REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE NAMED HERE THIS WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams have been elected to serve on the East Lubbock Republican committee. Mr. Williams will serve as division transportation chairman. His wife, Shirley, is the executive secretary for the executive committee of East Lubbock Republican Committee.

Both are chartered members of the organization.

They share the idea that the Republican Party can be the access road, where by, they, and other Blacks can have a more affective voice in the electoral process of the Nation, and especially, Lubbock County and the State of Texas.

One of the leading concerns that alarms Mr. Williams is "the rising inflation that is sweeping our country and of noneless important are the high taxes, both of which have limited the power of my income." Shirley also states, aside from these two major concerns, is the fact that the present administration seems to be unable to find a solution to these problems.

Both believe that through the East Lubbock Republican Committee, the County

Republican, and State and National, there is an answer to be found. They agree "it lies within the Republican Party." Mr. and Mrs. Williams agree that although they have never voted, Republicans support Republican candidates. And after talking with the Rev. Shepherd, who announced as a Republican candidate for the Texas House 75-B, and listening to him discuss the issues and stating why he became a Republican, the decision to make the move to the Republican Party was not a difficult one.

Mrs. Shirley Williams

Shirley states: "Being Black and being a Republican is really no different than being Black and a Democrat. It only takes more courage to say I'm a Black Republican in Lubbock and proud of it." They agree that the East Lubbock Republican Committee will be a great advancement to the progress of the Black community in Lubbock. They also state that they are proud to be in the organizational stage of the committee, which was founded by Rev. McKinley Shepherd.

The Williams have a son, Mr. Williams is a PBX technician for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. His wife is a housewife and a student at South Plains College. Both are members of the New Hope Baptist Church. Rev. A. I. Dunn, pastor.

Mr. Ray Williams

the food committee and is a wonderful cook. His niece, Mrs. Lizzie Johnson, carried him to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Amarillo last week. He is reported to be doing nicely at this report.

MAIL DELAYS TO TWO COUNTRIES

Mail intended for both Vietnam and Jamaica is being delayed, because of conditions that exist in those countries, the U.S. Postal Service said this week.

Post offices in the U.S. are continuing to accept mail for both nations but delays may add weeks to delivery times. Both airmail and surface mail to Vietnam have been delayed since the China-Vietnam border was closed by the present conflict. U.S. postal officials are now attempting to find an alternate route for mail to Vietnam.

The Postal Service is also holding air and surface mail intended for Jamaica because of the strike of postal workers in that island nation.

REP. SALINAS INTRODUCES TECH BILL

Representative Froy Salinas announced last week that he has introduced HB 1897. This bill, if passed, will place two Texas Tech students on the Board of Regents. The students will be appointed by the president of the Students Association with the advice and consent of the student senate. The student regents will serve two year terms which will expire on alternate years. By doing this, there will always be one experienced member on the board.

Representative Salinas stated that this is a program which he has been interested in for some time. He said that he feels today's young people are very mature and capable of giving vital input into the university system. He further stated that he believes that the students are not only concerned with the things that effect their daily lives but are also concerned with the future of Texas Tech.

The South Plains Lions Boys' Club is located at 1801 East 24th Street. For additional information, contact Theodore Phea at 762-0204.

The new Act also tightens student eligibility requirements and eliminates any households owning a luxury car, by counting the value of non-income-producing vehicles in excess of $4,500 toward a household's allowable assets. The assets limits, which had not changed since 1971, has been increased from $1,500 to $1,750, except for households of two or

WHY NOT?

SINK OR SWIM TOGETHER!

Black people in America have to come together now! We must come together with love, respect, and trust each other in order to make it as a people. To accomplish this, the total community has to work together. We can start with the staunchest white oriented Black Bourgeoisie' across town and the ones in the Black community with the position or job that helped him to obtain some boot straps to be pulled up by, and should filer down to the hardes luck Brother in ther heart of he ghetto, and everything in between -- churches, educators, politicians, social and civic leaders and organizations.

