NOSIN...
With Polly

For the first time in 17 years, school began without a member of the "Middleton Clan" dashing off to school. . . And, as the school bus passed the house, it seemed so strange. . . There was no hustle and bustle, no hasty footsteps heard dashing to and fro, up and down the stairway with all the hullabaloo and excitement. . . just silence. . . Then memories. . . Memories of all those days that remain hidden in our hearts that came rumbling forth at the drop of a hat. . . Leaving in its place an emptiness, a silence, a pain-like wound that refuses to heal. . . But it brings forth too, a thankfulness to God for every day and for every memory. Life has indeed been good. . .

"nosin"
HAPPINESS is finding your glasses soon enough to remember what you needed them for in the first place. . .

"nosin"
Our hearts are saddened by the illness of several of our friends and neighbors throughout the area. Our prayers are for a speedy return to good health and happiness. . . for each of you. . .

"nosin"
We pass the following clipping taken from the Methodist Church Bulletin, on to a certain fellow in the community, whom we heard, goes to sleep everytime he gets quiet. . . It seems he is especially noted for his ability to sleep soundly during church services. . .

"nosin"
We quote, Sleeping in church is, we believe, one of the forgivable sins. . . there must be something to be said for the man who is so at peace with himself and his neighbors and his God, he can go to sleep. . .

"nosin"
Newspapers all over the country have been playing with the slogan of a cigarette manufacturer, "I'd rather fight than switch." The Stephenville Empire Tribune headed a story about young bachelors getting married in order to escape increased draft calls for young single men with the caption "Some Would Rather Switch Than Fight."

"nosin"
In a story that Harris County marriages had shown no great numerical speed. . . up despite larger service quotas, the Houston Chronicle used as a heading "Some Would Rather Fight Than Hitch."

"nosin"
IT'S TRUE. Man was given two ears and one mouth. . . Now it just stands to reason that he'd be better off if he listened twice as much as he talks.

"nosin"
I have often thought that Athlete John Patterson, as well as his parents, Matt and Everett looked mighty well fed. . . I kept telling myself, however, the reason they looked so healthy, was because they were co-owners of Patterson Bros. Grocery.

"nosin"
But, . . . last week after eating some of Matt's goodies she brought by the office to this hungry crew, suddenly realized that owning a grocery store wasn't all they had in their favor. . . That Matt has a talent for throwing together a few ingredients in such a manner that when they are taken from the oven, they are fit for a King. . . In fact, the more you eat, the more you want. . .

"nosin"
Everyone around the office looked as though they had received a raise in salary, they looked so well fed last week. . .

"nosin"
Small Fry Tammie Cowley, with her cute smile and winning ways, managed to capture the heart of her Godmother, as well as that of several teenage gals over the weekend. . . Seemed she had no trouble at all holding the center of attraction.

There will be approximately twelve freshmen entering the choir, which is composed of thirty members. The students must continue to have a good scholastic rating to remain in the choir. This is quite an honor for Alice.

A meeting to interest parents in 4-H Club work on a community basis rather than the present student basis, is scheduled for Monday, September 13, at 8:00 p. m. in the Junior High School Building. Parents of present 4-H Club members are especially urged to attend, as well as anyone who is interested in 4-H work or in becoming a group leader. The program will acquaint parents with the work their local 4-H Club is now doing, and will give them a chance to decide on what basis the work will proceed. If the decision is made to embrace 4-H Club work on a community basis, parents and children will then attend meetings together. These meetings will be scheduled at night. This is an opportunity for parents to work side by side with their children and develop similar interests.

A Darker Picture

A substantial amount of unemployment, in the midst of plenty, continues to be a national problem. According to the authorities, a prime reason is that large numbers of people simply lack the skills that are in heavy demand.

At the same time, there is a grave concern that young people, particularly high school graduates who want to accumulate a little nest egg to take to college with them in the fall, will have a tough time finding seasonal employment. Leaders in government, business and education have been doing a great deal of talking about this and have strongly urged the creation of local committees to line up jobs and fit them to the applicants.

The situation being what it is, it's hard to see how currently proposed labor legislation can do anything but make matters worse. Killing right-to-work laws and imposing more costly overtime requirements would certainly stand in the way of expanded employment. Higher overtime rates will not enable unskilled workers to perform skilled jobs.

