STORM-BEATEN SEAS WREAK HAVOC IN SEATTLE

Contending with terrific force against sea walls and helping spray higher than the two-story houses along beach drive in Seattle, Wash., these gate-lashed seas thundered in from Puget Sound, the cameraman snapping this vivid picture as a wave broke with tremendous force against the barrier. Small boats were pounded to bits by the battering billows and the fragments tossed high on the shore. The gale, reaching a velocity of 30 miles an hour took a toll of 17 lives and caused property damage of several hundred thousand dollars.

CARNIVAL PLANS ARE COMPLETED

West Ward P.-T. A. Sponsors
Hallowe'en Show at School
Here Tomorrow Night

With all the side-shows, rides and entertainment that go to make up a successful carnival, the West Ward Parent-Teacher Association is sponsoring a Hallowe'en carnival at the West Ward building tomorrow night at 6:30 o'clock.

Admission to the building will be 10 cents, with all attractions inside free of charge. Popcorn balls and candy will be sold during the carnival.

Here are some of the attractions that make up the show:

The "Ghost Room" and "Den of Horrors," with plenty of scares and thrills; the Whip, thrills and rides; the picture show, many pictures of other lands; Madame Fifi, beautiful lady with a mysterious art; fortune teller; monkey cage, plenty of laughs, and fishing pond, where one might catch almost anything.

County Agent at Big Celebration For Congressman

James A. Jackson, Hall county agricultural agent yesterday attended a mammoth celebration at Jack Hall's ranch near Amarillo, honoring Congressman Marvin Jones.

More than 2,500 persons attended the barbecue and celebration given by stockmen of the southwest. Adoption of a resolution endorsing Congressman Jones for Speaker of the House of Representatives climaxed the Panhandle-wide meeting.

The barbecue was served by John Snider, renowned barbecue king of the Panhandle.

Full Cooperation With Recovery Is Pledged by A B A

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—A pledge of full cooperation with the recovery campaign was personally made to President Roosevelt today by officers of the American Bankers association.

Rudolf Hecht, new president of the association, told the President the bankers were prepared and anxious to lend money to business.

U. S. and England Told To Deal With Manchoukuo Itself

TOKYO, Oct. 26.—Japan disclosed today it told the United States and Great Britain it is unable to ask Manchoukuo to modify its proposed oil monopoly program and advised the Manchoukuo government directly.

The spokesman of the foreign office said the Nine Power treaty guaranteeing an "open door" in China is "inapplicable to Manchoukuo."

SEEKS SALE OF 1,000 HEAD OF CATTLE

Would Relieve Critical Condition, Agent Says

"If Hall county can receive an allotment of 1,000 head of cattle to be purchased out of the government's latest appropriation for buying 'distressed stock' in the central west, the situation here will be relieved past the critical stage," County Agent James A. Jackson told a Democrat reporter this morning.

Although more than 3,000 head of cattle is now listed for sale to the government in Hall county, the purchase of 1,000 head in addition to past purchases will relieve the situation here, he said. More than 6,000 head have already been purchased by the government in this county, but unless at least 1,000 more are disposed of, many will probably starve to death or freeze this winter, it has been pointed out by G. A. Sagar, who has charge of this department of Mr. Jackson's office.

An appropriation for the purchase of several hundred thousand head of cattle in the central and southwest was made this week by Washington officials, but no word has been received by cattlemen in this section as to purchases to be made in Texas.

Mr. Jackson was in conference yesterday with Grover B. Hill, district supervisor at Amarillo, but nothing had been learned by Mr. Hill in regard to the newest appropriation, he said.

County allotments on past purchases have been made by officials at College Station, but it is possible that the newest appropriation may be handled direct out of Washington, Mr. Jackson said this morning.

Mob Takes Negro From Jail After Admitting Attack

BREWTON, Ala., Oct. 26.—An armed mob stormed the Escambia county jail here today and seized Claude Neal, negro, who allegedly confessed yesterday to attacking and killing Miss Lola Cannidy, 23, at Greenwood, Fla., a week ago.