Black people have to remember one thing!! We are all Black, and don't you ever forget it!! If you think this is not a true challenge, then see if the system won't let you know who you are and where you stand. No matter what status some of us may attain, we must and should remember that we are all Black and must learn who we are and where we have come from in order to know where we are going and how and when we will get there.

We have no other choice than to stand together or we will fall apart!!

Black people, from the meakest UNCLE TOM to the meanest of MILITANTS, we have to stand together as a people to survive in the years to come. We can no longer afford to divide ourselves into groups, because that's the name of the game: "divide and conquer". When it all boils down to the facts of who we are when you look back, we all come from the same place. If you don't believe it, check the biggest BLACK BOUREOISE' and you will find out some of his background and relatives are just like any other Blacks.

We as a people are going to have to learn to love each other as Brothers and Sisters. There is no ouier way if we plan on surviving in AMERICA. We can't continue to talk all that BLACK BULL we talk, but we must act the part because in the end we will all sink or swim together.

Let's do it for AMERICA, but most of all -- BLACK AMERICA. WHY NOT!!!!

BLACK FOLK, QUIT TAKING HANDOUTS!!

Several weeks ago, we reported a story about $16,000 being made available for Blacks and other minorities in the poverty area to pay their gas bills. If that isn't a way to keep Black people, in particular, in prison, then we'll eat your hat in a public square. We don't need any handouts to make it in this world. True, it may become rather difficult sometimes, but we don't need people from social agencies to advertise they are going to pay our gas bills if we happen to be a poor minority.

These kinds of special efforts actually hurt our images. Our kids don't have nothing to look forward to in life. The only images they (kids) can see is us (Black folk) receiving a handout from Uncle Sugar or some other state agency who cordinates these funds. Therefore, generation after generation of Black people will continue to rely on some agency to help them.

If they are going to give some handouts, why not give those who will teach Black people how to go into their own business so many of us may become self sufficient. We don't need programs which will fight symptoms, and not causes.

Black folk, don't keep falling for those sugar coated programs which are here to keep your minds locked up. As one man once said: "Being broke is temporary; and being poor is the state of the mind."

WHY ARGUE? THE FACTS ARE HERE!

BLACK EMPOWERMENT

By Dr. Nathaniel Wright, Jr. Human Rights Activist

REFLECTIONS ON SENATOR BROOKE'S DEFEAT

During the early election night counting, when Senator Edward W. Brooke was losing in his re-election bid for the U.S. Senate, Senator Charles Percy remarked that he could not believe that the "good people" of Massachusetts would ever turn their back upon Edward W. Brooke.

What Senator Percy doubtless bore in mind was at least several facts that all black Americans should reflect upon—the meaning of Edward W. Brooke's tenure in the United States Senate.

For one thing, Senator Charles Percy is a deeply sensitive and knowledgeable man. He would be mindful of the fact that—regardless of any actual or perceived mistakes—Senator Brooke brought to the United States Senate some of the most remarkable gifts of our age.

Among the U.S. Senators who were Mr. Brooke's colleagues, he stood out clearly as a giant. Some scholars have suggested that, in terms of statesmanlike demeanor, Mr. Brooke has had no recent peer. Hence, black Americans should be profoundly proud of Mr. Brooke as an exceedingly rare role model not only for our people but for our nation as a whole.

We far too often talk the rhetoric of equality when our actual trust should be in the word excellence alone. No man or woman, in the most profound sense of the term, "the equal" of another, each of us has unique gifts, and the development and exercise of which no one may be superior.

Senator Brooke assuredly did not see "to be equal" but rather to excel. In this thrust or striving toward excellence alone on Mr. Brooke's part, we should find more than sufficient reason to hail our former U.S. Senator as a priceless hero among us.

As Senator Percy spoke of Mr. Brooke, he was probably recalling Mr. Brooke's brilliance of mind, which he used constantly to re-shape and to re-define issues in order to be a true leader; a figure ahead of the crowd.

