TIMES

Dedicated To Informing The Negro Citizens Of Lubbock

VOLUME III

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1964, LUBBOCK, TEXAS

NUMBER 36

Carolyn Phillips "Miss O. W. T."

Carolyn Phillips, grand-daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Anderson, was crowned "Miss Original West Texas", at the 61st annual session, which was held at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Abilene, Texas, Rev. Charles Brown, pastor. The Reverend S. R. Roberts is moderator.

Those attending the session were moderator S.R. Roberts, Mrs. Roberts, Robbie Price, Mary Jo Skeif, Mrs. Evelyn Anderson, Marion Anderson, Carolyn Phillips, and Mrs. E. Woods who has served as secretary for the original West Texas Women's Convention for several years.

On Thursday, the day of the Moderator's Address, both choirs and several members motored to Abilene. The meet was a great success Mt. Gilead Baptist Church, of whom moderator S.R. Roberts is pastor, will be host to this association August 1965

Shift Hop Held Here

The "Teenage Courts of Calanthe" sponsored a "Shift Hop" Saturday night, at the Pleasure Garden. Prizes were given to a girl and boy who were selected by several judges. The girl selected for wearing the prettiest shift and sandals was Dessie Mae Morrison. She received a necklace and ear ring set. The boy selected for looking neatest in Bermuda shorts was R. L. Barnett and he received cuff links.

There was an estimated ninety persons present.

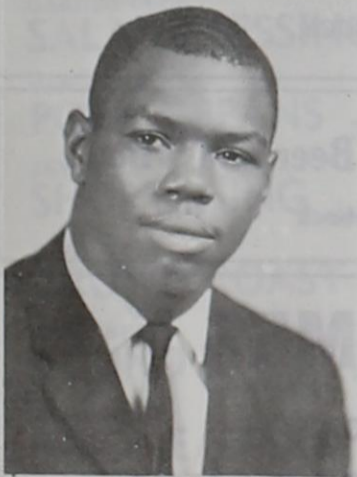

The teenage courts have planned several other events for the future. One of these events will be called a "Traveling Party".

We would like to give special thanks to Sister B. Rabb, Sister Nora Simms, Sister Estella Pierce, Sister Bulah Waldon, Sister Willie Irons, Mr. D.C. Fair, Sr., and our worthy counselor Sister C.E. Fair for helping us so much.

RETURNS HOME

George H. Woods and family have returned to their home in Phoenix, Arizona. They spent their vacation with their mother and father, Mr. & Mrs. George Woods of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bradley of San Angelo.

May We Introduce

Mr. T.W. Hayes, is an insurance specialist employed by the Atlanta Life Insurance Company here in Lubbock. Mr. Hayes invites you to feel free to call him at anytime for complete insurance needs. He may be reached at 504 East 23rd Street, phone SH 4-7325 here in Lubbock.

Alphas To Present September Affair

The Booker T. Washington American Legion Hall will be the scene of a September affair presented by Theta Kappa Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Friday, September 4th, from nine until one o'clock. This is the initiation project by this chapter in its program to always present to our community the best in a variety of entertainment. This program is also geared toward developing a scholarship fund for some worthy Dunbar graduate and toward bringing the Sepia Fashion Show to Lubbock at a later date.

Music for this gala affair will be presented by Ben Morgan, his organ, and his band.

Mrs. Clarabel Smith has returned to the city from Waco, Texas where she visited her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Woods and family motored to Dallas, Texas and points east for a few days.

Lubbock Students Leave For College Studies

OFF TO LANGSTON UNIVERSITY

Burnett Anderson left Friday morning for Langston University, where he will begin his college career. Burnett will major in music.

Also entering Langston is Hubert Malone. Both young men were 1964 graduates of Dunbar High School. We pray they will not forget to major in the Lord.

LEAVES FOR HOWARD U.

Judy Struggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Struggs, will leave Sunday via air for Washington, D.C., where she will attend Howard University.

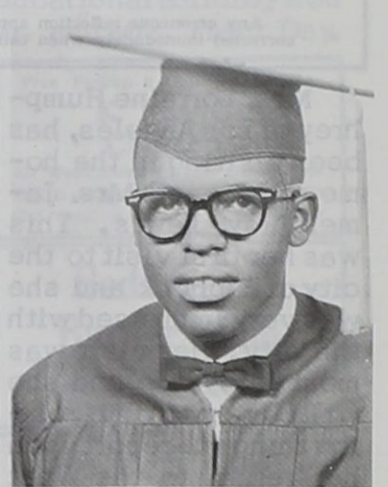

VISITS LOS ANGELES

Leaving the city for a spell, Mrs. Gladys Moore along with her two youngest children, Wavely Ann and Charles spent a month in Los Angeles, California, where a week later Miss Ethel Hibbler joined them to visit with two of Mrs. Moore's sons, Don and Denzel Walker, and a daughter, Mrs. Bobbie Hunt.

After being in Los Angeles for over two weeks, the family minus Mrs. Hunt, visited a brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter, who resides in Reno, Nevada. After being in Reno for over four days the family along with Mr. and Mrs. Hunter proceeded to San Francisco to re-unite Mrs. Moore with her brother,

Mr. and Mrs. George Woods were happy to have as their guests cousins of Mrs. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lewis. They will visit several cities before returning to their home in San Francisco. Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Montgomery were also on hand to help entertain the Lewises.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Robinson and children of Austin, Texas, motored to Denver, Colorado. Enroute they spent a few hours visiting in our city.

Burnett Anderson

Alvin Hunter, whom she had not seen for over twentyone years.

While talking over old times, the happily reunited family, along with Miss Hibbler, returned to Reno for another day before returning to L.A. to spend the last week of their very enjoyable vacation.

Hateing to leave her three children behind, Mrs. Moore is happy to report, that she left each of them in good health and with a big hello for all.

SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. O.D. Hollis by the youth department of Lyons Chapel Baptist Church in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hicks on August 22nd.

A program was rendered and a white carnation was presented to the guest of the evening. The delicious menu included a Bar-B-Que dinner.

Mrs. Hollis, wife of Rev. O.D. Hollis, pastor of Lyons Chapel, has worked with the youth department of the church since 1946.