Sheriff Byrne said the men came to the jail in 30 automobiles bearing Florida license plates and drove away with the negro, who had not been found at noon today.

Authorities fear something has happened to him.

Giant Cotton Stalk Is Displayed Here

D. N. Beavers, who lives three miles west of Memphis, displayed a cotton stalk this morning that looked like a young tree, and literally covered with dozens of bolls.

The stalk is shoulder high, and laying down, completely covers a show case at The Democrat office.

Mr. Beavers says he has six acres of similar cotton growing near Indian creek that will make about a bale and a half to the acre.

SAYS RELIEF TO ENDANGER CITIES

States Local Affairs Must Be Placed on More Sound and Permanent Basis

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Representatives of American cities meeting at the convention of the American Municipal Association today heard a warning of impending disaster if the present relief load on cities is continued.

The warning was sounded by the Clifford Ham, field consultant for the association, who said that emergency financial policies of the past few years "must soon end" and that "financial planning must again become the major objective and local affairs be placed on a more sound and permanent basis.

'Daddy' Browning Disinherits Wife

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Edward West (Daddy) Browning, in his will filed yesterday, disinherited his estranged wife, Frances (Peaches) Heenan Browning, "from any benefits of my estate except such interests as the law provides for her at the date of this codicil."

"I disinherit her because of her conduct," the will read. The document said that because of their unhappy married life the real estate operator had "lost all love and affection for her."

The will was dated Dec. 20, 1912, and the codicil Aug. 26, 1920.

The document is seven pages long and bears Browning's bold, scrawling signature, ending with a half-inch blot.

NOTED INVENTOR DIES

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Frank J. Sprague, engineer and inventor, who for a time was assistant to Thomas A. Edison, died of pneumonia yesterday at his home. He was 77 years old.

Automobile Crash Takes Three Lives

PECOS, Oct. 26.—Deaths from an automobile accident on the highway 50 miles west of Pecos totaled three today.

Austil Ellis, of Kent, succumbed from injuries and Mrs. Pete Steel, Toyah, was killed outright and her two-month-old daughter died at midnight.

Three others, Steel and two daughters, Martha, 7, and Hanna, 5, were injured critically.

FIRST RESERVE CERTIFICATES ARRIVE HERE

Allotment of 10 Percent Bankhead Tax Exemptions

The first allotment of the 10 percent reserve Bankhead tax exemption certificates for Hall county were received this morning by County Agent James A. Jackson and are now ready for distribution to 1933 contract signers.

Certificates received this morning are for cotton farmers in this county who raised cotton for the first time in the years 1933 and 1934 and were unable to sign the five year average contracts, it was explained by Mr. Jackson.

The shipment includes 36 certificates, with a total of 77,520 pounds of tax exempt cotton. They are to be issued to the 15 signers of the 1933 contracts.

Ten percent of the entire allotment of tax exempt cotton was withheld by the government and certificates are to be issued to 1933 contract signers, signers who have had complete crop failures during the five year average period and other purposes, it has been explained. The amount withheld in this county represents approximately 3,400 bales or about 1,700,000 pounds.

Hungry Picketeers Request Right To Die in Corridors of State's Capitol

AUSTIN, Oct. 26.—A group of hungry men and women picketed the capitol of Texas swearing they would starve to death in its marble corridors unless their demands for government relief were granted.

They called themselves, "The starving hordes of Travis County," the county in which the capitol is located, and demanded rectification of alleged injustices from state relief agencies. "In desperation we come to you," a petition to Governor Miriam A. Ferguson read. "All we ask is to be allowed to peacefully stare to death in the corridors of the state house."

Specifically, the complaint was directed against the relief administration of Travis County and indirectly against the legislature, now in session, and the state relief administration.

SERVICES FOR FRANK WILLIAMS

Funeral Rites Conducted Here This Afternoon

Funeral services were to be held this afternoon for Frank Williams, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, at the Methodist church at 3 o'clock. Rev. E. D. Landreth, officiating.

Franklin Williams was born in Memphis on August 1, 1916, and lived all his life in the home at Salisbury where he attended school for nine years. He entered Amarillo school where he was making a successful student and member of the Amarillo football team.