One had simply to read, week by week, Mr. Brooke's messages to the people of Massachusetts to discover his remarkable ability to move consistently toward the refinement or the re-assessment of issues, rather than to entrench himself in a justification of, where he had stood in the past.

For black Americans, this is a trait which we must revere most deeply and come to follow assiduously. For much too long a time now, so much of our leadership has been bent upon "self-justification." We need to get away from that kind of perilously childish behavior.

One of the great hymns of the church reminds us that "New occasions teach new duties (and) Time makes ancient good uncouth."

While we must prize the spirit in which he plowed and raked the furrows in the field behind us, our sights must be kept securely upon the plow—and upon the task ahead which remains to be accomplished... in its own way.

Reverence for the past does not call for an imitation of its actions, but for an acceptance of its spirit of excellence and openness which thereby created accomplishments which were appropriate to the past.

Senator Brooke came as close as any recent member of the United States Senate to recalling, through his great mind and rich imaginative powers, the oratorical skills and the handsomely commanding presence of our best statesmen in our nation's idealized past.

Yet, Mr. Brooke did not adopt positions appropriate to the 18th or the 19th centuries—rather, he stood in the forefront of the pioneering leaders of our present day. That he did so successfully without controversy but with a spirit of conciliation should suggest to all of us as black Americans that we can—and perhaps must—accomplish any truly enduring purpose in a spirit of win-winness.

Once we succumb to the spirit of antagonism rather than sustain a stance of cooperation, we are needlessly caught in a trap where our energies are largely lost in defensive effort rather than being spent in a constant forging ahead toward the realization of our goals.

Why we must be enduringly grateful to Senator Edward W. Brooke should be evident. He should be held in the highest honor and esteem among us—we must see in him a great man among—and above—our nation's greatest in the field of political life. As a pioneer in ways in which we must pioneer, if freedom is our goal, we must salute and emulate much of his spirit in almost all that we do each day.

BLACK POETRY

WHERE ARE YOU?

I laugh, I talk, I play, I sing... There's something missing. I've tried many things, and yet... Your touch is not near. Gently, softly, smoothly is such melody; Filled with ecstasy, Exploding, and... You are not here. —Stephanie Thomas (Did you ever miss someone? Here the poetess tells us that she once did. And, O, the pain!)

PARENTS UNHAPPY AT ROOSEVELT!!

Parents of students who attend the Roosevelt Independent School District, east of the City of Lubbock, are unhappy with some incidents which have involved their boys and girls there. Just Wednesday of this week, a crying mother called the Lubbock Digest and told of incidents which have involved their young people with the bus driver of many of the Black kids. This mother wants something done about the situation. She admits that there have been problems, like this one, over the past year.

This newspaper advised this mother to go to the Board of Trustees and let them know what is going on. She also admits that the principal of the school there takes sides with the teachers about certain incidents which involve Black students. As we told this mother, any administrator, if he or she is worth their salt, they will take the side of their employee.

What this parent and others must do is go to the Board of Trustees and let them know what is going on. This concerned group of parents must get down to the "nitty gritty" and let those persons who set policy know what is going on. It is no time to sit back and do nothing. After all, these young Black boys and girls will be adults of tomorrow. If they don't get help now, they will be of no use to us in the future.

This holds true for any group who is concerned about the welfare of their little people. Talk is cheap, therefore, we must get involved and get some results. If this group of Roosevelt parents are unhappy with the outcome of their visit with the Board of Trustees, then there are other avenues to follow.

This newspaper hopes that mother who called us will get a group of parents to have a visit with the Board of Trustees. As she says: "This has been happening since the beginning of school last fall." It is time for something to be done about it now.

Get involved, Parents of the Roosevelt Independent School District.

