Campaign to Collect Reading Material for Men in Army, Navy

A call for donations of books that are in good condition, and books that are entertaining, instructive, and worthwhile, has been issued by Temple Deaver, Hall County chairman of the Victory Book Campaign.

The campaign, sponsored by the American Library Association, American Red Cross, and the United Service Organizations, is now underway, Deaver said, and books of all nature are wanted.

Citizens giving books may leave them at the Democrat office, or at any of the drug stores in Memphis, Deaver explained.

The campaign is being made to collect gift books for soldiers, sailors, and marines as a supplement to the library services maintained by the Army and Navy in forts, camps, posts, stations, and on ships; to provide reading matter for the U. S. O. houses outside the camps; and for the American Merchant Marine Library Association.

Good fiction, western books included, and non-fiction such as poetry, classics, travel, and technical books are in demand, it was explained.

Arrangements will be made for the repair of some books which are worth repairing, Deaver said. The donation of magazines is not being encouraged.

The first shipment of books will be made when 100 have been collected here, it was pointed out.

The government supplies many needs of the military forces, it was explained, but no books are provided.

Deaver emphasized the urgent need of the books, and expressed the belief that Memphians and other Hall Countians will respond to the call. The books are needed at once, and as soon as the first group of 100 has been collected, they will be shipped.

DISTRICT COURT JURORS NAMED

Grand Jurors to Convene Monday, February 16; Light Docket Expected for Term

Grand jurors for the February term of District Court in Hall County were announced this week by Mrs. Isabell Cypert, district clerk.

The docket this session will be very light, Mrs. Cypert said this week. Only seven criminal charges are listed so far as coming before the grand jury, and those left over from former sessions are also few.

A large number of divorce cases, 19 in all, are scheduled to come before the court, Mrs. Cypert said.

Grand jurors will be selected from the following group (the men were selected in October by Jury Commissioners D. L. C. Kinard, Paul Meacham, J. L. Marcum, B. L. Gresham, and J. O. Adams):

Frank Solomon, John Fuston, G. C. Ewing, W. F. Adams, T. M. Potts, Wade Davis, J. Henderson Smith, Joe Beeman, D. H. Davenport Jr., Alfred Hutcherson, C. R. Webster, Carl Holland, J. E. Berryman, A. Baldwin, A. Gidden, and Felix Jarrell.

Auto License Tags For '42 Go on Sale At Ferrel's Office

Plates May Be Placed on Cars March 1, Must Be Installed by April 1

License plates for 1942, received several months ago, went on sale this week in the office of J. M. Ferrel, Hall County tax assessor-collector.

The tags may be bought through this month, but cannot be placed on automobiles until March 1. The tags must be placed on autos by April 1, however.

Practically all of the tags to be bought will be for used cars, it was pointed out, since the ban on purchasing new cars will prevent many from registering new autos.

The effect of the ban on the sale of license plates was shown clearly during January when only six new vehicles were registered, Ferrel reported.

Four of those registered got licenses January 1. The ban on the sale of new autos became effective January 2. Two of the cars were registered after the date of the ban, but the purchasers were required to get a federal permit.

One of those registered after January 1 was a funeral car by King's Furniture and Undertaking, and the other was a truck by C. W. Kinslow Jr., who had the truck bought several months but on which delivery was delayed due to extra equipment being installed.

Those registering cars on January 1 were Dr. M. McNeely, Studebaker sedan; Raymond Ballew, Memphis, Studebaker sedan; Jess Rosenwasser, Memphis, Lincoln Zephyr; and E. N. Foxhall, Memphis, Lincoln Zephyr.

QUOTA IS STILL TO BE REACHED

Chairman Alexander Urges Community Workers to Report as Soon as Possible

Hall County's much-delayed campaign to raise a minimum of $2,300 in Red Cross war relief funds still was underway this week as a total of approximately $1,500 had been turned in by workers to O. V. Alexander, chairman of the drive.

Most of that turned in was collected by Memphis workers. Mrs. Jess Jenkins of Turkey turned in $30 early in the drive, and Mrs. Grover Moss and Mrs. J. T. Nelson turned in $68 from the Ell community this week.

The remainder came from Memphians, with the exception of some which was given by residents of other communities to workers in Memphis.

All community chairmen were urged this week by Alexander to complete their soliciting as soon as possible and turn the money in, since Hall County was one of the last in Texas to begin its campaign.

