White Cop Shoots, Kills Off-Duty Black Cop in Harlem

The scene after Monday night's (August 17, 2009) fatal police shooting on 125th Street and 2nd Avenue. (Paolo Mastrangelo's)

Harlem, N. Y. —A white cop fatally shot a black off-duty officer in plainclothes who was chasing a robbery suspect in East Harlem last night. The victim, a recently married father of a 1-year-old and 7-month-old from Brooklyn named Omar Edwards, had been an NYPD officer for two years and patrolled housing projects as part of the Housing Bureau Impact Response Team. Police sources say that when Edwards left duty and went to his car around 10:30 p.m., he found his driver's side window broken and a man inside searching for valuables. According to the Post, he called 911 before confronting the thief.

After a scuffle, the suspect, Miguel Santiago, slipped away and Edwards gave chase with his gun drawn. As the two men ran down East 125th Street between First and Second Avenues, a team of three other plainclothes officers came upon them in their car. Police Commissioner Ray Kelly told reporters last night that the unnamed white officer who fired on Edwards is a four-year veteran of the department, and he discharged six rounds from his 9-millimeter Glock, hitting him in the arm and chest. One police source tells the Daily News, "This is always a black cop's fear, that he'd be mistaken for a [suspect]."

Another source tells the Times that officers at the scene only learned that Edwards was NYPD "when they ripped open his shirt in an effort to revive him and saw a Police Academy T-shirt." They then found a badge in his pocket; he died less than an hour later at Harlem Hospital Center. Police are now investigating whether the officers identified themselves or ordered Edwards to drop his weapon before the one officer fired. The News's source insists they did identify themselves, yelling, "Police! Stop! Drop it!" But when Edwards turned around to comply, the other officer opened fire. Santiago, the alleged car thief, was apprehended.

Twenty year-old bystander, Maalik Lane, was at a nearby bus stop when he heard more than five gunshots, telling the Times, "I saw police, up to 20 police cars. I was, like, someone is having a shootout with police. The bus driver said, 'Somebody shot the police.' I feared for my life." Another local tells the Post the scene after the shooting "was very chaotic. I heard a lot of police officers. They were hugging each other, and when I asked a cop what happened he said, 'Leave me alone.'" And the Daily News tracked down Edwards's mom at her Brooklyn home, where she said, "I'm hurt that they took my son. That's my baby they took from me. And all I got was his last hug and kiss when he went to work [tonight] and he said, 'Ma, I'll see you when I come home.'"

Mayor Bloomberg told reporters, "The police commissioner and I just talked to Officer Edwards' widow, and the widow's father, who happens to be a 19-year veteran of the NYPD. We both expressed our condolences on behalf of the city. There is nothing you can ever say to bring back the deceased... While we don't know all the details of what happened tonight, this is a tragedy. Rest assured that we will find out exactly what happened here, and we will learn from it so it doesn't happen again."

More information will come next week about this situation.

New Light Baptist Church News

On Sunday morning, August 16, 2009, church services were well attended at the New Light Baptist Church, 3013 Idalou Road, where the proud pastor is Rev. Kenneth O. Jackson.

Church School started at 9:45 a. m. with Deacon David Chiles teaching a marvelous lesson entitled "Disregarding The Directive." The printed text was Numbers 20:1-13. This lesson reminded all of us who's really in control.

Rev. L. C. Lee led the pulpit devotion. The Senior Choir marched to the choir stand singing "Oh, I Want To See Him." The responsive reading was read by Rev. Lee, and it came from Psalm 98:1-9. The altar prayer was led by Pastor Jackson. The Senior Choir followed by continuing singing.

Sister Rochelette Hood read the morning announcements, including the weekly events. She also told of upcoming events which will be held. All birthdays were acknowledged for the week.

There was a special time for the pastoral period which was done by Rev. Jackson.

The offering followed this portion of the services.

The Senior Choir sang "Trouble In My Way" and "My Whole Life I Give To You." "Amazing Grace" was sung before the sermon.

