

'Around the Hub City'

"Around the Hub City" visited the Midland and Dunbar tilt last Friday evening and was rather happy at the outcome of the game. Dunbar's firing squad was entirely too much for the quint of Midland. It looks as though the Panthers can go all the way.

Besides watching the game, it was a pleasure as well as a privilege to watch the spirit of the rooters of the Panthers. At one time it looked as though the roof would fall due to the roar of the enthusiastic crowd. There is only one thing that is always familiar among the adults at any given public affair; i.e., when someone comes in, the entire adult clan will stare at the person and begin to criticize them, especially if the newcomer is a female... It is especially true when their attire is eye catching. The male will be pleased to see such a lovely picture, but the average female will try and find some deficiency about the lovely creature just entering.

Some of you may be shy about the above mentioned situations... Don't let it bother you.

The adverse weather we had here several weeks ago was responsible for many accidents. Some of these accidents involved people who were enroute to their daily job. Among those who were victims of the icy conditions were Mrs. Minnie Nelson, who broke her ankle on the ice and is a patient at St. Marys Hospital, and Mrs. Katherine McCormick who suffered a broken wrist while downtown.

The man on Avenue A says that a well adjusted person is one who makes the same mistake twice without getting nervous.

"Around the Hub City" was happy to find out that the meeting held by the Knights of Pythian and Court of Calanthe was successful. This meeting was based around the State Conven-

The Royal Ladies Club held its third meeting for the new year with president Hattie Lee in charge. All members present performed their regular duties. Due to adverse weather conditions some of the members were unable to be present. It is the hope of the organization that those who were unable to be present will attend the next meeting this coming Wednesday.

(THAT DARN TRUTH)

There's a lotta truth in the article, "Instant Slums", written by a reporter of the Avalanche-Journal last week. This article, with the primary purpose of informing the citizens of Lubbock about an 'unincorporated villiage', should have instilled in the minds of people what type of communities exist and brew here.

The Urban Renewal operation was successful, but it appears as though the infant has expired. It's quite obvious that this infant will never survive for more reasons than one...

Before the surgeons of realtors brought this operation, Urban Renewal, to the people of EAST LUBBOCK many hours were spent in order to make the complications unseen. In the planning state some of you were enlightened to the "Operation Clean-Up", but you failed as able bodied citizens to look into the matter. Perhaps the reason was because of the complete trust placed in the people representing you or maybe you were disinterested in the whole matter.

The final plans included your confirmation in the polls when you gave the "OK" for this big operation. It's the "Darn Truth" a baby was born to each of us---which was good---but being able to care for it is another factor and it's the "Darn Truth" we can't afford it.

Urban Renewal as an idea was good (and it has cleaned-up the slums existing in our city, namely; Queen City, Steen City, and their little sisters), but by the same token it has made life difficult for the majority.

Because of this majority, an 'unincorporated villiage' is existing only a few minutes beyond our city limits and unless it's stopped it can and I'm sure, will brow into another "Queen City" PLUS.

Why does this exist? It's only natural for areas such as this to be born when the economic and social standards are below normal. Or at least below what the planners want to be normal. This is what we failed to investigate. People who have the habit of paying less than ten dollars per week for rent definately will not pay a higher price, especially when they can find shelter in the same area where they once lodged. And to top off the situation some antiquated wooden frame houses (formerly located at 19th and Avenue A, which were declared unfit for living by the city helath department) were moved from the city area to the 'unincorporated village' for shelter and "beauty". This created ideal dwellings for those who desire this type of living.

Again, Urban Renewal was a success, but there is more that goes with the redevelopment of slum ardas, there has to be when we can see the end of Urban Renewal and look in the other direction and see

Mrs. Roberts and her family will enjoy a night on the town.

