War Review—

Russia is also to have control of Rumania's big Black Sea port, Constantia, as a Red naval base. In the United States, President Roosevelt authorized the seizure of foreign vessels in American waters if necessary to protect this country's interests, or if for the safety of the ships themselves. The Germans and the British were still trading blow for blow, as both nations sent out bombers to hit the enemy country's industrial and munition centers.

Rumors were circulating that an early peace might be made between England and Germany, leaving Great Britain with 95 per cent of her present empire, but calling for internationalization of Gibraltar and Suez. In Berlin, the reports were laughed off, and in England, the statement was made that the British will fight to the very end.

JUNE 28 The Russians evidently were not satisfied with the slice of Rumania gained without fighting, and proceeded to try and take a bit more of that country. But Rumania was not to be taken without a scrap, at least so it appeared, and King Carol ordered complete mobilization of the army and navy, would continue if the Rumanians fought the Soviet troops for several hours in the border town of Cernavita. A number of civilians were killed and wounded, it was reported.

Complications between the Germans and Russians grew even greater as the Soviet forces took charge of German-owned materials in ceded Bessarabia. A large quantity of wheat ready for export was seized by the Soviet Union at Chilia harbor, on the Danube. The wheat belonged to the German grain company, Danarea.

Reports were that Germany and Italy had promised help to Rumania if Soviet troops attempt to make further advances beyond the boundaries ceded by King Carol of Rumania. Western powers were warned by Foreign Minister Machado Ariza of Japan to make no move which might upset the status quo in East Asia or the South Seas. He emphasized that the future of these regions is "a matter of grave concern to Japan."

Lord Stratholgi, labor leader in England's House of Lords, suggested that Neville Chamberlain and others responsible for past appeasement of Adolf Hitler quit the cabinet to quiet any rumors of moves for armistice. In the United States, President Roosevelt signed down on the "fifth column" by signing a bill which requires registration and fingerprinting of all foreigners in the United States.

JUNE 30 Russia pulled one out of the hat, landing baby tanks from airplanes, and showed the Rumanians a new phase of the well-known blitzkrieg. Here, at the juncture of the Danube and Prut Rivers, was held by Rumania until the surprise attack so completely overwhelmed the Rumanians that they never even picked up their guns from the barracks. The maneuver not only gave Rumanians some valuable military material, but also gave them a commanding position over the mouth of the Danube, one of Germany's vital communications lifelines.

While Neville Chamberlain broadcast to the world that Germany might "at any moment" begin the threatened invasion, scattered fighting was still going on. As the Germans bombed parts of Scotland, British planes struck at the Italian forests in Africa, and the Italians were reported to have shot down British planes. The U. S. Fleet, which had been headed for the Panama Canal from Hawaii, returned to Hawaiian waters. The commander-in-chief said that the cruise was just a part of maneuvers, but observers believed that the Panama Canal had been the real destination. Returns of the fleet, those observers said, was caused by the trouble in the Far East.

Only One Team in County Softball League Unbeaten

Lakeview on Top With 4 Victories, No Losses; Two Tied for Second

Only one team, Lakeview, remained undefeated as the fourth week of play in the Hall County Softball League was ended. The Fire Department's team was topped from the no-loss column when they went down 25 to 8 before Cudd's team. Lakeview, however, stayed undefeated by downing the FFA boys 24 to 14. At the end of the third inning, the FFA boy led 14 to 4, but the powerful Lakeview team finally got started, and ran in 20 more tallies in the next two innings.

Phillips team went up a notch by downing The Democrat team 24 to 4. Travers were forced to forfeit another game when the entire team did not show up. The Grocers received the forfeited game.

Two games will be played Friday night, one between two local teams of women players, and one between an out-of-town team and a group of local all-stars. The out-of-town team has not yet been selected. Foster Watkins, supervisor, said. The Lakeview team is now on top with four victories and no losses. Tied for second are the Fire Department and Phillips.

Comments—

Last week The Democrat gave an account of the E. T. Vanover birthday dinner, and stated, "As a part of the entertainment a poll was taken as to their opinion of the coming governor's race. Governor Lee O'Daniel carried the group without an opposing vote." Our friend, R. P. Martin, one of those present, asked that we make a correction. "I did not favor O'Daniel and so expressed myself when the poll was taken," he said.

