

War Probe Report Drafted; May Leaves For Kentucky

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (AP)—Senate war investigators—still busy pursuing new leads—put the finishing touches today on what originally had been intended as a final report.

Meanwhile members indicated renewed interest in when they might be able to question Rep. May (D-Ky.), who left his sickbed here unexpectedly last week for a rest at his Prestontown home.

Chairman Mead (D-NY) said a comprehensive resume of the committee's work to date would be forthcoming shortly, to be followed by several others.

He told reporters the current report once was to have concluded the committee's work, but that recent developments pointed to many yet to come.

The newest proposal for the committee's consideration was a request by Senator Taylor (D-Ida) that it inquire into what Taylor termed "deprivations on the national treasury" by the nation's railroads in the form of "excessive freight rates paid by the armed services."

Taylor called on the bureau of budget to institute prompt steps through the department of justice for recovery of "overcharges."

In writing Mead, Taylor called particular attention to the "late committee" of the army transportation corps, which he said was composed largely of officials of the carriers who were in uniform during the war and who negotiated rates "with their former and future employers."

Mead told reporters he expects to hear Friday from May's physician as to when the chairman of the house military committee will be able to submit to questioning a family spokesman at Prestontown described May as "quite ill."

The Kentucky lawmaker is under subpoena by the senate committee to tell under oath of his wartime activities in behalf of the so-called Garsson munitions combine.

Pottery Plant, Drouth Study Talked At Meet

Two important matters were placed in the hands of committees for study and action at the regular meeting of the chamber of commerce directors Monday noon at the Settles.

The industrial committee was charged with further investigation of ascertaining if either or both a pottery or brick and tile plant could be had locally. This action followed a report on the subject by the president, Joe Pickle, who, with Manager J. H. Greene, contacted F. K. Pence, head of the department of ceramic engineering, in Austin last week.

In view of acute drouth conditions, the agriculture committee was instructed to make a thorough analysis of the feed situation with the view of recommending a course of action necessary to insure a feed supply for farmers, ranchers, dairymen and poultry raisers in this area.

Location of a CAA district office here entails the finding of five houses or apartments for personnel, said B. J. McDaniel. All federal airport funds for this area under a seven-year program will be handled through this office.

McDaniel said it was possible that the buildings at the army camp would be delivered to FPHA this week and in turn made available to the city.

Elmo Wasson reported on successful booster trips for the rodeo and Lewis Price said the ABC club had made good progress on decorations for the rodeo.

Plans are in the making for a joint celebration between Howard and Glasscock county officials and people marking the opening of the Big Spring-Garden City road. The president said a personal invitation to participate had been extended to the highway commission and state highway engineer.

Greene touched on highlights of the recent Southwestern Institute for chamber of commerce managers, pointing to responsibilities of the chamber in various fields of community development.

Wife-Slayer Returned To County Jail Here

Earl Hamilton Williams, confessed wife-slayer who has committed between the Howard county and Glasscock county jails several times since he was taken into custody July 7, made another change Sunday afternoon.

Glasscock officials decided to move him to Big Spring until his trial gets underway Sept. 3. He was brought here and placed in charge of Sheriff Bob Wolf.

Arson Investigated In Frisco Hotel Fire

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5 (AP)—Acting Fire Chief Martin Kearns said today there was evidence of attempted burglary and possibly arson in the second hotel fire here within a week.

The blaze Saturday started in a basement of a tavern, and flames spread to unoccupied rooms above the Pioneer House, a five-story building which has not been lived in since a fire swept through it a year ago.

Missouri Race Rates National Political Interest

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (AP)—Voters in six states mark primary election ballots tomorrow, but President Truman's if-he-right-I'm-wrong tag on Rep. Roger C. Slaughter pinpointed national attention on Missouri's fifth district.

Slaughter's renomination bid is a democratic contest, but the republicans tossed in a barb when GOP National Chairman Carroll Reece said at Salt Lake City last week that "the PAC, the Pendergast machine and the president" have combined in a "purge" attempt.

Mr. Truman announced his opposition to Slaughter at a news conference here last month in which he cited the Missouri democrat's opposition to administration measures.

This race has overshadowed in national interest the bid of another of Mr. Truman's friends, Senator Frank P. Briggs (D) for renomination in a four-way contest.

James P. Kem of Kansas City is seeking the republican senatorial nomination with party organization support.

Labor takes a front seat in the Virginia democratic primary the same day, where Senator Harry Byrd is seeking renomination for his third full term.

There is political firing in four other states tomorrow.

In Kansas prohibition has come back as an issue, propelled by efforts of former Gov. Harry H. Woodring to win the democratic governorship nomination on a state-store liquor sale platform.

Rep. Frank Carlson, house ways and means committee member, William L. White, an engineer, and H. W. Turner, a former section hand, are after the republican gubernatorial nomination.

In New Hampshire, Harry Carlson, former assistant to Secretary of Commerce Wallace, is seeking the democratic governorship nomination in a contest with F. Clyde Keefe.

The CIO-PAC is in the West Virginia democratic primary with an endorsement of Senator Harley M. Kilgore's bid for renomination. But the more powerful United Mine Workers organization there has declined to back either Kilgore or his opponent, J. Buhl Shahan.

The republican senatorial nomination is being sought by Thomas Sweeney and Claude R. Hill, a critic of the PAC.

