A parallel between life and the plot of "An American Tragedy" has been uncovered with the reported confession of Robert Edwards, 23, that he threw the body of Freda McKechnie, 26-year-old church worker, into a lake near Wilkes-Barre, Pa., after beating her with a blackjack. As in the novel, the girl was soon to become mother, and the boy reported drawn on an outline.

HINDENBURG IS BURIED TODAY IN SHRINE

Hitler In Emotional
Eulogy As Hero Is Placed To Rest

By Associated Press
TANNENBURG, Germany, Aug. 7.—Germany buried Paul Von Hindenburg today in a shrine it holds sacred, after Adolf Hitler in an emotional eulogy said that the late president "opened the door" to Nazism.

The funeral was brief and simple as the warrior-statesman wished. However, thousands of uniforms gave it a military atmosphere.

The body of the 86-year-old leader was placed to rest in one of the towers of the national war monument erected at the scene of Von Hindenburg's triumph over the Russian army in 1914.

PRESIDENT SEES EFFECTS OF DROUTH

Assured No Danger
Of Famine; Drouth
Is Spreading

By Associated Press
EN ROUTE WITH PRESIDENT Roosevelt to Washington, Aug. 7.—In the blistering heat of the parched Northwest, President Roosevelt tackled the drouth—a calamity assuming proportions which deeply concerned him and his aides.

Traveling across northern Montana with a later afternoon stop to motor to the federal power and reclamation dam at Fort Peck, on the upper Missouri, Mr. Roosevelt saw and heard of the results of the withering wave of aridity.

Drouth Spreading
Federal officials boarding the special train assured the president there was no danger of famine, but reported the drouth was persistently spreading its devastation. "We have to provide in the days to come," Mr. Roosevelt told the throng surrounding his train at Havre, Mont., "for the elimination of the causes of not only drouth, but of the conditions that some from drouth.

"It is going to take a long time to do it, but as I have said before, I think we are on our way and that you good people understand it (Continued on page 5)

First Shots Fired In Political Fued Of Long, Walmsley

By Associated Press
NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 7.—The first gunfire in the Long-Walmsley political mobilization sounded today when guardsmen at Jackson barracks where the militia is under arms fired twice at an unidentified intruder.

A guard later accidentally discharged a pistol at the city voting registration office.

The latter shot broke a window in the city hall annex and threw the city hall area into confusion. Nobody was hit.

13 Births Recorded In County In July

Thirteen births have been recorded in the office of the county clerk for Hall county over the past month. The birth certificates are submitted by the justice of the peace of the various precincts of the county for the bureau of vital statistics of the state department of health, Austin.

Twelve births were recorded over the county here for the preceding 30-day period.

DROUTH OR NO DROUTH, FAIR AT AMARILLO GETS LARGER

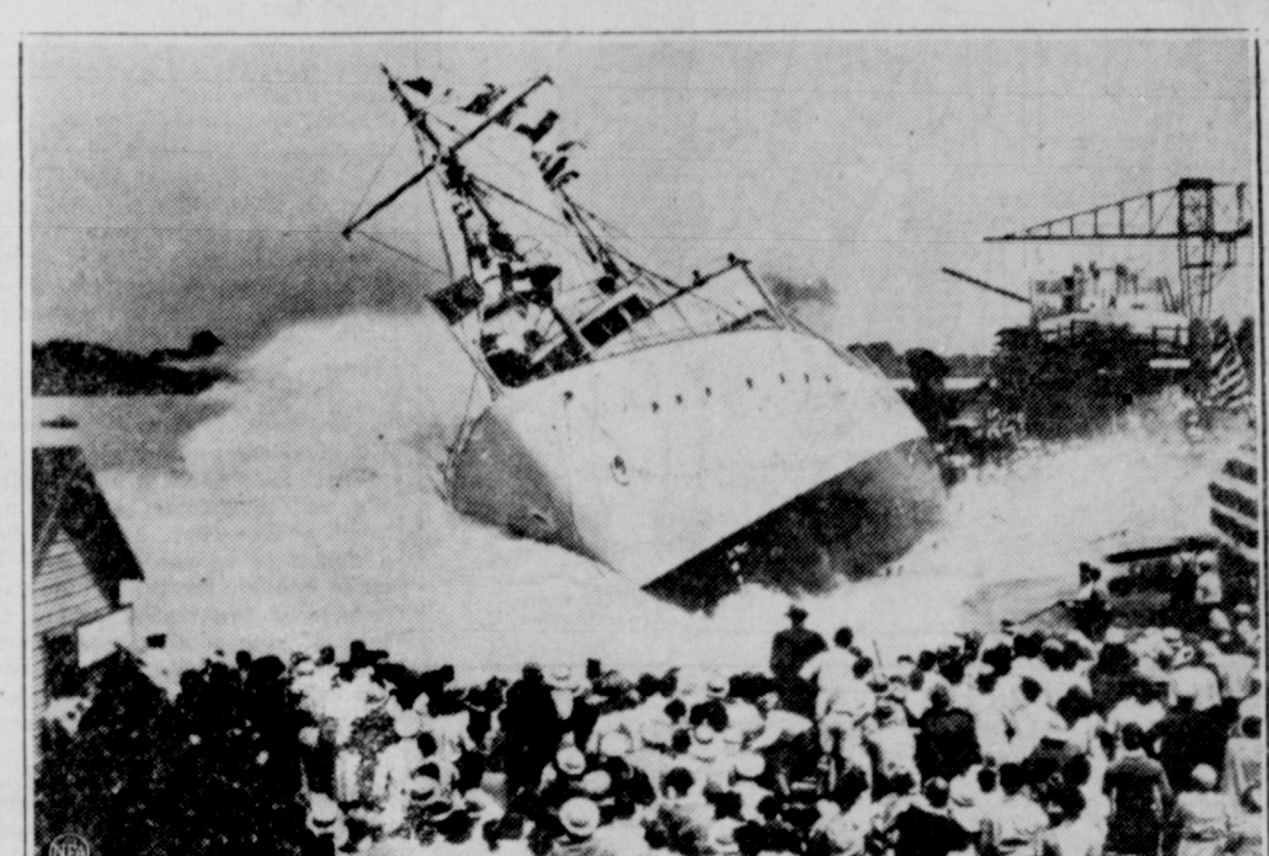

Special to The Democrat
AMARILLO, Aug. 7.—With more feature attractions, including daily horse races, and larger premiums than ever, all guaranteed, the Tri-State fair this year, September 15-22, easily will measure up to the old slogan—"bigger and better."

Preparations have been made for record crowds to pass through the free gate each of the seven days.

Besides horse racing with legalized wagering, there will be the Sam B. Dill circus with Tom Mix, the Western States shows, a carnival company with sensational rides and other feature attractions.

The Tri-State fair is just completing a $30,000 building program to accommodate the 1934 crowds.

Colorful Baptism Given New Coast Guard Cutter

In a mighty shower of foam and spray, the new coast guard vessel Onondaga slashes sidewise into the waters of Saginaw Bay at Bay City, Mich., in this colorful launching ceremony, a baptism witnessed by hundreds of spectators. The 165-foot craft, of 11,000 tons gross displacement, was christened by Miss Alice Arnold, daughter of Representative W. W. Arnold of Illinois. It will leave soon for duty on the Pacific coast.

