Dr. Sam Ayers Named EHS Principal

Last month, Estacado High School Principal David Vasquez announced he will retire from the district at the end of the school year after 32 years as an administrator and educator. Vasquez has also been actively involved in the Closing the Gaps Council, a P-20 initiative seeking to foster a college-going culture in the South Plains of Texas. At a March 4 town hall meeting for District 2, which includes Estacado High School, Superintendent Karen Garza announced Dr. Sam Ayers would take over the reins as the new principal at Estacado High School to applause from the audience.

Ayers, currently the associate superintendent of teaching and learning for Quadrants 3 and 4, has extensive experience in educational leadership. He served the district as a principal at both the elementary and secondary levels, as assistant superintendent for elementary education, and as an adjunct professor of education at both Lubbock Christian and Wayland Baptist Universities.

Upon her arrival as the new superintendent, Dr. Karen Garza promoted Ayers to be the associate superintendent for half of the district campuses. When naming Ayers to the new role at Estacado, Garza said, "While it will be a huge sacrifice to lose Dr. Ayers as a key member of my administrative team at Central Office, there is no one better qualified professionally or personally to lead the Estacado campus." Garza added, "I think the appointment of Dr. Ayers is indicative of the unprecedented support I plan to give to Estacado High School to help the students on this campus reach their academic potential."

Placing veteran, administrators with proven track records at campuses in need of assistance has been a nationally recommended practice as an effective tool in making significant academic strides in schools. To assist Ayers on the administrative team at Estacado will be Jimmy Moore, currently the principal at Dunbar Middle School. Taking the leadership role at Dunbar will be Dr. Brian Yearwood, who now serves as the principal at Iles Elementary School, a campus which has received a TEA exemplary rating under the leadership of Yearwood. Ayers is well-known to the community not only for his educational expertise and stellar reputation, but also as an author. His children's photo-biography publications include Ella Iles, musician Buddy Holly; Governor Preston Smith; artist Kenneth Wyatt; George Washington Carver; First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt and E. C. Struggs.

In addition, Ayers has written curriculum and position pieces for publications such as the TEPSA Journal, The Social Studies TEXAN, Southern Social Studies Journal, Southern Social Studies Quarterly, Journal of Education Finance, and the Fordham Foundation's Where Did Social Studies Go Wrong? He has written inspirational articles for The Upper Room, Restoration Witness, Daily Meditation, and FCA's

She worked for Lubbock National Bank until she retired.

She showed support for the Hurricane Katrina evacuees in 2005. Mrs. Newman and her daughter, Dell Showers, helped in the ministry at that time. At that time, she was 95 years of age at Reece Center.

There is no doubt about it, Mrs. Newman loved all her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren whom she had baby sitter at one time or another. She was blessed to live to see five generations of her family.

She loved being able to work outside where she had a beautiful garden until her health failed. Until her death, she loved looking out to see what her yard looked like and make her grands to get it looking the way she liked it.

Mrs. Newman said that she attributed her long life was due to the love she had for the Lord and her family.

A second party was held with family and friends at the Southwest Regional Rehab Center which was held Saturday evening, February 28, 2010. Among those present were City Councilman Floyd Price, who presented her with a proclamation from the City of Lubbock as being the oldest African American living in Lubbock. There was plenty of food present for the celebration.

All her guest included her siblings: George Rainwater, Mary Tucker, H. V. Rainwater (Inez) from Slaton. Her children present were Bobby Loggins (Raymond), Edna Holmes of Dallas and Della Showers.

Mo'Nique Wins Oscar For Best Supporting Actress; Fifth Black Woman To Win

LOS ANGELES - Mo'Nique became the fifth black woman to win an acting Oscar on Sunday night, 70 years after Hattie McDaniel became the first to do so for "Gone with the Wind."

The 42-year-old standup comedienne portrayed an abusive mother in "Precious: Based on the Novel 'Push' by Sapphire."

"I want to thank Miss Hattie McDaniel for enduring all she had to so that I would not have to," Mo'Nique said in accepting the Oscar.

Her character, Mary Jones, is terrifying and violent and reveals her own brutalized past in the end.

Mo'Nique, who hosts The Mo'Nique Show on BET, was the overwhelming favorite in the run-up to the Oscars, having racked up supporting actress wins at the Golden Globes, Spirit Awards and the British Academy of Film and Television Arts Awards, among others.

