How It Looks From Here

By RAY FREEDMAN

Seems that Michele McCarty turned over the reins of her new horse to her father (Macky) before she had him (the horse) properly trained.

Macky got on the horse and according to his statement "I didn't even get the eight seconds" before he was promptly bucked off.

Macky did re-injure an old football injury but is in good spirits and will be back on his feet soon.

At last, clandestine chili cookers around Texas can walk proudly into the light of day and hold their heads high again.

Chili is no longer a dish cooked by a few firebreathing, fun-loving weirdos, but has been placed in its rightful place of honor by the State Legislature which proclaimed Chili as the official State Dish.

The first legal test of Chili's new legitimacy will take place at the eighth annual Republic of Texas Chilympiad, September 15-18. To help celebrate this year's event will be the ever-popular Yellow Dog and John Raven, plus a "furineer" from Newport, Kentucky, name of Robert J. Bischoff, and a multitude of others.

As added attractions, the Original Bob Will's Texas Playboys, "Fiddlin'" Frenchie Burke and the Latin Breed, along with Mickey Gilley will make appearances.

BRAVO: Our City Council is making their long-awaited and much-promised move to help make our town a little more presentable. They decided Monday night to enforce some of the long-dormant ordinances and get rid of some of the junked cars in town. This is no easy task, so let's all pitch in and do our part by getting rid of any junk or trash that we have on our property. I am told that anyone wanting to get rid of a car, be it just a part of a car or a whole vehicle, can call the City Hall and they will help make arrangements to move it at no cost to the property owner.

Was reminded of an old saying that I credit my father with, "Little things please little minds," when I drove up in the Pay N Sav parking lot the other day. I saw where part of the store's sign had been torn down. When I asked the manager of the store what happened, he said he assumed it was done maliciously by some of the crowd who use his parking lot for nightly gatherings. It just doesn't make any sense whatsoever to destroy something as innocent as a store sign, and label the act "only having fun."

Earth Employs Two Trainee Patrolmen

Two new trainee patrolmen have been hired by the City of Earth.

These positions have been made available through a Federal funded program called Manpower Services. This is a program whereby the Federal Government provides money for the hiring and training of potential police officers. The total amount of the salary is provided by the program and the city is free to use the services of trainees for a period of up to 12 months under the current program and after September, this time will drop to six months. At this time, the trainee is free to seek employment elsewhere, or the city may choose to hire him on a permanent basis. The city can choose at this time to terminate his services and seek another trainee, at which time the program would again provide the revenue for the salary.

It appears to be an excellent opportunity for the City to gain additional law enforcement personnel at virtually no cost and at the same time help to train people who for some reason or another have had little opportunity to get professional training.

The two new officers here in Earth are Ronny Mull and Domingo Garcia.

Ronny was a resident of Quitaque, Texas and was the Chief Deputy Sheriff in Briscoe County. He was born and educated in Plainview and attended Wayland Baptist College for two years. He is married with one child.

Domingo has lived most of his life in Earth and his primary occupation has been in agriculture. Domingo has 9 children and gained most of his education in Edinburg.

be your own Meter Maid

You can add up your groceries while you're buying...

You can add up your gasoline while you're buying...

But
can you add up your electricity while you're buying?

Yes you can... Here's How!

Learn to read your electric meter. It will let you determine how many kilowatt hours you use in a given period of time... an hour, a day, a month or a year. That's how electricity is measured — by kilowatt hours used.

Your residential electric meter will have either 5 or 4 dials

Electric meters are easily read from right to left as you look at the meter. If the pointer on a dial is between two numbers, write down the smaller number. When the pointer is directly on a number such as one (1) (see center dial above) then read it as 1; if the pointer on the next dial immediately to the right has passed zero (0). However, read it as zero (0) if the pointer on that dial to the right has not reached zero.

The dials above read (from left to right): 9-3-1-1-5. If, however, the pointer on the second dial from the right above was between 9 and zero then the center dial would read as a zero.

Now let's read the same meter 24 hours later

This later reading is 9-3-1-3-8. Subtracting the first reading, 93115, from the new reading of 93138 — the answer is 23. Thus you would have used 23 kilowatt hours in the 24 hour period.

Now you can become a METER MAID and watch your meter like a miser if you choose. WE HAVE A BOOKLET CALLED "MANAGING YOUR ELECTRIC BILL" plus other WISE USE TIPS booklets that help keep you from wasting electricity and so help lower your cost. Any of these booklets are free for the asking at your Public Service office... come by and see us.

