RAIN AND COLD WEATHER

A good rain fell over this section of the county last Saturday, and was followed by two or three cold nights, when frost came very close to materializing. As most of the cotton is late in this county the farmers are hoping that frost will stay in the background until Nov. 1 at least. It usually comes between October 20 and November 1, however in a few instances it has held off until up in November.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS FAIR LAST DAY; ENTERTAINMENT FEATURES PROVE INTERESTING

Thursday, the last day of the Hall County District Fair, proved to be a banner day in point of attendance and interest. While not as many passed through the gates as on the day before, a goodly number of visitors visited the fair and took part in the proceedings throughout the day. The exhibits in the different departments received the attention of nearly every visitor, and many words of praise were heard as to the good quality and character of the exhibits, and the consensus of opinion was that this feature of the fair was better than ever.

MRS. MORGAN'S BOND SET AT $1,000 IN DIST. COURT

Mrs. Zina Morgan, who is being held at Childress charged as an accomplice in the murder of her husband, Jack Morgan, in February, waived an examining trial, and Judge C. C. Small, sitting in chambers here last Thursday set her bond at $1,000. Mrs. Morgan has been held in jail since she made a complete confession to District Attorney Jas. C. Mahan last week, charging Fred Nave, now in the county jail at Memphis, with committing the crime.

DAIRY COWS SHOULD BE FED PROPERLY

Good dairy cows, while milking, should not be overly fat. They can well be fed enough to put on some flesh during the dry period and should be fed so as to keep in good condition while in milk. The general principles for correct feeding are (1) feed a balanced ration, (2) feed according to production—all the good roughage that the cow will consume and generally 1 pound of concentrates for each 3 to 3½ pounds of milk produced. If a balanced ration is fed and the cow gets too fat, the amount of feed should be reduced somewhat. If she is producing heavily and getting too poor in flesh, she is either not receiving enough feed or the ration is not properly balanced.

Cooking Chats with 6 Famous Cooks

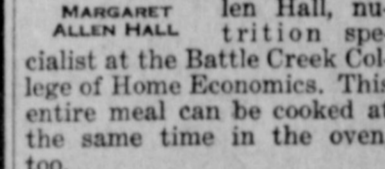

(Courtesy of the Domestic Science Department, Perfection Stove Company)

WELL-BALANCED MEAT-LESS MENUS

(Editor's Note: Paste this article in your cook book. It's one of the series by six famous cooks running exclusively in this paper.)

It's really a good thing to leave meat out of our diet once in a while. Cheese and eggs are very good substitutes for meats, and can be used in many enticing ways.

A very attractive menu is given today by Miss Margaret Allen Hall, nutrition specialist at the Battle Creek College of Home Economics. This entire meal can be cooked at the same time in the oven, too.

A Good Menu

Macaroni and cheese
Baked onions
Stuffed tomatoes
Strawberry shortcake

You may serve any beverage with this meal. Perhaps the family would relish iced tea, served with slices of lemon, or lemonade.

Macaroni and Cheese

1 1/2 cups macaroni
1 1/2 cups grated cheese
1 cup buttered crumbs
4 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
1 teaspoon salt

Cook the macaroni in boiling, salted water, until tender. Drain and pour over it a dash of cold water. Make a white sauce of the last four ingredients and mix with the macaroni. Stir the grated cheese into the mixture. Turn into a baking dish, cover with buttered crumbs and bake in a moderate oven until nicely browned.

Stuffed Tomatoes

Stuffed tomatoes are a real addition to almost any menu.
4 large tomatoes
2 cups stale bread crumbs
2 tablespoons butter
2 teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons finely chopped onions

Cut off the blossom end of firm, ripe tomatoes and remove the inside portion. Prepare dressing by placing the butter and onion in a saucepan and cooking until nicely browned. Add salt and bread crumbs, moistened slightly with juice from the inside portion of tomatoes. Fill tomato shells with the dressing. Place in a buttered pan and bake in a moderate oven about one-half hour.

Strawberry Shortcake

This favorite American dessert, strawberry shortcake, is always a treat.
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
4 tablespoons fat
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk

Sift dry ingredients. Cut fat in with two knives, add milk slowly. Turn mixture into deep cake pan and bake in hot oven twenty-five minutes. When baked, remove from pan, split, spread with butter, and place sweetened, crushed berries between layers and on top of short-

FIRE PREVENTION

Next week is fire prevention week all over the country. This prevention week is a yearly affair, and efforts are made each year to educate the people as to the cost of carelessness, and how to prevent destruction from fire. People are prone to be careless and thoughtless, and these annual events are good to keep us reminded of the fact that the careless we have with us always, and the thoughtful as well, while the thoughtful and careful people may be in our midst, yet they sometimes slip.

