Roots Historical Arts Council Promotes Black Heritage

by Lerisa R. Payne

Estebanico

There are many minorities who are not aware of their ethnic culture. The museums in Lubbock do not reveal some of the accomplishments of the minorities in Lubbock. There are and were some minorities who have helped in the development of Lubbock. These people should be considered as models.

The Lubbock Roots Historical Arts Council, RHAC, is a group of people who are interested in serving the young minorities as role models. According to Eric Strong, a member of RHAC, "Teenagers need other role models to relate to besides pimps."

The Lubbock RHAC was devised in 1977 to promote the history and heritage of West Texas by encouraging the economically disadvantaged people to participate in the arts. RHAC is trying to help change the negative attitudes of today's youth. They are the same group who relived the "Lost Nigger Expedition."

The "Lost Nigger Expedition" was an expedition consisting of 20 black soldiers in search of Indians. After seven days of search for Indians on the arid Texas Plains, the soldiers were not able to find water. Of the original 20 men, only 9 survived by drinking the blood and urine of their horses. It was their only way of survival.

For years people have been telling tales of Paul Bunyan, Johnny Appleseed, etc., but they have not been told the stories, not tales, of native West Texans. There was Estebanico, the Seminole Negro Indian Scouts, Will Sedberry, Ella Iles, Dr. Joseph A. Chatman, and the birth of Dunbar High School.

Estebanico was an African slave who sailed to the New World after Columbus discovered America. Estebanico, his owner Dorantes and 300 other men landed on the Florida Coast. When they landed, they were confronted with a hurricane, attacks by Indians, and being captured by Texas Indians. There was only four who escaped. Estebanico was one of them.

The Indians in Texas had not seen a black man before; therefore, they thought he was a god. The Indians gave him treasures and their women to preserve his seed. Estebanico discovered the Southwest. He died a terrible death. Some Indians who did not believe that Estebanico was a god killed him and took his body and cut it up in many pieces to prove that he was not a god.

The Seminole Negro Indian Scouts were escaped slaves who joined the Seminole Indians. These scouts joined in the army to help fight and track down the Indians.

The Seminole Negro Indian Scouts fought in the army for 10 years. They were neither killed nor made citizens.

Will Sedberry arrived in Lubbock in 1918 in which he and his family lived in servant quarters, a gin house, and finally a small wooden and cardboard house.

He organized a group of people to help purchase land to build a school for the black children in Lubbock. He was a man of determination to see that things got done. He raised money to buy land and built a black Presbyterian church. Although it took five years for this to happen, it was truly worth it.

The black students attended school in servant quarters, a church (Mt. Gilead Baptist), and finally a two room stucco school in which Will Sedberry and others helped build.

The students received handed-down textbooks, chalk boards, and other equipment. The students chose the name Dunbar after a famous black poet and the panther as the mascot because it reminded the students of themselves.

The students increased in number while the teachers were decreasing. In the beginning there was one teacher assigned to teach the entire school. The Lubbock School Board had hired two different teachers to teach the black youths. The third teacher they hired was Mrs. Ella Caruthers Iles. She taught 161 students in one class before a second teacher was hired. Mrs. Iles taught in Lubbock schools for 30 years because she cared about others.

Dr. Joseph A. Chatman was a credit to his race. He received his Doctor of Medicine degree at Meharry Medical School in Nashville, Tennessee. Without ever owning a single medical textbook, Dr. Chatman graduated with honors.

After his graduation, Dr. Chatman moved to Mexia, Texas where he built a hospital and published a magazine.

He was a powerful man; what is meant by powerful is he had a way of accomplishing the accomplished. He accomplished the building of a hospital. He accomplished the building of a Boys Club for the youth in his community. He accomplished many tasks. He saved lives, brought new lives into the world, and worked hard for the community.

He was in Who's Who, elected "Man of the Year" six years in a row, and he organized a black minstrel group that sang and danced throughout America.

Dr. Chatman once told city officials in Lubbock, "I feel sorry for the little white kids. Everytime they go into a public building they see two water fountains, one says 'white' and the other says 'colored.' Those little white children want to taste that 'colored' water."

Although these people are no longer living they have played a vital and important role in the development of West Texas and Lubbock. They each served a purpose.

Each of the members of RHAC are serving a purpose, too. The director, Rudolph Davis, has a Ph.D. in Art Administration, he joined because his first love is art. Donald Brooks, a student at Texas Tech majoring in Political Science, says, "For a hundred years the blacks in East Lubbock have been apathetic or not caring about their economy nor culture. Lubbock must have the cooperation of all citizens in order for

Black Ministers of Lubbock

Rev. Tony Williams
Community Baptist Church

There is a serious side to Rev. Tony Williams, the pastor of Community Baptist Church, as well as a joking side. He is a man who knows how to be humorous as well as serious.

At the age of 14, Rev. Tony Williams received the calling to the ministry and preached his first sermon. The people were fascinated by the message he brought to the congregation. He was not ordained as a minister until he was 24 years of age. Although he was young, the people felt and knew that he would make a great contribution to the ministry.

Rev. Williams did make a great contribution to the ministry. He carried his knowledge of the ministry to various churches, the Samiria Bapt. Church in Waxahachie, Tex.; Mt. Calvary Baptist in Denton, Galilee Baptist in Ennis, and Liberty Baptist in Dallas. At the present time Rev. Williams does evangelist work.

Along with his evangelist work he is working to receive a Bachelor of Science degree in education. He has a BA degree in religion from Bishop College. He wants to learn more and more. By learning he will obtain knowledge and wisdom.

