Eastern Little League All-Stars Named In Ceremonies Here Saturday Evening

The Eastern Little League baseball season is over, after over ninety games. The stakes are still high, however, for the fellows who were chosen to represent the league in All-Star competition Monday evening, July 19th, during the second game at Northeast Little League Park.

Fourteen young fellows were chosen to represent the league in that game. There were also three alternates chosen, in case someone is unable to participate during the All-Star Tournament. Henry Wells, manager of the league winning Giants, will manage the All-Star team while Lisbon Hughes will serve as coach.

Those fellows chosen to participate in the All-Star Tournament were: Cecille B. Winn, Gerald V. Hayes, Rufus Conner and Delton Deal, all of the Giants; Walter Alsbrooks, Jr., Gregory Cook, Fred W. Fulson and Tony R. Ward, all of the Indians; Willie B. Anderson, Jr., Charles R. Bolden, Michael Kendrick and Ellis Atkins, all of the Barons; and Kenneth W. James of the Greys.

Alternates chosen were Samuel Taylor of the Barons; Donald Ross of the Giants and Kenneth Bolden of the Indians.

A practice game will be held tonight, at Eastern Little League park, with the Eastern Little League slugger's matched against eleven hard-hitters from Crosbyton, Texas.

Last Saturday evening, after the Pee Wee contests, the members of the Giants, who won 13 and lost 2, were presented trophies for their winning of the Eastern Little League championship. They were directed during the season by Coach Wells.

Those fellows presented trophies were Duane Williams, Leroy Franklin, Winston Gipson, Terry Moore, Gregory Wells, Cecil Winn, Rufus Conner, Gerald Hayes, Donald Ross, DeWayne Simmons, Delton Deal, Darrell Wilson and Darrell Lewis.

Dr. F.L. Lovings, president of Eastern Little League, gave encouraging remarks to the parents, ball players and patrons of Eastern Little League. "I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for this successful year," he stated. "May all of you young fellows continue to play the game of baseball and play just as well in life itself. We're glad of the cooperation given by the parents of each of the boys who played this year," he concluded.

T. J. Patterson, editor of the West Texas Times, presented the trophies to each member of the Giant squad.

Former Lubbockite Completes Training With California OICW

Miss Wynell Reed, daughter of Mrs. Amanda Reed of 3405 Railroad Avenue, recently completed training in merchandising with the Opportunities Industrialization Center West in Menlo Park, California.

Her training broadened her in the field of merchandising and developed many other skills. "OIC can help anyone who wants to help themselves," states the former Dunbar High School student.

Condition of Four Year Old Satisfactory

Rodney Bagley, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bagley of 2432 East 29th Street, was in satisfactory condition at West Texas Hospital at this report.

The youth was injured last Thursday in a pick-up pedestrian accident in the 2400 block of East 29th Street.

Fort Worth Visitors Enjoy Holiday Here

Mrs. Edna Mosley of Lubbock had holiday guests during the July 4th week-end. The guests, Mr. and Mrs. Kennie Bly and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lewis, cousins of Mrs. Mosley and Mrs. Maggie Shed, enjoyed a big bar-b-que in the back yard of Mrs. Mosley.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Stephens also shared the eat-out with them. Everyone enjoyed the fete very much. Afterwards they all went to Buffalo Lake and fished.

Last Tuesday, they had a big fish fry at Mrs. Mosley's residence. All reported a lovely visit to the "Hub City."

The 14-year-old was struck by the automobile as he rode his small "spyder-style" bicycle across Parkway Drive. The force of the impact jolted Whitehead's shoes from his feet and crumpled both wheels of the bicycle.

An investigating patrolman, James Kimber, said Whitehead was carried about 117 feet west from the point of impact by the vehicle, which reportedly continued on west on Parkway Drive to Redbud Avenue.

Parts of the bicycle, including its front wheel and pedals, were found along Parkway Drive. Tire tracks just off Parkway Drive and not far from Redbud Avenue indicated that the hit-run vehicle pulled into the barrow ditch and backed up, causing the remaining parts of the bicycle to fall from its grill into the ditch, before heading north on Redbud Avenue, according to police reports.

