Drouth Is Broken Last Sunday By Inch Rain; Hail Storm Causes Thousands Of Dollars Damage To Cotton Crop Over Hall County

On the LEVEL

a column by
William Russell Clark

Understanding the heart of a boy, his motives, plans, ambitions; his interests and his way of doing things is a study which never grows tiresome to the man who has not lost himself the elemental qualities of youth. The younger generation is on the firing line today of reformers, theorists, practitioners of logic, ethereal spellbinders and a polyglot company in general, well meaning, but lacking the human touch that would bring them into closer relationship with those they seek to epitomize.

Theoretical tests, tending to prove or disprove fact or fallacy, fall far short of their purpose. The only way to know the younger generation, and more particularly, the large part of it composed of boys, is to be part and parcel of it; to speak with them a common language, to know them at first hand. The adult is generally too preoccupied with other interests to give the boys the chance which is rightfully theirs.

Nothing seems to me more insane and lacking in good horse sense than the practice which is followed in many colleges of giving intelligence tests. Students are rated in proportion with the questions they answer and the marks they make. Such a practice is almost as silly as Thos. A. Edison's plan of picking the brightest boy in the United States. I have a very real admiration for Mr. Edison's many feats, but I certainly cannot agree with him in the way he selects the boys he intends to educate for a career.

Equally as illogical as is Mr. Edison's practice of selecting the brightest boy is the time-worn "equa" idea of appealing to youth through a display of oratory. These messages, designed for the young, can be appreciated by the grown-ups. Boys cannot be swayed by oratory and theories. If you would have them do a certain thing in a certain way, illustrate your point with a joke, be on the same level with them and do away with all forms of "high brow" antics and you will get results.

A very potent truism is the one which says "you can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink." You can explain to boys the difference between right and wrong until you are black in the face and your tongue hangs out, but you cannot make them do right unless they will to do so. First of all, they must decide in their own minds they want to do without any nagging. Paint a picture they can understand of the effects of wrong doing and benefits to be derived from.

FREE TREAT AT PALACE TAKES IN 250 BOYS

Party Given By L. E. R. And Hollis Boren Is A "Sure-Fire" Hit

Boys by the auto loads, boys on bicycles, boys on scooters, boys on roller skates and boys on the hop, skip and jump began invading The Democrat office as early as 12:20 Monday for free tickets to the Palace Theatre, which were given out shortly after one o'clock.

More Than 250 Boys

More than 250 Memphis boys under 15 years of age were the guests of L. E. R. and Hollis Boren at the Palace. It was all the fault of Jupiter Pluvius, who failed to perform in time to save the reputation of L. E. R. About two weeks ago the promulgator of this and that made a prediction that it would rain within a certain time, and promised every boy under 15 years of age a free ticket to the Palace if it did not.

Arms Get Rheumatic

"I didn't know there were so many boys in all of Hall County," L. E. R. declared after his arms had become rheumatic from passing out tickets, "but they're fine looking youngsters, and it seems that our boy crop hasn't been affected by the drought."

"It looked like mob violence," said Hollis Boren, "when the boys started pouring into the Palace. They filled the theatre half full and could have, of course, created a lot of disturbance. But they didn't. They were well behaved, perfect little gentlemen. I enjoyed their visit with me."

Boys Who Attended

Although there may be a few unintentional omissions, boys who attended the theatre party are listed below:

Jack Holcomb, J. P. Townsend, Raymond Maddox, Joe Peddy, Fred Champion, Richard Moreman, Bobby Thomas, Robert Lott, Hugh Campbell, Hugh Baker, Wilford Kennon, Coy Dennis, Winford Graham, Lloyd Evans, Wood.

Local Automotive Company Moves To Structure On 7th

The D. & P. Chevrolet Company is changing its location this week from 622 West Noel street to its new building one block south of the old stand. This building, which was completed about two years ago, has been used for a storage house and as the Duco Department for some time. The building which will be occupied this week while not as large as the one vacated, will prove adequate for the needs of the company, as a 50x140 used car lot will be located at the side of the structure.

According to T. M. Potts, the entire front of the building will be remodeled to take care of the needs of a display room that will be of the latest type. Large plate glass show windows will be placed in the corner of the display room, and the space in front will be laid in concrete and gravel. Although the work of remodeling the building will not be completed for some time, the company expects to open the house for business September 1. All work to install the fixtures and stock is being rushed in order that complete service may be rendered at the earliest possible moment.

SERVICE DURING ELECTIONS IS APPRECIATED

Many Express Thanks To Democrat Staff For Late Reports

That Democrat election service is appreciated is attested by the many compliments showered upon the staff by local citizens and those who live in various parts of the county. It will be remembered that in the first primary, this paper gave telegraphic returns and published an extra of eight pages giving the latest results. This procedure was followed exactly last Saturday and Sunday, except that the election extra contained only four pages. In both instances, cars were sent over the county to distribute the papers as soon as they came from the press.

Among those who expressed their appreciation for the election service were the following:

Ben Hill, Brice merchant, and formerly of Memphis: "Those papers look mighty good to us and we surely appreciate the trouble you went to in getting them out here. Fine work."

Enjoyed Extra

E. T. Montgomery, Plaska farmer: "I enjoyed The Democrat extra very much. You got it out here before breakfast and gave us the first and latest returns in the election."

C. Lee Rushing: "Mighty fine service you gave us Saturday night. Thanks."

Dr. J. M. Ballew: "I surely appreciated The Democrat's election extra. Our home paper gave us the news 24 hours ahead of the dailies."

Mrs. Elmer S. Shelley: "I got quite a thrill out of hearing news."

PLAN TO RENEW CONTACT WITH RAIL LINE

Will Request Santa Fe To Build Railroad In Section

A concerted effort will be made to interest the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway to build in this section of the Panhandle, it was announced Tuesday by Lyman E. Robbins, president of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, following the regular monthly board meeting at breakfast Tuesday morning. The action followed on the heels of an announcement by the Texas & Pacific Railway of its intention to seek a permit from the Interstate Commerce Commission to build a north and south line in the western part of the Panhandle from Big Spring to Lubbock and Amarillo.

Will Renew Contact

The chamber's board of directors voted to renew contact with Santa Fe officials at Amarillo and Chicago relative to a proposed line from the vicinity of Canadian through the counties of Hemphill, Gray, Donley, Hall, Motley, Dickens, Kent and Fisher to a point on the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway, probably Sweetwater.