Rev. Williams is married to the former Merryon Calhoun. Although he is from a family of 16, Rev. Williams has a family consisting of two sons. He comes from a long line of ministers and a close family. He has carried on this tradition.

Rev. Williams says, "My purpose as a minister is to build a better and greater Community Baptist Church."

Rev. Williams remarks, "We are attempting big things for God and we are expecting great things from him."

People expect more from ministers than they do from anyone else. Yes, ministers are different but they are as human as anyone else.

Rev. Kado Lang may be small in size but he is big hearted. He is the pastor of St. James Baptist Church. He has always wanted to be a minister to move forward and achieve his goals in life and in the ministry.

Rev. Lang is from Risel, Texas a very small town. He came to the West because he heard that money was easy to make. This was not so. The first job he had in the west was picking cantaloupe. If this was easy money it sure didn't seem like it.

Before arriving in Lubbock, Rev. Lang was informed by another minister that Lubbock was one of the most progressive

WEEKLY SPECIAL

When Chinamen Aren't Chinese
Or: Newspeak, 1984 a la 1979

Copyright, 1979, United Feature Syndicate, Inc.

WASHINGTON—The recognition of Communist China has produced a whole new vocabulary at the State Department. The diplomatic language they speak had to be revised to accommodate the people in Peking.

The new language is explained in a memo, intended for official eyes only. It instructs American diplomats on the "proper terminology" to use in discussing China.

Of course, any diplomat worth his pay would rather lose his striped pants than say the wrong thing. So the memo was rushed out before the arrival in Washington of Vice Premier Teng Hsiao-ping.

For the benefit of those readers who would like to speak to the Chinese without offending them, here is a quick language course:

Taiwan used to be known in Washington as the "Republic of China." No longer. It is now taboo. In fact, the Chinese in Taiwan can't even be called "Chinese." This would irritate the Chinese on the mainland. But they also cannot be called "Taiwanese," as this would offend the Chinese in Taiwan.

How are the Taiwanese-Chinese supposed to be categorized? States the memo: "The adjectival form is 'Taiwan,' not 'Taiwanese.' People should be referred to as 'from Taiwan,' or 'on Taiwan' or 'of Taiwan.'" In short, they should never, never be referred to as Taiwanese or Chinese.

From now on, all diplomatic reports will list mainland China as the official China. "Under no circumstances," the memo warns grimly, "should Taiwan be placed or footnoted under China."

We may be closer than we think to George Orwell's concept of 1984. The bureaucrats in Orwell's novel developed the language of "Newspeak." It's only 1979, and the State Department bureaucrats are already talking Newspeak.

Under the Dome: Inflation may be a cause for belt-tightening in the hinterlands, but not in Capitol Hill where our legislators enjoy the perquisites of office. Among them are 2,500 wall calendars, 37 free subscriptions to the Congressional Record and 36 copies of the Congressional Directory. The legislators get two free art reproductions from the National Gallery of Art and innumerable potted plants from the Botanic Gardens. Each congressional office gets nine telephone lines, and every lawmaker may make an unlimited number of trips to his home district. If he drives a car, he gets 17 cents per mile; if he goes by motorcycle, he is reimbursed at the rate of 15 cents per mile; if he flies by private plane, he collects 36 cents per mile.

—Congressmen now have another chance to reap retirement benefits unavailable to common citizens. Rep. John Murphy, D-N.Y., has distributed a letter to his colleagues telling them they can join the 157th Mobilization Detachment of the Army Reserve. The unit is for congressional members only. In his letter, Murphy unabashedly pointed out that those who join need only earn 50 "points" to qualify for "good retirement." The points would be earned by attending an annual training session, completing correspondence courses and going to weekly meetings at the Longworth House Office Building.

—In Washington, where oratory is art, oral history is making a comeback. An organization called "Former Members of Congress" is compiling the personal histories of congressmen's careers on tape. The collection will be stored in the Library of Congress for posterity. The interviewers are recording the oldest lawmakers first so that they don't fade away before their voices are captured on tape.

Top
Top-Heavy Military: It takes 10 times more generals, admirals, colonels and captains to command today's peacetime force of 2 million than it took to run a military force of 10 million during World War II.

By law, for example, the Navy is permitted to have four four-star admirals and 22 three-stars. Yet, the Navy actually has eight four-star admirals and 31 with three stars—13 more than the law allows.

Last year Congress ordered the Navy, Army, Air Force and Marines to cut the number of generals and admirals by 6 percent before next year. But the Pentagon potentates are complaining they just can't abide by the statutes.

The brass hats have asked Congress to repeal the reduction order and according to our sources, the request may be honored. But it's a moot point. The Pentagon couldn't meet the 1980 deadline anyway.

Hazardous Hamburgers? A laboratory in Columbus, Ohio, has just completed a study of bacteria colonies found in "fast food" hamburgers. After examining 764 patties, the researchers found there are an average of 178 bacteria colonies in every gram of hamburger meat.

About 9 percent of the colonies could destroy red blood cells, 95 percent could coagulate human blood plasma, and 45 percent could split DNA molecules—the genetic building blocks of life.

Two-Buck Flop: The two-dollar bill is three years old, but Americans just don't seem to want the bills in their wallets. The Treasury Department printed more than 500 billion of them in hopes the two-buck note would replace at least half of the singles in circulation. But the bills are considered by some superstitious citizens to be a sign of bad luck. To date, more than 300 million two-dollar bills are still being stored in Treasury Department vaults. Officials are admitting privately that the project has failed miserably.