Here is a sight for good looking. In a campus-wide ballot at Jarvis Christian College students voted pretty Lillie Young as the most beautiful girl on cam-

IT WENT LIKE THIS:
ASSUALT

Gloria Sheppard, 514 Avenue D, told police that she and her husband, James Sheppard had been in a fight at 718 Avenue D. She told police that her uncle took her husband to the hospital for treatment.

It's a funny thing about the fight between the couple and their unknown assaulter, they were unable to tell who was responsible for the incident. Although Sheppard was not on the critical list it should have been revealed who was responsible for the affair.

AGGRIVATED ASSUALT

A thirty-four year old female was cut last Saturday night. She had a cut on her forehead that occurred after a fight between her and a forty-year old man. She told police that the man hit her with a pipe while they were engaged in an argument.

She also had a baseball bat in her possession which she was attempting to use on the man.

There were two witnesses to the incident and they verified the story of the two.

"What a man stands for isn't everything.

What he falls for counts also."

THAT DARN TRUTH...

what Urban Renewal was out to destroy rearing it's ugly head, especially when the properties must be torn down so that a new and pretty picture can be painted. In calling a spade a spade, and this is the

"Darn Truth", the economic and social standards of the people Urban Renewal is aimed at must be increased with this type of re-development. AS IS THE CASE HERE, the development was good to a point, but with the heavy concentration of a common labor population, an attempt toward a successful operation has failed, only paving new avenues for the rebirth of slums as it was originally.

Here is a prediction for you to put in your little black book; unless something is done quickly the area between 19th Street and Broadway and Avenues G and Q will undergo the same type of degradation and the same situation will exist that spawned the Urban Renewal idea here in Lubbock to begin with. This can only lead to more "fat wallets" on the part of a few people.

IT WENT LIKE THIS:
ASSUALT

Gloria Sheppard, 514 Avenue D, told police that she and her husband, James Sheppard had been in a fight at 718 Avenue D. She told police that her uncle took her husband to the hospital for treatment. It's a funny thing about the fight between the couple and their unknown assaulter, they

AGGRIVATED ASSUALT

A thirty-four year old female was cut last Saturday night. She had a cut on her forehead that occurred after a fight between her and a forty-year old man. She told police that the man hit her with a pipe while they were engaged in an argument.

She also had a baseball bat in her possession which she was attempting to use on the man.

There were two witnesses to the incident and they verified the story of the two.

"What a man stands for isn't everything. What he falls for counts also."

THAT DARN TRUTH... what Urban Renewal was out to destroy rearing it's ugly head, especially when the properties must be torn down so that a new and pretty picture can be painted. In calling a spade a spade, and this is the

"Darn Truth", the economic and social standards of the people Urban Renewal is aimed at must be increased with this type of re-development. AS IS THE CASE HERE, the development was good to a point, but with the heavy concentration of a common labor population, an attempt toward a successful operation has failed, only paving new avenues for the rebirth of slums as it was originally.

To have or not to have slums is the big question facing our city and county officials. By the same token they have already experienced, perhaps they will investigate the economic and social standards among our common laborers, who represent the majority involved in these operations before we are asked to jump off on another "clean-up, beautification, all answers rolled into one" program.

What you have read is "That Darn Truth..." and I have just scratched the surface as far as the questions are concerned. Let's hope that our leaders help find the questions next time before we are supplied with all the answers.

'Around the Hub City'

If you didn't attend the basketball game in Dunbar gym last Friday boy, you really missed something. This game is believed to have had the largest attendance of any basketball game this year. The teams playing in this contest, which is an annual affair, were no Harlem Stars or Globetrotters, but one thing is for certain, they played the part of any professional team.

Students were amazed at the performance of their teachers as basketball players, for they were the stars of the night. The contest featured the faculty members of Dunbar against the Lubbock Winners, a team composed of junior high and elementary school players.

The Dunbar five, and we might add, for the first time in some time, defeated the Lubbock Winners by a score of 48-36.

