Farmers Urged To Plant Longer Staple Cotton Plans Formulated Wednesday For County Agricultural Council

On the LEVEL

William Russell Clark

It was with considerable satisfaction that I learned the business men of Memphis were offering a reward for the apprehension of the man believed to have been responsible for the death of young Bryan Nall, of Eli, Wednesday. It was at his post of duty when he died true to the trust reposed upon him of protecting the interests of the concern for which he worked.

What is to become of our business institutions if we permit criminals to deliberately take the lives of those who work for us, who have our business interests at heart, and who are willing to protect them no matter what the cost may be? If we allow a crime of this nature to go unpunished, there is no telling what our portion in life is destined to be.

Every red-blooded man and woman in Hall County who would like to see the murderer of young Nall apprehended is invited to send donations in any amount whatsoever to this column. Checks should be made payable to "Nall Fund." The money will be placed in escrow in a local bank and will be returned in the event the murderer is brought to justice before this issue of The Democrat becomes generally circulated.

The purpose of this fund will be merely to assist in bringing about the capture of the man believed to be responsible for the killing of Nall. If agreeable to all of the contributors, such funds as may be received will be given to the man or men who bring about his capture. If this idea is (Continued on page 4)

Engineers Begin Work On Highway

Actual work was started last Monday on surveying the new highway which is to be paved from Memphis to Mulberry Bridge by way of Lakeview, according to C. L. Hazie, contracting engineer in charge. Mr. Hazie and a crew of engineers came to Memphis last Saturday ready to begin operations and actual surveying got under way Monday morning. It is not known, he stated, just how the surveys will work out or the exact route the road will take.

Mr. Hazie is receiving a number of applications for jobs incident to the work he is starting. He states that about 150 people have applied for work. Most of the positions open have been filled, however, and Mr. Hazie does not expect to actually need more than actually needed to complete the work.

Panhandle Club To Be Started At Texas Christian University

Plans for the organization of a Panhandle Club are under way at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, according to information received from that school this week. Misses Doris and Meta Maye Shaw, formerly of Amarillo, but now of Memphis, are taking the initiative in organizing the new club they being assisted by Glen Ladue of Shamrock.

Names of all T. C. U. students whose homes are in the Panhandle have not been determined as yet, but among those eligible for charter membership from Memphis are Hubert Dennis, John Hammond, Miss Dorothy Elliott and Rainey Elliott. Others known to be elig-

BRYAN NALL IS LAID TO REST THURSDAY

Services Held From Methodist Church Lakeview

A large concourse of friends and relatives were present Thursday afternoon to pay tribute to the memory of J. Bryan Nall, who died in a local hospital Wednesday morning at three o'clock, as the result of wounds received at the store at Eli last Thursday night. Mr. Nall was 22 years, 2 months and 26 days old. Funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist church at Lakeview at 2:30 Thursday afternoon by Rev. W. M. Murrell of Clarendon. Interment took place in the Lakeview cemetery, with the I. O. O. F. in charge.

Eight Pallbearers
Pallbearers were Glenn Stargel, Lloyd Lewis, Bud Gilreath, Robert Stewart, Frank Gable, Homer Huggins, Billy Nelson, and Paul Smith. Those having charge of the flowers were Mrs. Glenn Stargel, Mrs. Emily Smith, Miss Dana Mae Stewart, Jewel Gilreath, Marlow Patrick and Topsy Gilreath.

Young Nall is survived by his father, C. E. Nall, three sisters, Mrs. Will Smith, Mrs. Ed Smith and Mattie Nall, an aged grandmother and a host of other relatives.

Memphis Merchants and Democrat Will Foster February As Prosperity Month

The month of February has been officially designated as "Prosperity Month" by President Herbert Hoover. Observance of this month in keeping with the desires of the President will be widespread throughout the length and breadth of the United States. Memphis, in keeping with other towns and cities in the Panhandle, has been called upon to carry out the President's program for the month by doing everything within her power to further prosperity.

Special Inducements
As special inducements to their trade, local merchants will offer during the remainder of this month unequalled values in merchandise. This is done to stimulate trade and to keep up business activity so that there will be no curtailment in volume, and at the same time, to give to citizens of this city and the Memphis trade territory the chance of buying excellent merchandise at greatly reduced prices. Prosperity Month is already enlivening business wherever it is being tried and the same experience is expected to be met with in Memphis. Readers of The Democrat will do well to watch the advertisements appearing in this paper, especially during February, to see the way in which local merchants are following out President Hoover's suggestion.

Famous Movie Lion To Be In Memphis Friday Afternoon

Memphians will be given the opportunity of witnessing one of the most famous lions in captivity Friday afternoon of this week when Leo, movie lion, will be in the city in person. The coming of Leo is expected to create as much of a sensation as in the case when any of the better known movie stars make an appearance here. Leo is known far and wide as the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer trade mark lion.

Lion World Tour
Theatre patrons here will recall seeing Leo "do his stuff" on the screen at the beginning of every M-G-M picture that is shown. He generally gives the same kind of roar, looks the same way and the picture starts to reel off on the silver-sheet. Leo is being taken on a tour of the world in the interest of M-G-M pictures and he will arrive in Memphis at 12:30 Friday afternoon, accompanied by his trainer.

Heralded by Caliope
The coming of the famous lion of the movies will be heralded by the playing of a steam caliope which is a part of the equipment taken along with the lion. Leo always proves to be a great favorite with the children. He will perform in his cage in front of the Palace Theatre Friday afternoon and the general public is invited to see what is probably the most talked-of lion in captivity. Leo is a big fellow and is as ferocious as lions ever get to be, but he is said to be an accomplished actor, and since his exhibition will be a free one, he will undoubtedly draw a large crowd.

In Special Cage
Leo is traveling about over the country in a specially constructed cage on a truck made especially for him. Patrons of picture shows in the city who are accustomed to seeing the special feature pictures produced under the direction of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer (Continued on page 4)

FIRST MEETING IS HELD AT ESTELLINE

15 Representatives Lay Plans For Organization

First steps toward the organization of a County Agricultural Council for Hall County were taken Wednesday afternoon at Estelline when representatives from several sections of the county met at the call of W. C. Dickey, chairman of the agricultural extension district. The meeting was held in the directors room of the Estelline State Bank. John Sharp, Turkey banker, and Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, were appointed temporary chairman and temporary secretary, respectively, by Mr. Dickey. Others in attendance at the meeting were: H. R. Irby, Willis Walker, J. W. McCarley, J. M. Edwards, Cecil Reavis, Turkey, Fred Landers, R. C. Wiley, Mrs. A. A. Greer, Estelline; George Sager, E. W. Thomas, Lyman E. Robbins, Memphis; and Mrs. John L. Burnett, Indian Creek.

The organization is being formed for the purpose of promoting better agricultural conditions in Hall County. In laying a brief explanation before the body that (Continued on page 5)

OFFER REWARD FOR CAPTURE OF TYLER

Widespread Search Is Being Made for Man Who Shot Youth

Citizens of Memphis and Hall County generally have become aroused over the shooting and subsequent death of J. Bryan Nall of Eli, and are contributing to a fund to be used in apprehending the slayer. It is understood that a youth answering to the name and description of Hess Tyler is charged with the shooting and officers throughout the Panhandle are scouring the country in an endeavor to find this man.

Contribute to Fund
Nall was shot while at his post of duty in the Eli store last Thursday night. He was brought to a local hospital where he died Wednesday morning at three o'clock. The shooting was a cold-blooded affair and local business men as well as those in all sections of the county are contributing to the fund. (Continued on page 4)

Pampa, Childress Enter Class "A"

Admission of Pampa and Childress to Class "A" of the Texas Interscholastic League in District No. 1, the adoption of a new protest rule and the working out of a schedule were high lights of the annual District No. 1 football meeting in Quanaah last Saturday. The meeting was presided over by C. E. Davis, Quanaah school superintendent and district chairman.

The new protest rule provides that if protest of a player is sustained by the district committee, the player will be barred from further competition but games in which he previously had played will not be forfeited. A proposal to split the district was abandoned. Admission of Pampa and Childress bring the total of District No. 1, Class "A" teams to nine.

Last Basketball Game Of Year Ends In Victory For Cyclone

Playing their last scheduled game of the season, the Memphis High School Cyclone basketball team defeated the Turkey team in a fast game on the court at Turkey Tuesday night of this week by a score of 30 to 27. The game was the last of the season and, according to Coach Nolan Walter, it was the best the local boys have played this year. Roy Stargel, captain, led the local quintet in a new form of basketball play that completely took the Turkey cagers off their feet. A delayed offense was used to such good advantage that the locals kept the ball during a larger part of the game. Roy Stargel was high point man for Memphis, scoring eighteen of the thirty points for Memphis. The game Tuesday night was the fifth the two teams have played this season, Memphis having won three of the number. Although both teams were strong contenders for the county championship, Estelline outplayed both and that team will meet Lakeview next week for the county championship play. The locals closed the season with 10 victories and 13 defeats this season. The lineup for the locals in the game with Turkey was: Roy and Cecil Stargel, forwards; Durward Martindale, center; J. D. Jackson and J. W. West, guards.

NEW SYSTEM OF TAXATION IS PROPOSED

Councilmen Discuss Advisability Of New Method

Discussion of the possibility of inaugurating a unit tax system for Memphis took up the larger part of the meeting of the City Council of Memphis last Tuesday night. Six aldermen were present at the meeting which was presided over by Mayor Sam Harrison, as follows: J. M. McKelvey, B. E. Davenport, J. F. Forkner, R. H. Wherry and L. T. Burks, in addition to City Secretary D. L. C. Kinard.

Proposed Tax Plan
Considerable discussion developed over the proposed plan for tax assessment in Memphis, and it is expected that definite action will be taken on the matter within the near future. It is said that the plan is being used to good effect by many towns over the state. As conditions exist now, the tax assessor for the city allows property owners in Memphis to put their own valuations on their property. Very often, it has been found, errors occur in the valuations, and it becomes necessary to appoint a committee to adjust these differences with the owners.

Appraised by Engineer
In the event the unit tax system is adopted for this city, each piece of city property will be appraised by an appraisal engineer. After the city tax assessor has compiled his appraisals, the engineer will compare valuations he has recorded with those made by the assessor. In this way, no disputes are likely to arise between city officers and property owners if the appraisal is computed by an expert. It is believed the new system will do much for the property adjustment of taxes in Memphis.

