"Show Boat" Opens Season For Lubbock Theatre Center

Former Governor Preston Smith Appointed Texas Tech Consultant

Preston Smith, Lubbock businessman and a former Texas governor, will join the Texas Tech University Complex staff on a part-time basis as a special consultant to the Vice President for Development and University Relations. The position is effective immediately.

The announcement was made today by Dr. Clyde E. Kelsey, Jr., the vice president with whom Smith will consult.

"Having spent many years of my life in public and business affairs, I am delighted that I am now in a position to contribute services to my alma mater. Having been graduated from Tech, my first loyalties have long been devoted to that superb institution," Smith commented.

The former Texas governor was graduated from Texas Tech in 1934.

In subsequent years Smith has been active in various TTU related organizations, including membership on the University Relations Committee of the Texas Tech University Ex-Students Association and the University Foundation Board. He and Mrs. Smith (the former Ima Smith) were named Distinguished Alumni in 1969.

Texas Tech President Grover E. Murray said, "Preston Smith, as a former student, is widely conversant with other ex-students and graduates, as well as the many friends of Texas Tech across this state and nation. We appreciate his offer to serve this University as his busy schedule permits."

A native of Dawson County, Smith was graduated from Lamesa High School and worked his way through Texas Tech. After graduation he settled in Lubbock and in 1936 acquired his first theater. He remained in that business until May of this year.

W.F. "Pete" Baker, Abilene attorney and Texas Tech Ex-Students Association president, stated, "We of the Ex-Students are delighted that Preston Smith can devote a portion of his time to the University. Certainly he will represent well all former Tech students."

Recalling the Cawthon Era at Texas Tech

Lubbock Public Schools to Dismiss For South Plains Fair Next Week

Students in Lubbock public schools will be getting a jump on the 58th annual Panhandle South Plains Fair on their special days Sept. 23-24.

Twenty-three schools will dismiss at 2 p.m. on Sept. 23 and the remaining 30 will permit the students and teachers to attend the fair at the same time the following day.

The students and teachers will be guests of the fair. In all, more than 33,000 student tickets were distributed to city youngsters, permitting free gate admissions on the two days.

Some 16,000 tickets for teachers and school employees throughout the South Plains and eastern New Mexico area were disseminated, according to Steve L. Lewis, fair general manager. The area student total topped the 80,000 mark, he said.

Area school day is Monday, Sept. 22, when the big parade of bands is scheduled downtown, beginning at 10 a.m. More than three dozen bands will appear in competition for $2,250 in cash awards.

City schools dismissing early on Sept. 23 include Coronado, Monterey, Atkins, Evans, Hutchinson, Mackenzie, S. Wilson, Bayless, Bowie, Hardwick, Haynes, Hodges, Maedgen, Murrey, Overton, Parsons, Rush, Stewart, Stubbs, Wester, Wheelock, Williams and R. Wilson.

All other public schools will dismiss classes early the following day, E.C. Leslie, assistant superintendent for administration of the Lubbock Ind. School Dist., said.

Several new attractions have been carded for this year, but Gene Ledel's million dollar midway will be back as usual, Lewis said.

"The Sensational Leighs" will be performing their free act on the giant space wheel throughout the Renewal of the Red Raider Club luncheons this week sparked memories of its earlier days.

"We used to have Monday night Quarterback Club meetings in the 1930's when the coaches of Lubbock's three football teams would speak," recalled Leete Jackson, executive vice president of the Red Raider Club. "Coach Pete Cawthon of Texas Tech, Weldon Chapman of Lubbock High, and Damon Hill of Dunbar would talk about their games."

Both Jackson and Hill have contributed their oral memories to Texas Tech's Southwest Collection which has compiled more than 60 interviews concerning sports in West Texas and the Southwest.

"It's most important to keep records of individuals and accounts of things that transpired in the past," said Jackson in reference to the Southwest Collection's project. "If too much time passes, the stories are lost, and you can't ever get them," he said.

"There were a lot of guys at the Red Raider luncheon Thursday who attended the early day Quarterback Club meetings. Many are still active and are just as interested in football today," Jackson said.

Damon Hill now retired after 37 years of coaching and teaching at Dunbar, recalled when Pete Cawthon first asked him to address the Quarterback Club. "It was during the late thirties," he said. "Tech had lost, Lubbock High had lost, but we had won our game. Cawthon told me, 'I want you on the program, but talk about anything except football. There are guys sitting out there who can tell you and me more about football than both of us know'."

"I didn't know what to say," related Hill. "When I got up there in front of 350 white people, it scared me to death, but the group started coming out and supporting my team."

Both Hill and Jackson credited the legendary Cawthon as being the key to the club's success. First held in the old Hilton hotel, the meetings were later moved to Chapman Field House to accommodate the crowds.

Our Readers Want To Know About Residential Rehab

Several of our readers have called us in regard to the new proposed grant program for residential rehabilitation. Those who were asking us about this program have said that persons from the Urban Renewal have been around explaining this new program, but they still don't understand what the program is all about.

We feel as though this type of effort will help to clean up the blight in many of our houses in the city. We would hope that those persons who qualify would take advantage of a program which will help many families in Lubbock.

As we see it, the proposed grant program is to conserve and upgrade the existing housing stock in the City of Lubbock by bringing older homes in designated areas into conformance with the present housing codes. We think this is good!

It will also help eliminate urban blight, deterioration, and blighting influences from the area. Another feature, which we know will help our community, is the assistance it will give persons of lower income categories and help those families secure housing and a suitable living environment which every American family should have.

We think that this program will also help preserve and restore viable neighborhoods within our city. This is definitely needed in the lower socio-economic communities of Lubbock.

Many persons will probably ask who will be qualified for such a needed grant. We say this grant is for those persons who will fit into the eligibility criteria. Eligibility will be based on family income and size. We would advise all persons who feel as though their housing is not up to par, to contact the local Urban Renewal Office and inquire about your qualification.

Remember, the grant will only be made to bring owner-occupied housing units into conformance with applicable housing codes. It (grant) will be used to repair the effects of deterioration, and to make the unit decent, safe and sanitary.

A family will be eligible to receive a grant not to exceed the amount required to bring the unit into conformance with the standards adopted for the project. The cost involved may not exceed $4,500.

