THIS AND THAT

...nes, you know, we highly ...nists run out of ideas. ...being written Monday ...night about eleven o'clock. I have just stepped back to the shop and asked for assistance.

"Herschel," I queried, "what will I write about?"

"Write about five or six lines and give the subscribers a break," he answered.

Isn't that disgusting, when your own companions in labor won't respect your gray hairs and declining years?

Hopefully, I slung the same question at Thos. B. Huff.

"What's the matter, Lyman," he answered, "are you out of soap?"

"He never did have any in the first place," M. G. Ray volunteered.

I've been thinking for some time that we need a new foreman Democrat.

...often, the "devils", sup- ...be the lowliest of the ...ound print shops, aren't ...as they look. As a rule, ...ould be impossible, anyway. So I sought our devil, Tommy Wood, since I had received absolutely no encouragement and two bum wisecracks from our alleged printers.

"Tommy," I asked in all seriousness, "what do you suggest for my column this week?"

"Oh!" Tommy exclaimed as he brushed a few type lice out of the way with his left hand, "do you write a column?"

And I've been thinking I was famous all this time!

That, gentle reader, is a fair example of encouragement I get right under my very own roof.

I know you folks are simply dying to hear more about my mustache, and I'll not keep you in suspense any longer. My mustache enjoyed such unprecedented development in the past week I thought it would be appropriate

See for yourself that I have really succeeded. Yea, verily, I am even taking my coffee in a mustache cup now.

I doubt if my mother realized when she was bringing me up that I'd some day be a big mustache man from the west. How proud she must be!

Well, folks, here it is Wednesday night and I am still wondering what to say, although the boys in the shop have been reminding me constantly that this column should be finished.

But after celebrating a glorious Armistice Day and a more glorious Armistice Night, I don't believe that I am supposed to know of anything to write about and I am sure I wouldn't want to if I did!

However, I would like to remind you readers that due to the intense excitement and added physical effort expended during the national holiday that my mustache failed to grow any whatsoever and my countenance still remains the same as you see it in the picture above.

But before I close this most desirable feature of Your Home Paper I want to let you in on the week's greatest news: I have been asked to appear on the chapel program at the Junior High School this week, which is National Good English Week, speaking on the subject, "The Use of Good English." Can you feature that!

Miss Wittie Scruggs of Wellington visited her aunt, Mrs. D. S. Baker here Saturday night and Sunday.

Here and There
IN SPORTS
BY ADRIAN ODOM

When the Cyclone defeated McLean last Thursday, it showed some of its old fight. The team dropped after some hard games, which was good for the players, and now it is climbing back to its old position prepared for several hard battles. If the team had not dropped against Shamrock, it might snap before Clarendon or some other team if it continues toward district honors. Now they will put up a real fight, even if they lose.

A team that is climbing is always better than the squad that has been at its peak for several weeks. Clarendon has not had the let down that is expected of every team. With two weeks rest between games, they may not have a let down at all, but if there is a break, it will be in favor of the local squad.

The Bronchos are concentrating on one thing, "Get Hammond." A Clarendon newspaper said that Hammond will be smothered throughout the entire game and that he will never be able to get loose as he did before. Fortunately, the Cyclone is not a one man team. There are others who will be going on down the field while Clarendon is watching Hammond. S. M. U. smothered Leland last year, but while they were doing this, Griffith and Green ran away with the game.

The Cyclone will be fighting Friday for more than just another victory; it will be fighting to uphold a tradition. The Twisters have never met defeat while on the gridiron against Clarendon. In seven games played, four have ended with the count even, and in three of them, the Cyclone has carried the heavy end of the scoring. In this week's contest, Clarendon is confident of a win; the Cyclone will never let it happen if anything can stop them.

The contest with Estelline Tuesday was a repetition of the brand of football the Cyclone used against Shamrock. The Cubs played far over their heads and almost won what the local squad thought would be an easy victory. The Twisters showed the poorest aggressive power that they here this season. Buster Leslie led the defense with some brilliant playing on end, but failed to do much work on the offense.

The decisive battle of the Southwestern Conference will be played Saturday. Texas U. invades the Horned Frogs' territory in Fort Worth, and will attempt to stop them in their run for a second conference championship. With the Steers playing football as they did against S. M. U., this may be possible, but if T. C. U. wins, the championship is almost theirs.

