Principal Supports Caring Staff At Dunbar

It should be known that an exceptional teaching staff exist at Dunbar. They are experienced, well qualified, insist that their students excel to the best of their abilities and always emphasizes the value of pride and discipline.

Virgil L. Johnson, principal of Dunbar, further states: "It's easy to support my staff, because they seem to 'adopt' the students as their own, they work hard for their success, and they care about them, and they stay here by choice. They're simply the greatest!!! You would not believe some of the things some of them have done to help their students. For example, one Dunbar teacher recently secured carpet for a house that Jerome Moore will be living in with his mother. The teacher secured the donation of the carpet from Yates Carpet and paid for the installation out of his own pocket!!"

The 22 teachers, shown on Page 8 of this edition, have a combined total of 303 years at Dunbar!!

Contributions of Escalante To Highlight Trio Day Celebration

Students enrolled in Project Upward Bound and LEARN Talent Search are gearing up to celebrate National Trio Day by honoring Jaime Escalante, the teacher whose story is the subject on which the movie "Stand and Deliver" is based.

Mr. Escalante will speak at Texas Tech University in a lecture sponsored by UC Programs. The lecture will take place at 8:15 p. m., Saturday, February 23, 1991 in the University Center Allen Theatre. Admission to the lecture is free for all students and $6.00 for the general public.

Project Upward Bound and LEARN Educational Talent Search are highlighting Mr. Escalante's achievements with disadvantaged students to draw attention to the work being accomplished by these two Lubbock Trio programs for disadvantaged students.

Trio Day is an event established in 1986 to bring recognition to Upward Bound, Talent Search, and Student Support Services. Currently, the only Trio services available in Lubbock are those being provided by Upward Bound and LEARN Educational Talent Search.

Upward Bound is a college prep program designed to assist students in developing the skills necessary to succeed in post-secondary education. Upward Bound is located in West Hall on the Texas Tech campus.

LEARN Talent Search offers a support system to assist students in competing admissions, ACT, SAT and financial aid applications for a college, vocational, or technical education. LEARN is located at 1203 University Avenue.

The students from both programs, as well as students from the Upward Bound at El Paso Community College and Talent Search at Eastern New Mexico University, will be joining in the Trio Day Tribute to Escalante by signing Jaime Escalante Learning Contracts. The visiting students' stay in Lubbock is being sponsored, in part, by a contribution from the University Plaza of Lubbock.

Jaime Escalante received national acclaim when he used the power of motivation and the ability of his students to transform Garfield High School -- an inner city school dealing with low funding, violence, and poor working conditions -- into the seventh ranked school in the United States in calculus. Mr. Escalante is regarded as an outstanding example of excellence and dedication, not only for those in the teaching profession, but for everyone concerned about education in America. His focus on a student's desire or "ganas", combined with high expectations for his students and a creative teaching style, resulted in an educational miracle which has become a source of inspiration for students and teachers throughout America.

Small Business And Minority Seminar Set

Small and minority-owned and operated businesses in Lubbock that want to sell to the City of Lubbock are invited to attend a free Minority/Small Business Conference, February 21, 1991.

The conference is open to all businesses. It will be held Thursday, February 21, at 8:30 a. m., in room 107 at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center.

The purpose of the conference, according to City of Lubbock purchasing manager Gene Eads, is to "offer an opportunity to businesses that may not have considered selling to the city. The conference is to help business owners to understand the procedures that goes through when we buy or contract out of goods and services. I think this is an excellent opportunity for small businesses to possibly expand their operations by learning how to sell to the city."

The conference will include an explanation of the bidding and purchasing procedures the city follows, discuss contract specifications and how to meet them, review upcoming projects and orient the different types of assistance available to small businesses.

Eads pointed out that the city buys everything from light bulbs to tires, to computers and contracts for services as diverse as street paving, building demolition and construction work.