Proper building and proper care will prevent many fires, and on the other hand careless building and careless attention will start many fires. The destruction by fire annually in the United States is appalling—running into the billions of dollars absolutely destroyed. The material that goes up in smoke can never be replaced—it is a loss pure and simple.

Several demonstrations and talks are scheduled for the schools next week and it is hoped that all organizations of the community will observe fire prevention week in some manner.

Prevent a fire and save property.

THE COTTON CROP

Cold and rainy weather last week delayed the opening of cotton and maturing of feed crops in this section of the country. The open weather this week is bringing it back and with a few weeks of good weather, Hall county will harvest a good yield of cotton and feed.

The price of cotton has taken a downward trend this week, but it is thought that this is due to the belief that the Government report that will come out Saturday will show an increase in production. The price, it is believed, will stay around 20 cents and better, and if it does Hall County will come out all right this fall.

The fellow who told a farmer last week that the fair was punk.

must have felt rather funny when the farmer told him that the fair was good, that he never saw better exhibits, and the fellow said, "What do I care for a few stalks of corn or cotton and such stuff?" The farmer replied that he should care as he was dependent upon the products the farmers produce for his living. It is strange that people of an agricultural country can not realize that upon the success of the crops everything depends, whether business or any avocation one might name. Thank goodness, most of the people do realize and appreciate this fact and are concerned when anything happens to harm the agricultural business of the country.

BREEDING DOES TELL IN RAISING YOUR CHICKENS

By F. W. Kazmeier, Bryan, Texas

The question of making a living is taking on a more serious outlook every year. Each year there are more people in the world that must be fed. Everybody eats eggs and chickens, the consuming public will some day eat more eggs and chickens. These facts only help bring out the fact that a good flock of chickens is a necessity, and can readily be looked upon as a source of great income.

At this time of the year let us take a good look at your flock of chickens, let us see what we can do.

Do you keep mongrel chickens, dukes mixture, all kinds, all sizes, all ages, all types, all colors, so-called just eating of crazy quilt chickens; ask yourself that question. Go out and count them, find out how many you have.

Last week we made a trip thru East Texas, from Huntsville to Groveton, Trinity, Lufkin, Nacogdoches, Timpson, San Augustin, Jasper, Kirbyville, Beaumont, Dayton and Houston. I took particular interest and note of the kind of chickens. I wanted to get first hand information, on just what relationship exists between standard bred or so-called pure-bred chickens and mixed breeds or mongrels.

I am more convinced than ever that a large number of people still believe in mixed chickens. We have tried to reason out why so many people want to waste time with mongrel chickens. We have tried to look at it from their viewpoint but are at a loss to even begin to understand.

We cannot find one good reason or justification for the flocks of mongrel hens on the farm.

