All White Jury Hands Local Black Man 30 Years in Robbery Conviction Here

An all white jury gave a Lubbock man, convicted of the $125,000 armed robbery of the House of Alexander at 2001 Broadway, a 30 year prison term last Friday in Judge William R. Shaver's 140th District Court.

It took the jury only 23 minutes to set the punishment for Virgil Lee Merriweather, 22, of 2205 East 29th Street, after finding him guilty of the April 28 robbery. Another man charged in connection with the same incident, John Lee Bolden, 20, of 2412 East 30th, is expected to be brought to trial in January, 1972.

This robbery, according to Asst. District Attorney Bob Odom, is believed to be the largest in the history of Lubbock.

Aside from the robbery of the House of Alexander, Merriweather had a felony shoplifting indictment against him and it is pending

George Scott Speaks to Plainview Group

George Scott, Jr., assistant dean of students for administration at Texas Tech University, addressed approximately 150 members of the Plainview Classroom Teachers Association at the Thunderbird Elementary School there last Thursday.

A theme, based around the importance of communications, Mr. Scott spoke on the "Importance of Understanding Minorities."

Those attending the special effort included administrators and teachers of the Plainview district. This program was sponsored by the Texas Education Desegregation Technical Assistance Center of Austin, Texas.

East Lubbock Citizens Still Talking to Oil Mill

Citizens of East Lubbock are still negotiating with the Plains Co-op Oil Mill in regard to a proposed flour mill which is designated for construction in the 2800 block of Avenue A.

The West Texas Times has viewed a proposed artist's conception of the site.

A letter has been submitted to William Powell, George Scott and Marshall Taylor, from J.R. Blumrosen, attorney for the Co-op, about a report submitted to the oil mill about the engineering work on the proposed edible cottonseed flour mill.

In part the report said, "In our work on these areas we are considering all potential sources of pollution and are providing the process designs and equipment necessary to eliminate them during normal operations of the plant."

The report from Engineering Management Incorporated, a company of Des Plaines, Ill., continued, "The small quantity of effluent water from the Liquid Cyclone Process Building will be heated sufficiently to remove solvent and then discharged to a settling basin for removal of solids and oil prior to discharging into the plant sewer system. The small quantity of air from the plant vent system will be scrubbed for hexane removal prior to discharge from the building. Finally, all air used in conveying or drying of the various solid stream will be passed through high efficiency filters to remove all particulate matter prior to discharge into the atmosphere."

The citizens of East Lubbock are making plans to appear before the Zoning Board of Adjustment on Thursday, November 18th.

Dunbar-Sweetwater Game Saturday Night

Two former graduates of Dunbar High School will be honored Saturday evening, November 13, at the annual Homecoming football game. The game, which is always the climax of the weeklong Homecoming activities, will feature the Panthers against Sweetwater at 7:30 at Lowery Field.

This year, the Dunbar Alumni Association has added something new to their efforts, in that two outstanding graduates of the Maroon and White will be honored during half-time ceremonies.

Two Graduates to Be Honored Here Saturday Sandra Stevens Named Homecoming Queen Huey P. Mitchell Is Outstanding Alumnus

Sandra Stevens

The Dunbar Alumni Association announced this week the selection of Sandra Strong Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bryant Strong of 2712 Teak Avenue, as its selection for this year's homecoming queen.

Sandra was a 1964 graduate of Dunbar High School, where she excelled as a student, participated in numerous clubs, and served as head cheerleader. She graduated from Texas Tech University with a major in physical education.

Sandra is happily married to Mr. W.G. Stevens, and they are the proud parents of a three year old daughter. They now make their home in Atlanta, Georgia, where Sandra teaches physical education at Harper High School. She plans to do graduate work this summer at the University of Houston.

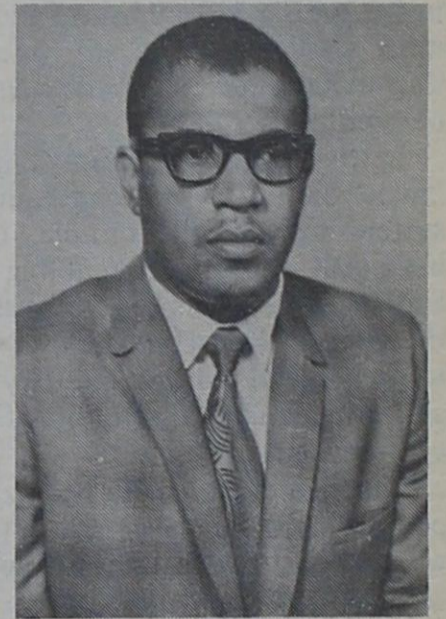

Headstart Program Needs Volunteers

Mrs. Margo Gibson, child development director of the Community Action Board in Lubbock County, told the West Texas Times Tuesday, "We have funds for 120 children and presently have 91 enrolled." She also made it clear that volunteers are needed for this special child development program.