Strafing Plane Down

BATAVIA, Java, Aug. 5 (AP)—Indonesian anti-aircraft gunners downed a strafing Dutch Mitchell plane during a native attack on the Semarang airfield, the Netherlands East Indies army said today. Six members of the crew were killed.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Aug. 5 (AP)—Marris S. Stacey, 30, of Lakeland, Fla., and a native of Luling, Tex., was killed in an airplane crash near Waynesboro, Ga., yesterday morning.

BRITISH CLAMOR FOR SALVAGE FROM CRIPPLED AMERICAN SHIP

LONDON, Aug. 5 (AP)—The derelict American freighter American Farmer limped toward England today under her own power and in escort of a US destroyer, with the British loudly claiming her as perhaps a 4,500,000 salvage prize.

A maritime legal battle was shaping up in the din of British newspaper headlines which complained American ships had taken over the collision-battered freighter after a midgeet British vessel had her in tow.

The 8,358-ton American Farmer and the freighter William J. Riddle collided 700 miles west of Lands End Wednesday. A passing ship took off the crew of 50 and six passengers and the British freighter Elizabeth of 2,039 tons came alongside, at-

No Tax Cutting During Inflation, Truman Warns

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (AP)—President Truman is still hopeful he can balance the federal budget for this fiscal year despite a big jump in unanticipated outlays, but he disagrees with some republicans that taxes can be cut again after next January.

In a new budget estimate placing both income and outgo well above January predictions but trimming earlier deficit forecasts from $4,500,000,000 to $1,900,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947, the president said:

"In view of action the congress has taken on price controls, I must repeat—with added emphasis—my recommendation of last January that no tax reduction be made until the inflationary situation has passed."

Rep. Knutson (Minn.), ranking republican on the house ways and means committee, declared last month that if his party wins control of the house in the November elections it would cut taxes by 20 percent. Knutson would become chairman of that tax-levying committee if the republicans organize the house.

Rep. Taber of New York, who would head the appropriations committee under a republican majority, has promised a balanced budget with a reduced tax rate if the republicans take over the house next January.

In his revised budget made public Saturday night, Mr. Truman estimated expenditures for this fiscal year at $41,500,000,000, a net increase of $5,500,000,000 over the January estimate, and receipts at $39,600,000,000, an increase of $8,100,000,000 compared with January.

Marines To Return Fire On Attackers

SHANGHAI, Aug. 5 (AP)—American Marines in North China are remaining there at their full current strength and "when we are attacked we are going to shoot back," Adm Charles M. Cooke, Jr., commander of the US Seventh Fleet, told a news conference today as he discussed the July 29 ambush of a Marine convoy near Peiping.

He identified the attackers, who killed four Marines, as Chinese communists. It was the first official identification of them.

In Nanking, the pro-government newspaper Ta Kang Pao said yesterday that "the hottest rumor here is that President Truman has instructed General Marshall to prepare plans for withdrawal of US forces from China" to avoid another such incident.

FORMER MAYOR COMPLAINS OF BILL

VICKSBURG, Miss., Aug. 5 (AP)—A new wrinkle in proceedings of the municipal gas office came today when a former mayor, or complainant to the present mayor about his gas bill, and above all things, that the bill was too low.

Said ex-Mayor J. C. Hamilton, in a letter to incumbent Mayor E. W. Haining: "My July bill was $1.61 and my August bill was $1.25. In view of the fact that we use gas for cooking and hot water heating, I feel sure there is something wrong somewhere. . . . Either my meter has slowed down and is not registering properly, or there is an error in reading and billing."

Peace Parley Tied Up On Procedure

PARIS, Aug. 5 (AP)—The United States and China today threw their support behind a British compromise proposal to solve the deadlock in the Paris peace conference on voting procedure.

The British plan would permit the conference to make recommendations to the foreign ministers of Britain, France, Russia and the United States on the five peace treaties either by a two-thirds or a simple majority vote.

Reorganization Law Expected To Cause Change

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—The law congress enacted to overhaul its machinery may have far-reaching effects on many legislative proposals.

This is true, sponsors of the measure said today, because of the large-scale consolidation and overhauling of the present committee structure.

"There is no doubt but that sweeping changes will be made often resulting in greatly different action than in the past," Rep. Monroney (D-Okla) commented.

An outstanding example cited by Monroney and other legislators concerns the future of measures dealing with national defense.

Previously, such bills were referred to the senate and house naval committees if they dealt with navy matters and to the military committees if they involved army problems.

In January, under the reorganization measure, these committees will be consolidated in each chamber. In each case, if seniority prevails as is expected and if the democrats retain control, the former navy chairmen will head the new committees.

Thus, Senator Walsh (D-Mass) is due to take over chairmanship of the new senate committee on the armed forces, rather than Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah). And in the house Rep. Carl Vinson (D-Ga) will head a similar group, rather than Rep. May (D-Ky).

Funeral Pending For Mrs. Vaughn

Funeral arrangements still were pending today for Mrs. Addie Bell Vaughn, who died Saturday as a result of injuries received when she was struck by an automobile on West Third street.

Several sons and daughters, who live away from Big Spring, had not arrived today, and definite time for last rites will not be set until it is learned when they will reach Big Spring, relatives said.

The body is lying in state at the Eberley funeral home. Mrs. Vaughn's death was Big Spring's first to result from a traffic mishap in 1946 and the third for Howard county.