He was attacked by acute tonsillitis last Thursday and was taken to the St. Anthony hospital Friday night. He withstood the operation and improved until Thursday night when he underwent a second operation, and died Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

He was brought to Memphis yesterday by King's Undertaking company. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. D. Landreth of the First Methodist church. Mrs. C. L. Sloan, Jr., officiating.

Surviving with his sister, Louise, are his brother, C. A. Jr., he of the Methodist church in Memphis.

Funeral bearers are: Eugene B. Grant Evans, Durwood Bennett Wyatt, Harley Taylor, Casey Jones. Other members of the Sunday school class are pall bearers.

Surviving relatives are: Mary Hardy, Sue Fultz, Ouida Read, Jones, Winifred Fowler, Taylor, Mildred Longshore, Anita Cudd.

Survived by his parents, Mr. Charles Williams; Mrs. Louise; two brothers, Mr. and George; grand-children, Mrs. C. F. Wilson, of Memphis, and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral services were held in attendance at the funeral home: Mrs. Lillian Chilson, Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Amarillo; Mrs. George Hardy, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Hardy and daughter, Mary, of Memphis, and Mrs. Pink Sullivan, of Memphis.

The Clew of the Forgotten Murder

By CARLETON KENDRAKE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

When DAN BLEEKER, junior publisher of The Blade, learns that CHARLES MORDEN, police reporter, has been mysteriously killed he determines to employ SIDNEY GIFF, famous criminologist, to solve the murder.

Morden has been assigned to learn all he could about FRANK B. CATHAY, wealthy and prominent, who had threatened to sue The Blade because the newspaper reported Cathay had been arrested. Later it was proved that the man arrested, giving the name of Cathay and accompanied by a girl called MARY BRIGGS, was an imposter. MRS CATHAY assures Bleeker her husband will drop the charges if The Blade publishes a retraction, and this is done.

Bleeker receives a telephone call from the editor of the River-view Chronicle. As he puts down the telephone KENNEY, city editor, asks, "What did you find out?"

Then Morden is found dead and a few hours later comes news that Cathay is dead—possibly poisoned.

Sidney Griff undertakes the case; calls on Cathay's physician and then goes to CHARLES FISHER, Cathay's friend and lawyer. Fisher asks Griff who is employing him.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XII

Griff did not answer the lawyer but continued smiling—a smile that told nothing.

"Was it perhaps," Fisher asked, "that is if it's a fair question, the district attorney of the county or someone connected with the police force who employed you?"

"The question," said Griff, "is fair enough."

There was a moment of silence. "The answer?" Fisher purred in his most suave voice.

"Oh, the answer," Griff said. "That would be manifestly unfair. It's perfectly fair for you, representing your clients, to ask a question, but you understand we all of us have our professional obligations, counselor."

"I see, I see," Fisher remarked, toying with a pencil on his desk nervously. "That Dr. Cooper should be prosecuted for criminal malfeasance. He disregarded his professional duties and obligations and made an erroneous diagnosis, which was subsequently made public."

"What was the diagnosis he made?" Griff asked.

"I would prefer not to discuss it in view of my connections with the family," Fisher said firmly.

"I see," Griff told him. "There isn't any chance that his diagnosis was right is there?"

"Not one chance in a million. Not one chance in ten million," Fisher said emphatically. "His diagnosis is a shining example of just how much harm a doctor can do when he shoots off his face. It's an insult to Mrs. Cathay."

"Indeed," said Griff. "How is Mrs. Cathay affected by it?"

"Well," Fisher said, "I'm not going to discuss it, but you can use your imagination, Mr. Griff. Naturally, if a man is poisoned, one naturally suspects the young widow who will be beneficiary under the estate, to the tune of several million dollars. . . That is, you understand, I'm simply commenting now upon the popular trend of thought, the idle street car gossip, the widespread comments of sewing circles."

"And Dr. Cooper has now abandoned that diagnosis?" Griff asked.

"Oh, certainly. In fact, he never made any such diagnosis. He simply said that the symptoms were similar to . . ."