"There should be three volunteers for every twenty children enrolled in the program, but we only have two for every twenty, at the present time," she added.

The age requirements for enrollment in the Lubbock based program have been lowered, making more children eligible. The new age requirements have been set to allow children who were born in September or October of 1966 to enroll. Prior to new requirements, only children born in July and August of that year were accept-

Huey P. Mitchell

Announcement was made this week of the selection, by the Dunbar Alumni Association, of Huey P. Mitchell as its first annual outstanding alumnus to be presented during homecoming activities.

Huey graduated from Dunbar High School in 1954 and enrolled in Texas Southern University in Houston, Texas, where he received his law degree in 1960. He was the first of his race to serve as an assistant attorney for the city of Houston during the years of 1964 through 1967. He then moved to Fort Worth, Texas where he took a position with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. Huey still fills this position and teaches a class in business law at Texas Christian University.

Although Huey's record would not be an easy one to duplicate, he still finds time for civic activities. He serves on the board of directors of the McDonald Branch of the Y.M.C.A. in Fort Worth. Huey also works with the Planned Parenthood Agency, is past president of the High View Community Club, and serves as chairman of the advisory council of Tarrant County Family Planning Agency which has an operating budget of over $500,000.00.

He is also a member of the American Judicature Society, National Bar Association, American Bar Association, and the Fort Worth Chapter of the Federal Bar Association.

Mr. Mitchell is a member of the State Bar of Texas, and has been admitted to practice before the Texas Supreme Court.

Huey's wife, Nelvia, is an elementary teacher in the Fort Worth School System, and they are the proud parents of a daughter five, and a son, ten.

Beware of the "Bones" Being Thrown Your Way

In a time when the white community will throw bones to the community, it is time for us to be on our "P's & Q's" if we're gonna make it. With election times drawing near, the time for bones to start coming this way, by the dozen, is also drawing near.

If we set a goal to do something, no matter how the man throws a bone to us, we must keep in mind the importance of that goal and try to accomplish it.

The man or system will always try to upset our Black community with his trite bones. He will always be trying to keep the Black people divided with his sly techniques. If we continue to show our weakness, we'll certainly fall for his "bag of bones."

The man has conditioned Black people to think that the problems which engulf us are racial. Yet from experience, we know that our problems stem from economical areas. It's a battle of the haves against the have nots. Due to our conditioning in the Black community, the man has made us believe that the only problems we have are racial.

We must beware of the bones the man is throwing to our Black community and wake up now! We must start using our full potential and get with the economic development aspect of our Black communities.

In the Black community in West Texas, the "man" has set up two circles in which to make his system work. For example, the two circles are both oval, with one resembling the size of a "pea" and the other the size of a basketball, to illustrate the point. The larger circle contains the system's tools, namely; politics, industry, economic control and other important factors of any successful and aggressive system.

The smaller circle, the pea-size one, contains the population of the have nots—including the Blacks, whites and browns—that are continually being led to believe their problems are elsewhere. The only way members of the have not community are in contact with members of the larger circle is when they are hired for the minimum wage, by members of the larger circle, and when they return to the business community, within the larger circle, to spend the money they have made. All monies earned by members of the smaller circle never stay in their area, but almost automatically return to the larger circle. In this way the smaller circle never grows economically, leaving no way for a member of the smaller circle to either grow or see his area or community grow.

The larger circle has done a beautiful job, with its "throw 'em a bone when they holler" trick, and has made it extremely difficult, in the past, for the have not community to see exactly where they stand or what their problems are. The racial "bag" has been one of their greatest tricks. It has made ripples all the way to Washington, D.C., and has affected the minds of our younger Blacks. Older Blacks have been afraid to act against this type of conditioning.

Brothers and sisters, we must be made more aware of the "bones" being thrown to us by the man and his system. He's an expert in this game and we must learn to do something from within our small circle to overcome this drastic technique which has been used so effectively by the system.

It's time to recognize the fact that the bone throwing game has been played. Better still, it's time for us to find a means to overcome this ugly situation which has really put us in such a bad scene. Right On!!

Guest Editorial All God's Creation

by Dorothy Nash

In search of a new life, new freedom, hope, love and prosperity, I began my paragraph with open mind, heart, body, and soul, especially with the thought that the things I'm expressing are truly from my heart.

