Aches and Pains

Couldn't help but get a "bang" out of Gene Templeton at the noon meeting of Jaycees Monday. Seems like Gene was kinda hobblin' along, not being at all frisky for a young Jaycee, when one of the members casually asked him why. "Well," drawled Gene, "I was out playing ball with a bunch of 'other' kids and found out right quick that I wasn't at the tender age of 16 anymore." "But," he continued, "You should have seen me yesterday. I couldn't even get out of bed — at least today, I can walk."

Yep, Gene, the old man with the scythe, climbs up another notch on that ladder every day, and there are some of us who have let the old rascal climb faster than we should, or maybe we're older than we thought.

We want to publicly commend our local Lions Club for the fine job of entertaining the Foreign Ag people who were guests on Wednesday. Arrangements were perfect, the food was wonderful, and it seems that everyone who had a job to do, did it with vigor and great enthusiasm.

It would be almost impossible to call all the names and the various tasks they performed, so suffice it to say, "Thanks, fellows, for a terrific job, well done."

Elsewhere in this issue of "Your Newspaper" is information concerning the up-coming election on sewer problems and water problems. We here and now urge everyone concerned to take the few necessary minutes Saturday and exercise your American privilege to cast your ballot for the proposition (or against it).

We sincerely hope that all will see fit to vote YES on the propositions, for "Cities aren't made, they are built". It takes time, money and hard work to help a city with its growing pains. But all cities have these problems, and as I know of them whip them, just as I know Earth will. Earth is one of the fastest growing towns in the South Plains today, and it will continue to grow, if it has an ample sewage system and an ample water supply. Vote YES Saturday and lend your support to the development and growth of Earth.

Had a good visit Monday noon with Jarvis Angeley, and in the course of conversation, we were both bemoaning our fates, one a farmer (working 24 hours a day, plus, these days) and the other newspaperman (working about the same hours, Jarvis said there was one thing he just flat couldn't understand. That was, that it seemed to him like about half the wage earners in America wanted to retire and live in peace and relaxation during their declining years, and invariably declined that they would buy a farm and relax. But, according to him, there is no harder work in the world than farming.

It does bring to mind that about the same percentage of newspaper reporters, advertising men, etc., on larger metropolitan papers have the same idea. That of retiring, buying themselves a weekly paper somewhere, and sit back and relax. Fellows, let me agree with Jarvis, it just ain't in the book. Or if it is, Jarvis and I will want the name of the book and the page number and paragraph number. Won't we, Jarvis?

Remember Folks

Remember, folks as you look through this issue of "Your Newspaper" that it is the merchants whose ads appear on the pages that make it possible. We are want you to trade with these places and (for my sake) mention to them that you saw their ad in the NEW newspaper.

Jaycees Complete Plans For Park

At the regular meeting Monday noon, the Earth Jaycees completed plans for the new city park.

Buddy Free, local farmer and grocery merchant, will deep plow the area this week, and Jaycees agreed to furnish the necessary equipment to disc the grounds. As soon as the area is made ready, the Earth Garden Club will take over the beautification part of the program.

There were 18 members and guests present at the noon luncheon meeting. Included was Sam Williams of Littlefield as a guest and one new member, Ross Middleton.

Announcement was made of a board of directors meeting for Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the Star Cafe.

SPEAKERS AT THE LUNCHEON Tuesday are shown here after the meeting. In the front row are Dr. D. K. Fahrman of Utah State College, who is in charge of the tour; County Agent Dave Eaton, A. Tontino of the Philippines, Boss Lion D. Elmar, McCarty, Viadeta Rapajic of Yugoslavia, Hussein Hel myof Egypt, Giovanni Mazzeo of Italy, Interpreter Isabel Giampietro of Washington, D. Point Four Agriculturists Tour Area And Sample West Texas Hospitality

About 25 foreign agricultural experts spent the day in the Earth and Springlake area Tuesday, inspecting some of the methods of cultivation, irrigation and fertilization employed here. They were escorted by local agriculturists and were honored by the Earth Lions Club for a luncheon in the Community Building.

First stop on the itinerary was at the Ernest Green farm where they watched Farm Chemical Co. spray a field of cotton. They looked over the same firm's chicken raising installation at Springlake.