Up to Saturday, a total of $42,000,000 had been contributed in the United States toward a minimum quota of 50 million. The (Continued on page 5)

Schools of County Contribute $127 to Red Cross Drive

Memphis High Donates $51, Junior High $14; Other Schools Report Donations

The Emergency war relief drive of the Hall County chapter of the Red Cross did get off to a slow start, but now even the youngest of residents are doing their part.

This was indicated this week when County Superintendent Tops Gilreath reported a total of $127.35 collected at schools in Memphis and other communities of the county.

Other schools are expected to contribute to the drive to enable the quota of $150 to be raised, the county superintendent said.

Largest contribution was received from Memphis High School where $51 was contributed. The next largest came from the Turkey grade school, an amount totaling $23.89.

Contributions made at the various schools are as follows: Memphis High School, $51; Memphis Junior High School, $14; Lakeview school, $12.60; Turkey grade school, $29.89; Parnell school, $6.46; Estelline grade school, $5.04; Ell school, $3.40; Deep Lake school, $4.20; Newlin school, $3.75; and Lesley school $3.01.

Jones will be in Memphis for about two weeks longer, he said Wednesday, and will be at the Memphis Hotel to contact other young men and women between the ages of 18 and 35 interested in taking the course.

Other Memphians who have recently entered the institute are J. D. Roden, Cecil Phillips, Veri Whittier, Lawrence Taylor, Marvin Duncan, and Clarence Grambs. After completing the six-weeks course, the men are eligible to fill jobs at aircraft factories in Fort Worth and Dallas.

Jim eats breakfast at the SUPPER table now!

IT'S a screwy schedule. Jim downs a man-sized dinner while Mom's doing the breakfast dishes, sleeps the day away, and gets breakfast at the family supper table! He's on the night shift at the power plant.

The night is bright with light when Jim goes to work. Turbines that have been humming 24 hours a day never pause as fresh men take over the all-out job of generating power for Democracy.

CONTINUOUS production makes tremendous demands on men, machines, and on the electric service that powers practically every operation.

But the power is always there—day and night—Sundays and holidays—365 days a year.

The electric industry was ready when the crisis came—ready to serve every military need in addition to your home and business—ready to meet new needs with new construction. 1941 saw more than 2 1/2 million extra horsepower installed—enough to light one-fourth of all the homes in the U. S. A.!

America's electric companies have been able to accomplish this by business management—by producing over 90 per cent of the nation's electric power and making it available almost anywhere, over carefully interconnected systems.

We're glad we can make this report—and glad to pledge our unending effort to supply millions of workers with all the electric power they need to make America POWERFUL!

CIVILIAN DEFENSE AUXILIARY NOTES

"America is beginning to realize what England acutely realizes—that food, the right kind of food, is the greatest single morale factor of this war."

Thursday afternoon, February 12, at 3:45 o'clock a nutrition class will be organized by Miss Sullivan in the high school auditorium.

Mrs. K. H. Wherry reports several books promised for army camps. Look through your library, buy a book for the boys. Leave them at the Red Cross sewing room if more convenient.

The auxiliary committees, working in the residential district of Memphis on the emergency Red Cross drive, have turned in approximately $150.

Supplies have not arrived for the afternoon classes in first aid. Mrs. Winfred Wilson says the delay is caused by pressing needs on the coast.

Courses in child care, feeding, minor illnesses, what to do until the doctor comes, etc., will be started soon, according to Miss Frankie Barnes, welfare chairman.

petent speakers will address each session. Only fifteen women can be accommodated at one time so if you want to be a member of the first class sign up immediately with Miss Barnes at the Welfare Office or Miss Rachel Deahl at the Housekeeping Aide rooms.

Bring your wooden scraps to the sewing room, also short skeins of yarn, of which lovely warm afghans and quilts can be made. Look through your rag bag and see if you have scraps of outing to be used for baby booties, mittens, blankets etc.

We wish you might visit the packing room at the Red Cross sewing rooms before the bundles for Britain are shipped. Stacked almost to the ceiling are layettes, each consisting of 29 articles. Not perhaps what you would buy for your own little one, but dainty and sweet just the same—warm and durable.

Heard in the knitting circle: "Well I am about ready to tee off." The woman was evidently a golfer before she took up knitting.