Favor Proposed Line

It is known that Santa Fe officials looked with favor on this proposed line before the company began construction on the Amarillo to Las Animas, Colo., extension. Several high officials of (Continued on page 7)

Era Miller Pinch Hits At Regular Meeting Of Rotary

Era Miller was introduced by J. Henry Read, chairman of the program committee, as a "pinch hitter" at the meeting of the Rotary Club Tuesday at noon, and he more than justified this classification in a short inspirational talk. He took for his subject, "The Faith that Wins," and he impressed upon Rotarians the need for optimism and for mutual helpfulness in the period of depression now sweeping the country.

He stated that conditions as they exist at present will show those who are real men and those who are not. He insisted that people are not victims of circumstance, that they make their own careers and their own futures. Prior to Rev. Miller's talk, Miss Clara Frances Lane gave two enjoyable readings which were appreciated.

MAN WHO SUCCEUMBS IN MANGUM FATHER OF MEMPHIS WOMAN

J. E. Morrow, 69 years of age, father of Mrs. H. H. Lindsey of this city, died at his home in Mangum, Oklahoma, Monday afternoon shortly after six o'clock. He had been ill for some time, but he took a sudden turn for the worse Monday and died in about an hour. He had lived in Mangum for some 15 years, coming to Oklahoma from Arkansas, where he formerly resided.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist church of Mangum Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and interment took place in the Mangum cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey attended the funeral services. Mr. Morrow is survived by his wife, two daughters and six sons, as follows: Mrs. H. H. Lindsey, of Memphis; Miss Hattie Morrow of Oklahoma City; Elbert, Herman, Jim and Frank Morrow of Hollis; Corwin Morrow of Spearman, Texas, and Dick Morrow of Arizona. All of the children were present at the funeral with the exception of the son who resides in Arizona, who was unable to attend. Mr. Morrow is also survived by fourteen grandchildren, most of whom were present with their parents to attend the funeral services.

TO HOLD SERIES OF FAIRS OVER COUNTY SOON

According to an announcement made Tuesday morning by Miss Ruby Adams, County Home Demonstration Agent, plans are being made to carry out the series of community fairs as they had been planned before the Hall County Fair was called off. These fairs will be conducted by the Home Demonstration Clubs in the different communities of the county.

To Call Council Meeting

The winning exhibits were to have been used in the local fair here, but now, according to Miss Adams, they will be used to select an exhibit for the Tri-state Fair at Amarillo and the State Fair at Dallas. In order to select a county exhibit for these fairs, Miss Adams will call a meeting of the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs in the near future to make plans for an Achievement Day exhibit to be held just prior to the Tri-state fair.

In Show Windows

The plans for this Achievement Day, as outlined by Miss Adams, are to have all community exhibits placed in show windows of local business houses, and to have judges pick the winners in these exhibits. There will be no prizes offered to the winners, but the winning products will be gathered into one exhibit that will represent Hall County at the Tri-state and State fairs.

Sterling Carries Six County Boxes

Results of the recent primary elections show that Ross Sterling carried six of the sixteen boxes in the county. It was Memphis that put Sterling over, as Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson emerged from the county boxes, outside of Memphis, with a majority of 166 votes over the Houstonian. Mr. Sterling carried both Memphis boxes by overwhelming majorities, Estelline, Oxbow, Lakeview and Newlin. In the Lakeview box, he got one more vote than did Mrs. Ferguson, the count being Sterling 136, Ferguson 135.

How the Boxes Went

Mrs. Ferguson carried the following boxes: Parnell, Baylor, Lesley, Eli, Turkey, Bridle Bit, Deep Lake, Hulver, Lodge and Brice. Before the election, Ferguson supporters stated that their candidate would carry Turkey by a large majority, probably two to one. As it turned out, Mrs. Ferguson got only 11 more votes than Sterling, the count being Mrs. Ferguson 220, Sterling 209.

Reports Are Confused

The biggest vote for Ferguson, as compared with that for Sterling, was in the Eli box which gave the woman candidate 76 votes and Sterling 18. Sterling beat Mrs. Ferguson in Box 1 Memphis by 255 votes and in Box 13 by 331 votes. Reports in the daily papers had the votes cast in Hall County considerably mixed up for some reason.

LOCAL RAINFALL IS IN AMOUNT 1.15 INCHES

One Farmer Reports 51 Out of His 54 Acres Ruined

The long drouth has been broken in Hall County at last. Rain started falling last Saturday night shortly before midnight and showers continued to come down for several hours. A precipitation of .20 of an inch was reported. Late Sunday afternoon, a severe rain and hail storm descended upon Memphis and sections of the county, accompanied by an electrical display. For a time, some of the residential streets looked like small rivers. John J. McMicken, official weather observer, stated that this rainfall amounted to .95 of an inch, making a total precipitation for the day of 1.15 inches.

A hard downpour of rain was experienced at Turkey and vicinity Saturday night and the rain touched nearly all sections of the county Sunday, however, it is reported that only light showers fell at Newlin and Estelline. The rain came at an opportune time and proved beneficial to the cotton in the territory which was not haled out. A large strip of country was wiped clean by the hail. E. T. Montgomery, who resides near Plaska, reports that he had 54 acres planted in cotton and that the hail ruined 51 acres. Other reports were along similar lines.

CAR DAMAGED WHEN HEAVY TRUCK RUNS INTO IT ON TUESDAY

A Memphis Transit Company truck overturned Tuesday afternoon at the corner of Eighth and Minden streets and did slight damage to an automobile upon which it fell. The truck carried a top heavy load of furniture that pulled it over as it rounded the corner. Spectators stated that the truck was going at the rate of about ten miles an hour, and that only the load was responsible for the accident.

The car that was damaged was a Chevrolet coupe belonging to Mrs. Alma Taenzer. The car was parked in front of the home of W. C. Dickey, and no one was in it at the time of the accident. One fender, a light and the radiator were damaged by the impact of the falling truck. No one was injured in the accident.

SOCIETY and Club

Miss Pauline Ross Is Presented In Piano Recital Tuesday Evening at Local Church

(W. R. C.)

Upon numerous occasions, art has been sacrificed for expediency. I have attended concerts and recitals frequently, when the artist or artists would cater to the eye rather than to the ear, to the outer feelings rather than to the inner emotions. It was, therefore, refreshing to find in Memphis, artistry of so high a type as that demonstrated Tuesday evening last when Mrs. Elmer S. Shelley presented her pupil and assistant, Miss Pauline Ross, in piano recital in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church, assisted by Miss Vernadine Jones, mezzo-soprano.

