Obama announces surgeon general choice

Dr. Regina Benjamin holds advanced degrees in medicine and business administration.

WASHINGTON (CNN) — President Obama announced Monday he has chosen Dr. Regina Benjamin, a family practice doctor from the Gulf Coast, to serve as surgeon general.

The rural family physician has long provided medical care on the Gulf Coast. In 1990, she founded Bayou La Batre Rural Health Clinic in the fishing village of Bayou La Batre, Alabama.

The clinic was heavily damaged by Hurricane Georges in 1998 and Hurricane Katrina in 2005, but Benjamin rebuilt it each time and continued to offer medical care to the village's 2,500 residents.

Many of her family practice patients are uninsured, according to the MacArthur Foundation, which last year awarded her one of its $500,000 "genius" grants.

Her patient population includes immigrants from Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos, who make up a third of Bayou La Batre's population.

Benjamin received a bachelor's degree in 1979 from Xavier University of Louisiana, attended Morehouse School of Medicine from 1980 to 1982 and received a doctor of medicine degree in 1984 from the University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Benjamin completed her residency in family practice at the Medical Center of Central Georgia in 1987 and has served as CEO of the Bayou La Batre Rural Health Clinic since its founding in 1990.

They were Sister Freddie Jean Boyd and Sister Angela Joyce Brooks. Under the leadership of Pastor Smith she was assisted by Evangelist Ruthie Planks of Smith Temple Community Church, and Brother Charles Planks, Jr., who provided the music by singing.

"It was a moving afternoon, and had a glorious time," said Rev. Smith.

"We are looking for many positive efforts from these young ladies, Sister Boyd and Sister Brooks," she said.

"God is in the business of making everything alright, and with hi on our side, there's nothing we can't accomplish," concluded Pastor Smith.

NAACP to Use Latest Technology to Fight Racism

The NAACP has launched a program that lets people use their cell phones to report incidents of police misconduct.

NEW YORK (AP) — Combining its century-old mission of fighting for equality with the instantaneous reach of modern-day technology, the NAACP has launched a program that lets people use their cell phones to report incidents of police misconduct.

The "rapid response system" was officially launched Monday as part of the annual convention for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. This year, the organization is marking the centennial of its founding in New York City in 1909.

The system allows people who capture photos or video of incidents of alleged police misconduct on their cell phones to send it through a Web browser to the organization or upload it through a computer. A form will then be transmitted to the sender, who can use it to provide more information about an incident.

"Technology has basically put a video camera in the pocket of every child in this country over the age of 12 and most grown-ups as well," said Benjamin Jealous, president and CEO of the NAACP.

He said the information gathered would be used in several ways. Some video could be used immediately, to present footage for a situation the organization wants to highlight. Another purpose would be to compile a database of incidents that could show a history of discriminatory patterns and practices in particular law enforcement jurisdictions - information the group could take to the Justice Department.

The head of the Justice Department, Attorney General Eric Holder, praised the NAACP's dedication to championing equality but acknowledged the work left to be done.

"We must resist the temptation to conclude that our nation has fulfilled its promise of equality based on one moment or on one election," he said, in reference to Barack Obama being elected president.

"The efforts to harmonize our laws with our best ideals is not yet done," he said.

Monique Morris, the group's vice president of advocacy and research, said the ease of reporting an incident will help give a clearer picture of the prevalence of misconduct.

"What this database will provide is a more accurate account in real time of what's happening in our communities," she said.

FROM THE DESK OF PARSON D. A. SMITH

"Southern Whites Conservative Mentality Toward Minorities"

Parson Smith would like to thank those of you who called, sent cards and offered prayers during my two stays in the hospital. With your prayers for the guidance of the hands of the physicians we are recovering quite well. We have a long way to go. However, we are on our way to recovery. Thanks again for your concern about our physical well-being.

Now to the issue at hand! One would think many conservative Americans would be happy that President Obama has regained the respect for all Americans as the leader of the free world. However, there are those in America who still have the Southern (white only) Dixie rat mentality. These pieces of works still believe that if you are not "lily white" you are genetically mutated and are inferior to their kind.