Ex-Service Men At Lakeview Banquet Local Doughboys

A representative delegation of members of the Charles R. Simmons Post No. 175 motored to Lakeview Wednesday night as the guests of Legionnaires in that town. The hosts served an enjoyable banquet which was well attended and which is expected to be the first of a series of get-together meetings. Nine new members were initiated into the Legion at the Lakeview meeting. The boys carried their mascot with them and according to all reports, he seemed to enjoy himself immensely.

Reported Meeting
One member of the local American Legion post who attended the Lakeview banquet reported the meeting as follows: "All the fellows who failed to go surely missed a treat. We motored over to Lakeview and had a real meeting, and talk about a 'feed,' we sure had one. Comrade Drake is already wanting to know when we can go back. As entertainers, the Lakeview boys cannot be beaten."

Nine Members Initiated
"We initiated nine new members into the Legion and to you Legionnaires who do not attend meetings, you should see our ritualistic work. It is real pretty. Such meetings as we had Wednesday night go a long way towards promoting activity in the Legion and creating that good fellowship which is found only when a bunch of 'hard-boiled' ex-service men get together."

Strong on Renfro
"Here is a story I heard Wednesday night on Bill Renfro. After Bill was discharged from the army, he applied for a job at an electric light plant. The following conversation took place: 'Bill: I wish to apply for a job. I can do anything.' 'Manager: All right. Wheel out a wheelbarrow full of smoke.' 'Bill: Sure, Just fill it up.' 'Needless to say Bill got the job.' (Continued on page 4)

IMPROVED SEED WILL INCREASE CROP PROFIT

Authorities Point To Havoc Half and Half Seed Has Brought

BY BILL COOKE
Hall County could easily have added half a million dollars to the total value of her cotton crop of approximately 50,000 bales this past year if more attention had been given to the planting of improved seed, it is estimated by influential farmers and business men who are interested in the promotion of better grade and longer staple cotton in Hall County. That figure represents the estimated amount that it has cost the cotton farmers of this county in producing a short staple cotton.

Long Staple Cotton
Throughout the cotton growing sections of the United States, there is a noticeable trend toward the production of long staple cotton and the planting of improved cotton seed, although in Hall County the change to the higher grade is taking place slowly. However, cotton growers in this section of the state are beginning to see the advantages of the improved variety, and a great change is expected within the next few years.

"It is my belief," states C. T. Matkin of the Memphis Compress Company, "that Hall County this year, with its 50,000 bale crop, has lost at least $500,000 due to the short staple and the lower grade of planting seed used."

No Price Distinction
"In past years," Matkin continued, "there was some excuse for the farmer to insist on planting half and half and other lower grades, for at that time, a larger yield could be secured by this method, and there was no distinction in the price received, short staple cotton bringing approximately the same price as the longer staple. However, times have changed, and conditions are no longer the same. Long staple cotton is now bringing a much better price, and the farmer who is not planting improved seed of one type or another is losing money fast."

Few Eligible for Loan
"The government is now advancing 16 1/4 cents on 7-8 inch staple and over, which brings out the following important and startling fact: Very little of the Hall County cotton crop of the past season is subject to the government loan, recently announced, due to the fact that the low grade seed used has produced cotton of too short a staple. For this reason, only a small per cent of the farmers of this county are eligible to receive a loan, and that fact alone should be sufficient to think in terms of long staple cotton." Masonic Lodges of Hall and Motley Counties to Meet Jointly at Estelline

D. H. Arnold, district deputy grand master of the Masonic Lodge of the 119th Masonic District, which embraces Hall and Motley counties, has announced that a union meeting of all the lodges under his jurisdiction will be held at Estelline on Thursday, February 20, in commemoration of George Washington's birthday, which occurs on February 22. All Masons of this district are asked to be present as well as visiting Masons, at the lodge rooms in Estelline on Thursday evening, February 20, at 7:30 o'clock. Lodges from Memphis, Lakeview, Estelline, Turkey, Roaring Springs and Matador will take part in the union meeting. An interesting program is being prepared and an enjoyable social time is promised. Light refreshments will be served. George Washington will be discussed as a citizen, as a soldier and as a Mason. A number of informal talks will also be made from representatives of the various lodges in this jurisdiction and Mr. Arnold expects a large number of Masons to be present upon this occasion. Mr. Arnold emphasized the importance of these union meetings to Masons and urges all members of this lodge in good standing to avail themselves of the privilege of attending this meeting.

Doctor Says Good Will Is Service Club's Best Asset

"Good will is a service club's chief asset," Lion J. A. Odom told the Memphis Lions Club last Thursday in a talk in which he reviewed a recent article by International President Ray L. Riley. "The status of a club is indicated by the good will it enjoys in a community," Dr. Odom said. "If the club possesses this indispensable quality then it is certain to have on its roster live, energetic and public spirited men."

Is Tangible Asset
"Good will is listed as an intangible asset in any business, but in reality it is as much a tangible asset as the merchandise handed over the counter. A business wins or loses on this one important item. Good will has its psychological effect on the individual who employs it and on those with whom he comes in contact."

Door to Opportunity
"Building this valuable asset in business or in a club opens the door to opportunity. In our case it opens the door of opportunity to the individual Lion to work for the better things for his community. With opportunity comes responsibility, individually and collectively; responsibility to oneself, one's club and one's community. Our club's great responsibility is to first, inspire; second, to educate and third to lead the community."

Inspiring a Project
"It is not the task of our Lions Club to actually accomplish the big and important things we believe this community needs. Our duty is to begin by inspiring a project and to back up that inspiration by educating the community to its need and by leading the way toward its realization. Good will is necessary before any measure of accomplishment is possible."

Meacham Presides
In the absence of Lion President R. L. Madden, Vice President Charlie Meacham presided. Other numbers on the program in addition to the talk by Lion Odom, were a piano solo by Dorothy Jones, "Tarrantella," and a musical reading, "Movie Shows," by Ann Palmeyer, assisted by Dorothy Jones at the piano. The two offerings by the talented young ladies were well received.

No Personal Gain
Charlie Meacham sounded a typical Lion keynote when he warned new members of the club not to expect personal gain from their membership. "The Lions Club can only mean to you what you put into it," Lion Meacham said. "If this club is to prosper you must be a Lion for what you do for the club, not for what it might do for you. Remember, too, that if you are a true and faithful Lion you will execute to the best of your ability whatever task is assigned to you. Work for the club and it will mean something to you."

Instructs New Member
Tail Twister L. M. Hicks instructed R. R. Coleman, a new member, to deliver his initial speech, acknowledging membership. Coleman said his speech could be a short one. Well, it was! He hadn't spoken more than half a dozen words before every Lion was singing or making some other sort of equally unpleasant noise. An old Spanish stom.

Lion J. Hardin Mallard, president of the local United Charities, announced the forthcoming annual drive for community chest funds. George Spann and D. J. Jorgensen were appointed to represent the club in the drive.

Closing Time Set
Lion J. H. Croft's request that losing time be set for the pro-membership and attendance was referred to the board of directors. The date will be announced at the next luncheon. New members recently added to the club are A. J. Humphries, R. R. Coleman, D. J. Jorgensen, W. J. Turnpseed, J. A. Odom and Joe Chitwood.

Passion Play Will Show In Amarillo

Special to The Democrat
AMARILLO, Feb. 6.—The famous Freiburg Passion Play will be shown in Amarillo on February 14 and 15 at prices from $1 to $2.50 less than charged in most of the cities where it has been presented. Wilbur C. Hawk, president of the Tri-State Fair association, sponsor of the presentation here, announced.

Tickets for the two night performances will be $1 and $2.50, while at the matinees on February 15, children will be admitted for 50 cents and adults for $1 and $1.50. The Passion Play will be staged in Amarillo's Municipal Auditorium, which seats 2,600. There are 40 players in the cast, and 150 "extras," to be recruited in Amarillo will be used in the mass scenes.

"This is by far the biggest and most lavish attraction ever sponsored by the Tri-State Fair," Mr. Hawk said. Reservations can be had now by mailing your check to Wilbur C. Hawk, care Globe-News, Amarillo, Texas.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

C. F. Redlich, Minneapolis, Minn., nationally famous Rupture Appliance Expert, will demonstrate without charge his unequalled method at CHILDRESS on Friday, Feb. 21, at the Rhea Hotel from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Mr. C. F. Redlich says: "The 'Perfect Retention Shields' hold the rupture perfectly, no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief and contract the opening in a remarkably short time.

The secret of their success is in their simplicity. An expertly adjusted device seals the opening without discomfort or detention from work. It is practically everlasting, sanitary, comfortable and actually holds ruptures which heretofore were considered uncontractible.

"If You Want to Have it Done Right—See Redlich."

Doctor J. W. Seaver, for many years in charge of the Physical Education of the students of Yale College, has recorded 75 per cent cures with this system.

Mr. Redlich is internationally known and speaks English, German and Spanish.

HOME OFFICE
535 Boston Block, Minneapolis, Minnesota

Mr. Andrew Allen, S. S. expert of Texas, is to have charge of the Training School and Enlargement Campaign. He will be assisted by Mr. W. L. Day of Amarillo, and other efficient and consecrated workers, experienced in S. S. work.

Classes are to be taught in all of the departmental work. It is desired that you come, and you are urged to enroll in one of the classes. There will be a class studying new methods of procedure in the Young People's and Adult departments; there will be a class for Intermediate teachers and officers; a class for Junior workers, one for Primary, and one for Beginner and Cradle Roll workers, with Mr. Allen teaching a class for secretaries.

The pastor and superintendent urge that every teacher and officer in the S. S. rally to the work and enroll in a class, in order that we may be enabled to do more efficient work in our new S. S. building.

Misses Lucille and Cornelia McCann, and Miss Odessa Dennis came from Lubbock to spend the week end with their parents, returning to school Sunday night.

John Deering of Lakeview was in Memphis Wednesday shipping a load of Mules to Fort Worth.

Wheat In Race For Justice Of Peace

W. L. Wheat, of Memphis, makes formal announcement in this issue of The Democrat for his candidacy for the office of Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, of Hall County, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries next summer.

Mr. Wheat has been a resident of Memphis for the past 39 years. For one term, of two years, he was sheriff and tax collector of Hall County. He believes himself to be thoroughly qualified to fill the position to which he aspires and he asks the consideration of the voters in the coming elections.

Improved Seed—

Cuts His Own Throat

"It is a proven fact," Matkin stated further, "that the farmer who insists on sticking to the half and half seed and refuses to listen to the benefits that improved varieties bring, is cutting his own throat, denying himself prosperity, and holding back the development of the county. In many instances the planting of improved seed would mean from $15 to $30 more money per bale. Hall County farmers are gradually beginning to realize this fact.