Whitehead's survivors include four brothers; Russell of Waxahachie, Texas; Tracy of Dallas; Thomas of Kansas City, Kansas and Dawson of Lubbock; and one sister, Myrna of Lubbock; along with a host of relatives and friends.

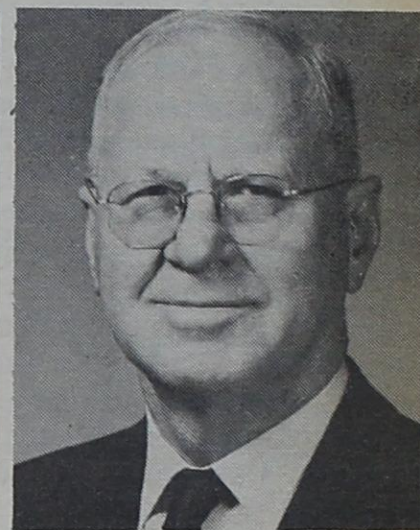

The East Lubbock community will sponsor a "tea" for a longtime friend, Roy B. Davis, Sunday afternoon, July 18th, from 4:00 until 6:00 p.m., at Mae Simmons Community Center.

Mr. Davis, who retired as general manager of Plains Cooperative Oil Mill last month after 28 years of service, said recently, "The biggest thrill of my life has been working with people and watching this country grow. I've enjoyed being a part of it and I intend to keep active in civic and farming functions."

The theme for Sunday afternoon's mixer will be "Flowers for the Living." Dr. F. L. Lovings will serve as master of ceremonies of the program with a special selection as a solo from Mrs. Mary Sterling who will sing, "Give Me My Flowers," accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Struggs on the piano.

E. C. Struggs, retired principal, will introduce the honoree of the afternoon. A special plaque for Davis will be presented by Reverend A. L. Davis, minister of Greater St. Luke Baptist Church. Remarks are expected from Mr. Davis.

Some of the organizations he has worked with over the years include Future Farmers of America; Future Homemakers of America and 4-H Clubs. For many years he has been host for an annual banquet for Lubbock's Eastern Little League baseball teams, including one team sponsored by the oil mill.

Due to his retirement in June, the league's annual banquet was scheduled early this year so Davis could participate prior to his retirement. League players presented him with a plaque for his contributions to the league.

In 1966, the Progressive Farmer magazine designated him as its "Man of the Year," for his service to Southern agriculture. That same year, he also was named "Man of the Year in Texas Agriculture," by the Texas County Agricultural Agents Association.

Mrs. C. D. Fair, Sr., and co-workers, will serve as hostesses and Mrs. J. A. Chatman will preside over the guest book. The function Sunday afternoon is being coordinated by Earnest Butler, Jr.

The public is cordially invited to participate in this special effort for a citizen of our city who cares about the people of the community.

Wedding Announcement Made Here

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Barnes of Slaton, Texas, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Lee Barnes, to Larry Eugene Wilson. The couple plans to be wed Saturday, July 24th, in Lubbock.

Miss Barnes is a former employee of Slaton Nursing Home. The prospective groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Brown. He is also a graduate of Dunbar High School and is presently employed at Paymaster Grain.

They plan to reside in Lubbock.

Final Rites Read Here Wednesday for Victim of Sunday Afternoon Hit - Run Mishap

Final rites were read Wednesday morning for Tommy Earl Whitehead, 14, of 1818 East Colgate Avenue, a victim of a hit and run accident Sunday afternoon in the 2400 block of Parkway Drive, at Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. A. L. Davis, officiating. Whitehead was the 15th traffic fatality of the year in the city of Lubbock.

Burial was held in the City of Lubbock Cemetery under direction of Sedberry Funeral Home.

A charge of murder with a motor vehicle was filed Monday morning against Elvin Covington, 28, of 2720 1st Street, in connection with the incident. He was placed under $10,000 bond Monday by Justice of the Peace Wayne LeCroy.

The suspect, a route salesman for a beverage company, was arrested at his residence about 45 minutes after the accident. The arrest came about because of a report that the hit-run car was parked at the rear of the house on 1st Street. Police checked the automobile prior to making an arrest.

SCENE OF SUNDAY AFTERNOON'S TRAGEDY—where a hit and run accident registered the 15 traffic fatality in the city of Lubbock this year. Fourteen-year-old Tommy Earl Whitehead of 1818 East Colgate Avenue, was killed while riding his bicycle at Parkway Drive and Zenith Avenue about 6:00 p.m.