Last week, the Christians showed their real strength by swamping a team that was picked as a possible winner earlier in the season. Texas has done more damage than any other team in the conference, throwing both S. M. U. and Baylor out of the running. Both the Steers and Frogs are due a defeat this week, but the Fort Worth team needs only a tie to stay on top. The Methodists meet the Navy in an inter-sectional game. The Mustangs are not supposed to have a chance to win, but they are very likely to do so.

Basketball season will soon be here again. The Cyclone will meet Estelline and Turkey during the latter part of January for county honors. For the first time, the Cyclone has a good chance to outclass their Cub rivals. Prepare to back the Cyclone for county cage champions.

Misses Florence Wherry, Zada Bell Walker and Cleron McMurry, students at Simmons University at Abilene visited home-folks Saturday and Sunday. Misses Janice Miller, Ernestine Walker and Spurgeon Miller accompanied them to Abilene Monday to attend a Home-Coming of ex-students, ex-cow girls and dads there Armistice Day.

Mrs. Alfred Stone and daughter, Margery Don, left Sunday for their home at Ada, Oklahoma, after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis.

Lowell Wells of Wellington spent Saturday night and Sunday here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wells.

Matt Ward, racing driver, drove to victory on Armistice Day in two of the events in a car fueled with SINCLAIR H.C. GAS and SINCLAIR MOBILINE OIL. His speed was upwards of 70 miles an hour.

Matt Ward Says:
"Years of racing experience have taught me that it pays to be particular about the kind of oil and gas I use in my cars. I used Sinclair High Compression Gasoline in the races at Memphis Tuesday because I knew this fine product would assure greater power and speed and perfect combustion. To be sure of a smooth-running, perfectly lubricated motor I used Sinclair Mobiline. I think Sinclair Products helped me win the races."

Gas and oil that will stand the gruelling test of racing are surely worthy products. You haven't enjoyed motoring at its best until you use Sinclair Products.

loving glances in the direction of Dwight Morrow. He sewed up the Mexican situation and he might sew up the Presidency, they figure.

On the other hand, the Democrats have a number of men to select from for an outstanding Presidential nominee. Governor Ritchie of Maryland is good timber. Franklin D. Roosevelt is a Protestant, unaffiliated with Tammany Hall and unlikely to ever invite the Pope of Rome over for Americans to kiss his toe. There is Newton D. Baker, a little man with a big brain, who served as Secretary of War in Wilson's cabinet. Baker is a competent man and big enough for the Presidency. Last, but not least, our choice falls on the head of a Southern Senator, Joe Robinson of Arkansas. I think he is the best man in the field, and if he is not in the field, just write him and make inquiry.

At the next session of Congress, the Democrats will have about the same say as the Republicans and the Democrats the same say as the Democrats. Such being the case, oratory should be expended in endless streams, for there is not a man in Congress but casts longing eyes in the general direction of the White House, and every Congressman and Senator feels in his bones he would make an outstanding chief executive. They are really not to blame, for self-inflation goes with the positions they occupy.

In the meantime, while Congress is in the throes of deliberations, what is to happen to the country? How will the unemployment crisis be met? I believe party differences should be buried under the political sands and real action be taken. If we can only get those who wear the purple robes to act. They will get their $10,000 per annum as long as they remain in office, no matter to what extent the country goes to the proverbial bow-wow. Here is an opportunity for real constructive leadership. Hoover has tried to lead, but he has tripped himself up with committees and commissions. The times demand that red tape be discarded and something of a constructive nature evolved to alleviate the burdens of ordinary human beings. The man who leads us from the present chaos stands on the verge of the Presidency.

Jack Shores, also of Oklahoma City, coming in first in the other race.

Ward Wins Two Races

In the first race, Matt Ward raced Jimmie Arnold of Omaha. Arnold drove a Chevrolet and Ward won the race by half a length. Jack Shores, driving a De Soto, defeated Ward in the second fifteen lap event by one length, averaging 75 miles per hour. Ward took first place in the third race, which was a free for all forty lap contest, with a time of 19 minutes and 26 seconds for the 25 miles. Murry Brewer, of Silk City, Oklahoma, driving a Ford, finished second and Jimmie Arnold came in third.