Pastor Jackson delivered another spirit-filled sermon. His sermon was entitled "The Best Is Yet To Come." His scripture text was Joshua 1:1-9; I Corinthians 2:9.

Sister Sudell Cavanaugh sang "Bright Side" after the sermon.

The invitation to discipleship was extended, and several came for prayer.

All visitors were acknowledged.

When prayers goes up, blessings come down. Pray for President Barack Obama, his family, and his official staff.

SCRIPTURE FOR THE WEEK: "Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candle stick and it gives light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your father which is in heaven."

From the Desk of Parson D.A. Smith The Danger Of Playing The Race Card!

This writer is truly upset over the REAL mindset of Judge Head. Judge Head has apologized to everyone that was offended by the material he posted. He has apologized to the Republican Party, members of the judiciary, and to his colleagues on the Commissioner's Court.

Judge Head has expressed that his dislike for President Obama has nothing to do with his race—only his politics. Head also expressed that a person's color was irrelevant to him. Only their way of thinking of what good government represents was important. In this vain he would support them and if not in his tradition he would not (meaning in a real sense that whatever President Obama does is contrary to his ideology and without merit in his hand of perfect conservatism and white male rule).

The Southern Poverty Law Center wrote the following on 8/12/09: "The 1990s saw the rise and fall of the virulently antigovernment

"Patriot" movement, made up of paramilitary militias, tax defiers and so-called "sovereign citizens." Sparked by a combination of anger at the federal government and the death of political dissenters at Rudy Ridge, Idaho, and Waco, Texas, the movement took off in the middle of the decade and continue to grow even after 168 people were left dead by the 1995 bombing of Oklahoma City's federal building—an attack, the deadliest ever by domestic U.S. terrorists, carried out by men steeped in the rhetoric and conspiracy theories of the militias. In the years that followed, a truly remarkable number of criminal plots came out of the movement. But by early this century, the Patriots had largely faded, weakened by systematic prosecutions, aversion to growing violence, and a new, highly conservative president.

They're back. Almost a decade after largely disappearing from public view, right-wing militias, ideologically driven tax defiers and sovereign citizens are appearing in large numbers around the country. "Paper terrorism"—the use of property liens and citizens' "courts" to harass enemies—is on the rise. And once-popular militia conspiracy theories are making the rounds again, this time accompanied by nativist theories about secret Mexican plans to "reconquer" the American Southwest. One law enforcement agency had found 50 new militia training groups—one of them made up of present and former police officers and soldiers. Authorities around the country are reporting a worrying uptick in Patriot activities and propaganda. "This is the most significant growth we've seen in 10 to 12 years," says one. "All it's lacking is a spark. I think it's only a matter of time before you see threats and violence."

A key difference this time is that the federal government—the entity that almost

We Thank God for Jesus "God's Sign"

Written by Evangelist Billy "B.J." Morrison, II - Your brother in Christ, Jesus always.

Matthew 24:3 – As He (Jesus) sat on the Mount of Olives, the Disciples came unto him privately, saying, tell us when shall these things be the sign of your coming, and the end of the world?

God told us when, and about his coming and the signs. Many are playing church, and are not paying them any mind!!!

Revelation 2:7a – Jesus said, he that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit said unto the churches.

Matthew 24:5-6 – Jesus said, for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceive you. And you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you be not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

You said there was a time coming, and be the end of the world. What it means is the end of the life of a man, woman, boy or a girl.

Luke 12:39 – Jesus said, know this, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come. He would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken into. Be you, therefore, ready also. For the son of man comes at an hour when you think not

(The Greek word for world is: Kosmos, meaning the social system. It is an age of today. Not an age of the world, and not the end of the world. The man that died yesterday. He is gone, but we're yet here. So the world is not gone. Only that life.)

The man went to work that morning. He didn't know that day was his last. He saw the signs of time. Was he ready? Did he get ready? The family is now sad!!!

Mark 13:32 – Jesus said, but of that day and that hour knoweth no man. No, No, the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son (Jesus), but only the father.

Lord, we've heard of all the troubles. It's all over the land. Wars and rumours of wars. It's the family of the Blood Brother Man.