We would encourage all persons who reside in Lubbock, especially the Arnett-Benson, Manhattan Heights, Posey, Chris Harwell, Thunderbird, Coronado and Cherry Point additions, to see if you qualify.

We hope our readers know more about this residential rehabilitation program now.

In talking with some of the eighteen black principals, vice principals, head teachers and other administrators of the Lubbock Public Schools lately, some appear to be concerned about organizing an effort to help the public schools. There was one individual in particular who felt the idea wasn't any good. He didn't think that it was necessary to band together for the betterment of the Lubbock Public Schools.

From what I learned from this individual, the Lubbock Public School administration apparently calls upon him when important decisions are made concerning the schools in east Lubbock. Perhaps this individual thinks what he is doing is right and positive, but this writer would differ with him.

I can only hope that in the future not only this individual be contacted on important matters about our kids, but every black educator who can contribute something toward the welfare of all our young people, also be contacted. This can, without a doubt, lead to problems in times to come, if this procedure is continued.

U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen has received support from ten Senators for his effort to persuade Amtrak to establish a daily Atlanta-Los Angeles route through the country. This route, according to the Senator, would serve seven Texas cities, with Lubbock included. This would be a great thing for Lubbock and other cities.

As Senator Bentsen said in his report, "There is presently no east-west passenger service linking the vast area between Atlanta and Albuquerque." His idea would correct this situation by providing a means of transportation for citizens of this area.

At the present time, citizens in eastern New Mexico, northern Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia are being deprived the convenience of an alternative and less expensive way of transportation.

The Senator said the proposed route amply meets criterion set by Amtrak in establishing new, experimental railroad service each year. This writer believes as Senator Bentsen that this route would experience a healthy patronage, especially by Texans. Lubbock, Marshall, Longview, Dallas, Fort Worth, Abilene, and Sweetwater are among the Texas cities that would be served.

Did you know that there were 2,509 cases of child abuse in Texas during 1973? Or did you know that there were 135 cases of sexual abuse that were also verified in Texas during 1973? Also did you know that 104 Texas children died from batterings in 1973?

This information was made available by the Texas Community Improvement program.

Ralph Carpenter, Sports Information Director (SID) for the Texas Tech Red Raiders, runs a real good press box. Carpenter and company keeps everything in tip-top condition and those persons visiting the press box during every home game of the Red Raiders speak highly of his effort.

The recent announcement that the interest ceiling on government backed home loans by the Federal Housing Administration and Veterans Administration will be hiked to nine per cent (9%) is very bad news for millions of Americans.

As I See It, it signifies that the return to more reasonable rates in the field of interest was disappointingly short lived. Private loan institutions will follow the federal

MANSON, NEO-NAZI GROUP LINKED by Jack Anderson with Joe Spear (From United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Washington—The recent attempt to assassinate President Ford has thrown the spotlight on a secret prison society called the "Aryan Brotherhood," an all white cult of 200 California prison inmates.

Investigators believe that the "Brotherhood" was used to pass messages from convicted mass murderer Charles Manson to Lynette "Squeaky" Fromme, the Manson disciple who pointed a loaded .45 caliber pistol at Ford.

Our sources emphasize that there is no hard evidence of a Brotherhood-Manson-Fromme conspiracy to kill the President. Nevertheless, an official investigation of the Aryan Brotherhood has been launched.

At this point, little is known about the mysterious organization, which seems to espouse a nebulous, neo-Nazi philosophy. California prison authorities describe the group as "dedicated largely to racism but also involved in hoodlum activities, including murder contracts."

The Aryan Brotherhood, officials believe, has been responsible for at least a dozen murders behind California prison walls.

Charles Manson's association with the Brotherhood puzzles penal authorities.

They share much the same philosophy. Manson publicly proclaims his love for blacks but privately derides them as "niggers." He has also expressed admiration for Adolf Hitler who, Manson once said, "had the best answer to everything."

For a while, apparently, the group protected Manson from other inmates. In return, he instructed the girls in his "family" to provide sexual favors to Brotherhood members who were released.

Now, however, Manson is said to fear the Brotherhood wants to kill him. "As near as we can understand," a San Quentin official told us, "he's on the outs with them now. The Aryan Brotherhood could be trying to squeeze Manson out of the picture and take over his family."

According to our sources, members of the Aryan Brotherhood have been visiting "Squeaky" Fromme upon their release from prison. She, in turn, has been trying to use them to contact Manson.

These are the pieces of the puzzle authorities have assembled so far. It remains to be seen whether the final picture will depict a conspiracy to kill the President.

Aid Fray: Concerned American Jews have cautioned Israeli officials to soft-pedal their requests for U.S. aid. Too much pressure, the Jewish advisers fear, could create a backlash.

Americans may start questioning, for example, why they should send Israel more than $3 billion but refuse to save

STAR-SPANGLED HISTORY

HISTORICAL DRAWINGS BY JOSEPH BOGGS BEALE (1841-1926)

"SYMBOL OF FREEDOM"

The American flag, with its triumphant heraldry of stars and stripes symbolizing unity and growth, appears repeatedly throughout the works of Joseph Boggs Beale, the nineteenth century illustrator. The eagle represents the power and strength that has made our country the great nation it is today. Writers and artists of Beale's day saw the American past as an exciting and splendid adventure of individuals fighting courageously for freedom. These values, and the individuals who fought for them, are present in the images featured in the "Star-Spangled History" series. lead and hike their rates.

Actually, rates never approached their former lows in the past year. Nine per cent, which is the new ceiling, is a far cry from the 4 1/2 per cent F.H.A. loans carried for so long and fifty per cent above the six per cent lot long ago in effect.

The all-time interest ceiling high was 9 1/2 per cent, though by March the rate had dropped to 8. Thus federal backed home loan rates are nearing their record 1974 highs again, which is certain to handicap the home building industry.

As I See It, it will be a tough situation in months to come for home buyers.

New York City from economic collapse.

Or they may ask why they should pay for the oil that Israel buys from Iran at the same time that their own gas prices are going up.

