happy people inhabited the hot, lush tropical paradise. Their pirates and other profiteers, commonly called capitalists, came and imbeared themselves in every cave and cane field in the country. Crystal clear coral reefs of every color surrounding the sensuous and scenic land called (Jam-Make-ha) cry out the colorful history of the harshest slave trade stop in the past. Presently the Island is as peaceful as a princess on holiday. The water is like a looking glass - see through clear.

Prince Charles plays polo in Jamaica with or without Princess Dianne. Did you know the famous "conch soup" of the Island erables a "Man to make mand by corporating and working with those outside the Black community that are concerned and want to help. The ultimate goal is to pull our Black communities up by whatever boot straps we may have. Remember lets live by the creed if it is to be it is up to me/us.

The final prayer is that once Black communities become solvent economically, politically and socially, they can make positive contributions to the total communities across America.

Ringin' The Bell

An Old Time Bellringer writes: "Dear Bob - This year (1982) marks the 53rd anniversary of my entry into the field of journalism. Great day in the morning, that's more than half century! But at least newspapering has kept me 'young' in that I have never lost my zest for life, my interest in everything that is going on, and my urge to be 'on the scene'. It is one of the disappointments of my life now that chasing ambulances and fire trucks no longer on my beat. Those duties have been assigned to younger and more agile reporters.

By any yardstick one wants to apply, I'm a 'senior citizen' but I'll be damned if I feel like one. In many respects, I feel younger now than I did when I was in my 20s, because I was somewhat repressed for a good many years as the result of a strange upbringing, part of which I have often described in my columns.

Despite some physical shortcomings and traumas of so many traumas of so many surgeries my hide looks as though it has been the scene of a major battle, I have through the years, grown more and more liberal in my thinking, and more tolerant toward mankind in general.

I hold no one in contempt because of his color, race, creed, or condition of affluence or lack thereof.

"There are those who have worked with me, who think I am too exciting, but there are two things quick like me and inspire my ire: intolerance and stupidity. Note that I said 'stupidity' not ignorance' and not mental retardation. My quarrel is with those who can but do not exert their best efforts toward a task at hand." From Following Memory (and other) Trails in Hobbs Daily News Sun Signed Kathryn Morris.

Bob's Note: For many years we have been an avid reader of this column by K.M. and have used quite a bit of her stuff in this column. We rate her as one of the best news correspondents and reporters in the Southwest today.

To Bellringers & Friends -- God's blessings and Best Wishes to All For the New Year! In spite of the disturbing world affairs and domestic unrest in the world today, we in the family of God must keep before us the realization that Christ came into the world for such a time as this, and that we have been called to help fulfill that mission. His one last commandment was for us to Love One Another. It will be a Happy Prosperous New Year if in love, we seek to do the things needful to enhance the work of God's church in the world and to lift up the Saviour.

NEA's Commitment Shows: "The NEA believes that multicultural/global education is a way of helping every student perceive the cultural diversity of U.S. citizenry so that children of many races may develop pride in their own cultural legacy, awaken to the ideas embodied in the cultures of their neighbors, and develop an appreciation of the common humanity shared by all people of the earth". Best Editorial of Week: "When was the last time you heard of lowcost, convenient medical treatment for routine health problems? It's probably been a decade, or more, but the good news for Hobbs - Lea County residents is that something very close to the above medical miracle is taking place at Norte Vista Medical Center's own version of 'emergency' treatment and as advertised by the clinic, it sounds almost too good to be true... George Kirby Presents King Heroin

Comedian Laugh - And Cries

In 1977 George Kirby's life changed. The famous comedian and impressionist was jailed for selling cocaine and heroin to a Las Vegas undercover agent. He was sentenced to 20 years in prison. Now after being released and on probation, this versatile entertainer is making a comeback.

Kirby talks about his battle with drugs and prison life on the upcoming edition of Tony Brown's Journal, entitled "George Kirby Presents King Heroin."

Since leaving prison, Kirby has been working to resurrect his career. Because of his own addiction and experiences with drugs, he has been waging a campaign to educate and rehabilitate drug addicts. As an outgrowth, Kirby has added a new character to his litany of impressions: "King Heroin," a chilling dramatization of the destructive impact of drugs. On the program, Kirby brings to life the diabolical force called "King Heroin."

The nation's longest-running, top-ranked Black-Affairs television series has been sponsored by Pepsi-Cola Company for eight consecutive years. Televised nationally on public television (PBS), the program will be seen in this area on Channel 5 at 9:30 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 20.