Charles Fisher clamped his lips together and shook his head. He smiled tolerantly at the criminologist.

"I'm afraid, Mr. Griff," he said "you'll be drawing me out before I know it. I think, perhaps you're rather an adroit cross-examiner."

Griff laughed.

"Well," he said, "I talked with Dr. Cooper this morning, but I couldn't draw him out any."

"Dr. Cooper," said Fisher grimly

"will probably find himself called before the medical board to explain his rather strange statements. Particularly in view of the fact that he made those statements in the presence of a newspaper reporter."

Griff seemed completely uninterested in the future of Dr. Cooper.

"I would," he said, "like to see Mrs. Cathay."

"It's impossible," Fisher said,

"She prostrated. She is anyone. She talked with the telephone and her voice choked and broken I could understand what she said"

Don't let the arrival of cold weather find your gas heating equipment inadequate or not ready to chase the first chills away.

No matter what type of gas heating equipment you use—room-heaters, circulators, furnaces, gas steam radiators, or floor furnaces—now is the time to check it over, and replace any broken or worn out parts. Burners as well as connections, piping and wall-cocks should be tested to see that everything is in good working order.

Your gas company will be glad to assist you in checking your heating equipment, if you will call the nearest office. There is no charge for this service, and you can secure prompt attention by requesting this help before cold weather sets in, and the demand for heat becomes general. If your heating equipment is in good order, you will enjoy more efficient as well as more economical fuel service this winter.

Modern Gas Heaters on Display at Appliance Dealers

If you need an extra room heater or two, why not take advantage of the special Chill Chaser offer at your Gas Appliance Dealers? By ordering yours installed now you will have your house equipped to withstand winter cold. Let's find out why Turkish tobacco is so important to a good cigarette Native tobacco grower telling American tourist how Turkish tobacco is cured.

On the sunny slopes of Smyrna... in the fertile fields of Macedonia... along the shores of the Black Sea... grows a kind of tobacco that is different from any other tobacco in the world.

THESE Turkish tobaccos are the only tobaccos of foreign cultivation that are used to any great extent in making American cigarettes.

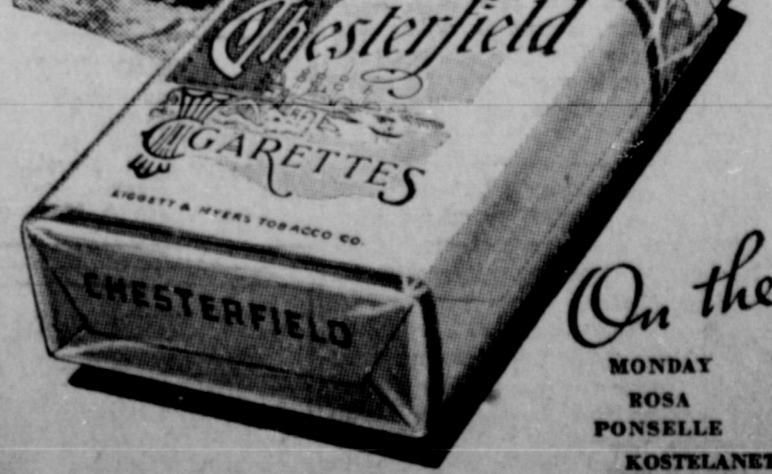

Turkish tobaccos are famous for their spicy aroma, and a blend of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco with our own home-grown tobaccos is better than any one kind used alone.

In Chesterfield we balance mild, ripe tobaccos grown in this country with just the right amounts of the right kinds of Turkish.

It is by blending and cross-blending these different tobaccos that we make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better.

Turkish tobacco hung in the open air to be cured.

STARTING TIME—8 o'clock tonight.
WHERE—Fair Park Stadium.
OCCASION—Conference game; Cyclone seeking fifth straight victory on local field.

Seeking their second conference victory and their fifth consecutive win on Fair Park stadium field, the Memphis Cyclone entertains the Turkey Turks from the southern part of the county tonight.

Defeated and pushed about at least once in title play, the Turks enter the games the under-dogs—there is no doubt of that—but promise the local club something of an evening.