Sees Change Coming

"I see a change coming, and within the next few years I think the cotton situation in this county will be far different from what it is at present. I have talked to many farmers and a large per cent are now talking of dropping their present methods and taking up the system of planting improved varieties. I look for a big improvement this year, and a still greater improvement next year and the next, and eventually, a complete change-over that will bring more prosperity to the cotton growers and to Hall County.

Will See the Light

"Of course, it will take time, just as it took time for the gins to be derived from a standard gin box several years ago. For many years, there was no standardization in the box, and not until a tax of $1 per bale was placed, did the ginners begin to realize that the change was for their own good and the good of everybody concerned. Standard gin boxes are in use everywhere today. When the farmers realize that the inferior grade is losing money for them, just as the ginners found that their old system, with no standardization was costly, then they will 'see the light' and turn to an improved variety of seed that will bring them a longer staple, with its higher price and all other advantages.

Interested in Welfare

As far as the compress itself is concerned," Matkin concluded, "there is no difference in the handling of a bale made up of short staple or one of long staple, but we are interested in the welfare of the county—the welfare of the cotton grower—and we want to see the farmer get the most out of his cotton crop. This can be accomplished only through the medium of improved variety, with quality rather than quantity."

Stapleization Important

W. C. Dickey, president of the Hall County National Bank of Memphis, and chairman of this agricultural extension district, says: "One of the most important things before the farmer today is the stapleization of all farm products, cotton included, with more attention paid to quality. A bank is judged not by the appearance or number of its employees and directors, but rather, by the type of service that it is capable of rendering; a garage may do a large volume of business with its mechanics constantly working on numerous cars, but it is successful only in terms of the quality of the work that is turned out. The growing of cotton is much the same. Quantity without quality means little.

Growers Losing Money

"The inferior grade now being grown in this county is losing money for the growers. This year it has cost them at least a half million dollars, and unless conditions change, the loss is going to be more each year. Hall County is getting a reputation for its cotton, but it is not the kind of reputation that helps. Improved varieties of cotton bring a better price, of course, and sooner or later, there is going to be no market at all for the type of cotton that we are now producing."

Staple of Around Inch

Dickey states that he is not an advocate of "Big Boll and Long Staple Cotton," but he states further that he does believe that Hall County "should produce a staple of around one inch or better, and certainly not less than 7-8 inch." He also pointed out the fact that the government farm loan was not applicable to cotton of less than 7-8 inch staple, and that only a small per cent of Hall County farmers can receive loans because of that specification.

Produce Staple Product

"The only thing to do," he continued, "is to get an improved seed and produce a staple product, considering quality rather than quantity. It is purely a business proposition, and one that could be of interest to every man in the county. Instead of a loss of over half a million as was the case this year, Hall County cotton growers can easily turn that into a greater profit by getting away from the short staple and inferior grade and plant improved varieties of seed that will yield a longer staple—cotton that will compare favorably with that grown in other sections, both in regard to quality and the price that it will bring," he concluded.

24, He Prosecutes Judge as Slayer

Gradual Change Seen

The change in the cotton situation will have to take place gradually, it is explained. Some little improvement has been shown this year, and it is expected that the next few years will find more and more farmers throwing their methods in the discard and joining in a program of producing cotton of a better grade.

On The Level—

not a good one, I should like to know. I was not even acquainted with young Nall, but I have become acquainted with the details of the crime and I am willing to do what I can to bring his murderer to justice.

Any local citizens, or citizens anywhere, who may desire to make a contribution for the purpose of assisting in the capture of the person or persons responsible for Bryan Nall's death will, I believe, aid in the work if they will send in their contributions, in whatever amount they may choose, to the "On The Level" column, care of The Memphis Democrat, Memphis, Texas.

I hope that before this issue becomes widely distributed the murderer will be in the hands of the law, but at the time this column is written, he has not been apprehended. Officers are scouring all sections of the state in an endeavor to find the man, but thus far, without success. If it becomes generally known that a substantial award has been posted, quick results may follow.

Cold-blooded murder is never justified. Astute criminal lawyers, well versed in every phase of court procedure, cannot justify murder, no matter how hard they may try. The verdict returned by juries does not always satisfy the law, but I sincerely believe the one that will be returned in this case, if the murderer is brought to trial, will be of such a nature as to insure that our homes and places of business may receive the protection due them in the future, without blood stains on the window sills.

uting to a fund that will be given to the person or persons responsible for the apprehension of Hess Tyler. Feeling is running high in Memphis and local officers are cooperating with those throughout this section in an effort to locate the man charged with the shooting.

Radio Station Notified

It is understood that Radio Station WMAP in Fort Worth has been asked to broadcast a description of the man wanted, and it is understood that other radio stations in the state will be asked to do likewise. Tyler's description is given as follows: age, about 23 years; height, 5 feet, 8 inches; weight, 140 or 145 pounds. He is said to have sallow complexion, heavy eyebrows and a scar on his upper lip. He was last seen wearing a pair of gray trousers with a hole in the seat, and a blue, double-breasted coat which was somewhat too large for him.

Resided in Memphis

Tyler is said to have resided in Memphis for some time before the shooting took place at Ell. He is known to have a criminal record, according to statements made by local officers. According to Sheriff Sid Christian, Tyler is undoubtedly the person who shot young Nall. The sheriff reached this conclusion after talking with the two prisoners being held in the county jail in connection with the affair. Notice of the reward offered by citizens of Memphis

A profusion of beautiful floral offerings surrounded the casket, attesting to the popularity of this young man who had just reached maturity. Mr. Nall was well known in various sections of the county and many out of town friends attended the funeral. The death of this young man has come as a shock to the entire community and citizens of Memphis unite in extending condolences to the bereaved members of the family, so suddenly deprived of the only son and brother.

New Brice Street Church of Christ Is Opened Sunday

The first services to be held in the new Church of Christ, which has just been constructed at the corner of Seventh and Brice Streets at a cost of $20,000, were held Sunday morning at the regular eleven o'clock service hour, according to Rev. Lester W. Fisher, pastor. Although seats which had been ordered for the church had not arrived Sunday, the old seats were put in the auditorium in order that members of the church might have the advantage of using the new church building instead of meeting at the court house as they have been doing during its construction.

The formal opening of the church will be held in the near future, but the exact date has not been set, according to Thos. B. Huff, chairman of the building committee. Seats for the auditorium arrived Wednesday and workmen are at work now installing them in order that they will be ready for regular church services Sunday. The formal opening will be put off until the arrival of a number of furnishings necessary to complete the church.

First Meeting—

Wednesday, Mr. Dickey said:

To Serve All County

"Our organization must not be sectional and it must not be political. It must serve all the county. The fact that all of Texas has had an agricultural awakening has given birth to county agricultural councils all over the state. The object, as you know, is to better farming conditions by bettering the quality of our products, thereby increasing their value. The movement was originated by the Texas Bankers Association. Following a recent meeting in Amarillo, it was decided to organize each county into an individual district and possibly hasten accomplishment. The governing body of the organization should be composed of a key banker, the county agent, the home demonstration agent and a representative from every organization in the county that has agriculture as one of its chief projects."

Approval Expressed

Chairman Sharp called for expression from delegates to the meeting, and each of half a dozen who spoke expressed his approval of the plans. It was voted to compose the council of 2 farmers and 2 farm women from each of the four commissioners precincts and a representative from each organization in the county which has agriculture as its major work. A committee on organization, whose duty it will be to see that these representatives are appointed, was named as follows: John Sharp, W. Thomas and Miss Ruby Adams. The committee will not make actual appointments itself. Organizations will make their own appointments, and the assistance of county commissioners will be solicited in selecting the precinct representatives.

Another committee, to determine the aims and objects of the organization, was named by Mr. Sharp as follows: W. C. Dickey, Miss Ruby Adams, E. W. Thomas, Mr. Edwards and Fred Landers.

Comprehensive Program

"I once subscribed to the idea," Mr. Dickey explained, "that it was better to attempt only one or two projects and execute them well, but I believe our County Agricultural Council should have a broad foundation—a comprehensive program. Instead of one or two aims, we should make our program embrace a number of needed improvements in our agricultural situation. We cannot hope to accomplish them all in one year or two or three years, but we should be at work constantly for the best ultimate results."

Memphis was selected as the next meeting place for the Council. The second meeting will be held at 10 a. m., Wednesday, February 26 at the court house. The Memphis Chamber of Commerce will tender a luncheon to the visitors at noon. George A. Sager and Lyman E. Robbins were named as a committee on arrangements.

At the meeting closed Mr. Dickey gave the delegates a graphic picture of the important part the council may play in the agricultural life of Hall County.

Read The Ads In Democrat? Tell Why—Win Cash Prize

DEMOCRAT ANNOUNCES $50 IN PRIZES FOR BEST ESSAYS ON "WHY I READ DEMOCRAT ADVERTISING."

Do you read the ads in The Memphis Democrat? And if you do, why do you? By answering these two questions you may win one of three cash prizes totaling $50 that The Democrat is offering for the best essay of not over 500 words, submitted by readers of this paper, on the subject, "Why I Read Democrat Advertising."

Prizes are as follows: First prize $25; second prize $15, and third prize $10. The contest opens at once and papers will be received up until the closing date, 6:00 p. m. Wednesday, February 19th. Each essay submitted must be accompanied with the names of three Memphis business institutions, not now regular advertisers with The Democrat, whose advertisements the contestant would like to see in The Democrat every week.

RULES OF THE CONTEST

1. The contest is open to all readers of The Democrat with the exception of the employees of this paper and relatives of the employees.
2. Essays must be not longer than 500 words, on the subject, "Why I Read Democrat Advertising."
3. Each contestant must submit, on a separate sheet of paper, the names of three Memphis stores, not now regular advertisers, whose ads the contestant would like to read in The Democrat each week.
4. All entries must be in this office by 6:00 p. m., Wednesday, February 19, the closing date of the contest.
5. Cash prizes of $25, $15, and $10 will be announced in The Democrat, issue of February 21.

Real Opportunity

"We have a real opportunity to do some good," he said. "We are being penalized more than a half a million dollars on account of short staple cotton. A reputable feed dealer tells me that the grade of our feed is far below the average. Our eggs don't sell at a premium any longer. This County Agricultural Council is no plaything. There's a great opportunity here for us. We are buying products we should be selling at a good profit. A Memphis cotton man told me yesterday that he has an entire carload of cotton that he can't even get a bid on. The manager of the Memphis Compress Company declares that only 15 per cent of Hall County cotton is of sufficient staple to be subject to Government aid. These facts will give you some insight into the serious situation that is ours."