Bob Baskin of the Wichita Record News this week published last week's Democrat staff poet's effusion. I think he keeps publishing the poems in order to help me to become famous as a poet. It's mighty nice of him anyway, even though he is mistaken about me being the guilty person.

Tri-State Press of the Amarillo News also favored the poetry by reprinting it in Monday's issue, prefacing it with the remark, "FINAL—Tri-State Press will not reprint any future poems by the staff poet of The Memphis Democrat unless the poet sends a piece about how the present summer will affect the coming winter."

A WINTRY TALE By The Democrat Staff Poet That war a woman one time what got cast in a nother—at war the year nineteen hanner and ten, she war slowly blowin' away, all round her thar werst any men. She dug a hole way down in the ground—I figgers about six foot deep; and the sun, slowly kivered her up, as she lay down thar asleep.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Boren were Clarendon visitors Wednesday afternoon. Hollis Boren was in Wichita Falls on business Monday and in Mean on business Tuesday.

Mrs. F. C. Coyne of Amarillo, formerly of Memphis, underwent a major operation in the Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo recently. Her condition is reported favorable.

Great Britain got no breathing spell, however, even though German planes were sent to Rumania's aid. German air raiders heavily bombed England, killing at least 11 persons and injuring a score of others. The Nazis also claimed their first foothold on British soil, occupying the Channel islands of Goernsey and Jersey in a sudden surprise stroke. The islands, observers said, would give the Nazis stepping stones to the main island of Britain. Meanwhile in the United States, the defense program went on in a big way. The navy placed orders for 45 warships, to cost about half a billion dollars. At the same time the army gave promotions to 1,356 regular officers, and called to duty 9,300 reserve officers for intensive specialized training.

Hitler's War—
 tax is placed on those admissions of 20 cents or below.
 As for the increase on other products and services, here's a general idea of what the new defense measure brings on:
 Toilet preparations, from 10 to 11 per cent; automobile, 3 to 3 1-2 per cent; radios, 5 to 5 1-2 per cent; mechanical refrigerators 5 to 5 1-2 per cent; matches, 5 cents to 5 1-2 cents a thousand; electrical energy, 3 to 3 1-2 per cent; gasoline, 1 to 1 1-2 cents a gallon; lubricating oil, 4 to 4 1-2 cents a gallon; playing cards, 10 to 11 cents a pack; club dues and initiation fees, 10 to 11 per cent.
 Part of these taxes are known as "floor taxes" and apply to stock already on hand. Included among these products which the floor taxes affect are cigarettes, beer and liquor. The additional tax of $1 a barrel on beer, and 75c a gallon on liquor brings the taxes on these products to $6 a barrel on beer and $3 a gallon on liquor.
 More people will have to pay income taxes, too, since the exemptions have been lowered from $2,500 for married people to $2,000, and from $1,000 to $800 for single persons. The lowered exemptions are expected to bring in an extra $82,500,000, which will include $15,400,000 for new taxpayers and $67,100,000 from increased payments by the present taxpayers. The new income tax will be effective in 1940.
 Estate and gift taxes are also increased 10 per cent under the new measure.
 Altogether, the new taxes are expected to yield $4,692,000,000 in five years. The proceeds will be used to pay off the four billion defense loan. Issuance of the defense bonds was permitted by a clause in the act which raised the federal debt limit from 45 billion to 48 billion.

ALL FOR ONE

FULL SPEED AHEAD—that's the way in which plans, ideas, and enthusiasm for the coming Hall County Golden Jubilee celebration, to be held July 24, 25, and 26, are taking shape.

Up until the past two weeks, enthusiasm for the celebration was low, especially in the face of the European war. Then the Republican national convention moved the war down a notch or two in the news of the day.

Now the people of Hall County are going to town, as far as the Old Settlers Reunion and Rodeo is concerned. Everybody seems to have taken to heart the call for the "blackout of seriousness," and have cast aside their talk and fears of war for the coming month.

It isn't only in Memphis that Hall Countians are becoming more enthusiastic, but over the entire county. This was shown in the enthusiasm of the crowds at Lakeview and Estelline during the past week when the two booster trips were made.

Everybody is ready. And everybody will have to cooperate to make the celebration the success that it should be. Hall County will never have another 50th anniversary—they just don't come around but once.