The Cyclone goes into the fight battered and bruised, with Coach Chesty Walker citing at least one ailment for every player on the starting line-up, but no one would admit anything like a chance for the visitors spilling even a drop or two of what ever dope buckets contain.

However, the clash is important. It is considered a semi-final bout within this section of District 4, since the title is expected to be decided when the Cyclone and Skyrocket comes together next week at Wellington.

Comparative Dope
 It is also important because it may decide the physical condition of a number of local players. Any injuries added to those already obtained could remove a starter or two from the line-up—and that would be extremely serious, if not fatal.

Wellington defeated the Turks, 34 to 0, but the grapevine, which can be counted on to get at least a small percent of its information correct, indicates that the Skyrockets used substitute players throughout a greater part of the game. Evidently the club that early in the season, was already pointing for the Memphis game. At any rate, any comparative score could not be considered as indicative of the two teams' ability unless Wellington's 34 points were just about doubled—that is, of course, unless Memphis is held to approximately the same or even a lower score tonight—and then things would be dark indeed.

Predicts 39 Points
 But for the sake of argument, and after raising last week's margin over the Miami Warriors

Athletic Club To Have 'Tag Day' Saturday

The "Squad" club of the Cyclone football team, composed of lettermen and other grid players at the high school this year, are going to have a "tag day" tomorrow.

The purpose of this day is to raise funds for club activities, which will deal directly with sports, they announced.

Pep squad girls will sell the tags at 10 cents each throughout the business section of the city all day tomorrow.

by only one point, the writer is willing to try again. He will predict the score tonight to favor the Cyclone by 39 points, with the final count either being 39 to 0 or 45 to 6.

And if the writer is correct, then things do not look so bright for next week's invasion. This is not an attempt to cast a shadow over the Wellington battle, for no matter what the outcome, it is likely to be the toughest fight local fans will have an opportunity to witness this season, unless the Cyclone goes on to district and bi-district competition.

Having almost played the Wellington game already, it might be a good idea to stop right here and get past the Turkey affair.

The game starts at 8 o'clock. Admission is 25 and 50 cents.

JOE CRONIN IS SOLD TO BOSTON RED SOX

By Associated Press
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Joe Cronin, young manager of the Washington American league baseball team, was sold today to the Boston Red Sox.

Reports said he was given a five-year contract as player-manager. The famous shortstop was reported sold for a huge cash payment and Lyn Lary, Boston infielder.

Tom Yawkey, owner of the Red Sox, said he paid for Cronin the "largest price ever paid for a baseball player." Cronin will replace Stanley (Bucky) Hasis as the Sox' manager.

SECTIONAL TILTS ARE LIKELY TO BE DECIDED

Bill of Fare Is One Of Most Appetizing of Year

BY JOCK SUTHERLAND
 Head Coach, University of Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 26.—Saturday ought to be declared a legal holiday for football fans, for the bill of fare is one of the most appetizing of the year.

Games of intersectional rivalry are not so frequent, but the leadership of various sections is going to be pretty well established by sundown.

The two major intersectional battles find Southern Methodist meeting Fordham in New York, and Chicago playing host to Missouri. Despite the fact that S. M. U. is not having a sensational season, I look for it to give Fordham a lot of trouble.

Chicago should have little trouble with Missouri.

Yale and Army headline the eastern tilts, and once again I can see nothing in sight but a decisive victory for Lieut. Gar Davidson's Cadets. And while Army is trimming Yale, another service team, Tom Hamilton's Navy eleven, will find the going tough at Philadelphia, but should come out on top of Penn.

After a graduated series of warm-ups, Dartmouth gets its initial test of real big league warfare when it engages Harvard. The Crimson sophomores are gaining experience, but not enough to stop the power attack that I look for Blak's Big Green eleven to unleash.

Only Princeton and Columbia, with Cornell and Penn State furnishing the opposition, can be called real favorites.

In the middlewest, Minnesota, better than ever, will drive another spike in its title claims by winning over Iowa. Illinois is due to get a long-awaited chance to celebrate a victory over Michigan, unless Kipke's outfit gets back in a winning stride in a hurry. Ohio State should win against Northwestern as it pleases.

