Cheese Is Called Valuable Food of Many Varied Uses

Marketing Administration Designates Dairy Product As August Victory Special

Cheese—yellow cylinders of concentrated energy.

The Agricultural Marketing Association, United States Department of Agriculture, has designated cheese as a Victory Food Special for the period from August 17 to 29. Local stores are now featuring cheese.

Cheese is truly an American dish. Did you know that 90 percent of the cheese you find at your local markets is made right here in the United States? That one-fourth of a pound of plain American cheese, or cheddar cheese, is equal to one quart of milk in food value? Cheese, like any other milk product, belongs to the "protective foods" that are needed in all well planned diets because they protect against deficiency diseases. Cheese, as you probably know, contains protein, fat, calcium, and phosphorus. It also contains vitamins A and G also B1 and D.

Nutritionists say that people could well eat twice as many dairy products as they do now. Cheese adds nourishment and flavor to many low cost foods—macaroni, for example, or rice, spaghetti, grits, potatoes or beans. Many different vegetables are good served with cheese sauce; that is, white sauce with enough grated cheese melted in to give it that smooth yellow texture and delicious taste. You can scallop potatoes, cabbage, corn, or beans with this cheese sauce, too. You can use cheese sauce to combine a mixture of left-over cooked vegetables.

Cheese is especially good in hot weather meals because cheese never needs cooking with very much heat. In fact, a little too much heat makes cheese tough and stringy. It is very important to remember to keep temperature low in cooking cheese—just enough to melt it. Cheese that has been melted and blended in sauces and other foods can be easily digested by children.

So when you go shopping on these hot summer days, remember that in America there is enough cheese for everyone—cheese for our allies and cheese for us at home.

Work or Fight

Scrap iron and steel were not important raw materials in Civil War days. The open hearth furnace, which today uses 90 per cent of the scrap consumed by the steel industry, was not operated in this country until 1868.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The power of the greatest Navy in the world, our own two-ocean fleet, rests in large measure on its backbone—the Battleships of the Line. They displace approximately 35,000 tons and cost up to $70,000,000. We have something like a score of these huge ships in the Atlantic and Pacific.

Eight huge battleships are under construction and more are contemplated. To finance these modern giants of the sea it is necessary for every American everywhere to buy more and more War Bonds. We can do it if everybody does his share. Invest at least ten percent of your income every pay day to help your country go over its Bond Quota.

AMERICA'S FIGHTING MEN CIRCLE THE GLOBE

This world map shows where U. S. airmen, soldiers, sailors, marines and technicians are now in action or training to fight on the many fronts of the globe.

DISCUSSION OF PEACE AIMS IS CALLED POWERFUL WAR WEAPON

Full discussion of United Nations' peace aims is a powerful weapon in the winning of the war, Elmer Davis, director of the Office of War Information, said today in releasing a pamphlet entitled "The Four Freedoms."

In a statement accompanying release of "The Four Freedoms," Mr. Davis said, "Our job is to win the war as swiftly as possible. But the tremendous effort that will be needed to win it will be made the more readily if the American people fully understand the objectives for which we fight. We are fighting not merely against something but for something—for a free world for those peoples who, as Secretary of State Hull has said, understand that enjoyment of liberty is the fruit of willingness to fight, suffer and die for it. . . . 'The Four Freedoms,' and the discussions to which it will contribute, should prove a useful guide toward the better understanding of the world toward which we strive."

Axis nations, says the pamphlet, "promise a world in which the conquered peoples will live out their lives in the service of their masters." The United Nations, it continues, "plan a world in which men stand straight and walk free, free not of all human trouble, but free of the fear of despotic power, free to develop as individuals, free to conduct and shape their affairs."

"We and our allies," it says, "are fighting today not merely to defend an honorable past and old slogans and faiths, but to construct a still more honorable and rewarding future. Fighting men coming back from the war, will not be satisfied with a mere guarantee of dull security—they will expect to find useful work and a vigorous life."

Summarizing each of the four freedoms, the 1-page OWI pamphlet says:

FREEDOM OF SPEECH—"To live free a man must speak openly—gag him and he becomes either servile or full of cankers. Free government is, then, the most realistic kind of government, for it not only assumes that a man has something on his mind, but concedes his right to say it. It permits him to talk—not without fear of contradictions, but without fear of punishment."

FREEDOM OF RELIGION—"We of the nations united in war, among them all the great religions are represented, see a triumphant peace by which all races will continue the belief in man the belief in his elusive and untouchable spirit, and in the solid worth of human life."