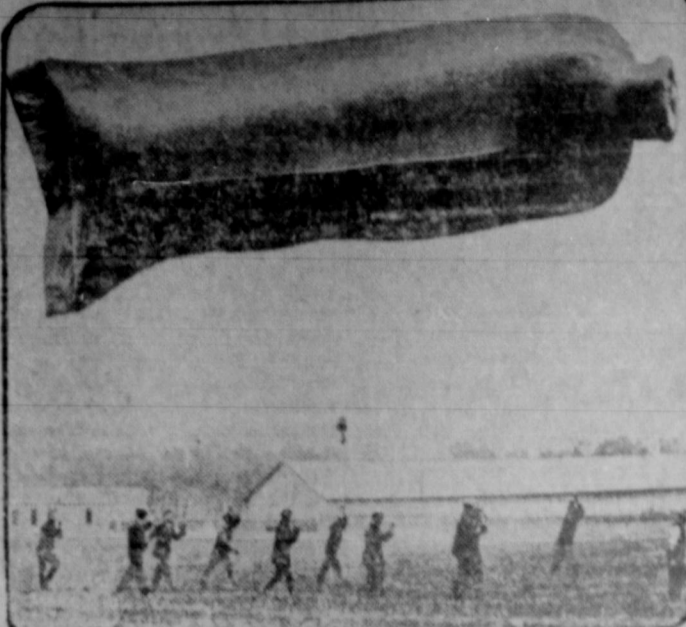

The Mongrel Flock

- 1. They are poor layers, as an average producing less than 100 eggs in a year.
- 2. They eat just as much feed as pure-bred chickens.
- 3. They require just as much room and just as good care.
- 4. Good feed is money wasted, when fed to a flock of mongrel, mixed or non-descript fowls.
- 5. Good care is time wasted when devoted to a dukes mixture flock of chickens.
- 6. What kind of breeding do they have? Answer, nobody knows. They come and go by accident. Their parents or ancestors are no good, how can the offspring be much better?
- 7. They are unsightly, because they are mixed in color and type.
- 8. They produce a mixed lot of eggs, bringing an inferior price on the market.
- 9. You cannot enter them in a poultry show, because no poultry show management will tolerate them. If you try, you will find you cannot even name them.
- 10. As a general rule they are of a lowered vitality and sickly.
- 11. They are all ages, most of them too old to be able to get into nest boxes.
- 12. Mongrel hens lay most of their few eggs in the spring and early summer when eggs are cheap.
- 13. You cannot sell any of them for breeding purposes because nobody wants them.
- 14. They are bred for speed, rather than large egg production.
- 15. They are a money losing proposition under even the most favorable circumstances.
- 16. Why don't you enter some of your mongrel flocks at your Fair or in an egg-laying contest?
- 17. Why is the average owner of a mongrel flock ashamed of them?

The Pure-Bred Flock

- 1. A flock of pure-bred hens, especially from a trapnested strain will produce from 140 to 180 eggs per hen per year. The production over 100 eggs per hen per year is profit.
- 2. They produce large eggs of uniform color and size, that command a premium in price. A premium of 5 cents a dozen for such eggs is easily available to every producer. Figuring on an average production of 12 dozen eggs per hen per year, this is an extra profit of .60 cents per hen each year.
- 3. The purebred hen is bred for egg production and meat production. She is a profitable meat producer. Her carcass makes a neater appearance on the table.
- 4. Her products are in greater demand by the consuming public.
- 5. Because of uniformity her product is marketed more readily, the product permits of pooling and marketing in large quantities.
- 6. She is bred to produce eggs economically, for the lowest consumption of feed.
- 7. Pure-bred stock is eligible to be entered at Fairs, Poultry Shows and Egg-Laying Contests.
- 8. Pure-bred flocks are a source of continual pride to the owner.
- 9. They require no more house room than a flock of mongrel hens.
- 10. They are bred for constitutional vigor, health and stamina.

11. Pure-bred flocks, fed a good feed cannot help but produce a profit. They are bred for that purpose.

12. They respond to good care and attention.

13. They are bred for a purpose and along definite lines so they will reproduce their characteristics in the offspring. You know what you have and what you are going to get.

14. Pure-bred flocks create a demand for breeding stock, eggs for hatching and baby chicks.

15. They are bred for useful as well as beautiful.

16. Why is the owner of a pure bred flock always proud to show them?

17. They produce eggs in the Fall and Winter when eggs bring a good price.

Texas and Texans

BY WILL H. MAYES

Need Substantial Encouragement

One of my newspaper friends writes to say that he endorses what was said recently in "Texas and Texans" about the little encouragement the average editor gets in his work, that he gets at least a dozen criticisms to a word of praise, although he tries constantly to be of help to his town and all its people. He says the knockers in his community are evidently much more energetic than the builders and that some of those for whom he does most will even dodge him when he goes out to collect his bills. He wonders if other towns are like his in that respect. The idea seems to prevail that a newspaper man in a small town merits no praise and needs no money, though I can't think that this is true of all towns for most Texas papers appear to be prosperous. At least that seems true of those using this column, which are about the only papers I ever see. To do his best work, the newspaper man needs a little praise and much money. Should any reader of this paragraph have been a bit niggardly with either, I hope he may have a change of heart.

Natural Gas in Texas

Texas has an over-abundance of natural gas, so much that Texas gas is being sold to other states. Gas for household use is as great a luxury as electric lights or the telephone and wherever possible to obtain it, it should be provided. One of the inquiries now made by people who contemplate locating in a town where it has natural gas at reasonable rates. For this reason as well as for the better comfort of the people, enterprising towns are hurrying to contract for gas. In one days news reports I noticed that Bryan, Miles and Slaton, three widely separated places are each negotiating for or getting gas, and dozens of other towns over the State are studying how they may avail themselves of this comfort-giving fuel.