In regards to segregation of races, I think it is wrong because of the fact that God put us all here as one and no matter how man in his sometimes evil ways tries to pull us apart and give us his name for us, in God's eyes we are as one.

The true answer of the problem of segregation lies within each of us, either to love or hate our fellow man. There is no in-between, you either love or hate. In my mind I often think of worldly problems, segregation, as one in regard to society's rules. Man has been so set on his rules that he has forgotten God. If we are to settle our problem of segregation in our city, country and throughout the entire world, we must hit home base first, which is ourselves.

With God as our guide we can take it from there. In roaming through my mind I also found that true love can be beautiful, but it takes time.

History and Lost Identity

The black citizen has become very interested in his history, identity, and culture during the last few years. The battle cry of Blacks on most college and high school campuses is: "We Want Black Studies." This is good except for the fact that most Blacks think that Black studies are sacred and that whites should not be allowed to enroll in the class. It would seem that Whites would need these courses more. Surveys have shown, however, that Whites know more Black History than Black students—even the militant Blacks.

Blacks should become familiar with American History, especially the period between 1876-1881, which is the era of President Rutherford B. Hayes. At this time, Blacks had been freed less than fifteen years. The same sort of "tokenism" practiced then is being practiced now.

my views

by Eddie P. Richardson

It's Now Or Never!!

We have been programmed, brain-washed, analyzed, evaluated and processed through every possible change Black people can go through.

We are statistics and examples, but most of all, we are still poor, disadvantaged and left out.

We still walk in the shadows of the main stream of life while America has discarded Black America through the "yah suh," Uncle Tom, white paid, white controlled, white washed, white appointed black leaders of the black communities. This individual is representing blacks he does not speak to, but yet speaks for. This has been one of Black America's greatest downfalls, the white man's "Uncle Tom" nigger!! These so called leaders are the people that help make way for the unrest, riots, and etc., by telling white America, "We are all satisfied", "We are all doing fine," and "We are all happy." Then he receives his hand-out and leaves, while hundreds of black are unemployed, underemployed, harrassed, neglected, and pushed aside. When these people come to a boiling point and explode, then this "foot shuffling Tom" runs down town and tells the white leaders it's nothing but a few of those craze kids and outside Rutherford Hayes promised the southern congressmen that he would return everything to the South that had been lost by the Emancipation in exchange for their votes. He withdrew the last federal troops from the South, ending all protection for the newly freed man. This placed Blacks in positions of second class citizens—a position which we still occupy.

We must be aware of the fact that we can be returned to the position which we occupied in 1963 by one stroke of the pen by Mr. Nixon. It will really look strange for Black women to sit in the kitchens of restaurants attired in their mink coats. It will be especially hard on some of us older Blacks who travel because we have forgotten that "second toilet training" which we had to learn because we knew that we couldn't use Mr. Charlie's rest room. There is one consolation—we can turn in all of our credit cards. We will have no need for them.

It is time for us to place our priority. Do we want all of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, or all of it except school integration? The Supreme Court declared that no school can be separate and equal. In spite of that decision, it appears that we may have our schools back.

We can be happy since we have our heritage back—our own Black schools—where our children can be cheerleaders and hear their parents called "Shiftless and no good." The best thing of all is that we can stand on the corner and watch those unfortunate white kids ride in the fine new busses to the new $4,000,000 schools while we laugh at them because we have pride and we have instilled this pride into our children. When they finish high school—who knows?

The Book of Ecclesiastes reminds us that "A fly that dies can spoil the perfumer's ointment, and a single slip can ruin much that is good."

Shep Offers A Special Thanks

Dear Editor:

Mr. Sheppard L. Robinson, who has been a resident of Lubbock nearly half a century, has made many friends here and is loved very much and respected by them.

They demonstrated so much love and sympathy during his sister's illness and death (Mrs. Corinne P. Alexander) that he would like to express his sincere thanks and appreciation to members of the following churches and to friends for so many kind deeds, messages of sympathy cards, telegrams, and night letters:

Bethel A.M.E., Mount Gilead Baptist, New Hope Baptist, the Messiah Presbyterian, Christ Temple Church of God in Christ, and Mount Vernon United Methodist Churches.

Mr. Robinson, who has been suffering with arthritis for several years, was overwhelmed with such demonstration of love and friendship.

He thanks you, one and all, and deeply appreciates your friendship.

Thanks,
Sheppard L. Robinson

agitators, usually stating, "I'll need a little more time to cool them down." While he and the few like him are the only ones that are satisfied.