That is also true of the proposal to extend minimum wage coverage to workers now exempt. Most of them are in the service industries. Those covered would be those with minimum skills. So, if an employer had to pay higher wages for them, he'd have little choice but to pare this kind of marginal employment to the limit. The point is that arbitrary laws which give little or no consideration to worker productivity and value, must darken, not brighten, the employment picture.

Draft Board To Induct 17 During Month Of September

The state draft quota for October calls for 1,504 men, compared to 1,459 in September. Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said.

In early August, state Selective Service headquarters was advised by the national headquarters to estimate its October quota at 1,780. The call for 1,504 is an adjustment of this earlier estimate.

Both quotas came after the President's announcement in late July that he was doubling the draft calls. Monthly calls in the months immediately prior to the Presidential announcement ranged from 700 to 900.

More than 9,000 men will be sent for pre-induction mental and physical examinations in September, Colonel Schwartz said, and he estimated that about 7,500 would be sent in October.

from 10:00 A. M. until 4:00 P. M.; on Saturday from 1:00 P. M. to 5:00 P. M. and on Sunday from 2:00 P. M. until 5:00 P. M.

Local Draft Board No. 4 which includes Lamb County, quota for September is 17 to be inducted while another 75 will take their pre-induction physicals. The 17 to be inducted will report the last of September 29 and the other eight the following day.

President Johnson signed an executive order last Thursday which will permit the drafting of childless married men who married after midnight Thursday. For nearly two years an executive order by the late President Kennedy forbade calling of these men.

Colonel Schwartz said he expects the state call for November to be "slightly higher" than the September and October quotas.

Mrs. Bud Lee and Donita, of Midland, are house guests in the M. W. Messer home this week. Mrs. Gene Brown and Dickie and Mrs. Pat Jordan, Sheila Pat and Royce visited Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown, in Hale Center.

Dear Ross:

I want to thank you for your letter regarding a minimum wage bill pending here which would eliminate the exemption for small newspapers. I just don't know what may happen to this bill. At this point it goes beyond the bounds of reason and I could not support it in its present form. In the past I have usually voted against minimum wage legislation. It's good to hear from you and I extend best wishes.

Sincerely,
George Mahon

County's Oil-Gas Owners Are Marketing $5.2 Million Annually

Lamb County's producers and royalty owners are marketing some $5.2 million in crude oil and natural gas a year, according to statistics released by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association this week.

Ranking 12th among Texas' oil and gas producing counties, Lamb County in 1963 received some $5.1 million from well-head sales of oil and an estimated $117,000 from natural gas. County production of oil was approximately 1.7 million barrels; natural gas, 938 million cubic feet.

Farmers, ranchers and other mineral owners share in a $607,000 distribution of oil and gas royalty payments annually.

The Association based its annual study of this county's oil and gas output on statistics compiled by the U.S. Bureau of Mines for 1963. Production data for 1964 would be approximately the same.

Statewide, Texas oil and gas wells produced an estimated $3.6 billion in income; $2.9 billion from oil, $730 million from gas.

Data from the Texas Employment Commission indicate direct employment in oil and gas industry jobs for more than 105

Lamb County citizens with a payroll of approximately $568,000 a year. Because oil operations require such a large number of service contractors and supply firms which are not included in this figure, direct employment figures are only part of the story of local economic impact.

An important indicator of activity is the amount expended on drilling of wildcat wells seeking new fields and those wells drilled to develop fields already located. The Association estimates that in 1964 approximately $313,000 was risked by Texas oil and gas operators on drilling ventures in Lamb County. About 75 percent of this expenditure, or $235,000, went into dry holes.

A tabulation by the Oil and Gas Journal shows four wells were drilled in the county in 1964; one oil and three dry holes. A total of 23,000 feet of hole were drilled--12,000 for development wells and 11,000 for wildcats.

In addition to local school and county property taxes by oil and gas operators, taxes on production from Lamb County flowed into the State Treasury at the rate of about $241,000 a year.

Sweetwater Announces First Annual Amateur Rodeo

An estimated 400 contestants are expected to enter the first annual Sweetwater amateur rodeo in Nolan County Coliseum September 8, 9, 10, and 11, according to rodeo manager, Odie Burnett of Sweetwater.

Bobby James and Red Whitley of Crosbyton have been engaged as producers of the rodeo, furnishing stock from the JM String.