These same two squads will be rematched this Friday night, tomorrow evening, at 8:00 pm in the E.C. Struggs Junior High School. Be sure to come out and witness the battle of the season. Oh, I almost forgot to mention, the cheerleaders were something else.

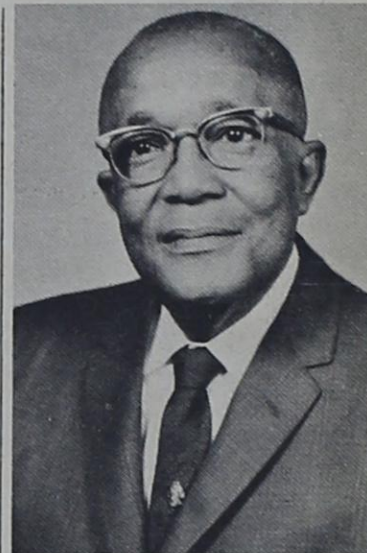

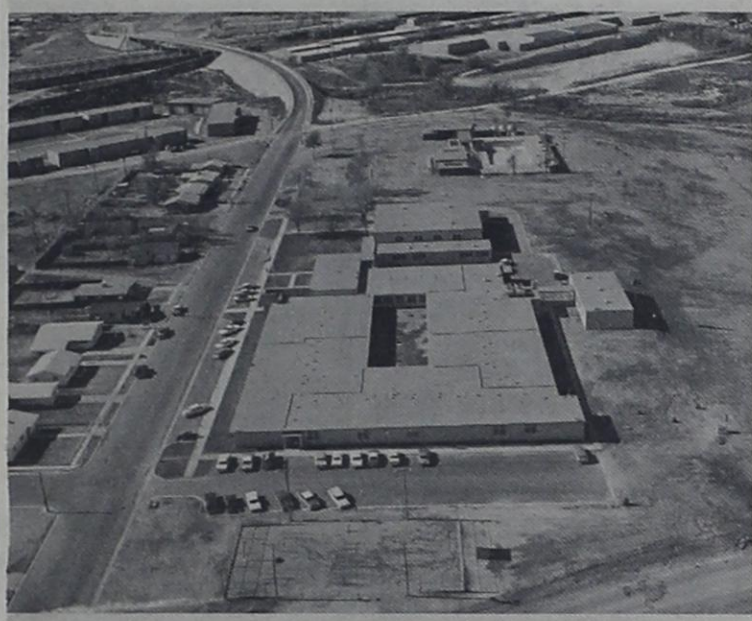

The Friendly Mix Club which is a relatively new organization, will have their initial meeting on Wednesday, February 16th, at 9:00 pm, in the home of Mrs. Willie Mae Hall, 1512 East 24th Street. Any persons interested in becoming a member of this organization may call Mrs. Hall at PO 3-6800.

Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Hamilton and Mrs. Joe Davenport spent the week-end at Gainesville, Texas. They reported a most enjoyable trip.

The female barbers are saying the further backward you can look, the farther forward you are likely to see.

The piano and organ recital at the Women's Club of Lubbock last Sunday afternoon was a great success. Students from Mary & Mac E.C.

DEDICATION OF E. C. STRUGGS SCHOOL

MR. AND MRS. E. C. STRUGGS

The dedication program of the newly constructed E. C. Struggs Junior High School will be held Wednesday evening, February 16th at 7:30 pm in the auditorium of the new school.

The school is dedicated for Mr. E. C. Struggs who was principal of Dunbar High School for thirty-five years from 1930 to 1965.

The E. C. Struggs Junior High School is located on an eight acre tract at the corner of East 24th Street and Oak Avenue on land that was originally a part of the Mae Simmons Park.

UPO ENDORSES CLARK, MORGAN

It was learned this week that the Lubbock chapter of the United Political Organization of Texas will endorse two candidates, Jackie Clark and Ben L. Morgan, who filed on Monday, February 6th, as candidates for chairmen of precinct box twenty and box six.

