Dunbar Student Victim Of Fatal Mishap

Collins Family Reunion Held

Mr. Ellis C. Collins was host to a family reunion of last Saturday and Sunday, March 6 and 7. The reunion was held in the home of Mrs. L.H. Crawford, where he is a long time resident. Mr. Collins has three brothers, L.C. (his twin now living in Denver, Colorado), David Lee of Midland, and Richard, Jr. of Littlefield.

Each brother, joined by his wife, and family, motored into Lubbock on Saturday afternoon and spent the night and all the day Sunday. It was the first time all of the Collins boys had been together since January of 1958, at which they were called to attend the funeral of their father, Mr. George Allen Collins.

The Collins family originally comes from Marlin, Texas. They moved to the west in the fall of 1939, making Tahoka their home; later in 1942 they moved to Lubbock where they became engaged in the cleaner business.

The Collins boys are very talented; they once made up a singing group known to many as the original "Holy Gospel Singers," and were known throughout the state of Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico. They are former members of Rev. W.D. Hayne's church, Holiness #2, where they served as Sunday School Superintendent, Deacon Board Assistant Secretary, and member of the church choir.

Jesse Collins, their father's youngest brother, was with them for the reunion. Even though he is a shut-in he seemed to have really enjoyed the occasion along with the many friends of the family who were present for this joyous occasion.

Mr. Ellis C. Collins climaxed the affair with a very lovely Sunday dinner. There were family pictures taken and the family worshipped together on Sunday evening.

Seventeen-year old Evelyn Johnson, a Dunbar Student, was killed when she was thrown from the automobile at right after the vehicle and the car at left hit at the corners of East 28th and Redbud Avenue on last Friday afternoon. Her body landed at the half-way point between the two vehicles. The home shown in picture is that of Mrs. Viola Clark of 1714 East 28th Street. Shown on the left is Wheatley School.

A seventeen year old Dunbar High School Sophomore, Evelyn Johnson, was killed Friday afternoon when she was thrown from a car as it careened from a collision at the corners of East 28th and Redbud Avenue.

This death was labeled the third in the city this year and the second in less than a month on city streets.

Evelyn was a passenger in a car driven by her brother, Rayfield Johnson age 20, of 3504 East 15th street. They were enroute from school when a collision occurred with another car driven by Melvin Earl Hicks, 17, 1722 East 32nd street.

The car driven by Hicks was traveling south on Redbud and the Johnson's car, a 1954 convertible, was heading west on East 28th street. The front of Hicks' auto struck the right rear side of the other vehicle, spinning it around.

Hick's car then careened to the southwest corner of the intersection, striking the corner home of Mrs. Viola Clark, 1714 East 28th street. Johnson's car also in the same state careened to the southwest corner of the intersection, unmarked by traffic signs. Jumping the curb and coming to a complete halt in Mrs. Clark's front lawn.

The only passenger, Evelyn, was thrown out and landed in the yard about half-way between the vehicles. The damage to the vehicles were not as great as would have been expected for such a tragedy. Damages to Johnson's car were minor, while the car driven by Hicks was damaged when it struck the corner of the home.

The girl was dead on arrival at Methodist Hospital.

Honored With Party

"I was surprised when I entered the room", smiled Mrs. Josephine Sneed, a very happy victim of a surprise birthday.

This party was given by Mr. S.T. Sneed of 1503 East 25th street last Saturday evening at the Mae Simmons Party House. There were approximately forty people present at this gala affair.

Mrs. Sneed, mother of seven children, Joyce, Linda Kaye, Ocquinetta, Sue Kim, Larry D., Mae Ellen, and Sandy Todd; received many lovely gifts from her family and friends. The dining area of the party house was decorated with many beautiful balloons, and the delicious cake and punch really topped off the affair.

The Police Beat

By: T. J. Patterson

WOMAN KICKED AND BEATEN

A woman was kicked and beaten by the face and body on last weekend. She had several broken ribs and her face was bruised—even her lips. There were several witnesses to the incident. The badly beaten woman said the same man who hurt her slapped a friend of hers several times. According to the woman she would definitely file on the party involved. This incident occurred in the 1800 block of Avenue "B".