—By Reporter.

KNITTING POSTPONED

The Red Cross sewing room will not be open Thursday night for knitters to work, as has been the custom during the past week, due to the presentation of the play, "I'm in the Army Now."

New Physician Is Graduate Of University of Arkansas; Comes Here From Virginia

Dr. J. D. Lord Jr., who until February 1 was resident surgeon at the Southside Community Hospital in Farmville, Va., has been added to the staff of the Memphis Hospital, Mrs. H. C. Wilson, superintendent, announced this week.

Dr. Lord, a graduate of the University of Arkansas School of Medicine, arrived in Memphis this week to begin his duties. He was accompanied by his wife, and the couple will live at 363 North 13th street.

A native of Arkansas, Dr. Lord was born in Little Rock, where he attended grade school and graduated from Little Rock Senior High School. His father has been practicing medicine in Little Rock for the past 35 years.

After graduating from high school, Dr. Lord attended the Little Rock Junior College, studying pre-law work for two years and pre-medical work for two years.

He then attended the University of Arkansas, from which he received his doctor of medicine degree.

Dr. Lord served a 4-months junior internship at the Nashville General Hospital at Nashville, Tenn., where he studied pediatrics. In his senior year in medical school, he served a 4-months junior internship at the Arkansas State Hospital at Little Rock.

After graduation, he served a one-year certified internship at Columbia Hospital in Columbia, S. C., majoring in surgery and obstetrics. Following his internship and up to February 1, he was resident surgeon at the Virginia hospital.

Mrs. Lord's home was formerly in Nashville, Tenn., and the couple were married during Dr. Lord's senior year in medical school. She is a graduate of Ward-Belmont School for Girls at Nashville, and also attended Vanderbilt University.

Dr. Lord, 27, participated in tennis while attending school and won championship honors both in the Little Rock Junior College and the University of Arkansas. He has done some research work, and during his internship he made skin tests for pregnancy for his research activities.

'Blitz Lunch' Served in Street

The proprietress of a cafe in East End London had her shop bombed out in an air raid, so she promptly moved into the street to serve tea and mid-morning lunch to her customers. This picture is typical, says the British Ministry of Information, of the manner in which the people manage to carry on under adverse conditions.

Farmers Urged to Save Burlap Sacks

Conserving burlap sacks as a safeguard against a probable shortage of burlap, efforts are being made to expand production of coarse cotton fabrics as substitutes. Heavy demands for tents, uniforms and sandbags already have been placed on cotton fabric manufacturers and appreciable increases for other uses cannot be expected too quickly, the chairman said.
 "Handling bags more carefully so they can be used again, returning bags to dealers for re-use, and repairing slightly damaged bags are practical ways farmers can off-set the shortage," Neeley said.

Farmers Told of Low Germination in Planting Seed

County Agent W. B. Hooser this week issued a warning to all farmers to be cautious in purchasing planting seed this season because of unusually low germination percentage due to poor growing conditions last year.
 Hooser said that the state seed laboratory is finding germination of cotton and other seed consistently lower this year than in previous years, germination of many samples running as low as 20 to 30 per cent and numerous samples showing zero.

A careful examination of the tag on seed bought by the farmer will help to insure the success of his year's work, the county agent stated. All seed sold by dealers must be tagged according to the Texas seed law, and the official tag must show the germination, purity, and noxious and other weed content. The dealer who sells untagged seed is not only breaking the law, but is endangering the farmer's crop by selling trash.
 The state seed laboratory reports that cottonseed is showing an unusually low germination as compared to other seed, and every dealer is cautioned not to sell untested and untagged seed to the farmer.

Blue Food Stamps Issued in January Total $7,758 Here

The creation of additional farm markets in the amount of $7,758 as a result of the food stamp program in Hall County during January was announced this week by L. J. Cappelman, Dallas, regional director, Surplus Marketing Administration. This amount represents blue food stamps issued to needy families of the county.
 Orange food stamps clients were required to purchase at the local issuing office during the month amounted to $10,866, bringing the total of food purchases under the program to $18,624.
 Participating in the program last month were 737 cases representing 2,882 persons.
 "The food stamp program of the Surplus Marketing Administration is a part of the United States Department of Agriculture's broad program to assure American farmers a ready market for their full production," Cappelman said. "The school lunch program and direct distribution program also create additional markets for American farm products. At the same time, all of these programs are helping to build the health defense of America by making more nutritious foods available to needy families."