The sickening thing about most of these white, hand-picked, so called Negro leaders that turns one's stomach to the point of vomit is that they use poor disadvantaged ghetto people to give them the license to beg, hustle and profit in the name of leadership.

It's now or never for the black people to chart their own destinies, make their own decisions, and forget the "so-called leaders." False leaders have kept us down too long. One hand-picked black person, speaking for the community that he doesn't even speak to, can do more harm to both the community and the entire system than most people realize. Though he doesn't know it, the white people do not listen to him, believe in him, respect him, and in most cases—they really hate the man. He is the white man's tool and in the end the only person that ends up not only being the fool, but also being fooled. A game is run on him by the white man while he runs a game on the white man—because the Black man does not respect the white man's "hand-picked leader."

One of the fastest ways for a black man to loose respect in the Black community is for him to let himself become hand-picked as a leader for the Black community by the white community.

Black people want to live their own lives, make their own decisions, plan their own futures, and most of all choose their own leaders!

Mrs. Gibson said that in order to enroll a child in Head Start the age requirement must be met and the family must meet the Office of Economic Opportunity poverty guidelines.

The parents of the child should take immunization records (shots) of the child to the school. "However," according to Mrs. Gibson, "if the child has had no immunizations it does not mean he can't enroll."

There are six centers in Lubbock which are located at McWhorter, Harwell, Martin, Guadalupe, Posey and Ella Iles Elementary Schools.

For those who will volunteer in this special child development program, please contact Mrs. Pam Childress, social worker for the Lubbock Independent School District, at the Head Start Office at Ella Iles Elementary School or call her at 744-1948.

Volunteers are needed to serve as teacher aides in the classrooms. "It is essential that there be one teacher and one aide in each classroom," said Mrs. Gibson.

"Volunteers do not have to work a full day; they can work once a day or once a week," stated Mrs. Gibson.

Play on Black Community Meant To Educate

Denver—Executives attending the Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies got a glimpse of "life as it is" in a black community when they saw a play by three Denver teen-agers.

The title of the play was "Between Two World." The youthful co-author of this play is Carolyn Overall, 15, of 2840 Locust Street, Denver, Colorado. Carolyn is the great-granddaughter of Mrs. Elnora Woolbright of 1107 NW 21st St., Amarillo, Texas, and sister of Donald Jones of the same address, she attends George Washington High School of Denver.

"The executives kept saying things really aren't so bad in ghettos, that we don't have poverty in this country, that there's no such thing as police brutality," the co-author said. The youth thought it would be a learning experience for the executives to see "Between Two Worlds," because it says what kids are thinking. And it tries to destroy some of the myths white people have created about black people. The idea for the play, however wasn't born of social concerns. The play is about a young white couple and the woman's teen-age sister, who move into a black community to write a research paper on that community. They try to join their neighbors activities, but the black people reject them.

In the one-act, two scene play, Carolyn appears as a teen-ager. Carolyn shook her head when asked if she would write another play.

Chicanos Stage "Peace March" Here Last Sunday to Protest Grievances

With more than five hundred Chicanos involved in a march here last Sunday afternoon, the group of Brown brothers were echoing: "This is the beginning of our revolution! We're going to be heard regardless of who will object!"

Those words were spoken loud and clear by one member of the Chicano group who gathered at Mose Hood Park, 24th Street and Avenue Q. The Brown brothers came to give response to the requests of local Chicano leaders to organize a Peace March which originated at the park and then proceeded north on Avenue Q, turning at Broadway and ending in front of the Lubbock County Courthouse.

The "Big March" got underway following services given by local Catholic priests Fathers Hoffman and McGovern, along with others who assisted.

Immediately following the services, members of the Brown Beret commenced forming the lines of the march and putting special emphasis on the peacefulness of the march as made clear by Neph-tali DeLeon, earlier in the day.

DeLeon, who termed the completion of the Peach March as being "Very Beautiful", put a great deal of effort in establishing communications between the Chicano and Lubbock Officials.

During the march, shouts of "Viva La Raza" and "Chicano Power" were echoed during the procession. There were also guitars that added to the high fever of the march and added motivation to the songs being sung.

According to Chicanos involved in the march, the many signs seen in the march were there to denounce the Lubbock Police Department for their recent alleged brutality at Fair Park Coliseum several weeks ago following a disturbance at a dance.

There were approximately thirty demands made by the group at the courthouse. These included the ousting of Chief of Police J.T. Alley, along with a slew of other policemen who were considered to be incompetent individuals.

The three page report also contained information that several incidents of discrimination against Chicanos in Lubbock were voiced and stressed as factors of lack of communications.