The City of Lubbock, Board of City Development, Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (COMA), Black Chamber of Entrepreneurs and the Texas Tech University Small Business Development Center are all participating in the conference.

Interested individuals can call the city at 767-2168 for more information about the conference.

There is NO REGISTRATION FEE.

Tell Me, Grandpa ....

Tell me Grandpa, if you will,
About the long ago,
And why it makes you feel so proud --
I'd really like to know ....

Come here, my child, come over here,
And sit down on my knee,
And I will tell you who they were
That helped to make us free ...

We have been blessed with famous men,
Like Washington and King,
And folks like Rosa Parks, and oh,
How Anderson could sing!

And then Sojourner Truth was one
Who gave her heart and soul,
And Frederick Douglass joined the group,
Along with Nat King Cole ...

Paul Lawrence Dunbar did his share,
With Mary McLeod Bethune,
And Louis Armstrong played his horn,
While Bailey sang her tune ....

Now Marshall, Tubman and DuBois,
Stand out above the crowd,
And Hooks and Young and Jackson,
Help to make us very proud ....

I could go on and on, my dear,
But it is getting late --
Yes, Langston Hughes and Sarah Vaughn
Are also truly great ....

But now, my precious "till child,
It's time to go to bed;
May all God's angels bring you love,
And guard your sleepy head!!!

CRAZY HORSE

..... The Immigration Judge made a number of factual determinations. For purposes of this appeal, Applicant will point out the following judicial findings for review:

Op. 5-6 His younger brother ran to his house to get him because his mother and brother were being beaten by several men. Deilly arrived to see his mother in a pool of blood. He picked up a board to defend the life of his family. He struck the men. The men drew their guns and at this point he fled because he became aware that they were DNI agents.

Op. 6-7 He was afraid of DNI agents and hid in the woods.

Op. 7-8 The next day he took his beaten mother to the hospital. On the way he was spotted by DNI agents and was arrested. He peacefully surrendered.

Op. 8 He was taken to a detention facility, placed in solitary confinement, and tortured for 4-5 days by four men.

Op. 9 Two of the four men were present the night he defended his family.

Op. 18 He threatened the men who tortured him with a law suit.

Op. 9 A bribe was paid and he was released without ever being charged with any crime or appearing in court. No receipt was received for the money paid.

Op. 18 Deilly did not file a law suit or otherwise complain to any authorities.

Op. 12 Deilly continued to receive anonymous death threats and DNI agents were seen in the neighborhood by his neighbors. Because of the reputation of DNI he fled the country.

Op. 14 His brother also left the country.

..... In the present case, the immigration judge found that Deilly failed to establish either a personal history of, a well-founded fear of, or a clear probability of persecution, rendering asylum or withholding of deportation unavailable to him .....

Prosecution for real crimes is a legitimate function of government. Torture and death threats is of legitimate. Such excessive action at the time of his initial torture and anticipated upon his return is not based upon the rule of law or any legitimate aim or procedure of government. Such force and continued threat of force can be explained in one way: the government, or an out-law arm of the government, has a misperception that he should be intimidated or silenced. There is nothing he will be able to say or do to convince the government to the contrary. The torture and later threats objectively supports this reasonable conclusion.

In this case, this reasonable conclusion is further supported by his affidavit .....

Affidavit of Omar de Jesus Deilly-Flores

My name is Omar de Jesus Deilly-Flores. I make the following statement to give the government of the United States more information about my situation.

The Liberal Party was in power from 1981-1989. On November 26, 1989 the National Party won the elections. They elected the President and local mayor in my town of Chimoya. My town has about 20,000 people living in it.

The DNI is known to be connected to the military and the National Party. Since the elections, if you get into trouble and are a member of the Liberal Party the lawyers are afraid to do anything. People who get into trouble sometimes disappear after being arrested. There has been violence against the Liberal Party reported on the radio and in the newspapers.

My father was a member of the Liberal Party from 1979 to around 1984. He was the parliamentarian of the local party. He was in charge of setting up meetings and political propaganda. He would go small villages to inform them about the party.