Enforcing Nepotism Law

It has been stated that the anti-nepotism law is to be enforced more strictly in all the state departments at Austin. It is said that relatives of state officials in some cases are holding positions related to them. Whether this is true or not, numerous instances could be found where the spirit of the law is violated through the direct or implied trading. An official, wanting a place for a relative asks a position for the relative in some other department, and in turn is obligated to help the department head who favors him by employing his relatives. The efficiency of the State service would doubtless be greatly improved by eliminating these 'trade' positions.

Too Many Employees

This seems a good time to say that in some departments there are too many employees for the most effective work. They crowd upon each other, and the enforced idleness, encourages all to idle. Both branches of the legislature set a bad example in this respect by using many more employees during the sessions than are really needed. Employment in the State service of more help than is needed and of incompetent help is a form of grafting that should be stopped, and the beginning should be made by the legislature itself.

Sweet Potato Marketing

The sweet potato curing plant has worked a wonderful change in the marketing of the crop by stabilizing the market. Pittsburg, Camp county is perhaps the leading market of the State, and will ship this season some 400 cars of potatoes. Potatoes are now shipped in crates and under trade labels the marketing lasting the year around. One Pittsburg firm now has seven curing plants with a total capacity of about 100,000 bushels.

East Texas to Tech

The fall enrollment shows that many East Texas students are going to Texas Technological College at Lubbock. Ten boys are enrolled from Athens and more are expected. Why not? East Texas has much to learn from West Texas and West Texas can learn much from East Texas. The boys from Athens will go back with a lot of pep that has made West Texas prosperous, and Athens will get much of the Western enthusiasm. Modern travel has almost eliminated distance and the habitual stay-at-homes are the only people who do not progress. Nacogdoches Schools Gets Them. East Texas schools are also proving drawing cards. Seventy-five families located at Nacogdoches in

CULTURE CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. W. P. DIAL

Modern fiction was the topic of the lesson when the Woman's Culture Club met with Mrs. W. P. Dial Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. The club was promptly called to order by the President, Mrs. W. H. Kuhn, and the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. W. C. Kinslow, after a brief business session a pleasing program was given. Roll call was responded to by 'My Favorite Author' and one short quotation from his works. God and the Groomer by Harold Bell Wright formed the basic subject of the program. Mrs. Webster gave the characters, bringing out the salient points in the characters. Mrs. Quigley gave the plot, showing the author to be a genuine lover of people with a profound interest in all the hopes and sorrows and aspirations of the average man.

MRS. DRAPER ENTERTAINS

Mrs. M. J. Draper entertained Tuesday afternoon with her second of a series of parties in honor of her sister, Mrs. Bustin Canon on San Angelo. Four tables of bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. Ewell Noel made high score and second was made by Mrs. Horace Tarver. A delicious two course luncheon was served to the following: Mesdames Canon, John Deaver, Temple Deaver, Ragsdale, Figh, Jones, Greene, Walker, Noel, Grundy, Kinslow, Fore, Tarver, Beard, Flannery, Foxhall and Kinard.

DELPHIAN CLUB

The Delphian club program, presented on Tuesday afternoon, was one of the most interesting that has yet been had. The program committee planned a pageant representing the high spots of Columbus' discovery of America, which was staged by the Club kiddies and their friends. It consisted of five acts, (1) Columbus sitting alone in his cold, cheerless room preparing to go before the King and Queen; (2) the Royal Court, Columbus' arrival, King Ferdinand's disapproval and Queen Isabella's giving her jewels to be pawned; (3) the mutiny on shipboard; (4) the Indians in a war dance and smoking the pipe of peace and Columbus' arrival on shore and his proclaiming the ownership of this land in the name of Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain; (5) his triumphal return to Spain.

Harold Foxhall acted the part of King Ferdinand; Ann Palmeyer, Queen Isabella; Bobbie Clark and Audrey Lofland the royal guards; G. W. Smith, Columbus; Gilford McCleery, Peggy and Bob Stanley Bowers, Jacqueline McMurry and Loyd Hicks were sailors; C. A. Powell, Jr., Willie Ben Wilson, Billie Joe Boren, Arnold C. Shelley, John M. Bass, Roberta Owens and Raynes West were the Indians.