The program was short and well balanced as it should have been. So many recitals are tiresome affairs because too much is attempted in an evening. Quality should always be considered above quantity. Going to the recital in a mood that would have called for criticism if it had been justified, I came away feeling well repaid for the time I had spent listening to real talent, as exemplified through the medium of the piano and voice.

Miss Ross gave as her first number, "Sonata Pathetique" by Ludwig van Beethoven. The three movements, Grave, Allegro and Adagio Cantabile were excellently fingered. I believe the artist caught the spirit of the immortal Beethoven as she mirrored his moods. The recurring variations of the Adagio Cantabile was especially arresting.

The young artist gave, as her next selections, "Liebestraume" by Franz Liszt and "The Rosary" by Ethelbert Nevin. The first was reminiscent indubitably of The Continent, of Weimar, Rome and Budapest. The lovely melody was interpreted as I can imagine Liszt would have had it, full of feeling, highly colored, the delicate tonal shadings blending into full-throated expression of the soul of a great lover. "The Rosary," as played by Miss Ross, lost nothing of its claim to fame as one of the greatest interpretations of faith ever written.

The concert transcription of "Turkey in the Straw" composed by our own famous Texan, David Guion of Dallas, elicited more applause than any number of the evening. And well it might. It is music that has sprung from the earth. Guion has caught that subtle something that is more than music, more than the echoes of the spheres. He has laid bare a page of rustic life, simple, direct, infectious. I have heard Guion play the selection time and time again and Miss Ross' rendition of it was as the composer would have wished. Music leaped from her fingers and trailed away into the thought world of tuning fiddles, happy couples on a barn floor, with a dance in progress. It is a gala number filled with the stuff of epics and the life blood of humanity.

As a final number, Miss Ross played Clifford Demarest's "Grand Aria" with Mrs. Shelley at the pipe organ. The perfect harmonic tone between piano and organ, the fine way in which the musicians read their scores made this number a memorable one, and one designed to end well such a recital.

Miss Vernadine Jones, assisting artist, was at her best and her best is very good indeed. Her first solo, "Melisande in the Wood" by Alma Goetz, adagio assai, was unusual in its mellowness and fine texture so well suited to the mezzo voice. Her rendition of this number was essentially charming. The other two numbers which Miss Jones sang were equally suited to her voice and temperament. "Pale Moon" by Frederic Knight Logan is a song that brings to mind Indian maidens and their lovers on nights when the world is singing with moonlight and prancing with shadow. "Song of the Open" by Frank La Forge was Miss Jones' best number. The difficult high notes were handled with the consummate skill of one long and well versed in musical education. Clear, unwavering, bell-like, they were a joy to the ear. At times, the song demanded the utmost of the singer, that she be colla piuma gran forza e prestizza, without being boisterously so. Miss Jones' unquestionable talent added much to the success of the recital.

As an accompanist, Mrs. Shelley is superb. She understands perfectly the demands made on singers and she is constantly on the alert to see that the voice is set off to the best advantage. Much credit should go to her for presenting a Memphis audience with two such meritorious musicians as an appreciative audience heard Tuesday evening.

Dorcas Society To Have All Day Meet On September 4th

The Dorcas Society will meet with Mrs. Tom Pullen at 607 North Eleventh street, Thursday, September 4, in the regular all day quarterly meeting. Each member is expected to bring a strip of woolen goods, two and one-half yards long and as wide as convenient made of discarded woolen pants or skirts to use in quilt tops. Visitors are welcome at any and all times to help the women sew or quilt for the unfortunate. The public is urged to send in their castoff clothing and the ones that are not good enough to wear can be utilized in making quilts.

Miss Rogers Is Hostess To Class Of Baptist Church

The "Ready" class of the First Baptist church enjoyed a gay time Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Miss Jackie Rogers, 916 Harrison street.

A profusion of butterflies in delicate pastel shades, artistically arranged, made a charming setting for the large gathering of young ladies.

An inspiring devotional was given by Miss Annie Laurie Carter after which a short business session was held.

Interesting games and contests followed, the lucky contestant being Miss Janice Miller.

The guests were ushered into the dining room where they chose their favorite colored ribbon and following its course drew a surprise from a gaily decorated box. A dainty salad course was served by the hostesses, Misses Jackie Rogers, Una Loard and Marie Barber to Misses Johnnie Carlton, Mabel Godfrey, Abbey O'Neal, Lorena Scott, Nell Hampton, Shirley Hill, Rebecca Sitton, Annie Laurie Carter, Janice Miller, Elizabeth Bryant and Mesdames B. Baldwin, teacher of the class and J. Wirt Rogers.

Business Girls Honor Mrs. Couch On Leaving City

The Business and Professional Woman's Club of Memphis, met Monday night, at 7:30 at the Memphis Hotel. Nineteen members were present. Guests of the club for the evening were: Misses Margaret Milam and Jessie Bates, of Memphis, Miss Elaine Adams of Denton, and Miss Thompson of Childress.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Tess Potter. Between dinner courses Miss Margaret Milam favored the club, with three popular song numbers, "The One I Love Just Can't be Bothered with Me," "I Left Him in Monterey," and "Should I?" Miss Milam played her own accompaniment on the ukelele.

Miss Lillian Guill, chairman of the program committee, in a very appropriate talk, told the purpose of the meeting, which was to bid good-bye to one of the most valued members, Mrs. Erin Couch, who is leaving the city. Miss Guill then presented to Mrs. Couch, the miscellaneous assortment of gifts brought by the club as a token of the regard held by the members for Mrs. Couch.

At train time, the club adjourned to the depot to spend the last few minutes with Mrs. Couch, and wish her a pleasant journey.

The BANK'S Message To LABOR

It is Labor that creates the wealth which passes through the hands of the Bank. It is Labor's loyalty to the nation that gives the Bank its stability. When the Bank flourishes, Labor flourishes.

We Greet Workers

This interdependence of the Bank and Labor has created between them a lasting sympathy; a friendship that is more than commercial, that is truly and deeply human. On Labor Day we greet all Workers and wish them unbounded contentment.

CITIZENS STATE BANK

One Town or Many

Electricity is required at different times for different purposes.

This simple fact explains why a widespread electric system, serving many communities over a wide area, can operate more efficiently than small plants each serving a single community. Serving a larger number of people, with a greater variety of demands, the widespread system keeps its facilities working over more hours of the day.

There is another important advantage of the widespread transmission system over the small plant serving a single community. The transmission system can meet increased demands at once. No delay is necessary for increased facilities, as so frequently is the case with the small plant.