Cotton Insurance Claim Forms Here

Additional forms for the cotton crop insurance reports on Howard county acreage have been received by J. G. Hammock, adjuster, and will be completed as quickly as farmers declare their losses at the AAA office.

The first 50 affidavits for farmers experiencing complete losses were finished and audited last week and Hammock said he expected to complete the remainder of the task by Friday.

Farmers can expect a return on their claims within 303 days, Hammock stated.

Severe Earthquakes Felt In Caribbean

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 5 (AP)—A radio message from Ciudad Trujillo reported that a fresh tremor shook the Dominican Republic at 9:20 a. m. (EDT) today in the wake of yesterday's violent earthquake in the Caribbean area.

Pan American Airways in Miami said a message from its Ciudad Trujillo airport described the tremor as being "of slight intensity." No further details were given.

Available reports indicated that yesterday's series of quakes apparently centered in the deepest hole in the Atlantic ocean and was so intense that it knocked out a recording seismograph in St. Louis, more than 2,000 miles away, but caused little surface damage.

One report said five tremors hit Ciudad Trujillo, capital of the Dominican Republic, yesterday, with one of the tremors lasting 45 seconds.

Reports of a tidal wave lacked any confirmation here. Dr. Marion Gilmore of the army and navy's hurricane service in Miami said the heart of the quake was either north or south of Puerto Rico or quite possibly in the Milwaukee deep, 30,246 feet below sea level and 50 miles off the northeast coast of Santa Domingo.

(The United States coast and geodetic survey lists the Milwaukee deep as the deepest point in the Atlantic ocean. It was discovered in 1939 by the U. S. cruiser Milwaukee while on naval maneuvers.)

Dr. Gilmore said that if the earthquake centered under the sea, tidal wave would possibly result.

The shock was so severe that it put out of commission seismographs at the U. S. naval station at Puerto Rico at 1:49 p. m. (EDT), at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, at 1:53-30 p. m. (EDT), and in Trinidad at 1:53-46 p. m. (EDT).

Pan American Airways' installation at San Juan reported that the shock could be felt for three minutes while the walls shook, but that no damage was apparent. A brief power failure occurred in San Juan.

Newsman Limp To Trial Stand

TOKYO, Aug. 5 (AP)—An American newspaperman, who lost portions of his feet because of mistreatment in a Japanese prison camp, limped to the witness stand today at Tokyo's big war crimes trial and gave first-hand evidence intended to prove that the infamous Mukden incident of 1931 was a Japanese frameup.

Helped to the chair and with crutches leaning against the witness box, J. B. Powell went behind the scenes of the railway blast which Japan used as a springboard to Asiatic conquest after blaming it on China.

He had gone to Manchuria to report the incident for his China weekly Review, the Chicago Tribune and the Manchester Guardian.

Powell said Japanese "tourists" had entered Mukden shortly before the blast and he had obtained several pictures of them, showing they carried arms and wore arm bands identifying them as Japanese reservists. Five days after the incident, Powell found Japanese in "complete occupation" of Mukden.

Slaughter Elected Eastland Constable

Jess Slaughter, former sheriff of Howard county, was elected to the office of constable at Clisco in Eastland county in the recent first democratic primary, it has been learned here.

Slaughter, who now lives on a farm west of Clisco, won by a huge majority. He served several terms during the 30's.

Jews Reject Palestine Division

LONDON, Aug. 5 (AP)—The Jewish agency executive flatly rejected today the British-American cabinet committee's proposal to divide Palestine into a federal state. British government sources said Prime Minister Attlee would ask his ministers to submit the Palestine problem to the United Nations if President Truman also rejects the semi-partition plan.

A Jewish agency executive communique issued in Paris said the group "regards the British proposals, based on the report of the committee of six and as announced by Mr. Morrison in the house of commons, as unacceptable as a basis for discussion."

Herbert Morrison, lord president of the council, announced last week that the British government had accepted as a basis for negotiations the cabinet committee proposals to divide Palestine into four provinces — one Arab, one Jewish and two central government zones.

The Jewish agency, leading Zionist organization long recognized by the British as representative of Jews in Palestine, met especially to consider the plan.

Arab spokesmen also have denounced the proposal but the Arab league has not taken official action.

A British government spokesman said Attlee would ask his cabinet Wednesday whether to submit the Palestine problem to the United Nations, but in any event would refer the question to that body only if President Truman turned down the partition proposal. Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin will attend the cabinet meeting.

This became known a few hours after a Moscow broadcast declaring that attempts to solve the Holy Land problem without United Nations help "are leading nowhere."

Moscow, in the first Russian comment upon the British-American proposals for a semi-partition of Palestine, attacked the plan vigorously.

Hawkins Opens Revenue Office

Ben M. Hawkins, who recently got his discharge from the US Navy, has moved here and is opening a Department of Internal Revenue in the basement of the post office building.

Herbert W. Axe, Odessa, IR Deputy Collector is spending a few days here helping orient Hawkins with his duties.

The office will operate on a five-day week, according to present plans.

Increasing Internal Revenue business forced the department to open a permanent office here, according to Axe.

In the past, L. H. Giddens of Odessa worked through Big Spring every few weeks.

Absentee Balloting Held Up A Few Days

Absentee voting for the second democratic primary election Aug. 24 has been held up pending certification of candidates in state and district races by the state democratic committee. The balloting was originally scheduled to begin this morning.