Secretary of State Henry Kissinger has suggested softly on Capitol Hill, meanwhile, that Congress cannot grant billions in military aid to Israel and turn down the request of Jordan's King Hussein, a staunch American friend, for a Hawk missile anti-aircraft system.

Egypt's President Sadat has also become pro-American. And he has quietly sounded out Kissinger for $250 million in economic aid and favorable terms for the purchase of up to $1 billion in arms. Sadat is eager, for example, to refit his Soviet made air force for American made parts.

It looks as if the next Arab-Israeli showdown may occur on Capitol Hill.

Economic Sabotage: The economic recovery of the industrial West could be sabotaged by another disastrous oil price increase.

We have checked the secret intelligence reports, therefore, to find out whether an increase is likely. We have also spoken to several leading Arab oilmen.

All the oil producing countries, except Saudi Arabia, are pressing for a price hike. The Saudis alone are trying to delay the increase, at least until the end of the year.

Seven of the oil countries, led by Algeria and Kuwait, want a drastic increase of $2 per barrel on October 1. They contend that a $2 adjustment is necessary to keep up with inflation. The Shah of Iran, meanwhile, has already called for a hefty price boost.

Some of the oil countries would accept a more moderate, $1-per-barrel increase. But there is no chance, according to our sources, that the disagreement will break up in the oil cartel. Their united stand has brought them fabulous profits. So they are expected to reach a compromise. Most likely, they will raise prices at least $1 per barrel on October 1.

This will mean higher gas prices and a slower economic recovery.

Puddle Factory: Several years ago, we coined the phrase "Puddle Factory" as a synonym for the federal bureaucracy. As time passes, the term grows more appropriate. To wit:

—On May 6, 1975, President Ford called on "all federal civilian and military personnel" to economize. At the Agriculture Department, Secretary Earl Butz passed on the Presidential plea with a cover memo of his own. All his employees, he said, were expected "to reduce Government costs." Six days later, the Department's Farmer Cooperative Service distributed another memo. "The balloting is over, the votes have been counted," it stated, "and all necessary clearances have been obtained—we will install Muzak and give it a try."

—Several weeks ago, the Department of Transportation gave the state of California half a million dollars to study motorcycle safety. Four days later, another Transportation office started proceedings to block all federal funds to California. The reason: the state has no law requiring motorcycle riders to wear helmets.

Services Held for Former Lubbockite, Mrs. Clardell Stinnett in California

Final rites were conducted Tuesday, September 9, 1975, at 2 p.m. at the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Riverside, California, for Mrs. Clardell White Stinnett, with Elder Norman Snipes, officiating. Burial was in Perris Valley Cemetery, Perris, California.

Mrs. Stinnett came with her family to Lubbock in 1921 from Eagle Lake, Texas, a small community near Houston, while she was still quite young. Later years, she was married to Celester Cruise and the union was blessed with a son, "C.C.", who has preceded her in death; and a daughter, Adelle.

That marriage dissolved and she later was married to Beverly Stinnett and more than twenty years here, she moved to California where she made her home until her death.

She was born July 5, 1906 and was converted and became a member of the Mount Gilead Baptist Church. After moving to California, she became a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church and was a faithful member until her death, Friday, Sept. 5, at Riverside California after a lengthy illness.

Survivors include her husband, Beverly Stinnett of the home; a daughter, Adelle Cruise; a stepdaughter, Margidelle Stinnett of Los Angeles, California; two sisters, Mrs. Oma McQuinney and Mrs. Norma "Baby" Austin, both of Lubbock; four grandchildren of Los Angeles, Calif.; two nieces of Lubbock, Mrs. Nell Ruth Harvey and Mrs. Ernestine Harris; and other relatives and many long time friends here.

Evans-Brown Mortuaries were in charge of arrangements and burial.

Her sisters and a niece returned last Thursday after attending the services there. They made the trip via Continental Air Lines.

NAACP Expresses Appreciation to the Public—Announces Membership Drive

The local chapter of the NAACP wishes to thank its many friends and members for their contributions to the Miss Black Teenage Pageant and the Freedom Fund Banquet.

The net amount raised from both affairs was $1,476.28, of which half had to be sent to the national office and half retained locally. The local share was $738.14, of which half was placed in legal fund and the other half in general fund.

The membership drive has been kicked off with Mayor Roy Bass issuing a membership drive proclamation to Miss Maxine McCormick and Mrs. Pansy R. Burtis for September 1 through December 31st.

12, at Gila Bend, Arizona. Mrs. Lewis and a cousin, Mrs. Marie Embry, left Monday via Continental flight for Phoenix, Arizona where they were met.

Besides Mrs. Lewis, survivors include two other sisters, Mrs. Lela Alexander and Mrs. Minnie Derrough, both of Portland, Oregon; two cousins, Mrs. Justine Morton and Mrs. Marie Embry, both of Lubbock; and other relatives.

The time of the services had not been announced at this report.

Celebrates Birthday

Sunday, September 14, Mrs. Nellie Fuller was special guest of her three sisters, Mme. Lucreasia Lester, Bertha Cowin and Leaner Goldetien, honoring her birthday, which was Monday, September 15. Mrs. Fuller, now a resident of Cleburne, Texas, is here sharing the care of her sister, who has been ill several months. She is one who never denies her age. Says Nellie, "I'm happy the Lord has blessed me with these useful years." She was born in 1902, and is the granddaughter of the late Mother Maria King, who lived almost a century. She received several useful and practical gifts for which she is grateful.

Sharing the fete, and visiting her aunt Leaner, was Mrs. Shirley Robinson of Cleveland, Ohio, who is a niece of Mr. Bill Goldstien, and a former resident of Lubbock, and a student of Dunbar High school. Her presence is very welcomed. So was Mrs. Fuller. A very delicious meal was served.

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS (S.J.R. NO. 11)

SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1975

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the separation of powers, legislative and executive provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article II, Separation of Powers, is amended to:

Provide that the powers of government of the State of Texas are divided among three distinct branches: legislative, executive, and judicial. Except as otherwise authorized by the constitution, members of one branch may not exercise any power properly attached to either of the others.