School Finance

While not wrestling with the budget, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby was speaking his mind on other subjects this week saying he favored raising, if not just abolishing, the state interest rate ceiling. Speaker of the House Bill Clayton agreed. The two bosses of the separate chambers also saw eye to eye on the question of raising the speed limit from 55 to 70 mph. Both were against it.

Where Hobby said he would like to see things go faster was in the Senate. He warned that if debate didn't begin soon on a school finance bill, the legislature might face the same predicament it did in 1977. School financing legislation was defeated in the final hours of the 65th session.

First up with a bill for school financing was Sen. Oscar Mauzy of Dallas, the chairman of the Senate Education Committee. Mauzy's bill would cost $1.9 billion but includes $1.3 billion for local tax relief. The state, if Mauzy's plan were to be adopted, would take on a greater financial burden in funding schools. Texas now finances 60 percent of the basic education program. Mauzy would increase the state's share to 80 percent.

Sen. W.E. "Pete" Snelson of Midland will carry the teachers' banner into the struggle over money for the state's schools. Snelson's bill would emphasize teacher pay raises, as much as 15 percent over the next two years. The increases would bring teachers' salaries closer to the national average of $15,440. Although a large chunk of Clements' budget would go for education, teachers would not be granted the 5.1 percent increase proposed by the LBB.

The Texas School Administrator's finance bill would increase teacher salaries by seven percent in each of the next two years, and, like the Snelson bill supported by the Texas State Teachers Association, would raise the amount of state funds to local districts for maintenance, transportation and operation.

Short Snorts

Attack forces appeared to be forming this week for the predicted siege on the Texas Consumer Protection Act of 1973. Some fear the law might be gutted this session. Attorney General Mark White said he was against that but did say he was in favor of removing the triple damages provision of the act.

Consumers did get some good news this week—maybe. A State Board of Insurance staff report suggested the cost of property insurance be reduced by 4.1 percent amounting to a savings of $38 million for premium payers. But don't count on your savings just yet. The board hasn't decided one way or the other on the staff proposal.

Bad news for cattlemen possibly and the consumer too came this week in the form of an opinion of two top agricultural economists who said they could see price controls if there is an explosive surge in meat prices that might jar an already sensitive economy.

"A vote for Clements cost me my job," said one of the 55 employees who joined the ranks of the unemployed after the most recent firings at the Texas Department of Community Affairs. Earlier, 12 others had been let go. That made one-fourth of the agencies employees who had been terminated since Omar Harvey, the agency director, gave orders to streamline the department's workforce. Harvey was appointed by Clements. The governor vowed during his campaign to cut the number of state employees over the next four years by 25,000. From the firings at the TDCA alone, the state will save $1.3 million in salaries.

As if there weren't enough question marks in the hopper over a presidential primary, Gov. Clements added his by saying it was certainly a possibility that he might be a favorite-son candidate. That statement set off the Richter scales in the camps of George Bush and John Connally. Both men are looking to the Texas presidential primary as a springboard for bigger and, hopefully, better things.

Making up for lost time, Clements announced a batch of appointments this week. Topping the list was William P. Daves Jr. who was named to the State Board of Insurance. Other interesting names among the list of appointees were John Connally's sister, Carmen Hicks, named to the Bandera River Authority, Hall Timanus, appointed to a minor commission, who led the George Wallace delegation to the National Democratic Convention in 1972, and finally, Paul T. Wrotenbery was named (just in time) as the governor's Director of Budget and Planning.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS
By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Texans who have had to tighten their belts and their budgets because of inflation and a precarious economy, may well understand the difficulty the Legislature is having over trying to decide how the taxpayers' money should be spent.

Over just the question of how Texas will finance its schools, three answers are being considered.

As for a state-wide budget, the Legislative Budget Board has presented its proposals, departed Gov. Dolph Briscoe left behind his suggestions before leaving office and Gov. Bill Clements finally got around this week to telling legislators about his own budgetary ideas.

In his speech before a joint session of the House and Senate, Clements proposed a 17.1 percent increase in state spending. The same jump Briscoe suggested. The LBB called for a 22 percent hike.

Education, law enforcement and corrections would stand to gain most of the $2.9 billion increase in state expenditures recommended by Clements. Taxpayers would benefit too. Under Clements' plan, $1 billion would be left over for additional tax relief.

Earlier in the week, State Democratic Chairman Billy Goldberg almost upstaged Clements by accusing the governor of "grandstanding" with his trips to Mexico and Washington. Meanwhile, Goldberg pointed out, the governor had missed the deadline for submitting his budget. The law says a governor should make his budget proposals 20 days after taking office. But Goldberg's clamoring over Clements being late with his budget quickly took a back seat to the furor that broke out over what Clements finally did say.

Sen. Grant Jones of Abilene, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, a member of the Legislative Budget Board, came to the defense of the LBB spending draft, pointing out that Clements' budget would "cut both state services in real terms and provide greater potential burdens for local property taxpayers." Earlier in the week, Hobby and Jones hinted that they might be toying with the idea of a one-year state budget in light of an unpredictable economy.

The Black Experience: "Roots"—The New Generation—Praise God and Amen—There can be little doubt that the continuing version of "Roots" will be even more popular than the first one. More people watched "Roots" (first run) than any other program in television history. As Othal Lakey put it in an editorial in The Christian Index, official organ of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church: "We cried, we laughed, we got mad, we learned, and we appreciated. Above all, we identified. Yes, "Roots" is our story . . . Praise God and Amen."