Proper Tire Care Very Important

Hall County farmers believe that prevention of tire trouble is as important as its cure, according to D. A. Neeley, chairman of the county USDA War Board.
 Farmers throughout the county should be exerting caution to see that tires are free of grease and oil, rims straightened, stored equipment is jacked up to relieve pressure, tires are shadowed from excess sunlight, and that cracked tires are painted and plugged, the board chairman said.
 "Certificates for new tires may be issued for tractors, farm implements, and trucks used to haul farm products directly to market," Neeley said but explained they could not be obtained for transporting farm products to ultimate consumers. He also added that the rationing board had already issued certificates comprising the monthly total.
 "This simply means farmers will have to wait their turn along with others," Neeley said.
 Recapping, retreading and vulcanizing tires on automobiles and farm implements are other precautionary measures farmers may follow in preventing tire trouble. Since correct air pressure adds to life-span of tires for tractors and farm implements, periodic checks for proper pressure should be made, the chairman said.

ARE YOU ONE OF 'THEY'?

THERE'S BEEN a lot of talk going on lately which is in no uncertain terms degrading young men who are seeking deferments from the Selective Service draft terms.

We personally know of a number of cases of young men who have been called or are about to be called to service when their presence at home will no doubt mean more to national defense than their presence on the battlefield.

If there is anything to an army needing good morale to win a war, then our army's morale is likely to be at a low point if the present trend toward drafting is continued.

Some men have need to ask for deferments. We know of one case in which a man's wife, who ordinarily is employed, became ill and attending physicians said she would be confined for a period of at least six months. The young man asked for deferment, and some people, with no investigation of the facts, expressed the belief that the wife merely claimed she was sick so that her husband might seek a deferment. Put yourself in the man's place. Would you like to leave your wife ill, with no means of support? Or would you?

Some farmer lads, for example, will be needed in the future if the army expects to have any raw products to carry on. Food and other raw stuffs essential to an army have to be produced first by farmers.

It seems to us that a man is not in the least un-patriotic if he seeks deferment for a good cause. And his necessity at home on the farm is one of these good causes in our opinion.

Then there is the case of the young men who have married since the draft started, or just before the draft, and now have a wife and a baby to support. If these men are taken by the armed forces, they certainly won't be in the mood for much work at $21 a month while their wives or babies or both are back home about to starve to death.

Surely you can see that a man seeking deferment probably has reasons which you have not investigated. Don't degrade a man's character and bravery and courage without looking into the man's life a little at least.

After all, who are the people who are talking about the young men seeking deferment? Easy to answer, isn't it? They are the people who are at home now, and who probably won't be called into service, either because of their age or their health, and who won't do anything to help in national defense.

They are the ones who do not contribute to the Red Cross, they are the ones who do not volunteer their services to aid in the home defense, they are the ones who just sit around and talk about other people.

And yet they are the ones who run down a young man's character just because he seeks deferment, although his reasons for seeking such deferment may be the best in the world. Think it over, brother, you may be one of "they."

Signed, LESTER H. CAMPBELL,
Who Asked No Deferment.

CULLED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGES

Priority Chuckles

The Chillicothe Valley News: Wonder what the Chillicothe coffee addicts are going to do when sugar rationing starts—and the joints that have been making maple syrup out of sugar and water? This, too: Sign on the back of a tin-lizzie: "I may not be what I used to be, but I'm not tireless."

Sabotage

Virginia Anderson in the Shamrock Texan: The fashion writers have armed themselves with a thousand clever reasons why women should buy new clothes. "War is grim," writes one, "the women must do their share, they must build up morale." So far, so good. "And," she continues, "they must take the men's minds off of war." Now that's treason, pure and simple. However her idea of how to cope with the matter is to wear flounces, flowers, trim little frocks with jabots and peek-a-boo blouses.

We aren't sure how the first three will work but we bet those peek-a-boo blouses (if they're anything like they sound) will do the trick. Maybe that was the trouble at Pearl Harbor. Frankly we think the peek-a-boo blouses come under the head of subversive activities and sabotage. Now the Dies committee should...