$40,000 Worth of Cattle Is Signed for Government Sale

12 ASK AID IN COLLEGE WORK

Apply For Four Or Five Positions Alloted To Hall County By WTSTC

Twelve applications have been made through the office of the county school superintendent here for consideration for federal aid recently approved for West Texas State Teachers college, to be used to help students pay their way through college.

A number of others in the county have made individual applications for the aid.

Hall county has been given an allotment of four or five students to receive federal help in working their way through college at W. T. S. T. C. at Canyon next year, according to Mrs. Roy Guthrie, county school superintendent.

Those desiring to make application for the work may submit their names at the county superintendent's office.

Hall county farmers and stockmen who wish to sell their cattle to the government by means of the emergency drought plan installed in the county have been swarming the office of the county farm agent for the past two days making applications for cattle to be sold.

A check-up at 11 o'clock this morning showed that 239 farmers and cattlemen had signed to sell 3,157 head of cattle.

Water Is Problem
The sale of this number of cattle to the government would net the farmers and cattle dealers of Hall county something over $40,000, it was estimated.

A big problem that confronts those in charge of the drouth relief here is the watering of the cattle that will be shipped from over the county into Memphis.

The cattle will be concentrated at the Fort Worth and Denver Railway stock pens here, and there are no watering facilities to provide for the cattle.

The government does not make a provision for the watering of the animals.

Representative Here
Unless some means of watering is established, the cattle may have to be centered at Estelline, where proper equipment is available.

The Memphis Senior Chamber of Commerce has been in contact with the manager of the Fort Worth office of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and with the general manager of the Fort Worth and Denver Railway company yesterday and today in an effort to have the railway company install watering equipment here.

A telegram received late this morning stated that a representative of the railway company would be in Memphis this afternoon to look into the situation.

It is thought that the equipment will be installed.

Three Wounded As Feud Is Climaxed

By Associated Press
FORT WORTH, Aug. 7.—A free-for-all straight fight in which three persons were shot, one seriously, and another beaten on the head today culminated a year's feud between two residents of a block-long street.

DROUTH HAS NOT RUINED ALFALFA

H. H. McCanne Gathers 1,260 Bales Off Six Acres; Has Two Cuttings To Go

The continued drouth in Hall county may be proving devastating to some of the crops, but apparently it is not hurting a six-acre field of alfalfa belonging to Major H. A. McCanne of Memphis.

The field of alfalfa is located between Lakeview and Eli and apparently has suffered no ill effects from the hot winds and dry weather. The alfalfa is at the present over knee-height after having been cut four times this year. It will be cut at least two more times, Mr. McCanne said.

Mr. McCanne has been planting alfalfa on the same plot for six years. The first year he gathered 1,700 bales of hay from the six-acre field. So far this year he has 1,200 bales of alfalfa hay from the same field with two cuttings yet to be made.

The field is on an upland tract. Mr. McCanne states that it is of the opinion that the alfalfa roots go deep enough to obtain moisture from the 14-foot water level.

As evidence of his assertions, Mr. McCanne brought a bundle of the green alfalfa into the office of The Democrat this morning.

200 MINERS ARE TRAPPED BY STRIKERS

Caught At 1,000 Foot Level As Polish Group Protests

By Associated Press
LENS, France, Aug. 7.—Two hundred miners were trapped today in a 1,000-foot-level coal mine where they were imprisoned yesterday by 20 Polish miners protesting against the discharge of two comrades.

The Polish group blocked galleries, cut off air, water and electrical connections, paralyzing the mine. Two hundred miners descended the shaft unexpectantly.

When the miners left the elevator at the 1,000-foot level, the rebellious group pushed them, barricading the galleries and cutting off the power lines.

BOY DIES WHILE SWIMMING IN DAVIS TANK

Jack Bufkin, 19, Of Brice Succumbs To Heart Attack

Jack Bufkin, 19, of Brice, died yesterday morning at 11:30 from heart attack while swimming in Davis' tank two and one-half miles west of Brice.

Young Bufkin was in swimming with a number of his friends yesterday morning. He became suddenly stricken with an attack to his heart, and although an exceptionally strong swimmer, he died before he could get ashore.

Bufkin had previously suffered from heart trouble and had recently returned from Wyoming, because the altitude was harmful to his heart.

Funeral services for young Bufkin were held this morning at 10 o'clock from the First Baptist church of Lakeview, with Rev. B. Charge, of Gould, Okla., in charge.

Survivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bufkin, of Brice, and two sisters and three brothers.

Young Bufkin was prominent in the social life of Brice and neighboring communities and was well known over the county.

Revivalist Makes Talk At Meeting Of Rotary Today

Rev. Eugene C. McConley, pastor of the Morningside Christian Church of Fort Worth, who is conducting a revival at the First Christian church here, made an interesting talk at the weekly meeting of the Memphis Rotary club today noon. He stressed the importance of the church in the life of a community, saying it fills a need not met by any service clubs or fraternal orders and that business men would do well to realize the place which the church holds in the affairs of men.

Preceding Rev. McConley's address, Miss Margaret Milam thrilled Rotarians with three vocal numbers. Miss Milam has just recently returned from California, where she studied under some noted coaches and where she was presented in recital. Miss Milam's voice is superb and she was at her best in the two classical and one popular numbers she selected. Her first selection was "Lungi Dal Caro Bene" by Sacchi, which the artist sang in Italian; the second number was "The Year's in The Spring," by Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, and for an encore, she sang the popular "A Lazy Day In The Sun."

Her voice is remarkable in its range, its pitch and its sustaining quality. She is truly a dramatic soprano and her singing, while in California, earned for her a comparison with some of the greatest singers who have adorned the Metropolitan Opera in New York City.

Interest Shown In Quitaque Meeting

Special to The Democrat
QUITAQUE, Aug. 7.—The Methodist revival here is attracting great interest and large crowds are attending. Rev. Clarence Bounds, Methodist pastor at Estelline, is doing the preaching, which is being most heartily received.

Rev. Joe Strother, Methodist pastor at Silverton, is leading the singing and directing other phases of the meeting.

The meeting will continue through next Sunday. To date, there have been 21 conversions and reclamations.

The meeting is being held out doors on a comfortable, latticed-in lawn.

Put Our Way by "Cowboy" Williams

SOPHIE KERR'S SUPERB LOVE STORY "STAY OUT OF MY LIFE!"

JANE TERRY comes to New York determined to show her home town and especially AMY JACKSON that she can make a success of her life. Amy had been her best friend until HOWARD JACKSON broke the engagement...

ting the meal on the table. She paused with the teapot in her hand to listen.

He went on. "I'm glad that much is settled. The old chap offered to continue my salary out of his own pocket."

"No, I couldn't take it, but I wanted to. He said he had no near kin, that he wanted to make it possible for me to go without feeling worried about you."

"Father and Mother would like me to come and live with them, but I'm not going to do it. This is our home, and I'm going to stay in it till you come back. This war won't last long."

"But, darling Amy, if you were with them there'd be somebody to look after you."

"No, I won't go, Howard. I don't need anyone to look after me. But I did think maybe your mother would like to come here. She can't go aboard again now and she hasn't any fixed place to live. I don't know, though. If I should give music lessons that might bother her."