Sweetwater Livestock and Fair Association, in conjunction with Sweetwater Chamber of Commerce, is sponsoring the event. A parade will kick off the rodeo Wednesday, September 8 through downtown Sweetwater.

Entries will be accepted in six events: Bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, bull dogging, girl's barrel racing, calf roping, and bull riding. Entries in the bull riding contest are limited. Each roper will get one calf.

Entries in the rodeo will be accepted by telephone or letter through noon Monday, September 6, Labor Day. Entry fees must be paid by noon Tuesday, September 7 in cash, cashier's checks or money orders. Entrants should call or write the Sweetwater Chamber of Commerce.

Sweetwater, at Easter time each year, is the scene of the World's largest indoor junior rodeo, also held at Nolan County Coliseum.

For some years, the Sweetwater Livestock and Fair Association has looked forward to creating an amateur event which could allow both the older juniors and those above the school age to enter in a Sweetwater contest.

Mann-Wiebe Wedding Vows Exchanged

Miss Patricia Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mann, became the bride of Ben Wiebe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiebe, of Niverville, Manitoba, Canada, in an impressive double ring ceremony September 8, at 8:00 p. m. in the Church of Christ of Earth. Officiating was Wesley Reagan, Minister of the Northside Church of Christ, of Dallas.

The lovely bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of cloud mist taffeta, fashioned on semi-princess lines, with bracelet length sleeves and oval neckline outlined with lace petals. Re-embroidered Alencon lace formed a V-shaped detail at the front of the bodice, and was used on the voluminous skirt which was accented by a double pouf bustle and extended into a chapel train. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was held in place by a heart-shaped wreath of pearlized forget-me-nots. She carried a cascade of French carnations and stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Musical selections were given by a choral group from Littlefield. Soloist was Alvis Jones, Littlefield. Songs were "One Hand, One Heart", and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You." Bob Connel, of Houston, uncle of the bride, sang, "Hand in Hand," wore a floor length dress, featuring a fitted bodice and bell shaped skirt in brocaded taffeta and in the colors of the talisman rose. Her headpiece was a gold circlet with maline veil, and she carried a long stem tropicana rose.

Bridesmaids and matrons were Mrs. Johnny Pellham, Miss Carol Johnson, Miss Eileen Vick, Mrs. Jerry Webb, and Miss Helen Wiebe. Their dresses were of gold satin, matching the attire of the maid of honor. They also wore maline veils and carried long stemmed tropicana roses.

CALLING ALL HOME MAKERS

By Wilma Taylor
HOW DO YOU START FURNISHING YOUR HOME?
I have asked this question of three prominent decorators and received these answers:
One said he always starts with the floor covering.
After this has been decided upon, he works out his color scheme, selection of furniture, drapes and accessories from there, keeping in mind the type, color and texture of the floor covering.
A famous lady decorator said she starts with the sofa or sectional sofa since that is the main item in the living room and the living room is the most important room in the house.
The third replied that she always begins by decorating the walls with wall paper or paint or a combination of both.
The important thing to remember, regardless of how you get started, is to visualize the entire picture, just as an author must have an outline of his entire story before he can start writing the book.
Of course, your furniture and decorating will express your own personality and way of life, which is as it should be. If you want ideas, visit our store where you will find the latest ideas in decoration and good decorators to help you.

Mann, and Jim Petty. Ushers were Steve Mann and Peter Wiebe.

Mrs. Bill Mann, mother of the bride, wore a shift dress in the new color of tote, with matching hat and gloves, black accessories, and a corsage of tropicana roses.

Methodist Youth Fellowship News

By Mike Cowley

Family night at the Earth Methodist Church was observed Sunday night at regular Vesper Services. The highlight of the program was the showing of films of Mexico City and surrounding territory which Rev. Albert F. Lindley, pastor, made during his recent Evangelistic Crusade to Mexico.

Following the Vesper Service, a delicious salad supper, sponsored by the Methodist Youth Fellowship, was served in Fellowship Hall. No charges were made for the salad supper, but the donations amounted to $143.00, which will practically pay for the piano in the Chapel, purchased by the youth.

The Senior H.M.Y.F. appreciates the tremendous interest members of the church have shown them, and they and their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Jones wish to express their gratitude for such a successful evening.

