Mrs. Lillian C. Struggs, We Love You

With the hundreds of Dunbar High School graduates and former students in Lubbock, Texas for the first ever All-Class Reunion, it is an opportunity to let the third hired Black teacher, Mrs. Lillian C. Struggs, know that we love her dearly.

She has always exemplified the true meaning of the word love. If you'd ask her former students and former co-workers, they'd tell you the same.

Not only has she been an inspiration to the thousands of young people who crossed her path in the halls of Dunbar High School and Ella R. Iles Elementary School, but her many efforts

"Welcome Home, Dunbar Exes!"

The Southwest Digest is very pleased to be able to report to our readers that hundreds of Dunbar High School graduates and former students are coming home this week. We're so excited about what will take place in the City of Lubbock, beginning July 1st through July 4th.

In talking with Mr. Virgil Johnson, principal of Dunbar-Struggs High School and one of the coordinators of this first ever All-Class Reunion, it was learned that hundreds of Dunbar graduates and former students will coming home.

"We are just happy to know that these former graduates want to come back home and take part in something that is great. The ripple effect of this effort will spill over into our city and throughout the nation."

One highlight will be the giant picnic which will be held at Booker T. Washington Park where many times they had fun times. The banquet on Saturday evening at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center, plus religious services will add much to this first ever.

Much talk has been done about this event, and now the time is here for all Dunbar High School Graduates and Former Students to stand up and be counted. Wear your colors proud and sing your school song high. This is your weekend here, and we're glad you've all decided to 'come home!'

Thanks committee, for a job well done, and thank you all for not forgetting where you've come from, Lubbock, Texas USA, that is!

Pictured on this page and inside are persons who were featured during the promotion of this great event. Of course, there will be many, many more who will be participating.

The Southwest Digest is so happy that this event is taking place. When you

The New Hope Baptist Church, 2002 Birch Avenue, is happy this week because so many of our former graduates of Dunbar High School will be in our city, and would hope some of them would come our way. We want them to know that New Hope is the Church where the people really care. It's just so good to know that you are here, and that God has been good to each of you.

Last Sunday morning, Sunday School began at 9:30 a. m. with Supt. Earnest Swain at his post of duty.

Morning worship began at 10:45 a. m. with Deacon Howard and Deacon Swain in charge. The devotional responsive reading and prayer were conducted by the Deacons. A congregational hymn was sung by the entire congregation while standing. The Mission and Education Offering was conducted, and selections were sung by the Senior Choir.

Announcements of the morning were read by Sister Anita Henry and another selection by the choir.

The altar call prayer was conducted by Rev. Larry Brooks. After which, the hymn of preparation was sung.

Rev. Brooks' sermon was entitled: "Be Reconciled To God." His text was II Corinthians 5:18. It was a very good sermon.

We still have many who are on the sick and shut-in list. Among them are Mrs. Winnie Knighton's husband, Mr. Lee Knighton; Mrs. Rose Pillow is home from the hospital; Luella Hall, Vera Mitchell and many others.

Our bereaved families include: Bennie Whitfield,

Mr. Bennie Whitfield

Robert Reed, Jerry Henderson, Clinton Armstead, and Pranis Clyde Lewis.

Final rites are set for today, Thursday, 2:00 p. m. for Ms. Johnnie B. Cox, a longtime resident of Lubbock and employee of the Atlanta Life Insurance Company, at Bethel AME Church with Rev. A. L. Dunn, pastor, officiating.

Word has come to Lubbock of the passing of George Smothers. He lived in Lubbock for many years. He had many friends here.

It was so nice to see Mrs. Mary Lang at church last Sunday morning. She has been sick, and shut-in for sometime.

Have a good time in Lubbock, Dunbar grads and former students.

It Needs To Be Said

by the Mystery Writer

Once again a monster is trying to make our East Lubbock Community its home. Whether or not this occurs will be directly attributed to the actions of the community majority. If the majority does not want the monster, NOW is the time to stop it, as once a "toe hold" is gained, it will be almost impossible to stop the proposed monster.

The monster, a jail annex on East Broadway at Idalou Highway. Not to be totally closed minded, there can be some positive involved in this proposal, however, in this case, one single negative outweighs the positives. That negative in reality is a positive for East Lubbock as our community plans has no place for a jail, prison, half-way house, sewage plant or additional cotton mills. East Lubbock already has its share of building that distract from our nature beauty, that create health hazards, that create foul odors and cause heavy traffic. If a new jail or annex is required, look within the immediate area of the existing facility, there is ample space between Main and Fourth Street.