Elmer Layden's rejuvenated Notre Dame varsity is going to outstep Wisconsin.

In the South a leader will be established when Duke and Tennessee get through their argument. I think that the game will go to Wallace Wade's Blue Devils.

Alabama's Crimson Tide has no easy row to hoe in its game with Georgia for Harry Mehre's eleven

Woman Loses 41 Lbs. of Fat

Blood Pressure Down, Too

"I have been taking Kruschen Salts for my health, and for high blood pressure and rheumatism and it helped both. My blood pressure was as high as 290 when I started to take Kruschen. I weighed 255 and now I weigh 214 that is losing 41 lbs., in about nine months and I feel fine." Mrs. W. Eckoff.

One half level teaspoonful of Kruschen in hot water every morning SAFELY takes off unhealthy fat by helping to reestablish proper functioning of body organs—at the same time it energizes and helps build up robust health. Feel years younger—ACT it and LOOK it. One bottle lasts 4 weeks. You can get Kruschen Salts at Tarver's Pharmacy or any drug store in the world.

Touchdown! They Strive for One Saturday

Wild-eyed backers in jammed stadia yell for touchdowns—and these four boys will be out to please the crowds in gridiron battles Saturday, Oct. 27. Lower left is Harry Shuford, 200-pound Southern Methodist fullback, who'll call signals against Ford in New York. Running at left is that big Irish fullback, Don Elser, whose line-crashing gives Notre Dame a big threat against Wisconsin at South Bend. That swivel-lipped guy with No. 13 on his jersey is Mat Muczynski, Washington halfback, who may be unlucky California when he gets going against the Bears at Seattle. Lower right is Pug Vaughn, Tennessee halfback, whose deadly pass is figured to be poison to Duke when the teams collide at Knoxville.

is coming back, but the Tide should win.

Other Southern games should see Kentucky defeating Auburn, Tulane walloping Georgia Tech, Virginia winning over V. M. I., Washington and Lee defeating V. P. I., Maryland, much stronger than usual, beating Florida, and West Virginia clinching the state title by taking Davis-Elkins.

On the Pacific Coast, Stanford and Southern California meet in the big game of the day. I think Tiny Thornhill's Indians, powerful and experienced, will have a slight edge over the Trojans.

Another banner game will bring together Washington, another favorite for the title, and California. California is good, but Jimmy Phelan has the stuff at Washington, and the Huskies must be ruled the favorites.

In the Southwest, Rice and Texas met in a real feature. We have to give the Longhorns the edge over the Owls, although it will be a great game.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith and son, C. H. Jr., of Duncan, Okla., will arrive today and spend until Sunday here with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Martin, Mrs. Fred Boswell and Miss Imogene King.

Region Brings Color of Old West Back to This Area

JUSTICE DAY GO HEADS CELEBRATION

Performances to be Staged in Five Days

The west rodeo, with its cowboys and cowgirls, is being returned by the Simons Post of the region, as the chief attraction, in a big way November 11 after an absence of several years.

The performance will be a new phase where the old days of the staging of the powerful floodlights attraction. It is the first night rodeo in this section.

Performances during the week will be staged at Fair stadium, with the floodlights that will be held under the power of floodlights that will be ground "as bright as the sun."

The performance will be staged by Roy Simons, promoter who is one of the largest promoters in the Panhandle, and a former world champion.

Modern inventions have enormously increased the scope and power of propaganda—good and bad. And where propaganda is concerned it isn't always easy to sift the wheat from the chaff. That is one of the reasons why next Sunday's sermon will be entitled, "Loud Lies." Let's try and "get wise" to some of the blatant falsehoods that pass for truth in our day. The special music for this service will be worshipful and inspirational. We worship at 11 o'clock.

The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. Come to Sunday school—and stay for church.

Monthly Pains Relieved

Women who take CARDUI have found that severe monthly pains have been relieved and that by continued use of it for a reasonable length of time their strength has been renewed and their general health improved.