The editorial continued: "Members of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church may be a bit more proud of "Roots" than maybe some others . . . Alex Haley mentioned the fact that his grandmother was one of the first graduates of Lane College in Jackson, Tennessee. As we know, Lane College is the oldest of the colleges owned and supported by the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. To realize that the granddaughter of "Chicken George" was educated at one of our schools gave each C.M.E. a genuine sense of pride.

"Further, we are proud of the fact that the author of "Roots" has his religious roots in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. The great grandfather of Alex Haley, Tom Murray, helped to organize and build the New Hope C.M.E. Church of Henning, Tennessee—which Church nurtured the Haley family.

"A television drama has great meaning. Americans—of all ethnic groups, can no longer be the same because of it. Above all, we should read the book. There the full flavor of Alex Haley as a living, breathing descendant of a slave comes through. And one gains the feeling that in the lives of Haley's forebearers, a Presence was at work. That Presence we call the Spirit of God . . . Those who watch "Roots" with the eyes of faith—the only realistic one can look at it was a Black person and remain truly human—will say that because of that Presence throughout that disastrous history, the seventh descendant of Kunta Kinte sat with the seventh descendant of "Massa Reynolds" as a truly great man. We say to Kunta—as "Fiddler" said, "No matter what they call you, you know your name." End of quote.

One of our favorite C.M.E. Bellringers Club is composed of V.L. Brown, LeFrans Frison, Jonah Parker, Johnny Wilson, A. Nance, Henry McDow, Albert Green, V. McCalaster, H. Henry, T.P. Fowler, H.R. Johnson, Dorothy Roberts and others we will call later. These are some of the persons who keep us informed on good news sources and support the black press too. A good majority of these are ministers.

The 50th session of the Abilene District Ministers, Laymen, Youth, Ushers, Stewardesses and Missionary Society, will convene in District Conference at Brown Chapel C.M.E. Church, 206 West 14th Street, San Angelo, Texas on March 2 and 3, 1979. Host pastor is Rev. S.T. Sneed, with the Rt. Rev. C.D. Coleman, presiding bishop and Rev. E.J. Lott, presiding elder and Rev. G.R. Patterson, associate.

A Bellringer Writes: "Dear Alumnus: I am sure you are interested in the survival and continuing growth of Texas College . . . I would be happy to have you serve as Texas College Recruiter in your city... Texas College will admit any qualified student regardless of race, creed or color or financial condition." Signed Allen C. Hancock, President - Texas College, Tyler, Texas.

Note: Bellringers that know of any young person, who would like to go to an A class rated institution and has at least a C average, should contact me in care of this newspaper. Full financial scholarships are available. Or you may contact Dr. Hancock personally.

In 1964 the bracero program ended in the United States. At one time, 200,000 Mexican laborers crossed the international bridges each year to fill the agricultural employment gaps. Governor Bill Clements recent endorsement of the bracero program has resulted in a coalition of opponents such as the United Farm Workers, the League of United Latin American Citizens and the Mexican-American legislative caucus. The AFL-CIO has always opposed the program. And while illegal immigration is at an all time high, most of the influx has been to the urban area. Bill Sims of Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers estimates that 60 percent of the ranches in West Texas and S.E. New Mexico could use braceros. And the fight goes on and neither side a declared winner yet.

The incidence of cancer is going up for blacks while falling for whites, indicating an overdue need for prevention and treatment programs aimed specifically at blacks, health and civic leaders recently announced in Washington, D.C. Iles Elementary To Receive Physical Fitness Flag

Iles Elementary School will receive the Physical Fitness Flag on Wednesday, February 28, from the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports. Iles has been selected as a physical education demonstration center.

Each year several new Texas schools, with exemplary physical education programs, are invited to participate in the Demonstration Center program. These schools have proved to be most instrumental in improving health and physical education programs throughout the state.

The schools must adopt standards set by the President's Council and subject themselves to complete self-evaluation as well as an evaluative visit by the Texas Education Agency's health, physical education, and recreation staff. The agency selects no more than fifteen demonstration schools in Texas in a given year.

Iles is the latest of four Lubbock public elementary schools to achieve this distinction. The other three are Bozeman, Maedgen, and Williams elementary schools.

Men's Civic Club Meets

The Men's Civic Club met on the fourth Thursday, Feb. 22. Several members were present. The club had the election of officers for the new year.

The officers elected were: President, Dr. F.L. Lovings; Vice-President, George Woods; Secretary, Crosby Morton; and Treasurer, James Craven. Harvey Davis was elected to become a member of the Human Relation Committee of Lubbock.

PTA to Meet

There is a regular scheduled meeting of the Alderson Junior High School PTA on Tuesday, March 6th. The meeting will take place in the school gymnasium at 219 Walnut Avenue.

Topic for the program will be "Annual Gymnastics Programs".

Sheridan's Ride

by Jack Sheridan

This column is a kind of belated one for the readers in Lubbock, particularly. Because of date conflicts, you see, the past two columns have been abreast of the times in reporting two major events in town, the third concert of the season by the Lubbock Symphony Orchestra with a most distinguished "replacement" soloist and the Lubbock Community Concerts Association contribution to the late winter slate. Add to that a most glowing review of the famed and oh! so talented piano duo team of old friends Ferrante and Teicher.

These columns were, indeed, written on their respective times, but we passed the usual Monday morning deadline to Tuesday, since both occurred on a Monday night and so it was the devoted (I hope) readers of Wolfforth and Shallowater sister readers who kept up. Lubbock, and my deeply proud base, came a second best. So, let me catch you up this time.