"I got involved in a dealing with drugs which I had no business doing, but out of desperation to save some material things, I did it," confides Kirby to Host Tony Brown. "I learned a terrific lesson behind that, and that lesson is to think three or four times before you do anything that is unwise."

"I say that to each and everybody in this entire country and over the world. Think three or four times before you do anything wrong because they made an example out of me. Because of my name, they let everybody know. We don't care who you are. From now on, if you're involved in something, we're gonna sock it to you; we're gonna put you away."

babies"? Bet you Charles does! It was said once that the sun never sets on the British empire. Evidently, Jamaica contributed to the Crown's succession concerns in a spirited manner. Mestic surrounds Negril, Jamaica's sunny 7 1/2 miles of shores.

SOME "ganje" is smoked day and night there on the beach. Marijuana is illegal on the Island. However, tourists take to the most powerful grass in the world like a bee to honey. It's a haven for North America flower children who blossomed. Having a total fantasy in Jamaica is apparently still free for a few people. A place called Rose Hall houses the "White Witch" subject of an upcoming U.S. movie. You should drive past the great plantation house fast.

Port Royal, rising on Kingston Harbor, the dark side of the Island was the hangout of one-eyed and bearded pirates. Now private restaurants surround the place, serving fried fish and "bammy" or curried lobster. Lobsters - Loads of lobsters, cooked to your delight, are delivered to your table by your own hands at Trelawny Beach Hotel in New Flamouth. It is the classical comfort spot on the fabulous tourist side of the Island.

Tourism has taken over as the number one industry. Trelawny Beach Hotel has been taken over by an American company from a Canadian operation. While its clientele is still half Canadians, an open pleasant surrounding has been saved and expanded with a $2 million renovation of self contained resort. From the get go a party is planned by Jamaican and American professionals for travelers the moment they take transportation to Trelawny Beach.

A great place for a honeymoon. And the package price for one week (under $500 for food and room) is right. Rafting on the Martha Brae River is Trelawny's most famous tourist attraction. However, after three squares a day and dancing all night, not too many people can swim, play tennis or go scuba diving the next day. Reggae is the rage for those who want to rock. When the British Parliament abolished slavery in 1834, 26,000 slaves in Trelawny started swinging in public and haven't stopped since then.

The real world today is just as exciting in Jamaica as its past. Prime Minister Senga is seen as a stabilizing politician, perhaps too settling for some, but sufficient for most. Jamaica's waters are calm and appealing for all interested in just day dreaming each day away... Good night.

The school page which you have recently added to the Southwest Digest has gained wide acceptance in our school community. We commend you for providing this opportunity for publicizing school activities. I know that students, patrons, and staff enjoy reading the school page.

We appreciate this evidence of your support of our school program. The positive effect of articles about the good things our young people are doing helps to counteract the negative image created by the relatively small number of our students who are in trouble. Thank you for your part in providing such publicity.

Sincerely,

Ed Irons

RUBY JAY'S CORNER

Sunday was another day of all day service. Tired out, but enjoyed it was the feeling.

It all began with Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Rev. S. C. Nash, pastor, brought a wonderful sermon during morning worship.

During the seminar workshop, Pastor Nash brought the membership something to think about in leadership and how we act. Rev. A. L. Moore of California closed the seminar with a sermon. His text was Hebrews 2:3. His subject: "A Great Unanswered Question: How Can We Escape." It was a wonderful sermon.

Rev. Moore was in the city on business for his son, James, who is in trouble.

Rev. S. C. Nash brought another wonderful message Sunday evening. This was part of the installation of officers where a ceremony was held. All officers of New Hope are asked to shoulder their responsibility.

Mrs. G. H. Davis returned home last Wednesday from California after spending the holidays there with her daughter and family, Shirley Eborn and family.

Mrs. Susie Williams returned home last

Continued from Page 1 says, list personal satisfaction, self-discipline, enhanced self-esteem and improved problem solving skills as some of the direct benefits of AIE residencies for students.

Although in the past the program has operated primarily within the school system, a change in the guidelines make it possible now for nonprofit community organizations such as museums and arts councils to apply. Community residencies are currently underway in Austin, with the League of United Chicano Artists, and in Houston, with St. Joseph's Multi-Ethnic Cultural Arts Committee.