FREEDOM FROM WANT—"Prosperous times have been enjoyed in certain regions of the world at certain periods in history, but local prosperity was usually achieved at the expense of some other region, which was being impoverished, and the spectre of impending war hung over all. Now, the industrial changes of the last 150 years and the new prospect implicit in the words 'United Nations,' have given meaning to the phrase, 'Freedom from Want,' and rendered it not only possible but necessary."

FREEDOM FROM FEAR—"Aggressive war, sudden armed attack, secret police, these must be forever circumvented—the first move to free people from fear, is to achieve a peaceable world which has been deprived of its power to destroy itself. This can only be accomplished by disarming the aggressors and keeping them disarmed. Last time they were disarmed, but they were not prevented from rearming."

From where I

by Joe Marsh

WHENEVER I hear about anybody having a big family I think of Dad and Ma Hoskins. The Hoskins' had thirteen children.

They weren't a bad bunch of kids, by and large—but it seemed one or other of them would always be having a fuss with the neighbors, or would break a window playing baseball, or some other kid trick. Kept Dad and Ma mighty busy all the time.

One day Dad got a bright idea. He called the whole family together for a special meeting at the dinner table.

He told them he was tired of checking up on them all the time. He said he thought they were old enough now to check up on themselves. The older children would watch the younger ones. They would have meetings every so often and hand out rewards or punishments.

Well, it was a crazy idea but the kids liked it and they started behaving better than they ever had before. The idea worked and Dad finally did get a little time for himself.

LAD WISES DAD!

MOTHER: Now, Bob, blow out the candles, dear . . . sixteen of them this year!

BOB: Gee, Mom, that's a swell cake! See, I blew them all out. Can I wish now?

SISTER: Here it comes! . . . He wants to drive the car!

FATHER: Well, he's the age for a junior license. Bob, if you'll take some responsibility for the car—in stretching out its life—I'll say "Yes."

BOB: Fine, Dad . . . I've already started. I stopped at that Conoco Mileage Merchant's station this morning to get air in my bike tires, and the station man gave me this book.

FATHER: Let's see. M-m-m . . . "INTO THE VALLEY OF DEATH." Interesting. In a certified test of six cars run to destruction, Conoco Nth oil lasted over 13,000 miles—more than twice the mileage averaged by five other big-name oils.

BOB: And look, Dad, about this OIL-PLATING. Gee!—lubricant really sort of bonded to inner engine parts!

FATHER: You win, Bob. Conoco Nth can make the car give us the years of service we've got to have now.

FOR THE DURATION of your car Don't depend on hurried stops for gasoline to have your tires and car checked. Join my ONCE-A-WEEK CLUB. Choose one day each week to bring in your car. I will properly check your tires, oil, radiator, and battery. I will report anything that appears to need attention. I will keep a careful record and remind you when greasing and oil change are needed. I help you get maximum service and car life at the least possible cost and trouble.

Your Mileage Merchant

You'll win if you get in touch with Your Conoco Mileage Merchant. Today, get Conoco Nth motor oil. Continental Oil Co.

Would You Do this Job for A DIME A DAY?

... and when you and the carpet are both to a frazzle, would you clean the oil lamps . . . and scrub the week's wash on a knuckle-bruising board . . . and wash to the springhouse after milk and butter . . . all for the same 10 cents?

"No bargain!" you say. But Reddy K. your electric servant, does all these jobs and more for a dime a day or less in the average West Texas home. What's more, that dime's value has grown so steadily nowadays it buys about twice as much service as it did ten or fifteen years ago.

It's about the biggest bargain in the world and probably the only household item that hasn't gone up as a result of the war!

Today, under experienced and practical business management, West Texas enjoys an abundant supply of electric power . . . power to perform household drudgery . . . and power that will enrich the life of every West Texan in the peaceful years to come.

Stripped for Action

Every muscle tense, teeth gritted in determination, this U. S. Coast Guardsman mans his gun in the battle of the Atlantic, helping to clear shipping lanes of the sub menace.

Death Leaves Its Wake in Circus Fire

Ride 'Em, Cowboy

Who'd ride to the beach? That shouldn't prove a handicap for who can ride the watering can. It's a pleasant way for youngsters to cool off in their own back yard.

ATTACK! ATTACK! ATTACK!

