W. A. MOTHER'S DAY SERVICES

Consul's and Governor's Proclamation Carried out. Program Well Rendered

In accordance to our Head Consul's Proclamation and also Governor's of the great state of Texas. The Modern Woodmen of America arranged a program which was carried out in the delight of all; and a speech as a climax to the program was made by our visit neighbor and distinguished neighbor, Homer T. Wilson, as a contribution.

The members met at the hall in a body marched to the river, each wearing a white ribbon. Reserved seats were given them and a good concert greeted them, and all enjoyed the music, songs, dances, and papers of which, Dr. N. H. Bowman was the following:

Chairman, Ladies and Men:

There never has been a proclamation issued from the Governor's mansion of this state of more moment, than that of Mother's Day Proclamation reserved upon this occasion. Never before in the history of our race has there been a sweeter word, than that of mother. The name was not given birth by human etymology, neither is it the result of evolution in the progress of the English language. But is distinctly a gift of our Creator.

No language has ever conceived a sweeter name neither have the poets ever sung a song, that so fills a human heart with inspiration, as the word Mother.

She is an entity of moral precept, and her influence represents the destiny of mankind.

Today's celebration marks an epoch of advancement in our civilization. History recited—"At the little town of Tilsit on the river Niemen in Prussia, precisely at 1 o'clock on June 25th, 1807, boats put off from opposite sides and rowed toward a raft in the middle of the stream. Out of each boat stepped a single individual, and the two met in a small wooden compartment in the middle of the raft, while cannon thundered salvos from both shores and shouts of great armies drawn up on both banks drowned the roar of artillery. The two persons were the Emperor Napoleon & Alexander, Emperor of Russia, and the history of time tells us that they met to "arrange the destinies of mankind." The conference

A Tribute of Respect.

How we will on precious mother
Since the Savior called her home.
All our hearts are filled with sorrow
And we are made to weep and mourn.
How we miss her in the morning
When the day begins to break
She was always first to greet us
When from sleep we would awake.
When we gather around the table
All but one dear face is there.
And our hearts are almost broken
As we view her vacant chair.
For our circle now is broken
And we do not number eight
Since our precious loving mother
Has been called through heaven's gate.

As we gather in the bed room
When the evening work is done
Then we listen for her footsteps
But they never more will come.
Oh, it fills our hearts with sadness
Every where we look or go
Even birds and beast seem lonely
As they wonder to and fro.
But with sadness comes rejoicing
Ne'er by tongue or pen expressed
For our dear sweet mother left us
Pillowed on her Savior's breast.

Patient, gentle, trusting, longing
For the Savior's call
To release her from her suffering
From her pain and sorrow all.
Then we cannot help rejoicing
Since from earthly pain she fell
Knowing she will dwell in Heaven
With our Lord eternally.

And we cannot know the rapture
Of her meeting over there
With her father sisters brothers
Who are dwelling with the Saviour.

Of her meeting with the Saviour
Who for us has tasted death
Making sweet the unseen pathway
Hallowed where she travelth.

Yes our blessed Saviour conquered
Death and took away the sting
We can follow never fearing
Trusting him in everything
Death is only a transition
To a brighter, happier home
Crowns of victory there are promise
To all those who over come.
She is the first one of our number
Bidden to the feast of love
And may each of us as worthy
Of the invitation prove.

We will not complain or mumber
Twas the Fathers loving will
And we hear him speaking gently
To our sad hearts, Peace be still.
May he always linger near us
Still our hearts, all doubt dispell
Teach us all to be submissive
God is love and all is well.
By R. W. Crawford after his wife's death.

Pracilla Club Meet.

Mrs. S. S. Montgomery gave a most enjoyable party Wednesday afternoon to the Pracilla club and a few invited guests. The time was spent in conversation and fancy work. After a short business meeting a splendid salad and sweet course was served. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Tomlinson. Roll call will be answered by promiscuous quotations.

Peleg and Peter at Opera House.

One of the funniest comedies ever pulled off in Memphis took place at the opera house Friday night and was repeated again Saturday night. This play was put on by the Memphis band for the benefit of helping the old Soldiers defray expenses of the band to Little Rock. Each character was well represented in their respective rolls and were much above the average amateur performances.

Old Timer in Memphis.