Three Top Per Acre

Third stop was on the Ray Raley farm near Sunnyside where they saw a concrete pipe irrigation system in action and marvelled at a field of maize which is expected to make between 5000 and 6000 pounds of grain to the acre this year after an expenditure of $8.25 per acre for fertilizer.

They then watched Earl Parrish weed his lettuce crop with a tractor equipped with rotary hoes.

An elevated ditch on the Sam Coody place came in for some attention on their way back to Earth for lunch.

Lions Lunch

President Delmar McCarty was in charge of the meeting at which all the visitors were introduced and some of them asked to speak briefly about their own countries. He was assisted by County Agent Dave Eaton and by Dr. D. K. Fahrman of Utah State college, who was in charge of the nation-wide tour.

After lunch they saw a brand new irrigation well being pumped out on one of the tracts recently sold from the Warren Ranch, and went from there to the Pough vegetable farm.

At the Doyle Turner farm they saw different types of grain growing side by side for comparison.

On the Allison Brothers farm they saw a huge 16-inch well being ready for use. They also watched alfalfa being harvested. Part was being baled and part was being chopped to go to the alfalfa mill.

At the Gerald Allison place they observed red china peas planted in sorghum and corn, and they saw a large earthen ground storage tank used to make one well do the work of two. Refreshments were served in the Allison home.

Then they took a look at the diversified farming done on the 900 acre Jarvis Angeley farm and inspected the fully equipped repair shop where the large number of

Water and Sewer Bonds Will Not Raise City Taxes

Proposed Bonds Will Buy Complete New Sewage System, Larger Water System

City Dads Say Bonds Can Be Repaid Out Of Revenues and Present Taxes

The bonds to be voted upon by Earth taxpayers Saturday will be split into five propositions, each authorizing the issuance of 30 year bonds as follows:

Proposition No. 1

This simply authorizes the borrowing of money to pay off revenue bonds now existing. Purpose of this is to get a new repayment schedule on this indebtedness, which new schedule will fit in better with the other bond issues up for approval.

Proposition No. 2

This is for $10,000 of the $30,000 needed for the water improvements. This part is to be repaid out of profits from the water and sewer departments only. No tax money may be used to pay any of the first three propositions.

The improvements planned are (1) a new well with pump to give more water and to insure a constant supply, (2) approximately half a mile of new six-inch water mains, (3) approximately a mile of new two-inch lines (4) a ground reservoir with booster pump to eliminate the sand.

Proposition No. 3

This is for $50,000 of the $70,000 needed to build a modern sewage collection and disposal system. These bonds will also be revenue bonds payable out of water and sewer profits only.

Proposition No. 4

This covers $20,000 to be paid for out of tax funds. However, it will not cause an increase in taxes because collections at present rates are sufficient to meet the sinking fund requirements on this and Proposition No. 5 and $23,500 in tax bonds already outstanding.

Proposition No. 5

This $20,000 tax bond issue will supplement Proposition No. 3 to pay for the sewer system. The system will include mains throughout the built-up section of town, and a modern, one-stage disposal plant which can be enlarged when needed.

Then she finds she not only has a flat tire on the pick-up, but also a flat spare tire. Along about this time her assistants decide there's nothing they can do to help except to give her a lift home—Mutt on arriving home was asked this simple question: "Did you bring one of the wheels in so I can repair it, and go retrieve the pick-up?" Mutts' answer to this was—"Well, after an experience like that, I think it was very brilliant of me to have sense enough to come home."

Where and When To Vote On The City Bond Issue

Voting in Saturday's bond election in Earth will take place in the city hall between the hours of 8 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Every qualified voter who is a resident of Earth and has rendered property for taxation by the city is eligible to vote. A qualified voter is an adult who is a resident of the city, county and state, and who has paid his 1954 poll tax or is over 60 years of age.

Judges for the election will be O.B. Whitford and Mrs. Ruby Anderson. Clerks are Mrs. Jess Goode and Mrs. Juanice Glascock.

Newspaper Name Contest Draws Interesting Entries

Lots of suggestions are pouring into your newspaper office in Earth for the name of the new publication. However, there are thousands of good possibilities and the winner of the automatic washer is just about as apt to be in the ones yet to come as in those already received.

