LADIES SOCIETY NOTES

American Legion Auxiliary Selects New Officers At Meet Held Friday

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion, Charles R. Simmons Post No. 175, held their regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon, October 9, in the Legion Hut. The house was called to order by the president, Mrs. L. L. Doss, and the meeting opened with a song, "America." "The Flag Salute," was given, followed with prayer by the chaplain, Mrs. Kittinger.

Ten members responded to roll call, and after a report of the minutes, plans for the Auxiliary's new activities, which will include monthly joint-socials with the local Legionnaires and their wives were outlined. Plans were formulated for the second joint-social to be held Friday night, October 16, at the Legion Hut and will feature "Halloween in all its Witchery." The first social of this nature, for the new year, carried out the idea of a "Barn Frolic" and was well attended.

An active campaign for new members was the opening feature of the program for the new season, which began in September. Twenty members were signed up during this campaign, and the Auxiliary hopes to add many more members during the year.

A committee composed of Mesdames L. L. Doss, Dean Morgensen and Glenn Thompson will arrange for the Auxiliary to have a "Show Window" in one of the downtown stores, a week prior to November 11, depicting a "Miniature Flanders Field," advertising their annual Poppy Sale which will be held on Saturday and Wednesday, November 7 and 11, respectively.

After disposal of business, an election of officers for the new year followed. Mrs. W. Wilson was chosen for the new president, and elected by acclamation. The following officers will serve under her direction: Mrs. Dean Morgensen, first vice-president; Mrs. E. H. Whittington, second vice-president; Mrs. Glenn Thompson, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. J. E. Roper, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. T. Kittinger, re-elected chaplain; Mrs. Dean Morgensen, press reporter.

The Auxiliary meets in regular business session the second Friday in each month, and in a joint-social with the Legionnaires the third week of each month. The next regular meeting will be November 13, at the Legion Hut at three o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Bride-Elect Is Given Shower Tuesday Evening

Honoring Miss Dorothy Madden, bride-elect for October 24, with a surprise shower, Miss Alice Ruth McKelvy and Mrs. Harry Delaney entertained a large group of friends Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Delaney. The large reception room of the home was made lovely with fall flowers.

A delightful program for the evening began with the ever beautiful wedding music, as Annie Ruth Johnson sang, "At Dawning." Mrs. Elmer S. Shelley played the appropriate "Liebestraum" (Dream of Love). Then "Into the Dawn With You" was sung by Mrs. Harry Delaney. The accompaniments to the songs were played by Mrs. Shelley.

The fact that the wedding will take place in Illinois proved to be the inspiration for an unusual clever feature. Disguised as the "eccentric gentleman" who calls trains, Miss Verna Crump entered carrying baggage which contained the many lovely gifts for the guest of honor.

Mrs. Shelley presided at the party, and as the guests were served delicious refreshments buffet style. A toast to the bride by Mildred Beckum found its response in a toast to the girls left behind by Mrs. Bill Bryan.

Miss Walters Is Honored With Birthday Party

Mrs. L. D. Pierce, Jr., honored Mary Winston Walters, on the occasion of her eighteenth birthday, with a lovely three course dinner, Friday evening, October 9. The Halloween motif was carried out in all the appointments. Each guest found her place by ferreting out the cleverly worded description or certain characteristics of each person which were written on miniature tesserae.

The centerpiece was a small black iron wish pot, from which ran yellow ribbons to each cover. After the beautiful birthday cake had been cut and served by the honoree, and each had plucked from the cake her omen of good or bad luck; in the form of horse-shoes, white elephants and bags of gold the ribbons were pulled and from the wish pot came horoscopes in the form of black half moons with stars on them.

Just before the theatre party which followed the dinner, Mrs. Pierce told a fairy story of the wise old owl and the snoring old wolf, revealing the marriage of Miss Betty Baker to Clarence Jackson, August 14. The hostesses then presented Mrs. Jackson with a box on top of which was a huge pink satin bow, thus carrying out the color scheme of Mrs. Jackson.

The guests presented the honoree, Miss Walters, with a lovely leather bound birthday book. Those present were Misses Pauline Ross, Alice Ruth McClaren, Mildred Baker, Marjorie Guille, the honoree, Mary Winston Walters, Mesdames W. B. Baker and Clarence Jackson.

After the close of the season, a scarcity of changes occurred. In fact, programs were presented could justly be called programs. This continued organized method was used and seems to have this year in a similar manner that it started with the school.

year the programs were each teacher to present, responsible for a proper so often. In this way programs were even this year it should be even get up a program since only occurs once a week with two times each year. There is plenty of material in this city to play each week.

Nolan Walter has a method of discovering ability among his football players. This is done by having among the participants for position on the team every Monday afternoon during practice, these races were in the backfield, Laurel of Salisbury, halfback, won a close second. A. R. came out first in the end of J. W. West second. Clifford won the tackle race and "Mo" Dixon next. In last race, B. F. Shepherd lost with Gayle Greene following behind. The outcome of the day was the race in which Blanton Bagwell and J. P. Boles.

rules governing the honor have been set this year and in some respect over the of last year. This year necessary for the student to 90 or above in each subject average 90 in deportment. The change from last year in deportment which was year.

these rules many good stars are kept from the honor to make a good average in studies but are weak in work. "The object of honor roll," stated Supt. n. "is to determine the all-students and not only good. It is not an honor to mark which is easy but something which only a able to accomplish." As saying goes, "The greater the obstacle the greater the victory overcoming it." This is out in the honor roll idea.