Capt. Arrington of Canadian, was in the city several days the past week. Mr. Arrington is an old time Texas Ranger and served as a ranger away back in the 70's, when it was counted an honor to be counted as a ranger. He met many old friends who knew him and enjoyed talking over old times.

T. M. Luther came down from Goodnight Friday for a visit with his son and daughter.

Thomas S. Rowell Dead.

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of Thomas S. (Uncle Tom) Rowell on Thursday of last week at his home at Newlin. Mr. Rowell had been in feeble health for some time, but up to two weeks ago his condition was not considered dangerous, but the death angel came and claimed him as his own on Thursday May 11, 1911. Mr. Rowell was born in Georgia on March 23, 1837. He was married in 1862 to Miss Nancy Mays and came to Texas forty-one years ago moved to Newlin, Hall county, twenty-one years ago where he and his family have lived continuously since that time. He joined the Lutheran church and then the Methodist of which he served as an active member until his death. Twenty-five grand children, four great grand children, one brother and one sister all of whom were present at the funeral. He was 74 years, 1 month and 13 days old at his death. Just before he died he called all his children around him talked and arranged his business affairs, and his last words were expressive of peace in God and a willingness to depart and be at rest with Him, and that he wanted them all to meet him in heaven.

His cheerful, helpful life; his devotion to his family and kindness to everybody will long linger as a fragrant memory in the home which his presence brightened and which death has now darkened.

The funeral services were held at the Newlin church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. S. J. Upton, of Lakeview who paid deceased a beautiful tribute to his living memory. From the beauty of his life let us all take an inspiration and go forth to live as he lived, so that when the summons comes you may say as he did, "All is well."

The funeral services were under the auspices of the Blue Lodge and Knights Templar and Odd Fellows of which orders he was a dearly beloved member. There were some thirty or forty Masons from Memphis in attendance at the funeral and it is said by those attending to be one of the longest funeral processions ever in Hall county. The remains were tenderly laid away in their last resting place by the Masonic order Friday afternoon in the Newlin cemetery.

To the bereaved ones we extend our heart-felt sympathy in this sad hour.

Hotel Changes Hands.

The Cobb hotel has again changed hands. Mrs. Lula Adams, who has been proprietor for the past several months departed for Amarillo Sunday where she will conduct a large rooming and boarding house. Mrs. Adams understands how to run a good hotel and has made many warm friends since coming to Memphis. She will be succeeded here at the Cobb by Mr. C. M. Beard who will conduct it in the future.

Fine Rain Friday Night.

A regular gully washing rain fell in Memphis and vicinity Friday night. The weather had been threatening for several days and it wound up by one of the biggest rains of the season. This will put a moisture in the ground which will assure plenty of season for all growing crops and our farmers will be kept busy now for the next few weeks.

Later—Another rain commenced falling about midnight Sunday night and continued till after daylight Monday morning.

W. H. Goodnight has bought the interest of his partner, H. L. Champion, in the produce business. The business will hereafter be conducted with Mr. Goodnight as owner and manager.

PLEASANT EVENING REVERIES

A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide

A touch of the hard, a look of love, a kindly deed, a sympathetic smile are the medicines for a broken heart.

Two men were disputing over their respective churches. One was a Baptist and one was a Presbyterian. Finally one of them called a neighbor who was passing and asked his opinion as to which was the better church in which to be saved. "Well, neighbor," he said, "son and I have been hauling wheat nearly forty years. There are two roads that lead to the mill. One is the valley road and the other leads over the hill and never yet has the miller asked me which road I came, but he always asks, 'Is the wheat good?'"

There is a good deal of undeserved censure passed on women on account of their not making home more attractive. Most of this blame is fairly chargeable on men. With what heart can a woman strive to make the fireside cheerful when she knows, from bitter experience, that the companion of her life will come home to criticize her cooking, to disregard her personal appearance, and to let off upon her wounded but patient ear fretful language on account of everything that has gone wrong out-of-doors! See to it that you do your part, Mr. Husband, to make home happy by cheerful encouragement to your wife.