Community growth is thus encouraged and hastened.

The West Texas Utilities Company places at the disposal of 116 prosperous cities, towns and communities in West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity", 100,000 horsepower of electrical energy—generated by three Major Generating Stations and 22 Auxiliary Plants, and distributed over a network of more than 2,500 miles of transmission lines.

Let's Chat Awhile

BY DOROTHY B. ROBBINS

Always in times of stress there comes some unusual offering to the masses. Some big hearts are opened or some big brain produces a gem we love to add to our collection. An optimist is an optimist and editor N. E. Pepper of the Danbury (N. C.) Reporter, famous for brilliance of speech, has given us what is characterized as "A Dry-Point Etching," in Topics of the Times, New York Times. Just read it and enjoy it as I have done, remembering that an editor is one of the apostles who forever points to the land of promise. He cheers the farmer and boosts the merchant; he holds that times may be a little tight, but there will be a loosening soon, even as he tells you on his front page how little things are at the minute. He must report the news, though there is little that appeals to him, but if you want to read his heart, open to the editorial page and you find the thought of him spread before you.

"A Dry-Point Etching" reads as follows: "The sunshine beats down pitilessly, and the thirsty land pants. The days are brass and the nights palpitate with almost tropical heat. Tobacco flops, and the green corn twists; the streams go dry, and the rain crow is silent.

"But don't quit fighting, boys. And don't get fussy or disheartened. God still lives and the cool streams still run out of the everlasting hills. The best crops have been made when the farmers were almost ready to give up. The darkest hour is usually just before the dawn. Don't quit fighting, my lads. Remember when Foch's army was all but destroyed, he telegraphed back, 'I will now begin the offensive.' And the Hun was driven back from Paris and France was saved. When John Paul Jones had nothing left but his deck and indomitable courage, the English called on him to surrender. His answer was, "I have only begun to fight," And he won."

The comment by the big city paper was that perusal of that article should send folks along their way believing the drought would not last always. D-r-o-u-g-h-t is the way the White House spells it, while the Department of Agriculture and the Federal Farm Board have issued reports and bulletins on the drought. There has been reported that a friendly argument pro and con, by Farm Board members and a young man having charge of publicity, took place not long ago with the board victorious in that instance. While drought contains more letters and should be a more formidable word, I favor it because it contains seven and that is a magic number. Let's all spell it that way and break the drought or add a modicum of ability toward cracking the situation, any way.

WHEN THE
CONOCO MAN ASKS
"ETHYL?" say Yes! and you'll say it again

THE next time you drive into a CONOCO station, the man at the pump will ask you a one-word question. "Ethyl?" will be his query.

And in justice to yourself and the car you drive, we urge you to answer, "Yes!"

For Ethyl, added to CONOCO, the gasoline we're proud of, is like seasoning added to food. As seasoning brings out taste and deliciousness, so Ethyl brings out the qualities which have made CONOCO Gasoline famous.

Ethyl stops the knock that makes the foot retreat from the accelerator when you would rather "bear down" harder. Ethyl stops the knock that forces you to shift gears on hills. Ethyl stops the knock that embarrasses you when you let in the clutch in traffic.

So when the CONOCO salesman asks, "Ethyl?" . . . Say, "Yes!" . . . and you'll say it again.

Back Quit Hurting

"I WAS in a very weak condition from a serious sickness," writes Mrs. L. Leonard, of 571 Joseph St., New Orleans, La. "I was so weak, I wanted to sleep all the time. I did not have strength to do anything. My back ached nearly all the time. I was just in misery."

"My mother told me I must arouse myself from the sleepiness, and take something to help get my strength back. She had taken Cardui and had been helped, so I decided to take Cardui, too. After my first bottle, I could see that it was helping me. I took four bottles at this time. My strength came back and I gained weight. Pretty soon, I was my old self again. My back quit hurting, and I haven't had any more trouble since I took Cardui."

Here and There IN SPORTS

BY ADRIAN ODOM

The Cyclone starts practice Monday morning, September 1, and will practice twice daily for the first week. This stiff grind at the first of the season will show which of the players have been training during the summer. Those that have not, will fall behind, and, needless to say, several will turn in their suits.

The team opens the season with Clovis, New Mexico. The Clovis eleven were the state champions of New Mexico last year and bid fair to repeat their climb to the top this season. This game will be a good test of the strength of the local gridsters, and will also start the season with one of its best games. To win this game would add much to the standing of the Cyclone among other teams that it must meet later in the season.

Three teams are picked to lead this division of the district this season. They are Turkey, Clarendon and Shamrock. Hereford, the 1929 district champions, is also as strong as it was last year, and may prove hard to push from the top place again in the coming season. It is impossible to say what the Cyclone will do until the new men that must be used are tried out in their positions.

Turkey has the same team they had last year without a single exception, and their last year's record was perfect. They played ten games without a defeat, and are the strongest contenders for sectional honors this season. Shamrock is next in line for the honors as all of the '29 are again reporting for practice. Clarendon comes third with only three men out and a strong second team to fill these vacancies.

Probably the most interesting game of the season will come on November 11, when the Cyclone meets Estelline on the local field. The new Estelline coach has opened the season there, and already the slogan of that team is "Beat Memphis." This may be possible, but if the Cyclone is in any condition whatsoever, they will "fight to the death" to prevent it.

S. M. U. and T. C. U. will be strong contenders for the Southwestern Conference honors again this season. Both teams announce a hard schedule of games. T. C. U. opens the season with two games in as many days, and has a total of twelve games scheduled. S. M. U. has only ten games scheduled, but will meet Notre Dame, University of Indiana, and the United States Naval Academy.

S. M. U. is doing more than any other Southwestern Conference team to put the conference on a standing with the eastern conferences. These big inter-sectional games are making a name for the school as well as the conference in the east. Other Texas schools will soon follow the example of the Mustangs. These big games are made possible by millionaires and near-millionaires of Dallas.

Football Training Will Start Monday

According to Coach Nolan Walter, Cyclone mentor, football practice will start Monday morning at 7:00 o'clock at the new Cyclone stadium. Uniforms will be issued to all players Saturday afternoon at 2:00 at the school, and, Coach Walter stated, he is anxious that all players report on time so that no time will be lost in getting down to earnest work.

Practice Twice Daily
Starting with the first practice Monday morning, the team will practice twice daily for the first week, and once daily after the first week until their scheduled games start on September 19. About forty men are expected to report for suits Saturday and for practice Monday morning. However, only seven of these will be letter men. This will make it necessary for the coach to build up an almost new team.