The Cyclone of Memphis High School proved too much for the Hedley Owls here Friday afternoon when the final tally was 51 to 0 in the locals favor. Memphis ran up a total of 25 first downs to the Owl four. The game was one-sided through-out with the Cyclone taking an early lead.

Memphis' first touchdown came early in the first quarter. Hedley kicked off to Memphis and the Cyclone backs ripped off long gains taking the ball to the eight yard line in the first few minutes of play. George May, playing the fullback position, plunged over for the first counter and the extra point was made good by Stargel who hit the line for the three yards.

Flanery Scores
All of the Memphis backs gained at will. Charles Flanery, at quarterback, scored the second touchdown. He took the ball on a reverse play and fought his way 38 yards for the score. Buster Leslie, using an end run play, made many long runs. Once, he circled end for 25 yards and a touchdown. Cecil Stargel played a consistent game scoring twice and making a number of brilliant runs.

Leggitt Plays
Jake Leggitt replaced May at fullback in the second quarter, but failed to show up as well as he did in the Amarillo Yannigan game. J. W. West turned in a neat game at end. He punted for the Cyclone in the first half averaging 40 yards on two punts against the wind. He played a bang up defensive game.

Dixon Plays Tackle
Boyd Dixon, starting his first game at tackle, showed up well on the defense and played a good offensive game. Blanton Bagwell and B. F. Shepherd, at guard positions, turned in a good game. Ronald Melton played a bang up game at end.

The boys physical Education class has changed its regular routine of exercise from "tag" football to the old English game of Soccer. They made the change last Wednesday when they chose two teams.

Carver Speaks To Students Monday

Rev. E. T. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. Douglas Carver of White Deer, who is conducting a revival meeting for young people at the local Baptist church, were presented on a special program at the high school Monday morning. Rev. Carver is pastor of the First Baptist church in White Deer.

Principal H. J. Gore turned the program over to Supt. H. A. Jackson who explained the purpose of the special meeting, and then introduced Rev. Miller. He made a short talk and introduced the speaker of the hour, Rev. Carver. Rev. Carver gave a brief talk in which he extended an invitation to the student body to attend the revival meeting he is holding. He also ended his address with a joke on Coach Walter, and one involving Rev. Miller.

PHYSICS CLASS FINDS REASON FOR CANYON

Discussion Is Begun While Group Talks Of Gravitation

Members of Sam S. Cowan's second period Physics Class have discovered the reason, if there is any, that the Grand Canyon is in existence today. The discussion of the Grand Canyon came about when the class began discussing gravitation which is thought by some people to be the result of a block of gold one mile square drawing all objects to the center of the earth.

One Mile Deep
At the present time, the canyon is about one mile deep, eighteen miles wide and two hundred miles long and branches into many stages. At one time, the class agreed, the canyon must have been only a small plateau. It was estimated that the canyon has been about ten billion years in forming into its present size.

In the beginning, the class believes, the small plateau was located in Arizona. With each rain, which are not so numerous in Arizona, the canyon sank about one billionth of an inch, it is believed, and over the course of the ten billion years, the canyon has grown to be the largest of its Starting line-ups were: Memphis, West and Melton, ends; Dixon and Sanders, tackles; Shepherd and Bagwell, guards; Captain Bourland, center; Flanery, quarterback; Stargel and Leslie, halves; May, fullback.

Officials: Henderson (McMurry), referee; Hillyer (A. C. C.) umpire; and Howard (Denton Teachers), head linesman.

Miss Helen Nelson, formerly of Enid, Oklahoma, enrolled in the Junior high school last Monday.

Pep Squad Parades Thursday Evening

Whooping and yelling like Cherokee Indians on the war path, for the first time during the school year, the high school pep squad invaded the down-town section of the city Thursday night before the game with Hedley, on Friday. The group formed on the school campus at seven o'clock.

A straight line with the pep leaders in front was formed and the march toward town was started down the center of Main street. All the girls in the group were dressed in the school colors of black and gold and moving down the street in a zig-zag motion made a very colorful sight to those passing. The old marching yell of "your pep, your pep, you've got it, now keep it" was shouted till the line reached the square.

Every drug store in the city was visited and every one pushed inside to help in giving the 15 rals for the Cyclone with other snappy yells. After invading the soda fountains for water, a march was made to the north side of the court house lawn where the group gave the complete line of football yells.

After making the town resound with the shouts of gay voices, the squad started on the final march which was around the square. Every one yelled until they could hardly speak and all cooperated to make the rally a success.

Winners in the "Tom Sawyer" contest sponsored by the Junior High Parent-Teachers Association were announced Monday. In entering the contests, students had to submit a poster for the prizes.