OUR GIANTS SPEAK

W.E.B. DuBois and Booker T. Washington REVISITED

We continue a most important and in-depth look at Dr. W.E.B. DuBois and Dr. Booker T. Washington. Older persons and thoughtful college and university (or high school honor) students will want to examine the bibliographies of these men. A period of 2 to 4 years of leisurely focus upon their lives will bring the kind of rich insight needed to re-interpret their lives today. Shorter periods of formal study, of work on your own, will also be rewarding. In this part of the series, you may enjoy listing fresh insights and intuitions which you have gained.

Part I of II Parts

W.E.B. DuBOIS AND THE NEED FOR AGITATION

Some good friends of the cause we represent fear agitation. They say: "Do not agitate—do not make a noise!" They add, "Agitation is destructive or at best negative—what is wanted is positive, constructive work."

Such honest critics mistake the function of agitation. A toothache is agitation—is a toothache a good thing? No. It is therefore useless? No. It is supremely useful, for it tells the body of decay, dyspepsia and death. Without it, the body would suffer unknowingly. It would think all is well, when lo! danger lurks.

The same is true of the social body. Agitation is a necessary evil to tell of the ills of the suffering. Without it, many a nation has been lulled to false security and preened itself with virtues it did not possess.

The function of this association is to tell the nation the crying evil of race prejudice. It is a hard duty but a necessary one—a divine one. It is Pain; Pain is not good but Pain is necessary. Pain does not aggravate disease—Disease causes pain. Agitation does not mean Aggravation—Aggravation calls for Agitation in order that Remedy may be found.

Key Questions:

- 1. What are three main issues raised in this article?
2. What does this article suggest about our life situation today?
3. How many words did you look up in the dictionary? (If we do not use a dictionary daily, and for every word whose full meanings we may not know, we cannot grow individually and assure the best use of our resources for group freedom and a better America.)

Across The Nation

News From Home Folks

This feature is a news compilation from more than 100 black-owned and oriented newspapers in this nation. It deals with what blacks, who are all-too-often little recognized, are doing to promote full participation in American life by black Americans. It is thus a salute from all of our readers for unsung heroes... and is designed to be a challenge for all of us to see on doing our very best.

The Macon, Georgia, Courier tells of much of the positive feelings which black Americans have for the altogether racist-criticized brother at the United Nations, U.N. Ambassador Andrew Young. The Courier notes: Ambassador Andy Young, United States Representative to the United Nations, received the Martin Luther King, Jr. Award from the Southern Christian Leadership Conference at its 21st Annual Convention held in Birmingham, Ala.

Rev. Dr. Joseph Lowry, SCLC President, in announcing the award said, "Mr. Young has used a non-violent approach to promote worldwide peace." The Martin Luther King, Jr. Award was established by Rev. Dr. Ralph David Abernathy after the death of Dr. King. SCLC's founder and first President, to honor individuals who have given most to promote social change through non-violence.

Young, a former Congressman and leader in the civil rights movement, worked closely with Dr. King during the 60s and was himself an executive of SCLC. He was educated at Howard University and the Hartford Theological Seminary and has served in myriad roles.

Other prominent persons who received awards were Hank Aaron and Randolph Blackwell. The four-day working session attracted some 1,200 people from across the country.

The Savannah, Georgia, Tribune tells of a local success story which should inspire us wherever we live in our nation. The Tribune relates: The Georgia Association of Black Elected Officials (GABEO) has elected State Representative Bobby Hill of Savannah as the organization's President for a 2 1/2 year term. Hill was elected during a recent meeting of the GABEO in Atlanta. Hill succeeds Paul Ware, President of the Atlanta City Council.

The Savannah attorney called his election to the presidency "the height of my political career."

He now holds two important posts in Georgia's black political hierarchy. He also serves as chairman of the Black Caucus of the state legislature.

Hill said he felt the presidency of the association was a key post in Georgia politics because the organization "has a statewide network for affecting the conduct of all elected officials in the state, black or white."

The association is made up of 10 black officials and has been in existence for six years. Hill has been in charge of the association's legislative session for the past four years.