President of La Raza Unida in San Antonio made the statement: "We must seek and find ourselves and join together in hopes of striving for political and social progress. . ."

DeLeon said, "I was really impressed by the numbers that showed up. This alone shows the en-

Concerned Citizens In East Texas Area

Longview, Texas—A group of citizens met at the community center here October 30th to discuss the many social community problems encountered by the Black community. The informal discussion centered around possible ways of resolving the problems within the context of the system. It was observed that while Blacks represented a larger segment of the votes in Texas than other States; elected and appointed positions of Blacks was the lowest among other states with sizable Black population.

While the group made no attempt to speak for the Black people of Texas, there was a consensus to encourage Black citizens to (1), seek elective positions at every level of local, county, state and federal government; (2) to make concerted effort to have a voice where decisions are made which affect the Black community. The Black community must develop its own agenda and insist that the agenda is considered at the council table. This is a reaffirmation of the democratic system. This system will function only with an informed, involved citizen. The concerned citizens will continue by whatever acceptable means to assist in the operation of the democratic process.

The group voted to support and assist any group or organization in the voters registration drive with special emphasis on the 18 through 21 year old group who will be voting in 1972 for the first time in keeping with the 26th amendment.

Insurance executive and attorney James R. Pierce of Tyler, Texas serves as advisor to the officers, Mr. S. A. Anderson of Marshall and Rev. S.Y. Nixon of Longview, a life membership and national officers of the NAACP. Others participating in the conference were Rev. L.B. Cash of Pittsburg;

Mr. Edwin Wheat, Oakwood; Mr. Eugene Robinson, NAACP President of Jefferson, Texas chapter; Mr. G.A. Porter and Mr. Roosevelt Williams of Karnack, Texas; Mr. Jimmy Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Powell of Sulphur Spring; Mrs. Jane Screws, Winnsboros; Mrs. Vastine and M. Baty of Mexia; Mrs. C. Jones, Fairfield; Mr. Wyatt Patton, Jr. Center; Rev. E.W. Thomas, pastor of Bethelhem Baptist Church, Tyler and vice president of the Voter League of the State of Texas. Also present was the well known educator, E.H. Moore of Longview and Jodie Sanford, of Bullard, Texas.

The next meeting will be held December 4th, at 2:00 p.m. in Longview, Texas. The meeting is open to the public.

For additional information concerning this group, please contact Mr. S. A. Anderson at 114 Fisher Drive, Marshall, Texas or Mr. James R. Pierce at 1709 N. Confederate Street, Tyler, Texas.

Church News . . .

Our lesson for the day, "God sustains His Creation," was reviewed by the pastor. The Superintendent also gave some points on the lesson. The 11 a.m. service was very good, with Rev. Toines text coming from Acts 6:14-15.

Rev. Toines went to Spur Sunday afternoon to preach in the anniversary services of the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Hill.

Mission meets at 7:30 Tuesday nights, and we had a wonderful time at the last meeting.

On our sick list this week are Brother Isaiah Newman, although he is up and doing better. Miss Audry Greene is also up and doing fine. She was at church last Sunday. Mrs. Lizzle Reed is in the Methodist Hospital in the intensive care unit. She is the mother of Mrs. Mae Pearl Jackson and Mrs. Adury Greene. They are staying by her side. Mrs. Rilla Fowler is improving slowly in her home, and Mrs. Tressia Franklin has been in the hospital, but is home now and doing nicely.

Let us visit all we can, and offer a prayer for everybody over the land. If we do that then we will be doing what God told us to do.

Jenkins Chapel Baptist Church

Amarillo—The Jenkins Chapel school opened its doors at 9:00 a.m. with Supt. Scott and teachers on time. The high points of the lesson were given by Sister Roxie Terrell, teacher of the Women's Bible Class No. 2. The Banner offering went to the Women's Bible Class No. 1. Mrs. Thelma Talley is their teacher.

The choir's songs were very inspirational. Our devotional reading was by our pastor, Rev. Wade. We were all pleased to see him out. The morning sermon was by Rev. Dixon, with his text taken from Rev. 1:14. The theme of sermon was "The Glory of The Empty Tomb."

Visiting us Sunday morning was Mr. Isaiah Tyson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, along with Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Harrison of Erichmond, California and Rev. E.R. Anderson and Mr. Haywood Vaughn.

In the evening service, Rev. Dixon's sermon "The Significance of The Lord's Supper" was taken from St. Matt. 26:26. The Lord's Supper was administered, along with Baptismal Service.

The sick and shut-in list this week includes Brother Harrison Jones and Brother Ed Jenkins.

The Jenkins Chapel brotherhood had their regular meeting
