This column would like to tip its hat off to the hard working committee for a job well done in the presentation of Texas' only woman senator, Miss Barbara Jordan, and the first Negro senator to preside over the legislature, last Tuesday evening in a Voter's Registration Rally at the Coop Oil Mill.

The crowd enjoyed her presentation, and, I'm sure, it'll be one that it will be one long remembered by all who attended.

Let's look at our children.

Parents can contribute a great service to their children by providing assistance in the development of good study habits and skills. The beginning of the new school year is t school year is an ideal time to work with your child in this area which affects his entire school program.

Perhaps the first thing, this column believes, to review and improve are the study facilities in your HOME.

The child should have a quiet and private area in which to study.

The area should be free from distractions. It should have comfortable furniture with a good writing surface. Of course, adequate lighting is necessary.

Depending on the child's grade and program, parents should provide books, magazines and writing materials.

"AROUND THE HUB CITY" is real concerned about the welfare of our children. Let's make sure these young people study more.

I know most of you by now have had an opportunity of visiting the Panhandle South Plains Fair. You know its wonderful to be able to go to the fair, especially when you take your children to see and ride the many rides on the grounds.

It appears as though each year the cooler weather comes with the fair.

Was your little boy one of the four hundred Lubbock youngsters who registered in the Lubbock Youth Football League?

This league emphasizes learning and participation and plays to no championships.

This is a great program and it will be a great help to our little fellows.

IT HAS HAPPENED

Last week, we were talking about HOW NICE IT WOULD BE for the Men's Social and Civic and Ebony Clubs to resume operations. It was learned this week that a meeting of members of the Men's Social and Civic Club will meet this Sunday.

Now, if only the Ebony Club would do like wise, another degree of responsibility would exist in our community.

Liz's favorite school club is VICA. "It teaches leadership, and that's very important," Liz adds.

To Liz, we say, continue your education. As we say to others, the same.

VICA'S FIRST

VICA, chapter #403, has gotten an excellent percentage of their 100% class membership set for October 1.

Looking year, last year VICA was very successful in local and state competition. The officers and senior members of VICA hope to top their last successful season with a 100% membership for '67 and '68.

A membership drive is being sponsored by the officers and senior members of VICA with a goal of 100%. VICA membership posters have been placed in the Dunbar Cosmetology department by these students.

The first to enroll in VICA for the year '67-'68 was Miss Eprano Robinson, a junior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Robinson.

As a professional VICA member, Mrs. Lila Griffin, a Dunbar reading instructor, has signed VICA's '67-'68 roll.

For the officers and members of VICA, this will be a really big year.

SO GO VICA, GO!!!

Powell Slips Out Of D.C.

Washington--(NPI)--Rep. Adam Clayton Powell slipped out of this city as quietly as he entered it, after answering a federal grand jury's questions about his finances.

What Powell told the grand jury was not disclosed. He refused to discuss his reason for coming to this country from his Bimini retreat.

The grand jury had subpoenaed records relating to Powell's tenure as chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee.

What would come of the grand jury hearing was not known.

Meanwhile, the ousted Congressman's lawyers and his estranged wife's attorneys got together to work out a divorce settlement.

Provisions for the couple's six-year-old son, Adamcito, have already been agreed upon, according to Arthur Newman, Mrs. Powell's lawyer.

HIRED AT MULTI-SERVICE CENTER

Ruth Ann Dotson

Rev. Alvin L. Butler

The director of the Multi-Service Center, a project of the Community Action Board in Lubbock County, Leonard Chew, has hired two aides.

One of the aides, Miss Ruth Ann Dotson, 2601 Weber Drive, a former student of Dunbar High School.

Prior to being hired as an aide, she was an enrollee in the Neighborhood Youth Corps--another program of CAB--as an aide at the Multi-Service Center. She is the daughter of Mrs. Alice Mae Dotson.

Another aide, Rev. Alvin L. Butler, pastor of the Mount Olive Baptist Church, was also hired.

He is a native of Lubbock for twenty years and is president of the Golden Voice District Association.

This pair of concerned individuals are working hard with Mr. Chew in order that this center will be a greater success.

Seating For Football

Something new has happened to the seating arrangement of the Dunbar home games at Lowery Field.

According to George Scott, principal, the lower section of the East stands will be for the visiting band and student body and the home band and student body. The remaining section will be for visitors and patrons of the schools participating.

However, it is encouraged that all visitors and patrons sit in the West stands.

"This is a UIL regulation and it must be upheld," admits Mr. Scott. "If this regulation is not upheld, then we could suffer by being placed on probation."

All adults tickets will be $1.50 at home or away; student tickets will be 50¢ at home or away.