Article III, The Legislature, is amended to:

Continue the present structure of the legislature consisting of a senate with 31 members and a house of representatives with 150 members. The present organization and procedure of the legislature are continued except that the provision allowing closed executive sessions of the senate is omitted. Provisions on the conflict of interest of members of the legislature are continued, as is the governor's power to veto bills or line items in appropriation bills. The article provides for single-member senatorial, representative, and congressional districts. A compensation commission is created to recommend the compensation and allowances to be received by members of the legislature. The legislative compensation, set by law, may not exceed this recommendation and does not take effect until after an intervening general election. The article provides for annual sessions of 140 days in odd-numbered years and 90 days in even-numbered years, and a veto session of 15 days upon request of three-fifths of the membership of each house. The legislature may meet in organizational sessions prior to the convening of the legislature in regular sessions.

Article IV, The Executive, is amended to:

Continue the present status of the governor and all other statewide officers, and include the commissioner of agriculture as an executive department officer. The governor is limited to two consecutive terms. The governor is authorized to designate chairmen of state boards, and to remove gubernatorial appointees to state agencies for cause unless the removal is vetoed by the senate. The article mandates the legislature to provide a new governor-elect an appropriation so the governor-elect may organize an office prior to inauguration, and permits the legislature to grant powers of fiscal control to the governor. All governmental agencies, with several exceptions, have a life of not more than ten years unless extended by the legislature, and, at the regular session held in odd-numbered years, the governor shall submit to the legislature a report on the organization and efficiency of the executive branch.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the SEPARATION OF POWERS, LEGISLATIVE, AND EXECUTIVE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1976, except Article III, Section 5, which becomes effective January 1, 1981.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the judiciary provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article V, The Judiciary is amended to:

Establish a unified judicial system consisting of the supreme court, court of appeals, district courts, and circuit courts. Existing county courts and county judges are continued until otherwise provided by law. All judges (except municipal judges), district attorneys and district clerks must be elected by the people. The supreme court and the court of criminal appeals are merged into a single court of last resort, and this supreme court is authorized to provide for efficient administration of the judicial system and to balance case loads. Individual rights for a trial by jury and appeal by the accused are continued. The state is granted the right to appeal in criminal cases in limited circumstances, and the legislature is permitted to establish methods of appeal to the courts from decisions of state agencies.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the JUDICIARY PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the voting and election provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections, is amended to:

Provide for registration and qualifications for voting including voter residency requirements to be established by law. A citizen of the United States who is at least 18 years of age and who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified voter unless the person has been convicted of a felony and for that felony is incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, or unless the person is mentally incompetent as determined by a court. Voting by the people in all elections must be by secret ballot, and the legislature shall provide by law for residence, registration, and absentee voting requirements, for the administration of elections, and for the protection of the electoral process. The general election for state and county officers is to be held in even-numbered years on a date prescribed by law.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the VOTING AND ELECTION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the education provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VII, Education, is amended to:

Provide that the Permanent and Available School Funds and the county public school funds are continued for the support of the free public schools. The State Board of Education is retained and the Permanent and Available University Funds are continued for the benefit of The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. A new Higher Education Fund for Texas is established for the benefit of colleges and universities outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. The state ad valorem tax of ten cents on $100 valuation is continued as the source of revenue for the Fund. The ten cent higher education tax may be changed by law within the ten cent maximum. The legislature may allocate by law a portion of the Higher Education Fund to certain state vocational and technical institutes. The article provides that the public education system must furnish each individual an equal educational opportunity, but a school district may provide local enrichment of educational programs exceeding the level provided by the state consistent with general law. Authority to issue Permanent University Bonds is continued but the bonds may not exceed 30% of the Permanent University Fund.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the EDUCATION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976, except Article VII, Section 9, which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the finance provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VIII, Finance, is amended to:

Provide that state taxes may be levied and collected only by general law and to prohibit any state ad valorem tax on real property or tangible personal property except the ten cent tax provided for in Article VII and a tax of two cents on the $100 assessed valuation to provide funds for the State Building Fund. Provides that all real property and tangible personal property must be taxed equally and uniformly in proportion to

Reese to Sponsor Public Open House September 24th

Colonel Edward Mendel, Commander of Reese Air Force Base's 64th Flying Training Wing has announced that the base will sponsor a public open house on Wednesday, September 24 between the hours of 1:00 and 6:30 p.m. The event will honor the 26th Anniversary of Reese's continuous active service as an Air Force Base and the designation of the Air Force as a separate service on September 18, 1947.

The featured attraction of the day's activities will be the first local appearance of "The Thunderbirds," the U.S. Air Force's Official Aerial Demonstration Team flying the T-38 Talon, the same aircraft flown by student pilots at Reese in the later stages of their year-long Undergraduate Pilot Training program.

Some of the Air Force's latest high performance aircraft will be on display for public inspection along the flightline. They will be flown to Reese from other Air Force Bases throughout the country for the static display. Among these aircraft are the F-111, the RF-4 Phantom, the O-2, the F-101 Voodoo and the A-37, a combat attack version of the T-37 "Tweety Bird", that Reese's student pilots fly.

The Lubbock SPARKS, a radio controlled model airplane club, will demonstrate their version of the Thunderbird's maneuvers and the HAMS, another club based at Reese will have some of their models on display.

THE THUNDERBIRD WEDGE—Seen from Thunderbird 6, the Wedge wings its way to one of one hundred showsites flown annually by the team. They will be the featured spotlight of the Reese open house to be held September 24th in Lubbock.

Many base facilities, including the 35th and 54th Flying Training Squadron's, will be open to visitors during the day. A collection of historical photos and other documents pertaining to Lubbock Army Air Field and South Plains Army Air Field will be on display in one of the hangers to honor the nation's Bicentennial celebration.

Lubbock Army Air Field (later to become known as Reese AFB) came into existence on June 23, 1941. The field was officially opened on January 22, 1942, and remained active throughout World War II until it was closed down on December 31, 1945.

The base was reactivated by the Air Force on October 5, 1949, and officially named Reese AFB on November 5, 1949, in memory of First Lieutenant Augustus F. Reese, a Shallowater, Texas native killed in combat in 1943. Reese has remained continuously active since 1949 and to date has graduated more than 20,000 pilots from its training program.