There is one honoring and proud benefit to all this. A telephone call Sunday morning and a welcome and prideful conversation therein gave us two new subscribers in a reasonably far-flung haven. Welcome to West Texas Times and longtime readers of Sheridan's Ride, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hurd of San Patricio, New Mexico. That's right, the famed two artists, Peter and his lovely Henriette Wyeth, were in town for a doctor's and they graced me and I think you by an annual subscription. Mrs. Hurd said she enjoyed the movie reviews. I hope you do, too.

So, you see, we do go on. Now to catch up. Hearken back to Monday, Feb. 19. That was the night of the first Lubbock Symphony pair at the Civic Centre Theatre. A reportedly brilliant young Russian defector pianist Youri Egorov had been announced as the soloist and most of us, up until concert time, believed it was he who played. No, and the Symphony was naughty in this, for they had the programs already printed at curtain time, with the replacement intact. It turned out to be another equally gifted and inspired young man, the first Van Cliburn Competition winner of a few years back, Ralph Votapek. He came, bless him, played us a superb Rachmaninoff Second, and a Debussy encore and left the stage and a beaming Conductor William A. Harrod and a standing ovation to cheer and thrills.

Harrod had anticipated the Rites of Spring and gave a first half of smooth, liquid eloquence with Mozart, Kabalevsky, and Wagner before tossing in his surprise artist, nabbed, incidentally, on a flight from a date from Tuscon to Indiana University. It was his generosity and our benefit that the date was so. It was a grand night for playing and listening and most memorable indeed.

That same Thursday was the occasion of the next-to-last concert offered Lubbock Community Concerts Association subscribers. It was the night, also, in the Civic Center of an in-person reception for Texas Presidential hopeful, former Governor John Connally and his Nellie, and a gathering of tycoons, Lubbock Apartment Association, but still the LCCA faithful showed in strength.

The attraction was the Bulgarian (that's true, on a social, artistic top level cultural exchange program, first-tour of the U.S. troupe who performed their folk dancing under the overall title of "Pirin," the mountains of their native country.

I'm afraid that the musicians and dancers left me somewhat cold. Their choreographed patterns were of a sameness and shifty-footed, predictable pattern and their native costumes were what one would somewhat expect. To me, the program dragged (it was half hour late in starting, due to an audience accident and bad timing) and I confess, I took my welcomed (to me) departure at the intermission period.

This column has tried, hazardly, to catch up to date. It is shorter than usual. I have movies like "The Warriors" to tell you next week and Baker Gallery of Fine Arts is again in the swim this Sunday with work by Mike Atcheson, H.A. Douglas and Patti Canaris on show for you, without charge from 1:30-4 p.m. Sunday at 13th and Ave. L.

Shopping for Heat

About 70 percent of the energy you use in your home goes toward space heating and cooling. Obviously, you would do well to invest in the most efficient equipment available.

If you're building a new home, or if it's time to replace your heating system, consider future operating costs as well as the purchase price. Remember, you will be living with a heating system for possibly the next 20 years—and fuel prices are not likely to drop!

More efficient heating systems, like the electric heat pump, can pay back their higher initial costs in one or two heating seasons.

Pay special attention to sizing the new system. With added insulation, storm windows and general weatherproofing, many homeowners are discovering that a smaller heating system can do the job.

The Air-Conditioning and Refrigeration Institute tests and rates various heat pump models and lists the results in a directory. The booklet shows the capacity of different units and the power input required for both heating and cooling. Energy efficiency ratios (EERs) of various units are also included, and should be carefully compared by energy-conscious consumers.

amended to read as follows:
DEFERRED COMPENSATION PLAN
I. INTRODUCTION
The City of Lubbock, Texas, by virtue of the authority granted by Article 6525-3b, V.T.C.S., hereby establishes the City of Lubbock Employees Deferred Compensation Plan, hereinafter referred to as the "Plan", the purpose of which is to attract and hold certain individuals by permitting them to enter into agreements with the City which will provide for monthly payments on retirement, as well as death benefits in the event of death before or after retirement. The effective date of the start of this Plan shall be July 1, 1979 or as soon as practical thereafter.

Nothing contained in this Plan shall be deemed to constitute an employment agreement between the Participant and the City and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to give a Participant any right to be retained in the employ of the City. Nothing herein shall be construed to modify the terms of any employment agreement between a Participant and the City, this Plan being intended as a supplement thereto.

This Deferred Compensation Plan shall until otherwise directed by the City Council, be implemented and serviced by Aetna Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company.

II. DEFINITIONS
2.01 Compensation: The total annual remuneration for employment or contracted services received by the Participant from the City.

2.02 Includible Compensation: The remuneration for service performed for the City which is currently includible in gross income.

2.03 Deferred Compensation: The amount of Compensation not yet earned which the Participant and the City shall mutually agree, as designated in the Participation Agreement which is made a part hereof, shall be deferred in accordance with the provisions of this Plan, subject to the following limitations:

(a) The maximum that may be deferred under this Plan for the taxable year (except as provided in paragraph 2.03 (b) is the lesser of

(1) $7,500, or
(2) 33 1/3% of the Participant's includible compensation.

(b) For any one or more of the Participant's last three taxable years ending prior to his Retirement, as defined in paragraph 2.04, the limitation set forth in paragraph 2.03 (a) shall be the lesser of:

(1) $15,000, or
(2) the sum of the limitation set forth in paragraph 2.03 (a) and so much of that limitation which has been underutilized since January 1, 1979.

2.04 Retirement: The withdrawal from service of the City with a retirement allowance to which the Participant is entitled by reason of his employment with the City.