Groundwork for the celebration is already well planned, but no venture can be successful with only groundwork. There is always the roof of the building to be built before the occupants can move in. Without the roof, the building would be extremely hot in hot weather, cold in cold weather, and wet in rainy weather.

In other words, those people, who are not on one of the many committees which include every community in the county, are needed to make the celebration a success.

000000 TODAY IS JULY 4

TODAY WE PAUSE in our regular activities to remember the day 164 years ago when our forefathers announced that this nation was a free nation, and that the United States had "full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent states may of right do."

Usually on July 4, we take advantage of the situation by celebrating, but we still realize why we celebrate. We know that without the courage of our forefathers we might still be under the control of some foreign power.

Those men had no facilities to depend on, no large numbers of arms to defend their declaration of independence. About all they had was courage.

Today that same courage is needed, not only by the people of the United States, but also by the nation from whom these people gained their independence. Great Britain today faces a far more powerful onslaught than did the United States in those early days. The Nazis have only a small channel of water to cross—the British had the Atlantic Ocean to cross in 1776 if they were to retain their hold on the colonies.

Perhaps when we set out today to remember that day 164 years ago, we should remember a day in the American history even earlier than that. We should remember the famous American "Turkey Day," and make July 4, and every other day too, for that matter, a day of thanks—thankful that we still retain that independence for which our forefathers sacrificed their lives.

000000 A NEW ROAD

OPENING OF THE FEEDER ROAD east of Memphis marks another step in the network of means of travel for citizens of this and surrounding counties.

The road is important for several reasons, foremost among them being the advantages farmers now have in bringing their products to market. No longer will these farmers have to wind around on crooked paths, narrow and unsafe bridges, and chug-hole roads.

Secondly, the road affords much better means of travel between Memphis and Wellington, and between Memphis and Hollis. Long, out-of-the-way routes will not have to be followed.

The road, of course, is not paved, but it is well built and surfaced with select material. Plans now are to secure money for hard-surfacing the road in the near future, although it is not known how long this may take. But, at any rate, it is already a great

NEWLIN

By MRS. FRED HEMPHILL

Summer "Daze"
With the advent of the "good old summertime" only a few days past, the thermometers hereabouts are registering in the high 90's and some afternoons reach several degrees past the 100 mark. High winds from the south seem to increase the lethargy of the idle populace, broken only by the occasional news cast heard in the several stores. July 4 will be celebrated in various ways here, with several family parties going fishing and on other outings, but with the majority the day will go unobserved. Crops in this vicinity are better at this time than for a number of years, but will soon be suffering for need of rain.

Orphans Home Picnic
The annual picnic held at the Baptist Orphans Home in Waxahachie was attended by Rev. L. J. Crawford, pastor at Newlin, and Mrs. John Burnett, Mrs. Lulu Nelson, Mrs. W. L. Kellison, and Mrs. Frank Ellis. They were accompanied by several others from Turkey. The church here made a large donation of food, clothing, and quilts to the home.

Quarterly Conference
The Methodist Churches of Newlin, Estelline, and Hulver held their third quarterly conference at the Estelline Church Sunday night with the district superintendent, Rev. Cal C. Wright, in charge. The pastors of the Newlin and Hulver churches, Rev. Vaughan and Rev. Robert Knight, returned Friday from a two-week stay in Dallas, where they attended a pastors school.

Candidate Speaking Here
Candidates for state, district, and county offices were present here Friday night at a speaking which was sponsored by the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. Approximately 20 candidates made speeches, and then a number of handmade articles were auctioned. Cake, ice cream, lemonade, and cookies were sold. The proceeds were $41.25, which was used to pay on the Methodist parsonage.

Fifth Sunday Meeting
Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Evans, and Miss Alma Rogers attended the Fifth Sunday meeting of the Baptist Church at Plaska Sunday.

Aultman Sims in Hospital
Aultman Sims, who has been ill at his home here, was taken to the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo last Monday and will remain there for an indefinite period for treatment.

Mrs. Shelton Home From Hospital
Mrs. T. R. Shelton was brought to her home here after a week's stay in a Memphis hospital. Mrs. Shelton is improving rapidly.

