The usual callers who come in every day wanting to know if this is the gas office were answered in the affirmative Tuesday. When we were told that we were in error, we tried to prove to our callers beyond a reasonable doubt that this was the gas office. We asked them if they had not noticed escaping gas, and they replied they noticed it every Thursday. We have been trying to figure out what they meant.

I may have exaggerated the heat and the hotness thereof to some extent, but in the main, I led to be on the level. If it isn't as hot as I said it was, it could have been, for it certainly felt like it was. In fact, I know of only one place that could have been any hotter, and I don't know its location exactly. Now, if you do not believe what I have written, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope, and no proof will be furnished.

at times, it appeared fire would get beyond and spread to other buildings. The firemen and volunteers managed to confine it to the building.

The building was owned by Hol Boren, and an early estimate of damage was placed at approximately $10,000, a part of which was covered by insurance. The contents of the building, valued at about $750, were a complete loss. No insurance was carried on the furnishings. The building was operated by Bill Corley.

No serious injuries were inflicted to any of those who fought the fire.

 building was let last week on a bid of $22,034.00.
 Specifications call for a building of brick and tile, with steel framework and a concrete floor, making it fireproof. Its dimenconstructed that it may be added to when more room is needed.

 This building also will house the small tractor and implement room each spring.
 The two cattle barns and the following are being enlarged and repainted. At a cost of approximately $10,000.
 Greater outward attracthe buildings, whitewashing of the ice track fence, planting of trees and grassy spots, and other improvements that are under way.

 Exhibits this fall will be placed in halls freshly painted white and rippled with red, as they were originally painted. The old grandstand and water tower will be included in the campaign to make the fair park attractive. New metal signs already have been hung to mark the entrances to each building, and a new sign has been placed at the entrance gate, announcing the dates of the free air.

CANDIDATES SPEAK AT SALISBURY LAST WEEK
 The Home Demonstration Club at Salisbury held an ice cream and pie supper Thursday night of last week at the school house. The purpose was two-fold in character. The various candidates were invited to speak, and some twelve or fourteen availed themselves of the opportunity. Ice cream cones were sold by the 4-H club girls, and pies and cakes were auctioned to raise sufficient funds to send a delegate to A. & M. College for the Short Course July 26-Aug. 2.
 In addition to the candidate speaking the Hobbs Quartette sang several numbers, much to the delight of the audience. Mrs. Erin Jones Couch played two violin numbers, accompanied by Miss Inez Dickson.
 The auction of pies, made by the 4-H Club girls, was conducted by "Uncle Henry" Arnold, who interspersed much dry wit and humor into his sales talk.
MISS RUBY ADAMS IS AT HOME ECONOMICS MEET
 Miss Ruby Adams left Friday afternoon to join Miss Mary Sitton, Home Demonstration Agent for Childress County, and Miss Zitha McInnis, Home Demonstration Agent for Hardeman County. The three left Saturday afternoon for Denver, where they will attend the National Home Economics meet at Denver from June 24 through the 28. Many side trips and excursions are planned, in addition to the regular convention meetings.
 Miss Adams will also visit with her sister, Miss Blanche Adams, who is attending summer school at Boulder, Colorado, before returning home about July 1.
 Mrs. Jack Figh and Peggy Figh returned Sunday to Amarillo after a visit in Memphis.
 Mr. and Mrs. Forest Power and daughter, June, of Fort Worth, are visiting in the home of Mrs. B. F. Denny this week.

The Coming Generation

These two fine looking girls are Freda and Billie Jean Grant, of Plaska. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Grant, and are most emphatically a credit to the community.