2.05 Beneficiary: Beneficiary of beneficiaries designated by the Participant in the Participation Agreement. If more than one designated beneficiary survives the Participant, payments shall be made equally to all such beneficiaries, unless otherwise provided in the beneficiary designation. Nothing herein shall prevent the Participant from designating primary and secondary beneficiaries. Elections made by a Participant in the Participation Agreement shall be binding on any such beneficiary or beneficiaries when such elections are applicable.

2.06 Termination of Services: The severance of the Participant's contract or employment with the City for any reason other than retirement.

2.07 Participant: Any person who fulfills the eligibility and enrollment requirements of Article IV.

2.08 Participation Agreement: Written agreement between the City and a Participant setting forth certain provisions and elections relative to the Plan, incorporating the terms of the Plan and establishing the Participant's deferral and participation in the Plan.

III. ADMINISTRATION

This Plan shall be administered by a committee of not less than three (3) persons appointed by the City Manager, hereinafter referred to as the "Committee".

The Committee shall represent the City in all matters concerning the administration of this Plan. The City Manager may remove a Committee member for any reason by giving him ten (10) days written notice, and fill any vacancies thus created.

The Committee shall have full power and authority to adopt rules and regulations for the administration of the Plan, provided they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Plan, and to interpret, alter, amend or revoke any rules and regulations so adopted. Members of the Committee shall be eligible to participate in the Plan, but no member of the Committee shall be entitled to participate in discussions relating to his or her own participation.

IV. PARTICIPATION IN THE PLAN

4.01 Eligibility: Any permanent employee (officer, Commissioner, elected or appointed official or independently contracted person) who the City designates as eligible to participate, and who executes a Participation Agreement.

4.02 Enrollment in the Plan:

(a) An eligible person, with respect to participation commencing in the initial year of the Plan, may become a Participant prior to or within a reasonable time after the Plan becomes effective by agreeing to defer compensation not yet earned. A newly eligible person may become a Participant at any time in the year he first becomes eligible to participate provided the election to defer compensation is made within a reasonable time after eligibility occurs. Thereafter, a new Participant may agree to defer compensation not yet earned, but such agreement must be made prior to the beginning of the calendar year in which it is to become effective.

(b) At the time of entering into an agreement hereunder to defer compensation or at the time of re-entry following a withdrawal, a Participant must agree to defer a minimum amount of $650.00 per year.

(c) A Participant who defers compensation may not modify such agreement to change the amount deferred except with respect to compensation earned in the subsequent calendar year or except as provided in Article VII hereof with respect to withdrawals.

(d) A Participant may at any time revoke his agreement to defer compensation by notifying the City Manager in writing 30 days prior to the effective date of the termination, however, his accrued benefits shall only be paid as provided in Articles V and VI.

(e) A Participant who has withdrawn as set forth in Article VIII or revoked as set forth in (d) above may again become a Participant by executing a new agreement to defer compensation not yet earned, but such agreement must be made prior to the beginning of the calendar year in which it is to become effective.

V. BENEFITS ON RETIREMENT

5.01 If the Participant continues in the service of the City until his retirement, the Committee shall, beginning on the 15th day of the month following the date of such retirement, pay to such Participant, in accordance with elections in the Participation Agreement:

(a) A fixed monthly payment equal to the amount which would have been payable under a fixed annuity contract had such a contract been purchased from the Aetna Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company with the Participant included as the Annuitant thereunder, and had the method of payment selected been as specified in his Participation Agreement, with an annual premium equal to that portion of his Deferred Compensation as specified in his Participation Agreement; or

(b) A fixed monthly payment equal to the amount which would have been payable under a life insurance contract on the life of the Participant for whom such payments are being determined had such a contract been purchased from the Aetna Life Insurance Company, and had the method of payment selected been as specified in his Participation Agreement, with an annual premium equal to that portion of his Deferred Compensation as specified in his Participation Agreement; or

(c) A fluctuating monthly payment equal to the amount which would have been payable under a variable annuity contract with respect to the Participant for whom such payments are being determined had such a contract been purchased from the Aetna Variable Annuity Life

Insurance Company, with such Participant included as the Annuitant thereunder, and had the method of payment selected been as specified in the Participation Agreement, with an annual premium equal to that portion of deferred compensation as designated in the Participation Agreement; or

(d) Any combination of (a) through (c) above, as specified in the Participation Agreement;

(e) The Participant's payment election under this Section 5.01 must be made prior to the earliest distribution date thereof and cannot thereafter be modified.

5.02 Notwithstanding anything which appears in Section 5.01, nothing herein shall require the City to purchase such contracts, but in the event the City shall purchase such contracts, it shall not be required to exercise any option, election, or right with respect to such contracts, or if it wishes to exercise any option, election or right under such contracts, it shall not be required to exercise such option, election or right in any particular manner.

5.03 Should the Participant die at any time after Retirement, whether prior to or after he has begun to receive the Retirement payment (s) provided by Section 5.01, his designated Beneficiary or Beneficiaries shall be entitled to receive the balance remaining of such payment(s). If no Beneficiary is designated as provided in Article 11 of this Agreement, or if the designated Beneficiary does not survive the period during which such payment(s) are to be made, then the executors or administrators of the Participant shall receive a lump-sum amount equal to the current value of such payment(s).

VI. BENEFITS ON TERMINATION OF SERVICES OR DEATH PRIOR TO RETIREMENT

6.01 In the event the Participant terminates his Services for reasons other than Retirement, The City shall pay to the Participant, as specified in his written agreement with the City, an amount equal to what would be available under the contracts described in Section 5.01.