EDITORIALS

He Deserves a Tea, and Much, Much More From the Black Community!

If there's anything Mr. Roy B. Davis, recently retired director of the Plains Coop Oil Mill, needs, he certainly deserves the opportunity of receiving it. And in this light, a tribute from the black community, for his services to the community over the past decades, is certainly in order.

Sunday afternoon, from 4:00 until 6:00, at Mae Simmons Community Center, the residents of the black community will have an opportunity to shake hands and visit with a true citizen, who has been concerned about the welfare of young and old during his tenure at the largest cotton oil mill in the world.

Mr. Davis showed a great deal of interest in our young people who played in Eastern Little League over the years and has shared generously with the numerous churches in East Lubbock. The Eastern Little League, under the direction of Dr. F. L. Lovings, expressed their appreciation of Mr. Davis last month when they moved their annual banquet up so Mr. Davis could attend prior to his retirement.

We, as black people, cannot forget Mr. Davis' consideration for the usage of the Plains Coop Oil Mill banquet room over the years. This service he has provided without hesitation.

We would encourage the black community to support this effort on Sunday afternoon. Let's come out in numbers and show Brother Davis that we appreciated his efforts over the many years. In so many words, let's give him his flowers while he lives. He deserves a tea and much more from the black community of Lubbock.

We've Got to Get Out of the Hole

There is no other race of people on the face of the earth that can understand what the "hole" is like to the black man and black woman. We've found ourselves rolling around at the bottom of that dark pit for so many years that we've conditioned ourselves to take whatever comes our way. If we'd only stop and think, we'll find that we can get out of that "hole" if we really want to.

In the Lubbock, Texas, area, we're still afraid to make the first step. We've made numerous excuses and have refused to get up off our bottoms and start doing something together for the betterment of all black people.

Admittedly, at this time, there are some efforts being seen in the black community. But, at the same time, as we see some signs of constructive participation, there are still brothers and sisters who refuse to join the effort. One can't help but wonder why in the heavens we're afraid to move out into the sea of constructive participation.

Last week's editorial attempted to explain that we can do a lot of things during the upcoming elections, if we really want to. Our young blacks, between the ages of 18 and 20, can even register to vote. The smoke screen in the area is over, but it will take total involvement of all blacks to move into the political and economical arenas.

Of course we're all tired of being in the hole, and at the bottom for that matter. Don't you think it's time to get up and start fighting for what is right for all. This, by no means, doesn't mean we should continue to fight, hurt and kill our brothers—that just ain't the way. When we speak of fighting, we mean in the established orderly manner of the system, so that we may also share in the system when our fight is over.

Why not look at the idea of starting a gigantic voter's registration drive this fall. The local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), has made this one of their projects in the past. However, this year, why not all of the black organizations in Lubbock? All should come together and join hands with this organization and make it a hell of a success. It's never too late to start doing something which will benefit all of us. And this means you too, young people. We need more smoke screens.

No doubt about it, we're all tired of the "hole" and there's no one who can tell about the "hole" like we can. Let's continue our efforts in getting out! Voter's registration would certainly be a start in the fall. We can't afford to forget about 1972. There's a lot of things happening then. Right On!!

From The Business Desk

I mentioned last week that I would have more to say this week on our new 10% state sales tax, and right away, I had several people let me know that the present level of the Texas state sales tax is only 5%. Tan't so brother, and I can certainly prove that to anyone, excepting several politicians that put this new thing on us, with very little effort and just a small amount of space.

Admittedly, when the local yocals in Austin were grinding out their reams and reams of propaganda about how we were needing more tax funds and would have to raise the state sales tax to 4%, everyone, myself included, fell for the idea of tacking a little more on, and learning to live with it. But, like the fellow says, that was before I found out it would be my bull getting gored. As any plain fool could realize, a 4% tax on everyone wouldn't be unbearable, but when that tax suddenly reaches 10%, and without announcement,

my views

by Eddie P. Richardson
We Must Move Ahead—Together!

For hundreds of years the black community has fought among itself, therefore causing a split community.