The kiddies were appropriately dressed and did their parts beautifully. Their youth and earnestness made a wonderful combination for such an historical play.

Between scenes special numbers were rendered by John M. Bass, G. W. Smith, Rosalyn Bass and Audrey Foffland.

Through the gracious permission of the Presbyterian people, the church parlors were used for the entertainment, where commodious quarters were had for all of the characters. Mrs. Henderson Smith, hostess, had decorated artistically in pot plants, cut flowers and red, white and blue bunting.

A delicious plate lunch consisting of potato chips, pickled sandwiches, cheese "blush apple," iced tea and cake, in each piece of which a tiny American flag was standing, was served to about 17 members.

MIZPAH AUXILIARY MEETS WITH MISS KEELING

The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. W. Kinslow.

They returned to the bride's home the next day where a reception followed with friends greeting the bridal couple and offering congratulations.

VANISHING PARTIES

The second series of Vanishing Parties which are being sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary unit were had Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Oren Jones was prevented because of sickness in her family from having the party and she asked Mrs. T. Kittinger to act as hostess in her place. A theatre party was planned, with refreshments down town later. The guests were Miss Mary Noel, Mesdames W. W. Baetty, Elbert Kittinger and Pete Clower. A very enjoyable time was reported by all.

Mrs. W. S. Gooch entertained with a unique contest party. Upon arrival, the guests were asked to register. After spending a few minutes in pleasant conversation small plates were passed on which were a group of letters. These letters when correctly placed would spell the name of some business in Memphis. Mrs. Winfred Wilson won the prize by placing her letters the most quickly.

Then each guest was asked to relate the most interesting experience of her life. This proved to be exceedingly novel. Mrs. John A. Wood took first place in the contest. After the merriment had subsided, drawing paper and pencils were passed and each person was asked to draw the picture of the one whose name appeared at the bottom of the paper. This was the most enjoyed of all the contests, and showed beyond a doubt that Memphis can boast of some real artists. Mrs. Wilson won first place again in this try-out.

Miss Ina Mae Shannon rendered two piano numbers which were greatly appreciated. Mrs. Gooch made an interesting talk on the work of the Auxiliary, its motives and purposes and explained the need for the funds which are being raised by the vanishing parties.

Lovely refreshments consisting of chicken salad, sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, Danish nut sticks and hot tea were served by Mrs. Gooch, assisted by Misses Lore Duke and Ine Mae Shannon, to the following guests: (Members) Mesdames W. Wilson, H. H. Lindsey, J. J. Wilson and T. R. Franks, (honored guests) Mesdames R. H. Wherry, John A. Wood, C. E. Anthony, Lee Rushing, C. R. Webster, J. C. Ross, Lonnie Edmondson of Estelline, H. B. Bryan and Miss Edna Bryan.

Mrs. Roy Guthrie entertained with a forty-two party. Her guests were Miss Bird Presler and Mesdames Bob Bowers, Roy Ewen and John Bass. Mrs. J. E. Roper was prevented from attending the party but she will entertain next week. Orangeade and cakes were served after a heated battle had been waged across the table to determine who would be the champion players of the afternoon.

Mesdames Elmer Shelley and John Deaver will entertain later in the week.

"Roxy," a favorite in Radio-land, writes:

"During a strenuous rehearsal, with the work entailed in operating the World's Largest Theatre, where one's nervous system is working under great pressure, there is nothing quite like a 'Lucky Strike' cigarette. It does not impair the voice, and gives the mental relaxation so essential to carry on."

WHAT is the quality that Giuseppe Danise, Adam Didur, Queena Mario, Antonio Cortis, Lenore Ulric, Nanette Guilford, Wilton Lackaye, "Roxy," and other famous singers, actors, broadcasters and public speakers have found that makes LUCKY STRIKES delightful and of no possible injury to their voices?

For the answer we turned to medical men and asked them this question:

Do you think from your experience with LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes that they are less irritating to sensitive or tender throats than other cigarettes, whatever the reason?

11,105* doctors answered this question "YES."