6.02 In the event the Participant dies before his Retirement or prior to receiving the benefit provided for in Section 6.01, his Beneficiary or Beneficiaries shall be entitled to receive a death benefit equal to that which shall be available under the contract described in Section 5.01. If no Beneficiary is designated as provided in Article 11, or if the designated Beneficiary does not survive the Participant for a period of 30 days, then the executors or administrators of the Participant shall receive the benefit in a lump sum.

VII. WITHDRAWALS

7.01 For serious financial reasons a Participant may apply to the Committee for a withdrawal from the Plan prior to Retirement or other termination of the Participant's service with the City. Such early withdrawal shall be permitted only in the event of real emergencies which are beyond the Participant's control, are not foreseeable by the Participant, and which will cause the Participant great financial hardship if early withdrawal is not permitted. Serious financial reasons shall include the following: bankruptcy or impending bankruptcy, unexpected and unreimbursed major expenses resulting from illness to person or accident to person or property or other types of unexpected and unreimbursed expenses of a major nature that would not normally be budgetable. Withdrawals for foreseeable expenditures normally budgetable such as down payments on a home or purchase of an auto or college expenses will not be permitted.

7.02 The amount withdrawable will be an amount equal to what would be available under the contracts described in Section 5.01 at the time of withdrawal or the amount necessary to meet the emergency situation, as determined by the Committee, whichever is the lesser.

7.03 Upon approval by the Committee of the withdrawal, the participant shall be treated under this Plan as if he had terminated, and the City shall on the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following such approval, pay or cause to be paid to the Participant the amount withdrawable in lump sum. Following a withdrawal, a Participant's compensation will be restored to the sum to which said Participant is entitled by reason of his employment with the City. Any remaining benefits shall be payable according to otherwise applicable sections of the Plan.

VIII. LEAVE OF ABSENCE

8.01 If a Participant is on an approved leave of absence from the City with compensation, or on an approved leave of absence without compensation for a period of not more than six (6) months, his participation in this Plan will continue.

8.02 If a Participant is on an approved leave of absence without compensation for more than six months, said Participant will be deemed to have withdrawn from the Plan as of the end of such six month period. The Committee shall treat such Participant as if he had terminated his services and pay such benefit or benefits as provided in Section 6.01; however, such payments will not be made until the Participant has terminated his services, retired or died.

IX. AMENDMENT OR TERMINATION OF PLAN

9.01 The City Council may at any time terminate this Plan. Upon such termination, the Participants in the Plan will be deemed to have withdrawn from the Plan as of the date of such termination, the Participant's full compensation on a non-deferred basis will be thereupon restored and the Committee shall treat such Participants as if they had terminated their services on the date of the termination and such benefit or benefits as provided for in Section 6.01.

9.02 The City Council may also amend the provisions of this plan at any time; provided, however, that no amendment shall affect the rights of Participants or their Beneficiaries to the receipt of payment of benefits, to the extent of any compensation deferred before the time of the amendment, as adjusted for investment experience under the contracts described in Section 5.01 prior to and subsequent to the amendment.

X. NON-ASSIGNABILITY CLAUSE

It is agreed that neither the Participant, nor his Beneficiary nor any other designee, shall have any right to commute, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise convey the right to receive any payments hereunder which payments and rights thereto are expressly declared to be non-assignable and non-transferable; and in the event of any attempted assignment or transfer, the City shall have no further liability hereunder; nor shall any unpaid benefits be subject to attachment, garnishment or execution, or be transferable by operation of law in event of bankruptcy, insolvency, except to the extent otherwise required by law.

XI. AMOUNTS DEFERRED-SOLE PROPERTY OF THE CITY

All amounts of compensation deferred under this Plan, all property and rights which may be purchased by the City with such amounts and all income attributable to such amounts, property or rights shall remain solely the property and rights of the City (without being restricted to the provision of benefits under this Plan) subject only to the claims of the City's general creditors. It is understood that the City is not obligated hereby to purchase any property or rights to support the promises made under this Plan.

XII. APPLICABLE LAW

This Plan shall be construed under the law of the State of Texas.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED

towns in the world. The minister also said that Rev. Lang would like it so well that he may not want to go to heaven.

Rev. Lang explains why he moved to Lubbock. "I moved to Lubbock because there was great potentials. Since I have been in Lubbock for the past 17 years, I have seen a lot of changes. Changes in desegregation and the upgrading of jobs."

Rev. Lang is active in the East Lubbock Inter-Denominational Alliance. He serves as the president. He also serves as the president of the Caprock District Sunday School BTU. He is a dedicated minister. He was employed at Southwestern Bell but retired at an early age to spend more time in the ministry.

Rev. Lang states, "If the blacks would come together uniting and joining forces, we are able to accomplish many things that has never been done before. The black people have a lot going for them. All we need to do is to put it in practice."

According to Rev. Lang, the greatest setback he has found in Lubbock is unity.

Rev. Lang concludes by saying, "There are a lot of dedicated people who needs to be recognized and pushed forward. I would like to see the time come when we can get the majority to work for the accomplishments of all people. No matter how or what we achieve, it is for us."

Rev. Lang and his family has seen a lot of hard times but through their faith in God they have overcome it all.

grams, and such other programs as are designed for the betterment of the poor and the community. It shall have the authority to initiate studies, propose projects, develop plans for financial assistance, to recommend and coordinate comprehensive programs as well as to perform all functions necessary to conduct the above mentioned programs.