America's attacking on both the fighting front and the home front today! We're giving the Axis a bitter taste of what's to come. We're fighting the inflationary 6th column that blows prices sky high here at home, too. And every one of us who saves at least 10% of his pay in War Bonds is an important soldier in the attack!

Sailors Save Wheat Crop

Loss of crops in the Wahpeton, N. D., area was feared until sailors at the naval training station there volunteered to help farmers harvest their wheat. Sailors here are assisting Fred Formanek, right, and his twin daughters, Mary Ann and Margaret Clara.

Are you entitled to wear a target lapel button? You can ONLY if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds to do your part on the home front toward winning the War. The target lapel button is a badge of patriotism, a badge of honor. You should feel proud to display it. The buttons are obtainable at your plant management, at the office of your local War Bond chairman, or at your Payroll Savings Window where you authorize your ten percent payroll deductions. Enlist in the ten percent War Bond army and do your part to win the War. U. S. Treasury Department

Mascot "Judo" gives a practical demonstration of the bite in the Army war tanks by showing his readiness for a fight. He accompanied Sgt. "Moose" Turner on a tour of big cities to show civilians just what goes on in the Army.

Doctors are instructing civilians in proper care of the wounded should air raids come. For jaw fracture, resulting from a fall or sharp blow, bandage should be placed firmly about head and jaw until medical treatment is available.

To control fires started by incendiary bombs, sand is poured on the blazing incendiary egg. Sand does not extinguish blaze, but prevents spreading and partially smothers dangerous shower of sparks.

Screen players show how tourniquet should be applied, as they receive first aid instruction under watchful eyes of a Red Cross instructor. Ann Sothorn, left, applies tourniquet to Lill Damita.

Here are essential supplies for the shelter room. Soup or a drink can be kept hot in the vacuum bottle and will be a welcome tonic if raid lasts long. Chocolate bars supply quick energy. Candles come in handy if flashlight gives out. Be sure you take matches, too. First aid kits should contain gauze bandage, compresses, burn ointment, iodine, ammonia inhalants, tweezers, and a small pair of scissors.

NEWS about boys in the Service wouldn't say anything for sure, the way things turned out last time. They are short on uniforms and we may not get ours for two weeks, but I sure hope we do.

I am in the hair-cutting line now and it is about my turn to get it all cut off. They are cutting it like Dad likes it this time.

My address is: A. S. Travis D. Malone, U. S. Coast Guard Training Sta. Co. G-4, Barracks 115, Curtis Bay, Maryland.

Pat H. Davis has just about completed his basic training in the Coast Guard at New Orleans, and expects to be transferred soon.

Travis Malone, who enlisted in the Coast Guard with Curtis Dodson and Barney Fowell about five weeks ago, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Malone, from Curtis Bay, Md., where the trio of Memphis boys have been transferred.

Well, we finally got here, and here we glad to get a good bath. Our clothes were really black. We kept the windows raised so we could see the mountains, rivers and towns. We had never seen anything like them before, and were glad to get a good bath.

They say we will get transferred from here in about a month to the coast somewhere, but I

Lt. A. W. Guill, son of Mrs. Anna Guill of Memphis, writes interestingly from Australia about the people, customs and animal life of the country "down under."

Dear Mr. Wells: I have intended to write you for some time, but seem to keep busy enough to use that as a good excuse.

It has been over a year since I was home last, but time seems to fly, at the pace we are keeping. I have traveled over 60,000 miles of various parts of the world since I saw you last June.

Australia is much like Texas in many respects. The same type of independence reigns here as at home. Australians retain their identity much the same as we do.

Quite recently I made an extensive trip in this country, and can now say that I have seen all of the "cities" and several towns, slum districts, because of city and state regulations governing building construction.

Winfred Wilson Swift of Wichita Falls has volunteered and has been accepted in the U. S. Coast Guard. He left Monday morning for Dallas where he was sworn in to service.

U. C. Byars and Leroy Martin have already shipped out. So far as I know I'm the only Hall County boy left here and it gets a little lonesome sometimes.

Pvt. W. H. Goodnight came Sunday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. W. H. Goodnight. He is with the office force in the Air Corps stationed at Luke Field, Ariz.

Lt. J. D. Lerd of Camp Bowie, Brownwood, visited here last week end with friends. He is with the Medical detachment.

looking creatures called a koala bear. The fellows in this outfit have the following for pets: One kangaroo, one sheep (white), two parrots (one talks, one whistles), two chickens, four love birds, two cats, three kittens, two dogs, and one iguana.