Our home should be so filled with pleasant smiles, loving words and kind acts, that the moment a member enters it the sunshine of happiness will beam from every countenance and a thrill of joy fill every heart; in fact, the home should be to its members, the pleasantest spot on earth. If cross words must be spoken let them be directed to strangers or better still go into the woods and direct them to the wild animals; but a still better way is to keep the mind so full of good thoughts, and the hands so busy in performing kind, Christian acts that there will be no room for cross words to mature, and no time or disposition to utter them.

We estimate a mother's importance in her family as high as any one can; and yet we do not believe she monopolizes all the qualities needed in the great work of training up human beings. Her familiarity with her children places her in some respects, at a disadvantage for the exercise of wholesome authority. The wise father will not indeed take the reins of the family government from his wife; but he will make his children feel and know that her gentle way is sustained by a firm and steady hand; that behind their mothers tender heart stands a cool judgment and a will stronger even than their own, and that cannot impose upon the one or resist the other.

The great national question of the day is not, "What are we going to do with the negro" or "tariff." It is more vital, more individual and more spiritual. It is what are we going to do to vitalize the minds of our boys and girls at home and make it the mighty throne of inspiration. We hear some one say, "You are all theory, give us a basis to work upon." If you are looking for a fixed set of rules for making a home happy and attractive, you are looking in vain. The government of no two homes is likely to be the same. Homes are as varied in disposition as the minds of men. What makes one laugh might cause tears for another. Have the making of home a place of joy, pleasure and profit, as any other part of our daily work. Do not save the frowns of business worry for your fireside.

A bond of sympathy should, and in most instances does connect mother and daughter. What is more natural than that a young girl should seek her mother's sympathy and advice when trouble comes. Mother's voice has been music to her ear since memory first dawned, her hand has rocked the cradle, rested upon her head as she lisped her first prayer, and smoothed her pillow during the weary hours of sickness. She can be trusted and into her ear is poured the secret that no one else may know. Whether it be an offer of marriage or an intimation of a broken vow, mother will know best how to advise.

The truest, best and sweetest type of the girl today does not come from the home of wealth, she steps out from house where is comfort rather than luxury. She belongs to the great middle class—that class which has given us the best wifehood, which has given helpmates to the foremost men of our time; which teaches its daughters the true meaning of love which teaches the manners of the drawing room and the practical life of the kitchen as well as teaches its girls the responsibilities of wifehood and the greatness of motherhood.

It is more pleasant to be invited to take a higher seat than to be deprived of it. It is more pleasant to be a King of a cottage than a servant of a palace. It is better to be a good five cent piece than a bogus quarter; in other words, it is better to hold ourselves at what we are honestly worth. The world is full of people who never lasted just two hours. It was a private meeting, yet it was momentous to every nation. It was a crisis in the history of men. But the designs were defeated. We have gathered here on this occasion without the blare of trumpet or the roar of cannon. We come in the name of Mother to launch a movement momentous to every citizen of this country, which is rich in purpose pertaining to the destinies of mankind. A movement predicted upon success, and not like the plans of the two Emperors, doomed to failure; a movement as clear as the Sun, as fair as the Moon, and as terrible as an army with banners.

By our presence we do honor to ourselves to acknowledge with admiration next akin to awe, that Mothers influence is the greatest power in the realms of human activity. This Christian era has awoken to the potentiality of this hitherto unappreciated power, and our citizenship has decreed, that the world give due credit.

The time is at hand when we must bow at the shrine of Mother's influence. She has the power to say to the world—"Ask of me, when you would know the Destiny of Mankind."

"Every kindred and every tongue On this terrestrial ball Will bring forth the royal diadem And crown her Queen of all."

She nurtured a pupose, when she taught us to say, Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to keep, If I should die before I wake, I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to take."

Ever and anon, a smile, as if born of heaven, plays over us, when comes the sweet recollection of what a Mother's Influence has been to us. It is just as natural for us to turn the flood of memories' enchanted ecstasies toward a mother's love, as it is to seek a reward in the great beyond.

To those Mother's who are here today let me say—There is in the bosom of the great eternity a fitting reward, and as an earthly tribute we who have seen the snows of many winters, that never melt, will find strength and comfort in the evening tide of our lives to know, that Mother's Influence has been our guide.

Below we also give the paper of Mrs. A. P. Bunch which she read at this service.

Our Mothers

Of all the words cherished in the recollection of man—of all the names held sacred in his memory, that of Mother falls upon his heart with the most sublime influence and tenderness.