Funding for the program is based on a formula of declining support to encourage local sponsors to incorporate AIE into their existing art programs. First year sponsors receive 50 percent of program costs, second year sponsors receive 33 percent, and third year sponsors receive 16.5 percent. Teachers and sponsoring organizations have the opportunity to work with artists in workshop settings, where they are introduced firsthand to a variety of materials and techniques.

TCA is available to help design an AIE residency, and will assist sponsors in selecting artists from the following disciplines: music, visual arts, architecture and environmental arts, folk arts, film, dance/movement, creative writing, and theatre.

Applications should be submitted by February 1, 1983, for the 1983-84 school year. A new rule allows applications to be accepted and reviewed after February 1, if AIE program funds are available. To request application forms or further information, contact Marilyn Suleferdecker, TCA, Box 13406, Capitol Station, Austin, TX 78711. Or call toll free 1 (800) 252-9415 or direct (512) 475-6593.

Tax Rate Vote Saturday

In Lubbock Saturday, taxpayers will have an opportunity to vote on three tax limitation amendments originally proposed by the Lubbock Property Owners Association in 1979.

City Secretary Evelyn Calfog, in looking at the absentee vote as of last week, has predicted 8,000 voters to show up at the polls on Saturday.

According to sources, the amendments would limit the city's tax rate to $1.12 per $100 valuation; roll back assessed valuations to 60 percent of fair market value and require voter approval for any increase in taxes.

LPOA leaders have said that the proposals would curb the city's taxing power and give citizens more say over taxation. Citizens are encouraged to vote on Saturday, January 15th, between 7 a. m. and 7 p. m.

The KITCHEN BEAT

Favorite Southern Flavors

In today's black American home, cooking is no longer the responsibility of one person. Because of busy and varied schedules, usually every member of the family at some time or another has to prepare personal meals or meals for other members of the family. The Kitchen Beat is designed to meet some needs of the various cooks in the modern black family.

Southern cooks have a well-deserved reputation for preparing some of the most delicious food in the country. So these recipes steal favorite ingredients from Southern-style cooking, then turn them into time-saving dishes that will be popular anywhere.

Simple Southern Supper combines ham with sweet potato and okra for a nutritious meal-in-one dish. After the meat and vegetables are heated in a brown sugar glaze, you top the mixture with biscuit flaves. In just 15 to 20 minutes, the biscuits bake to golden brown, and the delicious main dish is ready to eat. If you use an oven proof skillet, such as a cast iron or ceramic pan, the recipe is prepared with just one dish.

Flaky biscuit shortcakes are an excellent accompaniment to the savory goodness of barbecued meat in Crunchy BBQ Shortcakes. To make giant shortcakes with a crisp crusting, simply press together two refrigerated biscuits and dip them in cornmeal before baking. These mouth-watering recipes are via the courtesy of Pillsbury & Company.

Simple Southern Supper

- 1 1/2 cups water
- 2 Tablespoons cornstarch
- 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 2 Tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/4 teaspoon cayenne
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 2 cups (1 large) thinly sliced sweet potato
- 1 1/2 cups cooked, cubed ham
- 1 1/2 cups frozen okra, cut in 1-inch pieces

Heat oven to 375°F. In oven-proof skillet, combine water and cornstarch. Cook until mixture boils and thickens, stirring constantly. Add brown sugar, lemon juice, cayenne, pepper, sweet potato, ham and okra, mix well. Simmer 5 minutes. Separate dough into 10 biscuits; cut each in half. Place biscuit halves, cut-side-down, around outer edge of hot mixture. Bake at 375°F. for 15 to 20 minutes until golden brown. 5 to 6 servings.

Crunchy BBQ Shortcakes

- 1/4 cup barbecue sauce
- 2 cups cooked, shredded

pork or chicken medium onion, sliced and separated into rings

Heat oven to 375°F. in medium saucepan, combine barbecue sauce, pork and onion. Simmer while preparing dough. Separate dough into 10 biscuits. Gently press biscuits together for each shortcake. Dip top and bottom of each in cornmeal; place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake at 375°F. for 10 to 13 minutes or until golden brown. Split shortcakes; fill with meat mixture. (Makes 5 servings.)

We believe that our readers will want to support those advertisers who support the press of Black America. We are sure, therefore, that when you select the ingredients for this week's recipes, you will want to use:

- Argo cornstarch
- Domino brown sugar
- Hungry Jack Refrigerated Flaky Biscuits
- McCormick's black pepper

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Members and friends of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast met Saturday in the home of president Mary Ward at 9 a.m. The meeting was beautiful.