My father was also a member of the railroad union board from 1979 - 1984. He was vice-president of the north zone region.

He quit working for the Liberal Party and the union in 1984 when he retired. I remember he received anonymous threats during those years but I do not know the details.

I was a member of the miner's union from 1979 to February 1990.

I was also poll watcher for the Liberal Party during the election on November 26, 1989. The man who ran for Mayor was a friend of my father and he asked that I be a poll watcher for the Liberal Party. I wore a label on my clothing that had my name and that I was an observer for the Liberal Party. There were three of

FACTS FROM THE U.S. POST OFFICE
Postal productivity is way up—and future postal rates will stay below the national rate of inflation—thanks to a new automation program, the Postal Service says. Here are some facts that you should know:

Automated mail sorting and other new technology will mean you'll be getting your mail faster.

• Productivity at the Postal Service was up four percent in the fourth quarter of 1990, the fifth straight quarter of productivity increases. Each one was higher than the previous period. Total Factor Productivity was up 3.1 percent for the year.

• Much of the credit for this productivity goes to automation. Productivity gains primarily attributable to automation saved nearly three quarters of a billion dollars last year.

us at the poll. There was also three poll watchers from the National Party. They taunted us during the election.

During the election a friend of mine was a poll watcher for the Liberal Party. He caught the National Party stealing ballots. He was arrested by the DNI and held for 45 days.

When I was arrested by the DNI agents I was taken to a DNI facility, not the regular FUSEP jail. I was held for one night then transferred to another DNI building on the other side of town. The second building is known as "torture site." The building has been used for torture by the DNI for 12-15 years. I was not tortured in the first building. In the second building I was tortured for four days.

During the torture they asked me what political party I belonged to and I told them I was a member of the Liberal Party.

Every day that I was jailed I offered to pay money. Finally, on the fifth day the DNI chief accepted $20 Honduran dollars for the money owed to my brother's neighbor and $150 Honduran dollars for the fine. I never saw any legal papers, never saw a judge, or received a receipt for the money. I assume that the money was simply a bribe to the DNI since I did not receive a receipt.

After I was released I received two anonymous threats and my neighbors saw DNI agents near my house. I finally left because I feared I would be harmed or killed by the DNI. My brother, Jorge, left two days before I did. I do not know where he is at. My father also received two anonymous death threats. He left about 10 days after I left. I understand that he is in Belize.

I do not know why the DNI is treating my family and I this way. It may be because of our union affiliation, Liberal Party membership, the confrontation at the house, or for some other reason.

I believe that I will be imprisoned and possibly killed if I return to Honduras .....

Conclusion

Upon being deported back to Honduras he may be killed or tortured again by DNI. Mr. Deilly respectfully requests that asylum be granted or deportation be withheld.

Respectfully submitted,

The Battle of Henry Johnson

According to some military historians, "The Battle of Henry Johnson" is among one of the outstanding acts of courage shown during World War I.

Privates Henry Johnson and Needham Roberts had been assigned to serve guard duty (May 15, 1917) near the front line France. As the two soldiers sat in a bomb crater watching and talking, gun fire suddenly rang out. The Americans stopped talking and peered into the darkness searching the areas for any movement.

During the same instance, Johnson detected a noise which resembled the snapping of wire cutters. He carefully selected one of the hand grenades from a box and lobbed it in the direction of the sounds. With the explosion, the vicinity resounded with Germans voices yelling and they also opened fire. Roberts, sniped in the arm and hip, was knocked out of the action.

Johnson promptly came to Roberts' aid and told him to be still because help was probably on the way. Quickly making an about face, Johnson began fighting off some twenty Germans singlehandedly.

Once Johnson was out of hand grenades, he picked up his rifle and continued to fire until the weapon jammed. The battle appeared to be ending with the enemy closing in on all sides. Once they were close enough, Johnson sprang out of his hole and rushed towards his surprised opponents swinging his empty rifle. During this confrontation, several German soldiers were felled from the blows.