Miss Lucille McCanne was selected to guide the destiny of the Senior class for the ensuing year at a class meeting called Friday morning during the assembly.

Pep Rally Is Held Before Grid Game With Hedley Owls

A pep rally took the place of the regular chapel program during the assembly period at the high school last Friday morning. Several members of the football squad as well as students and teachers were called upon to express their opinions on the coming game with Hedley.

Principal H. J. Gore presided over the meeting and called upon various ones to come to the stage and speak. Captain Curtis Bourland, "Tug" Sanders, Julius Jones, B. F. Shepherd and Cearley Read Kinard, representing the football team, were called on to speak.

Miss Kathleen Wood, Sam S. Cowan, Supt. H. A. Jackson and Miss Lucille McCanne, members of the faculty, all made brief talks. Miss Wood said that she would give members of the football squad permission to chew gum in her classes, and to make as many touchdowns as possible in the game. Representing the student body, William J. Bragg, Jr., and J. P. Simmons made short talks.

Campus Chatter—Cycles Of Trouble Enter New Phase

the attention of many of the students of the high school is the high school library. Many of us do not consider what a fine library we have built up in the school and fail to take advantage of it in our work.

The high school library contains over 6,000 books which have accumulated from year to year from the library fees and donations taken. Each book in the library is catalogued three times or has three cards. These cards are filed under the author's name, under classification of material, and under the name of the book. The method was adopted last year and the cards were filled out with the help of typing students.

The girls acting as librarians, each period, get five points added to their grades for their work in the library.

It has been decided by the board of editors of the "Whirlwind" to have a question and answer section each week in this paper. This, of course, will be left up to the students who must turn in the questions which we will attempt to answer each week.

Each question must be signed, but the name will be kept secret, on file. All questions must be dropped in a box which will be kept in the office at the high school by Monday before the paper is edited on Thursday.

We hope that we will receive some cooperation in this attempt and receive a great many questions each week.

Drops Nickel

There's a legend that the canyon started when a Scotchman dropped a nickel in a prairie dog hole; however, members of the class seriously doubt the statement.

Several members of the class have seen the canyon and they were of opinion that the ten billion year idea was about right. The canyon is a very beautiful one, they said, and nothing so beautiful and so natural could be formed in a short time.

SENIORS PLACE ORDER FOR RINGS WEDNESDAY

V. L. McGlocklin, president of the Senior Class, placed an order with the Star Engraving Company of Houston Wednesday morning of last week for 21 Senior rings. The rings will cost $7.75 for heavy rings and $6.75 for medium rings. It is expected that the rings will be received in about three weeks.

MR. AND MRS. McKELVY ACCEPT POSITIONS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. James McKelvy of Oklahoma City arrived in Memphis last week and will make their home here. They have accepted positions with the M. Rosenswasser Dry Goods store. Mrs. McKelvy will be remembered as Miss Frances Craver before her marriage.

Send to Clark's for it.

Are we at the end of our tether? There are signs that would warrant this. The present crop is being marketed at a price lower than it was predicted by the banker and farmer. And so continues the plague that has been ours through two years. Patience, forbearance and a disposition to carry on is the marked genius and disposition of our people; a characteristic that has governed them through the months that have now become years. The cycle of our troubles will now enter a new phase. Government loans, road building and fairly good crops served to stabilize the situation to some extent during the spring and summer, but because of sluggish markets and low prices, our hopes cannot be realized. But perhaps, after all, our troubles are only relative to those who paid the supreme sacrifice in the War.

It is said, "He works in mysterious ways his wonders to perform." And the problems that are ours may strengthen and improve the character of the people along with the improving value of the dollar. All too soon, we seem to be back where we left off yesterday. And if pre-war days and conditions were less expansive than some we have known, we must remember that it is better "to have loved and lost than never to have loved."

And while the prosperous era was on, we builded, perhaps, better than we knew in both town and county. And should at least be able to keep intact the edifice so built. And if the machinery of our times in the future shall be less break, perhaps also there will be less risk.

Baptist Revival Is Begun Sunday

Splendid progress is being made in the revival meeting that is being held at the local First Baptist church this week, according to Rev. E. T. Miller, pastor. The preaching services are being conducted by Rev. Douglas Carver of White Deer.

Rev. Miller stated that a number have made professions of faith and joined the church. The audiences each day have been very good considering the fact that this is the busy season, he stated.

"The real purpose of the meeting is to get the people ready for the winter," Rev. Miller stated. "I am well pleased with the crowds turning out for each service to hear Rev. Carver who is proving successful in his work here."

Frank's Sale Will Get Going Friday

Talk about your merchandise—Frank has it, and how. In fact, he has two solid train car loads of brand new fall merchandise which he is putting on sale Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Frank's Department Store is filled from floor to ceiling with a new stock of goods which will be sold at remarkably low prices. This is Frank's second anniversary sale and nothing is being left undone to make it go over in a big way.

Clarence Yost, of Dallas, is the sales manager in charge of the sale and he predicts one of the biggest selling events in the history of Memphis. Everything is marked to sell and those who want big buys for their money are invited to attend this second anniversary bargain feast.