Mrs. Clay Beavers Attends Luncheon At Muleshoe

Mrs. Clay Beavers was among the charter members who were honored at a luncheon Tuesday in the New Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church of Muleshoe.

Charter members of the Missionary Society (now the Women's Society of Christian Service) and the Wesleyan Service Guild were honored. These were the 1940 Charter members when the Missionary Society was renamed, as the Southern Methodist Churches and the Northern Methodist Churches united.

A lovely luncheon and program were enjoyed by the group.

Hanneford Family Are Greatest Trick Riders

Only the most expert bareback riders would attempt the amazing acrobatic feats which the Hanneford family performs in the 1965 edition of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus which comes to Lubbock, September 10, 11, and 12 at the coliseum for six performances. Friday showtime will be 8:00 p. m. Saturday, at 10:00 a. m.; 2:00 p. m.; and again at 8:00 p. m. On Sunday at 2:00 p. m. and 6:00 p. m.

In classic circus tradition, the Hannefords are third generation bareback riders and masters of grace, acrobatic agility and comedy. As their beautiful white horses gallop around the ring, the Hannefords perform seemingly impossible somersaults and build spectacular human pyramids on their "resin-back" steeds.

George Hanneford, Jr. stops the show at every performance with his fast and funny bareback antics. With split-second timing and a hilarious sense of nonsense, George Hanneford's performance makes his family's act one of the most popular features of the Greatest Show On Earth.

The Hannefords are not the only outstanding equestrian experts with the circus. Charles and Gana Moroski delight audiences with their famous troupe horses from the famous King Ranch in Texas.

Animal performers are well-represented in this year's edition of The Big Show. Hugo Schmitt's three performing herds of mammoth elephants, Stephenson family's famous dogs, Charly Baumann's Royal Bengal tigers and Kubler's chimps make up an all-star cast.

No Big Top extravaganza is complete without acrobats, high wire and tight wire walkers, jugglers, clowns and beautiful girls, and Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus has more than ever. This 1965 edition of The Greatest Show is truly the most spectacular of its 95 year history.

"As Seen In Earth"

By Carolyn Hamilton

Doug Avery, clad in coveralls, was the busiest laborer on Labor Day, as Whites moved to a new location.

One of my favorites, Polly Jean Middleton, home from Tulsa... but for too short a visit.

A pleasant addition to the News Office this week the lovely Joan Bulls (Mrs. Glenn Bulls).

Congratulations to the Bunnors, with that fine baby boy.

And to some proud grandparents, the David Johnsons and the Virgil Lewis families... Congratulations.

Did you see Bill Bryant's "Deny" smile? He and Dr. Richardson are quite a team.

School is such a busy place. Let's all strive for safety to drive (and walk) carefully at the beginning and ending of each day's activities.

The Olds-Roberson wedding in Olton was beautiful... C. F. Wages by the office... feeling much better, and looks fine... So glad.

College students are in the process of preparing for college life, shopping, and some are enrolling... Saw Phil Middleton and Phil Beardon with new records... Ah, youth.

Heard the Mann-Wiebe wedding was beautiful... Grain harvest is nearing, with some few underway... Local club activities are getting underway... 'Tis fall, you know.

Happy Birthday today (Wednesday) to our youngest grandson Brett Bryant (better known as our little sunshine) on his first birthday.

And how's your homework coming along, all you moms? Lessons seem more difficult these days.

Isn't autumn lovely!!!

MR. CANNON if you think you are running into trouble in front of you, you had better look behind, for Mr. Sanders is about to stop you in your tracks. This is the type of defense that held Idalou to very short yardage all night. Other players pictured are: Logan Armstrong, 22, Pete Glasscock, 32 and Bobby Coker, 65. Idalou players are Roy Cannon carrying the ball and no. 30, Ted Emery.

Wolverines Grab 34-0 Win From Idalou

The fighting Wolverines of Springlake-Earth, made Danny Smith's debut as head coach of the local squad a successful one Friday night as they defeated Idalou 34-0.

It was the fighting defensive line that made all the difference in the outcome of the game. Every member of the forward line played an outstanding game.

During the first half, the Idalou wildcats were held to only 8 yards rushing, and did not make a first down until the last two minutes of the half. This was on a short pass from Raymond Ater to halfback Ray Cannon.

Meanwhile, the Wolverines had picked up 126 yards on the ground and 104 yards in the air, and held a halftime score advantage of 13-0.