A practical example is seen a column posted July 9, 2009 by Lan Millbiser of Legal Research Analyst; Center for American Progress Action Fund entitled Sessions Uses Sotomayor as a Pawn in His Lifelong Crusade Against Civil Rights. Miller writes the following:

In 1986, an ambitious young United States Attorney named Jefferson Beauregard Sessions III was denied a seat on the federal bench because of his own deep-seated hostility to the very notion of civil rights. As a federal prosecutor, Sessions conducted a tenuous criminal investigation into voting rights advocates that registered African-Americans to vote—an investigation that culminated in an unsuccessful prosecution against a former aide to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. He once quipped that he "used to think (the KKK) were OK until he found out some of them were "pot smokers," and he routinely referred to an African-American attorney who worked for him as "boy"—even once warning that attorney to be "careful what you say to white folks" after Sessions overheard him chastising a white secretary.

Moreover Sessions remains unrepentant for these incidents, although he did reluctantly concede at his confirmation hearing that it "probably was wrong" when he attacked the NAACP as an "un-American" and "Communist-inspired" organization that "forced civil rights down the throats of people."

Twenty-three years later, Sessions is the highest ranking Republican on the Senate Judiciary Committee; and he is the architect of a right-wing campaign which claims that Sotomayor's past service on the board of the Puerto Rican Legal Defense and Education Fund (PRLDEF) makes her unsuitable for the bench. Last week, Sessions claimed that this mainstream civil rights organization took "extreme" positions in litigations. This week, Sessions clarified this remain in an interview with Fox News, explaining that he is concerned that PRLDEF "brought several race discrimination lawsuits for minorities."

We agree with the writers thinking that given Sessions' long history of baseless assaults on civil rights organizations, one has to wonder whether conservatives chose him as their leading voice on Sotomayor because they fundamentally agree with his lifelong stance on race.

One has to re-examine the mindset of the Republican Party as it relates to any other race than lily white Americans as to why they would select a man with a questionable racist past to become the GOP's point-man at the next Supreme Court Justice. This sure does help the like of Uncle Tom Clarence Thomas and Yes Mr. Gilmore: Michael Steel! Clarence Thomas voted against the ruling of Sotomayor's on the fire-fighters ruling.

We Thank God for Jesus

"Michael Jackson Did Rob God"

Written by Evangelist Billy "B.J." Sherman, 31-year brother in Christ Jesus always.

Jeremiah 2:11 — The Lord said, have the nation changed their gods, which are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which does profit.

God blessed Michael Jackson and his family with many great Talents. It is God who is in Control, even with the Money they Spent.

James 1:17 — Every good gift and every perfect gift is above, and come down from the Father of lights, and who is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

The people of this World have made Michael Jackson Their King. BUT THIS WORLD IS SICK, AND DON'T KNOW. ONLY JESUS-CHRIST IS KING!!!

Isaiah 42:8 — The Lord said, I am the Lord, that is my name; and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

Even with God Kicked out of our Homes, Churches, Schools, and Court House. Now the world is in BIG TROUBLES, AND THROUGH IT, GOD IS SPEAKING OUT!!!

Deuteronomy 28:15a, 16-20 — The Lord said, it shall come to pass, if you will not listen to the voice of the Lord your God, to observe and do all his commandments. Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field. Cursed shall be the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your land, the increase of your cattle, and the flocks of your sheep. Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out. The Lord shall send upon you Cursing, and vexation, and rebuke, in all that you set your hand unto for to do, until you be destroyed, and until you perish quickly, because of the wickedness of your doings, whereby you have forsaken me.

When Michael Jackson went out on his own to do his own thing. God was yet blessing WITH THAT BEAUTY BOICE HE DID SING.

**** YES, AND MICHAEL JACKSON DID ROB GOD!!! ****

Psalms 29:1-2 — GIVE unto the Lord, O you mighty, give unto the Lord glory and strength. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

(Did Michael Jackson ever sing a Christian song, so to God be the Glory, Elvis Presley did some, Little Richard did some, and Aretha Franklin did some. Like Amazing Grace or How Great Thou Art, Love Lifted Me, Near The Cross of Jesus, Jesus On The Main Line. And so on, DID HE????) Even Michael Jackson made his millions, he died owning more of the same. God gave him this Money, BUT HOW MUCH WAS SPENT IN GOD'S NAME???