Kid Stuff
You adults may not care for the things found in this part of my column, but it isn't for you anyway. Instead it is for the children and juniors, who find interesting facts about animals, and those are the ones that find me a ready, interested listener. And the first is about a horned toad that may be a second cousin to old "Rip Van Winkle," who slept so peacefully inside a cornerstone for some 20 years in Eastland, Texas. Well, this toad didn't sleep that long inside any cornerstone, but he has been for the past eight weeks inside the pit in the gymnasium at the school, where no water or food is available. He was carelessly placed there at the close of school by some children and was discovered the other day, seemingly none-the-worse for his eight weeks' fast.

And the second story is about a terrapin, and how many know how long they live. Well, it seems a small boy found one in his garden and cut his initials on his back many years ago and forgot about it. The same terrapin was found with the same initials last week—about 15 years later. And to you adults who do read this and think that children never have any serious thoughts, just read the following, which was written by little 8-year-old Joe Bob Rowell, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rowell:
A Little Boy's Prayer
Keep them, I pray Thee, dearest Lord,
Keep them, for they are thine,
Thy sinners, whose lives burn out before their time,
Keep them, for they are in the world; tho' from the world apart.
When earthly pleasures tempt and allure; shelter them in thy heart.
Keep them and comfort them in loneliness and in pain,
When all through their life their soul seems but in vain,
Keep them and, Oh remember Lord, they have no one but thee;
Yet they have human hearts who need your sympathy,
Keep them as spotless as Thy cares,
Help them and call them, dear Lord, to rest.

Farm Engineering Course for Youths To Be Offered by Foxhall Motor Co.

At least ten free scholarships for the study of farm management and engineering will be awarded to farm youths in this vicinity, according to word received here this week by the Foxhall Motor Co.

The scholarships, available to young men between the ages of 18 and 25 who are actually engaged in farm work, will consist of home study course together with practical training and experience under local farm conditions. They are provided by the National Farm Youth Foundation, which has been created by the Ferguson-Sherman Manufacturing Corporation of Dearborn, Michigan, with the active co-operation of Henry Ford and Edsel Ford.

"Young men of the farm have not realized their opportunities on the home soil," said Henry Ford in announcing his participation in the Foundation. "As a result, many of them have left the farm."

"The family system of farming has suffered and we want to see it re-built. As a matter of fact, the Foundation seeks to help the young man of the farm to realize his aspirations for happiness and prosperity."

"I am told that eighty per cent of the graduates of agricultural colleges have been going to the towns and cities for their careers instead of returning to the farm. The remaining 20 per cent are not enough to give the farm the needed leadership in agricultural progress."

"Better farming methods today will mean better farms tomorrow and rural youth will be more inclined to stay close to the soil."

Young men enrolled under these scholarships also will compete for salaried jobs with the sponsoring company and its distributors. One student will be selected from this section to work at the factory for a year at a salary of $150 a month. He will be given specialized training in the use, application and the maintenance of the tractor and its equipment. Second award in this general area is a job with the distributor at $125 a month. Additional students will be placed in jobs as quickly as possible, with the eventual aim of giving them training and experience which they may bring to bear on future problems in their own community.

Success for local young men in the home field is the goal of the Foundation," says Ed Foxhall of the Foxhall Motor Co. Farm youths in the past have looked for opportunity elsewhere. Many could not finance a college education. Others found funds lacking to set up in farming for themselves.

"Even those who have gone to college have not found in local fields the opportunity they sought," he added. "Most of these boys wind up in towns and cities. If this movement can be halted the community will benefit by the training and education its own young men are receiving and will receive in the future."

Announcement of the scholarships was accompanied by the explanation that the Foundation does not conflict nor compete with the splendid work being done by the 4-H Clubs and the Smith-Hughes vocational agriculture high schools. Through its higher age limit it affords opportunity for study and advancement to farm youths who have already passed the age at which the activities of the organizations mentioned are available.

Young men, to be eligible for scholarships, must be between the ages already given, and must be American citizens, of good character, and actually work on a farm. Young men wishing to apply for enrollment or to secure more detailed information about the scholarships may do so by getting in touch with Foxhall Motor Co.

Members of the Grange, former associates of Jones on the House Committee of Agriculture, and many Congressmen and Senators and their wives, joined in the tribute to the man who has sponsored more farm legislation than has any other legislator in all congressional history.

Recognizing the occasion, President Roosevelt, unable to attend, wrote a letter complimenting Jones. The letter, in part, reads as follows: "There are few men who have done American agriculture and farmers a greater service than Marvin Jones. He knows farmers and farm problems. He sees agriculture as a whole and knows that enduring prosperity cannot be local or sectional. He has given agriculture and the country services that are without price. The work of men like Marvin Jones proves that democracy can be efficient and that it can and will be preserved."