"I'm not an alarist, but I see that we are in a dangerous position in Hall County. We have a problem here that needs serious attention. I believe this meeting is the beginning of one of the greatest and most beneficial organizations we have ever had in Hall County."

Mr. Sharp also expressed his belief that the County Agricultural Council could accomplish good, and he thanked Mr. Dickey for his efforts in helping to form the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Herval K. Whaley are the proud parents of a fine 7-1-2 pound girl, born Thursday, January 30th. Miss Shirley Mae and her mother are both doing nicely.

F. C. Gipson, chief of the fire department of Turkey, was in Memphis Friday.

Four Buildings On North Side Square Get Improvements

Four adjoining buildings on the north side of the public square have received a new coat of paint within the last week. The move was started by the B. Y. C. Store, when a new coat of paint was given the front that store last week. The work was continued the first of this week and three other buildings in a row have had painters busy on the front of their buildings.

After the B. Y. C. building had been finished, the Greenhaw Barber Shop put painters to work on the front of their new building. They were soon followed by their neighbor, the Midway Cafe. It seemed that the Johnson Barber Shop would not be outdone by the other business establishments, so painters were engaged and now that building has a new coat of paint. New faces for the four adjoining buildings adds much to the appearance of that side of the square.

Mrs. Mary Arnold Is Seriously Hurt In Auto Accident

Mrs. Mary Arnold, owner of the Armont Inn, was painfully injured Wednesday afternoon when she was struck by an automobile. A car driven by Ruth Bean ran down Mrs. Arnold as she was crossing from Harrison Hardware to the First National Bank. It seems that the accident was considered unavoidable. Mrs. Arnold was rushed to a hospital, just as soon as possible.

Failing to see the car approaching at such a short distance, Mrs. Arnold is said to have stepped off the curb immediately in front of the machine. Although the driver tried to bring the car to a stop, Mrs. Arnold was run down and it was believed at the time she was seriously injured. She received two bad cuts, one on the back of her head and one on the leg. One of her hands is believed to have been broken in the fall, but it will not be known until an x-ray can be taken. Although her condition is considered serious, attending physicians believe that Mrs. Arnold will recover rapidly and will be able to be about her work soon. She has been removed from the hospital to her home on South Sixth Street.

Llewellyn Stout, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stout, who has been in Chicago for the past several weeks, is home for a visit this week.

It's You

If you want to live in the kind of a town
Like the kind of a town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing that's really new,
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town,
It isn't the town, it's you!
Real towns are not made by men afraid
Lest somebody else gets ahead.
When everyone works and nobody shirks
You can raise a town from the dead.
And if while you make your personal stake
Your neighbors can make one, too,
Your town will be what you want to see—
It isn't the town—it's you!

"42" Tournament Is Scheduled As A Club Benefit

It has been the custom of the Delphian Club for several years to increase the Educational Fund annually. This fund has been instrumental in assisting fifteen boys and girls in securing a higher education. It is the aim of the club to lend money only to those young people who could not otherwise attend college. It is not a matter of low interest, or of easy terms or of partiality in any form. It is not a charity fund. The money is loaned on a safe basis and a low rate of interest is charged for its use. It is the sincere desire of the membership of the club to help Hall County boys and girls to go to college and the terms of the loans have been made as convenient as are expedient.

In a recent meeting of the club, it was decided to hold a "42" tournament at the Legion Home, Thursday, February 13. The afternoon hour will begin at 3:00 o'clock and the evening hour will begin at 7:30. A free will offering will be gratefully accepted, the entire proceeds of which will be placed in the Educational Fund.

Every person in Hall County, who is interested in promoting the educational welfare of deserving young people who might apply for assistance to the Delphian Club, is most earnestly urged to be in attendance upon one or both of these parties, and thereby lend a helping hand.

Monthly Recital Given By Pupils Of Mrs. Andrews

The Fourth Monthly recital was given by the pupils of Mrs. Margaret Morgan-Andrews, at her studio on North Tenth Street, Friday evening, January 31.

Prizes were given the Junior pupils, as follows: Anna Kathryn Davenport, prize for practicing the most hours since the last recital; Mary Helen Lindsey, second prize, on practice; Peggy Figh and Helen Ratliff, prizes for memory work.

There was a large and appreciative audience, several comments being made on the marked improvement in the pupils since the last previous recital. The program was as follows:

Song of the Oriole, Tracy, Mary Helen Lindsey, Yellow Butterfly, MacLachlan, Anna Kathryn Davenport; Two Little Marches, Blake, Peggy Figh; Rhythm Picture, The Pussy Cats, The Race, Blake, Jack Garrott Morgan; Sleep Baby, Sleep, Brahms, Phyllis Howard; Swaying Roses, Ogle, Jeanne Draper; Three Important Chords, Class; Merry Mary, Bolton, Jacqueline McMurry; The Wood Nymph's Harp, Rea, Juanita Cudd; Sax Solo, La Paloma, Yrardier, Harry Womack Long, Long Ago, arr. Williams, Helen Ratliff; A Sketch of the Life of Johann Sebastian Bach, Anna Beth Levrett.

Over the Snow, Lynes, Chrystal Howard; Modulations, Played and Written, Mary Bourland, Reba May, Floy Gerlach; Pizzicato from "Sylvia," DeLibes, Geraldine Kinard; Sax Solo, "Alpine Echoes," Gosmev, Royce Brooks; Hungary, Koelling, Audrie Lofland; Valzrik, Mokrejs, Ruth Harrison.

Y. W. A.'s Hold Meet In Baptist Annex Monday Evening

The Y. W. A.'s met in the Baptist Annex in regular meeting Monday evening, Feb. 3, with Mrs. V. O. Williams and Mrs. Jet R. Fore as hostesses.

Mrs. V. O. Williams was in charge of the program, the subject for the evening being "Heritage of the Southland." Mrs. O. N. Hamilton led the devotional, and the following contributed to the program: Miss Dannie Huffman, Miss Avis Loard, and Mrs. Ray Webster.

More than twenty members of the association enjoyed the candy pull and corn pop after the program, when the young people repaired to the new annex kitchen for refreshments.

Don't fail to see the "Football Follies."

Federated Society Holds Regular Meeting Monday

The Executive Board of the Federated Missionary Society met in the regular monthly Luncheon and business session at the home of Mrs. M. J. Draper, Monday, February 3, at 12:30 o'clock.

After a lovely luncheon the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. W. Broome. Mrs. J. Hardin Mallard gave the devotional lesson using the subject, "Faith." In keeping with the lesson, the hymn, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" was sung.

The reports of the Civic, Interracial and Legislative Chairmen were given and recommendations and discussions concerning several phases of the work were considered.

Members of the Board present were Mesdames C. W. Broome, J. W. Slover, W. S. Moore, T. E. Noel, G. D. Beard, C. R. Webster, R. C. Walker, Jet Fore, D. L. C. Kinard, S. T. Harrison, Jim McMurry, T. Kittinger, Van Pelt, Jeff Thompson, J. Hardin Mallard, John Deaver, J. Henderson Smith, Wm. Bagwell, J. P. Montgomery, Floyd McElreath, and L. S. Clark.

Delphian Club Has Meeting Tuesday With Mrs. Dickey

The regular meeting of the Delphian Club was held Tuesday afternoon, February 4, at the home of Mrs. W. C. Dickey, with Mesdames Garnett, Hutcheson, Dial and Dickey as hostesses. The club was happy to greet Mesdames W. R. Cabaness and Nolan Walter as the latest additions to the club family. It was decided to have a doughnut sale and "42" tournament the proceeds of which will be placed in the educational fund.

Roll call was made most impressive by the quotation of favorite Bible verses. The lesson for the day was a review of "Ben Hur." Miss Maude Milam, ably assisted by Mesdames Guthrie, Mallard and Barnes, made a remarkable report of the high-lights of this wonderful story. Following the program, the hostess served delicious refreshments to twenty-two members. The club then adjourned to meet with Mrs. C. A. Powell on February 18.

P. T. A. Has Called Meeting Thursday

The P. T. A. met in a called session January 30 with a splendid attendance. Jack Sitton, Gayle Greene, Cearley Read, Kinnard, B. F. Shepherd, Jerry Flannery, A. R. Evans, N. A. Hightower, James Perkins, and Guthrie Bennett favored the P. T. A. with two song numbers after which the Junior High Glee Club gave two selections. Mrs. McNeely accompanied the octette. Miss Ezzell's room won the book for having the largest number of mothers present.

The association voted to buy a slide for the east ward school, to fix a work room for the Senior High School teachers and to buy two cases of music appreciation records and a magazine for the West Ward school.

Dr. E. E. Robinson was the speaker for the afternoon. His subject was "Child Training," one of special interest to the members of the association.

The Association adjourned to meet February 27.

Methodist Church Repair Work Is Started This Week

Work was begun this week on repairs on the exterior of the First Methodist Church, according to Dr. E. E. Robinson, pastor. It was announced some time ago by the board of stewards of the church that a contract would be let for re-decorating and repairing the exterior of the building, but no action was taken by that body until this week.

The contract for the repairs which have been ordered by the stewards was awarded to W. M. Bagwell, local painting contractor. Work was begun this week on the re-painting of windows and doors of the building. Many changes will be made in the exterior of the church, and it is said that it will have a much more attractive appearance after the work is completed.

Lions Club Hears Four Members of Football Follies

Memphis Lions listened with delight Thursday at noon to song numbers taken from the 1930 edition of the Football Follies and rendered by four members of the cast. Miss Vernadine Jones, Albert Pearson and Clarence Jackson rendered vocal numbers, accompanied at the piano by Miss Pauline Ross. The entertainers were introduced by William Russell Clark, author and director of the Follies.

A new member, Fire Chief M. G. Ray, was introduced. He was immediately taken in hand by the tail twister who nicknamed him "Too Late." That title, it is believed, carries some significance in connection with Lion Ray's official duties.

Attendance averages revealed the "Blues" with a percentage of 90, while the "Reds" average only 87. The losing side in the Lions Membership and Attendance drive must feed the winners early in March.

J. D. Jackson made a "business trip" to Pampa last week. He returned with his prize.

This Hall County Farmer Finds Orchard and Poultry Flock Are Profitable Side Lines On Farm

An orchard of between four and five acres and a comparatively small but paying poultry flock—these are the two "side lines" employed by M. W. Paskell, farmer living about three miles west of the Eli community near Memphis, to occupy his spare time and add to the profits of his 160 acre farm devoted largely to cotton and feedstuffs.