Proverbs 21:20 — There is a treasurer to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise. But a foolish man spend it up.

I never heard what was Michael Jackson's religious plains? Did He not know he would have to BOW TO JESUS, SITTING AT GOD'S RIGHT HAND???

Philippians 2:10-11 — At the name of Jesus very knee shall bow of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth. And every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. The world has forgotten the first of GOD'S 10 Commandments.

Not to make gods of anything, AND THAT'S COMMON SENSE!!!

Jeremiah 3:25 — We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covers us: for we have sinned against the Lord, our God. We and our Fathers, from our youth even this day, and not obeyed the voice of the Lord, our God.

Michael Jackson's funeral got more attention than any

Outreach Prayer Breakfast

"Saints, Let 's Walk On The Water"

Matthew 14:29

Peter was not testing Jesus. Something we are told not to do. Instead, he was the only one in the boat to react in Faith. His impulsive request led him to experience, a rather unusual demonstration of God's power.

Peter started to sink, because so he took his eye of Jesus, and focused on the high waves around him. Then his faith wavered, when he realized what he was doing.

We may not walk on water, but we do walk through tough situations. If we focus on waves of difficult circumstances around us without looking to Christ for help, we go through much despair and sink.

In order to maintain our Faith in the midst of difficult situations, keep your eyes on Jesus, rather than on your inadequacies afloat. Keep your eyes on Jesus. He is bigger than any problem we can have.

When Peter asked to walk on the water, our Lord said to him: "Come." He's saying to many of us today. When the storms of life keep on raging in your life, he's saying to you "Come." Come unto me all that labour and heavy lode and I will give you rest. My yoke is easy and my burdens are light!

Thoughts: Without Faith, Saints, don't try to walk on water. We see you as a radiant spiritual being. We behold the Christ in you. We see you shedding the cares and doubts of the past.

We see you entering into a new thing and it's unfolding before you like dawning light. Healthier, Happier, more Prosperous and Successful than ever before.

Love you, and keep reading, Saints!!

Sometimes "life is hard, but it is basically what we make of it."

The Ark Comes to Jerusalem (1 Chron 15:1-3, 14-16, 25-28)

What do you think of when you hear the word worship? Many of us think of music—and sigh. The "worship wars," rumored to have ended, still rage in many congregations.

Members still fight over musical "turf," glaring at one another over their gun sights—contemporary versus traditional, live accompaniment versus CD, dancing versus standing. Not only do musical issues distract from genuine worship, such conflicts create an unmelodic disharmony in the body of Christ.

Music is an important element of worship. It certainly is biblical. When God's people left Egypt, songs and instruments went with them (cf. Exodus 15). By the time of King David, singers and musicians played a vital role in the praise of God. Please note the last word of the last sentence. Isn't it ironic that, in the heat of debate over worship, the object of worship is often forgotten?

Worship is for and about the living God. Forms and styles aren't nearly as important as the knowledge of the presence of God. David learned that lesson at some cost. Having taken the stronghold of Zion from the Jebusites, the king decided to bring the ark of the covenant from the village of Kiriath Jearim. Forgetting the history of this mysterious box, he allowed it to be transported by oxcart to Jerusalem. Along the way, David discovered the box was more than a mere symbol. When the oxen stumbled, a man named Uzzah reached out to

THIS 'N' THAT

by T.J. Patterson

NEEDS SOMETHING DONE ABOUT THE CORNER OF EAST 24TH STREET & GLOBE AVENUE! THIS 'N' THAT is asking for the CITY OF LUBBOCK to help with a serious problem at the corner of GLOBE AVENUE & EAST 24TH STREET where the WEEDS ARE VERY TALL and are blocking on's view when traveling SOUTH ON GLOBE AVENUE as one is blind sided b the weeds near the telephone pole.... If something is not done immediately it could very well lead to a terrible CAR ACCIDENT which could lead to a fatality... Surely there will be something done about this condition... Also, a half a block on East 24th Street, there is a very large tree connected to a telephone pole in the alley way.... It has really grown and it is hoped something will be done....

