COMMITTEE DRAWS BALLOT PLACES FOR PRIMARIES IN JUNE COUNCIL OUTLINES RETRENCHMENT PROGRAM 1930 Census Figures Give To Hall County Population Of 100,000

On the LEVEL a column by William Russell Clark

Consider the Sabbath, the first day of the week. After six days taken up with material affairs, nature demands that a let-up be taken. The physical and mental man is in need of recuperation, of relaxation, of recreation. The Sabbath affords them all. While men differ in their ideas concerning its observance, they are agreed that one day in the week should be spent quietly and pleasantly, amid a crowded turmoil of a busy life, to broken down tissues, and to have a strengthening effect on mind and body.

Commerce and industry, the life of nature and human nature, demand that certain businesses continue to function on the Sabbath. This is irrevocable, and those thus occupied should not be a target for criticism. As Wells Cassius, "It is not at every nice offense bear his comment." Neither is it right that we censure those who have a task to perform, a mission to accomplish for the betterment of humanity.

Over a considerable span of years—ten to be exact—I have given particular attention to the Sabbath. I try to attend divine worship at least one time on this day. It is true that my ideas concerning recreation may be in opposition to those held by many of the clergy and laity in general. Experience has taught me that I am prepared for the work of the week when I go to church on Sunday. Attendance may be said to be a habit. Once it is formed, it is not easily broken. However, it is not such an easy matter for a non-church member to begin attending on Sunday mornings are often given entirely to reading the daily papers—an occupation that is just as profitable when one is over with. Show me a man who is a regular attendant upon church services and I am not at all concerned as to the reaction he seeks Sunday afternoon.

It was a time, not so long ago, when Sunday observance was by many to be a tiresome ordeal. Re-exacted rigorous requirements were considered unethically to read the Bible, and to be decorous in all quiet, soft-spoken, matter of fact, puritanical. That day and (Continued on page 7)

Henry Read And Jim King Chicago Without Being M

Henry Read and Jim King, returning home from the Shrine convention in Toronto, Canada, spent one and a half days in Chicago, braving the dangers of Chicago gangdom and each emerging with a whole skin, but at that, a significant event transpired. They left Chicago last Sunday night and Monday morning the police chief resigned. It was stated that gang warfare was the chief topic of conversation in restaurants, hotel lobbies and other public places.

Son Of Local Man Is Candidate For Legislative Post

It was learned this week that Floyd W. Snow, oldest son of J. Y. Snow of this city, and former resident of Memphis, who is now living in Dallas, has announced his candidacy for state representative of the fifty-first district, comprising Dallas, Rockwall and Kaufman counties.

Came to Memphis in 1911 Mr. Snow came to Memphis with his father in 1911 and remained in this city until 1917 when he volunteered his services to his country. After the war was over, he attended Texas Christian University at Fort Worth, receiving his degree from that institution. He has been practicing law for several years and is associated with the Texas and Pacific Railway in Dallas.

Would Lessen Taxes Lessening of the tax burden, reform in state court procedure and reorganization of the state penitentiary system are among the objectives Mr. Snow will seek, if elected. In his announcement, he said: "If elected to this office, it is my intention to introduce a bill or vote for any bill that calls for a lower and more equitable distribution of our tax burdens. I favor a bill to speed up or reform our present form of court procedure and the reorganization of our state penitentiary system."

Local Golfers To Contest Amarillo

Thirty local golfers will journey to Amarillo next Sunday to play an inter-city tournament with the golfers of the Hillcrest Country Club. Among the contestants will be Frank Faxhall, who won the Green Belt tournament at Quanah recently and challenged Dennis Lavender, State Amateur Champion, to a match which had to be postponed on account of injuries Foxhall received in a car accident. Another Memphis star will be Raines West.

The Hillcrest team is looking forward to a hard fight as local golfers have a reputation of being hard to defeat. It was learned that luncheon will be served to the Memphis delegation at the Hillcrest Country Club before the play gets under way.

Three men escaped County road guard Thursday night of last, sawing their way through door in the front of the bus. The men are believed to have received an iron saw early in the night from the wife of one of the prisoners, who was visiting her husband there until 10 o'clock that night; however, evidence to verify this assumption has not been found. The break, according to Constable Jim May, happened at a little after midnight, when the four men retained in the guard house for work on the county road sawed their way to freedom. One of the men returned, however, and made no attempt to escape.

One of the iron bars in the lower portion of the door was sawed in two about a foot and a half from the floor, and bent down leaving enough room for the men to crawl through. No evidence of the instrument used to effect the escape could be found about the guard house.

Those who escaped, according to the Sheriff's Department, are E. L. Weldon, serving a felony charge; "Heavy" Brown, who was placed in the house Thursday afternoon after being unable to pay a fine, and O. L. Roades. The man who returned is stated to be Curley Mathews, who is doing time on two separate charges.

was present by Mrs. C. C. Crozier, president of the Webster Home Demonstration Club, and an assisting committee. Those candidates present were Miss Edna Bryan, J. R. Turlington, J. H. Alexander, J. D. May, L. E. Hill, William J. Bragg, Bailey Gilmore, O. C. Hollis, Shorty Hughes, J. H. Bounds, J. B. Landis, Miss Grace Wilson, Mrs. Roy Guthrie, Theodore Swift and D. H. Arnold.