The contest closes August 31 and the new name will appear on the issue of September 3. The winner of the washer will be named and pictured in that same issue.

Not many people have gone for the customary names like Earth Gazette, Earth Weekly News or Lamb County Tribune.

The name "Earth" inspires lots of folks to puns such as The Earth Quake, The Good Earth, The Earth's Echo, Earth Pinnacle, The Round Earth, Down to Earth News, and Earth Moon.

Mrs. H. S. Hickman varied this to call it The Terra Quake.

Some thought of names which tended to describe the country, such as Mrs. G. C. Greer's Sand Storm, J. E. Mitchell's Earth Grit News, or A. C. Barton's Sunshine Weekly.

A few have suggested names referring to the county or area such as Tri-County Antenna (Mrs. Roy Simmons), South Plains Tribune (Mrs. P. K. Fennell), Lamb County Echo (Mrs. Jack Cunningham), The Plains Oasis (Reinhold Steinhock), Leading Communities (Mrs. R. A. (Please Turn to Page 2)

Elbert Smith Dies After His Car Shears Off Pole

Elbert M. Smith, 43, died Wednesday night following an accident west of Olton in which his automobile struck a utilities pole and overturned. Smith, who had farmed near Olton since 1930, died in the Methodist hospital in Lubbock minutes after a 53-mile emergency run by an Olton ambulance in an effort to save his life.

The injured man had been taken to Olton Memorial hospital and given first aid, then rushed to Lubbock because of the severity of his injuries. Enroute to Lubbock a doctor and nurse administered plasma. The ambulance was escorted to the Lubbock hospital by a Lubbock City Police car.

The one-car accident occurred about 5:50 p.m. A Plainview truck driver who witnessed the crash said that Smith apparently lost control of his car about two and one-half miles west of Olton. The car veered from the highway, sheared off a utilities pole and overturned. Smith was thrown from the car and was believed to have been crushed by

In the first place $6,500 of the $116,500 worth of bonds will be revenue bonds. That is, they will be payable out of what is left of the collections from the sewer and water departments after the operating expenses for those two departments have been paid.

In the second place, the remaining $40,000, which will be in tax bonds, can be retired out of taxes expected to be collected at the present rate of $1.50 per $100 assessed valuation.

The commissioners are required by law to set aside one-third of all tax collections for sinking fund purposes. They estimate that they will collect enough this year and every year to cover the payments on the bonds without asking the voters to increase the rate any. So there is no provision in any of the propositions to be voted on Saturday to authorize any increase in tax rates.

The commissioners also say that they contemplate no increase in the percentage of actual value used to arrive at assessed values. While total assessed valuation to the city is expected to increase, it will be caused by new buildings going up rather than from increased assessments of property already in existence. New building increased the city's assessed value this year from $484,000 to $545,000. With a great deal of building going on this year, total assessments will automatically increase again next year.

At present the city owes $40,000 in bonded indebtedness—part of $45,000 issued in 1952 to construct the new out-grown water system. $16,500 of this is in revenue bonds which are being retired twice as rapidly as they are scheduled. The other $23,500 is in tax bonds and the city has been putting more than three times as much in the sinking fund every year as the repayment schedule on this issue calls for. In addition $600 in water warrants issued in 1953 to pay for extensions of the lines have been paid down to $260 already.

That is why the city commissioners feel able to pay for the water system expansion and the new sewer system without any increase in tax rates or assessment percentage. Bond buyers are apparently also satisfied that they are safe in this assumption because at least two have already contacted the city clerk, desiring to buy the issues if they are approved by the voters Saturday.

The commissioners point out that if the people want the sewer system they must approve both the revenue and the tax bonds for it (propositions 3 and 5) and the same with the water expansion (propositions 2 and 4), because neither can be financed with only one set of bonds.

Farm Income Up 9 Percent

AUSTIN—Texas farmers' cash income exceeded $703.5 million during the first six months of 1954, a rise of $88,125,000 or 9 per cent from the $615.4 million total for same period last year.