PENNY HASTINGS THE BARBER SAYS: "GOOD THINGS come for those who work hard in LIFE as nothing in life is FREE.... THERE ARE TOO MANY BURGLARIES OF OUR EAST LUBBOCK BUSINESSES! THIS 'N' THAT has noted the large NUMBER OF BURGLARIES IN EAST LUBBOCK as it appears as though they are apparently by people who have no idea about the history of East Lubbock.... It is easy to so that if we keep this kind of activity most of the businesses we have could very well leave this area.... It would be a great thing if we would all work toward making sure these kind of activities would cease.... THIS 'N' THAT can report that the SOUTHWEST DIGEST OFFICE has had three burglaries with last one being on early Tuesday morning July 14, 2009.... Really there is much we can do to overcome this kind of a situation... Some may call it SNITCHING but if someone is responsible for breaking into our BLACK OWNED BUSINESSES OR OTHER BUSINESSES IN EAST LUBBOCK and we know who they are then it's duty for the betterment of the EAST LUBBOCK COMMUNITY to tell it.... Aren't you SICK AND TIRED OF THIS KIND OF A MENTALITY?? Let's be about our business and do what we must do... that is GET INVOLVED!!!

WHY NOT PUT PRESIDENT UNDER HIS NAME! THIS 'N' THAT was advised by a Black Couple one day at the VA Administration about the OFFICIAL PHOTO of PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA being hung in the hallway of the building.... But they apparently forgot to put PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES!!

THINK ABOUT IT!

The Coalition Is In Place And Working Well

by Floyd Richardson

The political structure of Lubbock has forever changed and will never be the same when people of different cultures, back grounds, ethnic back grounds come together for a common cause that effects the masses, both good and bad and stand by it things will change in their favor if they do not waver. Doing what ever it takes marching, protesting, filing a law suit or what ever it takes. According to the rumor mill, many things are happening and most of them allegedly are in our favor. One of the strangest is the word is Councilman Floyd Price was wavering and Councilperson Linda Deleon beat him to the draw by announcing at an unusual time in an unusual way. She said she changed her mind on her own. There was no pressure from the coalition, the district, public opinion allegedly many maneuvers are being done it will be interesting to see the results.

Do not forget the annual feed on Saturday morning, July 18th, from 11:00 a. m. until 1:00 p. m. The public on the 29th at unfortunately at 9:00 a. m.

There is a possibility of many things happening from now on. The pressure will stay on the city do not too much more negative publicity. So it stands to reason the hopefully if the city has a conscious it will be trying to do the right thing.

Stay tuned more details next week. It is just time for some positive things to happen in the community. Lubbock needs to have a change where all of its citizens will be afforded to the same opportunities as any citizen. We need each other. God is with us!

This will be the fifth year that a very good friend of us is Chef Tyrone Davis at the Holiday Inn who will be preparing a tasty meal for all in attendance.

There will be some fellowship and good food. There will also be R.C.ly for those interested to attend to talk about issues who involve our children.

Hopefully, many of you will be in attendance as we discuss some important issues. Of course, there will talk about the proposed Animal Shelter which has been proposed for Mackenzie Park. It could be a possibility that this might not happen, but let's just wait and see what the outcome will be.

So, let's hop we will see you on Saturday morning, beginning at 11:00 a. m. in Chatman Park. It should be a very good morning for all of us.

In Cinque

becoming too short or too tight and would have to be put aside for something larger.

I was thirteen when I decided that I wanted to be like the other teenaged girls. The problem was that one needed to be sixteen to go to the party hops and eight o'clock movies and mammas as my age said 'teen'. I figured that I was just as mature as the sixteen year olds and should have the same privileges and wear the same kind of clothes. Most adults did not see it that way.

The family rule and the dormitory rule where I attended high school, stated that a girl had to be sixteen years of age in order to have male company on any day that visitation was permitted. If a young man escorted a girl to the movie on Saturday evening, it was mandatory that he called on her on Sunday unless she called off. These were the days for socializing. Both, the young man and the young lady had to have a clean slate with no punishment for any reasons prior to their socializing. They also had to have their parent's or guardian's permission to keep company. Once you completed high school, you had a little more freedom to socialize with the opposite sex. Socializing with young men added some zest to growing up.