This unit will have earned its first overseas service stripe in this war in another few days.

The Democrat is received with fair regularity, and I have been thinking that if Pat Noel receives the paper in England, you can practically claim world coverage in circulation.

Please give my best regards to all the staff. My mail address follows and would like to receive some correspondence from your direction.

Another in-between age. Lt. A. W. Guill, O-411125, Battery A, 197th Coast Artillery, (A. A.)

Will Rogers Field, Oklahoma City, visited last week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Stephens of Pecosview. He is in the Air Forces.

Staff Sgt. Izador Hardin left Thursday of last week for Santa Ana, Calif., where he is stationed in the office of the West Coast

Air Free Training Center. He was accompanied to Amarillo by Miss Juanele Sidde.

Harlie Taylor of Sheppard Field and Alvin Taylor, who is stationed at the Naval Air Base at Corpus Christi, visited Saturday with their mother, Mrs. T. L. Waddill at Estelle.

Never before have friends meant so much to us as they have since the passing of our wife and mother. The many flowers, the expressions of sympathy, the gracious services in the home and in the church, all helped to brighten the darkest hour we have ever known.

SUGAR FOR CANNING REGULATIONS ARE FLEXIBLE, SAYS BOARD HEAD

Canning sugar allowable under present regulations varies in amount according to the actual amount of canning done by a family unit, its present supply and its reasonable needs, and not set at a fixed amount, E. B. Wallace, chairman of the Hall County War Price and Rationing Board, explained this week.

"There has been a lot of confusion among some householders on this point," Wallace said. "because the boards of some counties have been more strict than others. The State OPA office recommended on June 1 that canning sugar be limited to six pounds per person in urban or city areas, and to nine pounds per person in rural areas, which is the national canning average."

"However, the State OPA office made it clear that this was not a hard and fast limit on the quantity of canning sugar allowable. It still is within the discretion of the local board to increase a canning sugar allowance up to one pound for each four quarts of finished fruit."

POPULAR FOR 61 YEARS!

Bomb 'em with JUNK

Let's blast Japan—and Germany—and Italy—with the chain lightning of destruction that can be built from the scrap in our cellars, attics and garages, on our farms and in our places of business.

Scrap iron and steel, other metals, rubber and waste materials. It will all be used to make tanks, ships, planes and the fighting weapons our boys must have. It is needed at once.

Sell it to a Junk dealer—give it to a charity or collection agency—take it yourself to the nearest collection point—or consult the Local Salvage Committee. If you live on a farm, and have found no means of disposing of your Junk, get in touch with the County War Board or your farm implement dealer.

HALL COUNTY JUNK RALLY and Patriotic Program FRIDAY, AUGUST 28TH

*War Factories Need
 What You Can't Use*

Unless the citizens of America—and that includes those of Hall County—respond at once, the War Production Program can bog down for lack of steel and other vital materials.

Even in peace, scrap provided about 50 per cent of the raw materials for steel.

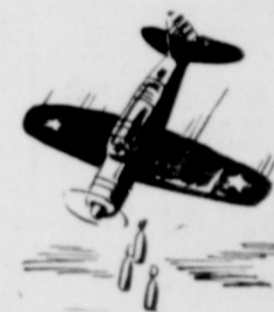

It may be rusty old "scrap" to you, but it is actually refined steel—with most impurities removed. In the steel mills this precious "scrap" is remelted with pig iron to produce the steel which goes into our machines of war. Other metals, too, such as aluminum and copper, are needed.

Old automobile and bicycle tires and tubes, garden hose and old rubber in other forms are wanted for scores of vital uses.

We can be thankful that there is enough scrap in this country to see us through—scrap a once wasteful nation is turning to in time of stress. It all depends on you to collect it and turn it in.

It is the greatest "treasure hunt" in history. Appoint yourself a committee of one to search in your attic, your basement and your garage, your barnyard, your factory or your store.

Farmers Under Nazi Rule Suffer as Food Dwindles

BY RALPH HERBERT

LIKE a giant octopus greedily clutching for food with all its arms—that's the way Nazi Germany plays its role in the field of Europe's milk, butter and cheese supply.

The ration for Germans has been drastically cut in recent months, but the people are not suffering in any degree like unto that endured by those who have fallen under the Nazi military heel. Denmark, Holland, Belgium, France and Norway have all been profoundly affected.