By this time the American troops had started moving into the area and because of this change, the Germans retreated back to their lines. After the enemy retreat, the Americans found four dead Germans and an assortment of enemy weapons.

As a result of his act of valor, Henry Johnson was rewarded with France's highest honor—The Croix de Guerre.

St. Matthew Baptist Church News

Welcome to St. Matthew Baptist Church. We are a happy family! Last Sunday, Sunday School began at 9:30 a.m. with all at their post of duty. The lesson was well taught and reviewed. During the 11:00 a.m. worship hour, the Deacons begin singing our favorite hymns. It was very spiritual. The Junior and Senior Choirs sung beautifully praising God in songs. Each song had a message. Our pastor, Rev. R. S. Stanley, was absent, and

Sister Imatha Isaac

Rev. Jackson carried on. He preached a soul stirring sermon. His text was Peter 1:18-19. His subject was "My Living Will Not Be in Vain."

We also had several children to unite for baptism. We are always glad to have our children come forth. They are our future Church of tomorrow.

Our Church Anniversary will begin February 24, 1991. All are invited to worship with us. Pray for our success.

Let's continue to pray for our sick here and there. Love one another.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning at the Parkway Nursing Home with opening of the singing of several songs. The scripture of II Chronicles 7:12-14; with prayer offered by Sister Christine Burleson.

The morning scripture lesson was taught by Rev. W. H. Stephens. His subject was "My Assignment." His text was St. John 17:2-6; and II Timothy 2:11-19.

"For you have given him authority over every man and woman, in all the earth.

II Timothy 2:4 -- And as Christ's soliders do not let yourself become tied up in worldly affairs for then you cannot satisfy the one who has enlisted you in his army. Follow the Lord's rules in doing his work. War is two sides going against each other. It's confusion. Don't get discouraged in working for God, because he will give you your reward. God expects us to do what he assigned us to do. He gave us a choice. Finish your assignment. Make disciples out of many.

Rev. Stephens, we truly appreciate you, and you are very special to us. God bless you!

Thought of the week: "We are suspicious of Christians who's always fighting. God has servants and not superstars!"

Think about it!! We will organize another Breakfast Branch on Saturday morning at 9:00 a. m. at 4632-52nd Street, Apt. B. Come and be apart. It truly will make a difference in your life. Plan to become a member. We need your support! Think about it! Would you like a prayer group on your block or in your home. Okay! Write Outreach Prayer Breakfast, P. O. Box 1223, Lubbock, Texas 79408. You know, Friends, it's winding down to the time when he said every knee will bow. Every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord! Let's not wait until it's forced upon us. We love you, and those who are unlovable. Keep smiling and the devil won't know the differ.

To all sick and depressed, there's way. Read II Chronicles 7:14; Mark 11:22-26. You can make it!

Sister Dorothy Hood, president; Sister Ardelia Hardrick, vice president; Elnora Jones, reporter; and Annie Day, secretary.

FROM THE OF
PARSON D. A. SMITH

When the prophet of Galilee was healing the sick, raising the dead, feeding the hungry, cleansing lepers, holding the multitude spellbound by means of his marvelous discourses, he was popular. The Messiah's triumphal entry into Jerusalem caused enormous popular enthusiasm. But we read in the 22nd verse of the 27th chapter of Matthew's gospel, "Pilate saith unto the, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?" Pilate should not even have asked such a question. He should have pronounce Jesus innocent and order his immediate and definite release.

However, this question "What shall I do then with Jesus?" is a question that must be answered. Perhaps, we feel more or less a certain satisfaction that we have not, as Pilate, had to make that terrible decision which with the limited knowledge of that day we might have made as he did. Nevertheless, this question which Pilate asked and which he answered so fatally is a question that all of us have to answer. It is for more awful for us than it was for Pilate. We have to answer the question in the light of an advanced knowledge and intelligence of what Jesus was and is.

