The prosecution has indicated that the military tribunal trying her and five Polish men may give its verdict the same day. ### Students Attend Business, Professional Women Make Performance Of "La Traviata"

An air of casualness not usually associated with grand opera prevailed when the United Artists presented Giuseppe Verdi's "La Traviata" Tuesday afternoon at the city auditorium in a matinee performance for youth only.

The opera was based on the well known story of "Camille," and told the story of a pair of lovers, Alfred Germont and Violetta Valery, who were forced apart. The opera concluded when the lovers were reunited, only to be separated again when Violetta died Particularly well-receiver was the drinking song in the first act, with its well-known waltz, known familiarly as "The Drinking Song." Local high school students were used in the first scene, which was that of a formal party, and included Synelle Sullivan, R. E. Mc-Clure, Ronnie Johnson, Lex James, Frances Bigony, Mary Alice Dor-sey, Donald Webb, Rosalyn Beale and Henry Thames. McClure reappeared in the third act as the

A judge down in McCulloch county has some up with his version of a solution. When a DWI defendant appeared before him, he promptly slapped on a $500 fine and a year's sojourn in jail. No doubt this had a sobering affect.

While it is doubtful that all cases would this increasingly commonplace offense may on the tendency to drink and drive.

Our own community is not the only spot serve as a notice in his area that drunken driving will not be dealt with lightly.

Some fines have been increased here, but a day of supposedly easy money, is not severe enough. Certainly each case should be dealt with on its own merits and judgment reached on that basis. But we believe public sentiment will support harsher punishment for the offense. But regardless of what judgment is, officers are contributing one of the most substantial deterrents in merit such drastic action, the disposition of difigently filing on DWI cases. The certainty a jurist to mete out stiffer punishment for of getting caught might throw cold water

Lewis At Least Has Foot In Door

John L. Lewis has put out a feeler for mine. Lewis didn't stand on too solid ground more pay and fewer hours for his soft coal on that point, at least not in the accepted miners.

He reportedly proposes a 25-cent per hour wage increase and a shorter work week. Currently the miners get $1.181/2 cents per hour for the first 35 hours per week. Thus, Lewis is asking for about a 20 per cent hike.

Previously, he was reported to have indicated the basis for demanding re-opening of negotiations was that the government had breeched its contract by making the five cents per ton payment to the miner's health and welfare fund on the basis of washed coal rather than that which came from the prices is something else again.

handling of royalties. To pay the royalty on coal as it came from the mine would be like paying royalty on salt water and other fluid as it came from a well with oil. So, having used this (and the approaching election) as a wedge for an opening, Lewis may make a frontal attack for higher wages on the grounds that living costs have gone up. He could make out a good case on Historical Tidbits 25-cents per hour hike would not have to be reflected, in part at least, in higher coal

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 6. UP-It is an accepted axiom of football that it takes a good quar- village football addicts > terback to make the "T" formation elick. It also is a well-known fact that football players sometimes get hurt.

Therefore it was a matter of considerable interest when Earl Red Blaik, Army coach, observed yesterday that if Arnold Tucker were lost it would hurt his team nore than it would hurt Notre Dame to lose Johnny Lujack. When these two teams clash at Yankee Stadium before 76,000 spectators, it will be a meeting of two top "T" formation quarterbacks as well as a contest between the nation's two top-ranking teams. Since Blaik installed the "T' at West Point in 1943, Army has been singularly fortunate in having good quarterbacks, both as passers and ball handlers. First it was Tom Lombardo: in 1944 Lomhardo and the brilliant but fragile Doug Kenna alternated under the two-team system and last year Tucker took over to pace the cadets to their second national championship.

If Tucker, who suffered a shoulder separation early this season, should be hurt Saturday, Blaik would really feel the pinch of an already acute backfield shortage. Bill Gustafson, who did an adequate job of running the team during the Floridian's earlier absence, is the No. 1 replacement at two positions. He also is scheduled to replace All-America Glenn Davis if Glenn doesn't play the full 60 minutes.

Gustafson, originally a halfback, was converted to quarter this season and he doesn't measure up to the Lombardo-Kenna-Tucker standard either at concealing his handoffs or at passing. If both Tucker and Davis should be forced out, an eventuality which makes Blaik adder when it is mentioned, the only alternative would be to put Arnold Galiffa, a 19-year-old lebe, at guarter and Gustafson at left half. Galiffa is rated as highly nising by the Army coaches promising by the Army but he hasn't arrived yet.

Unit went forward with preparations for observance of Poppy Day here Saturday. "Amid the desolation of the battlefront in the first world war," said Mrs. Brooks, "the poppies were the one touch of nature's beauty that survived. The little red flowers grew along the trenches and shell holes, and over the raw earth of the battle graves. In the minds of the men fighting there, the poppies became associated with their dead comrades.

"Expression was given to this sentiment by Colonel John Mc-Crae, Canadian medical officer, in his immortal poem, with its lines: "In Flanders field the popies blow.

Between the crosses row on row -

"Replicas of Flanders fields popwere first worn in America in r of the war dead in 1918, and the wearing of these flowers on the Saturday before Memorial Day soon became a nation-wide custom. The poppy is also the memorial flower of Great Britian and is worn throughout the Brit ish Empire on Armistice Day. "When the second world war began claiming American lives, the poppy, quite naturally, became the symbol of these added sacrifices for the nation." -Give To Community Fund-

Forces of Attraction Hold the Moon"Up" in the Sky....and

THE moon isn't really "up" in the sky, but it is held from flying off into space by gravitational attraction between it and the earth.

Through tireless explorations in realms of molecular attraction, Conoco chemists have been able to bring America the benefits of new and better oils. In fact, by employing the force of molecular attraction they are able to bond a special ingredient in Conoco Nth motor oil to working surfaces of your engine. So strong is this attraction that cylinder walls and other parts are OIL-PLATED.

And because molecular attraction holds Conoco OIL-PLATING up where it belongs ... prevents it from all draining down to the crankcase, even overnight . . . you get these benefits:

added protection during the vital periods when you first start your engine added protection from corrosive action when your engine is not in use added protection from wear that leads to fouling sludge and carbon added smooth, silent miles

That's why you'd be safer to OIL-PLATE your engine now . . . at Your Conoco Mileage Merchant's. Look for the red triangle. Continental Oil Company