"I am glad to speak a few words for Cardui, the medicine I have taken for a weak, run-down condition, for bad pains in my side and back and for irregular periods," writes Mrs. Roy Chandler, of Cusseta, Ala. "Cardui straightened me out and I felt 100 per cent better. It certainly helped me."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

FINDS ANSWER IN EDUCATION

AGRICULTURAL Adjustment Administrator Chester C. Davis touched on the solution of cotton export troubles—and nearly every difficult governmental problem—recently when he said:

"Education is the answer to the question for the nation as a whole. It is not a problem that one administration can solve. Some continuing policy beyond the lifetime of any one political party in power must be pursued."

The statement covers a wide range of thought. It cuts out the present "spoils system" of government and has one administration following directly on the line of the preceding one, regardless of political affiliation—each working toward the same common end—the betterment of all conditions.

If the people holding responsible government positions were "educated" so thoroughly in the work they are undertaking that they would make no slip-ups, knowing at every instance what they are about to do will be the correct thing, we would have no groping about blindly for a straw to cling to, as the past administration did.

President Roosevelt would not have been so greatly hampered by assistants who apparently have done everything from going backward to breaking off at every angle, either because they did not know how to carry out his program or else desired to make personal gain of power.

In this instance, however, Administrator Davis was speaking of the problem of exports and imports. He was feeling for the loose cog that caused our cotton exports to drop considerably during the past year.

He finds that "we are not importing enough from foreign nations to pay for what they buy from us."

As an agricultural export nation, we must do a great deal of importing from nations who buy our cotton and other farm products, or else they will not buy. This takes us back to the almost age-old discussion of high and low tariffs, which block or support world trade, but of which we are not inclined to open any new discussions.

Administrator Davis suggests a thorough study of the problem and procedure along lines to remedy the situation next year. All governmental agencies could take a good lesson from this plan.

OPTIMISM IS STILL NEEDED

OPTIMISM as defined by Webster is "that everything is ordered for the best; a hopeful view of things." We like the optimistic person. They radiate good will, serve as a pleasant buffer and help to get the day's work done. The present year has in many respects been a better year than the four years preceding it.

This has made for a bit of relaxation among the people. The benefits of the New Deal have been appreciably felt by our people. Happily this has aroused a new faith and a fortitude in our people that the times required. We have had the misfortune, due to the drouth, to replapse slightly from the goal we had hoped to attain.

But this should not be the occasion for pessimism. Rather, we should take courage from the difficulties overcome through our industry, patient effort and co-operation during recent years. If we must enlist again in a further and continued effort that requires these virtues, let us do so in that unconquerable spirit that has marked our course in the past. Despite a drouth, the splendor of our climate and the changing seasons is a call to best that is in us.

We in Hall county should remember that it is our good fortune to be situated in the midst of unsurpassed natural advantages both as to soil and climate. If it must be with a feeling of irony that we are to lapse somewhat this year, still there are compensating advantages, as the total returns to our county from all sources this year should approach the sum of almost one million dollars.

Pessimism or a lack of faith in our business, our people and the future will do far more harm than good, and is futile in every sense. So let us be grateful for the resources at hand and may their use and wise distribution result in the good of all our people.

HEALTH

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygeia, the Health Magazine
Pocket your pride, if you are troubled with corns, and get shoes that will fit and that will enable you to walk properly.
Generally, however, corns are the things that trouble people most, and these can be corrected by getting shoes that fit and permit you to walk properly.
The chief trouble with shoes in relationship to the appearance of corns is not that they fit badly, but that they cause you to walk badly. This occurs more commonly among women than among men, because women are much more likely to choose their shoes for style rather than for reasons associated with the health of the feet.
If the heels of the shoes are too high and if the supporting surface above the heel is thrown too far forward, the foot is jammed into the toe cap. This cramps the action of the toes and causes corns between the toes.
If the shoes or stockings happen to be too short, the toes are curled up with the nails resting on the sole of the shoe. This will also result in the appearance of corns on the pads near the nails.
If the sole of the shoe is too narrow, the ends of the small bones in the toes will be found in the foot. The best evidence of

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
The Democrat's Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON.—The money magicians whose incantations once charmed our president have found quarters in the same ashen which houses the professional rain-makers who hired themselves out to end last summer's drouth.