Hill said he was elected unanimously Saturday after three opponents withdrew from contention.

Other officers elected Saturday included Atlanta Mayor Maynard Jackson, vice president; State Rep. J.C. Daughtery of Atlanta, treasurer; and Dolores Brooks of the Macon City Council, secretary. Chosen as division heads were Macon school board member Melvin Williams, school board section; State Rep. Calvin Smyre of Columbus, legislative section; and Richmond County Commissioner Edward McIntyre, county government section.

The Sacramento, California Observer tells of the creative response of some black local citizens to the passage of Proposition 13, limiting the amount of public funds which may be spent for all causes collectively. The Observer reports:

Representatives from many Sacramento area human service organizations gathered to ask for federal revenue sharing funds from the Citizens Advisory Commission on General Revenue Sharing, which has no money to allocate.

Although the County Board of Supervisors, due to Prop. 13, has placed $13.5 million in the general fund, leaving the commission none to dole out, the commission took nearly three hours of testimony on the worth of the organizations from representatives.

In fact, the commission's

DISCIPLINE WITHIN THE FELLOWSHIP

1 Corinthians 5:9 - 6:8

9 I wrote you in my letter not to associate with immoral men; 10 not at all meaning the immoral of this world, or the greedy and robbers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world.

11 But rather I wrote to you not to associate with any one who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or robber - not even to eat with such a one.

12 For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge?

13 God judges those outside. Drive out the wicked person from among you.

3 Do you not know that we are to judge angels? How much more, matters pertaining to this life!

4 If then you have such cases, why do you lay them before those who are least esteemed by the church?

5 I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is no man among you wise enough to decide between members of the brotherhood.

6 But brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers?

7 To have lawsuits at all with one another is defeat for you. Why not rather be defrauded?

8 But you yourselves wrong and defraud, and that even your own brethren.

1 When one of you has a grievance against a brother, does he dare go to law before the unrighteousness instead of the saints?

2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to try trivial cases?

3 Do you not know that we are to judge angels? How much more, matters pertaining to this life!

4 If then you have such cases, why do you lay them before those who are least esteemed by the church?

5 I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is no man among you wise enough to decide between members of the brotherhood.

6 But brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers?

7 To have lawsuits at all with one another is defeat for you. Why not rather be defrauded?

8 But you yourselves wrong and defraud, and that even your own brethren.

MEMORY SELECTION

1 I appeal to you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no dissensions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment.

1 Corinthians 1:10

WORDS OF LIFE

Biblical Inspiration For The Week

"I will show to them abundance" - Jeremiah 33:6

1. God is abundance. Whenever we want to secure any good grace or any good thing, the most reasonable approach often may be the most direct approach; that of going to the source. To go to the source of goodness for all good things - and to approach the throne of Grace for the many graces which we seek - may be our "best bet" after all.

2. God reveals abundance. God shows us, at practically every hand, His goodness, grace and plenty. He opens His hands, so the Psalmist reminds us, and fills all living things with plenty and with more than what is sufficient to meet our every need. The signs of God's abundance are to be found in every act of healing, of growth, of prosperity, of peace and of beauty.

3. God's abundance come to you. There is nothing abstract or theoretical about the goodness of God. When we turn our wills, our minds and our hearts toward His most sacred will, mind and heart, we find what is like a bright new world in which to make our home.

When have you last really looked to God for abundance. He will show his abundance to you.

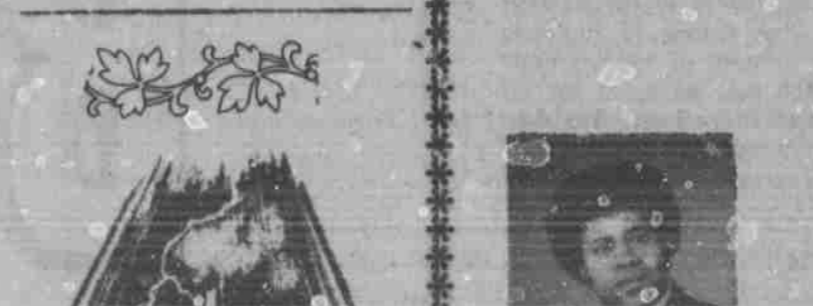

Three members of the team are members of Mount Olive Baptist Church. They are Cynthia Robinson, Esoleta Whately, and Rita Maxwell. We are proud of them.

Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m., the Mount Olive Choir participated in the Annual Choir Day at Triumph Baptist Church. Their pastor, Rev. M.A. Brown, had a wonderful time with us.

Visiting with us were Mrs. Fred Flewellen, and Cheryl and Stephanie Flewellen, all of Lubbock; and Lynn Gipson of Odessa.

On Sunday evening, three choirs of Mount Olive will have a musical. Everyone is welcome.

Our community was saddened by the death of Mr. Jack Walker and Mrs. Louis Thomas. Let us pray for the bereaved families.

WHAT YOUR STARS SAY

March 14-20

ARIES—March 21-April 20
Plan ahead and make sure you're on time for appointments and at the correct address. If memory seems to be failing you, write things down in a readable handwriting. Headaches are due to tension—so rest!

TAURUS—April 21-May 21
I think it was Socrates who said that the secret to life is not having what one wants, but wanting what one has. The greatest possession of all humans is Love and Wisdom.

GEMINI—May 22-June 21
Discipline is no easy accomplishment for the person who lives inside of your body—and the answer is not to force yourself, but to yield to higher spirits—in other words, Faith and Trust will help you get over.

CANCER—June 22-July 23
Your inclination may be to disappear off the face of the earth, but since that's not feasible, it is all right for you to spend as much time alone as you choose.

LEO—July 24-August 23
It would be a blessing if you would begin to see some of the things that are wrong with you that others keep mentioning to you in passing. Your task is not only to bring the ego down to size—but to get rid of it completely.

VIRGO—August 24-September 23
If your current weight loss or weight gain is due to obsessive tension and anxiety, take out your Bible and read the Book of Job. God and the devil continue to and fro, up and down the earth pestering everyone—not just you!

LIBRA—September 24-October 23

It takes more than dressing up to feel and be beautiful, and the giving of Love requires more than sweet words. Love is the giving of oneself, and true Beauty the manifestation of that giving. Smile and Bless every face you meet.

SCORPIO—October 24-November 22
Kindness results in Selflessness, and Selflessness are wings that cause the Soul to fly up to the Spirit. Try hard to realize the needs and feelings of those around you. Give all—and then some!

SAGITTARIUS—November 23-December 21
Don't over-dramatize the simple events in your daily life. What comes to you is evidently for you. Learn to fully accept the consequences of your thoughts and actions.

CAPRICORN—December 22-January 20
If those around you are disagreeing with your plans and disputing your ideas, let them. Truth will prevail, and if the Truth is not on your side, then it's up to you to cross over.

AQUARIUS—January 21-February 19
You may be feeling very good about yourself these days, and it shows in how you look and vibrate. Let your vision of true love be practical enough to live through your hardship and toil. Continue to pour forth compassion.

BRITT COMMENTS

The Black Community Needs To Own A Radio Station In Lubbock

OFFICER W.H. BRITT

Several years ago, I had an opportunity, through a program called the "Soul Patrol" with the help of Officers Fulton Berry and Floyd Price. This program was heard each Sunday evening over KSEL in Lubbock.

After a short, but highly successful tenure, the "Soul Patrol" was discontinued here. My reasons for what really happen, in my opinion, is that the new station owners did not share in our total involvement in the Black community. Therefore, our type of programming didn't appeal to their philosophy. We believe, however, their purpose was for capital gain. For total involvement - NO! Total commitment and involvement: would have meant the Black community would have had a greater control and some say Blacks could have been a part of policymaking.