Once I became an adult, I felt like the world was really my oyster. There was no limit to what I could do and as some of us say, 'we rolled up the streets and turned out the lights,' in our heyday. It does not take as long as we think to look back and reflect on what senior citizens looked like to us when we were in our heyday. Before we know it, we are the senior citizens. In times like these, senior citizens are suffering. Let us all get 'in cinque' and give more respect, more love and more help to our senior citizens. If you keep on living, you will become a senior citizen.

Settlement of $17.5M in Bias Suit By Black Truckers Against Wal-Mart Becomes Final

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — A federal judge has given final approval to a $17.5 million settlement of a discrimination lawsuit that accused Wal-Mart Stores Inc. of not hiring black truck drivers.

U.S. District Judge William R. Wilson Jr. on Wednesday signed an order in Little Rock approving the settlement in the class-action case, a ruling that will also have the world's largest retailer take steps to hire more black drivers.

Attorney Morgan "Chip" Welch said Thursday that members in the class applied to drive for Wal-Mart between 2001 and 2008 and were turned away in disproportional numbers. Of the approximately 4,500 plaintiffs, those that applied earliest stand to receive the greatest settlement payments.

The settlement includes job placements for 23 of the black drivers who sued.

O.J. Makes Request for Bail

LAS VEGAS (AP) — O.J. Simpson is promising not to disappear or endanger the community if he's freed from prison pending his appeal in an armed hotel room heist, his lawyers told the Nevada Supreme Court.

"Simpson recognizes that he has a heavy burden in demonstrating that his release will pose no danger to the community and that he is not a flight risk," attorneys Yale Galanter and Malcolm LaVergne said in a follow-up document filed Monday with the state's only appellate court.

"Simpson will strictly adhere to whatever conditions this court sets for bond."

A three-member panel of Nevada Supreme Court justices plans oral arguments Aug. 3 in Las Vegas on Simpson's request to post unspecified bond while the seven-member court considers his appeal.

This week's filing followed an initial appeal for bail filed May 26.

The new papers include an affidavit from one of the two memorabilia dealers robbed in the September 2007 encounter, renewing his allegation that Clark County District Attorney David Roger wouldn't let him drop the charges against Simpson.

"I wanted all of the charges against O.J. Simpson dropped," Alfred Beardsley said in the document. "After I testified, the Clark County district attorney's office fabricated the idea that the reason I was a reluctant witness was because Mr. Simpson

Agency investigating alleged discrimination at pool

A state agency is investigating a Huntingdon Valley swim club for possible racial discrimination after the club revoked a contract to let children from a Northeast Philadelphia day camp swim in its pool.

Officials and antidiscrimination groups expressed concern over the allegedly race-motivated decision and protesters assembled outside the Valley Club's locked gates twice yesterday.

Among them were Silvia Carvalho, 32, of Northeast Philadelphia, and her daughter, Araceli Bagwell, 9, who had been among the city campers swimming at the club.

"This is pathetic," Carvalho said. "The next day, she was telling me she was a minority. I don't want her looking at herself that way. We are not going to allow someone to humiliate us like this," director of the state Human Relations Commission, said the civil-rights agency began its investigation after receiving requests from the NAACP and other groups.

"We thought that with issues like this - swim clubs and so forth - we had crossed that hurdle, but clearly we have not," Floyd said.

In a letter to the club, U.S. Sen. Arlen Specter (D., Pa.) suggested the day campers be allowed to return.

The city camp Creative Steps Inc. made their first visit to the Montgomery County club and heard some members make racial remarks and escort their own children away from the pool, Creative Steps executive director Aletha Wright said.

Last Friday, the Valley Club refunded a $1,950 check to the camp in Oxford Circle to terminate the agreement allowing children from kindergarten through seventh grade to swim at the club.

A statement on the club's Web site yesterday said its leaders were "deeply troubled by the recent allegations of racism, which are completely untrue."

The statement says the day campers were turned away because they overwhelmed the 110,000-gallon pool.

"We quickly learned that we underestimated the capacity of our facilities, and realized that we could not accommodate the number of children from these camps," the statement says.

A worker at another Northeast Philadelphia day camp that had an agreement to use the Valley Club this summer, Storybook Children's Center, said she believed the club's account.

Valley Club president John Duesler apologetically refunded Storybook's money, as he did for Creative Steps.