The completed ballot will be turned over to the printer immediately upon arrival and then referred to the county clerk's office, where eligible persons "can cast their votes."

Rancher Charged With Fatal Shooting

KENEDY, Aug. 4 (AP)—Dallas Huskey, Karnes county rancher, has been charged with murder here in connection with the death last Friday of Phillip Duckett, furniture store employe.

Huskey was freed under $5,000 bond. Duckett was killed by four shots from a 12-gauge shotgun Friday night as he walked from a downtown Kennedy cafe.

July Savings Bonds Top Monthly Average

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (AP)—Americans bought $752,985,000 in savings bonds during July, topping all months since January by a wide margin, the treasury reported today.

The figure covered combined sales of the E war bond, F and G series, which exceeded total cash-ins by $252,804,000.

H. W. (FRANK BUCK) ZACHARY BAGS RATTLER, LOSES SKUNK IN HIS YARD

H. W. Zachary, formerly a captain on the city police force here, turned Frank Buck at his home in the Silver Hills addition early Sunday morning and had his hands full taking care of the situation for a time.

Aroused by a noise outside his window at about 4 a. m., Zachary went out of doors to investigate, armed with a flash light. He found a skunk, apparently trying to entertain itself by climbing into a baby swing.

Zachary exited from the scene and returned with a gun, determined to influence the intruder into leaving the premises. His reappearance served to awaken a third party, a rattlesnake which slithered from his bed near the porch and set up a terrific din. Faced with "attack" from two sides, Zachary decided to reckon with the rattler first and shot the reptile through the head.

In the heat of battle, the skunk hit for the safety of some nearby bushes and made good his escape, without losing his weapon.

Some Lessons In Conservation

Previously, we have taken the position that dry years—1946 apparently is a case in point—should impress upon all of us the wisdom of conservation more effectively than the years of plenty.

The reason for this is simple. Moisture is the controlling element for productivity in this country. When it is absent, our chances for agricultural production decrease in direct proportion to the length of its absence. It is easy to associate the importance of water conservation with welfare of crops and ranges.

This is the key to our conservation problems, not that water conservation is by any stretch of the imagination the only thing that matters. Indeed, preservation of the soil and its fertility is the ultimate goal. This can be done only by curbing and prevention erosion and by intelligent crop management. So far as we are concerned in this country, we can almost kill all the birds with one stone when we set out to conserve our water.

If we hold the water on the soil, it stands to reason that little of the soil will get away. Normally, if we hold most of the moisture that falls on a given tract of land, we will make a crop of it or produce sufficient grass for profitable ranch operations. About the only supplementary programs needed to complete the picture is use of cover crops and stubble to check wind erosion.

This is not a matter of concern only for those engaged in agriculture. It is important for everyone, regardless of business, trade or profession. One of the lessons of the current drought should be transparent—namely, that this country's economic welfare is basically dependent upon agriculture. It is imperative that everyone look down the years, appraising the results of soil management not in terms of this year or next, but in terms of 20 or 50 or 100 years from now. If we take care of the soil and preserve it and its fertility, there is no good reason why this area cannot continue to thrive and support a reasonably large population. On the other hand, if we are blind to soil erosion and loss of fertility, the depreciation will eat at our economy like a cancer.

There are too many hard examples in case to ignore this truth. To be blind to it is to commit a slow but sure form of economic suicide.

Mob Murder Form Of Anarchy

When the president ordered FBI men sent into Georgia to investigate what that state's law enforcement officers were doing about bringing lynchers of four negroes to justice, a hue and cry went up among some who considered it an intrusion into the realm of state domain.

The Dallas News has put the finger on the crux of the case in pointing out that while the president had no warrant of law to support him, the constitution does change the federal government with seeing that negroes have equal legal rights.

It is admitted that three of the negroes slain by a mob were innocent of any crime and the fourth, under the American system, must be presumed innocent until proven guilty. Thus, the Georgia case was clearly one of murder and as the News reminded, nobody is vindicated by murder save the Devil. "No sovereignty can tolerate anarchy and endure as sovereign. Mob murder is anarchy . . ."

Congress Defines Who Is Lobbyist

(Editor's Note: This is the second of two stories of the lobby act which congress passed but which will leave a lot of people wondering.)

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Washington is loaded with lobbyists. Most of them, but not all, are frankly out in the open.

Congress has just passed an act aimed to make them all come out in the open.

They'll have to register themselves as lobbyists with congress and tell where their money comes from and where it goes.

All this will be a record open to the public.

The act defines a lobbyist as anyone—individual or corporation—who:

1. Receives money for the "principal purpose" of influencing legislation.
2. Or whose "principal purpose" is to influence legislation.

Many people who don't consider themselves lobbyists may, under the terms of the act, find that they are lobbyists and have to register.

The penalty for not doing so is a $5,000 fine and 1 year in jail.

The special congressional committee, which reported on this act and approved it before the full congress voted for it, said:

1. The act does not prevent free speech or the freedom of the press.

2. It doesn't apply to publishers of newspapers, magazines, or other publications, acting in the regular course of business.

3. It doesn't apply to anyone who appears before a congressional committee without pay for doing so.

4. And it doesn't apply to organizations formed for other purposes but whose efforts to influence legislation are incidental to their main purpose.

The heads of the biggest labor and business organizations constantly appearing before congressional committees to support or oppose something.

No one so far has considered them lobbyists. It's assumed they don't get their salaries for appearing before congress but rather for directing their organizations.