Schoolfield then gave a beautiful Bible story from the 4th Chapter of Kings. Mrs. Billy Howard gave a reading, "The Jealous Wife," which was followed by another reading, "The Awful Baddest Bunny" by little Betty Johnson. Mrs. Mollie Wilson talked on "Love." The program closed with prayer by Mrs. L. S. Clark.
Following the program, delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to Mrs. H. F. Schoolfield, Mrs. C. Gerlach, Mrs. M. E. Wilson, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Ralph Vinson, Mrs. A. Womack, Mrs. Bob Roberts, Mrs. Billy Howard, Mrs. George Springer, Mrs. L. Dowell, Mrs. L. S. Clark, Mrs. Barney Wattenbarger, Mrs. Seth Thomason, and the hostesses, Mrs. J. H. Landis and Mrs. D. L. Johnson. Mrs. M. J. Powell, Mrs. Landis' grandmother, was also present.

with a prayer given by Mrs. E. T. Miller.
During the social hour dainty ices were served by the hostesses, Mesdames Campbell, Gillenwater, Lewis, Hackworth, Parks, Bragg, and Turlington to thirty five ladies, including Mrs. Cooper from Oklahoma, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neel.

An interesting and happy meeting was held, the order of services being as follows: song, C. E. pledge, prayer for Missionaries, song, offering, program, sharp shooting, benediction.
This is a lively and enthusiastic group of young people, the officers being Mary Helen Kinslow, president; Willie C. Wilson, vice-president; Ruth Gammage, treasurer; and Cora Fox Yonge, secretary and pianist.

Local Girl Scouts Are Privileged To Enjoy Week's Camp

The Girl Scouts of Memphis are privileged to enjoy a week's camping with the Amarillo Girl Scouts at the Methodist Camp Grounds in Ceta Canyon, July 7 to 14. Any girl is eligible to attend that is in good standing. The cost for the week is six dollars and plans will be made to get the transportation arranged for those who desire to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Seth Palmeyer and Mrs. Vernon Williams constitute the camp committee and will help in the arrangements. Mr. and Mrs. Palmeyer will accompany the girls to camp and will also come for them. If there are any girls in Memphis who desire to go, they are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Tom Delaney or Miss Ira Hammond not later than Saturday, June 28.

Interesting Program
The program for the camp is interesting and complete. A Girl Scout camp is the living embodiment of Girl Scouting. Its atmosphere must express courtesy, gentleness, self-discipline, dependability, independence and happiness. Campcraft includes trail-ing, gypsy trips, nature study, water sports, music, dramatics, story telling, poetry, handicraft, that includes leather work, basketry, pencil sketching, and so forth. There will be a director for each eight girls and two competent adults with experience in camping will be in charge. A life saver, nurse and dietician are among the approved counselors.
The water at the camp grounds is cool and refreshing, coming from ever-flowing springs. A large icebox, the capacity of which is 900 pounds, contains all foods and milk, keeping them fresh and sanitary. The two-story building used for kitchen and dining hall overlooks a grove of trees, canyons and a running stream. The entire building is well screened and the meals are planned and served by the dietician who is employed in one of the Amarillo schools.
The swimming pool is fed by springs and is continually being

Baptist W. M. S. Has Meet Monday At Campbell Home

Notwithstanding the intense heat and threatening rain Monday afternoon, a large crowd gathered at the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell on North Sixth street, when the missionary program and social meeting of the Baptist W. M. S. was held, June 23.
On entering, the guests were served punch in the dining room, after which they were ushered into the large living room, lovely in its appointments, and presenting a pleasing contrast to the extreme heat out of doors.
After each guest had registered, Mrs. V. R. Jones directed the program, calling on Mrs. Chitwood to lead the devotional. Mrs. J. S. McMurry gave the prayer, after which all joined in singing, "I Can Hear my Savior Calling."
When the topic "How to Help the Negro," was discussed Mrs. Roy Leverett talked on Negro Women Realizing Ideals; pointing out the credit that is due to the woman of the South for kindling in the negro woman's soul the fires of Christian Ideals. Mrs. Wheat, basing her talk on faith, discussed two subjects, Negro and Catholicism, emphasizing how God had made use of the Anglo-Saxon race to carry out his purpose for the uplift of man through the betterment of human conditions.
Mrs. Oren talked on Mother's Ideals and influence helping Negro women raise their ideals, bringing out many thoughts on how we can help negro women and girls near us to form higher ideals. After each talk questions on the topic were asked by the leader. The program was closed