In a Bad Fix from INDIGESTION

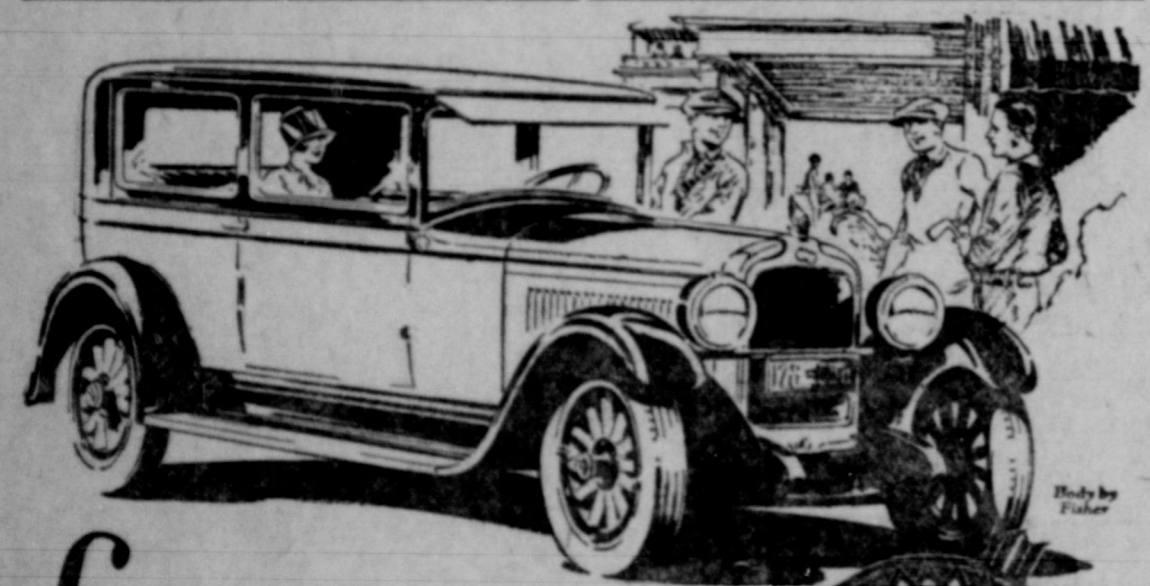

"I had suffered with indigestion for 6 years," says Mr. H. C. Dove, R. F. D. 4, Chester, S. C. "I had gotten to the place where I could hardly eat a thing—everything hurt me. I had smothering spells and fell off 20 pounds. I was in a bad fix.
 I read of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I do not believe that I would have been living today had it not been for Black-Draught. I had gotten to where I only ate milk and crackers, but after taking Black-Draught I began to eat and gradually got my appetite back. I gained in weight and felt better. I have not had a bad spell of indigestion in ten months."
 Theford's Black-Draught is prepared in a powder from medicinal roots and herbs. In use over 55 years. Sold everywhere. 25c.

Turn the key and your Buick is Double-Lock

No lock could be safer! One turn of both ignition and steering wheel. But off the ignition does not lock the wheel off the engine and coast, if you like, your car under perfect control.
 And no lock could be more convenient and located within easy reach steering column meets the dash.
 The Buick double-lock is an exclusive—one of many important refinements to Buick for 1928.

HAS KING SUCCESS Mollie Is Oldest Market Merchant—She Hasn't Missed a Week Since 1868

MISS MOLLIE ARETON is by far the oldest merchant in the city market of Zanesville, O. She has been at her stand every Saturday since the year 1868, and until five years ago never had missed a Christmas market.

Mollie Areton

Every week, year in and year out, in zero weather or burning summer sun, she has traveled the same road to market and for the last twenty years her faithful horse "Billy" has conducted her safely thither.

Each Saturday morning she arises at 3:30 and by 4:30 she is ready to embark on her course. She gives "Billy" the line and he takes her directly to the market house without any guiding.

Miss Areton lives on a six-acre farm. Interviewed, she said: "Yes, I do my own planting and hoeing. I just got through hoeing my carrots. And oh, I've got the nicest radishes. See all those tomatoes out there? I hoed every one of them this morning before 8 o'clock."

She was preparing to get one bushel of her radishes ready for her Saturday market. Last year she set out 400 tomato plants.

Up to the year 1863 Miss Areton was a teacher and governess. Asked why she changed her vocation, she replied, "Because I like farming—I always did."

Because of her especially keen

92, SHE REVEALS A BEAUTY SECRET

MISS MOLLIE ARETON is wrinkled and stooped with farm work and age, but she does not neglect her beautiful snow-white hair.