But do they? Is part of their salary paid with the understanding they will constantly represent those organizations before congress? If so, are they then lobbyists? The act doesn't say.

The answer may have to be found in federal court some day if the government decides to find out whether they're lobbyists, if they haven't registered as lobbyists.

Does the act apply only to people who come to Washington and talk with congressmen? No. The committee said:

"Those who do not visit the capitol but initiate propaganda from all over the country in the form of letters and telegrams to influence legislation will have to register as lobbyists.

Whom would this mean? It could mean chambers of commerce. But the act definitely applies to the group mentioned in the following paragraphs:

In Washington many organizations have full-time employees whom they call "legislative representatives." They are the real lobbyists, frankly so, out in the open.

Their job is to express the views of their organization to congressmen and to vote for or against the things in which the organizations are interested.

The congressional committee calls this group "entirely honest and respectable representatives of business, professional and philanthropic organizations."

"They'll have to register as lobbyists. The act is not intended to prevent lobbying at all. If a lobbyist registers, he can keep right on lobbying.

Yale Boy Makes Good

NEW YORK—Warner Brothers never uttered a word of dialogue, tossed a real boot-a-boola drink all for the press and Yale alumni at the Yale Club to launch the film based on the life of Cole Porter, "Night and Day." Monty Woolley, who appears in the film in his now abandoned real-life role of teacher of drama at the New Haven university, and Cole Porter himself, were the guests of honor. The program included Yale songs by the Whiffenpoof Quartet of 1937, still vibrantly and collegially loyal to the alma mammy, and the biggest hit of the evening was their rendition of Cole Porter's college-days hit, "Bulldog! Bulldog! Bow, wow, wow—El-I Yale."

The program announced that "The Yale Club of New York City presents with considerable pride and more than a touch of nostalgia and nepotism, the special preview showing of Warner Bros. Technicolor production 'Night and Day,' featuring the music of Yale's illustrious composer, Cole Porter, Class of 1913. Monty Woolley, Class of 1911, reverts to type as a Yale professor."

The occasion was a wonderful nostalgic binge for the assembled quondam brush-cuts, most of them now ranging from maturity to anecdotal age and each looking as if he had been done up especially for the occasion by one of the Brooks Brothers, personally.

Monty Woolley left Yale in the early thirties and disappointed a few but delighted the greater portion of his former students by turning up in an excellent low-comedy musical called "On Your Toes," ten years ago, after which he turned to Hollywood.

One of Monty's earlier film franchises was a bright, I'll even say brilliant, Hecht and MacArthur film called "Nothing Sacred," in which were starred Carole Lombard and Fredric March. Monty Kirk in Houston.

Almost a decade later, after Monty had arrived at his largest celebrity in Hollywood roles, I was passing a theater in Greenwich Village, where "Nothing Sacred" was being shown, a bit belatedly. The advertising sheets in front of the theater announced that featured inside were "Carole Lombard, Monty Woolley and Fredric March." Not even bottom billing for the by-then popular Monty. On the way out I picked up a half-dozen bits of advertising matter, all announcing blithely that Monty was one of the star personages in the picture, and sent them along to the bearded comic at his Saratoga home. It gave him even a bigger guffaw than I enjoyed. "That's Hollywood," he wrote me in return.

Palomino Continues To Win In Wyoming

Sobre, nine-year-old Palomino stallion owned by Lane Hudson, is continuing his winning ways now that he has been moved to another range.

Hudson, with his father, J. L. Hudson, recently purchased a ranch west of Laramie, Wyo., and moved Lane's horses there. Sobre, accordingly, was entered in the Colorado Palomino show and was judged grand champion. He had won similar honors in Texas before Lane withdrew him from competition.

J. L. Hudson has returned here to help Mrs. Hudson in packing to move the remainder of their possessions to Wyoming. Before they leave, however, they will visit with their daughter, Mrs. Dickson.

Peace Weapons Lag Behind War

PARIS (by wireless)—It's hot in the galleries of the palace of Luxembourg. In the top gallery sit hundreds of newsmen—Chinese, Siamese, Greek, Indian, New Zealanders, watching a man speak far below. Newsmen from all over the world watching the peace. It's their peace. What's done here will affect their countries from Beluchistan to Iceland, from Saskatchewan to Samoa, and they are watching.

Far below, under the klieg lights, sits Jimmy Byrnes—patient, polite Jimmy Byrnes—never leaving his seat, never failing to listen. . . . A man speaks into the microphone. He's interpreting the Molotov. . . . In French. Another man speaks. He's interpreting Molotov in English. . . . It takes hours. When you wonder, will diplomacy ever become modernized? Fifteen years ago the Pan American Union adopted earnest phones and simultaneous translation. Delegates could pick up an earphone and get a speech translated simultaneously in English, French, Spanish, Portuguese, with no waste of time. . . . But the French don't go in for modernization. Diplomacy is just the same—it hasn't been changed since 1815. . . . The Vienna conference when the great powers divided up Europe and brought on more wars.

Paris today is depressingly the same. We invent modern methods of warfare. . . . Rockets that may reach the moon, atomic bombs that sink navies, germs that can destroy civilization. . . . But the weapons of peace never keep pace with the weapons of war. . . . Nor do the diplomats who wield the weapons of peace. The same crowd which failed to head off the last war is here again—even some of the same crowd which sat in at the last Paris peace conference. . . . Look at their faces. Poker faces. No life, no lift, no passion for the peace they are negotiating, bored faces, preoccupied faces, bored with the endless translations. Bored with the whole boredom of diplomacy. . . . Not a man among them who lost an arm or a leg, who knows what it is to suffer on the battlefield. These are the men who are writing the peace.