Coach Walter is very optimistic about the outcome of the season, but would not make any definite statement. He said, "I do not know much about the team we will have, and do not wish to say anything about it until I have seen the boys work a little, but I am sure that we will be able to work out a good combination."

Nine Games Scheduled
Nine games have been scheduled for the Cyclone this season, and five of them will be played in Memphis. Childress wishes to match a game to be played at Memphis, but no action has been taken to complete arrangements for the game. Thanksgiving day is still open. The Estelline game at Memphis on November 11 is expected to be the most colorful of the season.

Schedule of Cyclone
The Cyclone schedule for the coming season is as follows: Clovis, New Mexico, at Memphis, Sept. 19; Claude at Memphis, Sept. 26; Wellington at Memphis, Oct. 3; Wellington at Memphis, Oct. 10; Memphis at Turkey, Oct. 17; Memphis at Clarendon, Oct. 24; Memphis at Shamrock, Oct. 31; McLean at Memphis, Nov. 6; Estelline at Memphis, Nov. 11.

NO EXHIBIT WILL BE SENT TO DALLAS FAIR

Chamber of Commerce directors, in regular meeting Tuesday morning, voted to send a Hall County agricultural exhibit to the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo this year. On account of general conditions in the county and because of the expense that would be incurred, the board deemed it advisable not to attempt an exhibit at the State Fair of Texas, in Dallas, this fall.

Henry E. Warnecke Claimed By Death

Henry E. Warnecke, of Hedley, 69 years of age, died in a local hospital last Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. He was born December 27, 1861. Mr. Warnecke was married to Miss Nettie E. Vernarmon, April 17, 1884, at Victoria, Texas. Ten children were born to this union, eight of whom are living.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist church in Memphis Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, being conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. T. Miller. Interment took place in Fairview cemetery.

Mr. Warnecke is survived by his wife, five sons and three daughters, as follows: L. R. Warnecke, Lamesa; L. A. Warnecke, Amarillo; E. H. Warnecke, Memphis; Victor and Harlan Warnecke, Hedley, and Mrs. L. L. McQueen, Memphis; Mrs. J. H. McGlocklin, Turkey and Mrs. W. M. Bryant, of Abernathy, Texas. Twenty-eight grandchildren also survive. Present at the funeral besides those listed above were Roland Johnson, a half brother and Mrs. Johnson of Estelline; Mrs. W. A. Wiley, sister of Mrs. H. E. Warnecke and children of Hedley; three son-in-laws and two daughter-in-laws, J. H. McGlocklin of Turkey; W. M. Bryant of Abernathy; L. L. McQueen of Memphis, Mrs. L. A. Warnecke of Amarillo and Mrs. E. H. Warnecke of Memphis.

The deceased was converted some 28 years ago and united with the Missionary Baptist church. His membership was with the Hulver Baptist church at the time of his death. Mr. Warnecke had been a sufferer for the past six months.

EARLY FALL BUYING IS PLEASING TO MERCHANT

"It seemed like old times," said Lee Pope, manager of Hanna-Pope & Co., local dry goods store, in commenting on the business his store received following a full page opening announcement carried in last week's Memphis Democrat.

"Early fall buying really surprised us," Mr. Pope declared, "and convinced us that conditions are not as bad as some people would have us believe. For a while Saturday and Monday we had a rush of customers who wanted to inspect our new fall showings and it reminded us of times not so long past in Hall County."

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Nutrition specialists say eat two vegetables a day not leaving off the old standby, potatoes. Eat fruit every day. Potatoes can be eaten twice a day. There are some who could relish them three times a day. An old lady friend of mine remembers when Irish potatoes were thought to produce rheumatism. Now, they are fed to very young children!

No substitute can take the place of greens and tomatoes. Their mineral richness has long been accepted. The vitamin content of tomatoes has not been found to be affected by canning. I have known babies to prefer canned tomato juice to oranges. For persons not up to the mark as to digestion, tomato juice with crushed ice can be recommended. Always turn the tomatoes out as soon as a can is opened.

THE DEMOCRAT'S PROGRAM FOR 1930

(Check Mark Indicates Project Has Been Realized)

1. Less selfishness and more selflessness in the business, professional and social life of Memphis and Hall County.
2. The placing of agriculture on a higher plane, with emphasis being put on diversification, live at home movement, and the cow, sow and hen route to commitment and general well being.
3. A better understanding between Memphis and the towns and communities in Hall County.
4. More respect for city ordinances in connection with parking of cars in the downtown district, observance of fire rules and regulations, and keeping the streets of the city in a clean condition.
5. More general cooperation in all movements seeking the betterment of Memphis and Hall County.
6. A municipal auditorium.
7. More paved streets.

WILL STERLING RUN IN 1932?

Already the question is being asked, "Will Sterling seek re-election to the office of Governor in 1932?" As was stated in an editorial in a recent issue of The Democrat, we believe the Houston man will be fed up on the governorship by that time, and will step down for some one else. We are equally certain that Jim Ferguson will not seek this office in his wife's name—not in 1932. He may try it again four years from now, but he is much too astute a politician to wage a campaign immediately following the Sterling regime.

The natural question comes to mind then as to the man most likely to be the next Governor if Sterling "does not choose to run" for re-election. Surveying the field of candidates, we believe that either State Senator Walter Woodward, of Coleman, or Clint Small, of Wellington, will carry the banner of West Texas into the next gubernatorial fight. There is much to be said for and against both candidates. Woodward grabbed hold of Sterling's coat-tails and we can imagine that he is taking a large part of the credit for delivering the Clint Small vote to the Houston millionaire. In his address here, Woodward made an excellent campaign speech for himself, and the way his oratory ran pointed indubitably to the fact that he is priming himself as a candidate two years hence. Woodward is a regular Democrat and has remained loyal to the party. He has served in the Legislature with distinction, but he, like Small was before the first primary, is not well known over the state.

On the other hand, there is Clint Small. The Wellington Senator, after announcing that he would not get mixed up in the run-off primary, was practically forced into making several speeches for Sterling. Amon G. Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, laid down the law and there was nothing for Small to do but speak. He has been severely criticized both for not taking a more active interest in Sterling's behalf and because he finally did show some interest in his candidacy. Small has the edge over Woodward. He is better known over the state than Woodward and we believe would make a much more formidable candidate than the Coleman man.