Paskell has found that peaches, apples, pecans and apricots can be grown and made to yield a profit, and these trees comprise the large part of his orchard. In addition grapes and berries are also cultivated. He has recently extended his orchard and has set out many new trees and a larger number of the grapes and berries.

The hen on the farm will not only pay her own way but will also produce a profit for the farmer when the flock is cared for in the right manner, is the opinion of Paskell, who has a nice poultry flock and finds a ready market in this line of his business. His farm equipment includes an incubator house that is put to good usage, although this particular farmer finds it more profitable to buy his chicks and raise them, to sell at a profit later. Eggs also bring a neat income when the prices are up, he has found.

Cotton is the chief crop of the 160 acre farm, with a part of the land devoted to feedstuffs. Paskell states that he always raises at least enough feed for his own use on the farm. His cotton crop this year produced about forty bales.

Paskell is also a carpenter and contractor and has built several farm houses in Hall county. He returned the early part of the week from the Plains Country near Lubbock where he has been engaged in the construction of a farm home, and plans to erect a new and modern house on his farm near Eli in the near future.

In speaking of the severe cold weather this winter, Paskell stated that it has apparently been colder in Memphis and Hall county than it has out on the Plains. The snow that had fallen out in the section where he had been working had all melted when he left there recently, he stated, while the snow and ice is still holding its own here.

Electric lights and natural gas are among the conveniences now enjoyed in the Paskell farm home.

Children Like This Safe Prescription

Coughs and Sore Throat Relieved Almost Instantly

Stop children's coughs and sore throats before these ailments lead to dangerous ills. Thoxine, a doctor's prescription, now assures relief within 15 minutes to children as well as adults without the danger in the use of patent medicines containing harmful drugs.

Thoxine works on a different principle, goes direct to the source of trouble and relieves the irritation which causes the coughing and sore throat. Ideal for children because it is safe and does not have the usual "nasty-medicine" taste. No gargling. Just ask for Thoxine, put up ready for use in 35c., 60c. and $1 bottles. Money back if not relieved. Sold by Tarver's Pharmacy and all other good drug stores.—Adv.

Wichita Glass Worker Says He Never in His Life Saw Anything to Equal Orgatone (Argotane)

"Do you know, I was feeling in miserable shape from stomach and liver trouble for several years before I started taking Orgatone (Argotane)," declared George W. Felton, of Wichita Falls, Texas.

"In all my life," He continued, "I have never seen anything to equal Orgatone (Argotane). Why, two months ago, when I began taking it I was feeling miserable. Since then I have gained weight and am feeling more like working than I have in a long time."

"It seems to me I tried almost every kind of medicine before I got Orgatone (Argotane), and I don't see how any thing could be much for remarkable than what three bottles of this medicine has done for me."

Kansas City Life District Manager Tells Of His Trip

E. N. Hudgins, district manager of the Kansas City Life Insurance Company has addressed a letter to The Democrat telling of the trip he and Mrs. Hudgins made recently to Florida and other points at the expense of the company.

In telling of his trip, Mr. Hudgins writes: "At the request of your Mr. Clark, I am glad to make a report of my trip to Florida and return, with some of the outstanding impressions gained while on this four thousand mile trip."

"At 5 p. m. on Sunday, January 19, we boarded the T. & P. Sunshine Special with our Texas party who had two special Pullman cars and a special diner, on which we enjoyed a wonderful dinner immediately after leaving Dallas, and this dinner was the beginning of a ten day feast at the expense of the Kansas City Life.

"We arrived in Memphis, Tennessee, the next morning at 7:30, where we were switched to one of two special trains that carried us to Hollywood, Florida, at the highest rate of speed and with the greatest degree of comfort that it is possible for the Frisco, the Southern and the Seaboard Airline railroads to give.

"We arrived at the Hollywood Beach Hotel at 7 p. m. Tuesday, where every detail pertaining to our stay of four days there had been arranged, even to assigning our rooms. We did not even have to stop in the office to register or look after our baggage.

"Mrs. Hudgins and I, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Vardy of Estelline were assigned rooms on the fourth floor overlooking the Atlantic Ocean, and directly over the bathing beach where there were people playing in the water from daylight until dark—the most beautiful beach I have ever seen. We were in a wonderful hotel with every convenience to be thought of and had a wonderful stay there. We saw Florida from north to south and from east to west. We saw their wonderful playgrounds and their dinky little farms as well as their oranges and grapefruit, and ate their strawberries and bathed in the surf where the temperature was 76 degrees at 5 p. m., but we decided that the Panhandle of Texas was the place for us and were delighted to get back to Hall County with her ice, wind and dust, after seeing the results of their tropical storms, Mediterranean fly and high pressure promoters. It is hard to tell which of the three disasters wrought the most harm to the country—storm pestilence or the promoter, but it is very evident to any one spending even six days there, that they are in a deplorable condition from every angle.

"We came back through New Orleans and had a very interesting day there, seeing places of interest over the city and up and down their waterfront.

"There were two things that impressed me more than any others on this splendid trip and I want to pass these two facts on to your readers if you see fit to publish this letter. In crossing seven of our older cotton growing states, I was profoundly impressed with the tremendous crime that has been committed against the present and future generations by the robbing of the soil through the one crop system and the failure to terrace the land. It is a pitiful sight to see their condition through the farming country of Arkansas, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Florida, Louisiana and East Texas, and I surely hope that the terracing will be continued in this country until every foot of land is properly protected from washing like that country was, then rotate crops to save the fertility.

"The other outstanding thought that I got was from the enormous amount of cotton in the warehouse in New Orleans, and the fact that it is not moving. It is too low a quality and there is too much of it. I was told by a good authority that another crop of short staple low grade cotton, or a

1930 FOOTBALL FOLLIES TO BE GIVEN

Final Preparations Made For Opening Show Thursday

"The Football Follies of 1930," under the personal direction of William Russell Clark, will be presented Thursday and Friday nights, February 6 and 7. This week!

The show is one of the finest that has ever "hit" this town, one of the biggest stage shows, one with many beautiful costumes, one with the best singers, one with the best dancers, and one with everything to make you happy.

Tickets Going Fast

Tickets have been going fast, in fact, a "sell out" for both nights is anticipated. However, a few seats are still left to be sold to the many who expect to get their tickets late, although all of the choice seats have been sold.

Tickets have been sold in other towns than Memphis. Last Monday Clarence Jackson and Albert Pearson went to Clarendon and sold all the tickets that they took with them. Not only will Clarendon people be present at the entertainment, but people from Hedley, Giles, Newlin, Estelline, Lakeview, Turkey and other towns have already purchased their seats for the performance.

Think of This

When one is thinking of purchasing a ticket to a show, there are several things that he should consider: first, has he heard anything concerning the show; second, how many players will participate in it; third, what quality of play will it be; fourth, what is the money going for; and fifth, will he really enjoy the show.

Yes, plenty has been put out about the Follies, and every one knows that there are over thirty players in the Follies, then too, there is no better quality play to be found, notwithstanding the fact that the money is going to the Athletic Fund to finish paying out the bleachers at the Fairpark, and there is no doubt that every one will enjoy the show immensely. In fact, there is a prize out for the person who sits through the performance and refuses to find anything that will make him or her laugh.

Everything Special

Especially ordered costumes, special scenery, special stage equipment, a special orchestra, and plenty of other things have been done in an honest effort to provide the best entertainment that has ever appeared in Memphis.

With the orchestra under the personal direction of Carl Reese, good music is in store. Mr. Reese has composed several numbers especially for the entertainment.

Mr. Clark, the director of the performance, has written several songs; he composed almost all the special songs. The drama that will be given is his own writing. Let's all go to the Follies and be happy.

MISS MARGOT SHAW HAS ENTERED MEMPHIS HIGH

Last week, the Senior Class was posted to one more member, when Miss Margaret Shaw entered the local school. She is taking full senior work and expects to graduate in May.

Miss Shaw came to Memphis from Amarillo where her father, A. Shaw was assistant pastor of the First Christian Church. She attended the Amarillo High school for the last few years.

She has always been an outstanding pupil as shown by the cords she made while in Amarillo. Margot was very popular with the students of Amarillo, and Memphis is glad to receive her in this school.

Although she liked Amarillo, Margot has expressed a liking for Memphis and Memphis High school.

Miss Lucille Pope spent last week end visiting with her parents and friends at Quannah.

Albert Pearson and Clarence Jackson spent Monday in Clarendon, where they advertised the coming Football Follies.

Be sure that you don't miss the basketball game that the locals will play with the Panhandle on February 14. It will be a good game.

ON and OFF THE CAMPUS

BY THE EDITOR

During the last few days a serious change has come over Scott Webster. There is little doubt in the mind of any one that Scott is a changed man. All day, he walks about with a serious look on his face. He seldom smiles, he is very quiet; he never speaks unless he is spoken to; Scott is a changed man.

o-o-o
About two months ago, I predicted that Scott would some day enter the bowery of priesthood. My predictions are coming true, in time. Last Sunday at a local drug store, Scott was caught reading one of their Bibles. The manager of the store said nothing. He had scented the change; he was willing to let Scott read "off" him. Soon the gang came in, no one spoke; they each realized that Scott had reached the age of reason and that he was in a very serious condition.

o-o-o
This is the good part about Scott; he is really in earnest about the present procedure. He makes frequent visits to the country. He stays at home at night. He obeys his mother and father. He never tampers with the business of others. He is indeed a changed man.

o-o-o
Scott's condition can be considered only in a serious way. The boys of the school held a meeting to try to find out if there was really something wrong with Scott. The following committee was appointed to care for the examination of the case: J. D. Jackson, A. J. Rushing, and I. I. was made chairman of the trio.

o-o-o
We proceeded with our project. The first thing that we did was to have personal interviews with the grave Mr. Webster. J. D. was first. After interviewing the great one, he came out of the room in which he had talked with Scott, with a serious look on his face. A. J. then looked the case over. He only sighed and shook his head. I, then, went to do my part of the task. We all got together, and after several hours of deliberation, we arrived at the verdict. We had considered much before rendering the decision.

o-o-o
A meeting of the boys was called at the earliest convenience. The meeting was held only yesterday. J. D., A. J. and I had prepared our verdict in written form, and, as I was the chairman, I read the carefully prepared document.

o-o-o
It read: "Gentlemen of the Masculine Society of Memphis High School, we have made a careful survey of the proposition that you have so graciously placed in our hands. We have 'left no stone unturned' in fulfilling our agreements. We have done all in our power to get to the bottom of the mystery.