Jimmy Byrnes is not bored. Polite, patient, precise Jimmy Byrnes sits on the front row—perhaps he is too polite, to patient. . . . You feel like shouting down at Jimmy. You wish you had a telephone to reach him there, way down below. You wish you could tell him: "That was a great speech you made the other day, Jimmy, but finish it. Tell them the rest of the story. Tell them not only that the United States isn't going to remain isolated but that we're going to raise hell with anyone who blocks our patch to peace. Tell them that millions of Americans are fed up with all this frittering; that millions of Americans mean business and will back you up in anything you do. Tell it to 'em, Jimmy."

But Jimmie seems so far away. Around the senate chamber of the palace of Luxembourg are the great gold ornaments. Woodwork carved in ornate shapes, heavily encrusted with gold—remnants of the lush days of the De Medicis. . . . If the French had only painted out the gold and substituted white crosses! Then perhaps the bored diplomats sitting below would remember. . . . White crosses. . . . From Guadalcanal and Stalingrad, from Salerno and New Guinea, from Toruk and the Rapido, from Normandy and the Aachen. . . . Close your eyes and you can see them. . . . Thousands of white crosses. . . . The dead speak: "We who lie here have nothing left to give. To all your praises we are deaf and blind."

"We may not even know if you betray
"The hopes we cherished for mankind."

But the diplomats below don't seem to hear. . . . Men in red plush seats, fastidious men in red plush seats, their nails polished, their cravats carefully tied. They don't seem to hear. They are thinking about procedure and majority votes, vetoes and prestige and whether they will get out in time to take tea with Mrs. Ogden Mills.

One man does hear. He sits opposite Jimmie Byrnes. . . . A big, uncouth man, his hair not even parted. . . . Evatt of Australia. His cockney accent is uncultured but he dares to speak. He is the only man who comes anywhere near preaching the Sermon on the Mount, who tells the bored men in the red plush seats that they must love their neighbors as themselves. . . . Unpleasantly Evatt steps on the toes of the big nations—tells them they have no business sabotaging the peaceful goal of others. . . . They don't like Evatt, but they listen. Even patient, polite, Jimmie Byrnes doesn't like Evatt. But he listens. . . . Thousands of men under white crosses listen, too.

Clement Attlee, prime minister of Britain, speaks—the man who performed the miracle of defeating war leader Winston Churchill—a modest man, a sincere, earnest man. His bald head shines under the klieg lights. But it is no halo. . . . Some hours before Attlee was haggling with Jimmy Byrnes over the future of Germany—bartering over the peace of the world; wanting to trade off a British policy in Palestine for an American policy in Germany. . . . Clement Attlee, labor prime minister of England, representing the dreams of millions, bickering over the "hopes we cherish for mankind." Thousands of white crosses, silent crosses, listening crosses. . . . "We have heard men say when we were living that some small dream of good would cost too much. But when the war came we have watched men giving and seen them move the mountains with one touch." . . . Peace, say the bored men in the red plush seats, is too difficult.

If one could only shout to Jimmie Byrnes! If only he weren't so far away. If only he weren't so patient and polite. If he would only get up and be himself. . . . Can't you see, Jimmie, that peace is slipping through your fingers? . . . Can't you see that, instead of writing a peace, the world is choosing up sides for the next war? . . . Can't you hear the voices of the men who died on Okinawa and Leyte, at St. Lo and the Belgian bulge? They'll never forgive you, Jimmie, if you let them down. . . . "What can be done we know; but have no fear. If you fall now, we shall not see nor hear." This is the greatest moment of your life, Jimmie. You have been senator, supreme court justice, war mobilizer. . . . A great record. But if the peace of the world slips through your fingers. . . .

Twenty-seven years ago, at the same place, in the same setting, at the same kind of peace conference, Clemenceau is supposed to have said: "Listen! I can hear the soldiers of 1940 weeping." Today, I can hear my sisters, sons, and all the sons of millions of mothers who put their hopes in you, Jimmie, I can hear them all over Paris. . . . Weeping. Refiners Move Into Finals Of Ackerly Softball Meet

Fulenwider's Inside-Park Homer Gives Lobos Split With Clovis

LAMESA, Aug. 5.—Lamesa and Clovis, the Lobos' only serious competitor for the league basement, split a doubleheader here Sunday afternoon before a small crowd of 630 fans, Lamesa taking the first contest with a 4-run rally in the eighth, 9 to 7, and Clovis copping the seven inning aftermath 12 to 5 on the 5-hit tossing of Lefty Al Behnke. Emmett Fulenwider's inside the park homer to center with 2 men on and 2 out in the eighth frame gave the Lobos and southpaw Buck Huckabee a triumph in the first game. Clovis center gardener Runcie charged Fulenwider's line single and it sped by him to the fence for a four-bagger.

Coaching School May Be Rotated

CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 5 (AP) Indications are that this will be the last time the Texas coaching school is held on a bid basis.

More than 600 mentors here for the sixteenth annual clinic opening today will discuss a plan of rotating the school among the six Texas members of the South-western conference.