East Lubbock's future plans call for facilities that will enhance our image, that will provide services or recreation for the community. Although jobs are also high on our community list of needed items, building employment facilities next door or in our backyards is not desired or wanted. Driving around the Loop, land is abundant, therefore, large buildings, plants and health hazard facilities would be ideal in that location. Just because the city or county owns land within our East Lubbock residential area, does not mean they have the right to build whatever desired on that land. We, the people, that must deal with a facility on a daily basis must have a voice in what is placed within our community. We, the residents of East Lubbock, want our community to be known for more than crime, cotton gins and a jail.

Plans are being formulated to remedy the abundance of vacant land situated within East Lubbock. Several new homes (not low income either) have been built, the Kingdom Hall, Mrs. V's Hair Salon and the remodeling of South Plains Funeral Home have improved East Broadway. A new church is slated for Quirt and the East Lubbock Development Association (ELDA) has several projects in the works. If the city or county wants to build in East Lubbock, then build a hospital, city or county office complex, or encourage fast food outlets and small businesses to locate in East Lubbock.

East Lubbock, we must stand and be recognized, not by one or a few, but as a majority. We must find the time, remember the date, time and place of meetings to stop another monster from gaining a "toe hold" in our community. Remember, how sat idle while drugs became rampant on our community streets. Remember how our lack of participation and support created the vast amount of vacant land. From these two examples alone, all can readily see how difficult it is to rid a community of a monster, once a "toe hold" has been gained. Let's act NOW, before yet another monster is entrenched within East Lubbock.

Lubbock NAACP Regular Monthly Meeting

The Lubbock Branch of the NAACP will hold its regular monthly meeting Saturday, July 1, 1989, at 7:30 p. m. at the Mae Simmons Community Center.

President Rose Wilson is asking all officers and members to please be present. Preparations are being made to attend the NAACP National Convention in Detroit, Michigan July 8-14, 1989.

The public is invited to attend this meeting.

This writer has had people ask when should they bring their babies to the dentist? There are different answers depending upon who you ask. Some dentists feel 3 to 4 years of age. While others feel about 1 year of age. This writer feels that when your child is about 1 to 2 years of age, it's time for his or her first check up. Early visits can prevent minor problems from becoming major ones. Don't wait until there's an injured tooth to introduce your child to a dentist. Make the first visit a positive one.

By all means, don't threaten your children into behaving by saying: "If you don't be good, he's going to give you a shot." This does far more harm than good.

Remember, children need healthy teeth for chewing, speaking clearly, and looking good. Your child's dental development and good oral health begins with you.

How You Can Care For Your Child's Teeth

by
Dr. Heenan Johnson, III

As soon as your baby's teeth appear, you should clean them with a piece of gauze or damp washcloth after feeding. When the rest of the teeth have come in, brush them gently with an extra soft, children's toothbrush. You may have a fight on your hands, but it is well worth it to your pocketbook and your child's health in the long run. One tip that helps is to have your child lay his or her head in your lap so you can see the teeth better and stabilize head movement.

Remember that babies who sleep with a bottle of milk, formula or fruit juice in their mouths can suffer from Baby Bottle Tooth Decay. This decay appears as black or brown teeth rotten down to the gum line. Use only cool water in the bottle at bedtime or budding teeth may become severely decayed.

You may wonder: "Why are baby teeth so important?" Even though primary (baby) teeth eventually fall out, they do serve a very important function. Baby teeth reserve space for the adult (permanent) teeth, so if a tooth is lost too early, the permanent tooth replacements could grow in crooked.

There are many ways to prevent early decay, beginning with regular checkups. But if a cavity should develop in a primary tooth, be sure to have it filled. As rough as kids play, if he or she should knock a tooth out, place it in cool milk or water and get to the dentist within a half an hour. Do not clean the pieces of gum tissue off the tooth. If you can do this, the tooth can be replanted in your