Matthew 24:11-12 – Jesus said, many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity (Sin) shall abound. The love of many shall wax (Grow) Cold.

**** HAVE YOU SEEN THE COLD HEARTS???

**** We see the family members killing each other. Doing it at will. We see the hate of a cold hearted country. They don't want to forgive!!!

Matthew 10:34-36 – Jesus said, think not that I am come to send peace on the earth; I come not to send peace, but a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a man's foes (Enemies) shall be they of his own household.

Mankind is not paying attention to God's almighty signs of time. You and my

Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast wants to clear up a point in Mark 11, regarding believing you receive when you pray, because there is no physical evidence to support what you believe in the natural. It can be awesome for you since we as humans are conditioned from childhood to see, feel, hear taste, and smell. Thus, when it comes to this business of praying and believing, you receive without having anything too touchy, taste, hear, see or smell. It is awesome!

It is like jumping out of an airplane without a parachute. Imagine what that might be like. We trust you will not try it, but just imagine it. We are so conditioned by our senses by walking by faith is a foreign experience, because of our conditioning. We really have to develop our faith and wean ourselves from our senses in order to be successful. If not, we will be intimidated and tempted to judge a situation by what we see, feel, hear, taste or touch. Mark 11 crystallizes the idea of believing you receive without seeing anything. When we pray believing, we receive before we finish the prayer, because we know that he hears us. Be sure we have faith in God.

The scripture pture says we can speak to that mountain in your life, and it will move. Just step out in faith. The word of God is your only support, but there's power in the word of God to move every mountain we have in our home, community, our children. Let's trust God! Step out in faith!

Thought of the Week: "Why are we so concerned about trying to save the masses, when that one lost soul is so important. Go for one today!"

"Watch your attitude. It will make you a different person." Try it!

We are sending a call out to all bereaved families and those who are sick at this report. Remember, God's word has power to heal bodies and broken hearts.

Sister Dorothy Hood, president; Sister Christene Burleson, vice president; and Sister Elnora Jones, teacher.

PS: Just Pray, Saints! Keep Praying! It will pay off after while. God is able!

Home Going Celebration" was held for Linda Sawyer held at Tuesday, August 18, 2009 at Vandelia Church of Christ in Lubbock.

Greetings to all of God's Beloved. The Lord's faithful servant, Linda Kay Sawyer whose life began, May 6, 1952, departed this life last night at approximately 9:30 p.m., August 12, 2009. Our relationship spanned 37 years and now she is waiting on the faithful, who will join her at their appointed time.

name may be in the obituaries the next time!!!

Matthew 24:31 -- Jesus said, he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds from one end of heaven to the other.

This is a mighty fine day for someone to ask: "What must I do to be saved?" This is the day of salvation. Tomorrow, the Lord may be coming your way.

Luke 12:56 -- Jesus said, ye hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it that you do not discern the times.

Lord, America left you, and that was the start of our troubles. We have become lovers of richness of things. We have found new lovers!!!

I John 2:15 -- Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the father is not in him.

Michael Jackson will be buried on his 51st birthday

Katherine Jackson has proposed she or one of her children be added as an executor to Michael's will.

LOS ANGELES, California (CNN) -- Michael Jackson will be buried Saturday, August 29, on what would have been the singer's 51st birthday, according to a statement from publicist Ken Sunshine.

The private ceremony will take place at Holly Terrace in

The Great Mausoleum at Glendale Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Glendale, California, and "will be limited to family and close friends," the statement said.

Jackson died June 25 of cardiac arrest. The famed entertainer was 50.

Other Jackson plans have moved sluggishly. Monday, a judge delayed his approval of the exhibition agreement between concert promoter AEG Live and the Jackson estate until Friday, when he will hear testimony about why Michael Jackson's mother, Katherine Jackson, thinks it should be renegotiated.

The three-city exhibition of Jackson memorabilia could be derailed, as relations between Jackson's mother, the men Jackson named as executors of his will and the promoter of his planned comeback concerts have been challenging.