This is her secret of soft, silky hair: Dissolve a good non-alkali soap in rain-water and beat the white of an egg into enough solution to make one shampoo. With this thoroughly wash the hair and then rinse it in two clear waters. Then use a lemon rinse.

This done every two weeks keeps Mollie's hair soft and silky and white.

Miss Areton has followed the adventures of Colonel Lindbergh from start to present and ventured the remark that she surely would like to have been on the field when he landed in Paris.

At the age of 85 she attended the wedding of one of her fellow marketers and did a square dance. Her favorite song is "Oh, Let Me Go Back to That Tumble-Down Shack." Asked what she liked to read, she crisply retorted, "Anything I can get hold of."

ESTELLINE MAKES SPLENDID WINNINGS AT FAIR LAST WEEK FIRST IN COMMUNITY EXHIBIT

Estelline won first prize of $100.00 at the Hall County District Fair in session at Memphis this week.

The placing of the exhibit was sponsored by the Estelline Chamber of Commerce and Fred Landers, secretary and Ross Gee placed the exhibit after the gathering committee had completed their work.

The Estelline exhibit was easily three hundred points above any exhibit placed and only one item called for on the score card was missing. That product, a gallon jar of field peas, was abundant in the community but the gathering committee failed to secure them in time for the exhibit.

The hundred dollars less expenses will be put in the Chamber of Commerce treasury for the benefit of all the communities contributing to the success of the fair undertaking.—Estelline News.

DARBY WINS THIRD ON INDIVIDUAL EXHIBIT

J. L. Darby entered the contest for individual farms at the fair and won third prize with a prize of $25.00. His exhibit was one of the most attractive ones there. There were seven or eight entries in class and competition was strong.—Estelline News.

CAMPBELL WINS FIRST ON COTTON

B. E. Campbell won first prize on his cotton at the Hall County District Fair this week. He has an early variety of cotton with an extra good staple. Estelline cotton won high score in the community exhibition which shows the farmers of this community are progressing along the line of good cotton and know that it pays in the long run to raise a cotton of good staple.—Estelline News.

BI SPAGEANT AT HALL COUNTY FAIR SUCCESS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The big pageant put on by the Hall County District Fair Wednesday night, was a grand success from every angle. Thousands of people crowded the grand stand, and all available standing room around the big open air platform was taken.

Out in front of the grand stand between it and the big stage the bands of the different communities were arranged and furnished music for the occasion. Four bands were present, Estelline, Clarendon, Harrell Chapel and Memphis.

The Princesses from the different communities were introduced and the final crowning of the Queen of the Hall County District Fair were the features of the program.

Not the least of the attractions for Wednesday evening was the big parade staged just before the pageant. The Princesses from the different communities rode in decorated floats followed by the bands where they had bands and the parade was several blocks long.

Estelline's float was beautifully decorated with yellow and lavender and was one of the prettiest in the parade. Thomas Copeland's Chrysler roadster was used and Mrs. L. S. Edmondson superintended the decoration, assisted by Mrs. Lee Grogory and Miss Hannah Kellison. A throne arrangement was fixed just behind the driver's seat for the Princess where she could be seen to the best advantage.—Estelline News.

STATE ENGINEER HERE MAKING BRIDGE SURVEY

State Engineer French and County Engineer Hasie were here today (Thursday) making surveys preparatory to letting the contract for a new bridge across Red River. This bridge will be a wood bridge and not steel as first planned, but will be a type of bridge that will stand lots of hard service.

The bridge will be put on the west side of the railroad bridge in order to keep the highway from crossing the railroad. Engineer French says that the bridge contract is almost sure to be let soon. The contract for paving south of the river will also be let just as soon as a few details of the work can be made. There has been a rumor about that this road will not be paved until Childress county opens up the road from the end of the paving to the old road but Engineer French says this rumor is false and the state will no doubt let the contract for the paving of this road as soon as practical.

The contract for topping the gravel road running west to Hulver has been let and actual work is just pending the state approval of the contract.—Estelline News.

Is He Asking Henry About It, Too?

GIP McMURRY HAS CLOSE CALL AT LAKE CHILDRESS

Gip McMurry had a close call in Lake Childress last Sunday while fishing from a boat. The boat upset, throwing him into the water where he became entangled with the fishing lines and was rescued by Doc Cook and Frosty Rymer who were nearby. Gip was having a hard time keeping above the water and had gone under a time or two when the other boys reached him.