The Lubbock Chapter, an infant tributary of Texas UPO which is a non-partisan organization, was organized in 1961, is only a part of a federation of several civic and political organizations; local affiliations that have banded together for promotion of political and civic activities. Through an affiliation of organizations, UPO solicits individual memberships to which all endeavors are directed.

In endorsing the above mentioned individuals, the chapter feels as though an intelligent choice in support of both candidates was made for these key positions and that judgement was based upon performance records and acceptance of democratic ideals.

Struggs, and Dunbar participated.

If you are most fortunate to visit the E.C. Struggs Junior High School, you'll have the opportunity of seeing a display of two pieces of art produced by an Odessa, Texas High School art teacher.

The artist, Edward D. Poindexter is an art instructor at Blackshear and his contribution to the art profession is one of high gain. He has on display at Struggs two outstanding paintings. The one which captured this reporter's eye was "When Malindy Sings". Even if you are not an artist...you can tell it is a work of true art.

Oh, by the way.... Monday is St. Valentine's Day. You know we don't hear this day mentioned like we once did. I wonder why?

We'll see you next week, and by all means remember that when you have any announcements to be brought to the public, please feel free to call upon the "Hub City" children; and five great grand-children.

The City Wide Mission met at the residence of Mrs. Johnson. A heart touching prayer service was presented to the body by Sister Lillie Mae Parks and Sister Mary Simmons.

Twenty members were present at this regular scheduled meeting. Everyone enjoyed the heart touching prayer by the daughter of Mrs. Austin. Following this a splendid program was brought by Sister Mary Simmons. The speaker of the evening was Evangelist Alexander.

W3 were later dismissed by Sister C. E. Fair, president.

Mister Johnson served a very tasty meal for the occasion.

NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH

A foreign mission board representative, Rev. A.B. Lee, will be with us tonight, February 10, at 8:00 pm. The meeting will be held with our church and is in the best interest of all who attend.

Final Rites Read for Mrs. Florence Guy

Final rites were read for Mrs. Florence Guy, a resident of Lubbock for the last two years, at the St. Luke Baptist Church Tuesday, February 8th, at 2:30 p.m. with Rev. A. L. Davis officiating. South Plains Funeral Home was in charge of the ceremonies and interment was in the City of Lubbock Cemetery.

Mrs. Guy, 90, expired on February 4, of this year.

She is survived by her granddaughter, Dessie Moore; nine grand-

It's not fair for the street to be blocked by a private business concern. Perhaps this is putting it rather bluntly, yet this is the situation existing on East 28th Street, between Elm and Date. The blockade resulted from the hull fire which occurred several weeks ago when heavy damage occurred to the hull house of the Coop Oil Mill. It appears as though the mill is using the area north of its half demolished house as a depot for lodging the remains of the hulls.

This area which is used by the mill is of an advantage to the company but it is serving as a disadvantage for the community. There is always the possibility for the need to use this street in an emergency, but it would be just as impossible because of the barriers placed on both ends of the block perhaps through the authority of the mill.

It isn't fair for tax payers to suffer because a company finds it an advantage for them to use the PUBLIC STREETS for lodging their goods thus creating an unhealthy traffic situation for the public. It's just not fair.

A DREAM HAS BECOME A REALITY

It's like a dream come true to see the E. C. Struggs Junior High School as you pass the Mae Simmons Park. It makes one sleep better and work harder to know that no longer are all the high school children in east Lubbock housed in one building.

Both parents and teachers are working harder to understand the troubled adolescent child. Together many of the child's problems are being solved and the child better understood. With this attitude the community should become a better place in which to live.

So when you see a child who just can't keep from informing you about something, it's not the new shoes he is wearing, but it could be the new school he calls his own. Give him a lift by smiling, too. Believe you me, he is proud of his new school too. We can all be proud of the new E.C. Struggs Junior High School.
