Happy New Year To All

The Tennessee State Texans performed at New York Giant-Chicago Bear game, on Dec. 29, 1963, in Chicago.

Pictured are four cousins, reading from top to bottom, Gloria Brown, Houston; Joycelyn Lott, Austin; Oralyn Lott, Austin; and Andrea Brown, Houston, who is now Mrs.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Hope, Arkansas for Mr. & Mrs. Earnest Wesson, who were fatally injured in a truck-car smashup on Highway 84, one mile Southeast of Shallowater, Saturday, December 21, on an icy road.

Also injured were their four children, Larry 10, Elese 12, Erna 15, and Earnest, Jr. 11, who was very seriously injured.

The band left Nashville, Tenn., Friday, December 27th. It is under the direction of Mr. Frank D. Green of Michigan State University.

The big cities that the Tenn. State Aristocrat of bands and majorettes had held major performances in this year were Baton Rouge, La., Memphis, T-

Three of the children have been released from the Methodist Hospital and have gone with an uncle to Arkansas where they will make their home.

According to the latest report, Earnest Jr., is still a patient at the hospital.

They were to march at one of the Dallas Cowboys pro football games, but were unable to attend.

She is widely known loved and respected throughout the district and area. She attended her last Annual Conference last October at Wichita Falls, Texas.

Now that Christmas has come and gone, and the New Year has slowly approached, what will be your resolutions for the incoming year? Whether we keep the resolutions in total or not, it is a good thing for us to do. Well, if we don't keep them, there is always another year in which we can try to accomplish what we didn't succeed in on the out going year.

Did you know that Christmas gives us hope. Wouldn't it be wonderful if everyday could be like Christmas? But since our calendar of ideas vary so greatly, it is good that it lasts as long as it does.

The daughters of Rev & Mrs. S.R. Roberts, Robbie and Bobbie, are employed by the Federal Government.

Mrs. S.R. Roberts was called to Athan, Texas due to a death in her family. The funeral was held on Sunday, December 29th.

Our longest holiday season, Christmas and New Years, this year officially began for colleges and public schools on December 20th and has its grand finale on January 6th, when our educational institutions will re-open.

This time last year many of our loved ones were present in this world, but this holiday season we find them absent. Next year history will repeat its self as it has done for years. Let us respite for a few moments and give thanks for living to see another year. Let us be thankful for what we have and quit being so envious toward our fellow man.

Some of us, deep inside, realize this holiday season its meaning, and we did observe the Christmas season as the anniversary of the birth of Christ and the Christmas Theme, "Peace On Earth, Good Will Toward Men." Does this theme create some type of meaning in your heart? If so ing, December 31, at 11:00 AM, at the Hester Memorial AME Church, which was named in her honor. Her eulogy was given by her presiding Elder T.B. Reece.

Survivors include a son, niece, and nephew.

The twins, who have been living in San Francisco, were given in marriage by their uncle, John C. Herbert. Clovis is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Clovis V. Williams and his brother in law is the son of Mrs. Marie Starks, a neighbor of the Williamses in Hayward. The two newlywed couples will also make their first homes in the same area of Hayward. They are the cousins of Mrs. E.A. Lewis of 1823 Ave B and Mr. James Roy Lewis, advertising agent of the Times, 320 E 20th Street.

ANDREW JOHNSON, 17TH. PRESIDENT, WAS A RUNAWAY WHO HAD BEEN ADVERTISED FOR IN NEWSPAPERS!