Potomac Grange No. 1, the Grange of the Founders, was the original unit organized late in 1867, from which the approximate 8,000 similar local Granges in all parts of the country, with a total farm membership of nearly one million, have grown during the 75 years of Grange activities.

Mrs. Al Burke left last week for Lubbock, where she will attend Texas Tech for a month.

Roosevelt Writes Letter Complimenting Work Done For Agriculture by Jones

Marvin Jones, retiring Congressman from the 18th District of Texas, was guest of honor at the annual Congressional Dinner of "Potomac Grange No. 1" in Washington recently.

Members of the Grange, former associates of Jones on the House Committee of Agriculture, and many Congressmen and Senators and their wives, joined in the tribute to the man who has sponsored more farm legislation than has any other legislator in all congressional history.

Recognizing the occasion, President Roosevelt, unable to attend, wrote a letter complimenting Jones. The letter, in part, reads as follows: "There are few men who have done American agriculture and farmers a greater service than Marvin Jones. He knows farmers and farm problems. He sees agriculture as a whole and knows that enduring prosperity cannot be local or sectional. He has given agriculture and the country services that are without price. The work of men like Marvin Jones proves that democracy can be efficient and that it can and will be preserved."

Potomac Grange No. 1, the Grange of the Founders, was the original unit organized late in 1867, from which the approximate 8,000 similar local Granges in all parts of the country, with a total farm membership of nearly one million, have grown during the 75 years of Grange activities.

The beautiful and impressive service was read by her father, who is pastor of the First Baptist Church of Corsicana, in the presence of members of the two families and a number of out-of-town friends.

Nuptial vows were taken before the mirrored mantel in the living room, which was banked with clusters of fern and centered with a huge bouquet of soft pink peonies on either side of the mantel were palms and tall wrought-iron candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride wore a lovely gown of petal pink mousseline de sole over taffeta, especially designed for her, in the long-torso effect bodice, the fullness above ending in a low sweetheart neckline outlined with narrow ruching, short puffed sleeves, cuffed with a ruching band, and a very full skirt. She wore a fresh flower lei of pink carnations accented with blue agapanthus blossoms, held in place by bands of pink tulle that fell in veil effect to the waist line from a large bow. A blue net, polka-dot bonnet coronet formed a lovely frame for her face. She carried a beautiful colonial bouquet of pink rose buds and button asters, blue delphinium and white feverfew.

Dr. Baldwin was attended by his brother, Dr. Alvin Baldwin of Olney, and ushers were the bride's brother, Spurgeon Miller, and S. G. Fry.

Let's keep it American

THE European war has re-awakened Americans to the truth of the saying, "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

Our liberty is not immediately threatened. But it may be if we do not prepare to defend it from any possible attack. Such preparation is an effort in which everyone can share.

We favor adequate preparedness for national defense. This country's natural position gives us a great measure of security against threats from abroad. With careful preparation we can strengthen that position until no nation would dare attack us.

National defense is not only a matter of men, airplanes, battleships and guns. It also requires us to strengthen our American institutions, which are the very things we wish to protect and preserve. They must be preserved. It would be a bitter and ironic victory if, in order to defeat an enemy, we sidetracked the system of free enterprise and the personal liberties which distinguish the American way of life from the tyrannies of Europe and Asia.

Let's keep this country American. Government experts and civilian authorities are studying how to provide for our actual defense and each citizen's part in it. Meanwhile, the rest of us can help by doing our work, whatever it is, as well as we can.

That is what all the people of this company intend to do. Together with other electric companies, we have built a system capable of supplying the nation with electric service in any emergency. This system will be maintained and strengthened and we will continue our day-to-day effort to provide the dependable electric service that makes the United States a better place to live.

Formal Tea Is Given in Childress for Miss Mary Helen Hardin, Bride-Elect

Announcement of the approaching marriage on July 3 of Miss Mary Helen Hardin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom L. Hardin of Childress, and Robert Sexauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sexauer of Memphis, was made at a formal tea last Friday afternoon in the Hardin home in Childress.