Players Are Injured

Captain James Hammond, that stalwart among stalwarts, is suffering from injuries, although he will probably be in condition to start the game. Tug Sanders is also considerably "under the weather," but will likely start. Both players did not even suit out for the contest with Estelline. J. W. West, Albert Pearson, Cecil Stargel, J. D. Jackson and several of the other regulars are suffering from minor injuries, but will be in there Friday giving everything they have for the Black and Gold colors of Memphis High School.

Clarendon Scouts Game

Clarendon has been down in full force to scout both the McLean and Estelline games, but Memphis has shown them very few plays and they have learned practically nothing. The Cyclone will uncork everything they have in their bag of tricks Friday. It is not known what defense the locals will offer to Clarendon's overhead attack, but it is safe to say they will have one and a good one at that, while on the offensive, they will open up a brand of football that Clarendon will have to hustle to cope with.

Game Called at 2:30
The game will be played at Owl promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Tickets may be purchased in advance of the contest or at the game. Adult tickets will be 75 cents each and student and children's tickets will be 35 cents each. Clarendon has promised to bring down a large crowd, headed by a band, and efforts are being made to have a local band present for the game. Special stunts will be performed between halves by the pep squads of the two schools. A crowd of from 2,000 to 3,000 people is expected to witness the crucial contest.

Tickets For Grid—

etc., but the prices were arrived at by both the Memphis and Clarendon schools and it is believed that the prices are not exorbitant, considering the good game expected. Mr. Cowan urges those who expect to attend the game to purchase their tickets in advance so that there will be little congestion at the gates prior to the opening of the game.

It is understood that a large block of tickets have been sent to Clarendon as advices from the neighboring city indicate that a record crowd will accompany the Bronchos on their quest for sectional honors.

Here are the first published views of the new Chevrolet Six for 1931. On the right is a head-on view showing the new radiator grille and cowl lamps on the sport models, as well as the extensively changed front end design on the entire new line. Below are the sport roadster and special sedan. Numbered among improvements on the new models are larger and roomier bodies, longer wheelbase and scores of refinements in appearance and performance despite the new prices which bring the level for the 1931 car to a lower figure than any Chevrolet, four or six, has ever sold. The new cars will be shown in Memphis beginning tomorrow (Saturday) by the D & P Chevrolet Company, local dealers.

Next Thursday 'Mallard Day' At Lions Club

To show their appreciation of the fact that Dr. J. Hardin Mallard is leaving Memphis soon, the Memphis Lions Club yesterday officially designated Thursday, November 20 as "Mallard Day."

In making the announcement, Lion Odum, chairman of the program committee, said, "During the two years and a half 'Windy' Mallard has been a member of our Lions Club he has never got to say as much as he wanted to at one luncheon. We are therefore setting aside next Thursday as his day. He can talk as long as he wants to."

Dr. Mallard, who is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, would not divulge his plans but it is understood he will make some sensational statements during the hour that will be entirely his.

It is likely that local merchants will be asked to close their stores on Mallard Day and plans are being formulated for a parade just prior to the event.

J. W. MITCHELL'S HOME AT LAKEVIEW BURNS

LAKEVIEW, Nov. 13.—The home belonging to J. W. Mitchell was destroyed by fire at about 11 o'clock last night. The house and household goods, valued at $2,500, were a total loss. Mr. Mitchell was in Memphis when the fire broke out, his wife and 7-year-old daughter were in Duncan, Okla., and a son was at a neighbor's house awaiting the return of his father. Faulty electric wiring is believed to have started the blaze. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

Ima Joe Mitchell, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell of Lakeview, who is in a Duncan, Oklahoma, sanitarium receiving treatments, is reported unimproved.

Lapse Of Memory Believed Reason For Boy's Absence

J. E. Jones, 16 year old son of A. H. Jones, of near Harrell Chapel returned to his home last Sunday night after an absence of two weeks. According to Lee Guthrie of the Farmers' Union

Supply Company, J. E.'s shoes were missing, his clothing was torn and he was sick from exposure. It is the doctor's belief that he had spent the two weeks wandering about in the canyons several miles from his home after a total lapse of memory.