A man who will be heard from again—a staunch regular among the Democrats, a man of ability, experience and talent, is James Young of Kaufman, one of the defeated candidates for Governor in the first primary. We believe Jim Young will seek the office of Governor again, and if he does, he stands a good chance to win. In the elections three years hence, we would like to see Jim Young and Clint Small in the run-off. What a race that would be!

THE COLLEGE URGE

It has been said, and probably authoritatively, that the number of Memphis students who will go away to college this fall will be much smaller than is generally the case, due in part, to the period of business depression with which we are beset and the desire on the part of many students to work a year before entering college. We have always favored the policy of attending higher institutions of learning when the urge was strongest and that is generally immediately after graduation from high school. There are, however, mitigating circumstances, which do not always make such a course feasible.

The Democrat believes that every student owes it to himself to obtain a college education if such is at all possible. We have known of Memphis students who have worked their way through school and have made successes when the odds were against them. The finest success at all is one that does not come easily. College affords the opportunity for expansion and cultural growth so necessary if one is to be well rounded. We do not believe it is essential to have a college degree, but even one or two years of college life, is preferable to no college training at all.

When the days of summer merge into the crisp days of early fall, those who have the urge to attend college and who are compelled for one reason or another to remain at home this year, should not feel discouraged. There is always another day. The thing to do is to make the best of the situation, for those who really intend to get a college training, will do so, no matter how long it takes them or the difficulties which must be overcome to make this course of action possible.

NO WATER SHORTAGE

The announcement made last week by R. D. Stuart, local manager of the Texas Water Utilities Company, that Memphis is not faced by a water shortage and that his company can furnish the city with plenty of water if it is not to get a rain before January 1, is certainly good news. Memphis is in a much better condition in regard to its water supply than many towns in the area which is drouth-stricken.

Not only will Memphis have water and to spare, but we think it is just about as good as can be found anywhere. The best way to realize how fortunate we are in this respect is to go into some of the neighboring towns and test out their water. The difference is at once evident.

The fact that a special rate has been allowed local consumers has done much to keep certain parts of the city looking green and fresh. Patches of green that greet the eyes, here and there over town, are a welcome relief from the brown patches in lawns where water has not been used.

THIS AND THAT

(by L.E.R.)

Maybe you think I'm not in hot water when I am. The little girls of Memphis are just giving me fits. Ever since I took nearly 300 boys to the Palace last Monday the little girls have been accusing me of partiality, unfairness and every thing else.

And it's not only the little girls, either. Hollis Boren, who owns the Palace, jumped all over me last Monday. "What do you mean," he asked me, "by not letting the little girls come to my show, too. Don't you think I like little girls as well as little boys? The very idea! Why, L. E. R., I'm surprised at you!"

So, you see what a pickle I'm in. I like little girls, too, but I didn't want them to get bruised and scratched in a pushing, shoving crowd of boys. I fully intended to treat the girls. Here goes:

FREE MOVIE PARTY

FOR GIRLS UNDER 15
L. E. R. and Hollis Boren want every little girl under 15 years of age to be their guests at the Palace Theatre next Monday afternoon, Sept. 1.

Get your tickets at The Democrat office at 1 p. m. Monday. They are good only for the Monday afternoon matinee.

Now you girls can get even with the boys.

I'm telling you the truth, I never in my life saw as many boys in one bunch as the crowd that stampeded The Democrat last Monday. It took every employee on this paper to keep them from pushing our front doors in. Every known size and variety of boy was on hand for his free ticket. And I'm here to tell you I never saw a finer looking bunch of fellows in my life. Hall County undoubtedly raises the best of everything, including boys.

E. T. Montgomery, one of Hall County's leading farmers, who lives at Plaska, told me I must have ordered a little hail, too, when I advertised for rain. Sunday's hail storm stripped 51 of his 54 acres of cotton, he said. That's mighty hard luck, but one man's misfortune is another's good fortune. Very likely his neighbors' cotton fields are greatly helped by the rain that accompanied the hail.

Which reminds me to remind you that The Democrat ad for rain finally got results. Occasionally our results are a little slow in arriving, but they always arrive. Really, I don't know of any better advertising medium than The Democrat. I'm funny that way.

J. B. Wrenn asked me the other day if the cooler weather had made me change my sleeping habits any. My mother made inquiries in this connection two weeks ago and insisted that to sleep raw is to be "on the fence" in the controversy concerning nocturnal apparel. She insisted that I take sides either with the night shirt or pajama enthusiasts, and act accordingly in order to avoid pneumonia or half a dozen other maladies she warned against, as mothers will.

It seems most of The Democrat's readers are with me in my campaign against unnecessary whistling within the city limits by Fort Worth & Denver trains, both freight and passenger. I am publishing today a letter in this connection from one of my very good elderly friends, who signs herself as "Grannie." Grannie says the whistling disturbs old people at night, who sleep lightly, as a rule, any way. Sick people, too, are annoyed by trains that whistle 12 to 16 times within the city limits.

I am going to write to Denver officials about the matter this week and see if they can't do something about this whistling evil. Maybe I'll have some news for you in this column next week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Alexander and Miss Oma parents and sister of Mrs. Ross Springer, left for their home in San Diego, California, the latter part of the week after an extended visit in Mississippi, Alabama and Memphis, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jet Brumley of Pampa were here Sunday and Monday of this week.

L. E. R.'s Mail

Enjoyed Movie Party
Dear L. E. R.:
I want to thank you for the party you gave us boys at the Palace.

I was happy when you changed the age limit and included nine-year-old boys. I am nine, and several of my little friends enjoyed the party with me.

Your friend,
FRANK PHELAN, JR.
(I'm mighty glad you had a good time, Frank. Maybe we can go again sometime.—L. E. R.)

Wants Whistling Stopped
Dear L. E. R.:

Hurry up, for pity sake, and write, phone or telegraph in to headquarters and have this Fort Worth & Denver Company close up the cut out on these trains what go through Memphis, especially the ones what passes three hear at nite. I am nigh on to caty yeres old and since the rheumatiz has got me so nervous, and more specially since Ma Ferguson was beat, I have the delirium tremors or beer head or something.

I just got one more hope, and the Democrat party what's been fussing and bolting can't occupy the same bed no more, so guess they'll turn a flip (the best of us) and vote for the best man in the next election.

But that's not putting a muffer on those whistles, so dear L. E. R., if you can't get that Denver train to cut out so much demonstration of their blowing ability you just write to Duddy Ross and Sonny Boy Dan and tell 'em while they're building highways, railroads and railroad crossings, if the Denver won't do it why they can do it for them. I mean they can cut out the whistle—little boys like to play with whistles, you know—or pick up the crossings, track and all and move them over on "Goat Island" where they will be centrally located and where they won't disturb a pore rheumatic Christian lady what needs rest like me.