The University of Texas Bureau Business Research said revenue on cotton and cattle were primarily responsible for the overall increase. Cotton income showed a per cent gain, from $111,150,000 in January-June, 1953, to $121,515,000 during the first six months of this year. Cattle income rose 2 per cent, from $161.5 million to $167 million.

Other commodities showing considerable increases in the year-to-year comparison included peanuts, up 115 per cent; the largest percentage gain reported; and grain sorghum, up 42 per cent.

Several products were below their 1953 totals for the first six months, but only one registered a decrease of more than 20 per cent—cottonseed, down 33 per cent. Fruit and vegetable income fell 11.20 per cent below last year, while milk and milk products were 17 per cent lower.

County 4-H Club Boys Attend Camp

County Agent Dave Eaton and assistant County Agent Lonnie Cole accompanied a group of 4-H club boys to the district 4-H camp at Lubbock last week. Cole estimated the attendance at the camp as 292 club boys. They participated in three days of activities including swimming, horseshoes, washers, baseball, education, tiki and rope crafts.

Lamb county boys who made the trip included Larry Young, Bill Mote, Travis Spencer, Ronnie Smith, Mike Eaton, Larry Cox, Jerry Watts and Jody Busanmas of Littlefield, Tom Davis of Amherst, Mek Allison of Pleasant Valley, Randy Buckenau and Coy Carlisle of Olton, Larry Pierce of Spade and Berl Branscum of Springlake.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Earth Jaycees it was decided that the group sponsor a drive to raise funds for the first farmer bringing in a bale of cotton to be ginned in Earth. It will be necessary that the cotton be grown in the Earth trade area. The Jaycees started the fund by voting to contribute $25.00.

Plans also completed for the entire organization to take part in another Scotch-Lite campaign and the date set for this will be Saturday, August 28. It is the hope of the club that a great majority of cotton trailers will be brought in so that the tape can be attached to them in the interest of safety.

A Christmas Decorations Committee was appointed, with Bill Kisinger as chairman. Others on the committee are Gene Templeton and Ted C. Rowan. This committee will have charge of all decorations, including lighting and displays of the Christmas motif.

Those member of the board of directors attending the meeting in the Star Cafe, were President Lester Hammons, and members Rudy Ardis, Ardis Barton, Bill Kisinger, Jerrell Haberer and Weldon Barnes.

$1200 Damages Done In Two Car Collisions

A two-car collision Sunday morning resulted in estimated damage of $600 to each car.

The accident occurred when Miss Patsy Kelley, driving a 1950 Ford, attempted to make a left turn into Lester Hammons' service station. She had slowed down and signaled for the turn, but she failed to see the oncoming car driven by W.C. White, Springlake postmaster.

Miss Kelley's car was damaged on the front right fender, grill and radiator. The left front fender of White's 1953 Oldsmobile was smashed.

Miss Kelley, daughter of John Kelley of near Springlake, was accompanied by Miss Bernice Carley of Earth. Mrs. White was a passenger in the White car.

Last year about 46 boys came out for practice, but soon the number decreased to 28. The reason for the large decrease in the number of boys was explained that some of the boys could not make the A team.

Ballots for the election of Community Committees in Lamb county communities were mailed out by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office in Amherst last Friday. The new election procedure is designed to make the selection of ASC committees more democratic, and was put into effect by the board of five farm leaders after being worked by Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

The groups, consisting of Jack Yarbrough, W. L. Spencer, James D. Abbott, Truman Jones and Dave Eaton, appointed three man community election boards for each of eight communities and set the election date Monday, August 23.

Voters are to mark their ballots and return them in the envelopes enclosed with the ballots to the Lamb county A.S.C. office. HEALTH HORIZONS
Failing Eyesight After Fifty

As we get to fifty and beyond, most of us note that our vision is not so keen as it once was. Eyesight, the most precious of our senses, seems also to be the most vulnerable to the ravages of time. Perhaps the earlier changes in vision are more annoying than worrisome. But with increasing years, many people become haunted by the fear that their failing sight may end in blindness.

This is an unnecessary fear in a vast number of cases, according to Dr. Arthur J. Bedell of Albany, N. Y. One of the most frequent causes of failing sight in people over fifty is a condition called "senile macular degeneration," he says—and this definitely does not lead to blindness.