Mrs. Joe D. Bennett of Lesley, chairman, presided over the meeting. Clubs from each of the following communities reported that work had almost been completed: Brice, Lesley, Lakeview, Webster, Indian Creek, Salisbury, Newlin, Parnell and Halver.

SPEAKING IS HELD AT WEBSTER LAST FRIDAY

The Home Demonstration Club of Webster sponsored a Candidates' Speaking and Ice Cream Supper given at the Webster School House last Friday night. The purpose of this occasion was to raise money to send a delegate from that community to the A. & M. College Short Course, July 26-Aug. 2. The meeting was reported successful in that a sufficient amount of money was raised for that purpose.

"Driving Fool" Uses Chevrolet On Run

E. B. Snyder, known as "the driving fool," left East Orange, New Jersey, at 12 a. m., May 24, on his double transcontinental run to Los Angeles and return, in which he hopes to make the two round trips in 475 1-2 hours, or an average speed of 26 miles per hour.

"The Driving Fool" is using a Chevrolet car for the trip. He will make only three schedule stops en route, one at Oil City, Pennsylvania, one at Akron, Ohio, and one in Los Angeles.

Stops will be made as needed for gas, oil and service. Telegrams will be sent back at the end of each twelve hour period. They will give weather and road conditions, condition of driver and car, total mileage driven, with gas and total mileage of the two round-trips will be approximately 12,500 miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Wagener and Jack Bell spent Sunday fishing at Lelia Lake. They returned telling a story about catching 56 fish during the day.

Jean Wagener drove to Hollis Monday, after Patsy Jean, who has visited with her grandparents the past week.

Melvin Jones left Monday for Mississippi, where he will be employed during the summer.

Brings His Mother Greatest Happiness

"I am so happy since my little boy, Francis, gets out and plays with the children again," says Mrs. G. M. Hays, who lives at 215 Colquit avenue, in Bossier City.

"For a long time he didn't seem to have any life about him and was awfully cross. My mother said he acted like he had round or pin worms. He would cry out in his sleep, and grit his teeth. On my mother's advice I began giving him White's Cream Vermifuge and he started picking right up. He sleeps soundly, isn't cross and doesn't grit his teeth any more. Now my boy romps and plays all day long."

White's Cream Vermifuge is wonderful for children when they develop round or pin worms usually from eating too much uncooked food.

 (Check Mark Indicates Project Has Been Realized)

1. Less selfishness and more selflessness in the business, professional and social life of Memphis and Hall County.
2. The placing of agriculture on a higher plane, with emphasis being put on diversification, live at home movement, and the cow, sow and hen route to contentment and general well being.
3. A better understanding between Memphis and the towns and communities in Hall County.
4. More respect for city ordinances in connection with parking of cars in the downtown district, observance of fire rules and regulations, and keeping the streets of the city in a clean condition.
5. More general cooperation in all movements seeking the betterment of Memphis and Hall County.
6. A municipal auditorium.
7. More paved streets.

HERE IS A REAL BARGAIN

In every town and city in the United States, there are "bargain hunters," or to be exact, people who take advantage of low prices for advertised merchandise to effect savings. It is a good indication of financial astuteness to see an alert public make the most of bargain opportunities afforded them. It indicates thrift rather than greed, but all of us, at the same time, like to think that we are getting something for nothing. That is human nature.

One of the biggest bargains we have seen offered this year came with the announcement of the Texas Water Utilities Company last week, in which this company agreed to reduce its rates on all water used for irrigation purposes, on trees, shrubs, flowers and grass during the months of June, July, August and September. A substantial saving will be effected if city water users will avail themselves of the opportunity presented.

In announcing the reduction, R. D. Stuart, local manager, stressed the fact that the only reason that prompted his company in this regard was to be of assistance in helping beautify the homes of Memphis. Consideration of this kind on the part of a utilities company is appreciated by the public in general, or should be. If there are "bargain hunters" in Memphis, and we believe there are, the reduction in water rates is "something to crow over." Our experience with public utilities companies, for the most part, has proved to our satisfaction that they are willing and ready at all times to contribute to the betterment of the public weal.

A GOOD RECORD FOR A HARD YEAR

The fact that the Farmers Union companies here declared a yearly dividend, at a recent meeting, of $18,000, shows the results that accrue from cooperative enterprise. The companies started years ago, with small capital, and have grown to such a proportion that the combined capital of the Farmers Union Supply Company and the Farmers Union Gin Company is $225,000, which is a figure not to be "sneezed at" in any town.