I thank you, L. E. R., I think you are a fine boy.

Lovingly and prayerfully,
GRANNIE.

(You've got the right idea, Grannie, partially at least. We want the loud and unnecessary whistling stopped, all right, but we don't want to lose our one and only railroad to Goat Island or any other island. A lot of the noise those trains are making is quite unnecessary, I believe, and I hope something can be done to get it stopped. The ear-splitting blasts from Denver locomotives is very disturbing, especially when you take into consideration that there are 6 passenger trains and about 8 freight trains through here every day. Personally I think they ought to use a whole lot more bell and a whole lot less whistle.—L. E. R.)

selling 'extra' Sunday morning and I appreciated the convenience of buying a paper right on doorstep.

Claude Wells: "There is no paper in this territory that reads the people as well. It had returns than any other newspaper by several hours."

Frank Fore: "I was awakened Sunday morning by a news-yelling, 'Democrat, Election'." I jumped out of bed and dressed and got a paper. I read all the election news out of it and printed the following day's daily papers."

Highly Commended
 V. Clark: "I think the Democrat should be highly commended for its returns in getting election returns to the people much earlier than the daily papers. The service was highly appreciated. A superb spirit was shown upon the part of the Democrat in featuring the election returns, both in the first and last days."

W. M. Miam: "That was better than anything we had in the past. Only a radio could have given the service given by The Democrat."

Marie Meacham: "I think that the Democrat should be highly commended for its service which was far better than that of any of the big dailies."

Appreciated Service
 John Deaver: "We appreciated the early election service rendered by The Democrat. It was very fine."

J. Bragg: "The Democrat later returns on the election and got to us earlier than any other paper in the state."

Bryan: "I think it is wonderful that we have a paper in Memphis that can and does give the service to the people that The Democrat has done."
 T. Matkin: "The Democrat has given us better service than any other paper could have done. I am proud of the paper and grateful to the staff."

living, answer their questions intelligently, don't hedge, in nine cases out of ten they come over to your way of thinking.

There is a reason for selecting the subject I have this week. On August 8, school starts. Parents and teachers alike will face again an age-old problem. Do not assume the attitude of blaming either parents or teachers for the trouble. It is now up to you to control boys or raise them. For I do not know anything about either the one or the other. I do know that a little patience will work wonders, and that high-handed methods will accomplish practically nothing.

The Hi-Y movement is spreading if it is properly controlled. On the other hand, it can do practically nothing, if it does not function as it should. The reason more boys in Memphis are not in this organization, the reason its meetings have become listless and uninteresting, is due to the fact that the attempt has been made, and with great success, of turning it into an old ladies aid society or something of the kind. Don't take my word for it. Ask the boys.

The boy problem will never be satisfactorily solved in Memphis or any other place until grown-ups come down to earth and bring their ideas with them. I heard Brother Shaw sing a song once entitled, "Give a Man a Horse He can Ride," and the sentiment of this song is applicable here. Give the boys a horse they can ride made up of one-third common sense, one-third fellowship and one-third friendship, and they will surely gallop into the future on a successful steed.

the Santa Fe System personally made a tour of a small portion of the route, from McLean to Memphis about a year ago. They were impressed with the agricultural development of the region and its future possibilities for expansion.

Santa Fe Territory
 Now that the Texas & Pacific is seeking to invade what is decidedly Santa Fe territory, it is the opinion of Col. C. T. Matkin, chairman of the railroad committee of the Chamber of Commerce, that the Santa Fe will also ask permission for the construction of a new line in the Panhandle. Col. Matkin's committee will be granted a hearing with Santa Fe officials at Amarillo within a few days.

Survey Is Prepared

A survey of the route from McLean to Memphis was prepared more than a year ago by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and a copy of the blue print is now in the hands of the railroad companies' engineers, who have declared it to be the logical way to run the line in the event the Santa Fe should decide to construct the extension.

til the bidding was over. However, the only strong contenders were the First National Bank of Childress, who held a mortgage on the fixtures and M. E. Moses, of Quanah, for the stock. The Strickler Stores Company, according to the buying agent, owns three chains of stores that operate throughout Kansas and Missouri, and have opened twenty-nine new stores within the past year. The new acquisition by this company of the seven stores in Texas and Oklahoma is the first invasion of this territory by the Strickler chain. It is expected that the new stores will be in operation within the very near future.

Jump In Price Of Cream Is Forecast

According to an announcement made by L. P. Lane manager of the Gate City Creamery of Memphis, the creamery offered a one cent per pound raise, Wednesday, for cream sold to them by Hall County farmers. Mr. Lane stated that he believed that this was the first of several raises that would be offered for cream, and that the present price of thirty-three cents per pound would be raised to forty cents within the next two weeks. This price, he said, would bring the price of cream back to normal.

The Gate City Creamery is now consuming 1,000 pounds of cream every week, and all of it comes from Hall County farmers.

Mrs. Couch Accepts Position In Llano

Mrs. Erin Jones Couch, who has been employed by The Democrat for the past sixteen months in the capacity of bookkeeper and society editor resigned her position the first of this week and left Monday night for Llano, Texas. Mrs. Couch has accepted a position with a law firm in Llano. She will also get to be with her two little girls, and her father and mother who are living there.

Miss Myrtle Huff, oldest daughter of Thos. B. Huff, has taken the place made vacant by Mrs. Couch's resignation, and Mrs. George L. Tipton has been added to the staff as local reporter. Those who have any local or society items are asked to call either The Democrat office, telephone number 15, or Mrs. George L. Tipton, telephone number 585.

SERVICE BARBER SHOP HAS LOWERED PRICES

The Service Barber Shop, on the east side of the square, has relinquished its union affiliation and announced price reductions in barber work. In the future, shaves will be 20 cents and haircuts 35 cents, according to Leon Randolph, who declared he was taking the step in order to meet existing conditions.

NOTICE TO FARMERS

The banks of Memphis and Lakeview have made arrangements for grass for 500 horses and mules. To date, there have been only about 300 head sent to this grass. Owing to the extreme scarcity, we think it advisable that our people get as much stock out of the county as possible and save our feed for making another crop. We hope all those having surplus stock will call at one of the banks within the next few days and talk the matter over. We figure it will cost from $8 to $10 per head per month to keep the stock at home, and under the plan we now have it will cost less than $3 per month per head on the grass and feed for which we have arranged. See us not later than Monday of next week.