Opening scripture was Psalms 117:1-2.

Morning scripture lesson was II Chronicles 7:14 & 6:28-30, subject "Let's Humble Ourselves and Pray." If my people, which are called by my name shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

We know the good way, why not walk therein? We have been taught how to live and have the word, the living word of God, if it's to be a better world, the people that called by God's name will have to put their training in action and work at it. This scripture will continue in next week's report, think about it.

Prayer: Forgive us Lord, for not acting after we have heard and seen.

Breakfast was a treat from the president. She prepared it all by herself. It was a beautiful morning and the cooks had the day off.

There were no visitors present on Saturday only the members and families were present. We were especially happy to have our own Mrs. Cloretta Brown present Saturday after being absent several weeks.

Our sick list include: Mrs. C.E. Fair, Mr. Lulah Winters, Mrs. Artie M. Washington, Mrs. Pearl Hicks, Mrs. Annie M. Johnson, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Anders Williams, Ms. Pearl Ruth Bonner, Mrs. E. Bibbs and Mrs. Lisa Banks, Rm. 408, St. Mary Hospital, I am sure there are others out there not mentioned in this report. It is impossible for us to know if you don't get word to us. It's our desire to share what we have with you. Silver and Gold have none, such as I have give I thee in the name of Jesus. Rise up and walk both mentally, spiritually and physically is our prayer.

If you have a prayer request, write or call: Outreach Prayer Breakfast, P.O. Box 1223, Lubbock, TX 79408 or call 762-3347 or 747-7326. We can make it together. Ok?

Closing prayer was by Mrs. Cloretta Brown and Mrs. M. Ward. Prayer scripture was by Mrs. Bogus.

Can any Good thing come out of Mazahity??

Our next meeting will be in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Johnson, 4217 E. 63rd at Yellowhouse Canyon. "Come and see in 83."

MANAGING YOUR MONEY

Investment Ideas
As inflation gnaws at the purchasing power of the dollar, people are beginning to look for different ways to make their savings earn more.

An interesting opportunity for the average investor is the chance to receive nearly the same high yields in the money market that larger investors have enjoyed for so long.

Money market instruments are short-term obligations of banks, corporations and the U.S. Government. They are usually sold only in large denominations—sometimes $100,000, but more often in $1,000,000 units.

Now, however, the smaller investor can participate in special funds, such as Dreyfus Liquid Assets, which, by combining your money with that of others, give you access to these money market opportunities.

An initial investment of $2,500 or more may be followed by subsequent investments in amounts as little as $100. There is never a sales charge or penalty for withdrawal.

For free information or a prospectus, write Dreyfus Liquid Assets, Inc., Dept. MW, 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10153. Read it carefully before you invest. Or call 800-545-8531, ext. 705; in Penn. 200-612-5180, ext. 705.

One of the most unpopular levies in history was the tea tax, which led to the Boston Tea Party.

Sheridan's Ride

by Jack Sheridan

It's been a long time since I've hied off to a Sunday matinee to find the theatre jam-packed and ropes up for the second showing as I left the building, at the finish. The place was the Winchester Twin on 50th this week and that crammed audience was filled to little ones, big ones, husbands and wives, lovers, fat ones, thin ones and I guarantee everyone there had one whole of a good time.

The film, of course, is Columbia's PG-rated howling comedy hit of the year, "Tootsie," and it also brings stunning direction by Sydney J. Pollack, a collaboration with Hoffman that has proven well nigh unbeatable. It also boasts a supporting cast that is impeccable, hand-picked, and right on target all the way down the line. It's a wildy funny film, with its seric moments, and a plot that is ingenious and intriguing from the beginning to the end.

If there's a pure entertainment film you ache to see after all this time, then "Tootsie" is your dish. No holds barred.

Briefly, the story is of Michael, a down and out actor nobody "in New York or Hollywood," would hire on a bet who thwarts all by donning the make-up and stunning wardrobe to tryout for a land the leading role in a daytime soap opera. From then on the deception becomes hectic, fast, funny, and gets poor Hoffman tied into knots of every conceivable form until his unforgettable solution to the whole thing.

Oh, this one is a inner from the firing of the starter's gun to the finish wire. What a joy to come out of a theatre unsullied by smut etc. and just comfortable with a quote a belly laughs spent among the most enjoyable people imaginable.