That personal question "What shall I do then with Jesus?" answer comes back like a boomerang "You must do something with him!" Neutrality is impossible. The possession of the opportunity for doing the right thing imposes the obligation to do it. There is no middle ground. You must be either for him or against him; you can deny his divine mission and say he was an impostor; you can deny your need of a savior; you can pretend to accept him and call yourself by his name, although your heart is far from him; you can treat the whole matter with indifference or you can accept this blessed Jesus as your savior and submit to his authority. The choice is yours but, the question "What shall I do then with Jesus?" must be answered.

We Thank God For Jesus "The Lord Jesus, He Is The Answer!!"

Psalm 2:1-2a -- Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The Kings of the earth set themselves, and Rulers take counsel together, against the Lord.

I used to lay down at night, I couldn't get no kind of rest. "My mind was kept so frustrated, and that kept me depressed."

I was so worried by the devil's TV news situation, that seem to be crippling this whole nation.

That devil's TV was bringing me so much 10:00 O'clock bad news. "No wonder I couldn't get no rest, sleeping with other people's blues."

(Bad news means: Bold * Angry * Dangers * Not Even * Worth * Saying. Give that time to reading the Bible).

Matthew 11:28-30 -- Jesus said, come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke (The Bible) upon you, and learn of me; for I'm meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

***** Jesus Is The Answer *****

The devil's TV makes man worry; more than ever before, "but I thank God for Jesus; I don't worry anymore."

Mark 9:19 -- Jesus said, O'Fatheless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I suffer you? Bring him unto me.

***** Jesus Is The Answer *****

"This O' world's doctors, and their mighty smart analyst, they keep lying saying, "They'll get the problems licked."

"They've suggested pills, cigarettes, and alcohol on the brain," trying to keep "the distress of America; from going insane.

I Corinthians 3:16-19 -- Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the people of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seem to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. Wise in their own craftiness.

(Brothers & Sisters: I've heard the cry of II Chronicles 7:14 for amost 7 yrs, and "The people of God didn't obey his voice; when he said he'll heal our land." We've been at war in America; and it's been praying time on the home front, but just as Neb'U'Chad Nez Zer told the people to worship at certain times, only three didn't: Sha'Drach, Me'Shach, and Abed'Nego. Daniel 3:8-12 -- God's people know when to pray, by the Holy Spirit they will, because they know there is "no peace except in Christ Jesus, our Lord and Saviour.")

Mark 12:17 -- Jesus saidd, render to Caesar the things that aare Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's.

***** Jesus Is The Answer *****

Matthew 25:42-46 -- Jesus said, for I was hungered, and ye give no meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when we saw thee a hungered, or at thirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did ot minister (have compassion) unto thee? Then shall he answer saying, verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me, and these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal.

God is not through with us yet. So let's pray for one another always.

Dunbar International Alumni Association

P. O. Box 3362 - Lubbock, Texas 79452
(806) 766-1300

The Dunbar International Alumni Association does hereby serve notice to all that we have finalized our intentions with our legal counsel in order to seek prevention of the Lubbock Independent School District's efforts to secure unitary status or rob our community of yet another neighborhood school.

All students in Dunbar's attendance zone and those wishing to attend Dunbar must not panic and be fooled into accepting or believing that Dunbar is doomed to become a junior high school. This plan by LISD HAS NOT BEEN approved by the courts for implementation! Though some school personnel will attempt to get you to transfer, you must not be misled. DUNBAR is your school, and you MUST NOT abandon your plans to attend Dunbar!

All alumni and supporters are asked to rise to the challenge NOW by contributing to the Dunbar Legal Defense Fund, any amount accepted. We can no longer sit and do nothing, and will not succumb to an administration and majority board that have totally insensitive to our history, our successes, our heritage, our future, or any burdens that we might endure. They seem to care less!

We do hereby "draw our mark in the sand!"