This high and noble calling should be regarded as a privilege and not a duty. For in this great function of Motherhood you have in your care a human life cast in the image of God.

You have the training of a human soul. Is it not a privilege indeed? You are working with God to make his will supreme; what nobler work could one ask than this. The artist and his picture, the poet and his verse, the sculpta and his clay—what are they all, compared to the Mother and her little child. Think over it; and pray God for that wisdom and guidance which will enable you to make a masterpiece of this tender object growing under your hand, and often give thanks for the privilege of it all. The world owes much to the Mothers early influence on the heart and life of the child. Mothers have need of the great love of the Divine, that they may show their children that it means something to have Christ come into their hearts and lives. If the Mother herself be truly religious the child will undoubtedly imitate something of her spirit. But Oh, "the truth" you must first prove. E're you can teach it to the child you love. Once learned he'll value it all else above, think not that he is all too young to teach; his little heart will like a Magnet reach and touch the truth for which you find no speech. It was Bucher who said, the Mother's heart is the child's schoolroom and it is she who molds character.

Last night I walked among the lamps that gleamed, And saw a shadow on the window blind, A morning shadow, and the picture seemed To call some scene to mind, I looked again, a dark form to and fro Swayed softly as to music full of rest Bent low, bent lower; still I did not know, And then at last I guessed, And through the night come all old memories flocking, Whit white memories like snow flakes round me whirled, "All's well! I said; the Mothers still sit rocking The cradle of the world. The future of society is in the hands of the Mothers. If the world was lost through woman she alone can save it. For children are in a large degree what Mothers are. The relationship between Mother and child is vastly more than that of the physical, for she is indeed the Mother of an immortal being where destiny is settled in this life as to the place they shall spend eternity. Who has not read with thrilling interest the story of Hannah? How she took her little boy at such a tender age and dedicated his life to God. And truly his life was a noble one proving that God honors those who honor Him.

It was a great honor conferred upon woman in that God ordained that she should be the Mother of the world's only Saviour. Ye are workers with God helping to carry out the divine plan. Some one has said, but one thing on earth is better than a wife and that is a Mother. God sought to give the sweetest thing in his Almighty power to earth.

And deeply pondering what it should be one hour, In fondest joy and love of heart, Out weighing every other, He moved the gate of Heaven apart And gave to earth a Mother. There is music in the word home, to the old it brings a bewitching strain from the harp of memory to the young it is a reminder of all that is near and dear to them. Among the many songs we want to listen to, there is not one more cherished than the dear old melody of Home Sweet Home and to many of us sad memories come, and we are caused to say, what is home without a Mother. Then through our falling tears we look up and say, Home is where Mother is. It is fitting that we should pause for a moment and turn our hearts and minds back to the more sacred things of life and come here on this Sabbath day to show our love and appreciation for those of our Mothers who are yet with us, and with a loving tribute of flowers to the sacred memory of our departed ones. For truly they are worthy to be remembered at all times. Even he who died upon the cross in his last hour in the agony of death was mindful of his Mother, as if to teach us that this sacred love should ever occupy our most holy thought. A mother's love is indeed the golden link that binds youth to age, and he is still but a child, however time may have furrowed his cheek or silvered his brow who can yet recall with a softened heart the fond devotion of a gentle Mother.

Me thinks it must some where be written that the virtues of Mothers shall occasionally be visited upon their children as well as the sins of their Fathers. We find when Paul would commend Timothy his faith that he said it had dwelt first in his Grandmother and then his Mother, and also in the son.

Fortunate indeed is the child who has the heritage of a christian Mother. Though she may be called to her reward in its early childhood yet that sweet spirit will ever abide and do much to turn its feet into paths of righteousness and we find that through the voice of her child she being dead yet speaketh. Let us rejoice that this is even so. It was John Quincy Adams who said, all that I am my Mother made me.

The greatest need of today is for the old fashioned Mother, who looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness. Though often being poor yet making many rich, patiently toiling and praying that the work of her hands might be established.

Her children shall rise up and call her blessed, her husband also and he praiseth her saying, Other daughters have done virtuously, but thou excelleth them all. The story goes that she was an ordinary woman without leisure or culture, was not up on China painting or the Roman Emperor but she brought up three children to tell the truth, to love God and their fellowman and do honest toil with their hands and not be ashamed of it. When she died the papers did not notice it, but the recording Angel said as he reached for a fresh pen and a clean page. A Queen is coming get her throne ready.