Your Absence from Church is A Vote To Close His Doors

FROM THE OF
PARSON D. A. SMITH

There is a story told of a man who was night fishing for striped bass at the base of a hugh dam in the Tennessee Valley River System. The fisherman hung a gasoline lantern that was equipped with a reflector over the side of the boat. The purpose was to attract the river minnows and in turn the minnows would serve as bait for the hungry bass. As luck goes with fisherman, during the middle of the night, the lantern went out. The fisherman drew the lantern into the boat to refuel it but discovered that he had left his gasoline can in his truck. Suddenly he realize that he was left in total darkness. Then came a strange realization. Behind that massive dam were billions of tons of pressure. Pressures of water power. The turbines were humming and the giant dynamos were generating literally millions of kilowatt hours of power. But there he sat not more than forty feet from all the power in darkness, unable to utilize it. Many of us are like the fisherman. We find ourselves left in darkness. We live in God's world under his great reservoir; that great source of power. God with all his resources keep pumping out power that can make us better persons, bigger persons, and happier persons. He keeps generating power that will fill our life with love; radiant light, joy and peace. Yet, we too often sit in darkness because we have no vital connection or we simply will not plug into the source of power. It would be wise for us to connect through prayer to the great source of power, God.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast Sisters and Brothers met in the lovely home of Brother & Sister Delbert Hood last Saturday morning at 9 a. m. All truly thank God for the Holy Spirit. President Christine Burleson presided over the weekly meeting. Prayer and praise were sent forth. Truly all souls were blessed.

Sister Adelia Hardrick taught the morning lesson. Her scripture lesson was 1 Samuel 15:15-16; 23. Her subject was "Do You Really Want To Know God???"

(16) Then Samuel said to Saul: "Stop, listen to what the Lord told me last night." "What was it?" Saul asked. And Samuel told him when you didn't think much of yourself. God made you King of Israel.

(19) Then why didn't you obey the Lord? Why did you rush for the loot and do exactly what God said not to?"

(23) For rebellion is as bad as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as bad as worshipping idols. We need to obey God, stay in His Will, stand in boldness, knowing God is with you; don't let no one hold you down. We are the property of the Almighty!

Thanks, Sister Hardrick for this lesson. We love You! Thought for Life: "Owe no man anything. But, But, But man anything. But, But, But to love one another."

Romans 13:8 (Living Bible). Breakfast was served spiritually and physically.

Come, we love to share this meal with others. The on this meal with others. The only invitation you need is to be hungry.

Our sick list includes: Sister Lula Mae West, C. J. Nash, Sister Quannane who is a patient at Lubbock Science Health Center, and all others not mentioned. Remember Mark 11:22-24. Read and receive.

Our special guest last week were: Rev. & Sister Sidney Keys, Valery Simmons, Patty Taylor, Marion Kellen, Sister Dixon, Ruby Johnson (who was back), Elnora Jones, and Deacon Wheeler.

Thank God for you! Do come again!!

Thank God for prayer warriors all over this world who are raising up and taking a stand. This Block Chain March will gather on Earnest Butler Park on Sunday, July 9, 1999 at 6 p. m. to stand in and pray against the evils in our communities and city. It's to be a turn for better things in our world, the Christians will have to do it. We are the salt of the earth, people. And if this world gets unlivable, it's because we sit still, and let it happen. We are a strong army of believers. Let's go for the promise of God. The Prayer Army is on the move. We are trained for battle. Satan has wedged an all out attack. Thank God for each of you for praying for us. Come and be a part.

Write Outreach Prayer Breakfast, P. O. Box 1223, Lubbock, Texas 79408. We love to hear from you. You can make it.

Keep loving, and by doing so, you are fulfilling the law, and all of it.

Lord, every since in the Garden, at the beginning of time, satan has been "the best deceiver" of the mind. Like the lie he told Adam then in the Garden of Eve. Don't do what 'God says', and they were deceived.

He yet work that very lie; this very, very, very day. He knows to come in many 'shapes, forms and ways.'

"Today, we call him Lite Beer, Wine, Pills, Cocaine, and Weed." Then he comes in "Diamonds, Flush, Metals, and they all deceives."

"I followed" the devil one day; started out on a Beer called Lifo." Then I moved "up to the heavy stuff; trying to get myself right."

I watched the people on T. V., having what called a good time. I tried the things they did; "it just messed up my mind."

Isaiah 5:20: The Lord said, woe (cursed) unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

(From the little drug, to the big one; "from cigarette tobacco; to marijuana tobacco; from Lite Beer to Whiskey; from Crack to Cocaine. It's all drugs to kill the mind.)

Romans 6:23: For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

"Lord, I've tried everything to get rid of the devil inside of me." It cost me too much money to feed them; "I'm tired I want to be free."