McKelvey To Hold Big Auction Sale

In this issue of The Democrat is an advertisement that should prove of unusual interest to the public at large. J. M. McKelvey Quality Furniture announces that this store will conduct a quit business auction and close out an immense stock of merchandise to the bare walls. The auction sale starts Friday, and sales will be held twice daily, at 2 p. m., and at 7:30 p. m.

J. M. McKelvey stated that he is quitting business and that any article in his store will be put up for auction. He has been in the furniture business in Memphis for 14 years and his store is well known for the quality of its merchandise. People are expected to attend the auction from great distances as the values offered for sale would be hard to equal anywhere.

Jones Is Pleased At Sale's Success

J. R. Jones, manager of the Stone Department Store, is conducting his own Big Value Sale, the results of which have met his every expectation to date, he declares. With attractive prices and wonderful values, Bob says it is not a hard matter for people who enter his store to decide to buy. His Friday and Saturday business has been especially to his liking and week day trade has been exceptionally good.

"We are giving the public high grade merchandise priced low and they are taking advantage of this fact to buy what they need," Mr. Jones said. "Our sale is going on without letting up one bit and we expect it to be just as successful in the future as it has been in the past."

HALL COUNTY BOY IS ATTENDING TARLETON

STEPHENVILLE, Tex., Oct. 15.—Clarence Earl Gresham of Newlin is Hall County's representative in John Tarleton Agricultural College this fall. The college has a total enrollment of 806, with students from 111 Texas counties and from Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Cuba.

Baldwin To Start Liquidation Sale

Attention is invited to the ad appearing elsewhere in this issue of The Democrat relative to Baldwin's liquidation and reorganization sale which opens Friday morning at nine o'clock. The sale is being conducted by the well known sales manager, E. C. Schutte, who has put on a number of satisfactory sales in Memphis. Both Mr. Schutte and Mr. Baldwin say that if price will move merchandise, the sale will be a success.

Outstanding values will be offered in this sale as shown by the ad in this paper and by the four page circular. Prices were never cheaper on high grade merchandise. Mr. Baldwin declared, and he has cut his prices to the point where people with little money can make that little go a long way.

Clearance Sale Is Started By Greene

Greene Dry Goods Company started their big mid-season clearance sale Thursday morning at 9 o'clock and judging by the number of buyers, this sale is destined to be one long to be remembered in this city. The sale is store-wide. Every department is represented in it and it is being conducted under the personal supervision of Cyclone Bill, the originator of the Mammoth Sales System of America.

Mr. Greene states that his immense stock of high grade merchandise must be reduced at least $25,000 in the next 30 days. With that end in view, he says prices have been slashed to unheard of lows.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Clark left Monday in response to a message from Dallas announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Clark's aunt. They will remain at her bedside indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Bryan and children, Billie and Virginia Ruth, of Houston spent from Saturday until Monday here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin P. Bryan. They were visiting Mr. Bryan's parents at Decatur and came to Memphis to visit with his brother, Marvin.

Miss Dorothy Madden left Wednesday evening for Geneseo, Illinois, where she will be married Saturday, October 24, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jeffrey D. Hoy, to Walter Cowart, of Chicago.

According to Jess Rosenwasser, manager of M. Rosenwasser Dry Goods Store, the Sale of Sales which he has been conducting for several weeks is proving satisfactory in every way. The sale is still going strong. Mr. Rosenwasser declared. He said that more people entered his store a week ago last Saturday than on any day since he had been in the dry goods business.

"We are very gratified at the response the people have given us," Mr. Rosenwasser said. "This has been our most successful 'Sale of Sales,' and we feel that for every dollar taken in, we have given the public good value at prices within the reach of all."

Frontier Days In Kansas Are Detailed In Interesting Way By Pioneer Settler

(W. R. C.)
Frontier days of untold hardships, meager facilities, but offset by the hands and stout hearts, who lived themselves on a canvas potent by gripping realism the writer listened to stories of experiences delineated by Flora Lord Nelson, a visitor to the home of W. B. Quigley and Mrs. Horace Tarver. A pleasant half hour would have been hard to find as Nelson recalled the dim past, fresh in her own mind, and so fresh to the public at large, as Mrs. Tarver's great aunt, sister of Mrs. Quigley's mother.

Nelson was born in 1850 in Northfield, Connecticut. At the age of five years, she moved to the new land, opening her settlement, was beset with hardships and when they arrived at Westport Land, which later became Kansas, she was the luscious pictures painted by scheming land promoters and into thin air. They were a rough, frontier settlement consisting of a few rudely constructed houses scattered about on a plain.

After remaining in Westport only a short time, the family moved to Council City, 100 miles distant.

Trying to accustom themselves to the rugged life of the west, the refined atmosphere of New England states was no task. One disaster followed after Mrs. Nelson's twin sister in August after they arrived in Council City. Another sister on Christmas Eve of the same year it was bitter cold. Snow piled high about the little that death had visited. An effort was made to bury the child the father and his friends had turned back and wait until the spring day.