"Our first thought was that Scott was really a changed man, but, after watching his actions for a few days, we discovered that his mind was only occupied and that he was not changed at all. The weight on his mind was causing all his trouble.

"Another theory that we struck was that he was trying to bluff us into believing that there was something wrong with him. We followed this theory to an end.

"Then, Gentlemen, we then searched the record of all his deeds and misdeeds. They had nothing that went against him. We were mystified by the situation. We had exhausted every source of information that we had. We were truly baffled for the first time in our lives.

"This morning we had a secret meeting. We put all of our powers of concentration together. With this enormous amount of

Practice For Track Season To Begin On Monday February 17

When the game with Turkey ends the Memphis High Basketball season for 1929-30, efforts will be made by Coach Nolan Walter to assemble a track team.

Track season will have its first call on February 17, when Coach Walter will assemble his men for the first time. Many boys are expecting to come out for the track squad. Equipment is being ordered and everything is being put in readiness for the coming season.

Coach Walter indicated that he is expecting a good team this year, due to the large number of boys that are expecting to turn out for the team. Several new dash men have entered the school this year and others have shown track talent.

Bob Phillips, a ten second century runner, is expecting to be out for the team. Last year he went to the district in the hundred and won first place. He then went to the state and took fifth place there.

Durward Martindale, who on several occasions has jumped over six feet in the high jump will be out for the squad again this year. He may enter some of the races.

A host of other boys will be out for the team, when the coach issues the first call. As the Hall County track and field meet will be held on April 1, plenty of time is left for Coach Walter to train his boys.

Girl Basketeers Defeat Acme By Score of 28-14

On last Thursday night at seven-thirty o'clock, the Memphis High School Cyclonettes battled the Acme High School girls in a hard game on the Acme court. The game was one of the best the local girls have played this season, notwithstanding the fact that the local girls played against the Acme cagers last week in the local gymnasium. The final score was 28 to 19 favoring the local girls.

Last week, the Acme girls played the Cyclonettes here and at the final whistle, the locals had a far larger score than that of the game at Acme. Most of the local girls played their best game of the year against Acme last week.

The game at Acme was featured by the fast playing of Inez Crow and Wilma Gilreath, each making 14 points. The playing of the versatile Dana May Stuart was another feature of the game. She was in the game every minute and made her presence felt by the entire Acme team.

The score of this game was closer than anticipated, when the locals beat the Acme sextette 32 points in the last game. The game, however, was a much better one than indicated by the score.

One of the largest basketball crowds of the year was present at the game. The Acme gymnasium was packed to capacity. The support of the people helped the Acme girls a great deal, however the other effect was felt by Miss Bray's cagers.

In speaking of the game, Miss Ora Lee Bray, coach of the local girls said, "I have never seen better losers than the Acme girls. We have beaten them two times in the last two weeks and they are still ready for more. I wish our schedule would permit us to play them a third time, they are good sports and that is the kind of team that I like for my girls to play against.

"I greatly admire the faith that the Acme supporters take in their team. If my girls had the support that the Acme girls have, we could not be beat.

"I have discovered a wonderful player in the person of Gertrude McQueen, who came to us from Wellington. She is playing guard, and is playing it well. I am expecting much from my girls when the county meet comes off. In fact we are all working together in an effort to be in perfect condition for the meet. We are going to have some stiff competition this year, and too much preparing can not be done."

The girls who participated in the contest were, Inez Crow, Captain, Mae Gatlin, Lois Mitchell, Clara Alexander, Hazel McQueen, Dayne Mae Stuart, and Gertrude McQueen.

brain power we were able to arrive at a decision. Gentlemen of the Masculine Society, hear ye our decision. 'Scott Webster is either crazy or—in LOVE."

Next Friday night, February 7, the Memphis High School Cyclone basketball squad will journey to Turkey, where they will meet the Turkey High School Basketeers in a game. The game will be called at 7:30 o'clock in the Turkey gymnasium.

This game will be the final game for the local basketeers. It will end their season. Thus far the two teams have played four games, each team winning two and losing two. This will be the final and deciding game between the two teams.

Expect to Win

Coach Walter is expecting his men to win the battle in a glorious manner. In the last few games the locals have shown that they have the stuff to win games.

At the Panhandle tournament, the locals broke even, with one victory and one defeat. They drew Plainview for the first game and managed to win by a fairly good score. Their second game was with Borger, and this time the score was different. In time it was explained that the Cyclone has a hard time, as the Borger five won second place in the tournament, being beaten only by Estelline, who won the tournament.

Will Have Tournament

With the closing of the Basketball season, a class tournament will be held, between the Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman classes. They will all battle for first place, as the winners will be presented with silver basketballs.

After the games are played, the winner will take on the faculty five in a three-game series. The faculty team will include Mr. Jackson, Mr. Jay, Mr. Linn, Mr. Cowan, Mr. Jay, and Mr. Walters. The contests will be refereed by Roy Stargel.

Interest Taken

Much interest has been taken in the tournament by the classes. They have already assembled their teams and are having daily practice. At the present time the Juniors are expected to win.

The most important rule that has been made is that none of the basketball men who will make a letter will be eligible for the tournament. However, some of them who make letters will be allowed to coach the other teams.

The feature of the games will be the battle between the winner of the class tournament and the faculty team. The faculty men have been putting all they have into their few practices. It might be recalled that last year the faculty team beat the class winners for the school championship. In the last minute, Mr. Jackson made a goal that proved to be the winning point of the game.

Baseball Is Placed In High Schools As Football and Others

According to an announcement made last week by Roy B. Henderson, head of the Interscholastic League of Texas, baseball will be placed in the league as well as football, basketball, and track.

Each school will be allowed to have a team, and a regular schedule will be made as was the case during the football season.

The local school had a team last year, but they failed to get anywhere, due to the fact that they did not receive the support of the school.

This year the boys who will not come out for track, will be out for the team. As yet no coach has been employed for the boys, however the boys are wanting Ike W. Jay, high school principal, to act as their coach.

Many boys are ready for the sport and have taken their old baseball gloves down and oiled them up for the coming season. Practice is expected to start soon.

seven years I was the victim of stomach trouble. The worst sort," said Mrs. Brandon, 5889 Maffitt street, St. Louis. "It did not matter what I ate, belching and vomiting spells followed the simplest meal. The gas so pressed against my heart that I became short of breath and faint, our, hot liquids seared my throat until the heartburn was often frightful. I grew weak and lost weight and strength. No medicine I tried helped me. "Day by day and week by week after I began with Konjola, my system improved. The gas no longer forms in my stomach now and the bloated sensation has passed. I have an excellent appetite and can eat a hearty meal without the least discomfort. The aches of heart burn are a thing of the past. I have gained weight and energy and my friends remark upon the change in my appearance. I can never express my gratitude for the relief which this great medicine brought me." Census Taking—

During the last taking of the census and understands thoroughly his intricate job. He does not know how long it will take him to complete his work in this county, depending somewhat on the amount of cooperation he receives.

To Benefit Materially

Both Memphis and Hall County probably benefit materially from the census taking this year.

The 1920 census showed that 11,137 people were residing in Hall County with 2,839 of that number living in Memphis. The new city directory gives the estimated population at about 6,000 people in this city. An increase of 100 per cent is noted over the figures of 1920 if the city directory is correct in its estimate. The percentage will probably be as much over the county as the estimated population of Hall County in 1929 was 22,000 people.

Under General Total

It is generally the feeling that the census reports are always under the general total, and that cities and counties are not always given credit for having as many people as they actually have. If the census figures for 1930 are correct, and it is believed they will be, it may be confidently stated that this city and county will both show an increase of 100 per cent over the census report taken ten years ago.

chants have loaned essential stage appointments. The management is indebted to Rube Sisk for linen used in the last act; to the King Furniture Company for furniture and to the West Texas Utilities Company for setting up the electrical fixtures. Lee Pope, manager of Hanna-Pope and Company, is furnishing a beautiful evening gown which will be worn by Miss Vernadine Jones in the third and final act of the musical comedy. This dress came direct from New York.

Is Deeply Appreciative

To everyone who has, in any way, contributed to the success of The Follies, the management is deeply appreciative and grateful. Putting on the Follies has been a tremendous undertaking. Something of the magnitude of the show may be gained from the fact that practices have been going on since last November. The chorus girls' costumes were designed by members of the chorus themselves. They are in keeping with those worn in musical comedies of a like nature.

Must Speak for Itself

To the school board and school officials, who have cooperated in the staging of the show, the management is also grateful. The show Thursday and Friday nights must speak for itself. A capacity audience is expected to be present on both evenings. The Follies will start promptly at eight o'clock and those who expect to attend are asked to be seated before that hour.

Selections by American composers will be used exclusively. David Guion, well known Texas composer, and honorary member of the band, will take part on the various programs, playing a number of his own piano compositions.

ment in a banquet there, it was announced at the regular meeting of the local fire department Monday night. This will be the first of a series of meetings which will be held in a number of towns in Donley, Collingsworth, Childress and Hall Counties during the spring and summer. The fire departments from Memphis, Wellington, Clarendon and Childress will be in attendance at the meeting in Turkey Thursday evening.

Leave Thursday Afternoon

Local firemen plan to leave the city hall here about 6:30 Thursday evening so as to arrive in Turkey just in time for the banquet. The Wellington firemen will leave with the Memphis delegation: Meetings similar to the one to be held in Turkey are for the purpose of discussing fire fighting activities and how best to combat conflagrations.

Local Banquet March 10

The Memphis Volunteer Fire Department has scheduled its entertainment for the firemen from neighboring towns for Monday evening, March 10. The firemen will gather at the Memphis Country Club where a banquet will be served. This is being looked forward to by the firemen as the outstanding event of the year and a large crowd is expected to be present.

1929 Proves Best—

Purchase 477 Volumes

"We have bought this past year 477 volumes; 39 have been donated; 273 volumes have been taken from circulation, leaving a net gain of 237. Number of books issued for home reading, general fiction, 13,386; junior books, 5,923; magazines, 383; non-fiction, literature, history, religion and so forth, 950. Total number of books issued for home reading 20,642. This is an increase of 4,127 books, or an average increase of more than 340 books per month over 1928.

"Number of people using the reading room, 1,054. This is a gain of more than 58 per cent over the previous year. There are 352 new readers registered for 1929. We now have more than 1,200 on our registry.

Each Class of Literature

"In buying our books, we have selected some for each class of literature. We have recently acquired what we believe will be a very valuable addition to our reference department, the Standard Reference. We have some new biographies which are very interesting as well as profitable reading.