Among those enjoyables are Jessica Lange as the soap opera co-star and Hoffman's ultimate downfall

SAID IT WOULD HAPPEN!! Early last year THIS N THAT reported that someone would get hurt over REPOSSESSING AUTOS in the Kub City area. Just last week a 28 year old towing operator was shot when he tried to REPOSSES a 28 year old lady's car.

The lady said he didn't have any legal papers to pick up the car so she shot at him. The same could have happened last year in the 500 block of East 23rd Street during high noon but the towing company employees got away!

The column must apologize for its missing presence on the Digest pages these past few weeks. The weather was to blame playing hob with ice and snow and all the rest. I don't have to tell you—you know as well as I!

So, I missed my Christmas greetings and good wishes to all of you and hope it came and went beautifully and warmly and the New Year which I can hit if a bit late is the one you always wished for—for you, for all of us.

GREAT!! If you had the opportunity to hear the young people of the LUBBOCK COMMUNITY CHOIR over radio station KJAK you heard a treat. Let us keep encouraging these young people and listen to this special broadcast weekly each Sunday evening at 9 p. m.

RADIO STATION!! There is no RADIO STATION in Lubbock or West Texas which contributes to the BLACK COMMUNITY as we would desire. Something should be done to see that a BLACK ORIENTED RADIO STATION becomes a reality here. Of course there are radio stations who try but trying is not enough. Do you agree BROTHER WILLIAM F. BRITT?? NEW DIRECTION!! If the BLACK COMMUNITY is going to make strides in 1983 we are going to have to change our directions

RAINBOW BAKING COMPANY - LUBBOCK, TEXAS

I have a dream.

I have a dream that one day, out in the red hills of Georgia, the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slaveowners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood.

I have a dream that one day, even the state of Mississippi, a state overflowing with the heat of oppression, will be transformed into a state of freedom and justice.

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by their character.

I have a dream today.

I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exulted, every hill shall be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight, and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh see it together.

This is our hope. This is the faith that I will go back to the South with. With faith we will be able to tear out of the mountain of despair a stone of hope. With faith we will be able to work together to lay together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day.

This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to join with new meaning. My country, 'til then, Sweet land of liberty, of the living God, where my fathers died, Land of the Pilgrims' pride, From every mountainside, let freedom ring.

And if America is to be a great nation, this must become true. So let freedom ring from the mighty mountains of New York.

Let freedom ring from the Ballyhooing Alleghenies of Pennsylvania.

Let freedom ring from the snow-capped Rockies of Colorado.

Let freedom ring from the curvaceous slopes of California.

But not only that; let freedom ring from the Stone Mountain of Georgia.

Let freedom ring from the granite peaks of New Mexico.

Let freedom ring from the high sierras of Nevada.

Let freedom ring from the basins and valleys of Arizona.

Let freedom ring from the rugged hills of Mississippi.

Tuskegee Institute Leads The Way

by Shirley Irving Thigpen

The School of Engineering at Tuskegee Institute will become in 1983, the first professional program at a Black institution to offer a Bachelor of Science degree in Aerospace Engineering. President Ronald Reagan signed into law, October 2, 1982, H.J. Res. No. 599, appropriating nine million dollars for Aerospace Science and Health Education at Tuskegee Institute.

According to Dr. Benjamin F. Payton, President of Tuskegee Institute

"The Center will house the Aerospace Engineering Program as well as serve as an expansion of the School of Engineering building to house technical facets of the program." The building will be named in honor of the late General Daniel "Chappie" James, the nation's first, and until recently, only Black four-star general. The Center will help stem this nation's shortage of aerospace engineers and will increase the number of minority youth entering the field of aerospace engineering.

Tuskegee Institute's School of Engineering is highly regarded nationally. Students and faculty from abroad add an international flavor to the school, which also attracts students from across the nation. B.S. degrees are awarded in Electrical, Mechanical, and Electrical Engineering. M.S. degrees are awarded in Nuclear, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering. The School of Engineering is accredited by both the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology.

The School of Engineering's new Dean is very capable of leading new generations of students into skilled positions with adequate training. Dr. Vascar Harris holds the B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees in Mechanical Engineering from Johns Hopkins University. He was Associate Dean of Engineering at Howard University before assuming the Deanship at Tuskegee Institute in 1982. Harris stresses the importance of new students applying early and filling out financial aid forms correctly and submitting before the deadline. He advises students to seek the assistance of counselors in high schools to aid them in processing the necessary documents to enter Tuskegee Institute.