Mrs. Nelson recalls distinctly the early years spent in the untamed west. She said the Indians were rather friendly, but gifted at killing. She remembered that her father traded a sack of flour for the Indians for a little pony for his children to ride. The family lived in a log cabin with a floor—a one room affair with a dry goods box serving as dining table. Supplies had to be hauled from Leavenworth, to Council City which is now Burlington, Kansas, a distance of 100 miles. Two-ox teams were used for this purpose. Many scares from bushwhackers and vicious rangers of that day was served the family in the way of excitement.

Mrs. Nelson laughingly stated:

"I was raised on Johnny-cake, wild plums, grapes and sorghum. The sorghum was very black and until this day I abhor it."
She recalls that her father, while serving as the first Justice of the Peace Council City ever had, married a couple and received as a fee a turkey wing, in lieu of money. She also stated that an uncle, Norman B. Judd, nominated Lincoln for President.

In 1869, Flora Lord was married to Orville H. Nelson. In 1898, they moved to Panhandle, Texas, where they resided for 3 1/2 years and then returned to Kansas City. Mr. Nelson was a cattleman, tooth and toenail. He was one of the best known cattlemen of the old west, being associated with "Buffalo Bill" and Colonel Goodnight. It was Mr. Nelson who introduced the first Herefords into Texas. He died in Dalhart, Texas, last year.

Mrs. Nelson has lived through the Kansas drouths, the grasshopper and army worm plagues, but she never witnessed a typical Kansas cyclone, she admitted. She has four children living, two boys and two girls and expects to spend the winter in Amarillo with one of her children. She has visited Memphis at various times, her last visit being some eleven years ago. While not in the best of health, Mrs. Nelson is far from being feeble. She is as interesting and as delightful a companion as any one could desire. She has been a Methodist for 62 years, although she has not been permitted to attend divine worship regularly of late years.

A page from the epic past was unfolded to the writer as Mrs. Nelson talked—a very worth while page, full of humor and pathos and the fine stuff of living.

You, too, can "Horn In" on these savings

This is a day when the person who does not take advantage of his right to "horn in" is left out in the cold. The savings you effect by trading at our stores speak for themselves.

In a day of almost universal low prices, there is always one store that, quality and quantity considered, undersells. Volume buying permits the Farmers Union stores to do this. We are glad we can. We both benefit in large measure from the transaction.

We have to toot our own horn to save you money

You have been reading our ads in The Democrat week in and week out. They are different from other ads. They are individual and meet your individual needs and requirements.

By tooting our own horn each week we save you money. We display no specials—but are always consistent in the prices we charge. We have learned to know your needs and the price you can afford to pay and we make our prices accordingly.

Fill your larders now before winter sets in. It will be to your advantage.

Home Demonstration Agent Gives Several Recipes For Use Now

My M. Adams, county demonstration agent, has following recipes for the sweet potatoes, dry-corn and green lima beans the making of soap:

Made Soap
No. 1. 1 pound can lye in five pints of cold water. Melted fat, one-half tablespoonful. One-half cup of ammonia.

No. 2. To make white, save every scrap of fat fry out all that has accumulated on the stove. If the grease is not hot enough to burn, turn the melted fat into a pan and keep it there until it is cooled. When six pounds have been obtained, turn a pan, add a generous amount of water and let stand until the grease is solid. Stir well together and set aside to cool. It is necessary to clarify grease, doing you will get a better result. This is a process of the grease: viz the clean lye rise to the top and when cooked, can be taken out. Such impurities as have in the water can be filtered out of the bottom of the cake and the clean grease into a pan and melt it. Put a quart of cold water and a stick or wooden spoon in it.

Let stand and cool. Remove the grease from the top and let it settle. Add two cups of ammonia. Stir constantly for 20 or 30 minutes until such forms a mass. This makes a good soap which will float on water. It is very little trouble to make in a household. Six pounds makes eight and a half pounds of soap.

Sweet Potatoes
Wash sweet potatoes, scrubbing sound potatoes, and together those of size—those under one-half inches in diameter and those above one-half inches in diameter—boil or steam slowly until they are above half done. The skin will slip off as the potatoes are hot to handle and pack into sterilized hot cans as quickly as possible to scalding. For a fancy presentation, potatoes are placed in a standard pack can, mashing the potatoes, thoroughly and packing with hot potato pulp. All cans should be filled to the top, as the presence of air discolors. Exhaust cans for the minutes, and becomes even slightly cool before the filled cans are sealed. The material being exhausted should be very hot, as the sweet potato is a poor conductor of heat, and the heat penetrates through the sweet potato to the center of the can very slowly.

It is better to seal containers while both cans and contents are boiling hot and then immediately begin to process under ten pounds of steam pressure (240 degrees F.), quart jars from 55 to 60 minutes, pint jars from 50 to 55 minutes. No. two cans from 45 to 50 minutes, No. 3 cans from 50 to 60 minutes. If a water-bath canner is used in canning sweet potatoes, take care to use only small containers and to pack and seal the cans while very hot. Process pint jars or No. two cans immediately in boiling water for four hours continuously, holding the temperature steady at 212 degrees F. throughout the period.