NEWSSTAND IS TO BE OPENED HERE THIS WEEK

A newsstand is being opened here this week with its location between the B. Y. C. Store and Johnson's Barber Shop on the north side of the square by J. H. Treadwell, local agent for the Amarillo News and Globe and the Wichita Falls Record News and Times. Mr. Treadwell expects to carry a full line of daily papers and popular magazines. The stand will also be the headquarters of the Tom Ballew Taxi company.

FIELDS MEAT MARKET IS PURCHASED BY KESTERSON

A. G. Kesterson has purchased the market department of Fields & Son Grocery, according to an announcement made this week. He was formerly engaged with his brother, Will Kesterson in the operation of Kesterson's Market, now the Model Market. Mr. Kesterson says his shop will handle the best baby beef obtainable and will be prepared at all times to furnish dressed chickens, and so forth.

POSTOFFICE BARBER SHOP ANNOUNCES CUT IN PRICE

A reduction in haircuts from 40 cents to 25 cents has been announced by R. G. Patrick, owner of the Postoffice Barber Shop, on North Fifth street. "We are making the reduction because of local business conditions, the short crop and low price of cotton," Mr. Patrick said.

YOUR HOME PAPER attempts to serve Memphis and its territory as a modern newspaper should . . .

The Newspaper That Justifies Its Existence Deserves Your Support

You Can Always Depend on The Democrat to take the lead!

IN MATTERS that concern a newspaper's service to its community, you can always depend on The Democrat to take the lead. The modern newspaper must concern itself with something more than the desire to make money. To insure success, a newspaper must be a servant of the people, just as the Chamber of Commerce, the Retail Merchants Association, the Lions Club, the Rotary Club and other civic organizations are servants. The Democrat is striving to render a constructive, beneficial service that will make its subscribers proud to call it "My Home Paper."

There Is No Substitute for SERVICE

The Democrat's second election party, last Saturday night, and the subsequent issuance of an election extra, providing people of the Memphis trade territory with election figures 24 hours in advance of the large state dailies, is one type of service a worth while newspaper is duty-bound to render. A certain public trust is placed in a community's newspaper, and The Democrat wants to be worthy of that confidence.

FROM THE PEOPLE

Editor Democrat:
Readers of The Democrat, STOP, LOOK, LISTEN, THINK, about what I have to say in this letter. Memphis Chamber of Commerce, ARE YOU doing all you CAN to help the unemployed situation? You are, eh? Well, to begin with, how many of your Dry Goods merchants have at least one married woman employed, whose husband is drawing a salary? That's two nice pay checks going to one family. Is that helping the unemployed? NO! only giving a select few a healthy income.

I know one Dry Goods merchant in Memphis who dismissed two widow ladies, who were the sole support of their little girls, and kept a married woman, whose husband is employed in one of the leading grocery stores. Fine merchant, isn't he? (Something wrong.)
You are not even trying to give the unemployed a chance. Is there a married woman whose husband working employed in the court house? Are the county officials doing their part? Are they giving one person in the unemployed family a chance?

How about the voters of Hall County, are you giving them a chance? You are? Well, how about your electing one of your county officials whose husband is holding a good paying position in the bank? You put the head of a family out of work. There are only three in that family. Surely, the husband could provide well enough and so much better than the man who can find no work and perhaps who is as well qualified for the work as he. That's giving two of the best paying positions of the county to one family—a small one too—and I dare say half of the unemployed voted it that way.

No; I am not a man looking for work. I am not even a resident of Memphis. How did I know all this to be absolutely true? Well, kind reader, go to Memphis and go from store to store, and go to the courthouse and see for yourself how many husbands with their wives, and sometimes one of the children, are drawing salaries. Then the merchants put up a pitiful plea, "Patronize your home

Corpus Christi Lady Glad To Praise Konjola

Ocean Drive in that city. "I bloated terribly after meals and suffered severe belching spells. Constipation was a source of constant worry and I had severe pains in my abdomen after meals. I was unable to sleep at night.

"I have taken Konjola but a week and can say that every ache and pain in my body is gone. I can now rest well at night and eat what I wish without any of my former miseries. I have never used a medicine like Konjola and although I am 68 years of age I can do plenty of work. I am more than glad to pass my praise for this medicine on to others."

This is not an exceptional case. Konjola does work quickly and none the less thoroughly. It is best in most cases to continue the treatment over a period of from six to eight weeks.
Konjola is sold in Memphis, Texas, at Leverett-Williams Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

merchant." BOSH! I say give me the mail order house or any other rather than patronize merchants who are so selfish and without sympathy, or as the world says, cold hearted. They are a personification of the old adage, "Me and my wife and my son John and his wife. Let the rest of the world go." But just let business slump a little and listen to THEM HOWL.

UNDER the non-skid tread of these famous Firestone Tires is a double breaker of two plies of cord fabric anchored in cushion rubber. This special construction absorbs road shocks—protects against punctures and blowouts—provides the foundation for the thick, tough tread with deeper grooves—giving longer non-skid wear.

OTHER makes of tires have only a single breaker of old-fashioned square woven fabric which Firestone discarded when they developed the balloon tire. Some makes do not have any breaker at all. The Firestone Tire is set apart as an "All Cord Tire".

Officers For Year Are Installed By Baptist Society

Monday was exceptionally interesting for the Baptist W. M. S. as it marked the beginning of the year's work for 1930-31, when the installation of officers for the new year was held in the double parlors of the Baptist Educational building Monday afternoon at four o'clock.

As a pleasing prelude to the ceremonies, Mesdames Roy Leverett and D. L. C. Kinard sang a beautiful duet, with Mrs. Margaret Morgan-Andrews at the piano. Then in a few well chosen words, Mrs. Scott Sigler presented the retiring president, Mrs. J. Henderson Smith with a lovely message on behalf of the W. M. S. Mrs. Smith graciously accepted the token of appreciation from the W. M. S. for her splendid service during her two years administration, after which Mrs. Lewis prefaced the program with an intensely interesting talk on present and past conditions of the times.

After the installation ceremonies, the meeting was closed with song and prayer, Mrs. George Thompson giving the prayer.

Haircut 25c

Effective at once, we are reducing the price of haircuts to 25 cents. We are not attempting to wage a barber fight, we are simply cutting our prices to rock-bottom in keeping with present conditions.

Farmers faced with a bad season—short cotton crop and low price—will find it to their advantage to trade here.

Others, as well, can effect considerable savings in the course of time.