If Memphis had more concerns of this nature, who paid dividends in times of financial stress, such as we are experiencing at the present time, there would not be the occasion for so much talk about hard times. Five thousand dollars put in circulation in one day through the efforts of two organizations is an index of the business activities, and service rendered. We would like to hear of more dividends being declared, for we believe such a way to relieve the tension of the surcharged air which pervades through this section at the present time. This incident cited merely to show that there is still money in circulation here in Memphis and to prove that the county has not gone to the "bow-wow" as some pessimists are ready to assert.

THE JURY OF VIEW REPORTS

Of interest to many readers of The Democrat was the report of the Jury of View, fixing the amount of damages to property owners along the route of the new highway from Memphis to Mulberry Bridge by way of Lakeview. This report, as published in our issue of last week, reveals the fact that property owners were allowed the sum of $21,774.74, or about one-third of the amount requested.

We are going to maintain strict neutrality in the matter. It is understood that quite a bit of dissension has arisen over the report and we are not qualified to take a stand for or against it. We are of the opinion, however, that the five men who composed the jury went thoroughly into the matter and made what, in their estimation, was a fair appraisal of the damages to the property owners.

The matter, as we see it from afar, is a question as to the value of the property through which the road runs. On the basis of taxation figures, the property does not seem to be worth such a great sum per acre. So far as we have been able to ascertain, the Board of View allowed something like $100.00 per acre for damages. While we are not an authority on such matters, we are convinced in our own mind that the Board of View did a good job, that is, they made what we assumed to be a fair estimate of the damages, without any out-dictation or domination. It was a difficult matter at best and a that few would have cared to undertake.

Memphis Owls split two games with Littlefield here Saturday and Sunday. After Littlefield shot them out, Saturday, by a 4-0 score, the Owls came back to win Sunday's game by a one-run margin. The game, Sunday, was one of the fastest games played in Memphis this season, and a packed park saw the Owls win in a 4-3 contest.

In the first game "Lefty" Squires of Lubbock tossed for the Littlefield aggregation. He, alone, stopped the Owls in their no run defeat. He was wicked with that left arm, and the Owls were unable to hit him. Land, pitching for the Owls, held all hitters to singles; no man on either team getting as much as a double.

In Sunday's game the Owls were about to avenge themselves for Saturday's shutout given them Saturday, P. Mead in the ninth, Littlefield started a rally, and made their three runs during the afternoon; only bad judgment on the part of the runner on the lead prevented them from tying the score during that rally. Memphis won the game in the first inning when two men walked, and they were allowed three runs on sacrifice hits.

Scouts Take Hike

BY J. H. MALLARD
The Scout Troop of the Presbyterian Church took another of their monthly hikes and overnight camps last Thursday and Friday. Back at their usual camping place at Browder's Canyon, which they had gone to and tidied up in some better form the day before, the boys felt the exhilaration that comes from a better camp. A portable phonograph was carried along and there was music in the camp with the meals. At the supper hour, the intermediate girls society of the Presbyterian church accompanied by Mrs. Mallard came out as guests of the camp and participated in cooking supper. The camp was a busy place with fourteen husky Scouts entertaining their girl visitors, and right gallant they were. Some special athletic stunts were prac-camp, after the visitors were gone, and in the light of the camp fire with music and the effulgence of the full moon the boys felt the enchantment of the out-of-doors enough to put them at their best.

After the morning breakfast was cooked and the camp cleaned up, a lively target practice was "pulled off" with several of the boys making splendid scores. Among the equipment this time was high powered field glasses and with them from the high bluff the boys took a good look into all the surrounding distance into which time would not allow them to go. Then to Browder's pool for a swim before dinner which was not the success contemplated because the hole was too muddy. After dinner the march for home was taken up with every fellow complaining because he had not been out there long enough. Another hike will be taken during the full moon of next month.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY!

YOU OWE it to yourself, your family and your friends—and above all else, you owe it to your God, to attend Divine Service on Sunday morning or evening, or both. There is an inspirational message awaiting you—a message that will make of you a better man, a better woman, a better boy and a better girl. The churches of the city are comfortable and commodious. There are people waiting to meet you, to greet you and welcome you into religious fellowship. You have been denying yourself a rare privilege if you have failed to take advantage of the opportunity afforded by the churches of Memphis. You cannot hope or expect to take your rightful place in the life of the community without religious inspiration and direction.

RELIGION IS a necessity in every walk of life if a person is to derive from life all that the Creator intended. Church services are not long. They are not tiresome. On the other hand, they inspire confidence, create a spiritual well-being that may be found in no other activity. Soul-inspiring music, congregational singing abound. After the cares and worries of a busy week, nothing is so refreshing and soul-satisfying as attendance upon divine worship. You will find the church people of Memphis willing and ready to extend to you the right hand of Christian fellowship. They are glad when you attend—sorry when you are absent. Church attendance in this city during the summer months should be on the increase rather than decline. Every non-church goer is invited to be present at one of the churches in Memphis at the services Sunday, June 22.