Brothers and sisters, the time has long been gone when infighting, between class groups, economic groups, and others in the black community would be of any benefit to anyone.

We cannot do anything big as individuals, but when a group of individuals gets together, in this system of enterprise, and pool their resources, they can move mountains.

We must move ahead together because, let's face it, until we do something about our economics, baby, we are still slaves. Modern day, fearful, Twentieth Century, scared slaves. Scared to venture out, scared to take a chance, scared to reach for the stars and scared to pool our resources and go into business. In a land of plenty, we reach for and go after peanuts. We are afraid to tap our own resources, we would rather work on an 8 to 5 job for a sure $50.00 a week than to build an empire.

Believe me, I am black and I believe in black power—I have lived and talked it all my life. But one thing for sure, raising a big broke, clenched fist ain't where it's at brother! Get you some then people begin to raise their heads and ask questions.

Now, I'll be the first to admit that if a person is in a business that produces and sells a product for $1.00 or more in the State of Texas that product and that business is operating under the present 4% state sales tax, and the additional 1% city sales tax if his product is sold inside any city in the state that has a sales tax. But I'll also be the first to point out that that tax is on a product that sells for a dollar or more. Consider on the other hand the many small business people, this newspaper included, that manufactures and sells only one product. And in the same vein, consider that that one product is produced for the specific price and purpose of 10¢. If, according to the new rules set forth by the State Comptroller, we are required by law to collect a 1¢ tax on each of our 10¢ sales, then by everything that's reasonable, we are required to charge 10% state sales tax on our one and only product.

That being that, I'd also like to explain why, once again, we lowered the price of the newspaper to 9¢. Primarily because we couldn't bring it on ourselves to go out into the several cities and towns in West Texas and explain to the many young boys and girls who purchase the paper from us each week for resale that they would now have to meet the same business requirements as the local supermarket and gasoline station. It just didn't make sense to us to make 10 through 15 year old kids tax collectors for the state of Texas. Admittedly, we must have more tax revenue, but what we were faced with was a proposition where the little boy or girl who sells 10 to 25 papers each week would be required to take out a tax certificate, keep all the necessary records, and be able each week to turn in 10¢ to 25¢ to the state tax collector. Now I'm in favor of teaching kids good business practices early, but that is getting a little ridiculous.

So there you have it, the price of the paper is now 9¢, although I wracked my brain in every way I knew to figure how to make it 9½¢, but I just didn't know how that would work. And don't laugh, 9½¢ for a paper is not much sillier than the elected officials we have in Austin figuring, or overlooking the fact that they were passing a tax bill that would make tax collectors out of most of the young people in the state who wanted to peddle newspapers or cold lemonade for a few coins each week.

You can give a man a nation by making him its governor, president, or what have you, but if he does not control its economics, he does not rule the nation. The nation is ruled by its economics.

Over the past 15 or so years, one man has poured thousands of dollars into East Lubbock, through Eastern Little League, churches, organizations, politicians, preachers and what have you. I do not know the man personally, but through research, I have found a lot out about this man and the deeds he has done. Lubbock and East Lubbock will have a chance to show him how they feel about his efforts over the past years Sunday, May 18th, at a tea in his honor at Mae Simmons Community Center.

Here is a chance, especially for some of the older citizens and especially some of the ministers, to show their gratitude for his efforts over the years—by turning out, and by helping set up the affair this coming Sunday. Let's all support the Roy B. Davis Tea Sunday afternoon.

I would like to thank Mr. Bennie Nevels of Amarillo, the brother who missed two issue of his West Texas Times and called Lubbock to say he didn't like the idea of missing the paper. He also said he didn't like the idea of missing what Richardson is saying each week. Thanks brother, I hope I say something, and I hope some of it sinks into some people.

We can make it if we try, but we must forge ahead together.

House Burglaries

Several house burglaries were reported by Lubbock residents during the past week. These stories should make us extra careful about how we use security around our homes. It doesn't pay to make our homes available for unwanted people to enter and take our hard earned items. However, when a burglar comes, it appears, he does not care what type of security one has, he gains entrance anyway.

It would help to be more neighborly about your area. Especially when we see someone unknown around one of our brother's homes.

One of the burglaries was at the home of Elmer Young, 2806 East 16th Street. He reported that someone broke into his house by kicking in his back door.