Canine Green Eyes

Amarillo Globe: Smokey is still refusing to eat. Jealous of the baby daughter of his owners, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cleveland, the year-old half Spitz-half Scottie dog, hasn't eaten in more than 2 weeks. His rival, little Beverly Kay Cleveland, was born January 3 and Smokey began his hunger strike in protest against his loss of the spotlight position in the family's attention. His deep misery is deepest when the baby is being bathed or receiving other attention.

Happy Landing

Carl Roewe in The Turkey Enterprise: Appointment as an Army Aviation Cadet arrived belatedly Tuesday night by wire. U. F. Coker forwarded the information to Camp Roberts, Calif., where Dennis is a member of a training battalion, having been inducted into the regular Army through Selective Service when his appointment was delayed. Proper authorities will ask for Dennis' transfer to San Antonio where he will have a chance to learn to fly for Uncle Sam. Which should make Dennis one of the happiest guys in all California about now.

The Bigger They Are...

Scurry County Times: Unusual donor to Scurry County's Red Cross war relief campaign was Eb Clarkson, resident of the Turner community, who contributed a worn-out model 1020 McCormick-Deering tractor weighing approximately 4,000 pounds. R. G. Dillard, Red Cross war relief drive chairman was casting about Wednesday afternoon for some public-spirited citizen to tow the iron horse in free gratis to town, after which the machine will be taken apart and sold as scrap iron.

Double Purpose

The Tulia Herald: In connection with the National program of keeping up the morale of the boys in America's armed forces, boys and girls in the English classes of Tulia High School are writing letters to the boys. The young people do not expect individual answers, but hope that some of the boys will write to the class as a group and make a report to those "keeping the home fires burning."

Why do we use this picture to dramatize our SURE STARTS?

If ever you could say of any motor fuel that it is full of unyielding, bulldog determination to start cold, icy engines... that motor fuel is Phillips 66 Poly Gas!

It is high test, loaded with instant-firing elements, engineered to produce marvelously quick starting. Yet it costs not a penny more.

That's why it's the "hot" gas for cold weather. Try just one tankful and see if you don't feel that difference.

Remember, the Orange and Black 66 Shield is High Test Headquarters for car owners... because Phillips is the WORLD'S LARGEST PRODUCER OF natural high test gasoline.

NEW INCOME TAX PAYERS

Editor's Note: This is the 3rd of a series of articles concerning the present income tax law of the U. S. Other articles will follow week to week.

Many farmers will be liable for filing income tax returns and payment of tax for the first time this year. The term "farmers" includes livestock raisers, fruit and truck growers, and operators of plantations and ranches.

Farmers may maintain their records and file their returns of income on either the cash receipts and disbursements basis or on the accrual basis of accounting. A consistent method must, however, be employed. If a cash basis is used, Form 1040F, "Schedule of Farm Income and Expenses," is required to be filled out and filed in conjunction with Form 1040.

Deductions from gross income may be made by farmers as necessary expenses, all amounts expended (other than those constituting capital expenditures) in carrying on the business of farming. Deductions for expenses include such items as cost of feeding and raising livestock (except the value of farm produce grown upon the farm and the labor of the taxpayer); cost of seed, minor repairs to farm buildings (other than the dwelling of the farmer); small tools used up in the course of a year or two; fuel and oil used for farm work; repairs and maintenance of farm machinery; hired laborers and hired machines, and cost of commercial fertilizers, the benefit of which is of short duration.

The cost of farm machinery, equipment and farm buildings; amounts expended in the development of farms, orchards and ranches, as well as the amounts expended in the restoration of soil

ADLER'S RING?

ADLER'S RING? ... ADLER'S PHARMACY and ...

County, and in making this announcement I want to express my thanks to the people of Hall County for the support that has been given me in the past.

"In asking for your consideration I can offer as a promise only a continuation of the record I have tried to make in the office.

"I have tried to be fair and impartial, and discharge the duties of the office efficiently, honestly, and fairly.

"I possibly will not be able to see every citizen in the county and take this method of requesting your consideration."

John Deaver Announces Candidacy For Re-Election as District Attorney

John Deaver has authorized The Democrat to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of District Attorney of the 100th judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries next summer.

In making his announcement, Deaver made the following statement:

"To the citizenship of the 100th judicial district:

"In submitting my candidacy for re-election, I want first to thank each of you for the privilege of having served you as District Attorney. I am grateful for the sincere service you have rendered law enforcement while serving on the petit and grand juries.