I've tried to smoke them out, increasing the marijuana cigarette; but they only ask for more: "They don't seem to want to quit."

Isaiah 55:6-7a: Seek the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake His way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts.

Lord, I even tried killing them out, increasing the alcohol in me. "I couldn't drown them out; only got headaches, and more miseries."

Revelation 3:20: Jesus said, behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

Lord, I've even tried to curse them out; it did them no harm. But I only "filthy my mouth more; with my old nasty tongue."

Matthew 11:28: Jesus said, come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

"Lord, I've now tried everything under the sun." Now its time to go over the sun, "to the Holy One (Jesus Christ."

Lord, I praised you now because I'm so glad, Free At Last, Free At Last!! I thank God for Jesus, I'm now Free At Last!!

John 8:32-36: Jesus said, ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. AAAAMANNNNNN.

God is not through with us yet!!! Let's pray for one another always.

Dunbar Reunion Update

Roy Gene & Rowanda Adams Toler

Meet Roy Gene and Rowanda Adams Toler, two more excited Dunbar exes who will be participating in the Dunbar All-Class Reunion activities this weekend (July 1st).

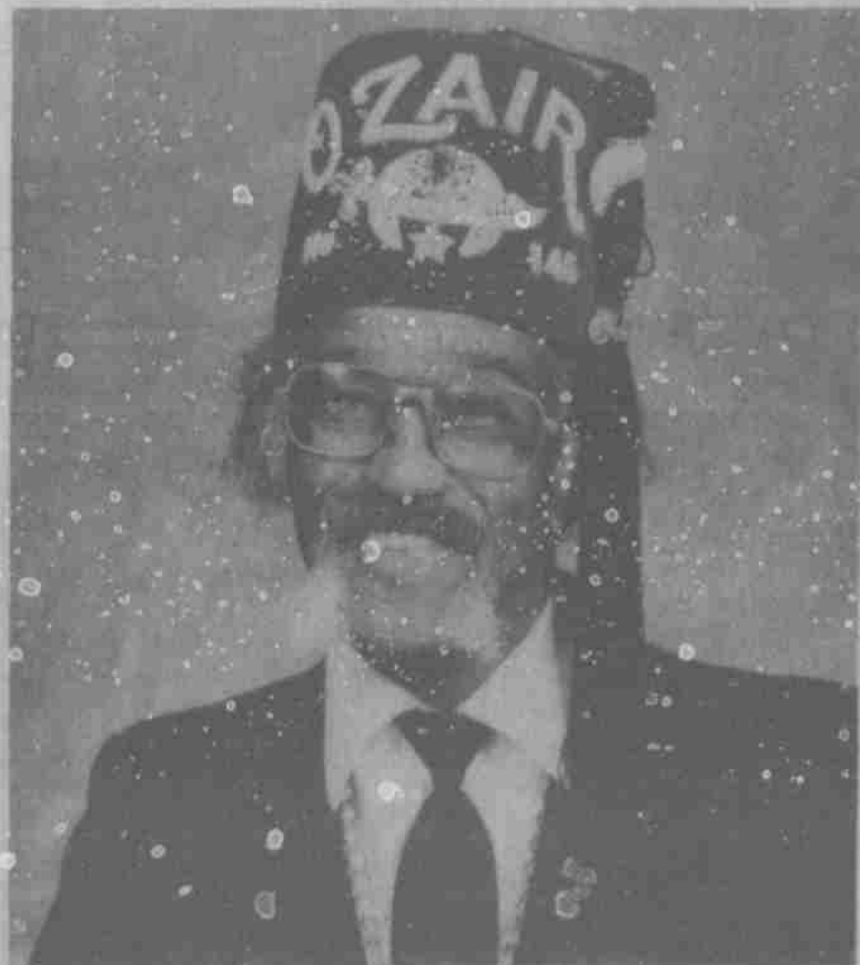

He was a member of the class of '68, and she was a member of the class of '69. Both have continued to be extremely supportive of Dunbar and the class reunion efforts. They have three children and are looking forward to renewing laughter with their friends and classmates.

It's also important to mention that Roy and Rowanda have been very active in the Dunbar P. T. A.

and Rowanda is presently treasurer. Whenever they have been called upon, they have responded positively.

Thanks, Roy and Rowanda, for taking time to "come home!"