"If you give music lessons?" "I'm not going to sit around and do nothing but wait. I'd go crazy. I'll give lessons and get the Congregational church organ to play; it's not much pay, but it's not much work either. And with half a dozen or so pupils a week I'd make enough for the running expenses of the house, except the rent. If your mother would come, she could be with Nancy while I'm out. If she doesn't come there is always Mrs. Pearce, and Nancy's so good—"

The little girl looked up. "Nancy good girl," she said mischievously. She spoke distinctly, with no slurring, but her voice was still sweetly babyish.

"So you are a good girl," said Howard, patting her hand. "The best little girl I know. Good little Nancy."

"Good little Nancy, de-ar little Nancy," she said, beaming at him with a sudden radiant smile.

Professor Ellert went with him on one of these trips and came back snorting with rage. "These smallminded jacks-in-office dressed in a little brief authority!" raved the old man. "Lice feeding on the country's clean blood! I thought that President Wilson, who is a scholar and a gentleman, would have cleaned them out."

Howard grinned when he told this to Amy. "He had to wait three hours to see somebody in the War Department and he's carried on like mad ever since, regular orations! Mixing his metaphors and grinding his teeth! Say's he's going to vote Republican the next election."

Amy was glad to find something to laugh at without effort. "But all the same, he's an old darling. He's written to your mother. Did you know that? I had a letter from her while you were gone. And she's coming to stay, provided she can pay part of the living expenses. She says if the piano bothers her she'll put cotton in her ears and make motions. Your mother's the best sport!"

It was not until the time was actually set for Howard's leaving that Amy spoke again of wanting a child. "Don't you see?" she said. "It's our love for each other. It's you and me, living together in one body, Howard. I'd be so infinitely happier if I knew I was going to have a child. It would be easier to stand your being away. I know it would interfere with my giving music lessons and playing with your mother helping out. I don't need to earn anything. And money's not the question. I'd rather work my hands off—for of course, that's just talk for Father and mother, and your mother wouldn't let me—but if I didn't have to starve and slave—I can't tell you. I can't tell you what our own child would mean to me."

"But Amy, suppose I don't come back. We've got to think about that, too."

"No, I won't think about that. I won't think of it for one second. I want another reason to make you look out for yourself. If we had a child you'd not do extra foolhardy things—"

"Then we'll save something." By great effort they were talking as if it meant nothing special, but they did not look at each other, except with quick, almost furtive glances. Neither of them could eat, but they both made pretense. Amy sipping tea, Howard crumbling his roll beside his plate. Even Nancy felt the tension. When Amy lifted her chin and unpinned her bib, the child turned her face to be kissed. "I love you, mummy," she said fondly.

"Go and kiss Daddy, too," said Amy. Nancy came around the table in a rush of affection: "I love you, Daddy."

"She can play in the sandpile until time for her nap," said Amy, as if this wasn't part of every clear day's program. But she had to say something, she was so close to crying.

Howard carried Nancy outside and when he came back Amy's throat had stopped choking. "Ellert thinks if I pass the tests there'll be no doubt that I'll get a commission. I'll be interested to take them. It ought to tell me a lot about my eyes and my sense of balance and so on."

"Why are you so set on aviation?" asked Amy, thinking fearfully of spinning, crashing, burning planes, but determined to show no fear.

"Oh, it's the new big thing and I've got a regular kid hankering to drive a plane. Besides," he finished bitterly. "If I've got to kill other men, I'd prefer to do it at as far a distance as possible. Let's not go into that."

Amy did not ask anything more. They both tried, as they had tried from the first decision, to be commonplace and practical, but the days went by in a strange hurried chaos, where there seemed to be no sense adjustment. When Howard passed the first physical test he would be sent to Texas for training, but beyond that he could not plot his future. Nor did he try. The dean, the president and Professor Ellert wire-pulled and manipulated such influences as they could devise to get him a commission, and he had to go to Washington twice to see about it.

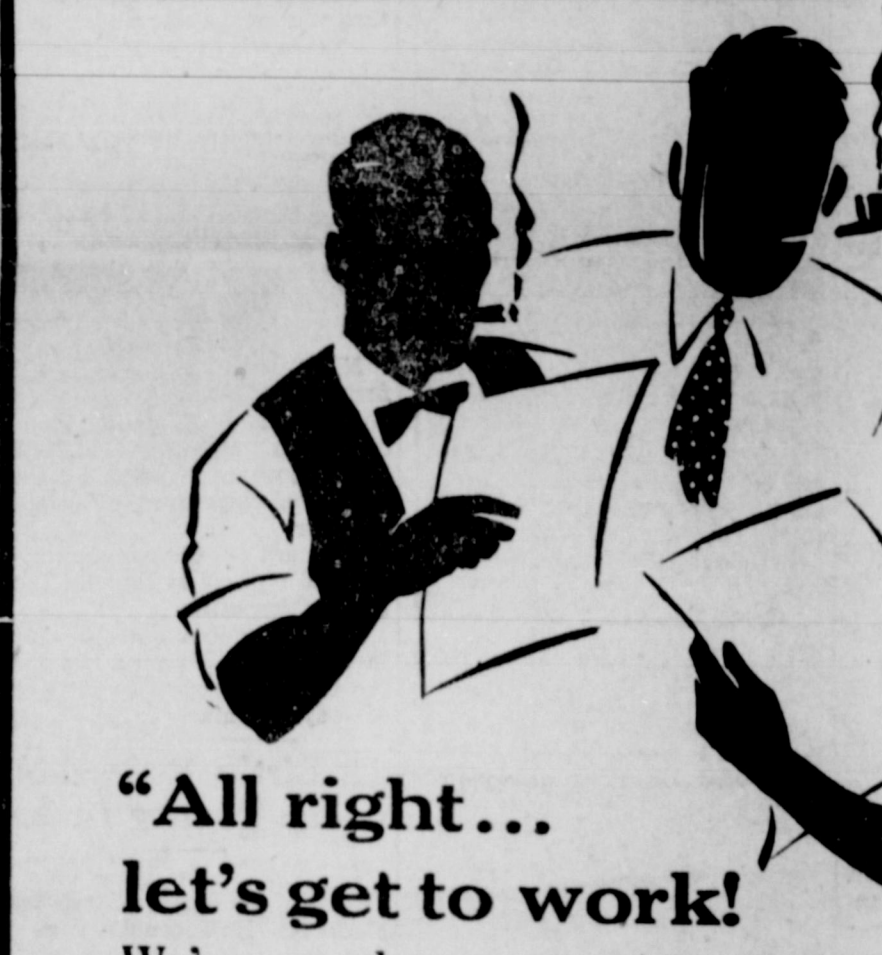

"A war isn't exactly the place to be cautious." "A war is exactly the place to be cautious. A dead soldier's no use to his country. Those young British officers who lead their men over the top with a swagger stick! Magnificent in one way but a fearful waste of good material if they want to win. You'll never be a coward, not for yourself, but you're being a coward for me. You're going into an adventure of life and death. I have a right to my own life and death adventure. That's not sentimental tosh either. It is true."

"Yes," he said at last. "It is true."