On September 18, 1947, the Air Force began functioning as the nation's primary air power source when W. Stuart Symington was sworn in as the first Secretary. Experience in global war convinced military leaders, as well as the American people and their Congress, that a separate organization should be established to specialize in air operations at all levels of warfare. A 1947 law setting up separate military departments for land, sea, and air operations was implemented to achieve peak combat effectiveness with greatest economy through specialization and unified control.

Reese Air Force Base is located six miles west of Lubbock, Texas, off Texas Highway 116 (The Lubbock-Levelland Highway).

"A BIG CATCH, BUT WE GOT EM"—Pictured above is an eleven pound channel catfish caught Saturday, September 6, 1975, in Borden County in a private lake by Mr. and Mrs. R.M. Nelson of Snyder, Texas. "This is the largest fish I've ever seen, not to mention catching it," says Mr. Nelson. He gives credit to his wife, Bertha, who had to assist in landing the fish because of reel trouble. The fish stripped the reel.

by Joe Kelly

Steve Sloan kicked off "his" era impressively, and to the complete satisfaction of a chilled, but enthusiastic, crowd Saturday night. His Red Raiders turned in a fine performance.

There was a lot to cheer, little to complain about, as the Raiders got the jump on Florida State and kept the upper hand. The offense was ahead of the defense, but the defense was able to come up with the big play at times and that helped.

Offensively, the Raider line looked good. The blocking was strong and the line was opening fine holes for the backs. The performance answered a lot of questions about the inexperience on the forward wall.

As for the backs, Sloan unleashed a bevy of good runners, with the resurgence of Rufus Myers, following an injury that slowed last year, most welcome. He ran hard once more.

Tommy Duniven got off to a fast start, much as he did last year, but Rodney Allison, after a slow start, caught fire and looked good, too. Tech apparently is in good shape there.

The passing wasn't as expected, but it was wet and Sloan said after the game that Tech probably threw less than any team he has had. "We averaged about 25 a game at Vanderbilt and about the same at Florida State. We'll work on that," he declared.

As for defense, Tech may not face an attack that is as hard to stop as the one the Seminoles used. It's made for the big play and Leon Bright is one of the better runners in the nation.

While FSU was able to eat up a lot of yardage, the Raiders did come up with the big play often enough to withstand the Seminoles. It wasn't an overpowering defense. Instead, it gave ground and then stopped the Seminoles enough to maintain control.

Pass defense was weaker than expected and Tech backs were burned too often Sloan agreed.

"We have some things to work on, and we will," he declared. "We'll work on pass defense, penalties, extra point attempts and our passing," he stated. "We've got to have the worst extra point team in the nation. I've never had a team that had that many penalties, either."

Sloan had praise for several players, like Ecomet Burley—"They double teamed him a lot, but we expect a lot of teams to do that"—and David Mellot—"his kickoffs were super. I never had anyone who could get it beyond the 10. I like to see that ball go into the end zone. You don't usually run them back."

And Duniven—"I don't think he missed any reads in the game. He's big and hard to tackle."—and Allison—"he did well, too. He and Duniven are two different type of guys."—and Pat Felux—"Never had a tight end who blocks like he does. He just knocks them clear out of the way"—and Harold Buell—"He played better in the game than he has in practice."

And so went the press conference. Sloan is the type of guy that everyone should meet and get to know. He has that infectious smile that starts slowly and then spreads and he has a droll sense of humor that had the writers laughing constantly.

In talking about Brian Hall, the extra point kicker with the artificial leg, Sloan said that he noticed that Hall appeared sleepy when the team boarded the bus.

"I figured he got up just in time to get on the bus," Steve said. "One of the players remarked that Hall's leg must have gotten up on the wrong side of the bed today!"

As for the Red Raider horse, Steve thought he was wonderful. "I was too nervous to really appreciate it, but he's something else. He almost took out a Florida State player, too. I think we're going to have to work on that. If we could get him to run sideways down there, he could wipe a whole bunch of players!"

He also praised the Saddle Tramps. "Never knew any group like them, anywhere," he disclaimed. "How long have they been in existence?"

Told that Arch Lamb had started the group about 1936, Steve remarked that "we ought to give him some kind of award. They're tremendous."

Sloan said that he was real nervous about this opening game. "I didn't recruit any of them and all I knew was what they did in practice. I didn't really know any of their parents. I didn't know what they'd do in a game."

"I tell you, I was nervous today. I went to the bathroom a lot!" Asked if it was a practice to stand to the side of the players on the sidelines, down on the end, Steve replied that: "I have to signal and it's a little hard to be seen in the crowd. Usually I don't get away from the crowd, though. It's too easy to be caught by the alumni!"

The Steve Sloan Age has arrived and, from all indications, it's in for a long, healthy and successful stand. For a change, press conferences are going to be interesting.

The Roundup—Donnie Moore, former Monterey pitcher, wound up with a 14-8 record at Midland. He was a key play-off game winner that made Midland a co-champion and already has joined the parent Cubs . . . The pressbox has a new look at Tech. It's carpeted in red, is quieter and also warmer. Probably paid for by Peach Bowl game profits! . . . Also, Ralph Carpenter has changed the pre-game menu and it's a winner, too . . . Sloan was talking at the press conference when Putt Powell of Amarillo broke in. "What?" Steve asked. "Pardon me, coach," Putt replied. "Aw, that's all right, I was just mumbling!" Steve said . . . Two weeks ago Baltimore was "dead" in the American League East race. Now the Orioles are pressing. The big question is whether disaster can strike the Red Sox again . . . And Catfish Hunter, after a dismal start, became the first pitcher to win 22 games. He's got to be something else.

Scout's Annual Fall Membership Drive

Boys in this area are being invited to join Scout troops or Cub Packs as a part of the annual fall membership program of the South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The name of the program this year is "The President's Round Up for Scouting."

Directing the membership program is John Herzer, Council Chairman for the President's Roundup.

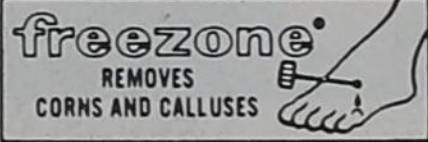

The Cub Scout program is a family centered program for boys who have completed the second grade or who will be 8 through 10 years of age. They meet weekly as a den under the supervision of a den leader. Monthly, all the dens come together for a pack meeting led by a Cubmaster. Boys start as Bobcats and through achievements earn Wolf, Bear, and Arrow of Light awards.