Once inside, the unknown person took a toaster and can opener, valued at about $17.00.

Exit was apparently by the same back door.

Argolda Cleveland, 1911 East Broadway, Apartment 19, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that someone broke into her apartment and took $420.00 worth of items.

Entrance was apparently gained by prying open a hasp lock on the front door.

Taken was a stereo tape recorder, radio and television.

Bill McGee, 3306 East Cornell Avenue, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that someone broke into his residence by the back door, by cutting the screen and unlocking the latch and prying the door open.

Missing from his house were several items, including a stereo, rifle and approximately $75.00 worth of change and bills from a kid's piggy bank.

Assault

Leslie Jo Moorine, 2612 Weber Drive, Apartment C, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that she had problems with a brother in the community.

She told police that the man stopped her and told her he wanted the car. She refused and he struck her in the face with his fist.

Aggravated Assault

Elvira Hasting, 2820 East 4th Street, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that someone took advantage of her one night last week.

She related to police that she was walking down the alley in the 1600 block of Avenue C when someone jumped her and cut her on the right wrist.

Around the hub city

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hubbard and Mrs. Marscella Fagan of Seattle, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Bryant, Jr., and son, Lorenzo III, of El Paso, Texas; Mrs. Lurline Gardner and son, Fred Rogers, of New London, Conn.; and Mrs. Claudine Houston of Los Angeles, California were week-end guests in the Hub City last week.

Each week, the Hub City has many black brothers and sisters visiting with us. We're always glad to meet with these people, who come and visit with us. If this column fails to mention some of our visitors, please advise us as soon as possible. We want every reader of the "Times" to know who is visiting with us from time to time.

W. H. Stephens was able to be present at church last Sunday with the use of his crutches. Salome Cunningham is recuperating nicely from a recent fall. Oren Mc Allister is yet a patient at Methodist Hospital and is much improved.

Black History Notes for Busy Newspaper Readers: Mary McLeod Bethune Commemorative Month closed June 19, with observances being held in all sections of the country; according to Dorothy I. Height, national president of the National Council of Negro Women. On the date above, the observance concluded with a day-long dedication program for the Memorial, which will be the first to a black American on public land in the nation's capitol. Mrs. Bethune died on May 18, 1955.

Mrs. Bethune was founder and served as president of Bethune-Cookman College for many years and served as a confidential advisor of the late President Franklin Roosevelt and other presidents since. She founded the National Council of Negro Women in recognition of the need for black women to unite for effective social action in their respective communities. Today, NCNW links 25 national affiliated groups with an outreach to approximately 3.8 million black women and girls. Its major program areas include: Housing, employment, southern rural self-help and community development, day care and youth education.

NCNW's underlying thesis is that low-income families need encouragement, training, and the opportunity to participate in the planning and management of their lives.

One of the most interesting letters I have received in recent months is from a West Texas area bellringer and I quote in part: "Dear Bob: Bravo on your fine column, 'Ringing the Bell.' We could wish that even more space could be devoted to black history for the education of both blacks and whites in our 'integrated' community. We are appalled by the racial ignorance of our people here, by the seeming lack of black pride of the colored people here, and by the lack of real integration in (town name omitted) here. We find the existence of your column and your recent recommendation of "Black Rage" encouraging in the area of black awareness of the young people of our area and congratulate you on your work.

"We are anxious to make new black and brown friends here and altho' we realize that asking your help in this area seems an artificial way to bring integration to our circle of friends, we also realize that few interracial friendships can begin naturally. We hope it will be different for our children, some of whom we have adopted of mixed breed. Again—thanks for your column and keep up the good work, etc., etc. Singed, B.&S.N.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. N.: You are so kind and thank you. For nearly 25 years, we have tried to instill black pride and dignity among blacks in West Texas and the Southwest where black population is not as great as it is in other sections of the country. We pioneered in radio and television broadcasting in West Texas and as a black writer on a white newspaper. Now with the generation gap, we hope the younger blacks will pick up the mantle as at nearly 60 years of age, we think the task ought to be on younger shoulders. We might remind you, however, that the intelligence level of blacks in West Texas (mostly migrants from other sections of the state seeking economic opportunity) is about the lowest in the Southwest, according to U.S. Census report. Your job: educate a black and let my brothers and sisters go. For example, the Midland County Library has one of the finest collections in the Southwest on Black History & Culture, but you can't get em to read em. Will you help? I plan (if Bishop consents) to spend at least one year in a Southwest University (preferably Texas) in research and study on Black History. More later. Write again. Oh, yes, regardless of where I will be studying next year, I will maintain a Midland-Odessa area headquarters. Why not? After all, I have a host of Anglo rich Republicans and Democrats, who are friends of this column and have had them thru the years, why should I desert them now? Smiles again.