They were very pitiful, those two, in the last hours of Howard's stay. They were stoically calm. They invented small busy duties about the house and when Amy packed his bag she sent him down in the garden with Nancy but that was a mistake for she could hear their voices and the tears she had dreaded could not be held back. She had to stop again and again and wipe them away to see her painful task. But at the end of it she washed her face and went down smiling. He was to leave on the train that his mother would arrive on, for Mrs. Jackson had been afraid of her own courage and had so arranged things that she would see him for that one moment only. She had been generous, too, in giving his time to Amy. And Professor and Mrs. Love left them alone until the time came to go to the station. Other faculty members and some of their friends were waiting for them there. "I may be seeing you before long," he said. "I'm going in."

As a small anxiety takes the sharp edge off a large one, so the necessity of making sure that Mrs. Jackson didn't miss Howard relieved the party. Amy stood by Howard's side, touching his arm, but she did not hold it. If she had held it, she would have clutched and dragged him back with all her strength. She knew it. They had said their goodbyes at home, alone. At the car steps they kissed once, and then she stood back, beside the train pull out, looking at his mother. The train was gone. Then she went with bleak composure.

"All right... let's get to work! We've got a long session ahead of us, planning advertising campaign for (Mr. Merchant substitute your name here...)

WHAT makes Daily Democrat advertising pull the business so consistently? Circulation? You Reader-interest? That too. But there's another reason. The Daily Democrat holds the franchise to the Meyer Both General Newspaper Service. That—as any time Democrat advertiser will tell you—is something over for getting results. When an ad or a campaign appears in the Meyer Both service it is planned and ten to sell your goods to your customers.

The nation-wide Meyer Both organization spares no effort to learn your buyers' thoughts and direct them your front door. Here at the Democrat we work hand in hand with Meyer Both's own staff. We adapt their powerful sales ammunition to your own needs at the moment. We produce advertising that consistently more goods to more people—and at less cost.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION
 NO. 16.
 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE
 LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE
 OF TEXAS:
 Section 1. That Section 1 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:
 Section 1. TAXATION TO BE EQUAL AND UNIFORM AS TO REAL ESTATE AND TO BE EQUAL AND UNIFORM AS TO ALL REASONABLE CLASSIFICATIONS OF PROPERTY; AND OCCUPATION AND INCOME TAXES; EXEMPTIONS; LIMITATIONS UPON COUNTIES, CITIES, ETC.
 "Taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform. All property in this State, whether owned by natural persons or corporations, other than municipal, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, which shall be ascertained as may be provided by law. The Legislature may by general laws make reasonable classifications of all property other than real property for the purpose of taxation, and may impose different rates thereon; provided that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform. The Legislature may impose a poll tax. It may also impose occupation taxes, both upon natural persons and upon corporations, other than municipal, doing business in this State. It may also tax incomes of both natural persons and corporations other than municipal, except that persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits shall never be required to pay an occupation tax; provided that Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture, belonging to each family in the State, shall be exempt from taxation, and provided further that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town for any year on persons or corporations pursuing any profession or business, shall not exceed one-half of the tax levied by the State for the same period of such profession or business."

 Section 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution of Texas shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934. At this election, all voters favoring said amendment shall write, or have printed, on their ballots the words:
 "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this State, other than that owned by municipal corporations, shall be taxed in proportion to its value as ascertained as may be provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purpose of taxation, and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legislature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and income tax and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits; and exempting from taxation Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family; and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period."
 Those voters opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:
 "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this State, other than that owned by municipal corporations, shall be taxed in proportion to its value as ascertained as may be provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purpose of taxation; and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legislature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and income tax, and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits; and exempting from taxation Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family, and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period."

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION
 NO. 13.
 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE
 LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE
 OF TEXAS:
 Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as to hereafter read as follows:
 "Section 3. Taxes shall be levied and collected by general laws and for public purposes only; and the total amount of revenue which the State shall be authorized to collect during such biennium from taxes, licenses, permits and fees, (except fees paid by students to state educational institutions, and except rentals, bonuses and royalties obtained from public lands and other public property) shall not exceed a sum reasonably estimated to equal the product obtained by multiplying the number of the inhabitants of this State by the sum of Twenty-two and 50-100 Dollars; provided, however, the total amount of such revenue which may be so collected, shall be reduced by the amount of any surplus funds or unexpended appropriations remaining at the close of the preceding biennium. The expenditures of the State government of funds derived from the sources above referred to shall never exceed during any biennium, a sum equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of inhabitants of this State by the sum of Twenty-two and 50-100 ($22.50) Dollars, provided however, that the population of the State (in determining the amount of revenue which may be collected from taxes, licenses, permits and fees or expended from the revenue thus obtained) shall be determined by the then last preceding Federal census, to which population shall be added or deducted, as the case may be, for each year that has elapsed since the last preceding Federal census, the average yearly increase or decrease of the population as shown by said Federal census when compared with the Federal census which immediately preceded said last Federal census. Provided further, that in case of war, riots, or insurrection, or a statewide calamity caused by earthquake, fire, flood or an epidemic which seriously threatens the health of the citizens of this State, the Legislature shall have authority, by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, to suspend for a definite period this constitutional limitation as to the amount of money which may be collected and expended during the biennium."

 Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election each ballot shall have printed the words:
 "For the Amendment of Section 3 of Article VIII of the State Constitution providing for the levying and collection of taxes and fixing the maximum amount thereof which can be collected and expended each biennium."
 Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against, so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION
 NO. 30.
 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE
 LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE
 OF TEXAS:
 Section 1. That Section 16, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereinafter read as follows:
 "Section 16. All land mentioned in Section 11, 12 and 15, of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, now belonging to the University of Texas shall be subject to the taxation for county and school district purposes to the same extent as lands privately owned; provided they shall be rendered for taxation upon the values fixed by the State Tax Board and that the values fixed for school district purposes shall not exceed the values fixed for county purposes on the same land; and provided that the University of Texas from the University Available Fund, shall remit annually to each of the counties and school districts in which said lands are located an amount equal to the tax imposed upon said land for county and school district purposes."
 Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at the next general election, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas subjecting the lands of the University of Texas to taxation for county and school purposes, and providing for the payment of said taxes to the proper authorities of the counties and school districts where said lands are located," and all those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas subjecting the lands of the University of Texas to taxation for county and school district purposes, and providing for the payment of said taxes to the proper authorities of the counties and school districts where said lands are located."

 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE
 LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE
 OF TEXAS:
 Section 1. That the Constitution of the State of Texas, Article 16, be amended by adding thereto another Section, Section 61, which shall read as follows:
 "Section 61. All district officers in the State and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand ($20,000), or more, according to the then last preceding Federal census, shall hereafter be compensated on a salary basis. In counties of this State the Commissioners' Court shall be authorized to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis; and in counties having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000) according to the then last preceding Federal census, the Commissioners' Court shall also have the authority to determine whether county officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis. All fees earned by district, county or precinct officers shall be paid into the County Treasury where earned, for the account of the proper fund, provided that fees incurred by the State, county and any municipality or in case where pauper's oath is filed, shall be paid to the County Treasury, when collected, and provided that where any officer is compensated wholly on a fee basis, such fees may be retained by such officer, or paid into the Treasury of the county as the Commissioners' Court may direct. All Notaries Public, County Surveyors and Public Weighers shall continue to be compensated on a fee basis."

 Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to vote of the qualified voters of this State and the next general election to be held on Tuesday, after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:
 "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas adding Section 61 to Article XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether County officers in counties containing less than twenty thousand (20,000) population shall be compensated on a fee basis or a salary basis; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court in all counties of this State to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee or a salary basis."

Baptists Take Lead in Fight for City Softball Team

DOWN LOAFERS IN OPENING TILT, 6-2

Series To Continue With Second Game This Afternoon

Starting off the series for the championship of the city in softball yesterday with a bang, the Baptists took the initial contest, 6 to 2, from the Loafers. That team practically had a batting practice at the expense of the youngsters. The second game of the series is to be played today.

The Loafers could not seem to hit their stride while the Baptists aggregation was slammign put base hits and fielding peppily.

Leads Losers
W. C. Crump, captain, led his Loafers in both batting and fielding. He scored one of the runs, and hit on every trip to the plate.

Led by Brewer and Blevins, the Baptists clouted the offerings of Jack Norman almost at will. Brewer's three hits were doubles, and Massey and Boone also hit two-baggers. Manager Bill Alexander indicated late yesterday that he might use somebody else to hurl today.

An unpleasant feature of the game took place in the eighth inning, when Stanley Wallace, erstwhile star of the Young Baptists, injured his finger.

Change County Play-off
Late yesterday afternoon a communication from Estelline stated that the series for the county championship, which will be played next week, must undergo changes from those plans announced yesterday in The Democrat.

According to the communication, Estelline's team can not play on Tuesday, August 14. The play, then, will be held as follows, unless the manager of the winning team has other objections: Monday, August 13, in Estelline; Wednesday, August 15, in Memphis; and Thursday, August 16, in Estelline. If more games are needed to complete the three-of-five series, dates and sites are to be chosen by the managers.

Post Rosters Ahead

The reason for the posting ahead of time rosters for the teams is that confusion would thus be avoided, and the two managers would know whom they were to play.

FAVORED TO WIN $40,000 CLASSIC

DOC PARSHALL, .....

ONE OF THE YOUNGER HARNESS HORSE REINSMEN, AND LEADING GRAND CIRCUIT DRIVER IN SIX OF THE LAST SEVEN YEARS, WILL BE AFTER HIS FIRST VICTORY IN THE $40,000 HAMBLETONIAN AT GOSHEN, N.Y., AUG. 15, PULLING THE REINS BEHIND MUSCLETONE.....

WINNING CONSISTENTLY AS A TWO-YEAR-OLD, THE COLT HAS COPPED THREE OF THE OUTSTANDING STAKE RACES OF 1934..... ON THE BASIS OF THIS PERFORMANCE, HE HAS BEEN MADE FAVORITE TO WIN THE GOSHEN CLASSIC.....

MUSCLETONE,
—2:03 1/2—
HANDSOME BAY COLT OF THE COLDSTREAM FARM .....

HARRY GRAYSON

SALEM, N. H., Aug. 5.—Musclestone, which is by no means musclebound, today appears to be the 1934 edition of the $40,000 Hambletonian stake victor.

Three-year-olds entered in this richest trotting event, to be held at Goshen, N. Y., on Aug. 15, have performed on three Grand Circuit tracks to date in preliminaries to the big race in Orange County, veritable cradle of harness racing in America.

With Musclestone victorious at two of the three big time trotting loop's stops thus far, and in fine condition, there appear only a few potential powerful rivals in his path.

Owned by the Coldstream Stud Farm, of Lexington, Ky., and piloted by youthful H. M. (Doc) Parshall, Urbana, O., reinsman, Musclestone clicked off two victories in Cleveland in faster time than was made in the winning heat of the 1933 Hambletonian.

Looking every inch a champion Musclestone was expected to go around the major league harness whirligig in record style, but the brown son of Mr. McElwyn met defeat at Toledo.

Filly His Nemesis
Emily Stokes, a likely-looking filly owned by C. W. Phellis, and driven by clever Fred Egan, upset Musclestone's winning streak by soundly trouncing the favorite at Toledo in nearly the same speedy time which marked Musclestone's most outstanding victory in Cleveland.

Reynolda, too, piloted by Marvin Childs for the colt's owner, Henry H. Knight, of Chicago, beat Musclestone home in the Matron Stake at Toledo, while even Fay Mack, called the old gray mare, of trotting, due to the shortage of sex and color, also finished nearer than did Musclestone to the money.

Believed to be slipping fast, due to his defeat on the second Grand Circuit mile rink, Musclestone gave the customers something to remember him by when he chopped the William H. Cane Stake at Toronto in straight heats clocked in 2:04, 2:03 1-2 and 2:03 3-4. While this game colt did not have to face his victor in the feminine person of Emily Stokes at Toronto, he showed such steam and power whenever it was needed that many grizzled vets of the Grand Circuit believe even Emily couldn't have taken the measure of Parshall's mount in Canada.

Apparently Musclestone's two greatest rivals to date are Emily Stokes and Reynolda, with Vitamine, Bertha C. Hanover, Fay Mack and possibly one or two other 3-year-olds looming in the distance as potential threats for Hambletonian Day, at Goshen.

Driver Out For First Victory

Musclestone, as will his contemporaries of the harness turf, gets two more dress rehearsal appearances prior to the Hambletonian. These come from Aug. 1 to 11 during the Grand Circuit card at Rockingham Park here, where all entries in the $40,000 Goshen classic will get their final baptism of fire ahead of the feature race of them all.

Since Parshall colt never has captured the Hambletonian, he is particularly anxious to annex the honor this year. Fred Egan, too, pilot and trainer of Emily Stokes, has similar ambitions, after being cheated of what might have been victory in 1933, when his mount, Brown Berry, stumbled in the final heat and went down, only 50 feet from the wire.

With the greatest field of 3-year-old colts and fillies which the Hambletonian has seen in its eight years of existence eager to smash a few speed marks in the big number at Goshen, and the outcome pretty much of a gamble, even yet, the best race in the history if the harness turf is anticipated in the little burg outside the big town.

Players Raising Howl of Protest Over Base

BY HARRY GRAYSON (NEA Service Sports Editor)
DETROIT, Aug. 7.—Pitchers and infielders threaten to throw up ramps unless some of the ginger is removed from the golf—or baseball, or the hurlers are given a better command of it.

They actually fear fatalities, and not without reason.

It seems that the difference is in the seams, or lack of them.

"The American League ball was supposed to be unchanged, but it is rolled, and left too smooth," says Tommy Bridges, the 155-pound package of pluck who has won 13 games for the surprising Tigers. "Nothing resembling a line is formed by the sewing. Curve ball pitchers cannot grip the ball as they did the one which had raised and heavier seams last season."

"Earl Whitehill's trouble wasn't mental when he was first to point out the curve ball pitcher's disadvantage with the 1934 ball.

"Others who rely on something besides pumping the ball through there have complained since pitchers like Carl Hubbell, Mel Harder, Fred Marberry and Bum Bradley.

"The umpires being ordered to remove the gloss by rubbing the ball in dirt hasn't helped much, for the only time we get a real hold on one is after it has been well smacked and the seams rise."