Mother's Day Program observed at M. E. Church

The observance of the day was begun in the Sunday School where a committee pinned a flower on every one coming to Sunday School in memory of their Mother, at the preaching hour in the absence of the Pastor B. W. Dodson the following program was carried out, after a song, appropriate for this occasion, prayer was offered by W. D. Morgan which was very spiritual in its uplift. Scripture Lesson was read by Mrs. C. A. Crozier after which Dr. Bowman gave a paper on the topic: "The Mother's Influence on the Character of the Child" which was carefully prepared and offered many excellent thoughts concerning the influence of Mother. Mrs. W. B. Quigley followed with a paper entitled, "And The Father Also," Mrs. Quigley stressed the idea that the Father must take part in the raising of a family and become a co-worker with the mother if the greatest results in the home could be reached. She emphasized the thought that the Fathers neglect the homes in their struggle to become great business men and thus, failed to help the mother in rearing an ideal family. A paper was given by Mrs. S. E. Major on the subject, "Why all Good Mothers favor Prohibition" which was very ably handled and up on motion and second the audience asked privilege to hear the paper again in print. So the paper will be inserted in the papers that all may enjoy its thoughts. Next on program was a "Reading by Lillian Norwood entitled, "The Factory Child or Under the Curse," which was rendered most beautifully, after this Reading came a paper, "Why The Father Ought to Favor Prohibition" by Prof. W. A. Thompson. He gave us some very fine facts and made it clear, that every true Father should by true relations to his home be in favor of Prohibition. The last paper on the program was given by T. B. Norwood on the subject, "What Great Men Owe to their Mothers." This was a splendid production and brought out the idea that the Presidents of the United States, almost without an exception, had praying mothers. The Duet rendered by Miss Mabel and Ethel Dodson was fine and proves the splendid vocal training of the Misses Dodsons. The last number was the song, "Tell Mother I'll Be There," sung as a solo by Mrs. Elm with the audience joining on the chorus.

The weather was quite inclement but in spite of this fact a goodly number came to Sunday School and remained to here this splendid program. After the closing prayer by W. B. Quigley, the audience dispersed, feeling a great uplift in memory of mother.

ONE PRESENT.

The following paper was read by Mrs. S. E. Major: "Why all Good Mothers Favor Prohibition."

"I might remind you that a very old Book may furnish a possible reason for a mother favoring Prohibition. In that ancient book, that is a story which declares that our first mother brought a great deal of trouble in the world, by her failure to keep the prohibition law regarding the fruit on a certain tree. We are told that she ate of this fruit and also gave it to her husband and did eat with her and the result was, that they were both expelled from that beautiful garden and entered into a world of trouble and pain and death. From that day to this woman has ever been ready to help and favor every moral reform movement, and in none more than in their great fight now going on throughout the land to destroy the liquor traffic.

With the memory of this story before her woman can well afford to believe that Prohibition is better than high license, or any other plan designed to regulate an evil.