In the supporting actress category, the only other black Academy Award winners were Jennifer Hudson for "Dreamgirls" (2006) and Whoopi Goldberg for "Ghost" (1990). Halle Berry is the only black Oscar winner in the best actress category, earning the honour for "Monster's Ball" (2001).

Seven black men have won acting awards, including Denzel Washington, who won best actor for both "Training Day" (2001) and "Glory" (1989).

Church News

From the Desk of Parson D.A. Smith "GOP and Tea Party Don't Like Black Americans"

What this writer didn't say or write— Erich Erickson: 'GOP Does Not Want a Black Man in the Senate'. Well! Kiss my grits!!!
March 3, 2010, Mr. Erickson wrote: Despicacious to diversity, the Republican Party clearly does not want a black man — or any minority candidate—in the Senate.

"It is starting to get really disgusting." Erickson, the editor-in-chief of the right-wing site Red State wrote. "First, the GOP said it needed diversity and chose the orange Charlie Crist over the Latino, Marco Rubio. Then the GOP said it needed diversity to do better outreach in the black community, so it ignored Michael Williams in Texas and tried to find a rich white guy to run for the Senate. Now that Kay Bailey Hutchison has lost the Texas primary to Rich Perry without even making it into a runoff, the Washington, D.C. Republicans are scared to death a black man might actually get appointed to the Senate as a Republican."

Even South Carolina GOP Sen. Jim DeMint supports

Michael Williams, Erickson noted: "This is really sick," he wrote.

Though Erickson said in a postscript that he was using "a hefty dose of sarcasm," he went on to restate the same point. "The fact remains that the GOP preaches diversity all the time and when presented with an attractive Latino and black candidate, they pass on both because they are too conservative," he wrote.

Another interesting piece was posted by Bob Cesca (Political Writer, Blogger, and New Media Producer) on March 3, 2010 saying "The Tea Party Is All About Race."

Cesca wrote: I was going to open this piece with an analogy about the tea party groups and why they're treated seriously by the press and the Republicans. The analogy would go something like: "Imagine [insert left-wing activist group here] getting a serious profile in a mainstream newspaper, and imagine serious Democratic politicians appearing at their conventions."

The problem is, when I really evaluate what the various far-left activists groups are all about and compares them with the tea party movement; there really wasn't any equivalency, at all. Because when you strip away all of the rage, all of the nonsensical loud noises and all of the contradictions, all that's left is race. The tea party is almost entirely about race, and there's no comparative group on the left that's similarly motivated by bigotry, ignorance and racial hatred.

I hasten to note that I'm talking about real racism, insofar as it's impossible for the majority race—the 70 percent white majority—to be on the receiving end of racism. That is unless white males, for example, are suddenly an oppressed racial demographic. But judging by the racial composition of, say, the Senate or AM talk radio or the cast members playing Obamas on SNL, I don't think white people have anything to worry about.

This is an epiphany by any stretch. From the beginning, with their witch doctor imagery, watermelon agitprop and Curious George effigies, the wing nut right has been dying to blurt

We Thank God for Jesus "HERE'S WHY THE HEATHENS RAGE"

Written by Evangelist Billy "B.J." Morrison, III - Your brother in Christ Jesus always.

1 Timothy 4:1 - Now the spirit speaks expressly, That in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of Devils.

Revelation 2:11a - Jesus said, he that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit said unto the Churches.

The word of God was at time, the only true way the Church would go.

But the Church like in the Garden of Eden, not obeying God who said No!!

Matthew 28:19 - Jesus said, go you therefore and teach all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Ghost

The Devil told the Church, give mankind the rigats they want.

The will of God is to preach and teach God's word. They don't.

Revelation 12:12b - Woe to the debtors of the earth and the sea! For the Devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has but a short time.

When the Devil gave out his rights, he knew they were wrong. The Devil is teh God of this world. Hell is where he belongs!!!

Revelation 20:10a - The Devil that deceived them were cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beasts and the false prophets are, and shall be tormented day and night forever and ever!

 ARE YOU MARCHING WITH THE UNBELIEVERS???

The Churches gave mankind their rights. They're of the Devil and wrong.

Churches following the Devil's plans, and knew God is on his throne!!!

Galatians 6:7-8 - Be not deceived, God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap. For he that sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption. But he that sows to the spirit shall of the spirit reap life everlasting

The Churches marched. Didn't tell the people about salvation by God's Grace!