"Last year's ball was perfect, and the owners should have let well enough alone. Mickey Cochran tells me it was the best he has seen since he broke in. It was fair to both sides. The pitcher could put something on it, and it would travel a magnificent distance if the batter hit it hard enough and squarely."

Happenings like these in the American League alone give pitchers and infielders cause for apprehension:

A rifle shot from Marbin Owen's bat nearly tore Rube Walberg's hand off. Blood poisoning set in in a finger.

After a liner from Bill Rogell's shillalah did everything but unlace one of John Marcum's No. 16s, Owen finished the Philadelphia pitcher with a drive that ricocheted off his wrist.

Ted Lyons nursed a sore back after turning it to a blast from Charley Gehringer's willow in self

TEAM OF MEMPHIS, CLARENDON LINKSMEN SPLIT WITH

With a team made up of Memphis and Clarendon golfers, the invaders split matches at Pampa Sunday afternoon. Memphis won only two out of seven matches, while Clarendon was winning four out of five to split 6 and 6.

In one of the feature tilts of the day, Raymond Powers, 16-year-old Memphis Caddy, defeated Mack Graham, one of Pampa's leading stars, 3 and 2.

Powers was one over par for the 18 holes. During the first nine, Graham was "off" and finished five down. On the back nine, Graham fired five consecutive birdies at Powers, who all but matched him stroke for stroke, turning in three birdies on the same holes and finishing the drive with a three-up lead.

After the torrid play, both players cracked, Graham losing his five-under and Powers losing his two-under, to come in with even par on the nine.

R. S. Green was the other Memphis player to win his match. He defeated Perkins, 3 and 2.

Thomas Hampton, although two under par, was defeated by Austin, who won 1 up on the 18th.

Dr. L. M. Hicks was defeated by his brother Dr. H. H. Hicks, 5 and 4. J. D. White, another Caddy was beaten by Gear, 1 up. The Caddy was one over par.
Reginal Greenhaw and O. B. Smith were also defeated, the former losing 1 up, and Smith going down, 4 and 3.

Sunday, the Memphis Country club team invades Quanah for an important tilt in the Quanah-Childress-Memphis league. The locals, trailing Quanah by a small percentage, are going to Quanah "determined to get even."

Such play would all but put the locals in first place in the loop, since their remaining matches are to be played at home.

To Help Capture 'Billy' Visits Scenes Of Early Days

First Attorney—

In their preliminary investigation police took statements from a number of pedestrians who witnessed the slaying.

Mrs. Rice was calm after the shooting, assuring a policeman she would not run. Later when she learned at police headquarters Kelly had died she burst into tears. Then she regained control of herself and even smiled as she posed for photographers.

Kelly was known to his friends as Judge, although he was not on the bench.

Kelly, who was admitted to the bar at Fort Worth in 1888 and in 1904 at Miami, Roberts County, became District Attorney of that district, moved to Kerville in 1907 and to San Antonio five years afterward. He was born at Tatum, Rusk County, in 1868. He was a Mason.

Funeral services will be held probably Wednesday at the First Baptist Church. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Alberta Kelly; three sons, Ben F. Kelly, San Antonio; R. H. and H. S. Kelly, Amarillo; and daughter, Miss Hazel Kelly, Amarillo.

and are supporting it."

Westbrook Reports

Lawrence Westbrook, assistant to Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, reported upon boarding the presidential special that the drought now extended to 24 states and affected about 26,000,000 persons. He believed more than the $525,000,000 already allocated by the president and congress would be required to meet the problem.

The whole situation gave the president and government officers opportunity to re-emphasize the administration program for redistribution of population to workable territory.

Senator Wheeler of Montana, Governor Cooney and Representative Monaghan traveled across the state with the chief executive and state relief officers joined the drought conference aboard the train.

Two More Members Of Nazis' Putsch Sentenced To Hang

By Associated Press

VIENNA, Aug. 7.—A court martial today sentenced two members of the Nazi putsch against the government and Chancellor Dollfus to be hanged.

Karl Kostelnig was sentenced at Klagenfurt and Ernst Feicke, first regular army soldier to be brought to trial in connection with the putsch was sentenced in Vienna.

Childress Drops Suit Demanding Lower Gas Rates

Special To The Democrat

CHILDRESS, Aug. 7.—Childress' case against the Northern Texas Utilities company seeking to reduce the domestic rates was formally dropped here last week-end when the city council, in regular session, approved an ordinance to repeal the earlier ordinance fixing the domestic gas rate at 50 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of gas.

It was decided at an earlier meeting of the council to take such action. This action brings to a conclusion action started three years ago when the city council, through an ordinance sought to reduce the domestic rate from 75 cents to 50 cents per 1,000 cubic feet.

The gas company fought the step. In discussion of the subject, the council agreed that the city could not afford to fight the case further.

Texas U To Break Post-Season Grid Rule During 1936

Special To The Democrat

AUSTIN, Aug. 7.—Lending its cooperation to the Texas Centennial movement, the University of Texas has, by action of its board of regents, waived for the year 1936 its usual regulations prohibiting the playing of football games after Thanksgiving in order that its athletic council may schedule an important game in celebration of centennial year.

It was found that it is practically impossible to interest teams from schools of the major significance in coming to Texas during the regular football season, both because of unfavorable weather conditions they fear they will encounter here and because their schedule for the regular season has already been completed, according to the athletic council members.

Puncture is Rare In U. S. Tires, Says Local Tire Dealer

"A puncture is almost as rare as a royal flush," says Joe C. Webster, manager of the Memphis Pioneer Auto Parts, "when you are using U. S. Royal tires."

Mr. Webster makes this statement after years of handling various brands of automobile tires. As head of the Pioneer Auto Parts here, Mr. Webster acts as local distributing agent for U. S. Royal tires, internationally known product.

"Combining the greatest array of safety and economy features ever built into a tire," Mr. Webster said, "the U. S. Royal features a tripple tempered rubber compound."

The long staple cotton used in U. S. Rubber Tire cord is of the highest quality used in tire construction today. This cotton is processed and fabricated in United States Rubber company mills, meeting U. S. Rubber specifications, producing a cord with maximum strength and suitable stretch.

The U. S. laboratory continuously tests U. S. Royals and competitive tires for cord strength. Results of a recent test in this particular on U. S. Royal cords with a highly advertised competitive brand showed U. S. cords to be 6.6 percent stronger when new and 40 percent stronger after 12,000 miles of service.

Marfak Lubrication Offered By Texas Service Station

The Texico Certified Service Station at the corner of Tenth and Main streets is now in a position to offer its patrons a certified Marfak lubrication or chassis lubrication.

The station is adequately equipped to handle the new lubrication system, and the station's attendants are well able to handle lubrication jobs.

Bill Gaither, co-manager of the station, returned from Amarillo Sunday after completing a course in proper Marfak lubrication. H. L. Nelson had previously finished the training course.

The certified lubricating system assures lubrication and service in accordance with the recommendations and practices approved by the manufacturer of every automobile.

The Marfak lubrication includes thorough lubrication of the following: All grease fitting, generator, starter, horn, distributor, universal joints and lines, fan bearing, water pump, steering post, spray springs, grease springs, clutch bearing, spark and throttle controls, break linkage, wheel bearings, door hinges, stops and latches, hood hatches, hood lacing and brake operating rods.