Wake Up Sunday Morning
J. E. stated that he woke up Sunday morning, thinking that his father was calling him to get up. The first indication that he had that he was not at home was when he discovered that he was lying on a large rock. When he discovered where he was, he became frantic and began a long walk home. He was half crazed, half starved and sick from exposure, Mr. Guthrie said. After an all day journey, during which he would run a few yards and then fall, he arrived home just before dark. Although J. E. is getting well rapidly, he cannot remember leaving home and has no idea of how he spent the two weeks.

Cyclone: Beat Clarendon! YOU CAN! YOU WILL! YOU MUST!

The Eyes of Memphis Are Upon You!

The showdown has come. It is up to Memphis to keep the tradition intact. Clarendon has never defeated Memphis. It is not in the realm of possibility that they will do so unless the local boys let-down. We do not believe there will be any giving in. Too much is at stake. On Friday, the eyes of this entire section will be focused on Memphis. If the Cyclone wins, it will mean added renown for the individual players and for the town at large. If the Cyclone loses, our stock will take a tremendous fall. Get in there! Stay in there! Give the Donley County boys a-plenty and you know what that is!

Facts About The Game:

DATE: Friday, November 14
PLACE: Owl Park, Memphis
TIME: 2:30 P. M.
ADMISSION: 35c and 75c
IMPORTANCE: Winner is champion of Section B, District 1, Class B.

The Cyclone will go into the game Friday knowing exactly what they are going up against. It is going to be a hard battle any way you take it. For the sake of your town, your school, your coach, your supporters—for the sake of all that is near and dear to Memphis—win that game! When the coach sends you on the field, he will have done all he can to win the game. The coach can use all his knowledge, everything he has, but unless you put this into practice, unless you are willing to give of your very best, it will be to no avail. But we believe in you—we know you will win.

These Folks and Hundreds of Others Are Backing You to Win Friday!

MCLEAN SEES CHANCE AT TITLE FADE AWAY AS LOCALS WIN 33-6

Flanery and Durrett Play Stellar Game Of Their Short Gridiron Career; Sanders Stars In Line

The Memphis Cyclone staged a victory at Owl Park last Thursday afternoon and avenged their previous week by defeating the McLean Tigers the small 33 to 6 score. This victory stopped the visitors' race for sectional honors and paved one more step in the locals climb toward a district championship. Although the Cyclone showed some of its old fight, the team as a whole did not play the brand of football that it has been showing throughout the greater part of the season.

New Players Star
Two members of the local squad, who are playing their first year with the Twisters, showed up in this contest, proving that they are valuable material. Charles Flanery, 14 year old Cyclone quarterback, played the outstanding game of his short grid career, displaying speed and an ability at broken field running that makes him a very valuable man. Charles is also developing a good "football head," that is essential to any player in his position. That is Barton Durrett, who is the first real player that Durrett has had to play, although he has played twice in previous contests. He showed speed and power and won for himself an alternate position with Jarvis at right half. Both players accounted for two touchdowns during the game; Flanery making his on 31 and 47 yard runs.

Sanders Stars In Line
The Cyclone line failed to play its usual brand of football. Without much opposition, it was hard for the linemen to put forth all that they had, and only at times did they do their best. With perhaps one exception this is true. That exception is "Tug" Sanders. Despite an injury that slowed him down considerably, Tug played real football until a substitute ended his troubles. Sanders tore through the line on almost every play directed at him and stopped some plays that started toward the opposite side of the line. He did as well making holes for Cyclone backs to plunge through as he did in filling holes that the opponents were attempting to make use of.

Tigers Fight Hard
This game was not an upset; the results were expected. The Tigers played the best game they could, and although theirs was a losing game, it was a good one. (Continued on page 7)

FINAL SERVICES OF CONFERENCE YEAR SUNDAY

Tributes Are Given To Work Pastor Of Church Has Done

The Sunday evening services at the First Methodist church were in the nature of tributes to the ministry of Dr. Ernest E. Robinson as pastor of the local church and special musical numbers rendered by the choir. Among those who told how much Dr. Robinson had meant to the life of the church in this section were W. A. Thompson, superintendent of the Sunday School, who also explained the envelope system of giving; Lee Guthrie, lay leader; Melvin Jones, representing the young peoples' organizations; W. P. Dial, president of the board of Stewards and V. Clark, member of the board. Mrs. M. G. Tarver paid tribute to Dr. Robinson's efforts from the choir.