(b) The department shall develop and conduct democratic selection procedures which will provide for the selection of representatives of the poor on the community services commission board. Such plans and procedures shall insure the maximum feasible participation of the poor, be consistent with the provisions of the Community Services Act of 1974, as well as provisions of other federal, state or local enactments, as amended, and the rules and regulations of the community services administration. The department shall also propose to the City Manager for Council approval; procedures for adjusting, expanding and realigning commission membership so as to maintain proper representation of public officials, the poor and private groups. In order that the first commission may be constituted, initial democratic selection procedures shall be devised by the planning consultant to the department, which shall be consistent with provisions of the above law and regulations.

(c) The department shall further cooperate with, encourage the participation of and enlist the support of extra-municipal agencies and organizations, both private and public, to include regional councils, state and federal agencies in order that all available resources may best be focused to secure the poor; skills, knowledge, motivation and opportunities needed to become self-sufficient, as well as to afford the community at large a higher quality of life.

SEC. 2-97.
DIRECTOR, PERSONNEL, FACILITIES

The community services department shall have a director appointed by the city manager after consideration of the recommendations of the community services commission, and such personnel as may be authorized by appropriate action with adequate facilities to conduct its activities.

SEC. 2-98.
ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD

There is hereby created an administrative board for community services program which shall be entitled the "Community Services Commission."

SEC. 2-99.
COMMISSION FUNCTIONS

The functions of the community services commission shall be to participate in the development and implementation of the programs designed to serve the poor and the community at large. The commission shall upon reasonable advance notice, make recommendations and its views known to the City Council concerning the exercise of Council powers employed to conduct programs pursuant to this Article. The commission shall act as an advisory agent to assist the City Council and City Manager in the supervision, guidance and enforcement of such rules, standards and policies as are adopted from time to time to conduct the programs. A primary purpose of the commission shall be to function as a continuing and effective mechanism for securing broad community involvement in programs conducted pursuant to this Article.

The director of the community services department shall give the City Manager reasonable advance notice of commission recommendations to the City Council, and provide him with a copy of such recommendations.

It is hereby stated that any delegation of authority, if not expressly stated herein, amendments hereto or City Council Resolution shall be retained by the City Council as the governing board until such authority is expressly delegated to the commission.

Only the governing bodies of political subdivisions which are a part of this commission may create any indebtedness.

SEC. 2-100.
COMPOSITION; SELECTION AND
TERMS OF MEMBERS

The community services commission shall be composed of fifteen members, five of whom shall be public officials or their representatives, five of whom shall be representatives of the poor and five of whom shall be officials or members of business, industry, labor, religious, welfare, education, significant minority groups and other major groups and interests in the community as are designated from time to time.

(a) Public officials, representatives. The City Council shall appoint five members to the commission who may be members of the council, their representatives or such other officials as may be available and willing to serve. Should other political subdivisions participate in the programs conducted pursuant to this Article, then the City Council shall determine after consulting with the governing officials of such political subdivisions, a method of allocating appointments which will provide such political subdivisions representation. Should public officials of the Council or political subdivisions cease to remain public officials of their respective bodies before the expiration of their terms as commission members, then the Council or political subdivisions as the case may be, may make an appointment to fill the unexpired commission term of such public officials.

The original term of three members of this category shall be for one year from April 1, 1979. The original term of two members of this category shall be for two years from April 1, 1979. The terms of members shall be for two years. Members within this category may serve such subsequent terms as the City Council and political subdivisions in their discretion may reappoint them.

(b) Representatives of the poor. Five members of the commission shall represent the poor and be chosen in accordance with democratic selection procedures adequate to assure they are representative of the poor in the area to be served. Representatives shall be chosen from poor or low-income areas as shown on the census tracts of the latest U.S. Census. The original terms of three members of this category shall be for one year from April 1, 1979. The original terms of two members of this category shall be for two years from April 1, 1979. The terms of members shall be for two years. No member of this category may be selected if his service during the entire term to which he is selected would result in his serving more than three consecutive years or more than a total of six years as a member of the commission.

(c) Representatives of private groups and interests. The City Council shall from time to time select five private groups and interests. These private groups and interests should be business, industry, labor, religious, welfare, education, significant minority groups and other such major private groups and interests as are in the community. These groups and interests shall be selected in a manner to insure that the commission will remain a continuing and effective mechanism for securing broad community involvement. Once the selections are made and concurrence obtained by the community services administration, as required by any other federal or state funding agency, the respective groups and interests shall choose their representatives to serve on the commission.

The original terms of three members of this category shall be for one year from April 1, 1979. The original terms of two members of this category shall be for two years from April 1, 1979. The terms of members shall be for two years. No member of this category may be appointed if his service during the entire term to which he is appointed would result in his serving more than three consecutive years or more than a total of six years as a member of the commission.

(d) To be eligible for membership on the commission a person must be at least 18 years of age upon commencing his or her term.

(e) Members may be removed from office by reason of moving from the City or the jurisdiction elected from, inability to serve, or failure to attend 3 of any 5 consecutive meetings.

SEC. 2-101.
GENERAL RULES AND PROCEDURES

The commission may select officers and create such committees as may be necessary to perform its functions. Any committee created shall fairly reflect the composition of the board. At any regular or special meeting of the commission or committees of the commission, not less than fifty percent of the total respective memberships shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of the majority of the respective members in attendance at a regular or special meeting at which there is a quorum, shall be the act of the commission or committees. Unless in conflict with this chapter, Roberts Rules of Order, as revised, published by Scott

Foresman and Company, shall govern the conduct of all meetings.

The commission may propose procedures for the conduct of business and after the affirmative vote for the majority of the commission membership, submit such procedures or amendments, to the City Council for its approval.

SECTION 4. This Ordinance shall become effective on April 1, 1979.