PRESS FREEDOM ESSENTIAL

GENERAL Hugh S. Johnson, head of NRA, who for a long time fought the desire of newspapers to have their code different from any other business, has finally come around to the point of the newspapers, themselves, and states that he is stronger now for "freedom of the press" than even before.

At first, Johnson could not see why newspapers should be given certain privileges or in what way the press differed from any other concerns. In other words, he thought the newspapermen were trying to slip over a fast one that would not allow NRA to affect the working hours of reporters or any of the press' constitutional rights to freedom to handle its own affairs.

Recently Johnson made the statement that the political terrorism in Germany is largely made possible by the strict censorship of the press.

He added, consering the insistence of American newspapermen that nothing in a newspaper code in the United States should interfere with the constitutional guarantees of freedom of the press:

"For a long while I thought sincerely that the newspaper insistence on writing into their code a clause saving their constitutional rights was pure surplusage. . . .

"But now I see more clearly why these gentlemen were apprehensive."

The newspapers are the greatest assurance the people of the United States have that their freedom and liberty will not be taken away from them. Undoubtedly, if the newspapers in Germany were uncensored, allowed to say what they think and give the news accurately about the regime of Adolf Hitler, the German people would not be crushed by the man today.

Correct information, given quickly and concisely, will, in many cases, give the people opportunity to form their opinions and put down any uprising of power that might crush them if it were allowed to get a strong hold before it was discovered. A government-controlled press might mean the end of American liberty.

JOBLESS RELIEF NEEDS SYMPATHY

HISTORIANS nowadays generally agree that Marie Antoinette, when she learned that the people of France had no bread, did not make that famous crack—"Let them eat cake."

Nevertheless, the story will persist; for whether she actually said it or not, the remark illustrates perfectly the attitude of the Bourbons toward the masses of France, and it helps to explain why those masses eventually rose and cut their sovereigns' heads off.

For some reason one is reminded of that hoary anecdote by the recent experiences of George Allen of Washington, commissioner for the District of Columbia.

Mr. Allen wanted to find out how the nation's jobless men were getting on, so he put on his old clothes, let his beard grow, and went to stand in the breadlines in such cities as Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Toledo, and Milwaukee. He came back to Washington the other day and expressed himself.

"The snottiest people on God's green earth are running the federal employment agencies," he said. "You ask them for a job and they feel they're doing you a favor to take your application. Most of the offices close at noon. Why don't they keep open all day and fight for the unemployed, trying their damndest to get them jobs?"

Now it happens that Mr. Allen met a number of Communists during his wanderings, and he found that the Communists are more sympathetic—which, he said, explains why jobless men sometimes come under their influence.

"The relief people," he says, "won't listen to the jobless man, much less fight for him, so he turns to the Communist, who offers to go out and get what the man wants. But Communist orators can't hold their listeners if jobs are in prospect. Pass through a crowd, whisper that jobs are available here and there, and soon the Communist is talking to himself."

Now this whole problem of unemployment relief is a new one, and it was inevitable that we should make mistakes in our handling of it. But it is hard to see how a greater mistake could be made than to permit relief agents to adopt the old Marie Antoinette attitude toward the people they are supposed to help.

The jobless man is always discouraged. He needs friendly sympathy and understanding just about as much as he needs a job.

HEALTH

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygeia, the Health Magazine
Your baby's skin requires careful daily attention to keep it clear from prickly heat and other irritations.

"Intertrigo" is the scientific term for a particularly irritating condition which occurs between the folds of the skin or where two skin surfaces are in contact. This occurs mostly in hot weather.

Sometimes the irritation is due to wearing too much clothing. Nowadays, however, most parents have learned that it is quite satisfactory for the baby to go about in a bathing suit, a sun suit, or just a pair of overalls. Children are not bundled up as they used to be.

Even with very light clothing, however, some children will develop rash on the skin. The ordinary heat rash is not serious. This may be treated by washing the skin with a mixture of one part vinegar and five part water. The skin then is dried, powdered with ordinary clean talcum powder or powdered corn starch.

If, however, the rash is more than just an ordinary heat rash, you should not try to treat it at home without advice of a physician.

Due to the fad for sunlight, many children nowadays are exposed to too much sun and their skins burn seriously. You should expose your child to the sun gradually, a minute or two back and forth the first day, gradually increasing the time up to five minutes front and back by the third or fourth day. After the tan is fairly well developed, the child may play about in the sunlight for longer periods.

You might try rubbing the skin with an oil, like olive oil or any of the oiled preparations recommended for the skin. This will permit the skin to become well tanned and capable of withstanding sunlight.

Far too many city parents do not realize the danger of over-sunbathing. They take the family along on a short vacation in the country or to the seashore and the children are badly burned the first day, so that the rest of the vacation is ruined.

Once upon a time bathing weekly or less frequently was also a custom. Nowadays, at least a daily habit is recommended for most persons.

You need not be afraid of more frequent bathing during hot weather. A bath morning and evening with additional sponging and bathing during the day is helpful to keep cool, and will prevent skin irritations.

Rubbing with alcohol after the bath, and powdering all surfaces where there is irritation will serve to avoid prickly heat.

Sometimes it is difficult to sleep at night during the hot weather, and children become cross and irritable from lack of sleep. A daily nap in the open air protected by mosquito netting and umbrella will serve to keep the child's temperature on an even scale and avoid a good deal of irritation in the home.

New Jersey police picked up a man in tatters, but with $10,000 in old style bills in his pockets. Perhaps the man was holding his savings against bad times.

You can increase the comfort of your home by just rearranging the furniture, says a Cornell University report. But be sure to keep the couch handy for Dad, if you also want to keep the peace.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
The Democrat's Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, August—The new National Labor Relations Board starts with two strikes on it—and no pun intended. But the NLRB hopes for industrial peace through a definite policy upon which both labor and industry can depend.

The old National Labor Board, dead and unlamented, started with similar aim. It broke down because President Roosevelt and General Johnson interfered with it. Chairman Wagner was kept busy in the Senate, there was no vice-chairman or secretary, members had other things to do and the administration's lackadaisical attitude toward labor problems earned contempt for NLRB from both sides. Collapse of NLRB's prestige handicaps its successor.

With plenty of mistakes by which to profit, three able full-time members man the new board. But their limitations under a compromise emergency law which satisfied nobody when passed were shown when they couldn't even intervene in the San Francisco strike.

Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins is likely to dominate the show. That's up to the board members, chosen by her for Roosevelt's appointment.

The objections are that NLRB as a mere branch of the Labor department couldn't achieve the prestige it needs, that Miss Perkins doesn't like drastic or pronounced action, and that her presence in labor disputes might be as objectionable to capital as General Johnson's is to labor.

Hopes to Nip Trouble in Bud

It is also true that Chairman Lloyd Garrison has had no experience in labor disputes and that none of the members is nationally known. Nevertheless, the board can jump or avoid most of these hurdles and I believe it intends to try. It hopes to nip incipient labor troubles in the bud.

Chairman Garrison promises "a harmonious body of precedents developed in settlement of labor disputes." That's important. It indicates a national labor policy which will head in one instead of several directions—as is now the case, with a hodgepodge of labor boards hearing assorted mandates.