Why should mothers favor Prohibition? Because every one knows that the wives and mothers of our land suffer most from the awful horrors of the drink traffic. Its curse has entered their homes, destroying their happiness, the drunkards wife is the greatest sufferer on earth, because in this she is most helpless indeed, and can only weep and pray when her husband becomes a victim of drink. How many wives and mothers have seen their little ones half clothed and at the same time crying for bread, because the husband and father was spending his earnings at the open saloon. How many wives and mothers have been cruelly beaten and bruised, and have seen their little children beaten and often killed by their drunken husbands. Who were really kind and loving when sober. How many mothers have seen their boys and girls grow up with almost no education because the father was a drunkard. How many mothers have gone down to an early grave with broken hearts because of the saloon that has debauched and killed their loved ones? Then the cry of thousands of broken hearts are coming to us throughout the land from wives and mothers whose helplessness and sufferings are almost unbearable, and all their piteous cries and pleadings seem unheeded, while the saloon and the distillery from whence cometh all this evil and suffering have been safe guarded and protected. Is it any wonder that a woman who has experienced such suffering from the saloon destroying her loved ones shall become a monomaniac, and start out to smash saloons everywhere as Carrie Nation did in Kansas? What could mothers be thinking about if they were not in favor of Prohibition. It seems to me that every mother would not only be in favor of state but world wide prohibition some of the wives men tell us that they ought not to vote to take the saloons away from Dallas, Ft. Worth and San Antonio and the other cities of Texas, because the people of those cities desire the saloon and we ought to be in favor of local self government and ought not to vote something upon those cities they do not want. What is the saloon, "A place where every conceivable form of evil is born, the place where the honest man is made a thief" the kind and loving husband and father, stained with the blood of ruined men and the tears, of broken hearted women and starved children. Go to any of these cities you have but to look around you to see the evils of this business, its corrupting association to the home its paths of vice and folly. How true it has been said that, "The path to the saloon may be free from pain and sorrow but the path from it is lined with widows and orphans in tears and rags. With broken hearted wives and mothers whose husbands and sons are traveling daily the way with feet set upon destruction." And what about the thousands of wives and mothers in those cities who are stretching out their hands to you and begging you to vote in favor of prohibition, that the saloons may be banished from those cities and their husbands and sons be given a better chance to quit drinking and live better lives. It is impossible to confine the evils of the saloon to the city, for men go to the cities from miles around visit the saloons, get drunk and sometimes hurt or killed in drunken rooms and families in all surrounding counties are bereaved, heartbroken and impoverished by the city saloon. My brother, what are you going to do on July 22? Are you going to vote that 4000 saloons shall continue their dreadful work of debauching and degrading the manhood of our land, and leading their souls to destruction? Shall we pay no attention to the cry of those thousands of mothers who are pleading with us to consider their desperate condition and asking the good people of Texas to help them by voting against the saloon? Are they not entitled to your helping hand in this crisis? Will you not vote to banish the saloon that these thousands of little children in these cities may have better fathers and better brothers because the awful curse of the saloon has been taken away? What do you owe to the saloon that you should vote in favor of it? That it is a curse cannot be denied and to license this curse is only to perpetuate and give it strength. Yes the vast majority of mothers are in favor of prohibition, for it is the only way to drive this evil from the land. If you will think of your own mother when you go to the ballot box to cast your vote, surely it will make you think of those thousands of mothers in our cities who are begging and pleading that you vote against the open saloon. Will you not vote on the side of the good mothers in Texas? Surely you ought to live for those who love you, for those who count you true, for the God who is above you and the good that you can do. Live for the wrong that needs resistance, for the right that needs assistance, for the heaven in the distance and the good that you may do. Oh christian voter for it is by the christians vote that the victory will be gained or lost. Answer this question from your hearts can I as a child of God pray "Thy will be done" then vote for the greatest hinderance to God's will being done of anything on the face of the earth? "Give us this day our daily bread" and vote to license that which takes the bread from thousands of he'less women and children? "Lead us not into temptation" and vote for the greatest temptation on earth to the poor drunkard? the open saloon. "Deliver us from evil" then vote for the liquor traffic to continue in your own state and country? True religion means a true man, a true prayer and a true vote. This brings to our mind a truth in song, (with just a little change.) "Along in July when warm was the weather, Two ballots were cast in a box together. They nestled up close like brother to brother. You couldn't tell one of these votes from the other, they were both rum voters and sanctioned the license plan, but one was cast by a wicked old brewer and one by a Sunday school man. The Sunday school man soon after the election was giving a lesson in christian perfection. He said, to be true you must keep in the way. A little boy answered, yes, and vote as you pray."

Miss Suggs primary and kindergarten entertainment on last Thursday night was quite a success. The program was well selected and each little tot did well showing the careful instruction they must have received. The popularity of the little folks was shown by the fact that the house was crowded and many were turned away. We as patrons wish to thank Miss Suggs for the entertainment and congratulate her upon her success.

Sermon to the Public Schools.

The Baptist church was crowded Sunday night to hear the sermon to the public Schools. The service was an informal one and planned to express appreciation of the school work in our city this year and re-emphasize the genuine ideals of Education.