Drying Sweet Corn
Remove husks and silk from corn and cook in boiling water for eight minutes. Drain well and cut from cob. Be careful to cut the tops from the kernels and scrape out the rest to avoid as much of the hull as possible. Arrange in thin layers on trays and dry until brittle.

Dried Green Lima Beans
Shell beans and cook in boiling water from five to ten minutes. Drain thoroughly and dry between towels. Place on trays and dry until brittle.

Home Destroyed By Fire Friday

Fire of an unknown origin destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tullar, 620 Montgomery street, Friday morning at three o'clock. The blaze was first noticed by two children sleeping in the room next to the kitchen, where the flame is thought to have originated. Their cries awakened the parents, and the family dashed from the house just before the roof gave way.

All household articles and clothing were completely destroyed. The structure was partly covered by insurance, and was owned by S. C. Tullar, father of the occupant.

Mrs. W. M. Fore is leaving the first of next week for Los Angeles, California, where she will spend the winter with her sons, Lester and Jet. She has been living at Mineral Wells for the past two years and has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Milam here for the past two weeks.

HIT OR MISS

a column by T. R.

Saw our Chief of Police, Bill Huddleston, the other day walking around with one side of his left shoe cut out and his little toe exposed to air. I asked him what the trouble was, and he said he had to let his pet corn get some of this balmy ozone now and then, so it would not give him so much trouble. He also stated that his pet corn had a weakness for complaining when he was in a hurry or was just about to make an arrest.

Just the other day, Mr. Huddleston said, he was about to take a culprit into the hands of the law, when his corn rose up in purple wrath and simply wouldn't behave. He said he limped around on his right foot for several minutes thinking that the pain would stop, but no relief came. He came back to town after firming making the arrest, and had firmly decided to have the corn removed. It so happened, that Bill was looking through some papers and saw an advertisement to the effect that some doctor in another city could remove corns without pain, and would guarantee his work, and the cost was nominal.

Bill decided that this doctor was the one to see since he could do the work and guarantee it. He wrote the man a letter and told him he saw his advertisement in a certain newspaper, and to please inform him how he could remove the corn. In a few days an answer came. It stated that the corn could be removed by the owner and if a small fee would be sent to the doctor he would send a bottle of medicine that, when applied every night before retiring, within three days, would remove every trace and pain of the before mentioned corn.

Our chief was elated beyond words to learn that his misery could be relieved at such a small cost. He immediately, by return mail, sent the fee to the doctor and told him to send the medicine.

A small bottle, filled with a silvery looking solution, arrived several days later with directions as to how to apply it and get the desired results. Bill was so overjoyed that he rushed home and applied some of the medicine. For the following three days, each night before retiring, he put this solution on his corn.

After the three day period had expired, the doctor received a letter worded in this manner: Dear Doctor:

I have used your famous "Corn Remedy" as per directions, and must say that it has done the work. I recommend it highly to all those who have corns and want them removed. It is the best on the market, and took away every trace of my corn.

But, doctor, please send me your medicine that will bring back my toe that came off with the corn.

Respectfully,
Bill Huddleston.

That is the sum total of the corn affair. I have not heard whether or not the doctor has sent medicine that will bring back the desired toe that vanished with the corn. This is one of the strangest stories I have heard in many a day, and I'm sure it is one of the strangest things that has happened to our chief in some time, including the time he fell out of a car on a negro he was bringing to the county jail.

Another World Series has passed and the Cardinals have come out with the pennant waving over their heads. This man "Pepper" Martin certainly showed his colors in most of the games but in the last two in St. Louis, he failed to make a single spectacular play. I'm still for the A's although they lost the pennant. They have had it for two years and had to let some other team have the honor until next year. But just wait till then and see what happens.

"Gip" McMurry, Doc Pope and I were the only ones in the B. and M. Grocery for the A's and when we came out on the bottom don't think we didn't get the razz. It was terrible how they carried us out. All we did was to lean our heads on each others' shoulders and let salty tears flow. That was the only consolation that we could get. Joe Chitwood made a colorful toast to our destiny as he drank a milk chocolate, which was as follows, "Here's to the Philadelphia A's so playful and fair, who lost the last game of the World Series then and there."

TAX DOLLARS . . .

Paid for You by the West Texas Utilities Company

YOUR business is not the only one which has been faced with the serious problem of ever-mounting tax expenses. Since 1923, the year of this company's organization, taxes paid by the West Texas Utilities Company have increased over 1,200 per cent! In making these tax payments, the West Texas Utilities Company is contributing substantially to the cost of government . . . and relieving you of a considerable burden which otherwise would fall on your shoulders.

If the taxes paid annually by the West Texas Utilities Company could be applied by governmental agencies as efficiently as funds are handled by private enterprises, they would build for you each year: two large city high schools; three completely equipped ward schools; fifteen modern rural schools; a complete water system for a city of 12,000 population, or seven and one-half miles of standard concrete highway.

While this company has had to meet an ever-mounting tax bill and increased cost of equipment and materials . . . you, as a customer, have benefited by rate reductions which make this modern necessity available to you at an average cost sixty per cent lower than was charged before the organization of the West Texas Utilities Company!