Business Women Have Regular Meet Tuesday Evening

The Business and Professional Women's Club met in regular session Tuesday evening, June 24, at the Memphis Hotel.
The program was in charge of Edna Bryan, who introduced Inez Dickson and Myrtle Huff as prospective members of the club. Miss Dickson played in a very pleasing and finished manner, two piano selections, "Valse" and "Tarentelle."
Miss Huff gave two charming vocal numbers, "Missouri Waltz" and "Springtime in the Rockies," accompanied by Miss Dickson on piano, and violin obligato by Lin Jones Couch.
Miss Cleo Bradley, a visiting B. & P. W. club member from Amarillo, gave a talk about the state convention which met recently in Harlingen, telling many very interesting details of the royal entertainment given the club members attending the convention. Miss Bradley followed this by a money-making proposition which she offered the girls. This offer was immediately accepted by the local club members.
About eighteen club members were present for the luncheon, with four visitors, Mrs. Inez Harrell Rourke, Miss Cleo Bradley, Miss Inez Dickson and Miss Myrtle Huff.

MEMPHIS OWLS SWAMP QUITAQUE IN 2 GAMES SATURDAY, SUNDAY

Good Batting Eyes And Hurlers Do It

The Memphis Owls swamped Quitaque in two games Saturday and Sunday, when they took two hit-and-run contests by scores of 10 to 5, Saturday, at Quitaque, and 12 to 1, Sunday, at Owl Park.

Squires, Owl hurler in Saturday's game, landed the ball over right fence in the second inning, bringing two runners in with him, and starting a hitting spree that could not be stopped.

The two teams met again Sunday to play in a high wind and sand. The fire department sprinkled the field before the game was started.

The Owls hit almost at will; both Thompson and Squires with the Owls, pulled out a homer during the game, and Thompson received three hits out of four times at bat.

Here and There IN SPORTS

BY ADRIAN ODOM

The Memphis Owls have issued a challenge to any team in the Panhandle regardless of their baseball ability.

When the Owls beat Quitaque so badly, one booster of the Quitaque nine was heard to say, "How do you expect to play ball when you have all our good players?"

Quitaque brought another pitcher from Estelle who blew up before he could get started. It took one of Quitaque's own hurlers to stop the Owls, but they had to get two BIG pitchers to twirl the game.

In the World Championship wrestling match at Amarillo last Friday night, Cal Farley outlasted the champion, Jack Reynolds.

When Frank Foxhall lost a golf match to Elliot Hatch in Amarillo, it was a big surprise to everyone including Elliot Hatch.

Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling will probably meet again in September, and they will call the winner, champion of the world.

The "big" fight between Carnera and Godfrey was big only in the size of the fighters. The negro, Godfrey, has had his license revoked; that is one more step in making the ring a place of decency and not the low brawl that it used to be.

B. F. Shepherd spent the week in Amarillo visiting with his aunt, Mrs. G. W. Russell.

Paul Babb, of Amarillo was in Memphis on business Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

C. W. Akin, of Amarillo spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Memphis on business.

J. Virgil Hoover, of Oklahoma City, arrived Tuesday to attend to business in this city.

J. J. Diess, of Amarillo, has been in Memphis for the past week. He will remain here for several weeks, attending to business.

Mrs. P. L. Hackworth returned Sunday after a two weeks visit in Canyon and other points.

POLITIC WEARY CITIZENS ARE FOUND TURNING TO CLINT SMALL

OVER B. HILL, Manager of the Small for Governor Club, says that the weary citizens who would see their lives give up to the splendid traditions to which its citizens are accustomed, have come to feel that the political situation has developed into such a maelstrom of personal animosities and factional bitterness, that it is time for a complete and thorough elimination of the factors which are making a mockery of good government in Texas.

Into Partisan Politics
For years past, the state has been getting deeper and deeper into the mire of partisan politics until it has reached a point where measures are too often approved or condemned, not upon their merits, but upon the personality of the man or men who sponsor them and the personal grudges and political quarrels of the past. It is a well known fact that the election of any one of several of the candidates now offering for governor would certainly perpetuate, and probably increase, the influence of governmental affairs upon the fuel to the flames of already existing.