Now look the heathens everywhere, America is a disgrace!!!
Matthew 15:9 - Jesus said, I vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

THE HEATHENS BEEN PLANTED!!!**

(The Rights of the heathens: Rights to Fly An Airplane ir-plane into the I.R.S. Building; Rights to Steal a 3 Day Old Baby; Man's Rights To Dis-membering His Wife's Body, Teacher And Students Sex Rights, Teenage Drinking Rights, Child Molestation Rights, No Prayer In School Rights, Drugs In School Rights, Rights To Behead The Children, Kill The Teachers And Class-mate Rights, Abortion Rights, Mother Drowning Her Children Rights And Many more of the Devil!!!!)

 YOU REAP WHAT YOU SOW!!!!**

Churches have planted this Rights thing, and the people do whatever they will.

Ou, children are catching hell, and it's a painful and bitter pill!

"So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them." Jonah 3:5

"Lord, give us wisdom to discern, when what is false must be revealed, or if we need your grace and strength. To close our lips and keep them sealed."

Thought For The Week:
"Silence can be valuable; don't break it unless you can improve on it."

Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The members and friends of the Outreach Prayer meet last Saturday morning, March 6, 2010, in the home of Delbert and Dorothy Hood. We missed you! Why not make plans to meet with us at our next meeting.

The devotion consisted of old spirituals which were enjoyed by all in attendance. The scripture read was Psalm 1 by Sister Dorothy Hood. Prayer was offered by Sister Rosaina Henderson. Several prayer requests were read, and special prayers for each was done by Sister Henderson, Sister Jones and Sister Hood.

The scripture lesson was taught by Sister Elnora Jones, our teacher. The scripture was Jonah 1. Her subject was "A Reluctant Missionary."

Verse 1 - Now the word of the Lord came unto Jonah, the son of Amittai, saying, arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it, for their wickedness is come up before me. But Jonah, rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the Lord, and went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it to go with them into Tarshish from the presence of the Lord. But the Lord sent a great wind of the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea so that the ship was like to be broken.

You cannot flee from the presence of God, this teacher said.

There are many sick and bereaved people in this city. God knows what's best. Let us continue to believe God. And read the word Mark 11:22-26, II Chronicles 7:14.

If you can receive. Is there anything too hard for God???

FAILING LIKE JONAH
God wants us to see, think, and feel the way he does—beyond what is easy. He calls us to stretch our compassion until it matches the full measure of his grace, to be brokenhearted by who's saved, and on what terms. Instead of being grateful that he's extended salvation to us, we set up false "us vs. them" relationships that make us out to be something other than what we are—sinners rescued from death by the mercy of God.

God's desire is for us to be humble messengers of his Word, speaking truth without condition or agenda. It's not our job to decide how the message is received.

- Who is the then, in your life? On whom are you reluctant to see God lavish his mercy?
- How can you learn to have God's attitude toward this person or group of people?
- What small issues in your life (that may feel big) are distracting you from the larger needs of the world?

There are some very interesting things which occur when you meet and talk about the goodness of God. He is able to do anything. Just ask Him to be with you. God is able, no matter what.

So come and be apart of us in what we do!

Sister Dorothy Hood, president; Sister Christine Burleson, vice president, and Sister Elnora Jones, teacher.

By now, everyone who has a credit card balance has received notice of all of the changes which were to go into effect on February 22, 2010. In addition, you have by now received a new kind of monthly billing statement which gives you more information about your account. Some companies just sent the bill with the changed image and others sent an insert with the bill to explain the differences to you or how to read and understand the bill.

Dillard's, whose credit cards are financed through GE Money Bank, did not send any sample for one to peruse; just the bill and required information necessary for you to know what is expected in the method which you use to pay your bill and how much it will cost you if you do not pay on time. This information is stated thus: "If we do not receive your minimum payment by the date listed above, you may have to pay a late fee up to $39.99 and your APR's may be increased up to the Penalty APR of 27.24%." Dillard's annual percentage rate on my statement is 22.99% for regular purchases. About a 5% increase is added if there is a penalty. The statement overall shows information under subtitles such as, account information: date, minimum payment due, payment due date, days in billing cycle, credit line and available credit. Next, is the late payment warning and the minimum payment warning which gives you information on how long it will take you to pay your balance, and how much you will end up paying, if you pay the minimum amount due. The account summary follows which includes your credit plan type, the previous balance, your new purchases, payments and credits plus any insurance or debits and the finance charges, equaling your new balance and the minimum payment due, which will be due by 5:00 P.M. (ET) on the due date.