1929 Was Best Year

"As far as we have been able to find any record, 1929 has been our best year in the library for the issuance of books for home use. July was our busiest month with a record of 2,311 books given out, the best day being 140 books. We are very grateful to the City Council for their increased appropriation without which it would have been impossible to have reached our new record. We wish to express our thanks to the Lions Club for their interest and help, to the Delphian Club for a gift of $25, to the Culture Club for a gift of $50, to The Democrat for the publicity, and to the Pathfinders' Club, the 1913 Study Club and the Atlantean Club for books and to every one who has contributed to the library."

Bud Godfrey, Ernest Hughes, and W. L. Baker returned Friday night from an extensive trip on the plains, having left Thursday at noon.

J. C. Wood, of Wood Bros. store, returned from Paducah Friday night.

THE DEMOCRAT'S PROGRAM FOR 1930

(Check Mark Indicates Project Has Been Realized)

1. Less selfishness and more selflessness in the business, professional and social life of Memphis and Hall County.
2. The placing of agriculture on a higher plane, with emphasis being put on diversification, live at home movement, and the cow, sow and hen route to contentment and general well being.
3. A better understanding between Memphis and the towns and communities in Hall County.
4. More respect for city ordinances in connection with parking of cars in the downtown district, observance of fire rules and regulations, and keeping the streets of the city in a clean condition.
5. More general cooperation in all movements seeking the betterment of Memphis and Hall County.
6. A municipal auditorium.
7. More paved streets.

THE FOOTBALL FOLLIES

The second edition of the Football Follies, known as the "Football Follies of 1930" will be presented in the auditorium of the senior high school Thursday and Friday nights of this week. This unique entertainment was originated in 1929, when the first edition of the Follies was given. At that time, the entire cast was composed of high school boys. The success which attended the efforts of those participating in the production last year inspired the show which is to be presented this week.

The production is being given for the benefit of the high school athletic fund. It will be remembered that bleachers were purchased last year at considerable expense. These bleachers had a great deal to do with the fine showing made by the Cyclone football team last fall. One of the agreements entered into with the school board when the bleachers were purchased was that one show would be given during the course of the school year, the proceeds of which would be used to apply on the bleachers.

The cast for the 1930 Follies was selected after a number of exhaustive try-outs. From a tentative cast of some fifty students, the number was narrowed down to about thirty. Practices which started last November have been continued, with but few interruptions, up to the time the show is to be given. Despite the bad weather conditions that existed throughout nearly all of January, nightly practices were held in the high school auditorium. Little complaint was heard from the members of the cast, who braved all kinds of weather conditions to attend practices.

Despite a number of things that have come up, it now seems that the "Football Follies of 1930" will be an unqualified success. It is hard for the people of Memphis to realize the amount of work that it has taken to get up this particular kind of show. Each member of the cast does his or her assigned part well, and we believe that local people will have a surprise in store for themselves in seeing how well the high school students perform.

Various criticisms have already been offered of the production, and others will very likely "bob up" after the show is produced, but these things are to be expected. The entire credit for the successful outcome of the show is due to the cast, and we hope that proper appreciation will be shown of this effort by having the house filled to capacity both evenings of the musical comedy. School activity is largely centered in athletics and if athletics is on a sound and prosperous basis, a good school year is nearly always enjoyed. The people of Memphis are asked to support this show to help a good cause and at the same time to witness a superlative entertainment that was made possible through the cooperation of some forty talented students of Memphis.

NEW MEMBERS ARE NEEDED

NEW members are needed and needed badly by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce—not that the local organization is not in a healthy condition, but in order that it may function with the full support of every business in the city. In order to bring this about, local officials of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce plan to stage a membership drive within the near future when every business and professional man in the city will be given the opportunity and privilege of identifying himself with the one organization that puts Memphis first and tries to shape this city's destiny along the proper channels of civic enterprise and endeavor.

There is no good reason why every business in the city as well as every business and professional man should not have the right to be heard when the welfare of this city is at stake. Memberships should be taken out in this commercial organization without even undergoing the routine solicitation that is general in membership drives of any nature. People here should want to cooperate with an organization such as the one here that has done much for our town and county in the past and that will continue to do much for it in the future.

Nothing really of a worth while nature can be consummated unless the project has the sympathetic understanding of a majority of the business men. By concerted effort, differences of opinion are wiped out. Any town or municipality that has a wide-awake chamber of commerce is sure to progress. Very few things that have any lasting significance merely happen. They come as the result of planning, of effort on the part of many people.

The membership of the local chamber of commerce, while comparatively large, does not include all the businesses in the city by any means. Surely, no one would stand back and not join this body because of the small amount of dues asked. When it is realized that day in and day out, week in and week out, the Memphis Chamber of Commerce is doing its utmost to make this city a better place in which to live, to create new enterprises, to attract capital in this direction; in fact, to do everything within its power to make this a city in reality as well as in name, we cannot see how anyone would hamper the progress, already so noticeable, by refusing to take out a membership.

When the membership drive gets under way, The Democrat hopes that it will go over 100 percent. It is absolutely essential that the city back this organization as a unit if any real good is to be accomplished. Few cities, such as Memphis, stay at a standstill. They either go forward or they go backward. We believe that Memphis is ready to make the most rapid strides in history during 1930, and we are hopeful that a unified Chamber of Commerce will make this possible.

AN AUSPICIOUS BEGINNING

THE year 1930 has gotten off to an auspicious beginning. A survey of some of the building projects now under way, those that have been completed and those in the offing are sufficient to demonstrate this fact. The building that has already been finished and that planned should be a good indication of the fact that normalcy is not so far distant, if, in fact, it does not already exist at the present time.

The new Educational Building of the First Baptist church has been completed at an approximate cost of $40,000. The Seventh and Brice Streets Church of Christ is nearing completion at a cost of approximately $30,000. The Gate City Creameries was finished recently, the plant here costing almost $15,000. Many new homes have been built in the city within recent months, three of the number being beautiful brick residences.

The Democrat published two stories last week that should indicate the faith that business has in this city. Hollis Boren announced that he intended to build one of the most modern theatres to be found anywhere in the Panhandle of Texas, with a seating capacity of 1,100 people. Work on this structure is expected to start at an early date.

W. R. Cabaness, local manager of the West Texas Utilities Company, announced that his company would build a 17-ton ice plant here and an adjacent office building, work on which will be started about March 1. The last mentioned building projects should furnish work for a number of people and will certainly enhance the value of the business section of Memphis.

In addition to the above, changes are constantly being made in business here. The B. Y. C. Store has completely remodeled its building on Main Street, and George Greenhaw has in operation at the present time the largest barber shop in the city. It is modern and sanitary throughout and was made possible at a considerable expense. A number of grocery stores in the city have improved their physical appearance by making changes in the stores and adding new coats of paint.

Anyone who cares to make a survey of local conditions must be impressed with the fact that business is very much alive here at the present time. Merchants who were overstocked for the fall trade are now in a position to meet the needs of their customers for spring, and conditions are rapidly settling down to the prosperity level again, which is a healthy indication of good days ahead and points to the fact that a poor cotton crop does not hamper business irreparably. The future will take care of itself if the present is looked after properly and that seems to be exactly what is happening at this time.

Let's Chat Awhile

BY DOROTHY B. ROBBINS

Since former Governor Al Smith pronounced r-a-d-i-o a new way some discussion of the word has followed. He gave the a the short sound as in radish—does make it sound different doesn't it? His defender said he was right and I being sure they were right became one of their followers—not having a radio my new pronunciation was not much in evidence. Before I had a chance to impress my new found knowledge upon the outside world I read a communication denouncing that particular way of saying the popular word so now I say ray-dio, same as I always did.

Governor Smith would have had few followers, I am sure, for usage has made it what it is today—though in New York I have been told the a is broadened as in raw. How anybody could prefer Raydio to Raydio surprises me.

The telephone girls, American and English at the Naval parley couldn't understand each other and it was suggested an interpreter be called in—as an example we say six, six, two, three, one and they say double six, two, three, one. Have we outgrown our English mother and advanced in our methods of handling our common tongue or has getting away made us "just different."

However, I have also heard that a Southerner and an Englishman speak a common tongue—how that can be I do not know, very few give those broad a's the prominence an Englishman does—your real transplanted Englishman even has a different walk—a child born of English parents has few qualities noticeably different but the child having come to this country at ten or twelve years retains a bit of the old country he never loses. I like it, and love the English—they are dignified, brave and loyal.

All eyes are turned on London now and that grand old city though shrouded in fog is showing a bright side with beauty and chivalry in the ascendant.

Jots in Jest

Calvin Coolidge is going to write a history of the United States in 500 words. Well, if anybody can do it, Cal can.

The Hoover crime commission gave the president a report before the $250,000 allotted to it was used up. That doesn't sound like a legitimate commission.

King Boris of Bulgaria took the place of the engineer on his train recently and ran the engine a few miles. It may seem strange to you, but the crew of the train is said to have "marveled at his skill."

Instead of the sun tan complexion, "strawberry and cream" is to be the popular tint this year. Which puts an entirely different face on the matter.

This winter certainly has been a swell press agent stunt for the groundhog.

The Great American Home

Panhandle Press Paragraphs

The Legislature has met. Governor Moody has delivered his speech and now the boys will proceed to do as they darn please. There is a lot of difference between appointing a commission and having them make a report and then getting the legislature to see the thing the same way. We'll bet a plugged nickel that nothing comes of the session.—The Vernon Times.

Reports indicate that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is "getting out of the hole," and that its constructive policies of building West Texas may be expected to continue through the efforts of the business men who are giving freely of their time for it, and under the direction of Mr. Bandede, the new manager.—The Floyd County Hesperian.

We read in the Clarendon News where that town would be in the class of towns eligible for federal postoffices "but for the practice of many local firms in allowing their jobbers and wholesalers to stamp their direct by mail advertising campaigns in the big centers, rather than in Clarendon."

Then a recitation in common sense terms of the unfairness of the big city offices getting credit for the sale of stamps, while the local office gets only what the little boy shot at except the work.—The Clarendon News.

People of Texas are wondering why it is necessary to move the prison location from where it is, entailing thousands of dollars in the erection of new buildings, and causing a waste of many more hundreds of dollars in tearing down the present prisons. This is one of Moody's pet schemes, but in carrying it out apparently cost of doing so has been overlooked by the Governor who, in his pre-election speeches dwelt long and loud on expense reduction of the State government.—The Paducah Post.

The editor of every paper wants to carry news items of every nature that is interesting to the public, but he is in no case a mind reader, and if details are not furnished it is impossible to have the news in the paper.—The McLean News.