When the dust had settled at the end of the fourth quarter, the Wolverine defense had held the Idalou wildcats to an unbelievable 68 yards rushing and only 58 yards through the air.

The Wolverine offense really did a great job during the second half, and completed a grand total of 538 yards rushing and passing.

The Wolverines began their scoring spree on a pass from quarterback Doug Messer, standing on his own 33 yard line to fullback Jerry Don Sanders, who hauled it in around the Idalou 20 yard line and went over standing up. On a bad snap from center, Doug Messer took the ball and tried to run around left end to score, but was brought down short of the goal line by a host of Idalou defenders.

The Wolverines scored their second touchdown of the night, with 2:24 left in the first half, as Messer hit halfback Logan Armstrong with a pass from Idalou's 27 yard line. The ball was juggled into the air by an Idalou defender before Armstrong could latch on to it. However, he secured the ball and crossed the goal line standing up.

Sanders added the extra point by a perfect kick through the goal post.

The strong Springlake team made it 20 to 0 early in the third quarter after recovering an Idalou fumble on their own 22 yard line. Doug Messer called on Jerry Don Sanders to carry the ball three times in a row and wound up with the ball resting on the five yard line. Messer handed off to right halfback Floyd Bennett, who found a big hole in the Idalou line and went over for the touchdown. Sanders kicked the extra point, and the Wolverines led 20-0.

A fumble by Idalou, set up the fourth Wolverine touchdown on the last play of the third quarter. Ken Dawson recovered the loose ball on the Idalou 21. It took the Springlake-Earth lads just three plays to score. Don Sanders hit the center of the line for one yard, then following an incomplete pass, Messer hit End Floyd Henderson in the left corner of the field for the touchdown. Sanders again added the extra point.

Sanders scored the final touchdown for the Wolverines on a 10 yard scamper as he busted over left guard, with 2:11 left in the fourth quarter. The Wolverines had moved from the Idalou 48 with the big gainer being a 40 yard pass play from Messer to Henderson. For the fourth time during the night, Sanders again sent the ball through the uprights for the extra point.

For the night's work, Floyd Bennett gained 37 yards, Logan Armstrong 36, Randy Washington II, Doug Messer 58 and fullback Jerry Don Sanders had 207 yards, giving the backfield a total of 379 yards gained on the ground.

Through the air, Floyd Henderson gained 61 yards, Pete Glasscock 5, Sanders 66, and Logan Armstrong 27 yards, bringing the total to 159 yards. The Wolverine Eleven wound up with a grand total of 538 yards gained. This week the Springlake-Earth Wolverines will journey to Seagraves where they will tangle with the Eagles and try to vindicate for the 54-14 beating they took last year. This should prove to be a very good game. See you there.

FLOYD BENNETT was stopped after a short gain by the hard hitting center of Idalou, Eugene Cullpepper. Action took place late in the first half with the Wolverines holding a 13-0 lead.

FLOYD HENDERSON SCORES on a beautiful 26 yard pass play from Quarterback Doug Messer with one second left in the third quarter. Sanders kick was good and the Wolverines had a nice 27-0 lead going into the fourth quarter.

TOUCHDOWN for hard running Jerry Don Sanders, the Wolverine fullback. Action took place late in the fourth quarter on a 10 yard run over left guard. Trying to stop Sanders is Idalou line backer, Larry Isom No. 18.

Portales Coach Says Patterson May See Action As Freshman

An embittered coach once remarked, "The only time to play freshmen is when they're sophomores."

Among the football coaches who do not subscribe to that philosophy is B. B. Lees of Eastern New Mexico University, looking at a list of 23 freshmen in a first-week roster of 58 Greyhound prospects.

"We've got a pretty good crop of freshmen," Lees said after analyzing first-day workouts. "Most of the youngsters have either speed or size."

Heading the list of top freshmen prospects are Fred Chaney, Monahans, Tex., and Bill Flanders, Phillips, Tex.

Of these two Texans, Lees commented, "They'll see action this fall if any of the freshmen do."

Veteran Hound linemen may also get some help from freshman Ted Graham, Truth or Consequences, and Jim Lowen and Jim Boxler, both of Omaha, Neb.

An Earth youngster, John Patterson, is another freshman who could see line action during the Hounds' 10-game season. The 191-pound Patterson played in the Texas High School All-Star game and in addition was a high school sprint champion.