The subject was a pointed expression of the choice made in life by humanity, either to become "building stones" in the great forward movements of progress; or "Tombstones" standing idly and sadly here and there making only the process of decay and death. The building stones of life are the young people who use their opportunities and fit themselves with the real preparation in the school work to go out and become a part of the useful factors in the world's development. The "Tombstones" take life as a joke, throw away their school room opportunities, flitter out their lives in superficial society and only have a place in the world's progress that the tombstone has in the Cemetery to mark the place of the dead.

Four things were suggested as the foundation and result of education, first, A clear sight that is the training of the preceptive powers which are the natural inlets of knowledge to see and feel the better things in life. To see nature in her real light and place, to read History with its lesson of wisdom and truth and to feel the power and need of humanity as we touch it everywhere. Second, a quickened imagination, that power by which we visualize the invisible, inspire it through literature, meditation and just ambition.

Third, training of Reason power to give us correct conclusions and opinions. Fourth, to develop a strong will which holds all gifts and attainments under idea of service to humanity rather than use them as Sunday clothes—to wear only on parade. The result of education is not a selfish scholar, scornful critic, whining idealist or Library ornament but is a useful citizen—a real "building stone"—anything less is only "Tombstone."

Remember the O K Tailor is the only French dry cleaner in Hall county and it does the work

You can always save money by buying clothing from McMillian the O K Tailor. Our motto is live and let live.

Mrs. O. B. Burnett and daughter Mrs. Thomas, of near Indian Creek left Sunday morning for South Carolina, where they will visit friends and relatives for several weeks before returning home.

Notice Baldwin and Company special sale add in this issue. Their methods of conducting their business in the past sufficient evidence of real bargains being given during the sale and no need of farther comment from us.

There is something doing in Memphis in the Dry Goods line this week. Lewis & Marshall Co. are all putting on big sales and if you do not supply yourself with dry goods, it will be your own fault. Read their ad it is very interesting reading.

Returned From Austin.

Dr. Winifred Wilson returned Wednesday night from his trip to Austin where he had been about three weeks. While in Austin he purchased a handsome Buick automobile for his father Dr. C. F. Wilson and drove it through to Memphis. He says he did not see any place on his route where the crops looked in as healthy condition as Hall county and that in some places people were having to plow up their cotton and plant over on account of the continued rains.

Off for Reunion.

On Sunday morning there were some forty or fifty Memphis people, including Old Soldiers, citizens and the Memphis band, departed for the United Confederate Veterans reunion at Little Rock. Preparations are being made for one of the largest reunions ever held.

Spelling Match.

On next Friday, May 19th, there will be a spelling match at the Berry school house out near Eli. The proceeds will go towards the betterment of the school at that place and should be well attended. You are cordially invited to come out and enjoy yourself.

The University of Texas Alumni Association is planning a reunion for Commencement week in June this year. The special guests for the occasion will be the members of the first ten graduating classes that ever went out from the University. It is expected that quite a number of Alumni and former students will come back on a visit to the University.

The Farmer.

There is a farmer who is y y
Enough to take his ee,
And study nature with his ii
And think of what he cc.
He hears the chatter of the jj,
As they each other tt,
And sees that when a tree dkk
It makes a home for bb.
A yoke of oxen he will uu,
With many haws and gg,
And their mistakes he will xqq,
When plowing for his pp.
He little buys but much he sells,
And therefore little oo;
And when he hoes his soil by spells,
He also soils his hose.—Ex.

Public School to Close.

Our public schools will close here next Friday the 19th. All the teachers and students are very busy arranging an elaborate and appropriate program for the closing of what is one of the most profitable sessions ever held in Memphis.

There are 547 students applying for graduation at the Main University at the close of the present session. If all these applicants pass in their examination, there will be 119 who will take the Degree of Bachelor of Arts; 82, the Degree of Bachelor of Laws; 15, the Degree of Civil Engineer; 15, the Degree of Electrical Engineer; 2, the Degree of Mining Engineering; and 14, the Degree of Master of Arts.

People generally are beginning to realize that road making is a public matter and that the best interest of agriculture demand the construction of good roads and that money wisely expended for this purpose is sure to return.