Incontrovertible Facts
In view of these incontrovertible facts, many politics-weary citizens are looking with hopeful eyes to the candidacy of Senator Clint Small, of Wellington. Senator Small is in no way connected with any of the personal or political quarrels that have embroiled the state in endless and unnecessary strife at past primaries and often resulted in the elimination of the most desirable and capable candidates. He is not hampered by political debts that must be paid, and his record as an office-holder and business man is clear and highly creditable. He declares that it is his conviction that "the people demand and should have, relief from partisan strife" and it is his belief that Texas needs a constructive business administration which will build up its institutions and develop its industries and resources. Senator Small is opposed to increasing taxes and committed to a theory that co-ordinated and consistent effort will make it possible to get more out of the tax money we are now paying and he is known as a "go-getter" when convinced that what he is after is the right thing.

He is thoroughly sold on the possibilities of industrial development in Texas and believes that the expansion of industry will help the farmers by providing more and better markets for farm products.

As a Texan, he is interested in the progress and prosperity of the whole state and proposes "a sober, logical and constructive program of public policies and public administration" devoid of factional prejudices.

Largest Tire In World Shown Here

Thursday of last week, what is said to be the largest tire in the world, ran over the streets of Memphis and was on display for some thirty minutes at Art Miller's Auto Supply Station, local Goodyear dealers. The tire was built by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, of Akron, Ohio, and is on a tour of several states in this section of the United States, and has been exhibited in Canada.

The rubber giant, which is 12 feet high and four feet wide, was built under the combined supervision of the chemical, tire design and research divisions of Goodyear's development department. It takes about three quarters of an hour to inflate the casing to a pressure of only three pounds. The value of the tire is placed at approximately $5,000.

The tire created considerable interest during the short time it was in Memphis. It is twelve feet high, four feet wide; the tread, sidewall and bead weigh 877 pounds; the tube weighs 125 pounds; the frictioned fabric weighs 289 pounds; the wheel weighs 600 pounds and the yoke, 2,000 pounds. The total weight of the tire and yoke is 3,900 pounds.

Let's Chat Awhile

BY DOROTHY B. ROBBINS

Uncle Charley was paralyzed and did his writing from his bed with a little desk arrangement that was placed in front of him in a convenient way. His body remained rigid, except for his busy arms. Thankful am I that Uncle Charley's condition is not mine. I can feel keen pain when I move for I am afflicted with lumbago and am writing from my bed with the top of the big dictionary for a table. That I am better, I am sure, for yesterday, I couldn't move without such extreme pain across my back that I could hardly bear it.

Lumbago is a strange disease and attacks so suddenly that the victim has no warning. It came upon me yesterday as I was getting ready to go shopping, two whole days after I had returned from a memorable trip to the coast and over into Mexico, with the Texas Press Association. The journey home over a part of the road, was exceedingly rough, but not sufficiently so as to warrant a broken back. Not only does my back feel broken, but my record is completely crushed. This is the first time a doctor has prescribed for me in twenty-three years. Twenty-three years ago, a chigger bite that proved obstreperous and failed to respond to home remedies necessitated the services of Dr. Frizzell at Quanah.

I have always thought that a slight sickness, when I really had to go to bed, might be productive of a good poem, but I hadn't counted on having so much pain and being so uncomfortable.

It's rather nice to have everybody anxious and 'phoning to find if I'm any better. Last night, at supper, I wanted buttermilk and got it, but hadn't drunk it when my daughter, her husband and children came in from the country. My son-in-law, who is a great tease, and likes nothing better than a joke at my expense, knew I had been in Mexico, and was quite amused to see me lying down with a glass of milk handy. "Looks suspicious," he said, and I had some work convincing him it was buttermilk instead of sweet milk.

The two bottles of medicine, from which I will get my health again, are taken almost simultaneously by the doctor's prescription. They are two medium-sized bottles in colors of lovely dark orchid and deep yellow; one as bitter as gall and the other tasting like the drops we took for fever when I was a child. We are going to have vegetable soup for dinner and even though I am supposed to be sick, I am interested. Everything looks different from an invalid's bed and the noises seem louder, but I'm actually enjoying myself with bright hopes for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Wally Massey, who has been visiting for the past two weeks in the home of Mrs. S. W. Black, left last Thursday to visit other points in Texas before returning to her home in Tyrone, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bennett and family, of Shamrock visited friends in Memphis over the week end.