The Scout program is for boys who have completed the fifth grade or who are 11 through 17 years of age. It is designed to develop character, mental and physical fitness, and citizenship training. The focus is on rounding out one's physical and mental fitness through a vigorous program of activities. Boys join patrols and elect their own patrol leader. They usually meet once a week as a troop under the guidance of a Scoutmaster. A boy joins as a Scout and can achieve Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, Life and Eagle progress awards.

Additional information about the Scout and Cub Scout programs is available from the South Plains Council service center, No. 30 Briercroft Office Park, P.O. Box 3055, Lubbock, Texas 79410 or phone area code 806, 747-2631.

Despite the loss to Coronado High School, the Dunbar Panthers provided a lot of action in this inter-city rival contest last Thursday evening at Lowery Field. The weather was rainy, but the Panthers showed their strong defense to the Mustangs. Coronado won the tilt 14-6. It was the first loss of the season for the Panthers.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I have heard of "Catfish" statements from other people, but I just witnessed my first one, and it came from a person who is supposed to know better. But what makes me so concerned is who made Mr. Tom Halliburton (A-J Sports Writer), the God of high school football?

In the A-J, Friday, Sept. 12th, 1975, Section E of the sports page E-1, column 7, 5th paragraph, he stated, and I quote, "But the Panthers never deserved to win this battle anyway", unquote. I would like to take this time out to ask if Dunbar or any other high school football team should consult him about who to play, when to play, or how to play, or anything about playing. I think Coach Jefferson is quite capable of the job that he has, and has no need to ask Mr. Halliburton anything at any time about the game of football.

According to Mr. Halliburton's description of the game, one would think that the scores would have been 96 to 0. But I think 14 to 6 is a real close game. Mudders or not! I hope in the future, he will stick to writing only the facts and in such a way as they are not biased. We love Dunbar, win or lose. We love Coach Jefferson, win or lose.

Thank you,
Respectfully,
Otis Cook, Jr.

Looking Back Over the Years

We Haven't Done Too Much in Black Politics, Says George Woods

by T.J. Patterson

(Editor's Note: This is part two of an interview with Mr. George Woods, a resident of Lubbock since 1928. He tells of his feelings about Urban Renewal and black candidates.)

Do you think urban renewal has been a benefit to east Lubbock?

As you know, people gave me a lot of criticism about the Urban Renewal program. I think it has been a great benefit to our community because it has helped the area. For example, right next to the area where Rev. A.L. Dunn's house is located, I had four small houses, and they were just above a good chicken house in those days. It was the best I could do with what money I was making in those days. I was most fortunate to get the houses at all. Now Rev. Dunn's house and all those other nice houses in the block look better because of Urban Renewal. That's why I feel it is more of a benefit. I sold those four houses to Urban Renewal, and I got about three times more than I gave for them. However, it wasn't quite enough to replace the houses at the time Urban Renewal came into the area.

What are some of the shortcomings of Urban Renewal?

Back in those days, one of them I think, was not to criticize Urban Renewal too much. When Urban Renewal first started, it acquired both the land and the house. Now, they are only buying the house off the land. That accounts for all the vacant lots in east Lubbock. I can use myself as an example. If I found out that I had to move because there was going to be a clearance for a shopping center, I would move also.

Do you think a shopping center will ever be built by blacks in east Lubbock?

I doubt if a shopping center will be built by black people in the near future. I think the day is coming, but it's got to do better. I don't look for one in the near future.

What about the shopping center proposed by Rev. A.L. Davis?

There's a good possibility with what he is attempting to do for the city. He'll have to get the people to lease before he'll be able to accomplish his goal. This has to be done before he can get anyone to come in to do anything about it. He's worked on it real hard to make it go.

Is it true that no one else can build in that area, except Rev. Davis?

It is true, and there are some limitations for this reason. The Rev. Mr. Davis, has that property. He told me the last time I talked with him that he would let half of that land go if someone wanted to come in and develop it. Another thing, we don't have enough small commercial land here in the eastern area of Lubbock. There is a state law and a city law that I can't build over a fifty foot lot. Economically, it will be hard to develop a shopping center in east Lubbock, because of the various overhead before even getting started. It will be hard to do, but I wish it could be done. I've even talked to young fellows in our community about trying to buy some of the land by Bethel A.M.E. Church. But after they find out about all this paving and what it's going to cost, they back down.

This land (near Bethel A.M.E. Church) sells for 20 cents a square foot.

How have we come along in black politics in Lubbock?

We haven't done too much in politics. I don't want people to think I'm criticizing them, because I'm black and I've been black all my life and I will continue to be black. We have not done our part, because we've got a selfish motive. We are slowly making progress. Why I say this is because we will sooner or later have a black person on the city council of Lubbock. I don't think he can be elected by black people, unless it's in a ward system, but I may be wrong.

Do you agree with the ward system?

That's the only way I think we're going to get black representation. I don't think a person should run for office because he's black. I wouldn't vote for him myself for that reason. But if I thought he would work for the community and the entire city, I'd vote ten times for him.

Do you see any potential black candidates in east Lubbock that could become city councilman?

Yes. One of them I thought of is you, Mr. Patterson. I have also thought of Alfred Caviel, although he will not accept, I know. I don't know what you would do about it. I have my reasons for saying what I'm saying. Both of these fellows, I have noticed in particular, over the years. I know more about you than Al Caviel, because I've been around you more. I believe your mind is set enough to work with the people. Sometimes, however, the harder you work with people, the more criticism you get. You can always overcome criticism. Those are two of the fellows I feel would do a good job for Lubbock. There is one more, Dr. R.A. Pillow, III, who would do a good job. He will not accept it however. So those are three people I would say have the potential to serve on the city council. In fact, I have talked with people concerning them.

How long have you been with the Men's Civic Club?

I have been with that organization about 31 years, longer than I have any other organization.

What are some of the great things the Men's Civic Club has done?