THE WILD WOOD FEAST

The Rabbitt and Possum met often at night,
For a feast or a frolic by Luna's light
Usually sometime in suitable weather
And this is how they got together.
The Possum pulled on a trailing vine
Which was the call over their private line,
Telling Bre'r Rabbit as was his habit
To come to the Wildwood Bower and dine.
The call sounded soft and clear in tone
When the "Blue-Bells" rang in the rabbit's 'phone
Inviting him over to the home of his chum
Down in the dell near the tall sweet gum.
Bre'r Rabbit arose and tied his cravat
Powdered his face as slick as a cat
Curled his mustache and twirled his cane
As he proudly pranced off down the lane.
He was frightened by the sound of a Dog-wood Bark
And was afraid of a Catnip in the dark
Yet nothing more serious molested him
But thoughts of the Supper interested him.
The Katy-dids chirped and the Crickets turned loose
And the scene was soon bright with Lightning-bug Juice.
The table showed all a 'Passum could muster.
Overhead hung Grapenuts with Purple Plums on top,
Seasoned with May Haws and luscious May pop,
Were piled in plates of Magnolia Bloom
And seasoned with sugar from Maple Tree Gum.
The salads were cooled with Ice Plants rare
Served in Butter Cups, very plentiful out there,
Whipped cream furnished by beaten Milkweed
Was eaten with Strawberries without any seed.
They drank Corn Juice from green Roastingear
That was better than Milwaukee's famous Beer.
All things, however nice, must end,
And the feast these friends had to suspend
And so dear reader, if in pleasure's quest
Try and be invited as a 'Possum's guest.

Texas University Items.

One of the professors of the University recently stated that for twenty-two years he had not missed a single year lending money to students of the University, ranging in amounts from $10 to $35. Only in one case was a note given by the student, and this was not required. Every student returned every cent borrowed, and not one cent has been lost by this professor in the twenty two years. Moralists and philanthropists might find food for some original thinking based on this experience.

Your money's worth or your money back, this is Watkins way 41-4t.

In this week's issue appears the large double page add of E. E. Peoples Co. The latest arrival of our merchants. That they intend to get business is evinced by their methods of aggressiveness. This store is one of the largest in Memphis, carrying everything in the Millinery, Dry Goods, Clothing and Shoe lines Mr. Peoples is very optimistic in speaking of his business and the outlook of his sale.

As he expresses it, "We certainly have the goods" and nobody can duplicate the prices and why shouldn't we get the business.

Serious Hog Shortage.

The Commercial Secretaries' Association has been gathering data on our live stock industry with a view of supplying the Texas farmers with accurate information on market conditions, and the association gives out the following advance statement on hogs:

The hog shortage in Texas is a serious menace to our prosperity. The hog shortage on home consumption and its out-trade territory amounts to 250 cars per week at an average farm value of $3500 per car. This is approximately $50,000,000 per annum. These figures do not include competitive territory on the Continent or foreign markets which the Texas farmer can easily master as he can raise hogs more cheaply than in any other state and he has the packing house in easy reach.

"The hog is the safest crop and the surest market of any of our agricultural products."

Good roads contribute to the glory of the country, give employment to idle workmen, distribute the necessities of life, the products of the fields, the forests and factories, encourage energy, and make mankind better, greater and grandeur.

Physicians Hold Interesting Meeting.

Several of our Memphis physicians attended the Medical association at Amarillo last week and all report one of the most interesting and helpful meetings they had ever attended. One of the main pleasure features of this occasion was the barbecue at Pala Duro Canyon where a great feast was spread in the side of the canyon in what is known as the "Devil's Kitchen." A beautiful bubbling spring in the side of the hill furnished plenty of pure water for all to quench their thirst, but this spring was so located that it was hard to find and some of the more temperate ones almost choked before they were put on the right track.

Recent statistics gathered from the Engineers that have graduated from the University of Texas show that they are distributed from South America to British Columbia, and from the Philippines to Cuba,—and all over TEXAS.

Will Move to Fort Worth.

We regret to announce that Dr. Mickle and family have this week removed to Ft. Worth where they will reside in the future. This good family have made many warm friends during their stay in Memphis who will regret losing them from among us. Their car of household goods were shipped out Tuesday the family having left the early part of the week.

Staunch Friend of Bridge Proposition.

In conversation with Commissioner S. H. Lacy of Turkey, Mr. Lacy says he has been fighting for a bridge across Red river for the past seven years and that he was now starting in on seven more years seige, and that he was not going to let up until there was a bridge put across the river. Amen! Brother Lacy, we are with you.