Lonzy Morrison

Meet Lonzy Morrison, a member of the class of '60 and still one more "proud PANTHER" who will be attending the all class reunion this weekend.

Lonzy now lives in Amarillo, but still finds time to visit relatives and friends here. His pride for his alma mater is beyond question, and his desire to reunite with some of his classmates were quite evident when he responded immediately upon hearing about the reunion and paid his fees to attend.

The type pride that has been shown by Lonzy is what Dunbar has been about and will CONTINUE to be so! Thanks, Lonzy, for "coming home!"

Ethel Hibbler McNeal

Meet Ethel Hibbler McNeal, a member of the class of '62 and another

Dunbar Ex who will be in town this weekend (July 1st) to participate in the all-class

Conger Becomes Regular As Coach Of The Week

(Editor's Note: The Southwest Digest has received many articles on Elton Conger, graduate of Dunbar High School and junior high school coach in Lubbock, about his winning the "Coach of the Week" honors in Houston. Here is a copy of one which appeared in the Houston Forward Times earlier this year. When you see him, and we're sure you will, tell him you saw it in the Southwest Digest.)

Coach of the Week

By King Arthur Prayther
With more than 7 years under his belt Coach Elton Conger is still on the top of his game as Waltrip girls basketball Coach. He has fought off the House Bill 72, which left three of his top returning girls stuck in the House as they call it now adays, yet he's 5-0 and all along in first place.

We talked with Coach Conger after his girls put away the BTW Eagles behind Laura Gallardo's big 20 point night. "Well I felt a little funny about this group even though I knew the talent was there, and we went out and lost our first three games, and made our minds up from that point on, we wanted to win."

The Rams however lost to Kashmere by one point in the HISD girls tournament. "We slipped a little bit, and if everyone is eligible and be able to play. "We felt we could have beaten Kashmere, but our girls got a little case of the big head, and the loss to Kashmere could very well come out for the better."

Coach Conger went on to talk about their win over Yates for third place. "This has been a big dark cloud hanging over our heads and now that we have climbed that mountain, the sky is the limit as to how high our girls can go now."

Coach Conger went on to say he has two good point guards this time around, and believe it or not its the first time. "We have a good point guard in Aleatha Williams and a solid junior in Mia Hamilton who do a super job out front and we have some good reserve players who love to run and that's when we are at our best."

We then asked Coach Conger about his chances of getting into the playoffs. "Well Lamar and Kashmere must play twice, and the loser will have two losses and all I have to do is tie with the winner of their game and we'll be in for sure."

However if the Rams want to win it outright all they have to do is beat Lamar and Kashmere both again and with wins over Scarborough, Reagan, Lee, Sam Houston and BTW they would defend their crown in the best manner and go into the playoff as district 19-5A champs.

In closing Conger added he felt we had done a through job on the interview and he was looking forward to seeing us out at Waltrip games again.

COACH ELTON CONGER leads Waltrip Lady Rams to first place in 19-5A District Playoff.

East Lubbock AARP Workshop Held

The East Lubbock Chapter of AARP held its annual Leadership Training Workshop for its officers and members June 7, 1989 at Mae Simmons Community Center. Two sessions were held: first session, 8:30 a.m. until 11:00 a.m.; second session, 1:00 p.m. until 3:30 p.m. reunion.

While in Dunbar, Ethel was drum majorette for the Panther Band and very active in numerous functions of the school such as: student council, the National Honor Society, the Dunbar Combo, and other activities. She is also chosen "Miss Dunbar" in the class of 1962.

Ethel received her masters degree in counseling from Ball State University in 1981. She now lives in Aurora, Colorado, and works as an elementary counselor. Thanks, Ethel, for responding to the urge to "come home!"

The Dunbar All-Class Reunion Committee again would like to take the opportunity to thank the Southwest Digest for its unequalled support of our reunion efforts. Your professionalism, understanding, and cooperation have contributed GREATLY to the tremendous success of our all-class reunion! To date, you were the only Lubbock newspaper to show any interest toward the Dunbar all-class reunion, and we feel that it's important for the people of Lubbock to know that fact!

Both sessions were attended by officers and members. We appreciated the presence of all who attended, and especially Mr. A. D. Pina and Mrs. Marcie Collins.

The Assistant State Director, Poppy Hulse, presented a very informative and interesting workshop. There were some most useful materials secured and many new ideas were discussed. It was a successful workshop and the director was pleased with the attendance.

The hotline for AARP is 1-800-444-9114.