WEATHER MAN GETTING MIXED UP ON SEASONS

The weather man may be getting mixed up on his seasons. Z. E. Edwards, who lives on West Dover Street, brought a healthy looking cherry blossom to The Democrat office Monday, which he clipped from a tree in his yard. "It's a sure sign of spring," Mr. Edwards said, but still his meaning was clouded.

CORRESPONDENTS ASKED TO ATTEND GRID GAME

Representatives of several of the larger daily newspapers published in this section of the state have been invited to attend the Memphis-Clarendon football game Friday as guests of The Democrat. It is hoped to have adequate accounts of the game in the press, which explains the invitations extended.

School Officials Perfect Luncheon Club Last Friday

According to a number of teachers who attended, the Hall County Teachers' Institute, in session Thursday and Friday of last week, was by far the best meeting of this kind held within recent years. Two outstanding college instructors, Dr. W. A. Jackson of Texas Technological College and Professor Stuart H. Condon of the West Texas State Teachers' College, were headliners on the two day program, in addition to a number of other speakers. The musical programs were given under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Morgan Andrews and Mrs. Elmer S. Shelley and were greatly appreciated.

COL. MATKIN IS ELECTED LOCAL PUBLIC WEIGHER

Through an oversight, The Democrat failed to mention last week that Col. C. T. Matkin, manager of the Memphis Compress Company, was elected to the office of public weigher in the elections last week. Col. Matkin received the vote. "Some of those liars on the corner are responsible," the Colonel said.

ABILITY

(An Editorial)

A person's ability is based upon his knowledge, and competence of the certain thing which he proposes to do. Training is usually the way in which men and women acquire knowledge. Many men who have applied for positions have been turned down because they did not have the proper training to have knowledge and competence for that position. Ability might be considered the way in which a man approaches another. Men often fail to gain jobs because they do not approach them in the correct manner. They probably had the knowledge required for the position, but they failed to impress the manager, who considered that they did not have the ability to do the job in the proper way. We, as school students, should be more able than the past generation because we have the opportunity to learn more than they.

We are provided with public schools and free training in such lines, and today we specialize on certain trades while the past generations tried to acquire knowledge of several trades. We should be able to apply ourselves better than the past generations. Our parents realize the reason for the inability of so many of the men today, and have provided schools so that we may have the opportunity to avoid these same mistakes. Our English and other subjects should prepare us in such a manner that we should be able to impress anyone of our ability for a position. Good English is one of the greatest assets that a man can have in the business world. By using good English that we should learn in our schools today, we should be able to impress anyone more favorably than before. If we intend to be a success in this world we must learn our English language.

Strange Case Of This Man Speaks For Crazy Water

Thought To Be Hopeless Yet He Lived To Tell His Story

Three weeks ago today, I came to the Crazy Water Hotel on a stretcher from the city of Lubbock, Texas, with what the doctors called Typhoid Spine, and they told me that there was no medicine that would cure me. I started drinking Crazy Water and taking the baths, and on the 12th day after arriving, I took to the wheel chair and on the 17th day I started walking on crutches and can now walk without them, so I feel if Crazy Water will do that for me I cannot say enough for it.

Pep Rally Is On Chapel Program Last Wednesday

The chapel program last Wednesday was turned into a pep rally for the purpose of arousing interest in the football game played last Thursday with McLean. The program was opened with a song, during which the football team marched into the auditorium. Several yells and talks followed.

Lester C. Linn made the first talk, in which he referred to the last game with Clarendon. He gave an interesting account of the come-back the locals staged in the third quarter of that game. Mrs. Elmer S. Shelley also gave an interesting talk. Superintendent Jackson stated that he had relatives who would attend the game and he wanted them to see the team at their best. Sam S. Cowan said he wanted the Cyclone to win so that he might go to the "kickers" and say, "I told you so."