Large baskets of gladioli and shasta daisies and attractive bouquets of var-colored verbenas, sweet peas, phlox, and day lilies added to the beauty of the living room of the Hardin home, where guests were received by Mrs. Hardin, Mrs. George Sexauer, Miss Helen Madden, the groom-elect's cousin, and the bride-elect.

Guests were directed to the dining room where a long mirror centered with water lilies and silver swans made a lake scene in the center of the tea table, which was covered with an imported linen cloth. Oxalis steno and dainty oxalis blossoms spelled the words, "Mary Helen," on one side of the lake scene and "Bob 3rd" on the other. Trail- ing ivy framed the lake scene. Miss Jane Hardin, sister of the bride-elect, presided at the large cut-glass punch bowl. Dainty oval and heart-shaped canapés, olives, sand tarts, and yellow rosebud mints were served from crystal service. Misses Loraine Breedlove, Faye Galyean, Billie Jarrell, Elizabeth Huggins, and Juanel Gloor, all of Childress, assisted in serving the guests.

Musical selections were by Miss Betty Jane Preston with her violin, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Coffey, both of Childress, and radio music entertained the guests.

Mrs. Hardin was assisted by Mesdames J. M. Crews, Tom Huggins, R. L. Gully, and E. S. Butcher of Childress.

Another party in the form of a coffee, complimenting Miss Hardin was given Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Whit Johnson of Childress with Mrs. Ralph Melbride as co-hostess.

Baskets of zinnias and phlox were attractively arranged in the rooms, and a blue bowl of perennial phlox and pink tapers in blue holders was arranged on the buffet.

A black bowl of phlox centered the linen-covered coffee table where Mrs. Tom Hardin, mother of the honoree, poured coffee. Fruit rolls, ice-box cookies, salted nuts, cherries, and mints were served buffet style.

After coffee was served, Miss Hardin was presented a gift of lingerie by the hostesses.

The guest list included Mesdames Donald Black, Eugene Smith, Presley Wright, Curtis Smith, Fred Sherwood, Joe A. Collins, McHenry Crawford, Tom Hardin, R. L. Gully, and Misses Elizabeth Huggins, Charlotte Boyd, Beulah Dorsey, Helen Gully, and the honoree, Miss Mary Helen Hardin.

Miss Mary Helen Hardin of Childress, bride-elect of Robert Sexauer of Memphis, was complimented with a breakfast and surprise handkerchief shower Monday morning at the home of Mrs. Charles Dorsey in Childress. Miss Beulah Dorsey and Mrs. Reid B. Scott were co-hostesses.

A color scheme of yellow and white was attractively carried out with a yellow cloth on the dining table and a centerpiece of yellow and white flowers.

After mixed fruit juices were served, a breakfast of scrambled eggs, Canadian bacon, fruit rolls, jellies, and coffee was served buffet style to the following: the honoree, Miss Hardin, and Mesdames Tom L. Hardin, Whit Johnson, Morris Huggley, Donald Black, Woodrow Carter, Charles Damron, Walter Roberge of Dallas, Roy Green, A. J. Brown, and Misses Charlotte Boyd, Ethel Biggerstaff, Helen Gully, and Jane Hardin.

Miss Mary Helen Hardin was complimented with a miscellaneous bridal shower Monday night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. M. Crews of Childress, with Mrs. C. F. Boyd and Mrs. Tom Huggins as co-hostesses.

Seventy-five guests assembled in the out-door living room of the Crews' home, and registered in the dainty bride's book at which Miss Jane Hardin, sister of the honoree, presided.

Sprays of butterfly bush frozen in a huge block of ice made a receptacle for the fruit punch, which was served by Miss Elizabeth Huggins and Miss Charlotte Boyd. The formal evening gowns of the house party added to the charm of the garden scene.

The honoree, in a pink-dotted sheer evening gown, and wearing a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds, was seated by her mother, Mrs. Tom Hardin, the groom-elect's mother. Mrs. George Sexauer, Miss Helen Madden, and Miss Jane Hardin.

Mrs. Bob Holland gave an appropriate reading, closing with the poem, "The Little Old Lady in Lavender Silk," by Dorothy Parker and many gifts were then presented to the honoree by the hostesses and little Virginia Ann Farmer of Plainview.

33-Year-Old Resident Shot to Death; Burial At Fairview Cemetery

Funeral services for Omer Johnsey, 38, were held Thursday afternoon, June 20, 5pm, from the First Methodist Church in Memphis, with Rev. O. W. Carter, Childrens pastor, in charge of the rites, assisted by Rev. E. L. Yeats, local pastor.