Early Signs

"An afflicted person first notices that reading, writing and other near use of the eyes is more difficult and that a change of glasses does not help," writes Dr. Bedell. "Often one eye is involved weeks or even months before the other, and unless the patient is a keen observer the disease may be far advanced by the time he seeks help because a similar change has started in the second eye. The most significant symptom is a dark spot before the eye or eyes, which increases in size."

This "degeneration" is, unfortunately, simply a penalty of age. It can't be "cured," as an infection might be, with any of the wonder drugs. "After the sight is once reduced, it is never restored," says Dr. Bedell. Early treatment with a drug such as potassium iodide may, however, "retard the destructive process." It is helpful, too, to keep the general health at a high level.

Seek The Right Help

"Since this condition is somewhat difficult to diagnose, the elderly person with eye symptoms should go to a real eye specialist, an ophthalmologist. This does not mean an optician or an optometrist, who are experts in making and fitting glasses but are not trained in diseases of the eyes. Non-specialists may not recognize the disease, and can mistake it for a malignancy requiring drastic surgery. So, if you do not know a good ophthalmologist, ask your family doctor to help you find one. Peace of mind alone may be adequate repayment for your time and trouble in obtaining an accurate diagnosis."

So much has been written, by so many kinds of experts, about making marriage go, that apparently all a fellow has to do these days is read a book. But, still, we do hear about a divorce now and then.

We've heard three generations of women who are making marriage work say things lately that set us to thinking this:

A bride of two months: "Everybody said we'd have a lot of big adjustments to make when we got married, but we haven't yet. I thought before we married I couldn't possibly love Jack any more. But I do."

A woman who has passed her silver wedding anniversary: "I love my man more than I did 25 years ago. He's been kind and understanding, and as he gets older he becomes a finer man. I respect him more and more."

A woman whose husband lived wedding day: "He was just right for me. He never brought me coffee in bed—wasn't very good about waiting on me when I was sick. But I didn't want that kind of man. He had a wonderful mind. Sometimes right here at home he'd make a speech that was better than any I heard anywhere else."

Flagg Organizes Progress Club, Get Mail Service, Phone Goals

By Mrs. Clyde R. Davis

The desires and dreams of a very interested community have resulted in the organization of a Progress Club. This community is the Flagg community. They elected officers and named committees. They meet twice a month in the different homes with one devoted to business and the next meeting a social one.

They very much want to get a community building in which to hold all their business meetings, their recreational meeting and for the other uses a community building has.

They have set as their goals: a Mail Service for all the families, as they are some who do not receive their mail each day, and Telephone Service, since not all the homes have this convenience.

The men and women of this community made and set up road markers which are very helpful. They have the name, the distance and direction of each family clearly printed for all to observe.

The officers and committees are: President, Mr. Rayphord Smithson; Vice-President, Mr. Dennis Archer; Secretary, Mrs. Joe Smith; and Reporter, Mrs. Dennis Archer.

Historians are Mrs. Clyde T. Damron, Mrs. Jess Birchfield, Mrs. Louise Gossett and Mrs. Pete Coke.

Finance committee members are Mr. and Mrs. Truett Boothe and Mr. and Mrs. Noble Armstrong.

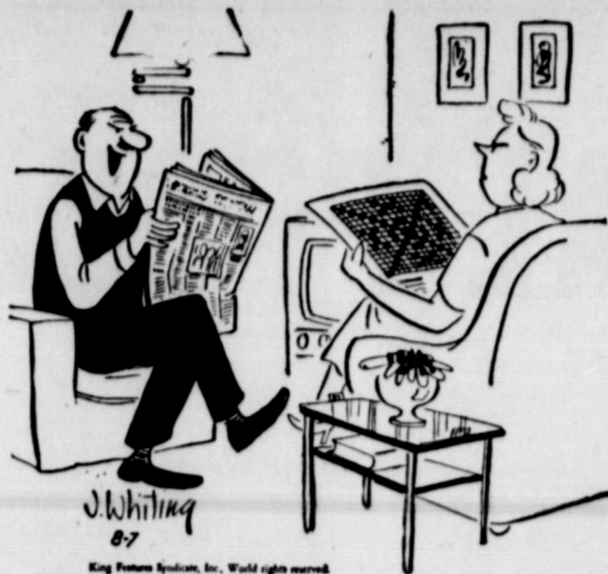

Recreation and Entertainment committee, Encouraging Social Participation consists of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Nelson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Birchfield and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Coke.