PROGRAMS WILL BE PUBLISHED FOR CONTEST

Darrell Grundy Will Have Programs For Clarendon Game

Darrell Grundy, one of the pep leaders for the Cyclone is working on an official program for the crucial game between Memphis and Clarendon Friday afternoon of this week. The program is to be something like the one presented by Clarendon in the game there October 24. On the front page will be the pictures of the two captains, Hammond and Nichols. The second page contains Memphis' past record and the third the Broncho lineup. (Continued on page 7)

CAGE SCHEDULE IS PERFECTED FOR COUNTY

Local Basketeers To Start Practice As Grid Season Ends

The county basketball championship of Class A, which includes Memphis, Estelline and Turkey, will be determined by a round-robin tournament this season, according to Coach Nolan Walter. Because the local gymnasium is smaller than required for conference games, none of these contests will be held here.

Conference Schedule

The schedule for all conference games are as follows: Jan. 26, Memphis at Estelline, Jan. 28, Estelline at Turkey, Jan. 30, Memphis at Turkey, Feb. 2, Turkey at Estelline, Feb. 4, Memphis at Estelline, and Feb. 6, Memphis at Turkey.

Cyclonettes Drop Second Cage Game To All Star Team

The Cyclonettes lost their second cage contest of the season last Friday night to the Memphis All Stars. The game was a close one, ending 26 to 24. Led by Captain Wilma Gilreath, the Cyclonettes put up a good fight, but they were slightly overpowered by the experienced all star squad.

Most of the members of the Cyclonette squad are inexperienced players, either playing their first or second year, but with little more practice, they will be ready for the season, which now appears will be a successful one. The defeat gave Miss Ruth Pendergrass, coach, a chance to correct some errors that had not appeared during earlier practice.

Interesting Chapel Program Featured By Song And Dance

One of the most interesting chapel programs of the year was given last Monday morning at the high school by Mrs. Elmer S. Shelley. The program started with the student body singing, "The Eyes of Memphis Are Upon You," while the football team marched into the auditorium. This was followed by two snappy yells and a talk by Mrs. Shelley, in which she complimented different players on the work they had done in previous games, and told what was expected of them in Friday's contest.

Gayle Greene, accompanied by Mrs. Shelley, sang "Give Me the Open Road" and an encore. This was followed by a Spanish dance given by Miss Anna Laura Carter. Bob Foote, representing a modern young man, and Guthrie Bennett, dressed as a "flapper," ended the program with a song, "Be Careful With Those Eyes." They were accompanied by Gayle Greene and Miss Carter in an encore.

Visitors Present

Several visitors were present to see this program. They were Misses Jo Ann Estes, Mazie Perkins, Loree Duke and Frances Denny and Russell Clark.

Design For Club Pins Is Selected At C.A.B. Meeting

The C. A. B. Club held its regular meeting last Wednesday afternoon in the high school auditorium, for the purpose of selecting club pins. On Monday, two designs of pins had been presented to the club by the Star Engraving Company, and one of these was selected.

The design chosen was a yellow taxicab with the letters C A B written across it in green. Under-

FOOTBALL TEAM GIVEN DANCE BY GIRLS

Pep Squad Plans To Have Party After Clarendon Game

Miss Iris Hollis, assisted by members of the pep squad, gave a dance and bridge party last Friday evening at her home on West Main street, honoring the Cyclone football squad. Almost every member of the pep squad and team was present. Several tables for games were placed about the room, and bridge and hearts proved to be the most interesting games of the evening. Punch was served, and dancing was enjoyed until 11:30.

Entertainment Being Planned

Another entertainment is being planned by the pep squad for the football squad and the visiting Clarendon team Friday night following the Memphis-Clarendon

Superintendent Is Well Pleased With Teachers' Meeting

Superintendent H. A. Jackson has expressed himself as being well pleased with the Hall County Teachers' Institute which convened at the high school Thursday and Friday of last week. He stated he thought it was one of the most successful that had been held in the county of recent years. More than 170 teachers representing every school in the county attended.

Many interesting and informative talks were given during the two day meeting, the two most prominent speakers being Dr. W. A. Jackson of Texas Tech and Professor Stuart H. Condron of W. T. S. T. C. The musical features of the program were presented by local talent and seemed to register well with the teachers.

Pep Rally Is Held By Students Last Wednesday Night

A pep rally was held on the courthouse lawn last Wednesday night. A large body of high school students in addition to the pep squad assembled on the steps of the courthouse, and led by Iris Hollis, gave several yells and songs. They then joined hands while they ran in and out of business houses giving more yells and singing. Following this they gave some snappy yells on the corner of the square in front of Tarvers'.