Section 7-a of NIRA, guaranteeing collective bargaining, but compromised, interpreted, and reinterpreted ad nauseam, is the issue at the root of most serious strikes. Garrison explains "We are primarily a sort of quasicourt to pass on alleged violations of Section 7-a."

Vacation's Time For Teaching Things Not Learned In School

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON
Vacation days are the time to teach children those things they do not get in school.

In doing so it is better not to mention the words "teach" or "study" to the child.

When one thinks of it, the best lesson learned by the roadside of life and gained through our own interest do not come out of books.

Take trees, for instance. Unless we have deliberately shut our eyes, and our mouths from asking names, our best tree knowledge has come from the trees themselves and from those living near them.

They're Eager to Learn
Children are avid to learn. How many city children know whether beets grow on plants or in the ground? Or whether lima beans grow like grapes. Or how grapes grow?

Perhaps you say it doesn't matter whether they know or not. Well, perhaps not, but any new fact added to one's store of knowledge makes life just that much more interesting. If nothing else, it gives up a "look" of knowing and adds to personality.

We look at the stars nightly for dozens of years. Yet how many of us know their names, except some of the planets? How many of us had to fly to our encyclopedias when "Arcturus" opened the big fair?

Why, then, let children do as we have done, go stupidly through life under the big canopy and not know the names of the luminaries that few people have found use for except to say, "How beautiful!" It isn't enough. The knowing eye enjoys beauty infinitely more than the unknowing one.

Trees are fascinating. To know their names is a thrill. Stop and count. How many varieties can you identify off hand? One need not learn the names of all the thousands, but even a hundred will add to one's beauty education and give a feeling of importance. There may be only a dozen or twenty in the immediate vicinity of where you live. How about teaching the child the names of Birds? A lady asked the other day what a bright red bird was that whistled like a boy. It was a cardinal wren that top knot and that whistle; and she has been through two colleges. She says she only knows two birds.

Thus it goes. Of course we can't know everything. But don't let the children grow up without knowing the names of nature's children. Some day they'll be glad.

ALLRED JUMPS POLICIES OF HUNTER

Likens Him to 'European Chancellor or Dictator'

SPECIAL TO THE DEMOCRAT
DALLAS, Aug. 7.—Expressing high hope and courage for the immediate future, Attorney General James V. Allred this week-end dedicated himself to work for a "sane program of progress for Texas"—a program anchored in the principles of free American government.

Opening his run-off campaign, Allred outlined a constructive platform for state betterment. Relief, rather than visionary political rostrums, must be the choice of Texas citizens when they nominate a new Governor Aug. 25, Allred declared.

At the Dallas rally were gathered not only Allred's friends of the first campaign, but hundreds of new friends who had supported other candidates in the first primary. The leading gubernatorial candidate called attention to the fact that he had carried 117 counties while the next high candidate had carried only 54.

"In the coming primary," said Allred, "the people will have the choice between two types of leadership. One offers misguided, wild idealism as against constructive progress in our present form of government. One offers extravagant and unworkable ideas, as against a practical and progressive program. One is an unknown and untried quantity; the other offers training and experience.

"I am willing to base this campaign on the proposition that the people, in these trying hours, should choose leaders with a political philosophy sympathetic to our constitution and historic traditions. As for myself, I am unwilling to embrace the economic theories of an outworn and impoverished European civilization. We must emphatically reject any leader who seeks in Texas to emulate the political philosophy of European chancellors or dictators."

Mrs. Sam White of Artesia, N. M., Mrs. Loy Vaughan of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hatchett of Acme were guests of Mrs. Frank Wright here over the week-end.

Fixing Things

Menu for the days when it's 100 in the shade.

MENU
Chicken Loaf Potato Chips
Savory Green Bean Salad
Small White Bread Sandwiches
Sunshine Cake, Iced Tea or Coffee.

Chicken Loaf
Two cups diced cooked chicken, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon chopped celery, 1-2 teaspoon spoon shopped celery, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 2 eggs, 2-3 cup milk, 3 tablespoons chicken fat, melted. Mix ingredients. Pour into a buttered baking dish or loaf pan. Bake for 35 minutes in a moderate oven. Chill and slice.

Savory Green Bean Salad
Cook green beans until tender. Prepare enough to make 2 cups, add 2 tablespoons chopped green pickle, 1 onion minced fine, 1 canned pimento, minced, 1-2 cup mayonnaise which has been blended with 1-3 cup chili sauce. Mix, chill and serve in lettuce cups.

Sunshine Cake
1 cup sifted cake flour
1 cup sifted sugar
1-4 teaspoon salt
6 egg whites
1-2 teaspoon cream of tartar
4 egg yolks beaten until thick and lemon colored
1-2 teaspoon lemon extract

Sift flour once, measure, add 1-2 up of sugar and sift 4 more times. Add salt to egg whites and beat with flat wire whisk. When foamy add cream of tartar and continue beating until whisk leaves a faint line when drawn across surface of the egg whites. Add remaining sugar gradually and continue beating until texture is very fine and even and egg whites are stiff. Fold in egg yolks and lemon extract. Then sift small amount of flour over mixture and fold in carefully, continuing until all is used. Pour batter into ungreased tube pan. Bake in slow oven 30 minutes, then increase heat slightly and bake 35 minutes longer. Remove from oven and invert pan for 1 hour or until cold.

Lead Drink
Here is a thirst-quenching drink for warm afternoons or sultry nights. Mix 1-4 cups granulated sugar with 1 cup water and boil 3 minutes. Add crushed mint leaves and cool. Add 1 cup lemon juice and strain over ice. Add 1 quart ice water and 1 quart ginger ale.

Apple Almond Pie
1-2 cup shelled almonds
1-2-3 cups finely rolled graham crackers
1-2 cup sugar
1-2 teaspoon almond flavoring
1-3 cup butter
2 cups sweetened apple sauce

Chop almonds and combine with the graham crackers, rolled fine, 1-2 cup sugar, flavoring and softened butter. Reserve 3-4 cup of this mixture and press remainder firmly against bottom and sides of a buttered pie plate. Pour in apple sauce. Top with remainder of crumbs mixture and bake 15 minutes in a hot oven. Chill and serve with whipped cream.

5 CITIES SEEK MAIN PART OF CENTENNIAL

Interest Mounting Rapidly in Big Celebration

SPECIAL TO THE DEMOCRAT
CORNICANA, Aug. 7.—Now that activity in at least five Texas cities is being directed toward securing the major celebration of the Texas Centennial in 1936 the people in increasing number are asking for detailed plans concerning the celebration, just what it provides, and the methods of execution.

The five cities in which such activity now is pronounced, listed alphabetically are Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio.

A plan, comprehensive in every detail from which the competing cities will work in their applications for the major celebration, has been outlined by a plan committee, headed by John D. Middleton of Greenville. Members of the committee are Mrs. W. B. Sharp, Houston; John H. Sherry, Mission; H. H. Ochs, San Antonio and J. K. Hughes, Mexia.

In the first place the plan contemplates that the exhibition shall be international in scope and execution. It does not take the form usually expected of fairs, expeditions and events of like nature.

It differs from them in its bigness, and it differs from them in the vastness of the matter to be portrayed, for the Committee says