Members of the committee on Increasing and Managing Family Income are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Damron and Mr. and Mrs. James Bradford.

The committee on Improving Home and Farm consists of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Fraier and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Davis.

The committee on Improving Health Conditions and Service is made up of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde T. Damron and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ginn.

STRIKES OUT ON BENCH

ORLANDO, Fla. — Randy Randle of the Lakeland Pilots struck out while sitting on the bench in the dugout during a Florida State League game here.

Rain was falling in the fifth inning and Lakeland, trailing by seven runs, wanted the game called. Umpire Roth Belbeck refused and when Randle didn't come to bat, Belbeck ordered Orlando's Charlie Holt to pitch. Belbeck called three strikes on Randle while he sat on the bench. Orlando won, 10-1.

Growing by Giving

Lesson for August 22, 1954

A GREAT deal of "giving" is not giving at all. When two relatives give each other Christmas presents, it is more rightly called an exchange than giving. When the Red Cross or other community drives come along and the household turns in his few dollars just so he will be counted, just to keep from being thought a tight-wad, that is not giving, it is a form of tax. When some higher court (say a Presbytery) or a Board or a Bishop lays upon a congregation an assessment, or in some church campaign for funds a certain amount is "alotted" to a congregation or an individual member, that still is not giving, but more like a tax. You can rightly call it "giving" only when it is freely done, out of sheer good-will, without desire of return.

Dr. Foreman

Investing Personality
When a church invites you to give to one of the causes it supports, it is doing a great deal more, something quite different, than just asking you to shell out some cash. You are being invited to share and invest your personality, no less. There is a hymn which says, "If you cannot cross the ocean and the heathen lands explore, You may find the heathen nearer, you may find them at your door." Well, you cannot cross the ocean, perhaps. You may be much too old to learn Korean or Portuguese. But your money can cross for you. Your money, given to "missions," represents your own work, your own energy and earning-power, put into portable form. In that portable form it becomes part (for instance) of the salary of a young man and his wife who are missionaries in Korea or some other country. They may be evangelistic missionaries, preaching sermons you could never preach. They may be medical missionaries, performing operations you could never do. Whatever they are, they are where they are, doing what they do, because of the gifts you and others have given through the church. Your personality, with those gifts, would be tied down to your little Main Street; your personality through those gifts goes out to the far corners of the world.

Adding to Yourself
In true giving, you not only invest your personality but your personality itself grows. Paul in writing to the Corinthian Christians whom he knew so well, gives them a high rating for their faith, for their ability to express their faith in words, for knowledge, enthusiasm and love for him. Now you would think that persons who had all these good qualities so that even an apostle, not too easily pleased, was delighted with them, would need no further improvement, they were good enough. But Paul thinks of one thing more. "Could you not add generosity to your virtues?" he asks. (Phillips translation.) The minute you read that you can see the point. A person without generosity is not so big a person as the same person with generosity added. Long after a man's body has ceased to grow, his soul can grow by his increase in the "grace of giving."

The Stingy Are Stunted
On the other hand, the stingy are stunted. They are stunted because their eyesight is poor,—the eyesight of their mind, that is. All they can see is themselves, maybe their families. But they cannot see the needs of other people at all; on the contrary they never see people as they are, but only as sources of income for themselves. They are stunted because they tend to shrink more and more into themselves. Stinginess if left alone will cover up a man's soul as with a thick layer of cobwebs till the soul can scarcely breathe. The stingy man ends by being stingy even with himself. He becomes a miser. Money comes to be the only thing in the world for him. He began by not feeling the needs of others, he ends by not feeling even his own. He will go without much that he needs because even spending money (to say nothing of giving) hurts him to the bone. He is stunted because he finally loses resemblance to a regular human being and becomes no more than a slightly animated piggy-bank. You can put money into him but you can't shake it out. You would hardly guess that this poor shriveled soul had once been made in the image of God.