Other freshmen on the probable list are Jimmy Polk, Carlsbad, all-state in both football and basketball; Randy Winter, Norfolk, Neb., a high school Shrine game participant; Alex McAlister, an all-district player from Carlsbad; and Joe Rudy, Wellington, Tex., all-district on both offense and defense.

Night Fishing Beats The Heat

Field personnel of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department report that night fishing in South Texas is nearing the annual summer peak, according to Robert G. Mauermann, regional director.

Fish and fishermen have both learned that the cool of the night is often better suited to their activities than the blazing daytime sunshine.

Fishermen on the large reservoirs have long ago learned that fishing with a gas lantern at night in the deep clear waters is more comfortable than daytime fishing and that it produces more white bass and crappie.

Dyed-in-the-wool black bass fishermen know that Wade fishing with a top-water lure in South Texas farm ponds and ranch tanks by moonlight is some of the most exciting sports in the world. Many large fish are out in the cool of the evening looking for food after resting all day in some deepspot. Saltwater fishermen, not to be denied their nighttime sport, know that record catches of speckled trout are quite often made under lights at night. These lights, in contrast to freshwater fishing, are usually 110 volt floodlights on piers which extend into the bays. Some fishermen have procured 28, 32, or 110 volt portable light plants which they can transport to their favorite fishing holes.

Mauermann said any talk of fishing at night would not be complete without a mention of the hard souls who wade the shallow saltwater with gas light and flounder gig. Many a succulent morsel has found its way to the dinner table because of the sharp eyes and persistent nature of the flounderster.

BASS MAKING FAST COMEBACK AFTER 3 YEARS

Brood bass are patriotically doing their best to overcome three non-productive years at the San Angelo state fish hatchery.

Al Pettit, hatchery superintendent, reports one hundred female largemouth bass produced 1,038,000 young in one five-acre hatchery pond this month.

The hatchery was dry for three years but good spring and summer rains have permitted limited 1965 operations.

Pettit said 1,600,000 bass fry have already been distributed this summer in West Texas.

STARS OF THE WEEK

BACKFIELD

JERRY DON SANDERS was selected "Back of the Week" following a tough decision by coaches, whose final decision was made after studying the total yardage gained in performance, since there was no other way of selecting the one outstanding player, as each had played an equally good game. Sanders had gained 207 yards rushing and 66 yards pass receiving, and scored two touchdowns. Doug Messer, the Wolverine quarterback, was runner-up in the game. He demonstrated tremendous skill in his position, and gained 158 yards passing and 88 rushing during the game.

LINEMAN

LINEMAN OF THE WEEK. A line that played a defensive game like the Wolverines did Friday night, makes it doubly hard for coaches to select an outstanding player, as each demonstrated outstanding skill while holding Idalou to only 68 yards rushing and 58 yards passing. Again the coaches had to go to the records to see who was to receive the honor. This week the honor goes to Ken Dawson who was in on 16 tackles, which is a good night's work. Ken narrowly won over Bobby Coker who was in on 9 tackles and gave the Idalou quarterback, Raymond Ater, trouble all night. With this great effort, Idalou was always in trouble with the Wolverine defense.

Texas A&M Announces "New Look"

The outdoor look is "in" this summer, and women's fashions are capitalizing on many aspects of this trend.

Young and active looks are found in every sportswear category, says Lynn Parks, Texas A&M University Extension consumer education specialist.

"You may be a surf-watcher instead of a surf-rider, but you'll find the nation's newest beach sport is an important influence in swim wear designs. The surfing look is reflected in many tailored two-piece suits," Miss Parks says.

These suits feature such surfer design notes as flap pockets, lace-up ties at the waist, and boy-leg trunks banded with white fabric trim. Suits come in sturdy cotton denim, madras plaid, and duck.

Because real surfers like their suits to look faded, one new swim wear fabric is an all-cotton twill with a special weather faded look.

Another popular trend in sportswear is the nautical look. Both sailors and non-sailors will take to one trim-fitting sports outfit--bell-bottomed pants and balzer jacket in cotton sailcloth.

For riding the range--on horseback or on the seat of a bicycle--there's the ranching look. It's interpreted in cotton stretch wrangler pants and western-tailored shirts. And, whether you're a golfer or not, you'll like the casual comfort of stylish new golfing culottes, worn with cotton knit T-shirts.