Questions surrounding Michael Jackson's death and AEG Live's role in his last days are an "obvious source of tension" as Katherine Jackson objects to the agreement, Jackson attorney Burt Levitch said.

Michael Jackson's family has "floated" the possibility of filing a wrongful-death lawsuit against AEG Live because of its "very, very active role in Michael's life during the last six months," Levitch said Monday.

Levitch said AEG Live "apparently paid for the services of Dr. Conrad Murray.

PENNY HASTINGS THE BARBER SAYS: STAND UP ..... and be counted against things which are ..... WRONG!!

We look around and we see many things! Some good, some bad. On this past Saturday at the Church of the Blessed, over 1000 children, parents, grand parents, and other received every thing from back packs, school supplies, caps, T-shirts, wrist bands, tooth brush sets. That's the example of the good! All of this was about Prayer!
The bad is, we are still on the Judge Tom Head's issue of the racial postings on the court house bulletin board where racial offense materials on the people's court house bulletin board. There will be a peaceful assembly Friday on the court house lawn addressing this issue and asking for the judge's resignation!
Be prayerful!

Howard
It is difficult not to hear mention the name 'Michael Jackson' on any given day if you watch television on a regular basis. If the subject is not his music or his dancing, the untoward things he has been accused of doing, his final resting place, his children, then it is perhaps how and why he died. There is something however, that you do not hear enough about and that is the good that he did which was not related to his career.

Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee did her best to point out the humanitarian side of Michael Jackson at his memorial services. She spoke of his attempt to fill the needs of humans wherever he found a need. She spoke about how he provided burn centers, treatments for Aids victims, food to the hungry and many other things for people in need. She is also pushing Congress to set aside a day in honor of Michael Jackson. There is still another item which little has been mentioned, The Oxford Lecture: Michael Jackson Spricht Uber Kindheit Heute in March, 2001, which was published on July 14, 2009 by Catherine Coy.

The essence of the speech was "How to Forgive Your Father." After reading this article, I was definitely moved to tears as the depth of this man's being seems to issue forth in it. It would take a great imagination to begin to see, hear and feel the heart and soul of the speaker if you only knew what you had seen on the surface of the being. The speech is deep! This speech is a by product of Michael Jackson's work with an Oxford Rabbi to form an operation called Heal the Kids.
In this speech, Mr. Jackson spoke about how he never had a proper childhood and blamed his father because of it. He spoke about the hard taskmaster that his father had been and how he expected perfection from him and his siblings in their performances. He explained

by donnell (ASKARI) hooper

This year the Southwest Digest has been broken into four (4) times. One of those times, Mr. T. J. Patterson was at his desk completing articles for the paper. Kings store on East 19th has been broken into. Tariq's store on MLK & Broadway has been broken into. Wiley's Bar-B-Q has been broken into. The Beauty of the Nile Salon has been broken into as well. Street Shoes has been broken into and several homes and apartments.
These messy A*# THIEVES & BURGLARS have gotten out of hand. They need rat and roach traps set for them!!!! They need to be Sprayed!!!! They need to be Exterminated just like RATS & ROACHES!!!!
There is not one family in our community that welcomes rats & roaches into the homes our their businesses! Well, the same goes for these Knock Off Thieves & Burglars living among us! They are not welcome in our community and everybody living in this community should let this be known. It's bad enough that they steal, but it ment—the entity that almost the entire radical right views as its primary enemy—is headed by a black man. That, couple with high levels of non-white immigration and a decline in the percentage of whites overall in America, had helped to racialize the Patriot movement, which in the past was not primarily motivated by race hate. One result has been rash of domestic terror incidents since the presidential campaign, most of them related to anger over the election of Barack Obama. At the same time, ostensibly mainstream politicians and media pundits have helped to spread Patriot and related propaganda, from conspiracy theories about a secret network of U. S. concentration camps to wholly unsubstantiated claims about the president's country of birth.

Judge Head and the leaders of Lubbock and across the country take note that a mixture of armed groups and those who spread hate is a recipe for disaster for Lubbock and across the country. The privilege we now enjoy will come to an end. Look at Iraq and Iran at this present HOUR!