This number went into effect May 1, 1989, and it was established to aid senior citizens in securing information concerning their legal rights, and answers to any other questions they may have.

A special thanks to the Mae Simmons Community staff for the use of the center and their support.

Woman's Work Is Labor Of Love

For the past 20 years or so, Danielle Anderson has been quietly perfecting her craft. But for the local women, who had successfully raised two sons, and by her own account, is married to the world's greatest husband; her work, both literally and figuratively, is a labor of love.

Danielle makes customized cake tops and says she started in the business through necessity.

"For quite a few years I baked wedding cakes and I found that the Black dolls were always too black, gray; they had blue eyes, or they never looked pretty, and I thought the top should look pretty and should look like the couple who is marrying," she said.

She started making graduate dolls as personal gifts for graduating seniors and they were well-liked that she started selling them also.

Danielle can be found every Saturday at the 16th Street Flea Market where she has a booth set up displaying a variety of cake tops which she can personalize on the spot.

The nominally priced figurines come in a wide range of colors, and are made of plastic or ceramic materials; and may be covered with either plastic or glass domes.

She will be offering special male and female Dunbar graduate figures and will personalize any year of graduation during the All-Class Reunion.

For more information, she may be reached at 762-8631.

Rev. Bunton Will Preach Here

WE COMPILED A LIST OF THE FRIENDLIEST PEOPLE IN TEXAS.

Being friendly is just part of being Texan. And it's a good thing. Because the friendlier we are to our out-of-state guests, the better it is for our economy. And at Southwestern Bell, a healthy Texas economy is something we strongly support. That's why our directories feature a "Texas Friendly" face from the state's tourism advertising effort. And why we helped underwrite the Texas Department of Commerce, Tourism Division's hospitality training program, now being offered statewide. After all, we'd like to see our list of the friendliest people in Texas continue to grow.

Education of Migrant Children
Protected By Federal Judge

Migrant farm workers in Washington state filed a class action law suit challenging a school district's misappropriation of federal migrant education funds. The workers also challenged the district's failure to provide equal access to services for migrant children, and its failure to allow parents of migrant children, and its failure to allow parents of migrant children a meaningful opportunity to participate in the planning, operation, and evaluation of the school's migrant education program. The lawsuit was filed in 1985.

"These problems are not unique to Washington. Our office has received a number of complaints about local school districts that use migrant education money to pay for basic instruction and equipment for the children, and do not allow the parents to become involved with the education of their children," said TRLA staff attorney Stephen C. McIntyre.

On March 28, 1988 the federal court had heard the case entered a consent decree on behalf of the children and parents. The consent decree provides that federal migrant money be used only for the special needs of migrants, not their basic education. Basic education was defined to include all education required by state law, including bilingual education and any necessary transportation.

The court decree also requires: the training of migrant parents and the Parent Advisory Council (PAC), all relevant documents be translated, an annual needs assessment prepared by the school for the review of the PAC, and that migrant children have equal access to all school facilities and services.

"The children of migrant farm workers in Washington and West Texas must receive equal treatment from their schools. The federal migrant money cannot be used to fund their basic educational needs which are the responsibility of the school district, not the federal government. It is a crime to steal from the future of these kids," said McIntyre.

In Namibia
(NIS) Four Namibians near the Angolan border were reportedly shot and killed by UNITA forces in two separate incidents. One of the assailants was blown up while planting a land mine on a road near the crime.

The Windhoek based weekly The Namibian reported that police discovered a UNITA identity card on the man's body. The insurgents are thought to have fled to Namibia to escape Angolan government forces engaged in an offensive against the rebels.

In an unrelated incident, Namibians have reportedly been unsuccessful in collecting compensation from UNITA members who accepted blame for injuries and damages resulting from a hand grenade explosion last fall.

Staff Association Meets With SWAPO Delegation
(NIS) The Government Service Staff Association, composed of an estimated 15,000 colonial government employees, recently met with SWAPO Acting Foreign Affairs Secretary Niko Bessinger for a briefing on SWAPO's views on the implementation of Resolution 435.

Bessinger recently led a delegation to Zimbabwe where the movement's internal leadership met with SWAPO President Sam Nujoma and other exiled SWAPO. Bessinger said that SWAPO would not release its list of candidates for the November elections until South Africa's Administrator, General Louis Pienaar has released a report on the size of the constituent assembly which will draft the constitution.