Time was when Denmark and Holland, especially, were noted for their dairy products, which they shipped largely to Britain. Their dairy farmers were prosperous. Their market was sure. France made various cheeses famous, the world over among connoisseurs and had an ample supply for its own people. Today the dearth in the conquered countries is due to various factors:

1. Reduction in cattle numbers, due to slaughter for meat.
2. Requisitions to supply the German armies stationed in the conquered lands.
3. Compulsory shipments to Germany, regardless of the hunger of Danes, Dutch, Norwegians, French and Belgians.

4. Shortage of concentrated cattle feeds no longer coming in from abroad.

Due to these factors, not only are the natives suffering, but also the Nazis are gradually emptying the cupboard. For a time they looked to Italy. Willy Mally, Mussolini sent her "ally" butter and cheese even though Italians had short rations. That source of supply is now also diminishing.

The latest reports now are that the Nazi masters have turned their eyes upon the occupied Baltic states of Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia as new lands to loot.

Great Britain is in happier case—provided ships can be obtained and convoys can get through. Both the United States and Canada have a surplus of milk, cream, butter and cheese they can send to hungry Britons. It's the job of the American and British navies to see that the cargoes get through. It's one of the big jobs of the German submarines and raiders and bombers to see that the cargoes are sunk. The conflicting tasks are one phase of the great never-ceasing Battle of the Atlantic.

Army to Buy Pack Mules in 2 States

Orders to purchase 900 pack mules have been received by the commanding officer of the South Central Remount Station, U. S. Army, at San Angelo, according to information received by County Agent W. B. Hooser. These mules will be purchased in Texas and Oklahoma and must be, in the opinion of the purchasing board, capable of performing the duties for which they are to be purchased. The following specifications will be adhered to:

Mules must be four to eight years old (a four-year-old must be full four), 14.3 1-2 to 15.2 hands high (a hand is four inches), 1,075 to 1,150 pounds in weight, short straight back, deep chested, big bodied with well sprung ribs, straight legged, good bone, gentle, sound in every respect.

It is said the purchase price will average $200 per head. A schedule of places and dates of inspection will be published at a later date for the information of those desiring to present pack mules to the board.

Durkee informed E. E. Roberts, Hall County chairman, that of the 44 Panhandle counties in his territory, only five had failed to meet or exceed quotas in the last drive for the War Emergency Fund, and that this county had exceeded its quota by a large amount than the majority of the counties.

Tuesday Durkee conferred with Mrs. B. Webster, war production chairman; Mrs. Lloyd Phillips and Mrs. W. C. Davis, surgical dressings chairman, and Mrs. Inez Baker, chairman for comfort kits. He also inspected the room being equipped for the making of surgical dressings and pronounced it up to standard in every respect.

Farm Families Work Hard To Fill Shortage in Help

BY RALPH HERBERT

FARMERS that the flow of farm laborers to the munitions factories and absorption of them into the armed forces through the draft would seriously cripple the farm industry have so far failed to materialize. This is due to three factors:

- 1—Longer hours all hands are working.
- 2—Increase in the number of farm women and children who are doing farm work.
- 3—Pooling of machinery.

One of the best indications of the situation is that carlot shipments of fruits were up 29 per cent and of truck crops 15 per cent during the week ending May 1, as compared with the same period last year.

A TOTAL of 10,796,000 persons were engaged in farm work on May 1, 1941. Of these 8,399,000 were what the U. S. Department of Agriculture calls "family labor." The increase over last year was 139,000. Hired labor amounted to 2,397,000 persons, a decrease from the same period last year of 26,000.

This seems a very slender decrease, but it is very probable that a considerable part of hired labor this year consisted of inexperienced hands, as compared with former years. Perhaps, also, the proportion of older men was greater, the younger ones having gone into the Army or the factories.

Despite this scarcity of experienced farm hands, reports to the government indicate that spring planting has generally been either up to or even slightly ahead of schedule. The farmers are doing their full part in the Battle for Food—so necessary not only for this country, but for those allied with the United States in the present war. The biggest worry of the farmers at present is in the future—reaping the harvest. Migratory workers will be more in demand than at any time in the history of the country.

"Birth registrations and surrender of books as a result of deaths also are considerably below our estimates of the reasonable expectation."

Wallace added that the war rationing regulations are very strict in this regard and he expressed hope that the local board would not have to call on the Office of Price Administration to invoke penalty provisions against persons who fail to observe this regulation.