In the past, the city making the best offer got the clinic, but President Bobby Cannon of the Texas High School Coaches association says he is receiving a favorable response from the South-western conference members of the new plan.

Cannon points out that this will insure central location, will eliminate any claim of favoritism among the colleges and will solve the housing problem since the conference schools can take care of the coaches in their dormitories.

Other matters up for discussion include the question of setting a minimum salary for coaches and either removing or raising the limit on the amount that may be spent for awards to high school athletes.

Cannon said the minimum salary plan was for the purpose of insuring the coaches a living wage in the years when the going gets tough and the schools move to cut coaching salaries.

At this time the pay is considered high enough for coaches making from $3,000 to $5,000 a year.

Cannon's idea would be a minimum of $2,000.

All Attendance Marks Broken In Major Loops

Red Womack Scores Winning Counter In Stanton Tilt

By The Associated Press
The major league's attendance figures soared to 12,788,000 today—nearly two million more than last year's record total—following a splendid Sunday turnout featured by Cleveland's standard-shattering 75,959 crowd of which 74,592 paid.

Budnick

The throng which filled Cleveland's municipal stadium for a glimpse of its pitching idol, blazing Bobby Feller, almost witnessed a tragedy when the speedball king was forced to leave the field in the seventh inning of the first game of a scheduled double header with the New York Yankees.

When he reached Dopey Croy for a single after one man had been retired in the eighth frame, Lewis Heuvel appeared to drive out a long single and Womack tore out for home, sliding in safely when the Stanton backstop dropped the ball.

The Codens punished two hurlers, Leon Glenn Bredemeyer and Bill Greider, to win the opener. Bredemeyer was routed in the midst of a seven-run second inning.

Pat Stacey and Heuvel made merry at the Vet hurler's expense. Each drove out a double, triple and home run.

The championship will be decided some night this week. Pete Womack, Cosden skipper, and the Stanton management were to discuss the date with tournament directors today.

Panthers Repel Tulsans, 3-2

By The Associated Press
Fort Worth's Cats yesterday squeezed home an unearned run in the 10th inning to defeat the Tulsa Oilers, 3-2, while the San Antonio Missions, still trying to narrow the five-game margin to the Cats hold on first place, slugged three Shreveport pitchers for 25 hits in romping over the Sports, 20-2.

At Beaumont, Manager Jim Turner of the Exporters registered his eleventh victory of the season as he gave up eight scattered hits to the Houston Buffs and won, 3-1.

Eddie Karas, who previously had won one game to five defeats, gave Dallas only six hits as Oklahoma City shut out the Rebels, 5-0.

An error by Tulsa's Sal Madrid let Monty Basgall of Fort Worth reach first in the 10th. Basgall went to second on a sacrifice by George Pfister and to third on a short single by Charley Samakila. He was squeezed home on a bunt by Jay Haney.

San Antonio scored in every inning except the third and concentrated on an eight-run rally in the fifth. Charley Grant led the Padre attack with five hits in five times up, while Rube Naranjo had four out of five. Harry Hatch scored six of the San Antonio runs.

Beaumont scored in the second inning on a single by Fred Collins and a double by Hugh Shelley and added another in the third on hits by Joe Muffoletto and Joe Collins. Fred Collins homered in the seventh for the final tally.

An Exporter error, followed by Ed Flio's double, produced the only Houston run.

At Dallas, Karas did not run in to trouble until the eighth when the Rebels filled the bases with no outs. A strikeout and Bob Moyer's hit hitting into a double play ended the Dallas threat. Dale Mitchell, Oklahoma City's league leading hitter, led the Indian hitting attack.

Henry Ransom Wins $2,000

ST PAUL, Minn., Aug. 5 (AP)—Henry Ransom, the unattached Houston, Texas, professional, was $2,000 richer today because he was calm and cool as he and Lawson Little of Monterey, Calif., put on a record-breaking, one-stroke finish fight for the St. Paul $10,000 open golf championship Sunday.

Both Ransom and Little shot six-under-par 66's to better the mark of 270 for the 72-hole tournament set by Dick Metz in 1939. Ransom collected top money for a four-day total of 268 with Little just one stroke behind to take second prize of $1,400.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, led the amateurs with a 286.

Mansfield, who has held the world's calf roping championship for five of the past eight years operates out of Big Spring and has a ranch at Rankin. Fort hails from Lovington, N. M., and is champion roper of New Mexico.

California Champ

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 5 (AP)—Lt. Dave Freeman, San Diego, Calif., student officer at the army training center at Fort Sam Houston and former national ranking player, defeated Jessie Pfeiffer of San Antonio, 6-2, 6-4, 6-1, yesterday in the men's singles finals of the San Antonio tennis championships.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Some of the sporting gentry hereabouts have been asking of late whether or not the Howard County Junior college will try to field any athletic teams during the 1946-47 term.

At the moment, that seems utterly out of the question. E. C. Dodd and his cohorts are hoeing a hard row, attempting to get the doors of the institution open. It's a race against time, though Dodd insists the school will function, even if they have to conduct classes under the old "Hangman's Tree."

Students who enroll, however, could expect some intra-mural athletics the coming year. Perhaps the school would be well enough established by the fall of '47 to start thinking of fielding football and basketball teams.

Horace Bostick reports to Dutch Meyer for the Autumn drills at Texas Christian university on Sept. 1. He's getting into shape playing softball with the Veterans of Foreign Wars team now.