Sears', whose credit cards are financed through Citibank (South Dakota), NA, sent a replica of a bill and explained it in detail in four steps: (1) Monthly account activity—payments, credits, fees and interest charges (2)

PROTECTING YOUR FINANCIAL HEALTH

Know Your Credit Score

By Calvin Davis

Everyone, regardless of your age, should check your credit report at least once a year. With identity theft occurring daily, everyone who has a social security number is at risk. Even your 12 year old child or grandchild could be subject to credit fraud or identity theft. Items can show up on your credit report that either are not related to you, or are inaccurate or simply false. Checking out your credit report annually will allow you to determine whether it contains any inaccurate or false information. The first step to correct a problem is identifying the problem. Without even looking at your credit report, you cannot know if there is a problem. If you already suspect a there is a problem with your credit, you cannot begin the corrective process until you examine the damage and find wherein lies the problem. Obtaining a copy of your credit report is step one toward financial recovery.

The main reason to check your credit score is to protect your overall financial health and credit future. Your credit score affects the interest rate that you can receive when seeking to purchase a home or an automobile or even when purchasing auto insurance -- yes, auto insurance. In Texas, insurance companies check your credit to determine your automobile insurance rate. The higher your credit score the lower your insurance cost and interest rate on credit purchases.

Also, many companies and agencies look at the credit scores of applicants to determine whether or not they will be offered employment. Ultimately, your credit score could be a determining factor as to whether or not you obtain employment in the future.

There are three recognized credit bureaus that maintain and report credit in the U.S. Everyone is entitled to one free credit report per year from each of the three credit reporting bureaus. Unlike most online companies advertising free credit reports, the three recognized credit bureau reports are actually free and they provide you with your all important credit score. Credit scores (referred to as FICO scores) range from 300 - 850. A score of 700 or higher means excellent or very good credit, which means that you, as a consumer, are entitled to receive the best rates, terms, and conditions when seeking financing, credit, or auto insurance. When a creditor, potential creditor, potential employer, or a third party makes a credit inquiry regarding your credit, your credit will be negatively affected. However, when you request a copy of your own credit report, your credit score is not negatively affected.

To obtain a free copy of your credit report, the first thing to do is to prepare a simple letter requesting a credit report. This letter can look something like this:

March 12, 2010 (current date)
{Credit Bureau name & Address}

Dear Credit Bureau,
Please send me a free copy of my credit report. My name is John Doe (your name), my social security number is xxx-xx-xxxx (include the correct social cash advances. These are just two examples of how credit card bills are running. We need to get 'in cinque' and try to pay these cards off as quickly as possible, avoiding the minimum payments and always allow more than a week for payments to reach the debt holder.

security number). Please send the credit report to 111 Happy Lane, Lubbock, Texas" (i.e. the address where you want the report sent).

Sincerely,
John Doe (your signature)

It is necessary that the letter contain your name, social security number, a request for a credit report, and your signature. The next step is to send your letter to all three of the credit bureaus listed below since information may slightly differ with each agency:

- Credit Bureaus:
- 1. Equifax
P.O. Box 740241 - Atlanta, GA 30374
 - 2. Experian
P.O. Box 2002 - Allen, TX 75013
 - 3. TransUnion
P.O. Box 1000 - Chester, PA 19022

Checking your credit annually is much like getting your blood pressure checked regularly. It is a preventative measure that will pay huge dividends in the future it could even mean getting a better job in the future.

So what do you do if you discover inaccurate or false information on your credit report? Fortunately, this information can be removed with some effort. Check out future articles for ways to clean-up your credit.

One of the goals of the 100 Black Men of West Texas, Inc. is to help economically empower our community. We challenge you to protect your financial health and economic future by acting today and request, obtain, and review your credit report. Remember, it's free.

them which are sent unto you. How often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, and you would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, you shall not see me henceforth, till you shall say, blessed is he that comes in the name of the Lord.

America needs to go back to the old ways, set by the Lord. That's why we need to repent, and Return to the Loving True God!