Plans are being made for this to be the best affair of the entire season.

BLACK AND GOLD COLOR SCHEME CARRIED OUT

Pep Squad Stunt At End of Dinner Is Novel Diversion

Members of the 1930 football squad of Memphis High School, school officials and invited guests were tendered a "Beat Clarendon" banquet by The Democrat at the banquet room of the Memphis Hotel Saturday evening of last week beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The decorations were under the supervision of Mrs. Elmer S. Shelley and Iris Hollis, Guthrie Bennett, Bob Foote, member of high school pep squad, Emmett Walker and R. C. ...

54 Guests Present

Places were laid for 54 guests. Two of the tables, at which the players were seated, were centered with miniature football fields with the goal posts wrapped in the colors of Memphis, black and gold, and of Clarendon, maroon and white. Autumn chrysanthemums and pompons, in colors of gold and yellow, were used in profusion in black vases, further carrying out the color scheme of black and gold. Immediately in the center of the banquet hall was a large sign reading: "Memphis 31, Clarendon 25," the results of the last grid contest between the two schools. Suspended to this sign was the football used in the game between Clarendon and Memphis, which had been presented to Captain James Hammond. Everywhere about the room were displayed signs, "Beat Clarendon." Football blankets and were displayed in the hall.

A PANHANDLE SCENIC SPOT

AGITATION has been going forward for several years seeking to have the Palo Duro Canyon set aside as a state park. Action at Austin is necessarily slow and anything or nothing is likely to happen. However, we of the Panhandle should be willing to capitalize on our resources, and most certainly, the Palo Duro Canyon may be included in that category. As is natural, a number of towns throughout this section are wanting to grab the entire benefit to accrue from the canyon if it is ever made into a state or national playground. If something is to really be accomplished with this beauty spot, it is going to take cooperation on the part of the entire section as a whole. We must pull together and not separately.

It has often been suggested that Amarillo is attempting to "horn in" and take the lion's share of the benefits that will certainly accrue from a Panhandle playground. We believe Amarillo is looking at the matter in a broader and more unselfish light than some would have us believe. It is true she wants everything that will help her development, but she realizes that she grows only in proportion with the growth of other Panhandle cities and towns. If, for instance, it should be ascertained that Amarillo desires to have the playground to serve her own, let us say, selfish motives, trade that has been going her way would be turned in the direction of Wichita Falls. Both cities are about the same size and both are rivals for business throughout this part of the state. Being closer to Amarillo than we are to Wichita Falls, it is only natural for us to look to the former rather than to the latter as a western metropolis. However, our ideas could be made to change without any great effort if it should be proved that Amarillo wants the "whole hog" in the matter of a state or national playground.

THE EMPTY STOCKING CRUSADE

AS Christmas nears, we hope our readers, and more especially, those who reside in Memphis, will seriously consider making donations for the Empty Stocking Crusade started last week by The Democrat. This movement has been launched to provide Christmas cheer for the many local kiddies who will be denied a happy yule-tide season if some provision is not made to care for their needs. No large sum of money is needed, but enough should be subscribed for the committee to purchase those little things that make children look forward each year to the visit of Good Old Saint Nick.

The Democrat will be glad to accept all donations. Checks or money orders should be made payable to "Empty Stocking Crusade." All funds will be turned over to Thos. E. Noel, who will act as treasurer, and the committee of five women will disburse these funds. Proper

Sandwiches Are To Be Served Here By Tarver's Pharmacy

Sandwiches are now being served at the fountain of Tarver's Pharmacy. A new and modern machine was installed this week. Its outstanding feature is the method in which it toasts bread. An ice cream sandwich can be made on this machine, with the bread being toasted a golden brown without melting the cream, or raw meat may be cooked within the sandwich without burning the bread.

Tarver's will feature 30 different kinds of sandwiches, including all popular sandwiches and combinations. In a window display arranged by Jim Stanford Wednesday, old fashioned Virginia ham was featured.

Tarver's is now prepared to serve any kind of sandwich along with either cold or hot drinks at their fountain.