Hints For Stretching The Vacation Dollar

Vacation time is here for most of us and planning for it can't start too soon. Here are some hints for stretching the vacation dollar:

Travel light.

Consider eating at diners or cafeterias once you reach your destination.

Use the family car. Here four or five people can ride as cheaply as one. Surveys show automobiles take only 14 cents of the travel dollar versus 22 cents on public transportation.

Take along a picnic basket and a thermos for picnic lunches and snacks to trim food expenses.

Consider camping out. Complete equipment can be rented from $45 to $80 for a two-week period.

The "check list" there are many small but important items which need attention when preparing for a vacation. Are these items on your check list?

Notify landlord, neighbors, or police of departure and return date.

Notify the milkman, mailman, and newspaper boy. (You might want to give the Post Office your forwarding address.)

Store outdoor furniture and equipment.

If you leave your electric power on, disconnect appliances. Have your car thoroughly checked and serviced. Three of the principal causes of car failure on the road are electrical connections, tires, and battery failures.

Make sure that a set of simple tools is aboard.

Free information: Today's vacationer has an abundance of travel literature at his disposal from resorts, Chambers of Commerce, state and local agencies, and service stations. Many oil companies provide touring service tailored to individual needs.

Recent visitors in the Leon Foster home were Mr. and Mrs. David Foster, of Stillwater, Oklahoma, and Mrs. O. R. Johnson, of Tipton, Oklahoma. The latter accompanied the Fosters and David on their excursion to Oklahoma City, Altus and Norman, Oklahoma.

Sunday dinner guest in the Chester Kelley home was Larry Bulls, of Dimmitt. Several friends and relatives called in the afternoon.

Mrs. Virgil Lewis recently returned from Amarillo where she visited with the Ronnie Johnson's and their new grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Bo Bryant and children of Dimmitt were overnight guests in the C. L. Hamilton home Friday night.

Weekend guests in the Albert Lindley home were Mrs. Lindley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Whitton of Midland.

Enjoying Sunday dinner in Olton with Mrs. L. A. George Laing and children and Mrs. James L. Stewart, of Savannah, Georgia.

Do You Know Your Plants

There are no plants, shrubs or trees on the moon, as far as we know today.

On planet Earth, however, vegetation helps sustain life. But some plants, trees or shrubs are potential killers of man.

Some part of the ornamental plants or flowers in your yard may contain deadly poison. Many poisonous plants are so common and seemingly innocuous you don't suspect their toxic qualities.

Who would suspect that the beautiful oleander bush, grown indoors and outdoors all over the country, contains a deadly heart stimulant, similar to the drug digitalis? So powerful is this poison that a single leaf of an oleander can kill a child. Many people have died merely from eating steaks speared on oleander twigs and roasted over a fire.

The pretty mountain lurel plant was used by the Delaware Indians to make a suicide potion. The popular Christmas flower--the poinsettia--is full of an acrid, burning juice, so lethal that a child who consumes one leaf of the plant might die. The berries of mistletoe proved deadly to adults who brewed what they thought was a "medicinal tea."

It's easy to be deceived by plants. One part may be edible while another is poisonous. For example, twigs of cherry trees release cyanide when eaten. Peach tree leaves contain hydrocyanic acid, one of the most dangerous poisons known.

Even two of our most popular vegetables, the potato and tomato, come from plants related to the deadly nightshade. Although fresh tomato fruits and potato tubers are harmless, the foliage and vines of both plants contain alkaloid poisons capable of causing digestive upset and nervous disorder.

juvenile and law enforcement officers and businessmen.

This motion picture, rare in its honesty, faces squarely the temptations that young people face every day and dares to provide a thrilling answer.

Filed professionally it stars Georgia Lee, Robert Sampson, Johnny Crawford, Jean Engstrom, Jerome Courtland, Lauren Tuttle and Kim Darby as "April." A special screen appearance is made by Graham.

"The Restless Ones," is a dramatic film which hits the teenage problems head on. It does not fail to point up the shocking depth to which today's teens can go in search of thrills—but in clear, unmistakable terms, understandable in every age group, reveals the treachery of sin, the need for repentance and the transformation which Christ alone can bring to the life.

The film is a must-see for parents, young people, educators and school administrators, church leaders, youth workers, political and civic leaders.