Dear Bob: A black University of Oklahoma author is turning all of the profits from his new book, "America's Other Children: Public Schools Outside Suburbia," into a scholarship fund for minority students. The new book is a collection of 50 articles selected and edited by Dr. George Henderson and was published recently by the University of Oklahoma Press. Henderson characterizes "other children" as those for whom school is not an accepted way of life and who can see no relevance for education in their lives. They include Mexican-American children, poor white and Indian children and black children of the inner cities' slums and ghettos. Signed B.D. of Boley, Oklahoma.

AMARILLO

From My Scratch Pad

by George Parrish

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Scott and children motored to Colorado Springs and Denver, Colorado, to spend the week-end of the 4th of July. They were accompanied by Dianne Parrish. They all reported having had a very enjoyable trip, only thing was that the trip was too short.

Miss Carolyn Williams of Fort Worth, Texas, is in the city spending the summer with her grand-mother, Mrs. Eva Cooper of 1632 NW 15th.

After her visit here, Carolyn will return to Texas Women's University, where she is attending school. I am sure Mrs. Cooper is enjoying having her grand-daughter here with her this summer.

Mrs. Lula Alexander, of 602 Arnold Place, is home from the hospital. We are all very happy that Mrs. Alexander was able to come home. She has been coming home for the week-end for some time, but would have to return on Sunday evening. At long last she is home to stay. Let us continue to pray for her.

Mrs. Joe Holland of 1636 NW 15th is in the hospital where she underwent surgery last week. At last report she was resting nicely.

Mrs. Will Knapp motored to Lubbock this week-end to visit with friends there. Mrs. Knapp is having quite a summer.

Mrs. Bessie Grayson of 609 N. Madison has returned from a two week vacation, visiting her father in Marlin, Texas, and a brother in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Minnie Issac of Houston, Texas, has returned home after spending several weeks in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Barbra Echoles of 1608 N. Washington. While in the city she was highly entertained by her many friends. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Issac are former residents of Amarillo. Mr. Issac is a retired Dental Technician.

Mrs. A. F. Holloway, of 1501 N. Washington, entertained a few friends with a breakfast held for Mrs. Issac. Those present were: Mrs. Sherwood Moore, Mrs. A. G. Champion, Mrs. N. J. Neal and Mrs. S. C. Patton.

Mrs. Irra Jacobs has returned home after visiting several places in California this summer.

Mrs. Morine James, of Dallas, Texas, is in the city visiting with her cousins, Mrs. A. F. Holloway and Mr. George Ingram of 1510 N. Washington.

Little Miss Twona, Sheranda and Robben Woods of Athens, Texas, are here spending the summer with their sisters, Mrs. Margaret Shanklin of 605 N. Madison and Mrs. Rose Wilson.

Lubbock Woman Shot Here Tuesday

Pearlie Mae Dean, 28, of 1024 East 29th Street, Apartment G, was shot in the left thigh Tuesday afternoon at her apartment by a twenty-year-old man. Charges were filed Wednesday morning against John Lee Bolden.

The suspect was arrested a short time after the incident, near West Texas Hospital, where he had reportedly harassed emergency room personnel as Miss Dean underwent emergency treatment.

According to police reports, the man walked into Miss Dean's apartment, pointed a gun in her face and pulled the trigger, but the gun failed to fire. At that time, according to the young lady, he then pointed the gun at her leg and shot her.

She was released from the hospital following treatment.

Prairie View's Panthers Face Toughest Opponents

by Joe Booker

Prairie View—(Special) Not only did Prairie View's new head football coach James Hillyer inherit a relatively untalented squad, but to go along with his sleepless nights he also inherited the roughest schedule in Prairie View history.