Eligible students receive financial assistance in the form of grants (BEOG), (SEOG), loans (NDSL), work-study awards, and scholarships. There are numerous scholarships available through the Dean's Office in addition to those applied for through the Financial Aid Office.

Students interested in applying to Tuskegee Institute's School of Engineering may secure applications for admission and financial aid from the Office of Admission, Tuskegee Institute, Kresge Center, Tuskegee, Alabama 36088.

Studies Transportation

During the week of November 8 - 12th, Murfee Kindergartners studied transportation.

Young people at Murfee Elementary School learned a lot from their recent study on transportation.

Local Teacher to Head Study Tour to Europe

Charamane Crawford, Monterey High School teacher, is presently planning her tenth American Institute for Foreign Study tour with a group of students and teachers to study and travel in London, Stratford, York, Paris, Florence, Rome, and Athens, followed by a one-week cruise of Rhodes, Ephesus, Cairo, Jerusalem, and Patmos.

The "Literary Europe" program has been approved for credit by the Lubbock Independent School District. The group will leave June 7 and return June 28. The cost is $2,979. Because this is a special literary instead of a regular AIFS catalog program, enrollment is limited to 40 students. Counselors and students are enrolled from Amarillo, Friona, Groom, and Monahans, as well as to enroll early because we have regular orientation meetings beginning in January, and the better prepared students are the more valuable the program is to them," explained Mrs. Crawford.

Teaching in Europe will be done by a European tutor of Richmond College, London. Professional guide-lecturers lead the sightseeing tours to the important monuments and buildings of each city, providing on-site lectures which afford the travelers in-depth coverage of the history, art, and social fabric of each locale.

This program is especially attractive, says Mrs. Crawford, because it combines stop-overs in "must see" cities with picturesque drivers through the surrounding countryside which enhances a sense of regional and national setting. The exciting and busy itinerary still allows free time for individual exploring, shopping, and relaxing.

AIFS is characterized as the nation's foremost organizer of international education programs, according to Mrs. Crawford, who says the organization emphasizes the importance of international understanding as an instrument for world peace.

A native of Amarillo, Mrs. Crawford first began travelling with AIFS in 1974 while teaching in Panhandle. In 1980 she was honored at a New York convention for "contributions made to international education and understanding among young people throughout the world."

School Volunteers

School Volunteer Program with the Lubbock Public Schools has been recognized as one of the top ten school volunteer programs in the nation. This organization groups non-school individuals with students and teachers to the mutual benefit of all.

1982-83 Report: Elementary schools have 265 registered volunteers working in 15 schools. Fourteen additional elementary schools are in the process of setting up volunteer programs. Junior highs have 22 volunteers in 3 schools. Monterey High School is in the process of organizing its volunteer program.

Volunteers are parents, non-parents, Junior League members, retired senior citizens, and college students.

Volunteers are involved in:

- Gifted Talented program
- Bilingual education
- Mini-Course instruction (hobbies, professions, collections, talents)
- Tutoring
- Working in clinic
- Library

g. Supervising
h. Bulletin board construction

i. Decorations, and the possibilities are limited only by imagination.

Benefits:
Volunteers - Help the child because the volunteer lets him/her know someone cares.

Allows parents to become involved in the education of their own child and to have a say in this education.

Involvement brings a strong support system to schools.

Communication between the community, parents, and the school system becomes better.

Allows volunteers to get "caught up" in the excitement of a child's world.

Allows a volunteer to sharpen skills.

Allows the volunteer working experience that can be used if he/she applies for a job. (Many companies look at volunteer involvement now. If the person was a good and regular volunteer, then that person will certainly be a good employee.)
Allows the volunteer

to have a good feeling about himself/herself, knowing someone is being helped.

Volunteering can develop a person's creativity and leadership abilities.

Volunteers get a chance to meet new people and make new friends.

Schools - Strengthen the school system.

Supports teaching. Relieves the teacher of non-teaching duties, so teacher can spend more time teaching or planning.

Reinforces teachings - expands the teacher's expertise.

More individualized teaching in the schools - less failure - the entire system benefits as well as the community as a whole.

Newsletter: This is sent to all volunteers, teachers in the elementary level, and to junior and senior high schools involved in volunteer programming.

More Volunteers: yes we need more volunteers - friends, parents, grandparents, Tech students, anyone who has some time. They will be placed in the school which is the most convenient to them. We will also decide what they would be the happiest doing the try to place them in the job category.

How do they become involved?