Despite the fact that intelligence is what Texas hopes to receive in return for millions spent in public education, ignorance continues to be the primary asset of a "good" juror. The Brady trial at Austin is an example. Honest men, who study public affairs, who read the newspapers to learn what is happening in this state were dismissed by reason of their alertness.

The writer does not challenge the good intentions and the motives of the men selected; he does believe it is ridiculous to discard a prospective juror because he reads the newspapers or talks to those who do.—The Pampa Daily News.

Part of Texas was basking in the sunshine last week while the section was covered with snow. Ain't Texas a grand old state. You can get anything from the delightful California sun to the Alaskan ice and snow. Why?—The Vernon Times.

For a while the bank robbers walked into a Texas bank in broad daylight, robbed it, walked out and got away. Now he seems to be driving up to the back door of a bank in pitch midnight, removing the bricks from the wall of the vault, hoist out the safe, load it on a truck and get away. This robbing of banks is what has changed our minds about entering the banking business.—The Olney Enterprise.

For the first time in the history of Shamrock the need for organized welfare work of the type carried on in larger cities is making itself felt—and felt among the purses of citizens more inclined to assist in caring for around 140 indigent men, women and children now in the city. To handle the situation properly is a complex job, as such problems invariably are.—The Shamrock Telegraph.

Kirkland Is Building New Barn

Kirkland, of the Lodge northwest of Memphis, completing the construction of a new barn on his farm will add greatly to the appearance of his property and give efficiency to his farm.

Kirkland and his family are living in a neat appearing and a stucco house and all his surroundings and the farm in general evidences of progressive. He states that his 100 acre is yielding fair returns each with about fifty per cent devoted to cotton and fifty per cent to feedstuffs and crops.

"We have a pretty fair season up now, after the snow and heavy freezes this winter," he says, "and now we need a few days of pretty weather to allow moisture to penetrate deeper through season."

NEWLIN NEWS

From Last Week
The Cardinals defeated the basketball team last night by a score of 26 to 11. The Cardinals took the first and held it through the game. This was the fastest games that has been played on the Newlin Court season.

After the game with Plaska the Cardinals played Parnell. The Cardinals boys were victorious; the score being 23 to 11. Interest was added to both games by the music, which was furnished by the Newlin Band.

The Newlin basketball team and their coach, O. E. Acker, attended the basketball tournament at Perton last Friday and Saturday.

The Coming Generation

The Democrat presents herewith the first of a series of pictures of future Memphis citizens.

The brown eyed chap on the left is Bill George Kesterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kesterson, 514 S. 7th Street. Bill George is a patriotic young fellow. He was born at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, 1928. He was 7 months old when this picture was taken. He is now 15 months old.

The attractive little miss on the right is Nelle Rowena Beard Hagan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malone Hagan, Ninth and Skiddy. Nelle absolutely refuses to take life seriously. She insists on laughing on the slightest provocation. Nelle is now 7 months old, but she was only 2 months old when this picture was made.

The Newlin girls' basketball team played Eli girls' basketball team Monday evening at Newlin. The Newlin girls defeated the Eli girls by a score of 20 to 16. The Newlin girls basketball team will play the Lakeview girls team on Newlin's court Wednesday night.

Mrs. W. C. Garrell has been ill the past week. Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Nelson were shopping in Memphis Monday.

Misses Merle Garrel and Verna Hughes from Childrens were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Garrell Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Richards have moved to Newlin.

Mrs. W. H. Spruil has moved to Newlin.

Mrs. A. T. Lokey and daughters, Florence and Margaret, and Miss Flora Snow visited Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Cardwell Sunday.

Mrs. Britt has been ill with the flu for the past two weeks. Miss Mollie Harris spent the week end with Mrs. L. O. Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hemphill made a business trip to Memphis Tuesday.

Thursday, January 23, the seventh grade organized their class. Coy Davis was elected president, Ruth Moore, vice president, Oleta Britt, secretary, Neta Britt, treasurer and Mrs. O. E. Acker, sponsor. Thelma Knick and Ula May Phillips were elected as entertainment committee. The class colors are blue and white. The class flower is red rose, and the motto is "Don't try dying; die trying."

Greater Beauty - Finer Performance

Never has a Chevrolet car won greater praise for its appearance than the new Chevrolet Six. Its new Fisher bodies reveal in every detail the artistry that has made the Fisher name famous throughout the motor car world. In beauty of line and color, in balance and harmony of design, they represent one of the greatest style triumphs in Fisher history. And the promise of this exterior beauty is more than fulfilled when you look inside the car. Upholsteries are richer and more durable. The instrument panel carries a new and more attractive grouping of the control instruments. Seats are wider and deeper. In fact, not a single feature has been overlooked that would add to the comfort and convenience of both driver and passengers.

In addition to its new beauty, the new Chevrolet Six represents a remarkable advance in every phase of performance. Its improved six-cylinder valve-in-head engine has been increased to 50 horsepower—giving faster acceleration, greater reserve energy and more comfortable high speeds. Steering has been made safer and easier by a new front axle assembly. Four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers provide exceptional riding comfort. Fully enclosed, internal-expanding, weather-proof brakes give positive braking control. And numerous structural improvements add to the car's dependability, endurance and long life. Come in today and see this car. And remember, it is now available—

Modern Conveniences On The Farm

Electric Lights, Gas and Private Water System Add To Comforts of McMurray Farm Home

Electric lights, natural gas and hot and cold running water supplied from a 100-foot well by means of a private water system, are some of the conveniences that are found in the modern stucco farm home of R. B. McMurray a few miles west of Memphis. "I have never gone in for too many luxuries or extravagances," said Mr. McMurray, "but I do believe in home comfort." And an inspection of the equipment on his 80-acre farm near Memphis shows that he and his family are enjoying every convenience that people of the city might have.

Besides the above named "home comfort necessities," the McMurray home is nicely furnished throughout with modern furniture, a radio, piano and other incidentals that are not found in every farm home. The neat appearing stucco house is more evidence of a well managed and successful farm business.

McMurray's property in Hall county includes a 160-acre farm north of the Lodge community and a 120-acre farm southwest of that place, in addition to his 80 acres near Memphis. He has lived in Hall county eighteen years, having spent fifteen of those years on his farms at Lodge. He moved to his present home three years ago in order that he might "be near a city and still enjoy farm life."

On his 80 acre farm, as well as his other two farms now being worked by renters, McMurray says that he plants about half to cotton and half to feed. "I am not a believer in a 'one-crop' system," he stated, "and especially a system of farming that embraces the growing of cotton only," he added.

"I have been in Hall county nineteen years," McMurray said by way of explanation, "and with the exception of my first year when I bought feed in starting my farm, I have never payed out a dime for feed any year." It is his policy to always raise enough for his own farm use, and each year he always finds he has some left over for sale.

In addition to the land he has planted in cotton and feedstuff, McMurray has found room on his 80 acres for a small orchard that keeps his home well supplied with fresh fruits and a variety of canned fruits throughout the year, and also yields some returns in sales. He states that he is now contemplating adding grapes to his orchard and believes that they will thrive just as well as the fruit trees.

The comfortable home with all its modern conveniences is proof of the success that McMurray has found in his system of farming, and the results that can be obtained when the old system of one crop farming is forgotten or thrown into the discard.

o'clock, being conducted by Rev. H. A. Shaw, pastor of the church assisted by Rev. E. T. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist church. Fitting tribute was paid to the memory of Mr. Shepherd by both ministers. The church was filled to capacity with friends who had come to pay their last respects to the deceased. Beautiful floral offerings attested to the affection in which he was held by hundreds of Memphians.

The pallbearers were W. C. Chapman, Seth Pallmeyer, L. E. Robbins, W. D. Norvell, C. F. Stout, and B. Webster. Those in charge of the flowers were Misses Mae Nell Elliott, Eloise Norman, Ruth Bean, Bernice Bean, Willie Guinn, Flora Liner, Dorothy Liner and Mrs. W. D. Norvell. The Masonic Lodge, of which Mr. Shepherd was a member, conducted the services at the grave, interment taking place in Fairview Cemetery.

Newspapermen Attend

Mr. Shepherd is survived by his wife and three sons, B. F. Jr., of Memphis; Ronnie, who is a student at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, and Donald, of Floydada, and other relatives. All newspaper men of the city attended the funeral services for Mr. Shepherd in a body and The Democrat remained closed throughout the day last Friday as a mark of respect to the memory of the former editor and publisher of the paper.

leafy vegetable each day; tomatoes or oranges three times each week; eight glasses of water each day.

Meat Substitutes

The following meat substitutes can be produced in Hall County and should be used more in the daily diet, Miss Adams said: milk, butter, American cheese, cottage cheese, peanuts, peanut butter, pecans, beans and eggs. Practically all of these foods can be stored at home for use as needed.

Leverett Buys—

Both Mr. Leverett and Mr. Baldwin are experienced drug men. Mr. Baldwin formerly resided in Memphis and owned several drug stores in this city at one time. The new management took effect immediately following the purchase last week, and Mr. Leverett announced that the store in Chillicothe would carry the well known Rexall line of goods.

Reid Chilcoat of Hedley has been named as manager of the Chillicothe Drug Company and Fleet Pruden, formerly of Memphis, will be in charge of the prescription department. Both are experienced men and are welcome additions to the business life of Chillicothe.

Loafed Around Store

The youth who is alleged to have attempted the robbery is said to have "loafed" around the community center throughout the day Thursday, apparently getting accustomed to the lay of the land. When the last customers left the store Thursday evening, he was said to have been near the store, but no one suspected what his motives were. The would-be robber is said to have entered the store and asked Nall if he could warm near the stove, and when Nall's back was turned, he drew a gun on him, ordering him to turn over the money in the cash register. Thinking he could outwit the robber, Nall attempted to take the gun from him and the robber fired. Nall fell to the floor and the robber fled from the store without getting any of the cash in the register.

Officers Are Summoned

After the man had escaped from the building, Nall struggled to a counter where he got his gun. He fired two shots, but did not hit any of the three occupants of the car. He immediately summoned officers who came to the scene of the shooting. Nall was rushed to a local hospital immediately following the shooting.

Carnival Contract Let

The contract for a carnival for this year's exposition was signed by the local fair representatives with the Bill Hames Shows. This carnival furnished the attractions along amusement row at the fair this past year and the success which came as the result of playing the engagement here made the management believe that the contract will prove beneficial to the finances of the organization. Further plans for the 1930 fair have not been made, but will be discussed at a directors' meeting to be held on Thursday, February 13.