Electric service will do your domestic, industrial or farm tasks more efficiently than they can be accomplished by any other method, and the entire cost of such splendid service can be figured in terms of pennies!

Out of every dollar you spend for service, approximately 10 cents is returned to the various governing bodies in the form of tax payments.

Do You Know?
... that the average cost of government per family in 1918 was six times the average family's electric bill—but that through increased political activities the cost of government to the average family is today fifteen times greater than the cost of household electricity?
... that a reduction of 10% in the average family's household electric bill would amount to but $2.00 a year—whereas a reduction of the political racketeering activities alone connected with the cost of government should decrease taxes at least 7%—a reduction sufficient to pay all the nation's household electric bill? Let's work on the political racketeers. There is the easiest place to save.

"More genuine satisfaction than any car I ever owned"

THE FORD is good-looking. It is safe. Comfortable. Speedy. Economical. Long-lived. Ecological. Everything a good car should be. There is, too, an added something that brings enthusiastic comments from every one who has ever owned a Ford . . . the joy it puts in driving. I have been a car owner continuously nearly 20 years," writes a motorist connected with a leading university. During this period I have bought many new automobiles. Eight of them were in the middle-price field, cost three thousand dollars, and the last is a Ford I purchased thirteen months ago. In the light of this experience I can say with all sincerity that I have derived more genuine satisfaction from the Ford than any car I ever owned. In saying this, I am thinking in terms of comfort, safety, driving pleasure, ease of control and economy. My next car will also be a Ford because it will give me what I want at a price I can afford to pay." When you get behind the wheel of the Ford and drive it yourself you will know it is a truly remarkable car at a low price. You will like it when you first buy it. You will become more and more enthusiastic the longer you drive it. After thousands of miles of driving you will say "it's a great car." Its economy will save you many dollars.

STABILIZING THE DOLLAR

As a result of the effect of the widely fluctuating value of the dollar, economists are concerned over a plan that will stabilize the dollar by keeping its relative purchasing power constant. One plan suggested contemplates that the federal reserve system shall use as a measure of value, the index of commodity prices determined and published by the statistical bureau of the labor department at Washington. This index is secured by ascertaining the wholesale prices of practically every commodity that the people buy or sell and through dividing their total by the number of such commodities considered an average, commodity price is determined.

The purchasing power of the dollar will thus always be determined by what it will buy or sell. Under the present plan the law provides that the unit of value shall be the dollar comprised of 25.8 grains of gold nine-tenths fine, but has taken no steps to regulate the value of gold. As a result, we have been left in the same position in regard to the regulation of the yard measure, if when declaring that 36 inches should constitute a yard, we failed to declare the length of an inch. A bill along these lines has been prepared for presentation to congress by Congressman James G. Strong of Kansas.

THE MATTER OF REDUCING TAXES

An important meeting was held last week in Memphis seeking to devise means for reducing governmental expenditures. Such meetings of taxpayers are being held in practically every state, in an effort to discover means of reducing taxes to meet the reduced income due to the slump in farm and farm produce values.

The depression strikes the farmers of the nation a real blow for the reason that while their income has been greatly reduced or in many instances wiped out, the taxes remain at the usual high figure. One measure of relief that has been suggested is a state income tax, the entire proceeds of which will be returned back to the local school districts on the basis of school population. Such a plan safeguards the absorption of the funds thus raised by the state and prevents the creation of new boards and new offices to spend the new income. It places the money in the hands of the people most affected. If the local school board fails to reduce the school levy in an amount equal to the fund received through the distribution of the money derived from the sales tax, the local constituency can either recall the members of their board or elect in their stead members who will make the reduction. On the other hand, if the money is turned into the state treasury, all local control of it will be lost and there is a feeling, based on past experience, that it will then become merely an additional tax.

A DAY OF UNUSUAL VALUES

This is a day of unusual values. The merchants of Memphis are keeping abreast of the times by offering substantial merchandise at prices which are, beyond a doubt, the lowest on record. It is not necessary to have a pocketful of money to take advantage of these buys. The entire family may be outfitted for a very nominal sum.

Despite the reduction in prices, there has been practically no lowering of quality. This is made possible due to the fact that the big jobbing houses are operating on a close margin; salaries have been reduced. In fact, it seems that everything has been sliced to "rock bottom" but quality and that remains uniformly the same. If there was ever a time in the history of merchandising when customers are permitted to buy what they want at prices they can afford to pay, that time is NOW. We hope that Memphis and Hall County people generally will take advantage of the opportunity presented. We have all been doing without for so long that we should be in the humor to buy and buy while prices are right. It is entirely probable that prices on every needed article will not get one degree lower. By buying now, substantial savings are effected. The fall season is the time and Memphis is the place, and judging from the looks of things, the people are aware of the values offered them and are acting accordingly.

THE DALLAS FAIR

Officially known as the State Fair of Texas, the largest state exposition in the world is still familiarly known to thousands of Texans and residents of neighboring states as "The Dallas Fair." We well remember when, as a small boy, we looked forward expectantly to "fair time" and debated in our own mind the opportunity for and against attending that was ours.