THE CHARITIES SHOULD BE CONTINUED

ANNOUNCEMENT was made in the news columns of The Democrat last week to the effect that the United Charities of Memphis had been forced to cease operations due to a shortage of funds. An effort will be made to keep the organization alive and functioning. During the two years of its existence in this city, the record made by the United Charities speaks for itself. It has administered to the needy and suffering humanity in a quiet and unostentatious way and we firmly believe the organization has sold itself to the community.

Repeated requests are being made daily of officials of the organization for aid and relief, but nothing can be done as the treasury is empty. We know the stress of the times and how hard it is to combat the financial depression that has swept the country. But if there is any one movement that should commend itself to our people as being eminently worth the while, it is the charity movement.

We have been placed in a position of vantage where we have been able to watch practically every move the organization has made during its existence. Some mistakes have been made, certainly. But for the most part, only deserving cases have been aided. Some $2,400 has been expended. A burden has been taken from the shoulders of local merchants and business men. The present situation demands that the organization have new life, new impetus, new hope. We can not possibly contribute to a more worthy cause than that of sweet charity. We are hopeful that Memphis will rise to the occasion and continue the good work that has gotten under way.

THE DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE

ALL true Democrats are enjoying the returns of the November elections, as they point indelibly to the fact that the party of Jefferson and Wilson is returning to power. In all parts of the nation, the rally to the Democratic cause has been phenomenal. Tired of Republican inactivity, indolence, tomfoolery and what-not, the American people are turning once more to a party that is capable of getting things done without red tape and delay.

The party of Hoover has redeemed few of the campaign pledges made two years ago. Commissions and committees have been appointed by the dozens, but about all they have been able to accomplish is a lot of talk and talk is cheap in any man's country. What this country needs is action, definite and concrete, to relieve the present depression. With the Democrats in power again, better times are assured. The party machinery will start clicking and real accomplishments will be recorded. We have had to wait a long time for this change to come about, but it is here, and apparently, to stay. Unless an earthquake strikes, the Democrats will elect a president in 1932 from a number of outstanding party leaders, and all sections of the country will be the beneficiaries of this change in government and party dictation.

Let's Chat Awhile

BY DOROTHY B. ROBBINS

Many interesting people visit yearly, but none have entered our domains wrapped in such a romantic cloak as "A. E.", George W. Russell, Irish poet. I have been reminded of Whitney Montgomery, singing outdoor poet of Texas, in reading of Russell. Both have an intense love for the land and sing its praises. Mr. Montgomery, in his lovely songs of the scenes familiar to boys and girls of our Lone Star State, is opening many eyes to beauty.

"Torch Bearer," a Bay State, Belmont, Texas, publication, said of Mr. Montgomery's view of his last publication of verse, "Brown Earth's Bright Lights;" "He is still more fond of brown fields than bright lights."

Quoting from a poem, "Beauty, after all, is the only thing to remember." "A. E." does not urge a "back to the farm" movement, but a "stay on the farm" and a movement of the intelligent people of our farming community to aid those whose lives are narrowed by ignorance, by forming community centers and things of a like nature to inspire them out of their depression. He would put some of our poets to work. In Ireland at the close of the last century funds were given by men who grieved at the plight of farmers and rural communities were formed.

I believe if "A. E." comes to Texas, he will find we are pretty well organized along those lines. Of course, there are spots here, as, like in all states, where person or persons of vision, to lead the community out into the light. When the beautiful can be mixed with the material in the humblest homes, there may not be very much more prosperity, but there'll be a great sense of inward satisfaction. I do hope somebody knows what I've tried to say. It sounds "hazy" since I've read it over.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Burks, formerly of Memphis but now of Amarillo, visited relatives and old friends here Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Woolsey of Dallas came Saturday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Moore.

Painful Condition

"When I was just a girl at home," writes Mrs. B. F. Riggan, of Baird, Texas, "I took Cardui for cramping and pains in my side and back, and it helped me at that time. After I was married, I found myself in a weak, run-down condition. I suffered a great deal with my back, which was so weak it hurt me to get up or when I would stand on my feet. I fell off in weight. A friend of mine, seeing how bad I felt, advised me to take Cardui, which I did. By the time I had taken two bottles, I felt stronger and better than I had in a long time."