HOUSE BURGLARY

Marvin Williams stated that someone kicked in the rear door of his home at 608 Avenue "E" and took one of his blankets, three suits, (size 42), and several dress shirts. The house was torn up as though someone was looking for something. Mr. Williams stated, "I don't know who did it."

THEFT OF SHOES

Two little boys picked up two pair of shoes at the Wilson Used Clothing store last week. They were black Freeman loafers valued at $5.95 each. The pair ran out the store with shoes in their hands. They were last seen running west down 14th street. They were believed to be about eight years of age. The value of the shoes were $11.90.

STEALS FRIEND'S RADIO

It's pretty bad when a friend steals something from you. Well this happened last week. A young man invited his friend to go home with him after a trip from town. While the two talked the resident of the home went to the restroom and upon returning he noticed that his friend had gone. Plus his Admiral, electric, clock radio. Value $17.00. He filed a complaint against his so called friend.

Ella Mae Bennett...Mother Away From Home At TSU

By Betsy B. Johnson

Houston FORWARD TIMES

Editor's Note: Following is the completion of a Forward Times article which we ran last week.

For many years Mrs. Bennett has been mother to the campus chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity that other Greeks are trying to lure her away. In the meantime they all call her Mother.

Mrs. Bennett has also had the unique experience of former students bringing their girls back to the campus telling her that they want to be under her supervision when they get college age. This is indeed a heart warming and happy reward to know that the advice, guidance, and direction you have given has fallen on fertile ground.

Mrs. Bennett first started at Texas Southern University as secretary to the late Dr. R. O. Lanier and Dr. W. Lyda. Prior to this, she worked at Prairie View as secretary to Col. Hamilton and Major Reeves.

Dr. Ina Bolton Brown encouraged Mrs. Bennett to continue her studies from 1954 to 1957. Mrs. Bennett did her apprenticeship at Arkansas A. and M. Dean Jones was her boss at this time also. Following this stint Mrs. Bennett came to Houston.

FELONY THEFT

On last week a salesman at Steins Clothiers stated that two females came into his place of business three times, each time with two different men. He stated that one of his salesman told him on the previous evening of the theft that he thought one of the females had taken one of their suits. On the next morning while taking an inventory on the merchandise it was discovered that twelve suits were missing. A value of $400.00.

Mrs. Bennett's formal training is as follows: She did her undergraduate work at Talahoga and her graduate work at Prairie View, New Mexico State Teachers College, and Texas Southern University of Denver and the University of Houston.

Mrs. Ella Mae Bennett is a native of Beaumont, Texas and she is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ike W. Bennett. She has a son William F. Clark. William is a med student at Maharry Medical School. Dean Bennett is an adoring and proud grandmother. Her grandson is Milton H. Clark age eight. Her daughter-in-law Yvonne Y. Clark was featured in Ebony Magazine as Tennessee State's Lady Engineer.

In spite of the time consuming position of being Associate Dean Mrs. Bennett finds time for her hobbies of collecting perfume and cups and saucers. Her three room apartment has a closet devoted to her perfume collection and cups and saucers make up a large part of the decor. What could be nicer after a full day than to browse and muse over fabulous perfumes like Balenciaga, Le Dis, L' Aimant, Paris au Printemps, and Black, Pink, and pottery cups are a sight to see.

Bill Introduced

House Bill 393, designed by the Houston Board of Realtors to protect deed restrictions, was introduced into the Texas legislature last week with the endorsement of 11 of Harris County's 12 Representatives.

The Bill also has the support of State Senator Criss Cole. "At present, it is up to one or more homeowners in a subdivision to bring court action if they find a violation of deed restrictions," K.E. Antone, chairman of the Board's residential protection committee, explained. "Under the proposed law, the machinery of the state's judicial system would be thrown behind deed restrictions, so that the courts would enforce deed restrictions and would grant injunctions against apparent violators while suits were pending."

In many instances of deed restriction violations, it has been necessary for a civic club to collect a "war chest" to stop an infraction, it was explained by Grant Webster, Realtor president. In some cases, he added, violators take advantage of this time consuming process to complete a construction project in violation of the restrictions.

"Other homeowners and owners of land have been unable to obtain a temporary injunction because of the legal expense.