Horace ran in blocking back for the Frogs in spring training, alternating with two other war veterans. He expects to see a lot of action with the Purple.

Bostick played a few games of the fall sport at El Paso (Fort Bliss) before going overseas. One of his team mates there was Tony Canadeo, the Gonzaga boy who became one of the best backs in the professional game while playing for Green Bay.

The Chicago football Bears may come up with a formidable brother combination in Bill and Joe Osmanski, both of whom are former Holy Cross boys.

George Halas, Bear foreman, recently acquired Joe in a trade with the Boston Yankees, giving up Pat O'Brien in exchange. Bill has been with the club for several seasons.

Hal Battle, who hasn't decided which college he'll attend

yet but who may wind up at

Tulsa university, says the longest baseball he ever saw hit was powered by Bobby Decker, the former Big Springer, in a recent game at Lamesa.

Robin, now wearing Bonger livery, is currently feeling out the apple for a .340 average and is having, by far, his best year in the game.

He merits a chance in higher company next spring.

Primo Carnera, the former heavyweight boxing champion, may have come to this country to pick up a few shekels but he's far from broke, or so he tells the press in New York.

Tony Zale resumes training in three weeks for his Sept. 27 match with Rocky Graziano.

Shirt Supplies Short Despite Price Increase

It will take something more than an increase in manufacturers' ceiling prices to get more men's shirts on the market, according to information received recently by some local stores.

That an 11 percent increase on manufacturers' ceiling prices on men's shirts, shorts, and pajamas would be granted. This was brought on chiefly by soaring production costs.

The increase as not been felt here yet, but dealers declare that they will worry about prices only after they receive stocks of merchandise. One group of shirts received at a local haberdashery recently was slightly higher than the former price, but whether appreciable increases will be felt as a result of the new OPA order is still problematical.

Boren Advises Vets Planning To Go To College

Veterans planning to attend school or college this fall under the GI program form two general groups, Ray Boren, VA contact representative stated this week, and the VA is currently offering advice to both.

Included in one group are veterans who have not yet made application for certificates from the VA that will entitle them to tuition and other educational benefits under the GI bill. This group is being urged to apply for the certificates immediately. Boren said. Assistance in filling the application is available at the local contact office, room 206 Petroleum building, if veterans will take a certified or photostatic copy of their discharges there.

The second group is composed of veterans who have applied for the certificates and entered school under the educational provisions of the GI bill. These are being advised to sit tight, and quit worrying, Boren said. If they have made proper arrangements with the school or college of their choice, all requirements have been complied with, and there is no need for them to contact the VA again.

Gerald Anderson In Summer Stock

Gerald Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anderson, is breaking into the field of dramatics this summer at the Theatre in Dale at New Melford, Conn.

One of his parts includes the role of Naaman, the executioner, in "Salome," the Oscar Wilde play which drew feature play in a summer theatre article in the current issue of Life. Tillie Losch is starred in the production.

Anderson also played as the Shepherd in "The Farce of the Worthy Master Pierre Patelin," and more recently has drawn praise of critics for his part in "The Home of the Brave."

A speech major at McMurry, Anderson received his degree in June after having his studies interrupted by a tour of duty as a carrier borne fighter pilot. Since early summer he has been at New Melford and likely will remain there until September.

Mauzey Thanks County For Support

Declaring that the "demonstration of support was worth the campaign, regardless of the result," Judge A. S. Mauzey of Sweetwater has expressed appreciation to the people of Howard county for a "splendid vote."

It was, he said, by far the best vote he received outside of his four-county (32nd judicial) district. He had warm words of praise for Howard county, how he had enjoyed holding court here when it was in his district, and especially for the lawyers. The local bar went on record endorsing Mauzey's campaign, which fell a little short of winning a place as an associate justice on the 11th court of civil appeals.

City Expresses Drouth Concern

Drouth has figured as a consideration in a city commission decision for a balanced budget and static tax rate, Mayor G. W. Dabney said Saturday.

He expressed concern over continued dry weather, painting out that he anticipated its efforts will be felt increasingly by the city as well as those directly involved in agriculture.

In addition to operating as economically as possible to avoid necessity of boosting taxes at a time they might be difficult to pay, Mayor Dabney said that "we must all work together to alleviate suffering or distress due to drouth and any resultant unemployment." Some municipal projects may be helpful in this respect, he indicated.

Culberson Demands Cars To Move Grain

AUSTIN, Aug. 5 (P)—Railroad commission chairman Olin Culberson today asked the Santa Fe railway why cars were not available for moving a heavy grain crop from the Coleman, Santa Anna and Bangs areas.

He said in a telegram to Clark Davis, traffic manager of the Santa Fe at Galveston, that because of a lack of box cars, farmers are having to pile grain on the ground in that area. Elevators, he said, are full. The telegram added: "Could you advise the reason for your line not furnishing cars in preparation for this movement? It is an intolerable situation for grain farmers to have to risk losing their crops after they are made. Can you suggest how soon relief will be given?"

Grass Fire Danger Greater Than Usual

The danger of grass fires is more pronounced this summer than at any time in recent years, according to local soil authorities.

"Lack of moisture has dried up the ranges earlier than usual," one official said, "and we must exercise extreme caution to protect what we have left. Persons in the danger areas should guard against building fires where they are apt to be spread or tossed away 'live' cigarettes."