Washington Downs Dunbar 7-0

Roosevelt Manning broke through to block a Ronald Kinner punt attempt late in the third quarter and Christ Estus recovered the lost pigskin in the end zone to give the Leopards of Wichita Falls a 7-0 win over Dunbar in a hard fought defensive battle.

In this non-district tilt, Dunbar had two passes picked off in the Leopard end zone--one late in the third stanza and the last one with 2:18 to play. Wichita Falls ran its record to 3-0 and Dunbar is now 1-2 with competition to begin tomorrow night.

Sidney Hall was the big gun for the Panthers, picking up 75 yards in 19 attempts.

Washington won the race for total offense with 130-119 and had only nine first downs to Dunbar's 12.

Precinct Chairman

Scores Poverty Program

Fort Worth--(NPI)--A lengthy blast against the proposed local War on Poverty program was taken several weeks ago by Columbus Martin, Tarrant County Negro precinct chairman, before firing off letters of protests to Sens. John Tower and Ralph Yarborough and Congressman Jim Wright and the Johnson administration.

Martin charged that some local liberals are planning to use the programs to build a political vote barrage aimed at defeating Gov. Connally. He also wrote the governor who has to approve the funds for the program.

Specifically, Martin's attack was levelled at NAI, a neighborhood project which bears federal government approval.

SPOKE WITH BOYS

This reporter had an opportunity of speaking with a group of young fellows who are on active and inactive probation with the Juvenile Division of Lubbock County last Monday afternoon.

It always counts a privilege as well as a pleasure to have an opportunity to speak to young people.

These young people, like any other RED BLOODED AMERICAN, must have an opportunity of becoming somebody in this society. As adults, too many of us concentrate on the bad of these young people instead of trying to help them.

Why not start today helping young people, regardless if they be on probation or not. If we become more concerned-----this would be a much better place in which to live. You see, these young people are tomorrow's adults.

WOMEN'S TALK

Coconut custard pie has a long standing reputation as a beautiful, delicate dessert. Add to its great appearance and texture a flavoring of California Sherry and you have a new, winning combination.

Sherry acquires its characteristic caramel flavor by the special way it is made. Heat caramelize the natural grape sugar in the wine. As a result, Sherry is an excellent flavoring for foods, used in judicious amounts so that it blends with other food flavors.

Popular as it is in cooking, Sherry finds as much greater acceptance as an appetizer or a dessert beverage, depending upon its sweetness. California produces several types of Sherry in great abundance.

The "dry" or "cocktail" Sherry is most often served before a meal. Sometimes it is poured right from the bottle into stemmed glasses. Other times, it may be mixed with fruit juice for a pitcher-punch. More and more Americans are serving it "on the rocks," over ice with a twist of lemon and perhaps a dash of bitters.

The sweeter Sherrys are served with or after dessert, or often as between-meal refreshment. Because Sherry keeps so well after the bottle has been opened, it is often stored in the refrigerator or cupboard for "instant" hospitality.

Servings of Sherry are usually smaller than those of a dinner wine. About two or three ounces (one-fourth to one-third of a cup) is the size of the average servings. A bottle of standard size holds 26 ounces, enough for one or more Sherry-flavored desserts and for serving, too.

1/4 cup California Sherry
1/3 cup flaked coconut
1 unbaked (9-inch) pie shell with fluted rim

Combine eggs with sugar, salt and flavorings. Stir into hot milk. Add Sherry and coconut. Pour into pie shell. Bake below oven center in hot oven (400 degrees) 25 to 30 minutes or just until pie tests done. Remove to wire rack. Let pie cool before cutting. Top may be garnished with puffs of sweetened whipped cream and sprinkled with additional flaked coconut, if desired.

SHERRIED GLAZED BANANAS

1 cup undrained crushed pineapple
1/2 cup brown sugar (packed)
1/2 cup California Sherry
2 (3-inch) sticks cinnamon
10 whole cloves
6 bananas

Combine pineapple, sugar, Sherry, and spices, and simmer 10 minutes. Peel bananas and cut in halves crosswise. Cook gently in sauce 5 to 10 minutes, until tender. Chill, and serve plain or with whipped cream.

THIS COCONUT CUSTARD pie is light and fluffy, as all good custard pies should be, but it's better than most of them because it is flavored with California Sherry. The flavor is delicate. To accent it effectively, pour small glasses of the same Sherry to serve with it.

SHERRIED COCONUT CUSTARD PIE

4 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons vanilla
1/8 teaspoon almond extract
2 cups rich milk, scalded

While the anthems are being played, the American, Confederate, and state flags should be