Think Senior Adults

The First Baptist Church of Earth began its emphasis on Senior Adult last Sunday. The program, which covers a twelve month period, was devised by the leadership within the Southern Baptist Convention. The local church initiated its program by serving breakfast in the fellowship hall to the older members of the congregation. Several members of the Baptist Men's organization of the church prepared and served the meal to those present. The pastor presented a brief program following the breakfast. He shared some of the church plans for its senior adults during the next year.

During the morning worship service the senior adults sat together in a reserved section of the church auditorium. After the services began the senior adults were recognized as a group and each was presented with a copy of the magazine Mature Living. Also during the service Mrs. Donald Kelley shared a brief testimony concerning the influence of senior adults on her life. Following the special music presented by the youth choir of the church the pastor shared a message from Exodus 4 entitled: "Never Too Old to Serve."

That evening the senior adults met with David Crane, the church's music director and had choir practice. Following the choir practice sandwiches and homemade ice cream were served to the choir members by other members of the congregation. Then during the evening worship service the Senior Adult Choir sang three specials. The entire congregation received inspiration from the special music provided by the senior adult choir. But even more importantly, the choir members themselves discovered anew that they were not too old to serve their church and savior.

CLOUD SEEDING

Is It FRAUD or POLLUTION?

Experts admit that cloud seeding such as that affecting this county for the past seven years can disrupt weather patterns as far downwind as 150 miles. But they are not agreed that cloud seeding decreases hail or increases rain.

In Lamb County and the others affected by cloud seeding flights out of Plainview and Littlefield, the total result has been about 45 inches less rain since cloud seeding began in 1970.

Cloud seeders, who are paid thousands of dollars annually for their services, cannot prove they have decreased hail, either.

There is agreement, however, that the natural weather patterns are disrupted. This means that a few people who are willing to spend thousands are attempting to influence the weather for their own selfish interests, at the expense of all the people in this area.

There is a real danger in upsetting natural weather patterns. Our agriculture depends on consistent predictions on an annual basis. Our safety is affected by storms that may, after seeding, become far more violent and disastrous as they move downwind, affected by an unnatural stimulant, silver iodide crystals dropped into the clouds by planes.

Recent legislation indicates that agencies issuing permits to cloud seeders are going to be greatly influenced by what the people say about cloud seeding, in a series of elections coming up.

What Can YOU Do?

You Can Vote August 20, Against Any More Cloud Seeding. You Can Encourage Others To Vote. Make Phone Calls To Your Friends And Be Sure They Go To The Polls August 20 In Lamb County To Let Lawmakers And State Agencies Know How You Feel About Cloud Seeding. If We Don't Want Cloud Seeding, We Are Informed That It Will Be Stopped Immediately. Future Permits Will Be Affected, Too, And The Whole Issue Of Cloud Seeding Can Be Resolved.

CLOUD SEEDING AFFECTS US ALL

Agriculture and associated industries are not the only elements of our county affected by cloud seeding.

In 1966, the year of heaviest cloud seeding in Southern Pennsylvania, the death rate from lung diseases reached the highest number since vital statistics have been kept, according to the Pennsylvania Department of Public Health. This fact was reported by the Tri-State Natural Weather Association in a recent article in Acres, U.S.A.

The article also said that silver iodide crystals combine with auto emissions and lead to create another serious poison which can be ingested by animals from grass.

Silver from silver iodide as it flows into the ecosystems can concentrate in various organisms and thence to man, causing a buildup in the human system to a toxic level and possibly respiratory or gastric ailments and cancer.

Proponents of cloud seeding refute this evidence saying it can't be proved. The figures are more dramatic in showing these dangers than they are in trying to prove that cloud seeding causes more rain. Statistics are our first symptom of warning in a new field of activity. Not too many years ago, and for many years, experts were advising people to use saccharin as a sweetener, and today we have discovered that statistics show it increases the chances of bladder cancer. The direct spraying of poisonous chemicals into rain clouds is flagrant pollution for a selfish purpose and nobody knows all the bad results of cloud seeding.

WHAT IS THE RECORD?

Evidence that cloud seeding decreases rain comes from five American experiments, according to the Tri-State Natural Weather Association. These five randomized experiments were conducted with unchallenged reliability over a number of consecutive years with considerable care and foresight. The results are a decrease in precipitation due to cloud seeding and the estimated decreases amount to 53 percent.

VOTE AN END TO CLOUD SEEDING! AUGUST 20, 1977