When the club was organized, it was founded to help make Lubbock a better place in which to live. As you know, it's about thirty-one years old. There hasn't been too much done along that line. When the day nursery was first opened over here, we were the cause of it. My brother and sister-in-law (Mr. and Mrs. Eli Woods) had a store down there. That's where Carver Heights Nursery first started, over there on Elm Avenue. We helped organize that nursery. I was on the board of directors. Other members on the board were Dr. C.H. Lyons, Dr. J.A. Chatman, John Fair and others who had been around and were responsible for helping make the nursery go. When we were not able to maintain the nursery as we were supposed to do, we worked real hard to become funded by the Community Chest, now called the United Way. That's what really got our feet off the ground. I think the nursery plays a great part in helping working people. The Men's Civic Club started out behind this organization and stayed with it. It was our first success.

ringing the bell

with Bob Tieuel

The Black Experience: "Muckraking" is a word that has lost its original meaning since Sam McClure's day. How many of you bellringers remember McClure's magazine? If so, you are an old timer. Muckraking has fallen into disrepute as signifying a somehow dishonorable exploration of shady practices that ought better to be left uncovered, as some people regard the Watergate exposures. And we should remember that it was a black security guard who discovered Watergate.

John Tebbel, in his revealing new book "The Media in America", states Muckraking carries today the connotation of political attack. In McClure's day (around 1900) it was the "New Journalism" hailed and discussed in much the same terms as today.

The Muckrakers savagely exposed grafting politicians, criminal police, tenement eyesores. They openly attacked the church. They defended labor in disputes which in no way concerned them personally, decried child exploitation, wrote pro-suffragist articles, and described great businesses as "without soul" and anti-social.

"Today, by contrast, the new literature of exposure has to fight a vast public apathy, an unwillingness even to think about anything unpleasant, especially when establishment values are attacked. The newspapers whose enterprise makes them bearers of bad news are attacked and, ironically, the magazine and book writers whose fact is often fiction are more believed. Television commentators who are prime and trusted sources of news are disbelieved when they say something viewers don't want to hear", writes John Tebbel.

In conclusion he sums up modern newspaper publishing this way: "Editors know it is impossible to satisfy everyone's demands as to what the newspaper should or should not print, and they know that no matter what they print on any subject, however it is treated, there will be someone who doesn't like it, who believes it to be inaccurate or unfair. Not all newspapers make the same effort to be fair and accurate of course. Others try with varying degrees of zeal, and there are some that make little or no effort, but they are the minority. The media ought to pay less attention to their critics, few of who are worth listening to, and more to improving their products in terms of thoroughness, readability, and accuracy. If not, there is little question but that the United States, the last real stronghold of press freedom, will slip into some kind of authoritarian control before the century is ended." end of quote.

The black newspapers of America and the leading fraternities and sororities, recently joined in a unified commitment for the uplift and advancement of the black community, according to Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett, president of the National Newspaper Publishers Association.

There are some 500,000 members of these black-oriented organizations with most of them having chapters or members throughout West Texas and New Mexico. The Omegas offer scholarships each year and the Zetas sponsor "Stork's Nest", a project which gives assistance to needy expectant mothers. The Alphas push career development programs, while the Deltas conduct job fairs and other vital economic programs. The Kappas promote leadership training for teenagers and the Sigmas have their 'Sigmas Attack on Drugs and Defects' which it conducts in cooperation with the National Foundation for the March of Dimes. The AKA's have a variety of educational and economic programs while Sigma Gamma Rho has special programs in health and housing.

Chimes: Mary Harshbarger, president of Boley, Okla. Chamber of Commerce, writes that Police Chief Wilson's special TV show "Travels With Flip" will air on the CBS network Oct. 13, 1975 from 7 to 8 p.m. Hear tell, yours truly will be featured in the cast. Mark your calendar.

Looking Back . . .

What are some other things the club has done?

We once bought some furniture, but I won't call the name of the school we bought that furniture for. We were doing more things then than we are now. There are so many other funding agencies now. We enjoyed helping our community. I remember one time Charles Sedberry brought a boy to the hospital who was blind. We gave money for him to go to school. In other words, we just wanted to help. We were giving a pretty large donation to the Goodfellows, but there was some indifference about that. Now we give only to the United Way, Red Cross and some other local organizations.

What about the beauty contest and picnic each year?

Yes, this was a success. You know, it's funny how people like the social aspect more than the civic effort. There was a reason for us taking that social part out of our name. I wouldn't say it was a big secret. We are a non-profit, charitable organization, and consequently if we were going to remain non-profit and charitable, we had to remove the word social from our name. You know, we get a little money here and there. We give some away and we keep some for operation.

Don't you think the time is better now for the Men's Civic Club to do more?

Oh, yes, time is better now for us to do some things. But when you just got a volume of so many personalities to deal, sometimes it's a little confusing to do. The organization could do a whole lot more than it's presently doing. I enjoy meeting with the fellows; if I didn't, I wouldn't have been meeting for some 31 years. I like the fellows that are in the club; I like to socialize with those fellows. We have wonderful times together. I enjoy communicating with them. I served as president for thirty years, and enjoyed every moment of it. Once upon a time, we did much more than we are doing now. I can remember several people we got on welfare when it wasn't a popular program like it is today. We had a pretty hard time. I remember two cases where one of the ladies involved had seven kids. They (welfare people) wanted to know if she had any living relatives anywhere in the country that was making a living and could help this lady. The Men's Civic Club is the oldest black organization in Lubbock. Of course, there could be some more I don't know about.

What kind of relationship did blacks have with whites over the years?

I would say that it kind of debates among itself. It has been kind of good. Of course, it has been bad in some areas.

What were some of the bad points?

Some of the bad points were it didn't matter what kind of skill you had, or how much school you had, you couldn't get hired in Lubbock. I can use myself as an example. I worked for a local doctor and it was an excellent job. I could do pretty well in grinding eye glasses. There was another doctor, who is still here, who advised me to go to Tennessee and go to school. I really wanted to go, but the fellow I was working for was a pretty good friend and he told me if I went, I'd have to get a job outside the city of Lubbock. I asked him why, and he said if I worked for him it would be alright, but the rest of the doctors wouldn't hire me. Today, the young black fellow has some great advantages if he would take advantage of them. Things have changed. Places you couldn't go in the front door then, now you can. You can also get a good job if you are prepared for it.