We've had some long and very successful efforts over the years since the "Soul Patrol" has no longer been heard here. Since that time, this writer, has worked hard to find a means of seeing that Black people will have some kind of a voice, through the airwaves, in Lubbock and the South Plains of Texas. If we would be sincere with our evaluation of all radio stations in Lubbock, one would discover that there is lack of Black Radio Programming. It is possible that the local white owners of radio stations in Lubbock don't really understand nor do they wish to. It has been a lack of Black Gospel Music in our city. These kind of programs, in my opinion, have been thought to be "too Black Oriented" by some Lubbock station owners.

Ours is not the only effort to bring a "Black Owned" station to Lubbock. However, we should all try to avoid the pitfalls that are in front of us - "lest therein we shall fail."

Lack of management and engineering skills in radio broadcasting can be just as detrimental to the Black Community as a Black "fronted" bank. It is our belief that the Black Community should own a radio station.

Today, you can help yourself, family and community by filling out the questionnaire below. We can make it happen - but only with your support.

Please take just a few minutes to express your feelings about the need for a Black Owned (Oriented) radio station to serve the Black Community of Lubbock.

more persons, one of whom is over 60, for which the limit remains $3,000.

Commissioner Chapman stressed that the impact of the new rules differ from household to household. "Higher income households will become ineligible," he explained, "while some households will have their benefits reduced and still others will have their benefits increased."

Other provisions of the new rules contain tougher penalties for fraud, giving states the authority to disqualify individuals found guilty of fraud in an administrative hearing, and enabling the courts to order the disqualification of individuals found guilty of civil or criminal fraud. The old Food Stamp Act lacked these provisions.

Chapman noted that while the new rules tighten program administration, they will also improve services to households. Elderly or disabled persons will be eligible to be seen in their home, if they cannot get to the food stamp office or find someone to go for them. It is hoped that this provision will increase participation by the elderly, which has historically been low.

The Department is operating a toll free hotline to provide information about the program changes. The toll-free hotline number, 1-800-252-9330, is operated Monday through Friday, from 8 to 6 p.m.

Avenue Q, between Nineteenth and Thirty-Fourth streets; (3) East of Avenue Q/Tahoka Highway between Thirty-Fourth Street and City Limits.

One representative will be elected for each of these districts, to serve for two years on the Commission, beginning April 1. The Commission meets monthly, usually on the fourth Wednesday of each month, at a noon luncheon. Elected representatives may be reimbursed for any wages lost in attending meetings of the Commission; otherwise the positions are voluntary, non-paid.

Citizens living in the above three areas are invited to become candidates for a position on the Commission. To be eligible, one must be over 18, and a resident of the area which he or she wishes to represent. To become a candidate, pick up an application at one of the Community Services offices (820 Texas, 1602 Vanda, or 2407 First), or call 762-6411, extension 2300.

Community Services Department is a federally funded community action agency (CAA), with the broad goal of assisting low-income persons and families in Lubbock County. Among its activities are a Weatherization program, which seeks to conserve energy by reducing heat loss in homes through insulation, caulking, etc., and a Crisis Intervention program by which utilities (gas, electricity) are paid for those in danger of a cut-off.

own $500,000 has been re-appropriated to the county's general fund.

The placement of revenue sharing monies in the general fund leaves department heads the first say in what non-county agencies, such as human service agencies, if any, are subsidized by federal dollars.

Commissioners indicated, during the Wednesday night meeting in the new County Supervisors chambers, that the department heads will be reluctant to appropriate money to the organizations because they will be competing with ongoing county projects.

The Commission, which develops recommendations to the supervisors on which programs should receive funding, considered asking the board for at least $1.5 million, but the motion died in a tie vote. Dissenting commissioners asked for more time to review the proposal.

The Commission will finalize recommendations during a meeting this week on what groups should receive priority status.

About 200 persons attended the Wednesday meeting, many carrying placards promoting their organization.

Among several persons making pleas was David Davis, head of an informal revenue sharing coalition formed last month.