Johnsey was shot to death at his home near Tell Wednesday afternoon, June 19. His wife, Mrs. Virginia L. Johnsey, who until several months ago was a ward in the state hospital at Wichita Falls, admitted the slaying shortly after. She is now in the state hospital at Austin.

Survivors include his wife, a son Omer, Jr., his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnsey of Memphis, three brothers, Irvin and Randolph of Memphis, and Oliver of Fort Worth, and five sisters, Mrs. W. H. Brown and Mrs. J. J. Sturges of Fort Worth, Mrs. L. H. Reneberg of Mobile, Ala., Mrs. Marvin Branch of Munday, and Frankie Johnsey of Memphis.

Pallbearers were C. L. Sloan, Glynn Thompson, Oscar Crain, Leonard Doss Zeb Moore, and Frank Garrett.

Interment was in the Fairview Cemetery with King's Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Music at the church, in addition to the choir, was furnished by a duet of Harry Delaney and T. E. Noel. Johnsey was once a member of a quartet made up of Delaney, Noel, and David Fitzgerald, who is now dead.

Johnsey was born in Hunt County, and was 38 years, 10 months and 18 days old at the time of his death. He came to Hall County with his parents while still a small child. He was employed in the Memphis post office several years and was engaged in farming near Tell.

It May Be Early, But First Cotton Blooms Show Up

It may be a little early to say how much cotton the county will make, but it's not too early to boast of a showing.

A cotton bloom was brought to The Democrat office last week by J. R. Harrell, who said he found the bloom in a field belonging to Grover Roden south and east of Memphis.

There were several other blooms already in the field at that time, June 23, Mr. Harrell said. Ordinarily, he said, it is usually after July 4 that many blooms are found in Hall County.

In addition, two stalks were brought in from the Walter McCracken farm near Lakeview. One stalk had three blooms, a few small bolls, and a few squares. The other had only one bloom and a few squares. Most of the cotton in a 65-acre patch has blooms, McCracken said.

GOODBYE!

Friends, Competitors, Enemies and Perjurers

FRIENDS

I am glad that most of you are my friends! I have realized it more and more the past few months. And I am proud of the fact that my friends are REAL instead of the fair-weather kind. Going away is hurting me more because it is my friends and family, than because I will lose my freedom. Since so many have been kind to me and my family, and have offered your sympathy and aid, it makes me realize the value of friendship!

From the standpoint of business I appreciate very much the business you have given me. It is a known fact that a man's customers are among his friends and not his enemies, and as I have sold and resold so many of you, I feel that all of you are my friends. I am leaving my business in my wife's hands and she will carry on. I am not asking for charity, either for myself or for my wife and children, but I will appreciate any business you can bring their way.

You will still get the good merchandise that we have always handled at The House of Quality and the same guarantees which we have been so proud of. It is a pleasant fact that of all the thousands of dollars in merchandise that we have sold, customers have not been out one cent for repairs or other expenditures during guarantee periods.

I hope to be back with you sometime, but realizing the ever present factor of human frailties, I do know that I may not come this way again. And if fortune so favors me as to permit me to walk a free man again among you, realize that some of my friends will answer the Last Call while I am gone. It is my wish in this farewell message that all of us will so construe our part that if we are not privileged to meet again in this plane, we can enjoy the pleasures of friendship in that sunlit valley beyond the vale of tears that marks Journey's End.

COMPETITORS

"When the One Great Scorer Comes to write against your name It isn't whether you won or lost But how you played the game!"

I have enjoyed the game and hope that you feel as kindly toward me as I do toward you. I have won when I could, and I hope that I have lost like a good sport when I won.

ENEMIES

I only wish that we could have been friends! Too often slight misunderstandings cause bad feelings. Understanding would translate enemies into friends.

PROFESSIONAL POLITICIANS

Being childless, therefore heartless, not much can be said. I will just let "The People's Friend," W. Lee O' tell it to you.

PERJURERS

(Who can see anything at any distance on the darkest night and see through his own and around corners.) May the Good Lord forgive you. And may He bring forgiveness into my heart so that when we face the Golden Bar of Justice in the world, where an all-wise and understanding Judge permits no perjury, we can spend eternity in the cloistered sanctuary of His love.