The State Fair of Texas is more than an institution; it is a habit. While the crowds will probably be curtailed somewhat this year—due to conditions—it is safe to say that the fair will be the unbounded success that we expect of it and which it deserves.

The Fort Worth and Denver Railway is offering low round trip fares to Dallas on account of the exposition this year and we expect a number of people from this city and county to be in attendance. It will be worth any one's time and attention to be present. It would be impossible, in this small space, to enumerate the many features of the fair, but suffice it to say that those who attend always feel benefited from having gone. We had a season pass presented us but couldn't go. That's our luck—but when seasons become more propitious, we expect to experience again the thrill that has been ours since childhood of attending "The Dallas Fair."

From The People

Editor Democrat:

For the edification of some who do not seem to be very well versed in Bible history in regard to the dance, we will give you a few quotations from the Bible and the dance religious uses and as we do not know of any Biblical condemnations of the dance, we believe it is as much the gift of God as any other of his writing and as it is endorsed by the Bible writers, we have no right to dispute this holy rite for expressing one's happiness and joy. If one is too sour to be happy and enjoy themselves that is their privilege.

The Dance is spoken of in Holy Scripture universally as symbolical of some rejoicing, and is often coupled for the sake of contrast with mourning as in Ecclesiastes iii, 4 (comp. Ps. xxx.11; Matt. xi 17). In the earlier period it is found combined with some song or refrain (Ex. xv. 20, xxxii. 18, 19; Sam. xxi 11) and with the tambourine, more especially in those impulsive outbursts of popular feeling which cannot find sufficient vent in voice or in gesture singly. Dancing formed a part of the religious ceremonies of the Egyptians, and was also common in private entertainment. The "feast unto the Lord" which Moses proposed to Pharaoh to hold was really a dance. Women, however, among the Hebrews, made the dance their especial means of expressing their feelings and so welcomed their husbands or friends on their return from battle. The "eating and drinking and dancing" of the Amalakitites is recorded, as the people's "rising up to play" with a tacite censure. The Hebrews, however, save in moments of temptation, seem to have left dancing to the women, but more especially, on such occasions of triumph, any women whose nearness of her kin to the champion of the moment gave her a public character among her own sect, seems to have felt that it was her part to lead such demonstrations of triumph, or of welcome (Ex. xv. 20; Judg. xi. 34). This marks the peculiarity of David's conduct, when, on return of the Ark of God from its long sojourn among strangers and borderers, he (2 Sam. vi. 5-22) was himself the leader of the dance; and here, too, the women with their timbrels (see especially vv. 5, 19, 20, 22), took an important share. This fact brings out more markedly the feelings of Saul's daughter Michal, keeping aloof from the occasion and "looking through a window" at the scene. She showed, in accordance with the examples of Miriam have herself led the female choir, and so come out to meet the Ark and her Lord. She stayed with the "household" (ver. 20) and "comes out to meet" him with reproaches, perhaps feeling that his zeal was a rebuke to her apathy.

From the mention of damsels, "timbrels" and "dances" (Ps. lxxviii. 25, cxlix. 3, cl. 4) as elements of religious worship, it may perhaps be inferred that David's feeling led him to incorporate in its rites that popular mode of festive celebration. In the early period of the Judges, the dance of the Virgins in Shiloh (Judg. xxi. 19-22) were certainly part of a religious festivity. Dancing also has its place among merely festive amusements, apart from any religious character (Jer. xxxi. 4, 13; Lam. v. 15; Mark vi. 22; Luke xv. 25).

Dance by the Hebrew term "Machol," a music instrument of percussion supposed to have been used by the Hebrews at an early period of their history. In the Grand Hallelujah Psalm (cl) which closes the magnificent collection, mankind is exhorted to praise Jehovah in His sanctuary with all kinds of music, and amongst the instruments mentioned ed in the 3rd, 4th, and 5th verses is found MACHOL. It is generally believed to have been made of metal, open like a ring. It had many small bells attached to its border and was played at weddings and merrymakings by women who accompanied with voice. R. E. MARTIN.

Auto Races Head Card On 2nd Day Of District Fair

C. L. Sloan, Jr., driving a De Soto roadster, won two races at the Hall County District Fair last Thursday afternoon. The races were run on the saucer-shaped track here that is said to be one of the best this side of Kansas City. M. J. Draper was in charge of the races while Wes Hughes acted in the capacity of official starter.

In the first race, an eight mile modified stock car race, C. L. Sloan, Jr., driving a De Soto roadster, won first money; J. T. Stevenson, driving an Oldsmobile, came in second. C. L. Sloan, Jr., also won first in the second race, a 12 mile handicap. Fred Gerlach, driving a Model "A" Ford, won second.

Stevenson Wins Sweepstake
 In the 20 mile sweepstake race, J. T. Stevenson won first money; C. L. Sloan, Jr., second; and Fred Gerlach, third.

A "junk" car race was added to the program and two cars were entered. One of the cars turned over, however, losing by default, according to Mr. Hughes. The races were witnessed by a fairly large crowd.

Mrs. Ray Webster spent Sunday at Shamrock visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Burks.

W. B. Wilson, formerly of Memphis and now of Dalhart, spent Sunday here visiting old friends.