"I possibly will not be able to see every citizen in the county and take this method of requesting your consideration."

"It has been my sincere desire, at all times, to discharge your trust fairly and without fear or favor, with neither friends to serve nor enemies to punish.

"Should you desire, I would be glad that you inquire as to the record made while serving you, the convictions obtained in contested cases and whether my efforts have tended toward an enforcement of the laws with firmness, but where justice has been tempered with fairness, consideration, mercy and understanding.

"If the manner in which I have handled your office meets with your approval, I shall gratefully appreciate your consideration in the next primary election"

Join the Navy, But Still Go to School

High school and college students between the ages of 17 and 20 may now enlist in the naval service and finish the current term of school unless the military situation necessitates the Navy Department calling them to active duty.

Navy recruiting is expected to continue on a strictly volunteer basis and many students may volunteer immediately under this order without fear of losing scholastic credits for the current year by enlisting in Class V-1 of the Naval Reserve, Navy recruiting officials said.

Loans to Farmers Now Available at McNally's Office

Loans for the production of 1942 crops are now available to farmers in Hall County and applications for these loans are now being received at M. E. McNally's office, according to Clyde F. Milam, field supervisor for the emergency crop loan section of the farm credit administration.

A recent announcement by W. E. Farwell, regional manager of the Dallas emergency crop loan office, which administers these loans, states that the loans are being made available somewhat earlier this season to meet the emergency caused by short crops in certain areas and to permit early preparation of the land.

These loans will be made, as in the past, only to farmers whose cash requirements are small and who cannot obtain loans from other sources. As in former years, the money loaned will be limited to the applicant's necessary cash needs in preparing the land, planting and cultivating his 1942 crops.

Commonly known as "seed loans," these loans have been made in this county for the past ten years.

This agency is financing the planting and production of marketable food crops, including vegetables, peanuts, citrus fruits, and melons.

section of country will have an opportunity to see a snappy up-to-the-minute play. Innumerable comedy situations take place in the Robertson household, providing plenty of laughs, and every minute of the play, "I'm in the Army Now," will be enjoyed.

Bronson Robertson, played by Nelson Combest, is Ma Robertson's favorite and she fusses over him constantly, and literally spoils him to death, thus plunging him into endless difficulties with his sweetheart, Letty Ashbrook, played by Helen Boswell, and even with members of his own family.

Will this young hero of the story be called for the draft? Will he have to undergo untold hardships? Will his local draft board accept him, and if they do, what effect will it have on his future? Be on hand tonight and find out the answers to these questions, Mrs. Harrison said.

Admission will be 35 cents for adults, and 15 cents for children, tax included. Half of the proceeds will go to the local chapter of the Red Cross.

He had lived in Hall and Childress counties for the past 52 years. For a while after moving to Hall County, he was engaged in farming, and while in Childress County he was in the coal business. During the past few years, he had been working with his brother, W. P. Dial.

the amount necessary has been raised during the past year, and the balance should be raised within the next few weeks. I wonder if it can be done.

The second appearance of The Democrat Staff Poet over radio KGNC will be Sunday, February 15, instead of Sunday, February 8, as announced last week. Here's the poet's effusion for this week:

SMILE

I wonder if to live in grace it is necessary for people to wear a long face. Should we all be sad and drear, and never once utter a word of cheer?

To me there seems no earthly wrong in a smiling face or word or song; even though we are bound by fate, we should bear no grudge, or debt of hate.

To hate, to judge, to condemn, to defile, and not expressed by an open smile.

Organization—

will be organized has not yet been received, but it is expected to be approved. Present plans call for the completion of the organization work so that the unit may begin functioning as soon as approval is made.

Roy Guthrie was chosen as captain of the unit at the first meeting held early in December. L. L. Doss was named first lieutenant, and Del E. Wells of Lakeview second lieutenant.

The Defense Guard is a state military organization, into which entrance is entirely voluntary. Honorable discharge may be obtained at any time upon the presentation to the local captain of reason for discharge.

The members may be called into active service at any time, but the Texas organization is not connected in any way with the federal army. If induction is to be made into the federal army, it must be done in the regular manner, and a member of the Defense Guard will be discharged if drafted.

No salaries are paid to members. Each, however, is required to drill two hours each week, and if a member finds that he does not have the time to spare, he may obtain an honorable discharge.