Prof. George F. Warren of Cornell, who used to have the president's left ear, and Prof. James Harvey Rogers of Yale, who monopolized the right ear, spoke different pieces. But the White House now is equally oblivious to them both.

Warren, who guided the gold policy through its most spectacular jumps, was around seeing Roosevelt the other day. No one had asked him to come, but he had been pounding on the White House door for days, so they let him in.

He wanted to tell Roosevelt the gold maneuvers had heard the country enormously, which Roosevelt doesn't believe, and to urge more of the same.

Rogers Also Shelved
Professor Rogers also has been here. Hardly anyone knew it. He didn't even get inside the White House, though he might have if he had demanded an audience, without waiting for an invitation. Months ago he had been sent on a mission to study the silver situation in China. He cabled reports to the Treasury. About the middle of September he returned here, saw Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, and expected a call to the White House—which never came.

His friends are rather bitter at Morgenthau, who they think helped keep Rogers from a chance to talk to the president. Rogers has gone back to his teaching job at Yale.

Hammer Out for Hutchins
Secretary Ickes, by the way, is chiefly responsible for Roosevelt's move to bring President Robert M. Hutchins of the University of Chicago—the boy wonder of higher education—into the administration. Ickes is a Chicagoan, a friend, and an admirer.

Hutchins may or may not become the brightest star in the Brain Trust. But he certainly won't be the most popular one. Possibly there's some professional jealousy in the suggestions of other New Deal professors and lawyers that 35-year-old "Bobby" will be found primarily to be promoting himself and his future. Anyway, it's the Harvard

16-Year-Old Trucks Go To Relief Body

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 26.—Sale of approximately 600 army trucks that have passed their 16th birthday and are still in service will be made to state relief administrations after December 31, according to announcement from Eight Corps area headquarters at Fort Sam Houston.

Sale of other disposition of the old war-time vehicles was forced by action of congress. In the army appropriation act for the current fiscal year was included a provision that none of the money appropriated for the army could be used in maintenance or operation of any motor vehicle purchased prior to 1920 after December 31, 1934.

The Memphis Democrat Will Award FREE! Basket of Groceries And 10 tickets to the Ritz Theatre to see Madge Evans and Robert Young in "DEATH ON THE DIAMOND" Sunday and Monday. It's Easy! - Simply 'Unscramble' The Accompanying Well Known Grocery Items Then Make A Sentence of Not More Than 30 Words Containing All of the Items In Today's List of Anagrams! It's Not Hard! -- Just Try It! RULES 1. The letters in each of the accompanying ten anagrams when arranged properly will spell the names of ten well-known food and grocery items. You are invited to solve the anagrams, then arrange them in a sentence of not more than 30 words (you may use less if you wish), and try for one of the ten prizes. 2. To the persons who send in the best entries in accordance with these rules, The Democrat will give a free basket of groceries and ten tickets to the Ritz Theatre. The basket of groceries will be offered as first prize, two tickets to the Ritz as second prize, and one ticket each to the next eight contestants. 3. This offer is open to all except employees of The Democrat and their families. You pay nothing. 4. Awards will be made on the basis of the most nearly correct list of anagrams and the cleverest sentence. Simply rearrange the letters in each anagram to spell the name of a food or grocery item. Then check the food and grocery ads in today's Democrat and place a cross mark in the square if you find the item advertised. If you find the item advertised, the item is NOT advertised marked. Then arrange the ten groceries found in the anagrams into a sentence of not more than thirty (30) words. You may use less if you wish. 5. All entries will be considered by a committee appointed by the Democrat. Contestants agree to accept the decision of the committee as final. Payment will be based upon suitable words inserted, accuracy in cleverness in arranging the sentence submitted and neatness. Final consideration will be given to entries. In case of ties, prizes will be awarded to the contestants. 6. All entries must be received at the Democrat office by four o'clock each day afternoon. 7. You need not purchase the Democrat to compete. You may simply submit your entry on a sheet of paper. Winners will be announced in the Democrat.