Mrs. W. A. Johnson and Mrs. Jim Bass returned last Thursday after attending the Texas Press Convention at Corpus Christi.

Henry Newman and son Henry Boyd and Miss Ira Hammond and John Hammond drove to Amarillo last Thursday.

Mrs. S. S. Montgomery has been in the hospital in Dallas undergoing treatment for the past week or more, and is reported as recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jones and Bobby, and Mrs. Grace Crawford and children drove to Wellington Sunday.

Mr. Joe B. Connelly, 504 Bolknep street, Fort Worth. "My entire body was a mass of aches and pains. Finally I was forced to give up my work and was confined to bed. The pains were so severe that I had to be moved very carefully and was helpless and bed-ridden for three months. My nerves were completely gone and I felt at times that I could not bear my suffering another day.

"I sent away for my first treatment of Konjola and was amazed at the results. Within three weeks I was able to get up and around without assistance. Gradually the pain and soreness left me and I began to feel my old self again. My nerves settled, constipation was completely banished, and I do not remember when I have felt as well as I do now. Konjola certainly worked wonders in my case."

Though Konjola works quickly, and many sufferers are greatly benefited in a week, a complete treatment of from six to eight bottles is recommended for thorough results.

Konjola is sold in Memphis at Leverett-Williams Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation, which may appear in the columns of this paper, will be gladly corrected upon due notice of same being given to the editor personally at the office of 617 Main Street, Memphis, Texas.

THE DEMOCRAT'S PROGRAM FOR 1930
 (Check Mark Indicates Project Has Been Realized)

1. Less selfishness and more selflessness in the business, professional and social life of Memphis and Hall County.
2. The placing of agriculture on a higher plane, with emphasis being put on diversification, live at home movement, and the cow, sow and hen route to contentment and general well being.
3. A better understanding between Memphis and the towns and communities in Hall County.
4. More respect for city ordinances in connection with parking of cars in the downtown district, observance of fire rules and regulations, and keeping the streets of the city in a clean condition.
5. More general cooperation in all movements seeking the betterment of Memphis and Hall County.
6. A municipal auditorium.
7. More paved streets.

IN DEFENSE OF CANDIDATES

CANDIDATES for public office have a hard row to hoe. By that we mean so very much is expected of them, not only during the campaign, but after the successful ones go into office. Many of us are prone to take advantage of the fact that candidates must have votes in order to be elected. "If you want my vote and influence, you had better do this and so," is a stock-worn expression that is made use of time and time again.

Whenever money is wanted, in large or small quantities, the natural thing seems to be to see the candidates or office holders first of all. "We voted for you in the election; now we want a little help. All the other candidates are coming across." That is the way it goes. If a candidate refuses to "chip in", it is just too bad. Immediately the word goes out that he or she is stingy and unworthy of receiving votes.

It would be well, we believe, to look upon candidates as human beings, who have obligations to meet, debts to pay, food to buy, if they expect to exist. They are not in the banking business. They are willing and ready to help as much as they can, but most of the county officeholders receive a straight salary. They can only do so much and it is unreasonable to assume that they are walking depositories.

We hope the time will come, in county politics especially, when candidates will be elected to office solely on their merits, without the tremendous expense to which they are now subjected by patronizing and donating, right and left, merely because they are at the mercy of the voters.

THE COUNTY CENSUS

CENSUS figures for Hall County, which were released last week, indicate that we have a population of 16,961. This shows an increase during the past ten years of 5,824, which indicates a steady growth. In conversation with an old-timer recently, he pointed out that it was foolish to try to get people interested in this section, saying that we had enough and to spare. He looked at the matter from a selfish standpoint. He had plenty and no particular cause for worry and he was satisfied.

We have plenty of room in this county for growth and expansion. We need new blood; men with new ideas and new conceptions of things to counterbalance some of our own. We need people to come into our midst with a vision of greater things, greater possibilities and to help us in developing out natural resources. Sooner or later, Hall County must turn to some major project in addition to cotton, and the best way of bringing this fact home to us is to have an influx of substantial citizens. We feel that the Chamber of Commerce can be of invaluable assistance in this matter and we are waiting and hoping for adequate leadership from this group.

