

BEAUTICIANS CLINIC CLOSES HERE WITH NEW QUEEN

The annual Beauticians' Clinic climaxed with an Award Contest and the Beautician annual Ball (see pictures on page 2) at the KOKO Palace Ball Room Tuesday, April 7th. Hundreds of Lubbockites in their formal and semi-formal dress witnessed the new hair styles modeled by the many licensed beauticians who took part in this educational and gala affair. The splendid music for this affair was furnished by the Roy Roberts Combo.

The beauticians who were fortunate enough to become receipt holders on the Hair Styling Awards were as follows; in the division of Junior Styling, Julia Ann Bunton was awarded the second place trophy, and Mae Pearl Sterling won first and third place trophies.

Mrs. Maude Hamilton, last year's queen of the Lubbock Beauticians,

Miss Mary Vivian Lethridge presented her crown to the 1964 queen, lovely Miss Mary Vivian Lethridge. Continued on Page 8

We should be proud of the event which took place last Tuesday week (April 7). Although the Reverend A.W. Wilson, the Jackie Robinson of politics in Lubbock, did not win a seat at the roundtable at City Hall--but WE consider the fact

Awards Presented

Mr. James Hillyer, head football coach at Dunbar High School, presented the annual awards at the South Plains Lions Boys Club. The awards were certificates from the national contest presented by the Boys Clubs of America. They were football throw contest, basketball spot shot contest, pocket billiard contest, and pull up contest.

There were four certificates for each contest, one for each age group.

that the PEOPLE know HE was a candidate.

Mr. W.E. Medlock, the newly elected City Commissioner Place #4 received approximately 51.9% of the votes -- this left 48.1% of the remaining votes scattered among the other candidates and of this number Rev. Wilson received approximately 12% (which made his running rather impressive and finished third, not last.

The votes received from voting box 20 (Ella Iles Elementary School) showed Wilson received 94% of the ballots (over 900 votes). This proves that WE can become intensified for a worthy cause.

The time has come when the Lubbock community must move forward. Lubbock citizens must not be sold down the river for "thirty pieces of silver".

By now we all must have a dream for our children. Perhaps this poli-

Members of the junior and senior chapters of New Homemakers of Am-observed NHA week April 5-12. Theme for the observance was "Toward New Horizons". The week long activities began Sunday with junior members attending church with their families. In the afternoon they went to open house at Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Lincoln's residence as guest of Alberta Lincoln, fourth vice president. Junior members sponsored the Morning Watch program. They were responsible for securing speakers and furnishing music for the daily programs, Dortha Crockett and Doris Hood were committee chairman.

Monday was publicity day. The group attended Morning Watch. Teacher appreciation day was observed Tuesday. Teachers were assisted with duties. Wednesday was school appreciation day. Emphasis was on keeping the halls and rooms neat. Thursday was color day. Members wore navy skirts, white blouses and red corsages.

Family day was observed Friday. Members did something special for their families.

Senior NHA members attended Morning Watch and observed color day Monday. They observed teacher appreciation day Tuesday. On Wednesday they had lunch together in the cafeteria. Senior NHA'ers were in charge of the assembly program April 9 which began with Sandra Strong singing "Bless This House". The NHA opening ceremony followed. Mr. Jimmy Graves, class of 1955, was guest speaker. He is presently a registered pharmacist at Evans Drug. He spoke on the subject "Staying in School". The Jabberwock has been used for many years as a means of raising scholarship funds. The Jabberwock, a mythical character in Lewis Carroll's book entitled "Alice in Wonderland", would always call together the members of his kingdom each year for the purpose of putting on a show. In a like manner, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority called together different local fraternal organizations and individuals to present short skits and interludes. Missouri U. Wins Relays
The Missouri Tigers were outstanding in winning in Austin at the 37th Texas Relays, but Grambling College captured both the 440 and 880 relay races and set new records.
Texas Southern University of Houston won every relay held in 1962.

This year Texas Southern only won the mile relay after losing two of their top runners through graduation.
Still Unsigned
Warren Douglas McVea, the San Antonio, Texas, Brackenridge flash still has not signed a letter of intent with any college.

It has been disclosed that Darrell Royal, Coach of Texas, has a good chance of getting McVea along with Linus Baer, or maybe so the other Southwest conference schools will just stand by while these two boys playing days are over.
It would only be three years before they would become inelligible.
The two could become just about an unstoppable pair in the same backfield together.

NOTICE
The President of the Federation of Choirs, Mr. O. M. Iles, is asking each president and musician of each local choir of the Federation to please be present at a special call meeting tomorrow night (Friday, April 17th) at 8:00 pm at the Greater St. Luke Baptist Church.

It is very important that we meet, and we are expecting each of you.

Mrs. S.A. Johnson and her husband left Lubbock Monday for their home in Jacksonville, Texas. They spent a few weeks here visiting their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Simmons and son. They carried their grandson, Royce De Shon, home with them. The Simmons are planning to go for DeShon on Mothers Day.

Mrs. Bettye Iles has returned from her home at Jacksonville, Texas, where she has visited with her parents, Rev. & Mrs. William B. Christopher, other relatives, and friends. She left Lubbock during the Easter Season.

The Texas Branch of American Mathematical Association held its annual meeting at Texas Tech in Lubbock April 10-11.
Dr. A.D. Stewart, who holds a Ph.D and is head of the Math Department at Prairie View AM spoke the Lubbock group who attended this clinic and social function were from Hobbs, New Mexico, Amarillo, Plainview, Levelland, Brownfield, Slaton, and Littlefield, Texas.

Alpha Mu Chapter of Theta Nu Sigma Sorority sponsored the entire clinic and Beautician's Ball. Guest artists assisting with the clinic were Mrs. J. C. Mouton and Miss L. Johnson.