Hillyer will begin his debut as a college head football coach with Angelo State, the only team in the Lone Star Conference to knock-off Texas A&I, the NAIA National Champion the past two seasons. San Angelo defeated McMurry something like 50-12 last season and McMurry defeated the Panthers 30-13 last season. This season,

Local Teacher Retires Here

Mrs. Janie Mae Roberts, a first grade teacher at Ella Iles Elementary School, will retire after twenty years of service to the Lubbock Independent School District.

Mrs. Roberts received a B.S. Degree from Prairie View A & M College and a Master of Education degree at Texas Southern University of Houston, Texas.

She is the wife of Rev. S.R. Roberts, pastor of Mount Gilead Baptist Church, where she is an active member. She is a member of the National Education Association (NEA) and Texas State Teachers Association (TSTA). She has been active as a Girl Scout leader for twenty years.

In appreciation for the services she has rendered in our community, she was honored by the Girl Scouts of Troop 361, the principal and faculty of Ella Iles, its Parent-Teachers Association (PTA), and the Board of Trustees of Lubbock Independent School District.

Commerating the retirement of Mrs. Roberts, a tea was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Woods, with Mrs. Malissa Jackson serving as hostess. Members of Mount Gilead Baptist Church W. M.U. were also present. Special guests were co-workers of Mrs. Roberts.

We're sorry, but...

Everything possible is being done to assure dependable telephone service during the telephone work stoppage. Telephone switchboards are being manned and local and Long Distance dial equipment is being maintained.

Here are two ways you can help yourself have the best possible phone service:

1. Dial your own Long Distance calls. They will go through at low station-to-station rates. And they are not delayed by the work stoppage. (Check the front of your directory for complete dialing instructions on how to dial your own Long Distance calls.)
2. Look in the directory first when you're not sure of the local phone number. It's faster and will save you time.

We appreciate your patience and understanding.

RECEIVING "HAPPY BIRTHDAY" GREETINGS—With the table decorated with a pink cake in blue trimmings and showing 3 candles, Little Miss Tiffany Dawn Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gentry of Lubbock, Texas, enjoyed her third birthday with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Basketball Camp Still Open Here

Applications are still available for the Gerald Myers Basketball Camp, the first of its kind in the Lubbock and South Plains area.

Myers, head coach at Texas Tech, has scheduled a day camp to run July 5th-July 9th and July 19-23rd. The camp is for elementary and junior high school boys who have not graduated from the ninth grade.

The camp is structured to help the advanced player as well as the beginner. Myers will give individual attention to each boy to insure understanding and development of basketball skills.

"No one will be lost in the crowd," Myers said. "I think it is important that boys interested in basketball get a chance to learn the fundamentals of the game at an early age."

Location of the camp will be the gymnasium at the Texas National Guard Armory. The cost of the camp is $50 per camper and each boy must have a statement signed by a doctor stating he is in good physical condition.

Myers, who took over the job as Texas Tech head coach last year, is a former All-Southwest Conference player at Tech. He made the all-SWC team in 1958, his junior year as a Red Raider. He was head coach at Monterey High School, where he compiled a 150-50 record.

Myers moved to Houston Baptist for a three-year stint there as head coach, before he came back to Tech as an assistant basketball coach in 1970.

Applications for the camp may be obtained by writing Gerald Myers, Box 4199, Texas Tech, Lubbock 79409.

San Angelo is a strong contender to win the rugged Lone Star Conference.

Another powerful team that the Panthers will meet is National Champion Tennessee State who last season defeated Grambling, Alcorn, Florida A&M, Southern, and Texas Southern to complete an undefeated season. The 1971 Tennessee team is groomed to be stronger than last season's team. PV meets Tennessee in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, October 16, at 8:00 p.m.

The Panthers also meet Quantico Marines, one of the strongest army base teams in the nation. For Homecoming, the Panthers will have Texas Lutheran, (a team who defeated them last season), on the menu.

To add to Hillyer's agony, a SWAC schedule that includes Alcorn, Texas Southern, Jackson, Grambling and Mississippi Valley, must be contended with.

It's not a situation that a coach will bubble over with laughter especially if he doesn't know who his quarterbacks will be, heavy graduating, some faced disciplinary problems and others have problems with the three R's.