RECOGNIZING PUBLIC SERVICE

WE especially desire to commend the action taken by the City Council last week, when this body voted to increase the salary of Miss Bird Presler, city librarian, in the sum of five dollars per month. This is just recognition for the public service Miss Presler has rendered to the citizens of Memphis. Despite almost insurmountable handicaps, she has done her best to put the Carnegie Public Library on a high plane. She has worked faithfully and unceasingly to better every department of the Library, and this belated public notice shows that her work has finally been recognized by the City Fathers.

The Carnegie Public Library here is still woefully needing in many things, but a great library cannot be built in a day, and it can never take the place designed for it in the affairs of the community unless sufficient appropriations are forthcoming. However, a nice allowance has been given the library this year with which to purchase new books and it should go a long way to assist in the program of rehabilitation. We are looking forward hopefully to the day when local people will learn to appreciate the services afforded through the library and by the Librarian. We hope to see the time when Miss Presler is paid a sufficient sum so that the Library can be kept open the entire day. We urge people to make use of this library and its services. They will be found invaluable for those seeking information and aspiring for added knowledge.

CHEAP GASOLINE

DESPITE the strenuous times we are experiencing this summer, there is no good reason why automobiles should not be enjoyed to the fullest extent in and around Memphis. Gasoline is cheaper than it has been in years. A fight is evidently in progress and while it is raging, those with cars should avail themselves of the opportunity of buying good gas at extraordinarily low prices.

Within recent weeks, gasoline prices have been as low as ten cents per gallon, and it seems that the prices will be stabilized around fifteen cents per gallon. While we do not own a car, we almost wish that such were the case. We are like everyone else—we like to think we are getting the best end of the bargain, and in the matter of cheap gasoline there seems to be no controversy over this point. By the time this editorial appears in print, gasoline prices may be back to normal but the chances are, they will not be.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

GOLDEN RAIN

Here's a recipe I want to try, having heard it recently over the radio. I lost part of it because of static, the part where the pear juice is used, but I think the juice is mixed with sugar and made into syrup—anyway, the drink is sweetened with syrup.

One bottle of ginger ale, juice of a lemon, juice from a can of pears, sweeten with sugar syrup.

Perhaps good, but the best lemonade I ever made was: lemons sliced and sugared, then pour over the amount of water you wish to use and let stand—only have it boiling. When cool, add crushed ice and serve.

Plumade is good. When cooking jelly, take some of the juice and make a syrup. Bottle tightly and add water to the amount you wish to use, together with crushed ice to make a refreshing summer drink.

Try making tea this way and note the delicate flavor. Take a fruit jar and place for a quart, two teaspoons of tea at dinner, then fill jar with cold water, letting stand until supper. There is no tannin taste, but of course, a larger quantity of tea is required which causes this recipe to lose appeal with the economically-minded woman.

Amarillo Fireman Makes Decision

Another Railroad Man Has Gained Wonderfully on Two Bottles of Orgatone (Argotane)

"I am just finishing my second bottle of Orgatone (Argotane) and I have gained wonderfully in health," said W. N. Worford, at his home a few days ago. Mr. Worford is a stationary fireman at the general office of the Santa Fe railroad and lives at 3802 Tyler Street, Amarillo, Texas.

"For twenty years," continued Mr. Worford, "I have suffered from indigestion and my stomach was in such a bad condition everything disagreed with me and I couldn't digest the foods which my system demanded. A short time after eating my food would sour and gas would form and bloat me up so at times I could scarcely breathe. Many a night I would have to get up out of bed and take a dose of soda so I could get momentary relief. I would get up in the morning feeling so tired and worn out as if I hadn't gone to bed.

"I decided after reading the high endorsements to try Orgatone (Argotane) and it certainly was a wise decision. My stomach is now in better shape than it has been in years and my food digests properly. I am relieved of constipation and that tired and achy feeling has left me as if by magic. Orgatone (Argotane) has certainly proven to be a great medicine for my case and I highly endorse it to anyone suffering as I have done."

Genuine Orgatone (Argotane) may be bought in Memphis at the Tarver Drug Company.—Adv.