Looking back over the years, who were some of the greatest contributors in the political arena?

I would say one of them that did a lot for Lubbock in my thinking, was Mayor Merrell Tripp. He did a good job for Lubbock. He was among the best, but of course, there are others who did a pretty good job. He was more agreeable with the black people in those days. He went as far as to invite black fellows to come to his installation of office as mayor. Of course, that was just one little thing, and didn't amount to much. But he did that! All the time, unless you saw it in the paper, you never knew these kinds of things happened. I remember when the ABC Club first started, he gave us (blacks) a lot of recognition. Several times, our club made pretty good donations because of this.

What about black who contributed over the years?

Well, they (blacks) have done fair. I will include myself in that group, because we haven't done what we could have. Dr. J.A. Chatman made some good contributions to Lubbock. He did that both by word of mouth and his finances. Uncle John Fair and old man Sedberry also made some good contributions to Lubbock.

Mr. Woods, if you had to leave something for young people, what would it be?

The first thing I would ask the young people to do is to have self-respect. The next thing is to get an education. Those are two of the main things they need to take under consideration. Then I would like to ask of them, perhaps this should have come first, to make contributions of their time and services to the churches of our city and the world. Working in the church plays a great part in their life. Usually the young person who goes to church and puts himself into it is less likely to end up in trouble.

Do you think our kids are bad today?

No, it's just a different time. They are not as bad as the kids were in those days. You know as you grow older, you'll see it in a different way. You know sometimes you'll criticize a person for doing the same things you did as a kid. Because you grew out of that stage, you look way back down the mountain and it looks like he is straying so far away from what you think you are. I remember in the past that if you had a boy who was bad about cussing or using bad words, everyone knew he was a bad talker. Everyone criticized him. Of course, today, cussing is so common that we don't pay too much attention to it. If a kid doesn't have respect for himself or those he comes in contact with, the elderly people or the senior citizen, he'll hurt himself one day. All kids have good qualities. As adults, we shouldn't forget that!

Senior Citizens Meet Recently

Members of the East Lubbock Senior Citizens Association opened their meeting last Tuesday morning at 9:45 a.m. at the Weber Drive Community Center with President M. Bailey presiding. Various committee chairpersons made their reports.

The membership chairperson made her report with three more members added to the roll. Those new members are Mrs. Lizzie Reed, Mrs. Roberta H. Bascus and Mrs. Mary Clark. President Bailey said, "There is always room for plenty more to join our association, regardless of race, creed or color." She continued, "We want the senior citizens of Lubbock to know they can help make others happy."

The ways and means chairperson is getting ready to take your Thanksgiving and Christmas orders for cakes, pies and candies. Our association will also bake your turkeys and dressing. All you need to do is call either Sug Johnson, Ella Swisher, Elnora Coleman or Oma McQuinney.

Beard Chapel C.M.E. Church

Plainview—The Trustee Board met last week and announced that plans are almost complete for moving the edifice that will house our new church at our new location. Our thanks to Rev. Carlton H. Thomson, district superintendent, First United Methodist Church, Rev. R.L. Kirk, pastor and others we will mention later, for helping us realize the dream of so many years. Our thanks too, to a loyal and devoted member, Bro. S. Sanford for giving us a place to worship these many months.

Bob Tieucl, Jr., is pastor in charge. Paul Martin, Jr., chairman and Mildred Alexander, secretary.

Triumph Baptist Church

Slaton—If you don't have a church home, feel free to worship with us.

The morning service was opened with "What A Fellowship", with devotion being led by Bro. Robertson and Bro. Johnson. The Junior Choir followed with two songs and the Youth Choir two.

"I Need Thee Every Hour" was being sung as Rev. Brown read the 23rd Psalms. "The Lord's Table" was the topic of his sermon. The Senior Choir followed with "I've Come Too Far To Turn Around."

A queen contest program will be given Sunday, Sept. 21. Sis. Mozell Evans is the sponsor.

The Triumph Baptist Church is located at 1255 E. Geneva in Slaton. Rev. Mitchell A. Brown is pastor.

Mount Olive Baptist Church

Snyder—Sunday School was opened with Sis. Rosie N. Walker presiding. High points were given by Sis. Paula White and Bro. Brandon. Enjoyed by all.

The pastor delivered the message. His subject was "Born To Die". Scripture reading, Matt. 12:20-28.

Music was provided by the Junior and Senior Choirs. Sis. Johnson assisting at the organ. Both the message and music was very uplifting.

Visitors were Ray Person, Ricky Greathouse, Larry Butler, Darryl Smith, Mildred Maxwell, Rose Mary Scott, Angelita Thompson and Margie Thompson.

Bethel A.M.E. Church

Services were well attended last Sunday morning despite the rainy weather Lubbock has been experiencing the past few days. Our newest minister, Andrew Ross, who was given his license to preach last week in the First Annual Conference by Presiding Elder Leon McNeil, delivered the morning message. Young Ross addressed his sermon to the young people of the church as well as the adults. "We've all got to live like Christians and just not talk it," said the young minister.

Senior Choir Number One was responsible for the music of the hour. Mrs. L.C. Struggs was at the organ for the morning services.

One of the faithful members who attends prayer meeting each Wednesday evening, Mrs. Sarah Crawford, invites members and friends of Bethel to have prayer with them each Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Senior Choir Number One will have a musical the first Sunday in October. This special effort will feature Mrs. Maunita Terrell and members of Senior Choir Number Two. More information about this program will be given later.

Senior Choir Number Two will appear on "What's Going On?" over KCBD-TV, Channel 11, Saturday afternoon, September 27, at 12:30 p.m. The choir will sing two numbers.

Let us wish the following members a happy birthday this week. They are Octovia Cade, Walter Gates McCormick, Mrs. R. Johnson and Miss Olive Crawford.

Let us continue to pray for and visit our sick and shut in members.

Mount Vernon United Methodist Church

Services were well attended last Sunday morning as Mrs. Emmlean Chatman delivered the message of the morning. Last Sunday was Youth Sunday.