Revelation 2:2a-4 -- Jesus said, I know your works, and your labour, and your patience, and how you can not bare them which are evil. Never the less I have some what against you, because you have left your first love.

THINK ABOUT IT!
Lubbock Do Not Need This Kind Of Action!

by
Hilda F. Richardson

The year is 2010 and it is a U.S. Census year which happens every ten years. To some degree, it affects the life of Americans and the life of every American in one way or another. The upcoming U. S. Census report is the most important report you will fill out this year. so please respond positively to this. Report your future as it depends on it so please remember this and take action.

The information you give to 2010 U. S. Census report will be used to help communities across America get its fair share of government funds for highways, schools, health facilities, and many programs you and your neighbors need including political representatives. Without a complete and accurate count your community could not receive its fair share. It is most important to respond, because your future is involved.

Charter Study Committee
The charter study committee is still a black eye for Lubbock especially when it will reflect the present and future of the city of Lubbock Texas, a diverse multi-racial, multi-cultural city and the study committee's make up includes seven Anglo Saxon European middle or upper middle class males. Now what kind of image will this reflect 25 years, or even 100 years from today? The seven men are fine decent men, but they are not a true reflection of the population of Lubbock. Even with present date, one could wonder what the Justice Department think of the present situation? There is still time to rectify this unfair situation by enlarging the committee to make it reflective of the diverse city of Lubbock.

Former Birmingham mayor gets 15 years for bribery

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Former Birmingham Mayor Larry Langford has been sentenced to 15 years in federal prison for taking some $235,000 in bribes in return for lucrative bond work.

U.S. District Judge Scott Coogler imposed the sentence Friday. Langford was convicted on 60 felony counts in October and removed from office.

Prosecutors had asked the judge to send the 63-year-old Langford to prison for at least 24 years, saying he hasn't shown any remorse. The defense asked for no more than five years.

Two men who admitted bribing Langford while he was president of the Jefferson County Commission already have been sentenced to prison for at least four years each.

District Judge Scott Coogler imposed the sentence on Langford, 63, who told the court, "I am sorry all this has occurred."

The sentence was about nine years shorter than the minimum term sought by prosecutors. Asked outside court whether he was pleased, Langford sneered at a reporter. "Are you?" said Langford, who claims he did nothing wrong.

Langford and his wife have blamed his conviction on vindictive prosecutors, inattentive jurors and racism. Langford is black; most of the jurors were white.

Defense lawyers already are working on an appeal.

Langford, a dapper political figure, was convicted in October of taking cash, loans and gifts — including expensive clothes and jewelry — while he was president of the Jefferson County Commission. In exchange, prosecutors said, he steered county bond work to an investment banker who paid the bribes.

"He sold Jefferson County out," said Assistant U.S. Attorney George Martin.

He said Langford committed a "gross abuse of trust" with every Italian suit, Rolex watch and cash payment he received. Initially valued at $235,000, authorities said a final tally of the bribes came to $241,843 — which Langford was ordered to repay, along with about $119,985 in back taxes. Langford must report to federal custody by April 5.

The defense claimed the cash and other items were personal gifts and loans from friends and did not influence Langford's decision on the bond work.

But investment banker Bill Blount pleaded guilty to making the payments, and lobbyist Al LaPierre admitted being the middleman. Blount, the former state Democratic Party chairman, last week was sentenced to more than four years in prison. LaPierre, the former executive director of the state Democratic Party, got four years. Blount also was ordered to pay $1 million to the government, and LaPierre $470,000.

Prosecutors had argued Langford showed no remorse and should spend up to 30 years in prison.

The defense said Langford had been ridiculed by news media and, based on another Jefferson County official's sentence for corruption, should spend no more than five years in prison.

The tea party is an extension of talk radio. It's an extension of Fox News Channel. It's an extension of the southern faction of the Republican Party — the faction that gave us the Southern Strategy, the Willie Horton ad, the White Hands ad and the racially divisive politics of Lee Atwater and Karl Rove. It's an extension of the race-baiting and, often, the outright racism evident in all of those conservative spheres.

Thank you Erick Erickson and Bob Cesca for helping this writer to understand why Lubbock elects anti-black Americans candidates for office. Ones that hangs evil pictures of President Obama in the Lubbock County Courthouse with Black Males as if no white folk don't use drugs and ignore its homeless people by taking responsibility for the downtrodden away from city government.
